Chapter 121 Finally!

"I am talking about you!

"What are you looking at!"

Karen Adams suddenly exploded in rage due to her bad temper, "Do I have to make it clear for you?"

"Fine! I am talking about you, Emilia. Move aside! Can't you see that there's a long line behind?!"

In fact, she only got close to Mary Grimm back then because she wanted to seek a wife for her young son.

Although Emilia had a marriage before this and even bore a daughter, the Adams weren't a wealthy family either. Would there be any decent woman out there who would be willing to suffer with her son?

However, she didn't think that Emilia would be thick-skinned enough to reject her!

This was something that pissed her off!

Karen Adams never thought of the fact that it was Emilia's choice to choose who she wanted to marry.

The rejection had nothing to do with Emilia being thick-skinned.

Plus, there was a man whom Emilia still kept deep inside her heart. It was the man whom she could never forget.

Facing such harsh words along with how everyone was staring at her, Emilia frowned and said, "Well, you should at least wait for your turn, shouldn't you?"

"You're here to check on something, so can I. Why are you chasing me out of here?"

This might be the Military Department, but it wasn't part of the military. It was just a place where the army could communicate with the local government.

Although they were all wearing uniforms, most of them were just officers. None of them were really soldiers. Otherwise, how dare Karen Adams make such a huge scene here?

"Huh?!"

"How dare you speak to me in such a manner?"

"Emilia, you've really grown some balls!"

"Is there anyone in your family who has joined the army?"

"Is this the place that you should be at?"

Karen Adams had managed to express the best qualities of a 'Karen'. She was spewing out words like a machine gun and wouldn't stop. "You're angry, huh?"

"Well, let's talk about it then. Your father is a gambling addict who has a mistress. He only knows how to party until his death!"

"When did he join the army?!"

"Your mother is an old, wounded woman. She would fall with the push of the wind. She wouldn't even pass the physical test!"

Since Karen wanted something else from Emilia, she had done her research about the entire family. Karen Adams knew that family from head to toe.

Due to the trust that Mary Grimm had in her, Mary Grimm told her everything without any caution and even took Karen Adams as someone she could spill her heart to.

In the end, those words became a weapon for Karen Adams!

"You....!"

Emilia looked pissed, but she was raised as an elegant lady. She had been educated since young, and she couldn't stoop low enough to talk to such a ruthless woman!

However, with so many people staring at her, she felt mad as well. Then, she quickly said, "I am here to check on my husband's records!"

Oliver Walker must have been a soldier!

She was the one who sent him off on the train! How could that be fake?!

Plus, Oliver Walker had only returned because he got injured. The Military Department would definitely have his files!

This was important proof that Oliver Walker had not lied to her, and this was why she had to be here today.

"Huh?!"

Karen Adams smirked as she said, "The man who abandoned you and couldn't survive out there? The useless bastard who is running home to you?"

"If I have to say, a man who lived a life like him should be embarrassed!

"Well, a sl*t like you should be a match for bastards like him. You would only deserve a man like him!"

Sl*t!

Again?!

She had not been called in this manner for a long time, but ever since Oliver Walker returned, she had been hearing it repeatedly for the past 4 days.

She was enraged as she stood up. "Enough!"

Pissed?

Of course, she was!

Even if she was well-mannered, how could she allow another woman to slander her in this manner?

Karen Adams was only doing so to spite her! She even chose such a vicious way to do so!

Emilia felt as if her head was about to burst!

Everyone present could feel that Emilia, who has been mild-tempered, was about to explode out of rage.

However, with Karen Adam's temper, she exploded as well, "What's wrong?!"

"Are you going to hit me?"

"Come on then!"

"I'm telling you now that my son is a hero! He has been accorded the second grade honor! I am the mother of a hero!"

"Don't you dare lay your hands on me!"

Chapter 122 Leave Her Alone!

The atmosphere suddenly froze!

Everyone knew how difficult it was to get a medal!

Even though it was only a second-grade honor, but ...

He achieved it by exchanging it for his life!

"Big sister, your son is amazing!"

"Exactly! My son has been on the frontline for more than four years and has not gotten a single medal!"

"Second Class honor! How incredible!"

"..."

The silent crowd burst out with envious voices.

Who wouldn't want to be the parents of a hero?

It can only be described that everyone present was envious.

However, it was something incredibly difficult to get a Merit Medal. How could everyone have one?

Emilia took a step back and leaned against the window. She knew that if she said anything more, she would be drowned in spittle.

From what these women were saying, it was already extremely difficult to get a second-class honour.

The honorary medal that Oliver Walker had given Olivia, was it ...?

All fake?

When she came to this conclusion, she was simply disheartened. It was worse than being called a sl*t!

All because that man had lied to her!

As for Karen Adams, who was being worshipped by everyone, she took a step forward proudly and said, "Hmph!"

"Back then, when you hired a matchmaker so that you could marry my son, why didn't you take a piss and look at your own reflection? You're just a sl*t. How can you be worthy of marrying into the family of a hero?"

"Pfft ... Who the hell do you think you are?!"

Karen Adams's ability to turn lies into something true was incredibly strong. She was the mother of a hero and most people would believe whatever she said!

Sure enough, in the next moment, the people in the room who had not participated in the battle earlier began to reprimand Emilia.

"Emilia, you jinx! You should at least have some self-awareness, right? "

"You're too shameless!"

"I think she's like a pheasant trying to climb up the branch to become a Phoenix!"

"..."

Those words were like a huge bomb that completely exploded in Emilia's heart that has already been sealed shut. It set off a huge storm!

She bit her red lips tightly. Her pretty face was full of shame and anger!

She had experienced all the coldness and warmth of the world and understood that no one would believe her no matter what she said!

She would only be asking for more trouble if she stayed any longer.

Then, she lowered her head and was prepared to leave with tears of grievance!

"Hurry up and get lost!"

"Tuck your fox tail between your legs. Don't let anyone smell the foul smell that you left on your body when you were a slut!"

The smile on Karen Adams's face was filled with mockery.

Back then, she was the one who found someone to matchmake but Emilia rejected her so this is what Emilia deserved!

Now that her eldest son had made a contribution to the country, it would naturally be easier for her youngest son to get married. This was why she wanted the whole world to know about it!

"That's right!"

"She..... Is she fit to be married into a hero's family?"

"Pfft ... A slut who doesn't keep her chastity!"

"..."

For a moment, all kinds of curses and humiliating words were blurted out.

As for Emilia, she could only lower her head and let her long hair cover the tears that were rolling down her cheeks!

There was nothing that she could say!

"Hold on!"

Suddenly, a supervisor walked in. He was the person in charge of the Military Department. His name was Andy Cooper!

When his men checked Oliver Walker's file and found out that it was classified as SSS confidential, they quickly reported it to him. He didn't dare to waste any time and rushed to the lobby from his office.

That was the top secret of the army!

The voice caused Emilia's body to turn to stone but she didn't dare to turn her head, nor did she dare to speak. She was afraid of being condemned in the humiliating words of others.

Her heart went all the way up to her throat.

Could it be ...

None of them were willing to leave her alone.

Chapter 123 They're Real?

At the same time, Karen Adams walked up in a flattering manner and deliberately raised her voice to shout, "Oh ... Mr. Cooper!"

"My son only achieved a second-class honour but it's not something that would have alarmed you, right?"

Andy Cooper?

He was the person in charge of the armed forces!

He had two bars and four stars on his badge. This man was no joke.

This military rank alone could not be exchanged for a second-class honour.

"This is incredible!"

"I didn't expect the son of the Adams family to be so successful!"

"What a great honour this is!"

"..."

All of them had envious looks on their faces.

It was simply a blessing that such a high-ranking officer had personally come all the way here to welcome her.

When Karen Adams heard the praises around her, she felt smug. She couldn't help but glare at Emilia.

However, the next moment, Andy Cooper said, "I'm not looking for you. Please move aside and don't take up the passageway!"

His words were still considered polite.

It didn't even sound rude!

But... Karen Adams, who was standing in the middle of the passageway, ready to shake hands with Andy Cooper, ended up being embarrassed as she was blocking Andy Cooper instead.

That kind of embarrassment made her face turn red.

Especially in front of so many people, this ...

It was quite embarrassing!

"Ah ..."

"Alright, alright ..."

Karen Adams forced out a smile and pretended to be calm but she wanted to find a mouse hole to hide in and never come out again.

After Karen Adams made way for him, Andy Cooper walked up and asked carefully, "Ms. Davis, you must be Mr. Oliver Walker's wife, right?"

If someone hadn't come to check the files, he wouldn't have known that there was such a hero in Colorado.

A second-class honour was already one in ten thousand!

Moreover, the glory that Oliver Walker had won could be made into a TV series. It was no exaggeration to say that he was a legend.

Emilia had no idea of what Oliver Walker had achieved. Instead, she answered in fear with her head looking at the floor, "Yes, I am."

Her voice was extremely soft!

She had had enough of being ridiculed and knew that the medals in her pocket were almost impossible to be real.

That was why she was afraid that the other party was here to cause trouble!

"Ms. Davis, if I may be so presumptuous as to ask you one more question. Mr Walker..."

Andy Cooper said nervously, "Has he received many medals?"

As soon as he said that, the hearts of Karen Adams and the many onlookers in the room suddenly twitched!

Could it be that Emily's husband had received a number of medals?

Karen Adams was one of them that felt most nervous.

Her son had only achieved one second-class honour medal and it had caused so many people to be envious of her.

But....Andy Cooper used the word 'many'.

How many would that be?

The entire venue turned quiet!

Emilia immediately rejected him completely subconsciously. "No, he didn't...Not a single one!"

She didn't want to see anyone else roll their eyes at her!

She felt hopeless!

That man must have been a runaway soldier!

"Mr. Cooper, have you mistaken her for me?"

Karen Adams heaved a sigh of relief. In order to make her presence known, she quickly said, "It's my son. He was the one who was awarded a medal."

"Her husband is a famous gigolo. All of us know that....."

Andy Cooper glared at her with a murderous look. "I'm warning you one last time, don't interfere with my official duties!"

"Otherwise ... You'll have to bear the consequences!"

It was impossible to fake a file!

Plus, to have his files classified as SSS confidential, he must have been a hero amongst other heroes!

As a veteran who had been on the battlefield, he knew that it was harder to get these medals than he had imagined.

Therefore, when he heard Karen Adams defaming Oliver Walker again, he was extremely furious.

Karen Adams was so frightened that her face turned pale. She quickly swallowed all of the words that were in her mouth.

She quickly retreated into the crowd and didn't even dare to raise her head.

Immediately after, Andy Cooper took another step forward and said with a sincere expression, "Ms. Davis, please tell us the truth so that the local department can make the appropriate arrangements."

"We can't let the efforts of the heroes who fought in the frontline be buried!"

Emilia was confused.

Could it be that the medals in her pocket were all real?

Looking at Andy Cooper's appearance, he didn't seem to be looking for trouble. Then, Emilia took out five bright military medals and frowned. "You mean to say, these ..."

"Are all real?"

To be honest, even she herself could not believe it.

Chapter 124 They Must Be Fake!

But now, the tables have turned!

"This is anhonorary medal!

"Three first-grade honors and two second-grade honors?"

"This"

"..."

The crowd went wild!

It was extremely difficult to obtain merely a second-grade honor. Most of the first-grade honors were soldiers who had sacrificed their lives and made great contributions to the country.

This...

All of a sudden, this man had obtained three first-grade honors and he was still alive!

Wasn't he a god?!

The corner of Andy Cooper's mouth twitched. His hands trembled as he took the medal but he suddenly choked.

He was also a veteran who had been on the battlefield!

He only got a second-grade honour. This ...

When he saw five of them, he was so excited that he couldn't speak.

"I....." Emily added. "I have more at home, these are.....just the ones that I took."

Her daughter had given her more than a dozen medals but she couldn't carry all of them with her, so

She just randomly took five of them.

However, she was extremely nervous now. She was eager to know if these medals were real or fake.

After all, it was unbelievable!

She also wanted to know if Oliver Walker had been lying to her!

However, when he said this, the crowd exploded once again!

"Oliver Walker? Who's that?"

"All these medals! No one would be able to stay alive after getting all these!"

"Exactly!"

"..."

The whole crowd went wild!

There was an uproar!

There was more at home?

How many more were there?

An ordinary person would be able to bring honor to their ancestors if they were awarded one medal in the military.

After all, this was an era of war!

But, Oliver Walker?

All of a sudden, he had achieved all these! It was just....absurd and unimaginable!

At the same time, Andy Cooper's heart skipped a beat.

His eyes were glowing with a bright light!

"Fake!"

"It's definitely fake!

Karen Adams shouted unwillingly, "Her husband is known for being a good-for-nothing, how could he have received such glory?"

"Mr. Cooper, you have to investigate this carefully!"

"This is a serious crime, we can't let him off so easily!"

As soon as these words came out of her mouth, many of them responded the same way as well.

It only truth was that all these medals were fake!

After all, just these three first-grade honors were enough to make Oliver Walker's reputation resound throughout the great land and yet, Emily said that there were still many at home.

Even if you're lying to a ghost, you shouldn't lie like this!

"If she really forged the medal, she'll be thrown into jail!"

"She should at least be in prison for 10 years!"

"I think this kind of person should be caught and shot!"

"He actually dared to impersonate a national hero!"

"..."

The scene turned into a night market as everyone started shouting at the top of their lungs.

Everyone worshiped heroes.

Cutting these men, who tried to impersonate heroes from the battlefield, wouldn't be enough!

Faced with all the criticism, Emilia took a step back in despair. She shouldn't have been so impulsive, she clearly knew that ...

This was impossible!

It was a pity that she still had a glimmer of hope for that man.

This was why things had turned out this way!

Those hurtful words had torn her heart apart!

However, as she thought about it, she had been ridiculed all the time for the past 8 years.

Would this make any difference?

Then, she mocked herself and didn't care about what the others were saying.

Bakk --

However, just as everyone was ridiculing and Emilia was disheartened, Andy Cooper suddenly stood upright and saluted with a solemn expression, "We pay our respects to you!"

Chapter 125 125: He Is Still Single

With the appearance of the military salute, the civilian officers in the stall also stood up one after another!

The atmosphere at the scene was extremely solemn!

The crowd that was incredibly noisy before instantly quieted down!

All of their eyes were about to pop out of its socket!

Who was Andy Cooper?

He was the supervisor of the Military Department and he was the person in charge here!

What a great honour it was for him to be leading the salute!

This also proved that the medals were real!

Who was the one who felt most uncomfortable?

It must be Karen Adams, who had gone all out and spewed out a mouthful of fire just now. It caused her face to be burning in pain as if she had been slapped!

That kind of feeling ...

She couldn't find any words to describe it!

She didn't want to stay here any longer but she couldn't leave as well!

Emilia's expression froze and she asked in disbelief, "This ... Is this all true?"

She thought that Oliver Walker was a runaway soldier.

However, out of love and so that her daughter could have a complete family, she decided to give him another chance.

"Of course they are!"

Andy Cooper's eyes were shimmering as he quickly asked, "May I have a word with you, Ms. Davis?"

After all, the files on Oliver Walker were confidential so they could not be discussed in public.

However, the salute was to show his respect.

Secondly, it was to warn the gossip, Karen Adams, that it was time to shut up and not humiliate the wife of a respected soldier.

In fact, he had achieved his goal!

Who would dare to say anything?

"Of course."

Emilia's emotions had been like a roller coaster ride, fluctuating up and down even now.

She also had a lot of doubts and wanted to get confirmation. To be able to talk in private was definitely something that she would like!

"Ms. Davis, please come in!"

With Andy Cooper leading the way, Emily arrived at the office.

She could not remember how many years it had been since she had received such respect.

Andy Cooper was being enthusiastic. He even served her tea personally which made her feel uncomfortable.

However, she was a lady from a wealthy family after all. She had also been working in the business world and so she did not lose her manners.

"Thank you!

"Actually, I came here to check on my husband's records!

"Why is it that the other families would receive subsidies and consolation money every year, but not ours?"

In fact, she didn't care about the money. She just wanted to know what happened to Oliver!

If their family had received the subsidy, then neither she nor her mother would doubt Oliver Walker's military identity.

Moreover, after they got married, she had never denied their marriage.

Therefore, there was no doubt that she was from the family of a soldier!

This information was of great importance to her!

"Ms. Davis!

"According to the file, Oliver Walker is still single." Andy Cooper frowned.

"Are you sure you're married to him?"

As soon as he said that, Emilia's body stiffened as if she had been struck by lightning!

She even had his child!

The wedding was held the day before her husband joined the Army. How could it be fake?

After seeing the change in Emily's expression, Andy Cooper quickly explained, "I mean, is your marriage protected by the law?"

"If you only had a wedding ceremony but have not registered for it, this would be something common.

"In our records, he is an orphan who is still single. So..."

Although Andy Cooper wasn't a local, he had worked in Colorado for a few years and naturally knew about the story of Emily and Oliver Walker.

However, a marriage in reality was different from a marriage in law!

Chapter 126 A Hero!

This explanation also made Emily come to a sudden realization. She shook her head as she blushed and said, "Back then, we didn't even have time to register the marriage and he left."

In fact, they were prepared to get a marriage certificate.

But at that time, she was still the CEO of the Davis Corporates. She was busy with work and had forgotten about it.

As a result, when Oliver Walker left, he did not get a marriage certificate.

However, this explanation also answered all of her doubts! Why wouldn't she be overjoyed?!

At least, Oliver Walker did not lie to her!

"That's it!"

Andy Cooper laughed. "What other doubts do you have, Ms. Davis? "

If they had a marriage certificate but hadn't given his family any subsidy, it would be Andy Cooper's dereliction of duty.

This was no small matter!

"I want to know about his history in the army!"

Emilia frowned as she said, "This is very important to me!"

Many of the misunderstandings had been resolved but she still wanted to see what Oliver Walker had been doing all these years!

"Ms. Davis, this is also the reason why I asked you to come!"

"I only have Mr. Oliver Walker's first-year resume. I don't know anything about the other seven years!"

"This is because of his special identity. His files are classified as SSS confidential and with my authorities, I can only know so much!"

"But, there's no doubt that he's a hero. He's unparalleled!"

"After a year of service, he was awarded special merit once, first-grade honors three times, second-grade honors, and third-grade honors for a total of 28 times!"

"This is one of a kind in the entire world's military!"

At this point, Andy Cooper's eyes were full of admiration!

How was this a resume?

He was simply a legend in the military world!

If his assumptions were right, in the last seven years, Oliver Walker had worked himself to the rank where his identity had to be kept confidential which was why Andy Cooper couldn't read his files!

Emilia's mood instantly tensed up again. "Then, could he be a runaway soldier?"

The files cannot be written!

She still didn't find anything!

She could feel something inside her throat!

"That would be impossible. If he was a runaway soldier, he would have been captured by now."

Andy Cooper said firmly, "Besides, how could such a hero be a runaway soldier?!"

"I can only say that I don't have the authority to check his files.

"Something must have happened for him to come back early. He must have gotten permission from the military.

"Plus, his name didn't appear on the list for the runaway soldiers!"

After hearing this, Amelia felt completely relieved even when she didn't know much about the truth. She then said in a low voice, "He did mention that he was injured and had returned to recuperate!"

Andy Cooper stood up in an instant and said emotionally, "Ms. Davis, I would like to meet the hero and express my gratitude to him!

"If it wasn't because of them who fought for us in Indiana, we wouldn't have been able to live in peace!

"We weren't born in a peaceful era but we have a peaceful life because someone else is carrying our burden!"

When the war in Indiana broke out, he was transferred to another place due to his age. So, he lost the opportunity to fight the battles on the frontline!

But, even in his dreams, he was still in the war-torn state of Indiana!

"This..."

Emilia started to worry. Oliver Walker, who has been misunderstood, was only willing to stay behind because of their daughter, right?

He must be mad at her!

Would he be even angrier if she brought someone else into the house?

"Ms. Davis, please agree to this!"

"For the sake of a veteran, please allow me to meet this legendary hero!"

Andy Cooper rolled up his sleeves, revealing three bullet scars. He said agitatedly, "I've been on the battlefield before. These scars are my glory!"

"Ever since the war in Indiana broke out, the status of our soldiers leaped and we have received much better treatment.

"But, I don't feel happy at all because I can no longer accompany my brothers on the battlefield and continue to charge forward!"

"Such a peerless hero has returned to Colorado! We should give him a grand reception and not disappoint the soldiers who have returned from the frontlines!"

Chapter 127 She Was Proud Of Her Husband!

When he spoke of his feelings, Andy Cooper burst into tears.

There was a reason that he wanted to meet Oliver Walker. After all, he was the person in charge of the Military Department and it was his duty.

Secondly, as a soldier, he also worshipped a Soldier King who was fighting on the front line and also someone who has such a legendary resume.

Andy Cooper knew very well that it was very difficult to survive on the battlefield.

Those who could obtain a medal were definitely at the level of a Soldier King.

As for people like Oliver Walker, who had returned with glory but was injured, they were even more respected.

"Of course!"

It was impossible for Emilia to refuse this request. Furthermore, this was to prove her husband's identity and shut up Karen Adams and the others.

To be honest, she was excited.

However, she was also worried. Oliver Walker was so outstanding but she had misunderstood him for so long. Would he be angry with her and not forgive her?

"Ms. Davis, please wait a moment!"

"We should be welcoming heroes in the right manner."

"I'll get ready," Andy Cooper said excitedly.

It must be of a high standard!

After all, this was not only for Oliver Walker's personal glory. It was also the glory of Colorado and the glory of the their soldiers!

If it was done simply, not only would they be looking down on Oliver Walker. He would also be denying all the soldiers who had shed their blood for the country!

Emily didn't say anything but when she arrived at the door after being notified by Andy Cooper, she was shocked to see a total of ten military vehicles with military plates!

This ...

She was proud of her husband!

And as a hero, he should indeed be treated with respect!

...

At this moment, on Pearl Street!

"Mary Grimm, what's wrong with you?"

"How do you clean the road?"

"There's so much rubbish here. Do you know how bad it is to the city's appearance? "

Just as Mary Grimm was busy sweeping the road, an angry roar came from the walkie-talkie hanging on her waist, "If you can't do it well, I think you should quit. Go home early, lie in bed, and continue dreaming to be the young mistress of Davis!"

"Don't try to trick me!"

Mary Grimm frowned and timidly said, "Sir, I ... I've already checked it twice!"

She couldn't lose this job. After all, Emilia has already been fired from the club.

She was the only one left in the family with a salary!

Although she was tired, she still treated her job seriously. She swept every inch of the road carefully.

She was afraid that such a situation would happen!

"You've cleaned it?"

"Do you take me for a blind person?"

"If I don't pass the inspection, I will be the one who gets punished first!"

The voice coming from the walkie-talkie shouted again, "Turn around and take a good look at how much trash there is!"

"Don't say that I wasn't looking out for you because no one above me will take the fall for me!"

"I'll give you one last chance. Go back and clean it again. If you fail, don't blame me for being merciless!"

The angry roar from the walkie-talkie made Mary Grimm feel wronged, but she didn't dare to say anything. She could only push the broken tricycle so that she could clean the streets once again.

However, when she saw that the road had just been cleared not long ago, and was now covered with all kinds of rancid garbage scattered on the ground, she felt shocked!

She was in charge of the street which was about ten miles long. Every morning, she would sweep the street from the beginning to the end and she could only get off work after she was done.

Time was of the essence and she didn't even have the time to catch her breath.

It was ten in the morning and the sun was scorching. Her clothes were already soaked in sweat as it baked the road.

It was just that she didn't dare to lose her temper or rather, after so many years, she had long lost her temper.

Therefore, she endured her grievances and began to clean from the beginning. She was afraid that she might not be able to get off work even at midnight!

Inside the Toyota that was parked on the side of the road!

"Mr. Johnson!"

"Do you want to go and find trouble with that old thing now?" Mike White grinned.

Chapter 128 Supervisor Of This Sanitation Department

George Johnson was the one who ordered his men to get this garbage from the garbage transfer station and had them scattered all over the ground.

His goal was to torture Mary Grimm and make Emilia beg him for mercy!

"What's the hurry?"

George Johnson sneered, "I have to let her know what it means to be in a dangerous society!

"If she doesn't allow her daughter to marry me, she will lose her job!"

Mike White said, " "Mr. Johnson, that's a smart move!"

"You'll appear when she's in despair and then give her hope. By then, you'll be the one who gave her a second chance. Wouldn't she have to kneel and beg you to marry her daughter? "

"When that time comes, what can Emilia do?"

It had to be said that this move was really sinister!

Although it didn't cause any fatal damage, it was extremely disgusting and it was no doubt effective.

No one could withstand the double torture of the mind and the body!

"Hahaha ..."

George Johnson was smoking in the car with the air conditioner on. He laughed and said, "You're right! Emilia is already a wilted flower. She has to kneel and beg me to take her in!"

It could be said that he would do anything to get Emily.

However, that woman didn't even look at him. This was a great disrespect to him. He then scolded coldly, "You motherf*cker! You're already in this state, why are you still pretending to be a lady from a rich family?"

"Your pride is worthless in my eyes!

"Watch how I'm going to play you to death!"

In the tool storage room of the garbage transfer station on Pearl Street!

"Mary Grimm. Oh! Mary Green! Please don't blame me for doing this. Mr. Johnson has been very generous!"

A young man with a cigarette in his mouth was counting the bills in his hand.

Although cleaners like them didn't earn much, it was still a job that was important for people like them who didn't have skills or money.

It was too easy to find someone to replace him!

Just a moment ago, he received a call from his superior, saying that a young man was going to work as a cleaner on Pearl Street.

Once he got rid of Mary Grimm, he would be able to earn another thousand from Mr. Johnson.

Life was good!

Knock knock knock --

Then, someone knocked on the door. Leo quickly put the 100-dollar bills into his pocket and said, "Come in!"

When Oliver Walker opened the door, he saw a man with his legs crossed. He smiled and said, "Hello, I'm here to apply for a cleaner job!"

"Someone should have given you a heads up, right?"

Actually, there was no need to apply for a job as a sanitation worker.

To put it bluntly, it was fine as long as he could do the job and not be lazy!

"Tsktsktsk..."

Leo looked at the man in front of him and muttered to himself "This kid is young and healthy. Why can't he get some other job?"

"Why did he have to get this job by using his connections?"

"Did his brain get caught in the door?"

This was indeed quite unexpected. After all, a random factory could earn more than this.

Leo graduated from University but because of his poor academic performance, he could only work here as a small supervisor since he had no connections.

Therefore, he hated people who relied on connections the most.

Oliver Walker said calmly, "You're not that old, aren't you still sitting here?"

The person in front of him was definitely not more than thirty years old.

Furthermore, cleaning the streets was a proper job.

He was just a brick that could be placed into any empty space that needed him.

He could fight, earn money, teach others and help the world.

No matter what occupation one had, as long as it was legitimate, it had its own value.

Furthermore, he was only here to share the burden with his mother-in-law.

However, this sentence undoubtedly hit Leo's sore spot. He was immediately furious. "You think you're more worthy to be compared to me?"

"I graduated from University and was assigned to the Sanitation Department as a formal job. I'm the supervisor of the Sanitation Department. Who do you think you are?"

Chapter 129 You Must Be A Criminal!

Leo was so angry that he gritted his teeth and couldn't wait to show his superior status.

Although the salary wasn't high, he was still better than the temporary workers of the Sanitation Department!

How could he accept that the person who had just reported in had classified him as the same kind?

"Oh?"

Oliver Walker's tone was very calm. "I'll head off to work now!"

He put on an orange reflective cleaner's uniform and took a broom.

He was too lazy to care!

Quarrelling with such a person would only show that he had no manners.

If a university graduate had come here and to experience the basic level work, it would be very admirable.

But from his tone and expression, this was clearly not the case!

Men like Leo would have been wasting his time in University. In the end, he didn't score in his exams and could only come here to retire in advance.

Therefore, he hated it when people compared him to a temporary cleaner!

He wanted to prove that he had a future but he didn't have the ability, which was why he was so irritable!

"What kind of attitude is this?"

Hearing Oliver Walker's indifferent reply, Leo got agitated. "Do you know how to respect the management?"

"Don't think that you can do whatever you want just because you have some connections!"

"Do you believe that I can make you jobless with just one word?!"

Which sanitation worker dared to talk to him like that?

Was this man looking down on him?

Moreover, after all the connections he had, this man was here to work as a sanitation worker that was only paid a thousand a month. He must be a good-for-nothing.

If he didn't teach this man a lesson, how could he show the nobility of a supervisor?

Oliver Walker glanced back coldly. "When it's time to leave, I'll leave. Don't you dare come and provoke me again!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned around and was prepared to leave.

He was here to share his mother-in-law's burden. When had he ever cared about money?

It was also a way to repay his mother-in-law for saving his life back then.

He wanted to tell his family that he could endure hardship and humiliation.

He would then try his best to make it up to them.

He didn't want to take out tens of millions or hundreds of millions from the start and make his mother-in-law and wife look at him like he was a monster.

After all, there were different kinds of people in this world. When dealing with people who were greedy for money, this might be the best thing he could do.

But to his down-to-earth mother-in-law, if he took out so much money at once, she might call the police to arrest him so that they could investigate the origin of the money.

He was afraid of trouble and did not want to make a big deal out of it!

This was the true purpose of him getting this job!

"Impudent!"

Leo felt that his self-esteem had been stomped on the ground. He stepped forward angrily and grabbed Oliver Walker's shoulder. He roared, "I'm not someone that people like you can humiliate!"

"What kind of people am I?" Oliver Walker asked coldly.

He didn't want to be angry or pay any attention to Leo but it allowed Leo's arrogance to grow.

Even a rabbit would bite when it got pissed, let alone a man with iron bones.

His good temper was only for his family and friends; not to spoil these overconfident scum!

"You're a nobody!

"Trash that needs connections to clean the streets!

"I see that you have hands and legs. You must be a prisoner who was just released from prison. You have a stain on your background which is why you can't find a job!

"You..." Leo roared with a ferocious face.

However, before he could finish his sentence, Oliver Walker's anger could no longer be suppressed.

His aura suddenly exploded as he shouted, "Get lost!"

He had done nothing wrong!

How could he be labelled as a criminal?

The most important responsibility of a soldier was to defend the honour and glory of the army.

Thud thud --

"Ahhhhhh!!!"

When Oliver Walker's body shook, a powerful force burst out like an explosion

Leo, who wanted to push his luck, felt his entire arm go numb. Before he could react, his body flew out uncontrollably and hit the wall.

Chapter 130 Ignorant Idiots

Then, he fell to the ground!

"You're not worthy of provoking me!"

After saying this, Oliver Walker carried his broom and prepared to go out to the street!

Leo, who was embarrassed and angry, picked up a broom. He gritted his teeth, endured the pain while he stood up and roared, "I'm going to kill you today!"

He was furious!

pAn,Da n<0,>v,e1 This was a typical case of him being blinded by anger!

He didn't have the guts to do so!

However, he was in a fury. So, he carried the broom and rushed forward!

Honk honk honk!

However, just as the broom was about to land on Oliver Walker, a Maybach stopped at the entrance.

Following closely behind were ten more Mercedes-Benz Cars worth hundreds of thousands dollars!

Leo was dumbfounded by the scene!

When he saw who it was that got out of the car, he was even more shocked!

It was actually the richest man in Colorado, Leon Williams!

He quickly rubbed his eyes, thinking that he had seen wrongly.

After looking at it again, there were more than 30 bodyguards along with a luxurious lineup of 11 luxury cars. Besides the richest man of Colorado, who else would be able to afford these?

"What are you doing here?" Oliver Walker asked with a frown.

What he hated the most was having a large group of people following behind him no matter what he did.

This was the reason why he didn't want to expose his identity. He didn't want to distance himself from his family.

However, Leon Williams was extremely nervous.

This VIP had come to sweep the road personally. How dare he sit in the office and enjoy the air conditioner?

As he was being shouted at, Leon Williams got even more frightened.

After all, he knew that Oliver Walker was different from ordinary people.

It was impossible to hypocritically say that he had brought these men to help sweep the floor.

If he were to tell the truth, he would probably be taught a lesson.

He was in a dilemma!

"You're impudent!"

Seeing that this man had the audacity to scold the richest man in the city, Leo naturally wouldn't give up the opportunity to please Leon Williams. He rushed forward and scolded Oliver Walker, "You motherf*cker, don't you have eyes?"

"Do you know who is standing in front of you?"

"If you don't want to live, don't drag me down with you!"

Leon Williams was the richest man in Colorado!

This was the man that he could only worship by looking at him from a television screen.

And now?

He was meeting Leon Williams in reality!

This was his chance to show off. As long as he could get the tycoon to notice him, he would definitely have a bright future.

Leo quickly nodded and bowed as he apologised, "Mr. Williams, this kid just started working today. He doesn't know the rules at all.

"Please calm down, I promise I'll make him leave immediately!"

It just so happened that his heart was also filled with anger!

Expelling Oliver Walker would not only relieve his hatred but also curry favour with Leon Williams. How could he miss such a good opportunity where he could kill two birds with one stone?

But, even Leo wouldn't have known that the man whom he assumed was a good-for-nothing, was actually a VIP that even Leon Williams had to curry favours with.

Even when he finished his studies in a local university, he was still unable to find a decent job. This proved that he was not very ambitious. Hence, he definitely wouldn't have understood the current situation.

He had never thought about why the tycoon would be at the garbage transfer station!

"Trust me when I say that I'll make you disappear!"

Leon Williams shouted. He was worried about how to answer Oliver Walker but this guy came to his door and helped him out of the situation!

However, before the other man said anything, he didn't dare to call the shots.

He quickly stepped forward and said respectfully, "Mr. Walker, I was afraid that there would be people like him making things difficult for you. So, after thinking about it, I decided to follow you here.

"No matter what, I can't delay what you want to do!"

Leo's mind blew when he heard what Leon Williams said.

His eyes were about to fall out of his face.

This ...
