

Chaplain 161

Chapter 161 Apologise to a Woman?!

Isaac Davis's face looked worse than before, "Then.....what else do you want me to do?"

He suddenly realized that this guy wasn't going to let him off. Oliver Walker was going to punish him!

This ...

"If they don't accept your apology ..."

Oliver Walker's lips curled into a cold smile. "Then I won't either!"

"You'll have to bear the consequences!"

There were some things that he had to claim for both his wife and mother-in-law. He would get them one by one.

Especially the emotional debts. This was the repentance that Isaac Davis had to pay.

"You want me to apologize to them?"

"Impossible!"

Isaac Davis resisted it strongly. His whole body was shaking, and his face was red. "I'm a man. How can I apologize to a woman?"

"You...You'd better mind your own business!"

Were Mary Green and Emily worthy of his apology?

This was why he was strongly opposed to it when Oliver Walker suggested it.

How could he afford to lose his pride?

"Then, I'll have to deal with this rightfully."

Oliver Walker pulled out his phone, clicked on it, and placed it next to his ears...

Seeing this, Isaac Davis panicked. He quickly shouted, "You...What are you doing?"

He had a bad feeling about this.

That feeling ...

Was horrible!

"You should know!"

Oliver Walker's voice was cold. "Either apologize or spend the rest of your life in jail. Make up your mind now!"

In fact, he didn't want to bother with Isaac Davis, but as the man of the family, Isaac Davis turned and left when his family needed him the most.

Even if he wasn't allowed to return to the family now, he still had to give them an explanation.

At least he could give his mother-in-law and wife some comfort!

"You.....I...."

Isaac Davis's face was flushing red. He had to apologize to a woman?

This was worse than killing him!

He had originally thought that he could deceive all of them. He'll get a share of the retirement fee before he kicked Oliver Walker out, but now it seems ...

It seemed impossible!

After an intense mental struggle, he finally gave in. "Alright! I ... I'll go and apologize to them!"

Was he petrified of them?

No!

He had bad ideas brewing in him.

Oliver Walker cared about Mary Grimm's feelings?

Then he would start with Mary Grimm first!

He would have to make them pay for this sooner or later, but for now, he had to hold back his anger!

At the same time, in the bedroom, both women were crying in each other's arms!

Before Isaac Davis returned, they were exhausted every day. Why would they have time to think about this?

The mixed feelings in their hearts had exploded after Isaac Davis had returned. It was so unbearable that they couldn't control it!

"Mum! Please don't cry!

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with tears of grievance. "No matter what, we will no longer be in contact with that horrible man!

"Oliver...Oliver will definitely take care of it!"

She could only hope that Oliver Walker didn't beat up Issac Davis, or else it would be followed by great troubles!

Her family's reputation in Colorado was already down the drain. If they beat up Isaac Davis, they would be labeled as unfilial.

"I'm fine!"

Mary Grimm wiped the tears from the corner of her daughter's eyes and said with a heart-wrenching pain, "It's just hard on you. I knew that he was a bad person, but ...

"There's something that I couldn't tell you!

"I...."

She felt heartbroken as well.

If only ...

Knock knock --

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door!

It interrupted Mary Grimm's thoughts and immediately said, "That bastard, Isaac Davis...should have left by now."

Chapter 162 We Don't Need You Anymore

Emilia nodded and took a deep breath. "I'll open the door!"

If Isaac Davis hadn't left, the knock on the door wouldn't have been so gentle. He would even kick the door violently.

So, it must be Oliver Walker!

However, the moment she opened the door, she saw that loathsome, familiar face.

"You...What do you want now?!"

Emilia and Mary Grimm shouted at the same time!

They didn't want to see this man again!

And where was Oliver Walker?

Why did Oliver Walker allow this man to stay here?!

Was it because he couldn't control Isaac Davis, or was Oliver Walker deliberately causing trouble for them?

"Um..."

"Mary! Emily!"

Isaac Davis's face turned red. He was too embarrassed to apologise to a woman, but a pair of eyes stared at him from behind. He had no choice.

He stammered as he said, "I... I'm here to apologise. I would like..... to ask for your forgiveness!"

As soon as he said that, Mary Grim and Emilia were petrified on the spot.

It was hard to imagine that the extremely chauvinistic Isaac Davis would actually apologize to them!

Even if the mistake made was not something that could be made up for with an apology, Isaac Davis's apology was indeed unexpected!

"Um ..."

"Emilia. I know that I've let you down as your father but I've learnt from my mistakes now.

"I hope you can give me another chance. I'm being serious! Please! Just give me another chance. I ... I promise to be a good father!"

His face was filled with sincerity, guilt, and uneasiness, but it was mainly because of the pair of eyes behind him. Even if he was acting, he had to put on a good show, right?

Oliver Walker didn't care that Isaac Davis was only putting on an act. After all, he was confident that he could force Isaac Davis to compromise.

The sudden apology caused Emilia to feel tense. "You ..."

She couldn't believe it!

Was she dreaming?

She bit her red lips tightly. Logically speaking, there was no reason for her to forgive all the horrible things that Isaac Davis had done.

But was there any child who didn't want a father?

Who wouldn't want to have all the beautiful memories that they once had?

"I...."

Isaac Davis sighed, "No matter what, I'm still your father!"

"We share the same blood!"

"I ..."

He knew that it would be difficult to convince Emilia, but he would only have a chance to turn defeat into victory by being alone with Mary Grimm!

So, he had to convince Amelia or at least get her out of there!

"Hmph!"

A cold smile appeared at the corner of Emilia's lips. "If you still considered yourself as my father, you shouldn't have let us suffer!"

"Did you think of the consequences when you embezzled public funds back then?"

"When you left with Olivia's medical fees, did you ever think that your conscience would feel uneasy?"

"You...!"

"You've done so much shit to us. Even if you had done just one thing good to us, I wouldn't hate you this much!"

"You want me to forgive you? You wish!"

She had too much hatred in her heart.

Forgive Issac Davis and then allow him to break his mother's heart again?

It was impossible!

After all, they didn't need him anymore!

Why should she allow him to come home?!

She wasn't the one who was cruel! Isaac Davis was the one who had gone too far with it, and there was no room left for him!

If she forgave him, not only would she be harming herself, but she would also be harming her mother and the entire family!

Isaac Davis's mouth twitched.

After all, as a man, he had always looked down on women. Emilia was his daughter, and for him, it was really too much for her to be humiliating him like this.

However, he would never forget what Oliver Walker had said. If Emilia and Mary Grimm did not forgive him, he would be sent to jail.

Therefore, no matter how indignant he was, he didn't want to show it. He could only say, "I...."

Emilia was having an emotional breakdown as she shouted, "Get out! Leave this house at once! You don't deserve to appear in front of us!

"We can live a better life without you!!

Chapter 163 Their Final Choices

It wasn't Amelia who was being heartless nor was she being sensitive with a fragile heart!

The fact was that it was because the inhumane torture that she, her mother, and her daughter had experienced was not something that could be resolved with a simple apology.

She had to stand against what was wrong!

Emilia had forgiven Oliver Walker because he hadn't done anything wrong in the first place. It was her at fault!

But, why should she forgive a monster like Isaac Davis?

"Emilia! You ... You're my daughter!

"How could you speak to me like that?"

Isaac Davis was getting agitated but he quickly calmed down. "Damn! Emilia, I'm sincerely apologizing to you and I want your forgiveness!"

He wanted to cry but there were no tears in his eyes.

If she didn't forgive him, his life would be ruined!

"You're not worthy of it!"

Emilia became even angrier as she screamed, "Hurry up and leave! We don't accept your apology!"

She tried to close the door with all her might but how could she be stronger than a man?!

"Mary!"

"I.....I've made a mistake but please say something!"

With Oliver Walker present, the guilty Isaac Davis didn't dare to go too far. He could only shout, "We used to be married and the bond between us would last for hundreds of years!"

"I ... I ... I'm a bastard but you're kind and virtuous. You'll definitely give me another chance!"

"Am I right?"

"Mum! He doesn't deserve it!" Emilia retorted.

"If it wasn't for him, we wouldn't have suffered so much!"

If Isaac Davis had done it unintentionally, then no matter how miserable their family was, they would be able to bear it.

But, he did all those things intentionally!

Whether it was embezzling public funds or taking away the money that could save Olivia's life!

This man was simply unforgivable!

"Mary!!!!"

Isaac Davis's face showed that he was in despair as he shouted "I'm begging you!

"You can't just give up on me!

"Besides, don't you have anything to do with the embezzlement?!"

Mary Grimm was in a dilemma!

She hesitated!

She had indeed become soft-hearted!

It wasn't just because they were husband and wife. There were also other reasons that caused her to want to say something.

After all, she had also played a role in why their family was kicked out of the company.

However, after seeing her daughter's intense reaction, she couldn't bring herself to say it again!

In short, it felt very uncomfortable ...

Oliver Walker did not say a word. This was something that they have to deal with.

It didn't matter whether it was his wife or his mother-in-law. It was their right to choose!

Although he had returned, he was still like an outsider. His wife and mother-in-law had not accepted him from the bottom of their hearts.

"Oliver Walker!"

"Aren't you good at fighting?!"

"What are you waiting for? Throw him out now!"

Tears welled up in Amelia's beautiful eyes as she angrily shouted, "Are you just going to watch him hurt my mother again?"

His mother-in-law had yet to express her opinion but his wife was already shouting, that's when Oliver Walker gradually understood that they had made their choice.

There was nothing wrong with this!

In fact, it was a good choice.

Then, he took a step forward and said in a cold tone, "You can leave now!"

These words were like a death sentence for Isaac Davis. He was completely dumbfounded!

"No... I can't leave!"

"I ... I ... I must be forgiven!"

Isaac Davis seemed to have lost his mind. He knelt on the ground with a thud and cried, "Mary, you can't just leave me in the lurch!

"We were married once!!!!"

Chapter 164 Leave It Up To Her

To be honest, this kneeling shook Emilia!

She quickly moved aside. No matter how she looked at it, how dare she stand in front of Isaac Davis, who was kneeling on the ground?

Mary Grimm frowned when she saw what happened, and her struggling heart suddenly seemed to stop beating.

The entire scene turned quiet.

They could even hear each other's breathing!

"Hmmm..."

After a full minute, Mary Grimm took a deep breath. "Emilia...let him in."

Emilia quickly reacted as she shouted anxiously, "Mum, this man is not worth forgiving!"

She knew her mother all too well. She knew what kind of person she was.

Mary Grimm was kind and indecisive.

She was also very conservative!

Although she had been abandoned for years, she still regarded Isaac Davis as her husband.

If she stepped aside, her mother would not be able to withstand Issac Davis's words that were coated with sugar!

"Emilia, I know that this is unfair to you!"

Mary Grimm said with tears in her eyes, "But ... I'll deal with it... Can't you let your mom solve it herself?"

She had too much grievance inside her heart.

After enduring for so many years, there was never a place for her to vent her anger.

But she was also a human and, more importantly, a woman!

She wouldn't like to be pointed at his back and called a jinx as she walked on the street!

Not to mention that there were many things that were not as simple as they seemed.

At least Isaac Davis still loved her very much in the past. It was a series of changes that later made Isaac Davis depressed. It was just things that she.....

She didn't want his daughter to know!

"But ..."

Amelia's brows furrowed, and she wanted to stop him but suddenly...

"Emilia!"

"It's up to mother! Let her deal with it."

No matter what choices his mother-in-law made, he could guarantee that Isaac Davis would not mess around again!

At least he wouldn't dare to be such a bastard anymore!

If his mother-in-law told Isaac Davis to get lost, Oliver Walker would make sure of that.

If his mother-in-law didn't want to, then he would make sure that Issac Davis would never have the audacity to do anything that would hurt his family again.

"You..."

Emilia wanted to say a few more things, but she stopped herself in the end.

This was indeed her mother's matter. As her daughter, Emilia couldn't say much.

Then, she left the room!

Isaac Davis saw his chance and quickly closed the door.

Emilia squatted on the ground, feeling both mentally and physically exhausted.

On her delicate and flawless face, there was a trace of haggardness that caused others to want to love her more!

"Why did you let him in?"

"He will never truly repent!"

"He only came back because he wanted the money from your hard work!"

To be honest, she had never thought of getting her hands on that money.

She knew that it wasn't easy for him to get the money, and it should have been fully handled by Oliver Walker.

Although she had never seen the cruelty of the battlefield, she could imagine that in the battlefield where artillery fire filled the sky. In order to survive, in addition to strength, one also needed luck.

"Are you really willing to let him take a share of the money you earned from your hard work?"

"You can't do that, you know?"

Oliver Walker frowned and squatted down. His heart ached as he said, "Emilia, I can understand how you feel, but I'm doing this for your own good!"

"If our mother doesn't forgive him, I won't be polite to him.

"But, mother should be the one to make a choice.

"As for the money, it's yours as well. You can do whatever you want with it.

"Do we have to make such a distinguished line if it belonged to you or me?"

Chapter 165 What's Mine is Yours

A trace of doubt flashed in Emilia's beautiful eyes.

It was mainly because of Oliver Walker's words that made her feel warm deep inside but at the same time, she seemed to be thinking if these were true or not.

Then, Oliver Walker took out his bank card and said sincerely, "It's been hard on you for the past eight years."

Half of everything that he had obtained would be Emilia's.

It didn't matter if it was his fortune or glory. If it wasn't for his wife who cut off all his worries back at home, how could he have been able to kill enemies, recuperate from his injuries, and cultivate talents peacefully all these years?

That old saying was true. A man at his peak must have a woman who was silently supporting him from behind.

They were a married couple.

No matter if it was honour or disgrace, good or bad, they would have to face it together.

"You..."

Emilia subconsciously moved back and said with a slight frown, "You...What is this for?"

The smile on Oliver Walker's face was as warm as the summer's sun. "All the money is inside this card. You're my wife and you know best how to use them!

"So, I was hoping that you can handle it!"

This was the greatest sincerity he could offer his wife at the moment!

In fact, he had wanted to have a good chat with his wife for a long time but he had never had the chance.

"I ..."

Emilia looked at the bank card and hesitated for a moment but she didn't accept it in the end. "I ... I ... I can't take it, this money belongs to you!"

Although she really wanted the money, not because she loved money, it was all that Oliver Walker had. She would feel more secure if she kept it.

However, since Oliver Walker was willing to give her all the money voluntarily, it showed that he was willing to live a stable life with her.

Furthermore, her husband was a soldier who had rendered meritorious service on the frontline and was so loyal to his family. Why should she reject him?

Seeing the worry in his wife's eyes, Oliver Walker smiled and said, "The family's livelihood will still depend on you."

"Since we're not buying a house or opening a clinic. It's useless for me to keep it."

He stuffed the bank card into his wife's hand and said, "The password to it is your birthday!"

"But, you were injured at battle. What if something happens to your body in the future?" Emilia's expression darkened.

"How were you hurt?"

In fact, she had asked about it before but her husband had never said anything. This made her worried.

If she didn't know the truth, she wouldn't be able to be at ease!

"My injuries have already healed!"

"As for Isaac Davis, even if he wanted the money, he wouldn't have the guts to make a move," Oliver Walker said with a smile.

"I've already told him that no matter what our mother chooses to do, the money has nothing to do with him."

He was touched that his wife remembered his injury.

His injury did not affect his normal life. It was just that it made it impossible for him to advance further on the path of martial arts in the future.

"You...How did you make him apologize to my mother?"

She was doubtful of it.

Emilia knew her father very well.

He was someone who would never shed tears until he saw the coffin!

If not for the knife on his neck, he would never have apologized to her and her mother.

With Oliver Walker's bad temper, there was a high probability that he had done such a thing.

"I didn't do anything!"

Oliver Walker shrugged. "I reasoned with him and questioned him emotionally, he figured it out himself."

He really hadn't done anything!

As for that, as long as Isaac Davis didn't do anything that would harm his family in the future, he will never say it.

After all, a few millions wouldn't hurt him.

"Hmmm?"

The simple sentence caused Emilia to laugh. "I'd be a fool to believe that"

In fact, it didn't matter how Oliver Walker did it.

The important thing was that her mother had another chance.

She held the bank card in her hand tightly. Oliver Walker had shown her hope for the future.

It was as if she had grabbed hold of this man's heart and all her worries were instantly dispelled.

Chapter 166 No More Violence

"Emilia!"

There was a sudden gentle look in Oliver Walker's resolute eyes. Looking at the beautiful face that he had been dreaming of, he said from the bottom of his heart, "You look so good when you smile!"

"I want to keep it in my heart forever so that I could fill every moment that I missed you!"

Such affectionate words made Emilia purse her lips and instantly, her face flushed red. "You're so slick!"

Emilia could feel her heart beating wildly!

She was so embarrassed that even her body was burning!

She had heard countless love confessions but none of them were what she wanted to hear.

Only the man in front of her ...

Made her heart beat again when it had been sealed for a long time!

"No..."

Oliver Walker grabbed the pair of Jade-like hands and hurriedly explained, "I was being serious!"

When their eyes met, time stopped!

Ten years ago, the world was her oyster and she saved him from the brink of death!

Eight years ago, she had married him when she was most beautiful and their hearts were tied forever!

After sending him to join the army, due to Isaac Davis, she was kicked out of the company which caused her to fall into the abyss.

For eight years, she and his daughter suffered all kinds of humiliation but they stayed in Colorado. They did not leave because they were waiting for his return!

Eight years later, he returned to his hometown in glory and swore to give her the best of the world!

Mountains, rivers and even the highest glory were not as promising as his wife's beautiful smile.

Emilia pursed her red lips, her voice as gentle as water. "Promise me, don't resort violence unnecessarily.

"This isn't the battlefield. The killing intention on your is too overpowering. I'm afraid that in the future, you'll ..."

There would definitely be someone stronger than him. What would she do if Oliver Walker was defeated one day?

This family would be incomplete once again!

"Alright!"

Oliver Walker nodded solemnly. "I promise that I won't hastily throw punches in the future."

Was there anything that he wouldn't agree to?

As long as it was something his wife wanted, he could even paralyse himself.

"You're a soldier with many merits and even after you've retired, you're still the backbone of the country.

"You shouldn't use that fame to cheat others for money. You must set a good example for the other heroes."

Emilia spoke seriously, "It's fine if the days are a little tough."

"We'll earn money with our own abilities. Then, we spend it generously and live with conscience!"

It wasn't that she didn't believe in Oliver Walker that he could run a clinic.

It was something that no one would believe!

How could a soldier who was fighting on the frontline have the time to learn medicine?

She would believe that he had some basic medical knowledge but those weren't actual skills.

He was definitely planets away from being able to run a clinic.

Besides, she had never seen Oliver Walker practising. What medical skills would he know?

However, she had neglected one thing. In the past, she lived a great life in Colorado. Oliver Walker didn't even have to raise his fist. Why would he need to show his brilliant medical skills?

"Of course!"

Oliver Walker nodded solemnly, "Is there anything else you want to tell me?"

They should only discuss the clinic later on.

He had to win his wife's trust step by step.

Her repeated reminders did not make him feel annoyed but instead, he was touched. At least, his wife cared about him.

Why was such a woman not worth protecting?

"As for this card, I'll leave it with you for now."

Emily felt relieved with how Oliver Walker had performed and she immediately said, "I'll let you know if I need it."

"The love I hope for is not a short-lived one!

"It's for eternity like the ocean and its corals!

"I believe in you. You will be a good role model for Olivia."

Chapter 167 The Hidden Wounds

For Emilia, she wasn't thinking about anything else.

She once had a glorious life.

And for the rest of her life now, she only wanted peace and health!

Furthermore, no matter how difficult it would get, could it be even more difficult than their lives now?

"Of course!"

"I will!" Oliver Walker smiled.

Their future would definitely get better. The longer they spent time together, the more his wife would feel that he was someone dependable.

The constant suspicion now was just a norm while she adapted to his new identity.

He believed that it would not take long for this grinding period to pass.

In the bedroom ...

Mary Grimm vented her anger, "What were you thinking about when you came back here?!"

"Do you know how much Amelia hates you?"

"If it wasn't for you, why would our family be in this state today?"

"If you stepped up to your role as a father... We....wouldn't have to live such a difficult life?!"

Once these things happened, it was impossible to turn back in time.

The man standing right in front of her was the one that had hurt the entire family!

"Do you think it's my fault for being kicked out of the company?"

Isaac Davis began to reveal his true nature. "If you gave birth to another child, if it was a boy, would I have become the joke of the family?"

"If I, Isaac Davis, had a son, who would dare to bully me when I'm the eldest son of the Davis family?!"

"It's not that I didn't work hard in the past but I know that no matter how hard I work, I still won't be worthy because I didn't have a son!"

When these words came out of his mouth, they once again stung Mary Grimm's deepest wounds.

When they had just gotten married, Isaac Davis had worked really hard and doted on her in every way possible!

However, everything changed when she had lost a lot of blood when she gave birth to Emilia.

In the end, it was Isaac Davis who saved her. He signed the agreement to remove her uterus as he had to keep her alive no matter what.

So, she owed Issac Davis her life!

In the end, she lost her ability to conceive and gave birth to a daughter. In a big family that valued boys over girls, this was a fatal blow.

Madam Davis treated her indifferently and even repeatedly requested for Isaac Davis to divorce her.

However, Isaac Davis was a responsible man back then. He protected his wife when she was at her weakest.

When Madam Davis saw that it was hopeless, she began to favour her second son, William Davis's father, Micheal Davis.

This was what led to the unfortunate stories that happened in the future.

No matter how outstanding Emilis was, she was still a girl.

After the old master's death, Madam Davis's favoritism became even more obvious. She even turned a blind eye to how arrogant Michelle Davis has been especially when suppressing Issac Davis and his family.

"You should be guilty about it!

"If you gave birth to a boy, how could Micheal Davis bully me?!

Isaac Davis's aura gradually became stronger because he knew Mary Grimm too well. Then, he said, "I might have made a mistake but you're also the reason why it happened!

"Do you know how I feel as the young master of Davis that does not have a son?!

"Do you know how many eye-rolls I've endured?"

"You don't even know!"

Such harsh words undoubtedly eroded Mary Green's heart. She couldn't hold back her emotions anymore and burst into tears in an instant. "I'm sorry, I'm really sorry!"

"It's my fault, it's all my fault!"

"But.....even if Emilia is a girl, she's still your child!"

Why did she treat Olivia Walker so indifferently?

It was not that she did not like Olivia Walker. It was just that she had too many hidden wounds in her heart.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for Mary Grimm to work herself to death, suffer on the streets and live such a difficult life, just to get enough money for the surgery.

No one had ever understood her pain.

She didn't even dare to say these words to Emilia, afraid that her daughter wouldn't be able to accept them.

Seeing that Mary Grimm's heart softened, Isaac Davis walked up to her, patted her back, and shamelessly said, "I've forgiven you for all those."

"But, you will have to forgive me for what happened today!"

Chapter 168 A Dream

"That little bastard, Oliver Walker. He isn't even human. He actually wants to kill me!"

"I ... I ... I've saved your life. You can't just watch me get killed!"

The reason for this was simple. Oliver Walker had evidence of his crimes.

He definitely couldn't fight him head-on.

If he didn't kick Oliver Walker out of the house, George Johnson would never let him go!

Therefore, Oliver Walker was someone that was in his way!

More importantly, he was still thinking about the one million dollars that Oliver Walker had!

"Since we've both made a mistake, why don't you come home and live a simple life?"

"We're already over fifty years old. Let's not waste time, alright?"

Mary Grimm had always been a loyal and traditional woman. She always remembered how good Isaac Davis had been to her.

However, she had never thought that some people would change.

Isaac Davis's heart was no longer in this home!

However, he had no choice now and could only say, "Of course!"

"I won't let you down again. I... I want to grow old with you!"

"I want to be a competent father!"

Now, he could only stabilize Mary Grimm's emotions first. Then, he'll find an opportunity to deal slowly with Oliver Walker.

He didn't believe that a man in his 50s couldn't win against Oliver Walker, who was less than 30 years old.

When they heard Mary Grimm's choice, Oliver Walker and Emilia were not surprised. It was as if they had expected it.

Although he knew that Isaac Davis wasn't a good man, having someone to grow old together with was a nice idea.

At least his mother-in-law would not be so lonely anymore.

The night passed peacefully!

However, Oliver Walker was still sleeping in the living room. He didn't know when he would be able to go back to his room to sleep, but everything seemed great.

At the very least, it was heading in a good direction.

The next morning, when Olivia Walker woke up ...

"Do you think your father is someone you've imagined him to be?" Emily asked with a smile.

The misunderstanding had been cleared up, and the truth was that she was wrong.

Although she couldn't accept that man yet, she still shouldn't stop her daughter from being reunited with her father.

After all, her daughter was the link between her and Oliver Walker!

With their daughter, she could slowly understand him and find the feelings she had for him.

"Mummy!"

Olivia Walker's face was surprised, but she still asked timidly, "You mean, I can call him 'daddy' now?!"

Her father had always been the same as the man she had imagined.

He was a great hero!

He was a gentle man who loved her and gave her a sense of security.

However, she had always been afraid of hurting her mother, so she never dared to go close to her father at home.

"Of course, you can!"

"Go on. See if he's had a good night's sleep." Amelia had a sweet smile on her face.

In fact, there was another important reason why Oliver Walker was asked to sleep outside. The bed in the bedroom was too small, and he couldn't be sleeping on the floor, right?

"YESSSS!!!!!!!"

As if she had hit the jackpot, Olivia Walker hugged her mother's face and kissed her. Then, as she ran, she shouted excitedly, "Daddy!"

This shout caused Oliver Walker to open his eyes instantly!

He had just woken up and encountered such a big surprise. It was definitely challenging for him to react appropriately.

He felt like he was in a dream. "You ...What did you just call me?"

They were still at home. If she had called him that, it must have been Emilia's idea.

Didn't this mean that Emilia had acknowledged his identity in front of their daughter?

If that's the case, then this was a pleasant surprise!

This can't be just a dream!

It can't be.

Chapter 169 Their Future Plans

"Daddy!"

Olivia Walker ran to her father and lay in his warm chest. She was very overjoyed!

In fact, last night, she had been hugging the beautiful lamb to bed as if she were hugging her father.

Oliver Walker pinched her tender face excitedly. "Quick! Shout a few more times! Let me hear it!"

His daughter's voice was soft and sweet. It was music to his ears!!

The music that he will never get tired of hearing!

Perhaps to other people, being called 'daddy' would not make them so excited.

But to him, it was different.

Before this, the connection that he had with his daughter was like a secret. He didn't dare to let his family know.

To be able to hear such an intimate voice at him was about to make him cry!

"Daddy!"

"Daddy!"

"I have a father now!"

"No one is allowed to call me a wild child!"

Olivia Walker was as happy as a little bird. She stuck to Oliver Walker and continued shouting.

It seemed that no matter how much she said it, it wasn't enough!

At the same time, Emilia was standing at the door of the room. She couldn't hide her smile as she looked at the heartwarming scene.

She had been too sensitive and had neglected her daughter's longing for her father.

She also neglected the love a father had for his child.

But, as she thought about it, she suddenly thought of Isaac Davis. The huge contrast made her sad.

In the eyes of most children, their fathers were all superheroes.

There were also a few fathers who would only leave a bad impression on their children!

After breakfast, they went about their own business.

Oliver Walker had also said that he wouldn't let his mother-in-law clean the roads anymore but Mary Grimm was reluctant to give up her meagre salary. Therefore, no matter how tired she was, she was still very persistent.

After sending their daughter to school, Oliver Walker and Emilia strolled on the street.

The two of them were silent for a long time, as if neither of them could find a topic to break the silence.

After walking for about 20 minutes, Emilia frowned slightly. "Do you have any plans for the future?"

"If I don't leave Colorado, I won't be able to find a job."

She felt lost!

She didn't know what to do tomorrow.

Even if they had money now, they were bound to finish it one day!

"Let's see how Issac Davis's performance is for now!"

"If he doesn't do a good job, we'll leave. It'll make it easier for mother to give up on him." Oliver Walker suggested while smiling.

"If we leave now, we have to bring him along. What if something happens in the future? Won't he come looking for us again?"

It wasn't that he didn't want to respect his father-in-law but there was no reason for him to.

Well, he also knew that his wife did not want to leave this place where she was born and raised.

He only needed a few more days and he would be able to find the opportunity to knock down the Davis Corporates.

Olive Walker would then gain his wife's trust and slowly lay his cards on the table. With his status, he would not need to pursue worldly possessions anymore.

He just wanted to do something meaningful with his life. Money would only be important when they needed it.

When he wasn't short of it, money was just a pile of waste paper. It was far less important than a dream.

It wasn't strange for one to have such thoughts based on his current status.

"Hmmmmm..."

Emilia felt that there was nothing wrong with what Oliver Walker said.

If she really left Colorado, she would want to cut all ties with Isaac Davis.

It wasn't that she was heartless but no one could choose to forgive him after being hurt so many times.

Mary Grimm only did that because she was a traditional woman. It caused her to feel guilty about Isaac Davis and she didn't have enough confidence.

Although this was a ridiculous statement, in a family that valued men over women, as long as there was no son, it meant that their partners had to be cut off; regardless of whether they were poor or rich.

Thus, the series of unforeseen events that happened in Davis was indeed because Mary Grimm could no longer bear another child and Emily was a girl.

Before they knew it, the two of them had already walked to a rather bustling street.

Boom --

Suddenly, a Tesla sedan that was out of control crashed into the guardrail and was headed toward the sidewalk at an extremely fast speed!

Chapter 170 Murderer!!

"AHHHHHHH!!!!!"

Bang --

Then, a delivery uncle in blue overalls rode an electric scooter who didn't dodge in time.

Before he could react, he was knocked out of his vehicle and flew more than ten meters away.

Clang ... Clang ...

When the electric car hit the ground, it completely fell apart.

Blood kept flowing out of the uncle's nose, and his eyes were shut. He wanted to get up but had no strength to support his body.

Boom --

The out-of-control Tesla electric car also rushed into the green belt and finally stopped.

A woman dressed in gorgeous clothes opened the car door in a panic and ran over. "Oh my!!!!!"

"I've hit someone, I ...What do I do?"

"Save ...Someone save him!"

"Hurry up and save him!"

She was panicking so much that her face had turned pale, and tears were about to fall. She shouted for help from the pedestrians around her.

"Female drivers these days are really terrible!"

"Oh my god!"

"Don't touch him! Call 120!"

"..."

Soon, a few helpful pedestrians stopped by the side of the road!

After seeing this scene as the successor of the Tianyi sect, Oliver Walker said subconsciously, "Emilia, give me a moment. I'll go and save him first."

After informing his wife, he rushed to the accident site as fast as possible.

"You..."

Before Emilia could say anything, Oliver Walker had already run for over twenty meters. She was so anxious that she quickly followed him.

Who was he trying to save?

No way...

It seemed he had said he knew some medical skills, which was why he wanted to open a clinic. If it was true, there should be no problem with emergency rescue, right?

"Get out of the way!"

"I'm a doctor from the emergency department of First Hospital!"

At the same time, a white Volkswagen stopped by the side of the road.

The man on his way to work witnessed the incident and squeezed into the crowd out of his duty to save the dying man.

"Hey, isn't that Dr. Wilson?"

"Everyone, get out of the way! She's the chief surgeon of Colorado's First Hospital!"

"She definitely knows what to do!"

"..."

Suddenly, someone recognized Allie Wilson and made way for her.

At this moment, the delivery uncle was already exhaling more than he was inhaling. His face was covered in blood which made him look scary.

Allie Wilson squatted down and carefully examined the uncle's body. She realized that the patient was in a bad state. She frowned and asked, "Have you called the emergency number?"

The young woman who caused the accident was completely stunned. She nodded her head madly. "Yes! Someone....There was someone who just called for help!"

Her name was Luna Thomas, and she owned a luxury women's clothing store. She had never dreamed that a car driving normally would suddenly go out of control.

It would have been fine if she hadn't hit anyone, but now ...

Looking at the delivery man on the ground, breathing with all his might, she was so scared that tears kept falling. "He ... How is he?"

The surrounding crowd also became nervous as well.

"Exactly!"

"Dr. Wilson, please save him!"

"..."

Allie Wilson stood up and sighed. "He's suffering from a cerebral hemorrhage, and it's the rush hour now. Even if the ambulance can arrive at the scene within fifteen minutes, it'll be too late."

She was a doctor and a surgeon.

She had seen many people injured in traffic accidents, so she was very experienced in dealing with them. However, the person in front of her had a slim chance of surviving even if they were in the operating theatre, let alone now.

Luna Thomas, who was already dumbfounded, took two steps back. "I ... I... I am a murderer??"

It didn't matter if it was intentional or not, but ...

It happened!
