

Chaplain 151

Chapter 151 Using His Wits

"Motherf*cker!"

"How dare you challenge me?!"

George Johnson, who had been holding back his anger, was completely enraged. "I'm going to kill you!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he punched and kicked Isaac Davis with all his might.

Isaac Davis did not dare to resist. He could remain laying on the ground and hold his head with his hands, begging loudly, "Mr. Johnson ... Mr. Johnson! Please have mercy!!!! Mercy!!!"

"We're all on the same side!"

"Pfft ..." George Johnson spat and continued to kick Isaac Davis on the ground with his leather shoes. He yelled, "Who the hell is on your side?"

"I feel embarrassed!"

"I'm warning you! If you don't return the money by today, I'll kill you!"

Isaac Davis quickly shouted, "I ... I ... I'll do it today! Mr. Johnson ... Don't ... Don't hit me! I ... I'll transfer the money to you now!"

As soon as he said that, George Johnson stopped his attack. He said with a disdainful look, "You have money?"

He only wanted to force Isaac Davis to be obedient when asking for the money.

In the end, he didn't expect this old thing to be rich.

It was indeed beyond his expectations!

"Of....of course!"

Isaac Davis took out his phone and said in a trembling voice, "I ... I ... I'll transfer it to you now!"

This was the money that he got from Oliver Walker.

In the past, in order to be safe, he would launder money through underground casinos before using it but it was too late now.

He could only obediently transfer it to George Johnson!

'You've received a payment of 10 thousand dollars!'

When George Johnson's phone rang, he took out his phone and looked at it in disbelief.

Was the ten thousand dollars something that he really wanted?

He wanted Isaac Davis to go home and deal with Oliver Walker!

George Johnson was a little dumbfounded by this!

"Mr... Mr. Johnson, the money ... I've already returned you the money!"

Isaac Davis swallowed his saliva and sat on the ground pitifully. "Where are the I.O.U?!"

In fact, he felt extremely flustered after using the money.

After all, he had not laundered them. If Oliver Walker found out one day, he would be killed!

However, this was not what bothered him now. He could just run away after this!

George Johnson went up and slapped him on the face. He shouted, "I'm telling you that I didn't receive the money!"

Isaac Davis was dumbfounded!

His face was full of bitterness and anger but he didn't have the guts to do so. Issac Davis said weakly, "You're supposed to be honest!"

"This ... This is daylight robbery!"

"I'm a tyrant," George Johnson said coldly. "What are you going to do about it?"

"You're right! I'm robbing you!"

"But....it's not that I can't give the I.O.U to you but you'd have to promise me one thing!"

Isaac Davis, who was in despair, thought he saw a ray of light in the pitch-black darkness. He quickly said, "What...what was it?"

No matter what, Issac Davis had to get it back or it wouldn't count!

"Listen up..." George Johnson said coldly.

After listening to the entire plan, Isaac Davis's expression changed. He resisted it as if he had seen a ghost, "No...I'm ... I'm not going back!"

"I won't go back even if you kill me!"

"That poor man has nothing to do with me!"

Seeing Isaac Davis's strong re, George Johnson gave Mike White a look. Mike White instantly understood him. He pulled out the shiny dagger from his waist and approached Issac Davis!

After seeing the dagger, Isaac Davis's face was full of fear and immediately changed his words, "I ... I ... I promise ... I'll go back now! I promise I'll kick that bastard Oliver Walker out of the house!"

He didn't even know when Oliver Walker had returned but his life was on the line, was there any other choice?

"You know the consequences if you expose me!" George Johnson said coldly.

He couldn't mess around with Oliver Walker directly so he could only use his wits. He also believed that the coward, Isaac Davis, would not dare to rat him out.

"I wouldn't! I...I promise!"

Isaac Davis was so frightened that he broke out in a cold sweat and ran out of the door!

George Johnson's eyes were cold. "Do you think he will succeed?"

If Issac Davis didn't kick Oliver Walker out, he would never be able to get his hands on Emilia!

Chapter 152 A Million?

How would he allow this to happen?

He wanted revenge!

He wanted revenge on Oliver Walker, Emilia, Mary Grimm, and Olivia Walker. None of them could escape from him!

Mike White frowned slightly. "He should be able to, right?"

"After all, it's easier to fool him than Mary Grimm."

George Johnson nodded and left the room.

They just had to sit back and wait for the good show to start.

George Johnson didn't know that he had overreached himself. Oliver Walker had initially forgotten about this.

However, Isaac Davis had used the money and a verified WeChat account, allowing Hendrik Smith's men to find where the money went easily.

But, this was an important matter. This was because the man who took the money was his master's father-in-law, so he did not dare to decide on his own.

He didn't know if Oliver Walker was with his family. If he had called his master now, would all these be exposed?

After hesitating for some time, he chose the safest way: to inform his master through a text message!

After picking up his daughter, Oliver Walker saw the text message from Hendric smith. His face changed a few times when he discovered that Issac Davis was the one behind it!

What should they do now?

Did Oliver Walker have to make it clear for them?

He didn't care about Isaac Davis but worried about his mother-in-law and wife's feelings!

Wouldn't there be chaos once he told the truth?

So, he decided to endure it. He didn't care about the money anyway.

On the other hand, Emily still had a lot on her mind, but Mary Grimm seemed enthusiastic.

To her, Oliver Walker was her son.

It didn't matter to her as long as he had a good character.

Olivia Walker hugged and played with the beautiful sheep she had been yearning for a long time. Her heart was filled with great satisf.

It was her father who bought it!

After dinner, the family squeezed into the old living room, and the room finally felt warm.

Suddenly, Mary Grimm asked, "Do you have any plans for the future?"

She knew what her daughter was worried about, so she took the initiative to ask.

If Oliver Walker were going to stay, he would definitely find something to do!

Emilia didn't say anything and even pretended to be nonchalant. However, it was obvious that she was nervously waiting for an answer.

"Mother!"

"They have already given me the subsidy for my service at the frontline and the compensation since I got injured." Oliver Walker with a smile.

"I thought of buying a house first so we can move out of this neighborhood.

"So that you, Emilia, and Olivia can live in a better environment!"

Initially, he thought his wife was only unhappy because she couldn't accept his new identity.

However, after his mother-in-law asked this question, he suddenly realized he was wrong.

His wife was afraid that he would leave again!

His answer was to dispel his wife's concerns.

As long as they had a permanent place to stay, his wife's worries should dissipate on their own, right?

"Buy a house?"

Emilia couldn't help but ask, "How much is your retirement fee?"

In fact, this answer did make her feel a lot more at ease.

But, at the same time, she was also worried that they might not be able to do so!

After all, the prices of houses were high these days, and she was worried that it would crush the family.

"Ummmm....."

Oliver Walker hesitated momentarily and said, "About a million?"

He said one million because it was unrealistic to say any other amount that was too high.

Although his money was legitimate, he didn't want his wife and mother-in-law to have any suspicions!

But.... Emilia and Mary Grimm still turned quiet at the same time!

A million?

That was a lot!

Perhaps in the past, they could only buy a car with a million dollars!

But now ...

It was definitely a shocking amount of money!

Chapter 153 Buy A House And Get A Clinic

Emilia was shocked at first but then she revealed a smile that had been missing for a long time.

She looked like a flower that bloomed in March, intoxicating and worthy of her title as the number one goddess in Colorado.

Even though the clothes she was wearing were cheap, her innate noble temperament was shocking.

On the contrary, the more noble the clothes were, the more elegant the person had to be in order to bring out the magnificence.

Oliver Walker would never forget the perfection of his wife in an evening gown.

"Of course, your name will be on the property ownership certificate," Oliver Walker quickly added.

It was understandable for his wife to have any doubts now.

After all, she hasn't been protected all these years. She would definitely be worried about the sudden sense of security.

This was a mentality that any normal person would have.

"What do you think?"

Mary Grimm glanced at her daughter. Her gentle eyes explained many things.

Did she care if her daughter's name was on the property ownership certificate?

In fact, she didn't even care about this because she had never been a profit-driven person.

However, Oliver Walker's statement had proved his determination.

"But, what happens after you buy the house?"

"Don't we need a way to feed the family?" Emilia asked Oliver Walker.

"Have you considered the fact that I'm still being punished by Davis and can't find a job? If I'm not wrong, it'll be the same for you!

"If we spend all of the money on a house, it will be something that William Davis would wish for.

"When that time comes, it wouldn't be that easy for us to leave!"

She had always been cautious.

A million dollars did seem like a lot but the reality?

Once they bought a house and paid for Olivia's medical expenses, they would be left with almost nothing.

Although Oliver Walker had the title of a hero in the frontline, everyone knew that Davis didn't care if he was one.

Most importantly, how long would this title last for?

Mary Grimm's brows furrowed. "Emilis is right. We shouldn't buy a house first."

She would definitely love to have a new house.

However, Emily had made it clear that their family was just barely surviving and they haven't found a way to support themselves. How could they be thinking about improving their quality of life?

They should be more realistic!

Especially those who had experienced the wind and rain!

"Mother! Emilia!"

Oliver Walker wanted to explain but he quickly stopped himself. He couldn't pressure them now which was why he said. "How about this? I've learned a few things from the godly doctor.

"Opening a clinic can also solve our problem!"

It was true that he could no longer yield needles with his inner Qi but there was absolutely no problem in treating others

He didn't suggest having a clinic to battle others with his medical skills. He was only doing this so that he could help the others.

When had he ever cared how much he would make from it?

After all, if he had a clinic, he could at least have a reason for the money that he had. By then, neither his wife nor his mother-in-law would suspect him.

"A clinic?"

Mary Grimm and Emilia exclaimed at the same time. They didn't expect Oliver Walker to be so ambitious.

Did he think it was that easy to own a clinic?

Furthermore, when Olivia was sick, they had been scammed by charlatans. So, they still had a grudge against these people.

How much could he possibly learn from Hendric Smith?

How dare he suggest to open a clinic?!

"I won't agree to it!"

Emilia's pretty face was filled with anger, "No matter how poor I am, even if I were to starve to death, I will never agree to you earning money with these nasty methods! If you insist on doing it, I might not be able to stop you but you must leave this home!"

It wasn't hard to imagine that this man wanted to use the fame of a frontline soldier to start a business.

She despised such methods the most!

It was simply vile!

Moreover, a clinic was a place to treat patients and save lives. How could he cheat others with such methods?

"I..."

Oliver Walker was about to stand up and explain ...

But...his wife left!!

It was obvious that she was using this method to resist Oliver Walker's idea!

Chapter 154 Here Comes Trouble

Mary Grimm said in a firm tone, "There are lots of ways to earn money but you shouldn't resort to such ways.

"You're still young, why don't you learn something better?"

"If you're the same kind of person as Isaac Davis, then I must be a blind woman!

The thing that she hated most?

Fraud!

Oliver Walker's intentions were obvious!

If the truth came to light, how would they be able to face others?

At this point, there were a lot of them who were looking down on her.

But, no one would was talking behind them and calling them scammers who murdered people for money!

"Mother!"

Oliver Walker was dumbfounded. He had never expected that his wife and mother-in-law would have such a strong re.

A fraud?!

Would the dignified successor of the Tianyi sect resort to cheating others?

Currently, out of the ten divine doctors in the International Medical Centre, he has trained 6 of them!

This...

"You don't have to explain anything!"

Mary Green's expression turned cold. It was obvious that she didn't have a good impression of Oliver Walker's idea. "As humans, we must do the right thing so that we can hold our head's up high.

"Besides, you're a man!

"How could you do such a heartless thing?"

Oliver Walker gulped. Neither his mother-in-law nor his wife believed that he had the medical skills to open a clinic.

More importantly, to compare him with Isaac Davis, this ...

He had to show them his skills!

Only by showing his mother-in-law knew that he really had medical skills would she not think that he was lying.

"Mother, you have arthritis so....."

But, before he could finish, Mary Grimmshowed an impatient expression.

Anyone could tell that she had arthritis. She immediately scolded him, "I told you to shut up!"

There are times where a first impression was important.

If one didn't have a good impression of the other person, then no matter what he said or did, one would feel that he had ulterior motives.

They would naturally feel conflicted!

Now, Mary Green was even more unhappy when she heard that Oliver Walker talking about her legs.

In fact, Oliver Walker felt wronged. From the moment he came back, he could tell that his mother-in-law was sick due to the workload.

However, because of how bad their relationship was previously, he never had the chance!

He finally got the chance to say it tonight but in exchange for that, he threw away all the good impressions that he had accumulated for the past three days.

At this moment, he could only keep her mouth shut. As he watched his mother-in-law return to her room, he felt as if his heart was being stabbed.

Was it really that difficult to gain trust?

Mary Green suddenly turned around and said, "When you get the money, you should pay for the maintenance of the Mercedes-Benz first!"

"Huh?"

She was exhausted. She had been so happy that she had completely forgot about this.

Now that she thought about it, she felt even more pressured.

Even if the three major parts of the car were intact, the maintenance cost would still be a few hundred thousand.

She used to be the young mistress of Davis, she wasn't a newbie when it came to luxury cars.

The only thing that she could say was that she had been overwhelmed with happiness before this.

Bang bang bang --

Just as Mary Grimm was about to return to her bedroom, a violent and urgent knock on the door broke the cold atmosphere.

She had an uncomfortable look on her face. The owner of the Mercedes-Benz must be here to cause trouble!

An uneasy feeling brewed inside her heart.

Her body was trembling slightly as she stood at the door, not knowing what to do!

After all, Oliver Walker wouldn't have received the money yet.

"Who ... Who is it?"

She asked nervously but she did not dare to open the door.

Oliver Walker got up from his chair as well. The guy outside the door was obviously up to no good by knocking on the door so violently!

Then, a cold glint burst out of his eyes. Wasn't this person asking for it if he came looking for trouble at times like these?

Chapter 155 The Irresponsible Father

The person outside the door was obviously unwilling to speak, or rather, he did not dare to speak at all!

However, such a hurried knock on the door made Mary Grimm tense.

At the same time, the atmosphere in the room became tense.

"Mum!"

Emilia walked out of her bedroom with a hint of worry in her eyes. "Who is it?"

Such a question made the nervous Mary Grimm even more flustered as she answered, "I ... I ... I don't know!"

If the other party was really here to ask for money, what should they do?

It wasn't that she didn't want to pay off Oliver Walker's debt but her poor family really couldn't afford that much money.

After all, the maintenance cost of a Mercedes-Benz was incredibly expensive. At least, to them, it was a sky-high price that they could never afford.

Emilia's beautiful brows furrowed slightly and she looked doubtful.

She was obviously thinking about what had happened.

"I'll open the door!"

Oliver Walker smiled and walked forward. "Mother, relax."

Seeing her son-in-law holding the door handle, Mary Grimm took a deep breath and nodded blankly.

In any case, the car was only heavily damaged in order to save her. It was understandable that Oliver Walker would do something like that at moments of desperation.

They could only open the door and hopefully calm the other person by saying nice things.

Moreover, people who could afford a Mercedes-Benz would not be so short of money. The fact that they could lend their car to Oliver Walker showed that they must be close.

Her mind was in a mess.

Unfortunately, Emilia, who was still kept in the dark, didn't know anything. There was a strange expression on her face.

She had no idea that Oliver Walker drove a Mercedes-Benz and crashed it into George Johnson's Toyota.

When the door opened, the impeccably dressed Isaac Davis appeared in the family's sight.

It was obvious that he had changed into clean clothes.

After all, he was a person who valued his image. How could he come back wearing clothes full of footprints?

"You! Why are you here?!"

The moment Mary Green saw Isaac Davis, all her worries disappeared.

What replaced it was a heart full of monstrous anger!

The man in front of her was extremely irresponsible towards his family. Ever since he was kicked out of the company, he had cut off all contact with them.

He had even seen her sweeping the streets the day before yesterday but he could pretend that he didn't know her and swaggered past her with a few of his bad friends.

He didn't even say a word!

"Go away!"

Emilia shouted in rage, "Oliver, quickly close the door!"

Like her mother, she did not want to see her father, who only existed on her official documents.

For the past years where they suffered, if only Issac Davis had the slightest sense of responsibility, she wouldn't have been so desperate.

However, this man had broken her and her mother's hearts.

Not only did he refuse to help, he even took money from his own granddaughter two years ago!

Was this something that a human would do?!

For Oliver Walker, there was also anger in his heart as well. It was Isaac Davis, who used his wife's name to cheat him out of money every month!

As a result, his mother-in-law and wife were full of hostility towards him when he returned.

Of course, this wasn't the main reason. Isaac Davis, who had taken the money, didn't care about the life and death of his family at all. He only cared about himself!

Originally, he didn't think to settle the debt and just treated it as if the money had really been cheated away but he never thought that Isaac Davis would have the audacity to show up here, bringing his mother-in-law and wife nothing but devastation!

"Get lost!"

Isaac Davis roared at Oliver Walker before he shamelessly said, "You think I want to come back here?"

If he hadn't been forced by George Johnson, he wouldn't even want to meet his family that was broke!

He stood at the door and hesitated for a long time before knocking on the door.

Oliver Walker smiled coldly and moved out of the way!

Looks like they will have to settle some things today.

He would have to help his mother-in-law and wife vent their anger that they have held up all these years.

Chapter 156 This Family Wouldn't Exist Without Me

"Hmph!"

Isaac Davis walked in arrogantly. In fact, he was also feeling guilty. After all, he had been the one who had been taking the money. If Oliver Walker found out about it, something would definitely happen to him!

However, judging by Oliver Walker's appearance, he most likely has not found out about it or else Oliver Walker wouldn't be so calm.

As long as he kicked Oliver Walker out of the house before he got exposed, he would have completed his mission.

As for the future?

He only cared about his present, when has he cared about the future?

That was why he had to pretend to be arrogant to cover up the guilt that came from the depths of his soul.

"Get out!"

"Get out!"

Mary Grimm's emotions completely erupted. "This family has nothing to do with you!"

She could forgive Oliver Walker because he still knew had a heart and cared about her.

He might be a little impulsive but at least he did it for the family.

Ever since Isaac Davis had cheated the money that was meant for Olivia's treatment, it was impossible to forgive him!

"No matter what, I'm still your husband!

"You can't break ties with me just because you want to!"

Isaac Davis shamelessly sat on the bench and said in an imposing manner, "I overheard it just now. That kid, Oliver Walker, has a retirement fee of one million dollars. Half of that money is mine!"

This was not a small amount of money. He was the head of the family and so he deserved a share of it.

It could be said that he was a person who had no sense of propriety, justice, or shame.

Perhaps he knew and understood that being a villain was the easiest way to take advantage of others.

"Who allowed you to let him in?"

"Didn't I tell you to lock him outside the door?"

Emilia was about to lose it as well. How could she have such a father?

She had no idea if Isaac Davis had morales. Why was he still so confident? Wasn't he afraid of the wrath of hell?

"You unfilial daughter, no matter what, I'm still your father!"

Isaac Davis angrily rebuked, "You still have to ask the court of law's permission first before kicking me out of the house!"

"Did I raise you up to let you abuse me?"

Such words made Mary Grimm's face turn purple in anger!

Emilia gritted her teeth in anger. Tears of humiliation appeared in her eyes. "You ..."

She was mad!

She felt infuriated!

An indescribable anger completely exploded like a bomb!

Mary Grimm's body trembled as she shouted, "Isaac Davis, you really do not know how to act like a human, do you?"

"When Olivia got sick, where were you?"

"Where were you when we were kicked out of the company because of what you've done?!"

"Ask yourself! For the past eight years, have you ever made a single contribution to this broken family?"

It could be said that Isaac Davis had completely broken all morales that a man should have.

It also completely shattered Mary Grimm and Emilia's understanding of a husband and a father!

He was actually asking to split the money?

Didn't he know that Oliver Walker had risked his life in order to get this money?!

How could he be so shameless?!

There were no words that could describe such a shameless bastard!

"Huh?"

The shameless Isaac Davis sneered, "It's true that I've made no contributions to this family, but without me, would this family still exist?"

"Without me, would you have been able to give birth to such a beautiful daughter?"

"Don't forget that it was me who allowed you to be the young mistress of Davis for the past 20 years and you lived a life of luxury."

"You can't look down on me just because I'm useless now!"

Chapter 157 Let Me Deal With Him

Amelia and Mary Green were really at their wit's end when it came to Isaac Davis!

How could he be so confident?

Did he really understand the essence of shamelessness and invincibility?

"Since you're my elder, I won't argue with you!"

"But, you must get out of this house now and never come back."

Oliver Walker warned him coldly, "My mother and my wife do not want to see you again!"

Not to mention that he had the evidence of Isaac Davis's fraud, even if he didn't, with his status, he had a million ways to kill Isaac Davis.

However, the man in front of him was his wife's father. At least in terms of relationship, Issac Davis was his father-in-law.

If they were to fight, Emilia might not be able to stand it and even Mary Grimm would probably break down!

"Huh?"

His kind words weren't appreciated by Issac Davis, instead, it made him even more arrogant. He slammed the table and stood up as he roared "Who do you think you are?"

"You're still away that I'm your father-in-law?"

"You're just a dog raised by our family. When did you earn the right to speak?"

"When you were wandering the streets, it was our family who took you in!"

His attitude was extremely arrogant and his eyes were burning with anger. "What? Now that you're a little more promising, you want to be an ingrate?"

"You don't even want to acknowledge me as your father-in-law?"

"You think you're that great?!"

The reason why Issac Davis could still be so arrogant?

It was because he knew that Oliver Walker would not dare to do anything to him.

Secondly, he didn't believe that Oliver Walker would have realised it was him since the money had only been transferred recently.

Even if they wanted to make a report, it would take at least ten days to half a month before they could trace it to him.

By the time the other party found out, Oliver Walker would have been kicked out of the house.

George Johnson would be his son-in-law and the police wouldn't be able to do anything to him.

This was why he was feeling confident!

Mary Grimm and Emilia were so angry that their lips turned purple. They really couldn't stand Issac Davis.

"Mother! Emilia!"

"You guys should head back to your rooms first. I'll put some sense into his head." Oliver Walker said with a warm smile.

Anyone could call him an ingrate but not Issac Davis.

Although Emilia was still angry, she still frowned. "You ..."

With Oliver Walker's bad temper, he was probably going to throw some punches.

But, no matter what, Isaac Davis was her biological father. If Oliver Walker really made a move, it would be Oliver Walker's fault.

"Don't worry, I'll reason with him!" Oliver Walker answered with a smile.

He didn't want his wife and mother-in-law to know about the fraud. It wasn't because he wanted to protect Isaac Davis but simply because he didn't want them to be even more disappointed.

Most importantly these nasty things that Isaac Davis had done weren't really worth mentioning!

"You dare lay hands on me?"

Isaac Davis berated agitatedly and began to sow discord, "Mary, Emilia! Did you hear that?"

"This brat actually wants to make a move on me!"

"I am still the head of the family!"

"I don't think he's allowed to do so!"

To be honest, he still felt very guilty.

But, with Mary Grimm and Emilia here, Oliver Walker would not dare to act recklessly. However, they were going back to their room, who knew what would happen next?

This was not the result he wanted!

"Oliver! Don't go too far with it. Just kick him out of the house!" Emily shouted anxiously.

She hated Isaac Davis but he was still her biological father.

They could kick him out of the house but they could never disrespect an elder and lay hands on him.

Oliver Walker frowned slightly. Was he supposed to say it out loud?

Then, wouldn't his wife and mother-in-law be even sadder?

"You ungrateful wretch, did you hear that?"

Chapter 158 Time For A Good Chat

Isaac Davis laughed arrogantly, "No matter what, I'm still her father, your father-in-law!"

"Hmph!"

"Do you think she would help someone with a different surname?"

"What a f*cking joke!"

Hearing this, Mary Green was so angry that she couldn't stand it anymore. She gritted her teeth and said, "Emilia, let's head back to our rooms."

This man had broken her heart!

It was time for him to learn his lesson.

Emilia hesitated at first but Mary Grimm quickly grabbed her wrist and dragged her away.

"You...You can't leave!"

Isaac Davis looked at his 'amulets' who were about to return to their rooms. Then, would he be the only one left with Oliver Walker.

In a moment of desperation, he hurriedly went up to block it and shouted madly, "Stop right here!"

Tears welled up in Mary Grimm's eyes and she said in desperation, "I don't owe you anything!"

"Since you've given up on this home, you shouldn't have come back now!"

"I don't need you anymore!"

"You don't have the right to point fingers at me!"

Her husband had left her when her family was in a crisis!

Not only did he leave, he also took away the last livelihood of her family!

He even pretended not to know her when she was cleaning the streets two days ago!

Emilia and her had always been the ones taking care of this family. Even if they weren't having a good time now, what could they do with Isaac Davis?

Was he going to continue to stab the knife into her heart?

She never wanted to go back to those days!

"You..."

As he watched Mary Grimm drag Emilia into the room, Isaac Davis was so angry that his face turned red. He rolled up his sleeves and stepped forward.

However, just as he was about to make a move, Oliver Walker grabbed Issac Davis's shoulder with one hand and smiled coldly, "We can have a talk right now!"

The reason he didn't kick Isaac Davis out was that this man still owed his mother-in-law and wife an apology.

This was his main priority now.

"You ..."

Isaac Davis turned around abruptly. When he saw the smirk on Oliver Walker's face, he felt as if his soul had been pierced by a needle.

"You!" He shouted anxiously. "What are you doing?"

"Let go of me, I don't want to talk to you anymore!"

With his body bound, he didn't feel safe at all.

His face turned red and he was using all his strength to break free from the control.

However, the hand on his shoulder was as hard as steel. It was beyond his imagination. No matter how hard he tried, he could not move it.

More importantly, the more he struggled, the more it hurt ...

Issac Davis was in so much pain that he gritted his teeth!

Soon, he became well-behaved!

"I'm not going to do anything to you." Oliver Walker answered in a deep voice. "I just want to tell you one thing. As a man, it's a shame for you to be alive!"

Looking at what Isaac Davis had done, not to mention his family, even the onlookers would scoff at him.

He may have lots of friends to hang with but when he got into trouble, didn't all of them run off as fast as they could?

More importantly, even people like George Johnson and Mike White looked down on Isaac Davis.

What does it mean to be a man?

He was supposed to be the protector of the country and the pillar of the family!

Whether it was for the country or their family, he played an extremely important role.

It wasn't that Oliver Walker looked down on women. It was just that men and women had different duties!

The sacrifices that women made must never be ignored!

However, if a man was not willing to fulfil his duties to his country of family, he was not worthy of being a man!

Especially for Isaac Davis, who had completely abandoned his family and watched his wife and daughter support the family while he indulged in debauchery outside. Plus, he even took the life-saving money that belonged to his family!

He was really a scum!

Chapter 159 Let's Call The Police

"You ..."

"I ..."

Cold sweat seeped out of Isaac Davis's forehead and his voice gradually became softer, but he soon roared, "What right do you have to criticise me?"

"I may have abandoned my family, didn't you do the same?"

"Why are you using the standards of a Saint to restrain me and the standards of a b*tch to demand yourself?"

Oliver Walker's expression gradually turned cold and he said in a low voice, "I'm different from you!"

They were indeed different!

Isaac Davis did it all for himself, causing his family to be penniless and struggling.

Oliver Walker, on the other hand, had to abandon his family and go to the frontlines when the country was in danger, for the sake of peace and harmony for thousands of families!

Hence, there was a fundamental difference between them!

"Hmph ..."

"What's the Difference?"

"You married my daughter but you caused her to suffer. If I'm not a man, then you're even less of a man!"

Isaac Davis roared unwillingly, "But, I am her father so she should take care of me!

"But why should she keep you?"

"I didn't want to bring this up but since you're the one who brought it up, let's get to it then?" Oliver Walker couldn't take it anymore.

"The letters sent to the Indiana army base every month, were you the one who sent them?"

As soon as these words came out, it was like a lightning that struck Issac Davis.

His eyes instantly widened!

The reason why he dared to act so arrogantly?

He assumed that no one would know about this!

Even if Emilia was unhappy about it, Oliver Walker could only take the blame!

But now.....

It was obvious that the matter had been exposed!

However, in the next second, he instantly reacted and refused to admit it. "You ... You're talking nonsense, who cares if you're dead or alive on the frontline?"

"If you die, my daughter will be able to get a large pension. She can even marry a richer man!"

"I ... I ... I don't have the time to write to you!"

Oliver Walker smiled and said, "For the past 7 years, I've been transferring 10 thousand dollars into that account every month!"

"But, Emilia never received a single cent!"

"Are you sure you didn't do this?"

Isaac Davis gulped as he panicked. He lowered his voice because of his guilty conscience. "You're slandering me! I'll call the police and have you arrested!!"

"I want you to compensate me for the damage to my reputation!"

Although his logic was very clear, his back was drenched in cold sweat!

How did he get exposed so quickly?

He just transferred the money!

According to the normal procedure, it would take at least ten days to half a month before they could trace it back to him!

However, he forgot about one point!

If Oliver Walker was just an ordinary soldier, how could he be able to give them ten thousand dollars every month?

Therefore, he had no idea how powerful the person the man had scammed was!

"The police?"

"Sure.

Oliver Walker took out his phone with a contemptuous look and placed it in front of Isaac Davis. "As long as you're not afraid of taking responsibility for it, you can call the police now!"

"Seven years!"

"Seven whole years!"

"Ten thousand dollars and I never skipped a month. That's 8.4 million in total!"

"With such a large amount of money, even if I don't shoot you to death, I will make you spend the rest of your life in prison!"

These words were powerful and resonating, like a sharp knife, stabbing into Isaac Davis's heart.

Especially when he heard that he would spend the rest of his life in jail, his face turned pale as if he was sick!

He swallowed hard and said incoherently, "You.....I..."

Chapter 160 The Shameless Bastard

"What do you want?"

Since Oliver Walker knew about it but did not call the police to arrest him, what did this mean?

It meant that Oliver Walker worried about Issad David's identity. So, he threatened, "No matter what, I'm still Emilia's father. If I'm sent to jail, then she'll have to bear the infamy of killing her own father!

"Plus, my wife and daughter were the ones who saved you from the streets.

"You... can't be ungrateful!"

He didn't dare to act tough anymore. After all, he had stepped on the lion's tail.

If he were to piss off this guy in front of him, he might really be sent to jail and spend the rest of his life there.

He was used to living a carefree life so he couldn't handle being restricted. If he had to work hard in a dark cell every day, what meaning would there be in that kind of life?

"You don't deserve a wife like her and you don't deserve a daughter like Emili!

"You're a complete bastard! You don't deserve anyone's pity!"

Oliver Walker was filled with limited grievance

But now, he could only grit his teeth in hatred. "For years, you've been a shameless blood-sucking worm, constantly sucking the family's life-saving money so that you could continue seeking pleasure!

"Olivia has recovered from her condition now or else I would have killed you

"But, you still had the audacity to ask for a part of my retirement fees?

"Your morals have completely shattered my understanding of a human!"

He was a monster!

In fact, he was worse than a monster!

If his family didn't make it through, he wouldn't care about who Issac Davis was. He would definitely make Issac Davis regret being born into this world.

His family was all fine and as someone younger than Issac Davis, there wasn't much that he could do.

However, it was precisely this that made him feel extremely aggrieved.

But, at the same time, he felt fortunate!

His family was safe and sound now and they will slowly get better.

However, these words also gave Issac Davis a lot of useful information and this was that Oliver Walker did not intend to pursue the matter of the 8.4 million dollar.

Then, he let out a sigh of relief and forced a smile. Issac Davis said shamelessly, "Sure! My good son-in-law, I... I'm a bit of a bastard but after hearing you say that, I've realised something!

"I really shouldn't be asking for parts of your retirement fund!

"I... Why don't I ... I don't want a single cent ... What do you think?"

Did he suddenly regain his consciousness?

He obviously didn't!

Why would he?

Issac Davis was only afraid that he might end up in jail!

Hence, it was a wise choice to admit defeat now.

He also knew that the ten thousand dollars a month was for the family's expenses but he had spent it all. Therefore, he really did not have the right to take advantage of his seniority.

"Do you know what you should do now?"

Oliver Walker's voice was so cold that it felt like it could penetrate one's soul!

Isaac Davis couldn't help but shiver. He nodded repeatedly. "I ... I ... I understand ..."

"I'll leave now. I promise that I won't cause any trouble for the family in the future and ... I won't be a burden to you anymore!"

"I ..."

"You're leaving?" Oliver Walker said coldly.

"Have you sought forgiveness from my mother and wife?"

"You should be sorry to them, not me!"

"As a husband and a father, you should have been their strongest support but you almost killed them!"

"Do you really have the face to just leave like this?"

Perhaps he didn't care about this apology at all but how could he not care about what his mother-in-law and wife wanted?

The trust that they have in Isaac Davis came from their kinship.

But, not only did Isaac Davis cheat the family of their life-saving money, he also hurt Mary Grimm and Emilia's feelings!

Isaac Davis was not allowed to just leave without saying anything to them!

As for how he should resolve this, it would naturally be up to his mother-in-law and wife to decide.

He did not have the right to forgive Isaac Davis on their behalf!

He was even more disdainful of forgiving such a shameless bastard!
