Chapter 191 Human Rights

After the call ended.....

The news quickly reached the Davis Corporates. Sitting in the CEO's office, William Davis was so angry that his face turned purple. "They aren't taking the ban seriously?"

"Who was it that dared to do business with Emilia?!"

"Hurry up and tell me!"

He suddenly stood up from the table and roared with a gloomy face, "The ban not only stops her from finding a job, but it also means that no one is to do business with her!"

"Whoever dares to take her money is making an enemy of mine!"

Just the thought of him kneeling and apologizing to Emilia and Oliver Walker in the hospital was enough to cause internal injuries.

Now that Hendric Smith had left Colorado, the opportunity for revenge had finally come!

Freddy Martin was angry as well. "It's the Gucci store in Grand Sun Mall!"

William Davis, who had been overbearing just a moment ago, instantly became like a frost-beaten eggplant as soon as these words came out. He was speechless.

The Grand Sun Mall was the property of the richest man in Colorado, Leon Williams. They couldn't touch it!

Plus, the luxury stores in Colorado related to Gucci belonged to Luna Thomas. There was nothing he could do as well!

William Davis gritted his teeth in anger. "Send out a notice. Anyone dares to take in Emilia will be an enemy of the Davis Corporate!"

"Also, publish the ban from eight years again. I want her to come back and beg me on her knees!"

He had to get his pride healed!

Otherwise, where would he put his face?

Did they really think that he was an idiot?

When the ban was reissued, the entire business world was confused.

What happened?

Even if Oliver Walker came back, there was no need for William Davis to rerelease the ban.

Could it be ...

That Emilia would be stepping back into the business world?

That was impossible!

Absolutely impossible!

Blue Ocean Spa Club!

Emilia's phoenix-like brows furrowed as she said, "Why don't we go somewhere else?"

This place reminded her of her past, and she didn't want to go in.

Plus, this place belonged to George Johnson.

Besides, she was ...

"It's fine!"

There was a sharp glint in Oliver Walker's eyes, but he smiled and said, "We're here. No one has the right to deprive you of your spending rights!"

"Didn't Davis issue another ban?"

"Then, we'll show Davis that there is still justice here. No one can be that powerful to control the entire state!"

On the way here, they heard about how William Davis had reissued the ban that he had placed on Emilia.

Although it didn't harm anyone, it still humiliated Emilia greatly.

Who did the Davis take themselves for?"

They were only a company at most. On what basis did they have the audacity to do such things?!

As they spoke about it, Emilia was frustrated as well.

William Davis treated her like a puppet, trying to control her every move. It was simply hateful!

The reason why Oliver Walker chose the Blue Ocean Spa Club, which was under George Johnson, was straightforward. He wanted to solve the issues that had been left hanging.

He had planned to keep a low profile, but the encounter with Alison Carter and the incident with Davis had already made him furious.

His wife was not a weakling who would be played around with!

He wanted the people of Colorado to know!

Oliver Walker was back!

Emilia may no longer be young miss Davis, but she would become a noble lady whom Davis couldn't touch!

She was Oliver Walker's wife!

She would not be deprived of the respect that she deserved!

He wasn't narrow-minded, but the Davis family had gone too far with it. If he didn't take the initiative to retaliate, he would really be regarded as a soft persimmon that anyone could crush!

"Sure!"

Emilia took a deep breath as her beautiful eyes were filled with determination!

She was a human!

Not a slave!

She had the spending right!

No one should be able to take it away from her!

They would surrender to the evil forces if they didn't go in now!

In fact, subconsciously, she had begun to trust Oliver Walker.

She felt that with this man around, he could really help her overcome all her difficulties!

She didn't ask to be above others. She just wanted to have the human rights that she deserved!

Chapter 192 The Intro

She would never lower her head to such a barbaric fellow!

Moreover, she needed to be respected for her human rights!

It was only ten in the morning and many entertainment venues had just opened up for business!

The Blue Ocean Spa Club was no exception!

There was not a single customer inside ...

"Did you hear? Emilia pissed off William Davis again!"

"That woman is a femme fatale."

“She’s already working at the club but you still couldn’t let go of her pride!”

“Mr. Johnson had tried to woo her for so long but she has no idea what’s good for her. I really don’t understand what’s so good about Oliver Walker.”

“She’s just making it difficult for herself.”

“ ... ”

Standing in the hall, the hostess, who was ready to welcome the guests, started to discuss with the security guards dressed in black suits.

After all, Emilia was the only one who would get two banned twice by William Davis!

No....

To be precise, Emilia is the only person who could be blacklisted by the entire Colorado business community!

“I think she’s just putting up an act!”

“But this time, she got herself into some pretty deep shit”

“The guests are coming in now! Get ready!”

“ ... ”

Then, when Oliver Walker stepped into the door, the welcoming staff and security guards of the Blue Ocean Spa Club bowed and greeted, “Welcome to ...”

But, when they saw who it was, all the staff members were stunned!

The welcoming greeting that they were supposed to say did not come out of their mouths completely.

Emilia took a deep breath. Since she had decided to face this cold and indifferent city once again, she would no longer lower her head!

Who was she?

She was the goddess of Colorado, the brightest star of this city!

What right did she end up being the fish on the chopping board? Allowing others to bully her as they pleased?

“What’s wrong?”

Oliver Walker sized them up and said coldly, “Don’t tell me that we’re not welcomed here?”

There was a deadly silence!

No one had expected that Oliver Walker and Emilia would still dare to show their faces in this city after being banned by William Davis. This did not make any sense!

Would they dig a rat hole and try to hide themselves?

A man dressed as the lobby manager, Wu Li, came forward arrogantly and said, “Are you looking for a job?”

“But, you should know that Mr. Johnson will not be accepting you.”

That's right!

Why else would Emilia be here?

She must be here to beg George Johnson for a job!

This was the only reasonable explanation!

"I'm here to take a bath."

There was a trace of anger in Emilia's beautiful eyes. She knew how bad her reputation had been under Blue Ocean Entertainment in the past years.

She didn't live a life that was respected by others but at least she shouldn't be looked down upon by others the moment she left!

"What?"

"A bath?"

Wu Li was stunned at first then he sneered, "Emilia, I'm afraid you're not clear about your situation?"

"Who would dare serve you in Colorado now?!"

"Hurry up and get lost!"

Davis's ban was like an imperial edict to a small company like Blue Ocean Entertainment.

Who dared to disobey Davis?

Everyone was afraid of how powerful the Davis Corporate would be as they could make anyone go bankrupt within seconds!

Even if George Johnson was here, he wouldn't dare to say yes!

"You really don't know what's going on?"

"Even if you want to die, don't drag us down with you!"

"Hurry up and leave!"

"..."

The staff members shouted out one after another. After all, no one wanted to be implicated with Emilia!

Emilia stood on the spot and pursed her red lips. The anger in her heart rose spontaneously!

At the same time, the sharpness in Oliver Walker's eyes grew more and more intense. This result was as he had expected!

However, he would never leave because they were getting chased out...

Because the show had just begun!

Chapter 193 Making A Statement

"From today onwards, Davis's ban will be completely lifted!"

"Anyone who dares to conspire with us will have to pay a painful price!" Oliver Walker demanded coldly.

The reason why they were targeting Blue Ocean Entertainment was simple. They wanted to break Davis's ban and at the same time, they wanted to deal with George Johnson!

There was a long story between him and George Johnson. If he didn't go after George Johnson first, who else could he go to?

Plus, George Johnson, who was quite representative in Colorado. He had too many guys working for him.

"Who do you think you are?!"

"Mr. Davis's words are like an imperial edict in Colorado!"

"Men, throw out these stray dogs!" Wu Li angrily shouted.

As soon as he finished, more than a dozen bodyguards instantly rushed forward, waving their rubber batons.

Emilia's brows furrowed slightly. She knew that things had gotten out of hand again!

However, Emilia was feeling mad this time. Why did they have to target her?!

"No one can stop you today!" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

Then, he held his wife's hand. He wasn't here to vent his anger but to settle old and new debt's altogether.

He wasn't the one who was trying to be high profile but it was William Davis who forced him to do so!

Since George Johnson was on Davis's side, Oliver Walker couldn't let him get away with it!

“En!”

Emilia took a deep breath. She also understood why Oliver Walker had chosen to do so. He wasn't doing it so that she could take a bath and change her clothes.

Instead, he wanted to ...

“Kill him!”

“B*stard, how dare you act so arrogantly in Blue Ocean Entertainment?”

“You don't know what you're up against!”

“...”

The security guards of the Blue Ocean Spa Club had already rushed over, baring their fangs and brandishing their claws.

Emilia's heart was filled with fear and she couldn't help but clench her hands!

Oliver Walker naturally realised the change in his wife's emotions.

However, he did not stop. Instead, he walked straight into the elevator.

As for the security guards?

They were just clowns.

“Ahhhhhhh!!!!”

Bang --

Boom --

In the blink of an eye, all of them were lying on the ground!

They clutched onto their stomachs and started to wail in pain!

“Oh my!”

“They’re starting a fight!”

“Wuwu ...”

The screams of the welcoming guests were sharp to the ears. No one dared to imagine that Emilia would dare to start trouble in the Blue Ocean Spa Club!

This ...

Was it revenge?

It was definitely revenge!

However, Emilia didn’t want revenge. She only wanted the respect that she deserved.

“You.....Don’t come here! Ahhhhh!!!!”

Wu Li was greatly shocked and his entire body was shaking!

As he looked at the imposing Oliver Walker, who was walking towards him step by step, his pupils shrunk!

Slap—

With a backhand slap, Oliver Walker sent Wu Li flying to the ground. He said coldly, “My wife wants to take a bath now. Do you know what to do?”

The pair of cold eyes was like an eagle that was hunting its prey. They were filled with a sharp and fierce look!

Wu Li gulped with difficulty and nodded his head repeatedly. He was completely dumbfounded!

He had indeed heard that Oliver Walker was a violent man but he did not expect him to be this bad!

“Also, inform George Johnson to come here before my wife finishes her bath or I will see him in prison.”

Oliver Walker’s eyes were filled with contempt.

He didn’t want to argue with George Johnson but he had offended him repeatedly. When William Davis issued another ban, George Johnson even sided with the devil.

So...

Pardon me!

Oliver Walker would never allow anyone to humiliate his wife!

Chapter 194 He Wants To See You Now

After saying that, he entered the elevator with his wife and went to the second floor.

This was a common pool for men and women to bathe in. Although there was no one inside, Emilia still opened her red lips slightly and said with a troubled tone, "You ..."

She was a very conservative woman.

Perhaps from a modern point of view, it was normal to wear a bikini and bathe with a man but for a reserved woman like her, it was unacceptable.

Even if the man beside her was her husband!

In fact, they really didn't know each other that well!

So ...

Oliver Walker understood his wife's worries and smiled gently. "I'll be at the door, guarding it for you!"

He was a little disappointed but he could understand.

He knew what his wife was worried about.

If she didn't have the self-restraint of a lady from a wealthy family, she wouldn't have waited for him for eight years.

He did not want to force his wife too much in this aspect!

Marriage shouldn't just be about lust, it should be about love!

If they didn't communicate well about their feelings and went on to satisfy their lust, how different would they be from the animals?

Plus, wasn't it the unique charm and beauty of an Eastern woman from his wife that captured his heart?

So, he shouldn't be too hasty and use their marriage to imprison his wife.

"Alright!"

There was a slight apologetic look on Emilia's pretty face but at the same time, she heaved a sigh of relief.

At the very least, this man really respected her wishes.

She also clearly understood that there was a fundamental difference between Oliver Walker and those men who only cared about her beauty.

When he was docile, he would be a modest gentleman!

When he exploded in rage, he would turn into a god of war!

In fact, she still didn't understand him well enough. The man guarding the door wasn't a war god but the master of the five great war gods!

After entering the pool, Emilia's body and mind were in an unprecedented state of relaxation.

She had already forgotten how long it had been since she last soaked in a hot spring!

It was torture for someone who was particular about hygiene to not have the chance to shower everyday.

She looked at the man whose back was facing her. There were thousands of words in her heart but she did not know how to say them.

When her tense nerves finally relaxed, she realized how impulsive they had been. She frowned and asked, "Have you ever thought of what we will face if we do this?"

With her personality, she wouldn't have lost her mind when she heard that the ban had been reissued.

But, why didn't she stop Oliver Walker when he made a scene? Instead, she felt her suppressed emotions being released.

It was because Oliver Walker could provoke her emotions.

She didn't want to keep a distance from Oliver Walker and so, she subconsciously moved closer.

Or perhaps, these emotions that had been suppressed for eight whole years were ready to erupt from the bottom of her heart.

No matter what it was, that back view of the man in front of her gave her a sense of security that no one could replace!

"Consequences?"

Without turning around, a smile appeared on Oliver Walker's face. "It should be for those who have bullied you. They will bow before you and apologise while begging for forgiveness!"

George Johnson?

William Davis?

Jessica Wright Davis?

Those ungrateful or despicable people who stomp on others who were already in a miserable state?

They were all tiny ants to him.

“Hmmmmm.....”

Emilia’s expression changed several times. She took a deep breath and pursed her red lips.

This man was always so confident, giving people a feeling of unfathomability.

Was she doubtful?

It was impossible for her to have any more doubts!

She wasn’t a fool. Oliver Walker had already brought her enough surprises.

This man may be hiding something from her.

But, no matter what, she had already made up her mind. No matter how difficult the road ahead would be, she was willing to stand by his side as they walked into the future!

In the villa ...

Ring ring ring --

When the phone rang, it woke George Johnson up from his sleep. He immediately cursed, “Didn’t I tell you?”

“Don’t disturb me when I’m sleeping!”

On the other end of the call, Wu Li said with a trembling voice, “Mr. Johnson, Emilia brought along that wild man and...they barged into the pool...That man even mentioned ... that he wants to see you now!”

As soon as he was done, George Johnson’s yawn disappeared without a trace. He jumped up from the bed and exclaimed, “What?!”

Chapter 195 Looking For Backup

Could it be that damned idiot, Isaac Davis had exposed him?

George Johnson was dumbfounded!

Oliver Walker was now a meritorious soldier from the frontline. He did not want to fight head-on. Otherwise, he would not have found Isaac Davis.

“What else did he say?” He immediately asked.

“What’s happening now?”

With his understanding of Emilia, there was no way she would allow Oliver Walker to do as he pleased because of this matter.

Something else must have happened.

“It’s ... It was young master Davis who reissued the ban. After receiving the news, Emilia walked in to take a bath. We tried to stop her but...”

Wu Li didn’t dare to hide anything. After all, he was just an employee, yet he was beaten up for nothing.

He had to admit that that wild man was really ruthless!

Oliver Walker was so violent that his mouth was full of blood!

It was also because of this that they had to suspend their business!

“I got it!”

George Johnson gulped and his eyes were as vicious as a poisonous snake’s. “Don’t provoke him now. I’d like to see what William Davis has to say about this.”

With his current capabilities, he did not dare to make a move on Oliver Walker.

But, if he had Davis backing him up, it would be different.

He immediately made a call and said carefully, “Hello, Mr. Davis!”

George Johnson might be someone famous in Colorado.

But, that was only for the ordinary people.

Compared to the behemoth Davis, he was not even worth a second of their time.

“If you have something to say, say it!”

William Davis was feeling smug!

Did Emilia think that she was that good?

Did she really think that she could get away from him just because Oliver Walker had returned?

What a daydream?!

“The thing is... Emilia brought along Oliver Walker and they caused a scene at my spa club.”

George Johnson trembled and asked, “What do you think of this matter?”

He was feeling nervous. He had never given up on his fantasies about Emilia.

However, he did not dare to act rashly.

William Davis’s attitude would determine his next move!

“You’re such a piece of trash!”

“You’ve been a gangster for years. You can’t even handle such a simple matter?” William Davis screamed on the phone.

“She’s a daughter of the Davis family. After all...” George Johnson quickly replied.

“Listen up, she’s not!” William Davis shouted angrily.

“Screw them up! If anything goes wrong, I’ll cover for you!”

“Hurry up and go. I’ll be over there soon once I’m done with this meeting!”

George Johnson immediately answered with joy, “Of course!”

After hanging up the call, the sense of inferiority that was deep in his bones instantly disappeared without a trace.

He changed his clothes and shouted excitedly, "Mike White, call for backup!"

"We'll fk him up!"

He had never forgotten the sorry state he had been in on the street the other day.

With Davis's support, does it matter if Oliver Walker had the support of the Military Department?

Andy Cooper could fight him but will he be able to wrestle William Davis?

At the same time, many people in Colorado were watching what would happen next. They wanted to know what had happened.

Why did William Davis disregard his status and had released another ban on Emilia who was already kicked to the curb?

These people had a sharp sense. When the Blue Ocean Spa Club was closed for the day, most of them had already figured out that something had happened inside the club.

After all, it was completely reasonable for Oliver Walker to go to George Johnson.

Back in the Gucci store in Grand Sun Mall, Luna Thomas got up and said, "Mr. Walter, get the car ready!"

"We're going to the Blue Sea Spa Club!"

Her father had arranged for James Walter to be her bodyguard and driver.

“Young miss, it’s not wise to get involved in this!” He frowned.

Although Thomas corporation’s status in Eastern Ocean City was no less than Davis’s status in Colorado...

This wasn’t their territory. He really couldn’t understand how a rich young lady could be so willful.

Wasn’t it better to just quietly inherit the family business?

Why did she come all the way to Colorado and become the representative of Gucci?

Chapter 196 Jessica Has Come To Join the Fun

“I owe them a favour, so I have to return it. Anyway, I don’t think Emilia is as bad as what the rest of Colorado is saying.”

Luna Thomas said with determination, “I’m definitely going to be friends with her.”

She had met many people, especially people like Alison Carter. There were countless of them.

Could she be friends with people like them?

It was impossible!

Therefore, although she had a prominent status and was doing well, she did not have any close friends.

On the other hand, what Emilia did today gave her an intuition that this lady that was hated by everyone here was worth befriending.

James Walter struggled a little before saying, “Miss, you can go but don’t force yourself to. After all, this is Colorado. We aren’t in Eastern Ocean City.”

He was feeling extremely worried.

His young miss could be impulsive but he couldn't!

What if something happened to her?

"Alright! Alright! I know!"

Luna Thomas waved her hand with a smile. Then, she took her bag and rushed out of the store.

No matter what, she was definitely going to join in the fun.

She wasn't an ungrateful person like Alison Carter.

The entire state was in chaos. William Davis never expected that when he issued the ban again, it would ignite the fuse that had been suppressed for many years.

There were those who wanted to kill Oliver Walker and Emilia but there were also others who wanted to help them!

Leon Williams was one of them. When he heard the news, his expression changed and he stood up. "I'd like to see what kind of tricks Davis is up to!"

"Let's go!"

Originally, he didn't want to get involved. After all, important people didn't like flattery.

However, judging by the current situation, it was impossible not to participate!

The Blue Ocean Spa Club was surprisingly lively today. Not only did William Davis not expect it, even Emilia didn't expect it to cause such a big chain reaction.

But to Oliver Walker, everything was within his expectations!

Let it continue!

The bigger the crowd, the better!

The man dared to put a ban on his wife which was like a slap to his face!

"Sister Jessica! The adulterous couple is inside."

Alison Carter's face was filled with ruthlessness. She had been slapped at the mall and so she naturally wanted to take revenge.

Not only did she get Freddy Martin to inform William Davis but she also went to great lengths to find Jessica Wright Davis's number.

"Hmph!"

Jessica Wright Davis's mouth curled into a cold smile. "How dare she be so arrogant?"

"I'll see who can protect her this time!"

Everytime she thought of the scene in the hospital where William Davis had forced her to kneel down with him, she would feel infuriated.

Where did Emilia's courage come from?

“Ms. Davis!”

However, right at this moment, Wu Li’s face turned blank. “Why are you here?”

They were closed for now!

Plus, George Johnson had told him not to provoke the man who was inside.

However, he couldn’t stop this person either!

“I’m here to find that b*tch!”

Jessica Wright Davis said viciously, “Move aside!”

In her eyes, these men were no different from trash.

She was now filled with fury.

How could she not vent her anger?

“Ms. Davis, you can’t go in!”

“Inside ...”

Wu Li wanted to stop her but Jessica Wright Davis simply ignored him. Instead, she turned around and slapped Wu Li’s face.

Wu Li was stunned. He covered his cheeks and did not dare to say another word.

He watched Miss Davis step into the elevator with Alison Carter and went straight to the hot spring on the second floor.

Jessica Wright Davis didn't believe that Emilia had the guts to do so.

After all, Jessica had the entire Davis family behind her and Emilia was just a stray dog!

"Sister Jessica! She's evil!

"Especially that barbaric man. He didn't care about your family's power!

"He must be severely punished!"

Like a machine gun, Alison Carter's mouth kept jabbering on and on, provoking Jessica Wright Davis who was already pissed...

Chapter 197 Did It Hurt When You Fell From Heaven

"Sir, what ...what do we do?"

"Miss ... Miss Davis is going up!"

"This ... This ..."

The security guards of the Blue Ocean Spa Club were completely dumbfounded!

To them, not only was there a b*tch inside, but there was also a vicious wild dog!

Where did Jessica Wright Davis get the courage from?

She actually dared to confront those dogs alone?

Wasn't she asking for it?

There was no need to doubt whether Oliver Walker dared to do it or not because he had already answered them.

"Fk! What the fk are you still doing there?"

"Even if we're beaten to death, nothing can happen to Miss Davis!"

Wu Li's face was pale as he shouted, "Go!"

They were nobodies. Even if they were killed, nothing would have happened.

If Jessica Wright Davis was killed by Oliver Walker, their whole family would be killed instead.

So, even if they were afraid of Oliver Walker, they had to brace themselves and charge forward!

At the same time, Emilia, who was in the hot spring, was as delicate and elegant as a water lily.

There were still a few drops of water on her long black hair, which made her even more charming!

The number one goddess of Colorado lived up to her reputation!

"I ... I ... I'm done!"

After changing into the white dress that she had just bought, Emilia looked like a shy flower bud waiting to bloom. She lowered her head and pursed her red lips.

Her exquisite face was flawless!

Were there any women who didn't like being beautiful?

In the eight years that her husband had joined the Army, this was the only day where she got to live so exquisitely.

When she thought of how messy she must have looked before, she felt embarrassed.

She just didn't know if Oliver Walker would have a big reaction when he saw the difference between her current and previous self.

"You ..."

Oliver Walker turned around. Just when he was about to open his mouth, he swallowed it back.

He knew that his wife, who was in dire straits, was beautiful.

But now ...

He didn't know how to describe it.

Although she didn't have any makeup on, she looked like a flawless, natural goddess. Her fair skin and elegant temperament simply attracted everyone else around.

He felt as if he had turned back time to the moment when he was on the verge of dying on the street. His heart was racing as if he had met his wife for the first time.

He was dumbfounded!

“What’s wrong?”

After waiting for a long time and not getting any reply, a hint of panic appeared on Emilia’s beautiful face. She thought that she had lost her composure somewhere, so she quickly looked into the mirror and checked.

But even after looking at it for a long time, she couldn’t find anything wrong. So, why was her husband staring at her without even blinking?

“I’m not ... No... Wait!”

Oliver Walker gulped. He wanted to calm himself down but he quickly said, ” “You..... you’re so beautiful!”

His wife was gorgeous!

It was only because of him that she had become so haggard.

“Huh?”

Hundreds of flowers blossomed in Emilia’s heart. Her sweet smile was devastatingly beautiful. “Is that so?”

That shy look was even more lovable!

They had been husband and wife for eight years, but now, it was like love at first sight.

There was a lot of steam in the hot spring.

With the ambience around them, there seemed to be a kind of ambiguous atmosphere. It also made Emilia look like a fairy from the heaven.

After being complimented by her husband, Emilia regained her confidence.

“Emilia!”

Oliver Walker took a step forward and grabbed his wife’s hand. He said sincerely, “I... I will never allow others to bully you ever again. You would have been a fairy but you chose to marry me.”

“It’s my fault that I didn’t protect you well!”

Emilia raised her head slightly and smiled like a blooming flower. Then, she pouted, “When did you learn to be so slick?”

She didn’t care how the others spoke of her.

She didn’t even care if she was the so-called goddess in Colorado!

After all, she didn’t rely on her beauty to feed her family.

She only cared if she was the only one in this man’s heart!

“I’m not!”

With a firm expression, Oliver Walker said, “I’m serious. Believe me that I have the strength to protect you now!”

Chapter 198 Young Miss Davis

He.....

Protected the country!

Protected Indiana!

If he could protect the lives of billions of people, could he not protect his wife?

The Davis family?

George Johnson?

They were just clowns!

“Noble?”

“Noble, my ass!”

Suddenly, a discordant voice broke the romantic atmosphere in the hot springs.

A disdainful expression flashed across Jessica Wright Davis’s face. “How can a drenched chicken be described as noble?”

Such rude and unreasonable words caused the atmosphere to turn cold.

Emilia’s red lips trembled. In fact, she knew that there were others who would never let her go!

Therefore, it was completely unreasonable for Jessica Wright Davis to be here!

“Hahahahaha!”

Seeing this, Alison Carter chipped in, "In Colorado, there is only one Ms. Davis but it definitely isn't you. It's Ms. Jessica Wright Davis!

"Who do you think you are?!"

"Did you really think that just because you bought a Gucci and put it on, you can forget about your cheap life and make yourself look elegant?"

It was not easy for her to get a chance to flatter Jessica Davis so she won't be wasting it!

At the end of the day, she still had to thank Emilia who was her stepping stone. Otherwise, how could she have the chance to connect with the noble Jessica Wright Davis and even share a common topic?

Jessica Wright Davis sneered, "Even if you wore the dragon's robe, you still can't be the emperor.

"Do you understand this?"

"I do!" Alison Carter spoke once again!

"Aren't you talking about Emilia?"

"She's such a cheapskate!"

The two of them echoed each other, as if they were performing a standup comedy.

But, it wasn't really a comedy.

Emilia's beautiful eyes glowed with anger, "I don't want to have anything to meddle with you. Whether I'm noble or lowly, it's my personal business.

“You guys don’t have the right to judge!”

She had been holding it in for years!

She had endured it for eight years!

Today, she was ready to go crazy with Oliver Walker!

Emilia wanted to hold her head high and no longer lower her pride to those who have tried to suppress her.

She no longer wanted to give up on her nobility and pride!

“Impudent!”

“Who do you think you are?! how dare you speak to Ms. Davis like that?” Alison Carter roared in anger. In order to show off, she began to flatter Jessica Wright Davis without holding back.

After all, Jessica Wright Davis was the young miss of Davis who belonged in the upper-class society!

As for Emilia?

Coupled with the humiliation that she got from the Grand Sun mall, she raised her arm and rushed forward.

She aimed it at Emilia’s face!

However, Emilia did not move an inch. She didn’t even blink.

The corners of her mouth were slightly deviated upwards with confidence!

She believed that the man beside her would be able to protect her!

“Don’t you dare!”

Oliver Walker’s voice was as cold as if it had come from a ten-thousand-year-old ice cave ...

His eyes were filled with a murderous look, ready to kill thousands of enemies!

Alison Carter was shocked. She felt a cold gaze that pierced through every inch of her body.

She immediately stopped with a pale face ...

After all, this crazy man in front of her had the courage to beat up others, even if they were women!

“Go on!

“Give her a tight slap!”

“Slap her hard!”

Jessica Wright Davis crossed her arms and her eyes were like a poisonous snake. “Don’t you want to join the upper-class society?

“Disfigure that face and I’ll let you join us!”

She knew what Alison Carter wanted.

She also knew that she needed a vicious dog that could attack others...

Chapter 199 Time To Awaken The Beast

“Thank you, Ms. Davis!”

After being encouraged to do so, Alison Carter was so touched that she almost cried. Then, she rushed forward aggressively. “If you dare to resist, Ms. Davis will never let you get away with it!”

Although she was also afraid that Oliver Walker would go crazy, she didn’t feel as frightened with Jessica Wright Davis backing her up.

Of course, there was another important reason. It was the invitation that Jessica Wright Davis had offered.

Although there were only 30 people there, it was the true upper-class society of Colorado!

Every member there had a prominent status.

Once they were allowed to enter, it was a symbol of status and she would have gotten the chance to hook up with even more rich men!

She, who fantasised about stepping into the real circle of fame, could not resist the fatal temptation at all.

Perhaps, for Jessica Wright Davis, her entry into the group was just a casual click of a button.

But to her, it was a place where Alison Carter had to fight her way in!

Jessica Wright Davis’s eyes were filled with disdain.

Did Alison Carter really think that she would be a high and mighty young miss just because she had entered that society?

Without the support of a strong background, even if you entered, the others would despise you!

These upper-class people were also divided into cliques and they took hierarchy very seriously. Who would look up to a lowly woman like Alison Carter, who needed a man to support her?

The sad thing was that women like her didn't even have brains. Alison Carter didn't even know how cheap she was when she was being used!

"Right!"

"Don't move and remain standing when you're being beaten!"

Seeing that neither Emilia nor Oliver Walker had any intention of making a move, Alison Carter became even more daring. She thought that these two were stunned.

Then, she shouted as she waved her hand, "I'm going to beat you to death, you b*tch!"

Emilia still remained on the same spot.

Before the word 'despicable' could come out of her mouth, Oliver Walker waved his hand and grabbed Alison Carter's wrist. His expression was cold.

It was really humiliating for him to deal with such an ant.

How badly did Jessica Wright Davis look down on him?

"Ahhhhh!!!!"

“It hurts ... It hurts ... Let go of me!!!!”

In an instant, Alison Carter’s wails and howls echoed through the entire floor. “Ms Davis ... Ms. Davis ... Save ... Save me!”

She panicked!

She felt as if the bones in her hand were about to break!

Suddenly, the sound of her bones breaking could be heard clearly!

“No one can save you now!”

After saying this indifferently, Oliver Walker moved his arm and threw the ferocious-looking Alison Carter into the pool.

Splash!

The woman who weighed about a hundred pounds coupled with how hard Oliver Walker threw her into the pool, it directly caused the water to splash everywhere.

“Help!!!!”

Alison Carter was completely caught off guard and gulped down large mouthfuls of water as she struggled in the water.

Emilia frowned. She knew that Oliver Walker was going to teach Alison Carter a lesson but she didn’t expect him to be so ruthless!

Before she could say anything, Oliver Walker closed the door that led to the pool.

He didn't care if Alison Carter was going to drown in that pool. It was none of his business.

"Huh?!"

"A wild dog! A wild dog indeed!"

Jessica Wright Davis did not look scared. Instead, she continued mocking, "You're going to hit a woman?!"

"Emilia, this is the man that you picked?"

She knew what type of woman Emilia was.

The man that Emilia was definitely not someone who was aggressive, instead she wanted a gentle and modest gentleman.

"If a man can't even protect his wife ..."

"What's the use of being a gentleman?"

Amelia replied indifferently. "He's a great man. There's no need for you to come in between us."

She thought that she could endure everything that life threw at her but the past eight years made her realise that enduring things wouldn't solve anything.

If she wanted to live with dignity, she would have to challenge Davis and not hide around like a stray dog!

She and Jessica Wright Davis stood in the same corridor. They were standing less than ten metres apart!

Their eyes met. In both their eyes, there were grudges that they had held onto for the past 20 years since they were still kids.

This time, Emilia did not retreat nor did she give way!

She brought out the cold temperament that she once had when she was still in the business world.

“Is this how you are now?”

“You’re willing to accept a man who hits women?”

Jessica Wright Davis’s eyes were filled with anger. “So, you’ve changed. You’re no longer a lady from a wealthy family. You’re just a pitiful rodent!”

Why wasn’t Jessica feeling frightened?

Chapter 200 Publicly Displayed Affection

It was simple. This was because Jessica Davis wasn’t afraid of them.

She also believed that even if Oliver Walker dared to hit Alison Carter, he would definitely not dare to hit her!

This was because of her status. Alison Carter wasn’t on the same level as her.

However, before Emilia could speak, Oliver Walker took a step forward with a cold smile on his face. “Do you have any misunderstandings about men?”

“Have you ever been in love?”

“Have you ever enjoyed the feeling of being loved by a man?”

A man who lay hands on women shouldn't be considered a man?

Not only had he hit women but he had also killed many women. However, Jessica Wright Davis was the only person who dared to say that he wasn't a man.

Not all women were worthy of being loved.

There would always be some self-righteous women who would put on a high and mighty, horrible looking face as they mocked the world.

Without a doubt ...

Alison Carter was one of them!

Jessica Wright Davis was not exception as well.

They ...

Were they worthy of being protected?

“You ...”

Jessica Wright Davis's face turned red as if her tail had been stepped on. “I ...”

“I don't need those disgusting, dead bootlickers!”

“You!!!! You are also one of them as well!”

She had never been in love!

Due to her high standards, she didn't like the men who pursued her.

But, the men that she had picked didn't have feelings for her.

Therefore, the feeling of being doted on was an extremely rare thing for her!

Now that she was being called out, she felt even more furious. She roared in embarrassment, "Aren't you the number one goddess of Colorado?"

"Where did your dignity go?!"

"Do you really feel good being licked by a man like him?"

She was pissed!

Furious!

Annoyed!

That was why she was so desperate!

"You don't understand love so you naturally don't understand the feeling of being protected!" Emilia smiled sweetly.

"Not everyone who is good to you is a bootlicker!"

“That’s why you’re not worthy of being loved!”

Not worthy?

Yes!

That’s right!

Emilia had never felt that Oliver Walker was just sucking up to her.

Love was something special!

She was lucky to meet someone like him!

Although Oliver Walker had a bad temper, he was willing to fight against everyone in Colorado just to protect her!

What more could she ask for from a man who was her husband?

No one was perfect!

How could she ask Oliver Walker to be a Saint who didn’t fight back when he was scolded or hit? How could he turn a deaf ear when his wife was bullied and his daughter was slandered?

“Huh? !”

Jessica Wright Davis, who was already desperate, had gone completely crazy. “You...you...!!”

She was so angry that she couldn’t say a word for a long time!

Her chest heaved up and down and her face looked awful!

She had thought that she could easily incite Emilia's disgust toward Oliver Walker. Then, she could quietly watch a good show unfold.

However, she did not expect that she would be the one to be stabbed in the heart ...

Oliver Walker was very calm. His wife's words and actions made him feel comforted.

It wasn't an act. It was something that came from the bottom of his wife's heart!

Tap tap tap...

At this moment, Wu Li rushed up to the second floor with his men. When he saw that Jessica Wright Davis was fine, he suddenly breathed out a breath of relief. "Ms. Davis, you're fine! That's great!"

If they were a step too late and something went wrong, the consequences could be serious.

As for Alison Carter?

They couldn't be bothered!

She wasn't born as a young miss from a rich family but she had the temper of one. She deserved to be tortured.
