Chapter 201 Luna Thomas's Fake Goods

"Which eyes of yours saw that I'm fine?"

"I'm feeling super bad right now!"

Jessica Wright Davis's lips trembled as she roared madly, "Beat him up!"

"Kill them all!"

She was furious!

She was indeed furious!

Jessica Davis had originally wanted the dejected look on Emilia's face but she had never expected that she would end up being the clown.

Of course, she wanted to find a man.

But how could it be that easy?

"Ah ..."

Wu Li was instantly dumbfounded. Was he going up to beat someone up?

Or go up and get beaten up?

This was just...

Oliver Walker and Emilia's expressions were also unmoved.

It was because no one could do anything to Oliver Walker.

On the other hand, Emilia firmly believed that the man beside her would definitely protect her well.

So ...

She didn't care about the flustered and exasperated Jessica Wright Davis at all. Instead, she just stepped aside and enjoyed the show.

"Bang ..."

"Hmph!"

Jessica Wright Davis looked at Wu Li and the others, who looked like fools. She was angry and kicked over the trash can. "Emilia, don't you dare assume that you're from a wealthy family just because you're wearing fake high-end fashion items!"

"You're not worthy of it!!"

"You aren't good enough for it!!"

Jessica Wright Davis was infuriated but she had no other way to vent her anger.

That feeling was like a balloon that was about to explode.

"Which eyes of yours saw that I am wearing fake items?" Emilia said coldly.

She didn't want to say it but she had to.

Since they had already shed all pretences of cordiality, why would she still care about Jessica Wright Davis?

Even if the future was bleak, she could just leave Colorado at worst. She had enough of this kind of cowardice.

Emilia was ready to go mad with the man beside her.

As long as he was happy!

"Do you know how much the clothes that you are wearing would cost if they are authentic?"

"How would you be able to afford it?"

Jessica Wright Davis roared with a red face, "You can't afford it even if I sold your body for it!"

"You would only be able to wear cheap clothes in your entire life. You're only worthy of wearing fake luxury brands!"

To be precise, Jessica Wright Davis had lost her mind.

If she was slightly conscious, she would not have said that the clothes that Emilia had on were pirated clothings.

Or rather, she knew they weren't fake but she was just telling a lie to make herself feel better.

"That's right!"

"Ms. Davis is right!"

Wu Li didn't dare to step forward but he shouted, "Are you even worthy of wearing branded clothes?"

"You're not worthy of it in this lifetime!"

Soon, the group of security guards also started to curse at Emilia.

Standing here, Wu Li had to hold up for Miss Davis or else they would have badly humiliated themselves.

"Hahaha ..."

Jessica Wright Davis raised her head and laughed, "Did you hear that? All of them are saying that what you're wearing is fake!"

"Hahaha ..."

Emilia's red lips moved slightly but she didn't retort in the end.

After all, it was meaningless to argue about these things.

In Oliver Walker's eyes, there was also a trace of contempt. It was obvious that Jessica Wright Davis had gone mad!

"Fake?"

"Jessica Wright Davis, what do you mean by that?"

Just then, Luna Thomas walked in with a white bag in her hand and high heels. "Ms Davis bought her clothes from my shop. Are you saying that I'm selling fake goods?"

Her appearance was a surprise. Forget about Wu Li and the others, even Emilia and Oliver Walker were a little surprised.

It was obvious that this young woman had rushed here intentionally.

But, her arrival did comfort the hearts of the others.

After all, Luna Thomas didn't know Oliver Walker's identity. She only knew that Emilia was a lady who fell from the throne but she still came to help at the expense of offending the Davis. This was enough to prove her character.

"You ..."

Chapter 202 Luna Thomas, the hero?

Jessica Wright Davis's face grew even more sullen. She had never expected that Luna Thomas, who had always stayed out of all these issues, would come to join in the fun.

"Wait a moment, don't be angry yet!"

With a smile on her face, Luna Thomas continued to walk forward. "When I said Ms. Davis, I wasn't referring it to you. I was talking about Miss Emilia."

"I think I would need an explanation from you. Otherwise, I would send you a warning letter from my lawyer for slandering."

Slander?

In fact, this was only a small issue!

No one would take the so-called lawyer's letter seriously. Even if it was sent, what could it do?

After all, it wasn't a big crime. Saying such things might not hurt her much but it was indeed humiliating!

Of course, it was also to make her stand clear!

So, she stopped and stood side by side with Emilia.

To be honest, it was quite a surprise to Emilia that Luna Thomas would react in such a way in this situation!

Then, she smiled and expressed her gratitude!

The moment Luna Thomas turned around, her eyes met with Jessica Wright Davis's.

One was Miss Davis of Colorado and the other was Miss Thomas of the Thomas Corporation in East Ocean City.

Regardless of identity or status, they were almost the same!

"Do you really want to go against me?"

Jessica Wright Davis asked in a deep voice and there was even a sense of empathy in her voice. "Are you sure you want to make things difficult for me because of Emilia?"

"Don't forget that this is a 'family matter!'"

If Luna Thomas was determined to get involved in this, there isn't much that Jessica Wright Davis could do.

Although they were in Colorado, Davis had business dealings in East Ocean City.

If they fell out, it would undoubtedly be a situation of life and death for the Davis!

Most importantly, Luna was the only one heir of the Thomas entertainment. Luna Thomas had a much higher influence in the company than Jessica Wright Davis had in her own company.

“From what I know, Ms. Davis’s name is no longer in your family tree, right?”

Luna Thomas said with conviction, “Since she’s no longer a part of your family, she’s no longer a part of Davis Company. So, she’s my friend now!”

“She’s like a sister to me.

“Say, if someone is going to harm my sister, how could I stay aside and not say a word?”

Luna Thomas was very calm. She was not afraid at all.

Since she dared to come to Colorado to do business, she had naturally inquired about the news of Colorado.

She did not believe that the Davis Corporates would fall out with Thomas corporation for Emilia!

On the other hand, Oliver Walker and Emilia were free to go.

It was obvious that Luna Thomas was not an ordinary person. Otherwise, with Jessica Wright Davis’s personality, she would never be so quiet even when the other party was pissing her off so badly, to the point where she was about to suffer from an internal injury.

After all, Jessica Wright Davis’s patience was not as high as she had imagined!

“You’re impudent!”

“Brothers, follow me!”

Wu Li shouted. He didn't dare to make a move on Oliver Walker and Emilia but why wouldn't he be able to do something about Luna Thomas.

Unfortunately, he was not aware that Luna Thomas was a young lady with the same status as Jessica Wright Davis. Otherwise, he wouldn't have the courage to do so even if he had nine lives!

Then, the security guards started to rush forward!

After all, Wu Li had to perform well in front of Jessica Wright Davis.

“Kill him!”

At the same time, another voice rang out from the hot spring area.

They saw George Johnson, Mike White, and dozens of gangsters with sticks rushing in aggressively!

“How dare you be so rude to my young miss?!”

In an instant, James Walter's killer aura exploded as he stood in the middle of the corridor.

He was not afraid at all even when he had to face hundreds of men.

“Ms. Davis, please rest assured!” Luna Thomas said with a smile.

“With Mr Walter's skills, it's a waste of his talent to use it on these punks!” Emilia's brows furrowed slightly and she immediately said, “Thank you!”

To be honest, she was really touched!

After all, there weren't many people who could lend a hand at such critical times!

"I should be the one thanking you!"

Luna Thomas crossed her arms with a calm expression on her face. She didn't seem to care about the scene happening in front of her.

The atmosphere at the scene was tense!

James Walter was alone against George Johnson's group of men that were made up of nearly a hundred people!

Jessica Wright Davis gritted her teeth and stomped her feet, roaring unwillingly, "Are you really going to shed all pretences of cordiality with me for her?"

Jessica Wright Davis did not understand what was going on!

Why was Luna Thomas doing this?

What kind of luck did Emilia have to be protected by Luna Thomas?

Chapter 203 James Walter's Martial Arts

"I'll make this clear first, you're the one who's at odds with my good sister!"

"You're going against Thomas entertainment!"

"You will bear all the consequences!"

Luna Thomas's attitude was firm.

Of course, she knew that it was impossible for the two families to really have a conflict. So in the end, whoever was in the wrong would definitely make concessions in the negotiation.

Therefore, the battle of words was particularly important now.

She had to be in the right!

And in fact, she was indeed in the right now!

Even if her father was here, he couldn't just watch her Savior get bullied, right?

"Right!"

"Great!"

Jessica Wright Davis took a step back and her eyes were filled with ruthlessness.

She didn't say anything to avoid any responsibilities.

If she used George Johnson as cannon fodder, would she still have to be responsible even if things got out of hand?

She didn't do it anyway!

She wasn't the one who gave the orders.

Then, when she took a step back, George Johnson instantly understood. He shouted as if he was high on drugs, "Emilia, you b*tch! Don't you even think about running away!"

“I’m going to consummate our marriage tonight!”

“And you, Oliver Walker! I’ll definitely cut you into pieces and make sure you never reincarnate!”

“Go!”

He didn’t know Luna Thomas’s identity but he knew that killing Oliver Walker now would give him a good opportunity to climb up Davis’s social ladder.

Furthermore, he would be able to keep Emilia for himself. How could he let go of such a good opportunity to kill three birds with one stone?

He was a sad and desperate man. He would have never thought that he would be used by Jessica Wright Davis and offend a lady that he should never have!

“F*ck!”

“Charge!”

“...”

Mike White had been holding back his anger for a long time and his underlings were even more desperate when they recalled the painful experience of sweeping the streets that day!

“A bunch of rat-eyed people!”

James Walter smiled coldly and his aura exploded. He didn’t retreat even an inch in the face of the punks who came straight at him!

With only one punch, an entire group of men was knocked down!

A single palm strike sent a few flying!

His actions were clean and neat. All of them were aggressive and violent!

“Ahhhhh!!”

“Boom ...”

“Thump thump ...”

In an instant, screams reverberated through the entire area. From time to time, there were men who were put to the ground.

Oliver Walker and Luna Thomas remained calm the entire time!

On the other hand, Emilia was the one who frowned slightly. “Go and help!”

When the words left her mouth, she suddenly felt that she might have gone crazy.

She’s ... Actually asked her husband to fight?

Just ...

It was unbelievable!

However, Luna Thomas was here to help her. If something were to happen to James Walter since he was fighting alone, then...

“That won’t be necessary!”

“These useless men wouldn’t be able to break through his defence!” Oliver Walker smiled.

As the saying goes, outsiders enjoy the show while experts watch the skill. James Walter’s killing aura was rich. His punches and kicks seemed ordinary but each move showed extraordinary skill.

Luna Thomas was slightly shocked. “You know martial arts as well?”

After all, a person who knew nothing wouldn’t be able to remain calm.

However, Oliver Walker’s calm expression had explained everything.

She knew that Oliver Walker was an excellent traditional medicine doctor. If he also knew martial arts, wouldn’t he be omnipotent?

“I know a little!” Oliver Walker smiled.

“Judging from his moves, it’s not as simple as martial arts, right?”

He could tell that Luna Thomas wasn’t someone ordinary and the Thomas corporation was not an ordinary rich family as well.

To be precise, they weren’t a normal commercial business.

Chapter 204 About To Pee In His Pants

Otherwise, it would be impossible to recruit such an expert.

“You ...”

Luna Thomas couldn’t help but feel curious as she quickly asked, “How did you know?”

James Walter was not an ordinary martial artist but a mysterious ancient martial artist.

Well, James Walter did not stay because of the fame that Thomas Entertainment had. It was because their family had once saved James Walter's life and since then, he never left.

He had even joined Thomas entertainment.

The Thomas Corporation only began to rise after James Walter had joined them.

It could be said that the man who was slightly older than her father was her driver and bodyguard but he wasn't just her bodyguard.

He was more like an elder in the company!

"He's been in the army for eight years and just came back from indiana!"

Emilia explained but Luna Thomas wasn't convinced by her words.

James Walter had told her that ordinary people wouldn't be able to see through his identity.

As for soldiers ...

They are also considered ordinary people...

In the past, she didn't understand it well until she was kidnapped by a local gang abroad. James Walter arrived overnight and wiped out hundreds of people from the gang. In the end, he was the one who brought her home.

From then on, she finally understood that the so-called 'ordinary people' were everyone else other than himself!

That man was an ancient warrior!

"Medicine and martial arts have always come hand-in-hand."

Oliver Walker replied indifferently and didn't say anything else. There were many things that couldn't be explained clearly.

For example, how could those who practised martial arts be compared to those who practised immortal cultivation?

Medicine and martial art skills always come together.

Luna Thomas was stunned ...

She looked at Oliver Walker in a daze and frowned slightly. She suddenly had a strong premonition that Oliver Walker and James Walter were the same kind of people.

She had rushed over to help him out of gratitude!

But now, it seems ...

Even without her help, nothing would have happened to him. She couldn't help but blush in embarrassment!

However, this man knew more than just medicine. He also ancient martial arts and he was so handsome!

But unfortunately ...

He was already married!

Otherwise, she would have fallen for him!

“This ... What kind of monster is this?”

George Johnson exclaimed. He was nothing but a piece of straw in the hands of James Walter. It was terrifying.

He had brought at least a hundred people with him, including those who were originally at the hot spring Club.

But now, there were only a few people left who were still standing.

He could clearly feel his body shivering.

After gulping down a few times with a dull expression, he subconsciously took a step back and wanted to run away. After all, nothing was more important than his life!

“Since you’re here, you shouldn’t leave!”

Oliver Walker strode forward with great momentum. Today was the battle of honour. How could he let George Johnson go?

Wasn’t this a joke?

As for the safety of his wife and Luna Thomas, James Walter would naturally protect them.

“Where are you going?” Emilia quickly asked.

Oliver Walker looked back and said casually, "I'm going to teach them a lesson."

His wife had been humiliated by George Johnson again and again. Oliver Walker couldn't take it anymore.

Besides, George Johnson really had the intention to kill them. George Johnson would never let them leave alive!

Oliver Walker wanted to live a peaceful life but since the other party refused to allow him to, he would start with George Johnson!

He wanted to see how tough the bones of those upper-class men in Colorado were!

"Ahhhhhh!!!!!"

When Oliver Walker passed by Jessica Wright Davis, she subconsciously covered her head with her hands, squatted on the ground, and shouted, "You...Don't ... Don't come near me.....AHHHHHH!!!"

Oliver Walker simply ignored her!

To be precise, he wasn't bothered about her.

On the other hand, when George Johnson saw Oliver Walker coming straight at him, he was so scared that he even had the urge to pee. He immediately turned around and was ready to run.

After all, his biggest support was the group of hooligans he raised.

Now that he couldn't even beat James Walter, what courage did he have to face that menacing madman?

Chapter 205 Bone Breaking Machine

"You ..."

“Don’t come near me!!!”

George Johnson pressed the elevator button as he leaned against the wall. He pointed at Oliver Walker and shouted in horror, “You !! You motherf*cker, I’m..... I work for Mr. Davis ... The ...”

“Ahhhh!!!!”

However, it was obvious that Oliver Walker didn’t care at all. He grabbed George Johnson’s outstretched hand and twisted it forcefully. With the sound of bones cracking, George Johnson also let out a shrill scream.

His facial features became extremely ferocious and he knelt on the ground with one knee!

“You’re working for William Davis?” Oliver Walker laughed contemptuously.

When he saw the pair of sharp eyes and recalled that at the first hospital, this madman didn’t seem to take William Davis seriously. He shook his head again and again. “No... no... No... ”

This was torture!

At this moment, he felt like he was tied to a fire and his entire body was being burnt...

He didn’t know how to answer so that he wouldn’t get beaten up. After all, this madman didn’t know how to hold back once he starts throwing his punches!

Crack ... Crack ...

“Ah ...”

As Oliver Walker stomped down again, the bones in George Johnson’s other hand were instantly crushed!

There was also a sharp cry that followed which resembled the sound of a pig being slaughtered.

After George Johnson’s hands were disabled, Oliver Walker said coldly, “Then is it or is it not?”

“I hate people who lie!

“Those who lie to me will end up in a very miserable state.”

It wasn’t that he wanted to pick on George Johnson but this guy had offended him and his wife repeatedly.

If Oliver Walker didn’t teach him a lesson, there would only be more and more troubles in the future!

At this moment, George Johnson himself was dumbfounded by the pain!

So, was it a yes or no?

He did not know either!

All he could think about now was that bastard William Davis. Why wasn’t he here yet?

“Bang ...”

However, this answer made Oliver Walker unhappy. He smashed George Johnson’s left shoulder blade again.

“Ah ...”

George Johnson was like a wounded beast. He roared and glared at the demon with his Scarlet eyes. “You.....You!!!! I’m ... I’m working for Mr. Davis ...”

“If you dare to move again, Mr. Davis is ... I will never let you get away with this!”

A contemptuous smile appeared on the corner of Oliver Walker’s mouth.

He did not expect that the fellow before him would actually dare to threaten him.

Then, he slowly lowered his head and looked down at George Johnson, who was kneeling on the ground. Oliver Walker asked, “Do you know what I hate the most?”

George Johnson gathered his courage and shouted, “What you hate..... Is none of my business... Ahhhh...Ow ow ow ow...”

The next moment, screams of pain could be heard!

“I hate people who are stubborn!”

Crack ... Crack ...

“I hate being threatened!”

Crack ... Crack ...

“I hate people who dare to threaten my family!”

Every time Oliver Walker said a word, his palm would land on George Johnson.

Although he didn't kill George Johnson instantly, he would break a different bone each time his palm landed on George Johnson's body.

“Don't ... Don't ... Ahhhh!!!!”

George Johnson became a coward under the tough approach and he shouted with blood in his mouth, “Spare ... Let me go... Please!!!!”

George Johnson did not know how many bones were broken inside him.

This was because under such circumstances, no one would be in the mood to record it.

He only knew that his entire body was occupied by pain!

There wasn't a single place in his body that didn't hurt!

After breaking so many bones in a row, he had long lost his previous vigour.

He never thought that Oliver Walker would dare to do such an inhumane thing here in his territory!

Chapter 206 To Never Being A Normal Man

However, George Johnson didn't see the situation clearly. If he didn't force the other party to a corner, if he didn't have the intention to kill them, if he had not allowed those mindless words of sleeping with Emilia leave his mouth...

Then ...

With his status, Oliver Walker wouldn't waste his time on George Johnson!

It could be said it was George Johnson who built the rage of Oliver Walker.

It wasn't that easy to beg for mercy anymore now.

"There are 206 bones in a man's body. I've only broken 47 of them and you can't take it anymore?"

The reason why Oliver Walker was being so serious about this was because he was really enraged.

If he wasn't worried that his wife wouldn't be able to accept it, George Johnson would've been dead by now. "With this little bit of courage, how did you think that you could mess with me?"

It wasn't that he looked down on George Johnson but Oliver Walker really didn't think much of him.

There were so many hot-blooded men who had rushed to Indiana to fight in the frontlines but there were always scumbags like them who disturbed their home that they protected. It would be impossible that he didn't want to kill these scumbags!

"You.....I....."

George Johnson was on the verge of death but there must be something hateful about him that caused him to be in such a horrible state.

To be able to provoke the mild-tempered Oliver Walker to this extent, it was enough to show how hateful he was!

George Johnson's eyes were filled with resentment. It was just that he was in so much pain that he couldn't speak. Otherwise, he would've already cursed out loud.

However, the look in George Johnson's eyes caused the rage to burn again inside Oliver Walker's heart. He raised his leg and hit George Johnson's crotch.

"Ah ..."

A heart-wrenching scream once again resounded through the entire place.

George Johnson also felt the worst pain in his life...

Some research had shown that this level of pain was only a little lower than the pain experienced by a woman giving birth.

"Oliver Walker!"

When Emilia saw blood all over the ground, she was stunned on the spot as if she had been electrocuted.

She should have thought of this earlier!

When Oliver Walker said that he was going to deal with something, he must have gone to fight George Johnson!

It was just that she had been trapped inside and couldn't get out. As soon as the battle ended, she ran out.

But ...

It was too late!

“He...” Emilia was dumbfounded.

“He isn’t dead yet,” Oliver Walker replied with a smile, “He’s merely a little injured.”

Indeed, George Johnson wouldn’t die!

But for the rest of his life, George Johnson would never live like a normal man.

When George Johnson had those dirty thoughts about his wife, his fate has already been decided.

This kind of scumbag, other than having thoughts about his wife, must have harmed many other young girls, right?

This was what George Johnson deserved.

At the same time, Luna Thomas and James Walker came out of the hot springs area.

It was obvious that the battle inside had ended!

When Luna Thomas saw George Johnson on the ground, she was a little surprised.

According to her assumptions, doctors are gentle. Even when Oliver Walker just revealed James Walter’s identity, she wasn’t too bothered about it.

Even though Emilia had told her that Oliver Walker had been in the army for eight years, she had thought that he was only a traditional medicine doctor who worked in the army.

However, after seeing this scene, she no longer thought that way.

“Ms. Thomas, thank you so much for this.”

Emilia's red lips parted slightly as she said, "If..."

Luna Thomas also sobered up from the shock and smiled sweetly. "If it wasn't for your husband, I would be a murderer now."

"I don't think we would have to thank each other. Why don't we have a meal together and be friends?"

She had developed a strong interest in Oliver Walker.

Of course, she was only curious about his identity. It wasn't the lover-dovey feeling between a man and a woman.

After all, the concept of love at first sight was quite ridiculous!

"Alright ..."

Emilia hesitated for a moment before saying, "Sure!"

After all, Luna Thomas had grown up abroad. She was more open-minded than Emilia in terms of their personalities. Luna Thomas quickly became friendly as if they were old friends who had not seen each other for many years.

"Let's go! I know a really good restaurant!"

"I'm younger than you, so you wouldn't mind me calling you Sister Emilia, right? "

Chapter 207 The Consequences

Such a warm invitation also made Emilia's mood a lot better.

After all, to be able to be friends with Emilia at such times and not hesitate to go against Jessica Wright Davis for Emilia, have proved that her character was much better than Alison Carter.

In fact, there was no way to compare the two of them!

“Mr. Walter, don’t just stand there!”

Luna Thomas held Emilia’s arm excitedly and said, “Leave this to Mr. Walter.”

With Thomas Entertainment’s influenced, who would dare to say anything about taking care of these little punks?

Plus, James Walter had already beaten up more than a hundred people, would he still care about George Johnson and Alison Carter?

As the saying goes, “more debts don’t weigh on one’s body,”; this was definitely applicable to this situation.

“Alright!”

Oliver Walker nodded. He naturally had no objection to his wife being friends with such a person.

It could even make up for the comfort he couldn’t give her.

In fact, Emilia was clearly his wife, so why was it that Luna Thomas was holding Emilia’s arm instead?

Jealous?

How could he not be jealous?

After all, he didn't have such treatment.

Luna Thomas and Emilia, on the other hand, had a great time conversing. After this incident, their relationship had warmed up even faster than the one between Oliver Walker and Emilia.

It was indeed easier to communicate between women than with men!

This was because there were no sense of distance between women compared to men!

As long as both enjoyed the topic, they would soon be able to chat endlessly together!

As for the little punks in the Spa Club, they were all lying on the ground, wailing in pain.

"Ugh ..."

"Cough cough ..."

When Alison Carter climbed out of the pool, her face was filled with disgust.

Especially when she thought about how it was Emilia's bathwater, she found it even more unacceptable.

She clutched her throat and vomited like crazy ...

"What ... How is that possible?"

Jessica Wright Davis sat on the ground, holding her head in her hands, her spirit greatly stimulated.

"No... Don't come over.... don't hit me ..."

As for George Johnson, it could only be said that he was lucky to still be alive.

Whether or not he could survive after this was another problem.

The entrance of the Blue Ocean Spa Club was blocked by several cars.

“Mr. Davis, what if Ma’am Davis finds out about this?”

The one who spoke was William Davis’s cousin and he had a worried look on his face. “Isn’t it a little ...”

Although he didn’t say it out loud, the meaning behind his words were obvious.

After all, Ma’am Davis had never given the order to kill Emilia Davis.

“Leo, she’s no longer a part of the Davis Company.”

William Davis sneered. “Besides, why would grandma have the time to care about that woman’s life?”

Standing behind both the two young masters, there were hundreds of bodyguards!

It could be said that William Davis had made careful preparations in order to defeat Oliver Walker!

Although Emilia was no longer a part of Davis Company, it would still be difficult to cut off their blood ties, right?

Even if Ma’am Davis didn’t like her granddaughter, she couldn’t just watch the people of Davis Company kill each other, could she?

However, since William Davis had said so, Leo naturally could not say anything more.

William Davis and his family were the core members of the company now.

After all, after Isaac Davis was kicked out of the company, William Davis's father became the boss of the Davis Corporates.

"Oh, really?"

"I haven't been abroad yet!"

Emilia didn't notice the abnormality outside the door at all. Instead, she paid more attention to the conversation between her and Luna Thomas.

Similarly, Luna Thomas wasn't bothered by it as well. "Actually, I like it more when you talk to me about what happens here."

The two women chatted as they walked.

On the other hand, Oliver Walker, who was following behind, seemed a little out of place.

However, seeing that his wife was able to chat so happily, his mood also relaxed as well.

After all, it was impossible for his wife to communicate with him in such a way!

However, when they reached the door and saw that it was surrounded, all of them stopped in their tracks!

"Emilia!"

William Davis coldly rebuked, "You really don't care about the company's ban?"

Emilia's expression turned cold. She no longer wanted to talk to William Davis.

After all ...

It was pointless to say anything else now!

“I’ll answer that for you now!”

Chapter 208 Once Again The Hero in Shining Armor

Oliver Walker took a step forward and said coldly, “The ban will be lifted today!

“Otherwise, I don’t mind making Davis disappear from the face of the earth!”

Although he didn’t kill George Johnson, he didn’t let him off easily.

After all, Oliver Walker had cut off his future as being a normal man.

Thus, the revenge had already begun!

He only needed to say one word to destroy Davis.

It would be more than enough.

“Hahaha ...”

“What a motherf*cking idiot! You’re as stubborn as a dead duck!”

William Davis roared in anger, “Now that Hendrik Smith is gone, I’ll see who else dares to protect you!

“Kill him ... He ...”

His voice trembled as he screamed. William Davis was enraged.

If it wasn't for Jessica Wright Davis, he would have really thought that Oliver Walker was Hendrik Smith's master.

He was indeed scared out of his wits at that time and he almost became mentally ill!

But, now that he thought about it, it was such a joke!

And all of this was Oliver Walker's fault!

It's that damn man's fault!

"You'd better not mess around!"

Luna Thomas stepped forward and was firm with her stand. She looked down at the hundreds of bodyguards that Davis brought along and proudly said, "Emilia is now my friend.

"You would be offending me if you laid hands on her!

"You'd better think carefully before doing anything!"

Her appearance indeed made William Davis hesitate.

"Mr. Davis!"

Leo Davis suddenly muttered in a low voice, "As long as we don't hurt her, Thomas entertainment will not turn against us!"

William Davis nodded. He naturally knew what Leo Davis meant.

The hesitation in his eyes was immediately replaced by ruthlessness. "Don't hurt Luna Thomas. When you catch that wild dog, kill it immediately!

"As for Emilia, I want her to be a dog for the rest of her life!"

After all, Luna Thomas was the eldest daughter of Thomas Entertainment from Eastern Ocean City. If he laid hands on her, it would indeed have a bad impact.

But ...

He didn't say he was going to do anything to her!

"I'll see who dares to do so!"

Luna Thomas angrily stood in front of them, but soon, two of David's bodyguards rushed up ...

Emilia wanted to step forward but it was already too late!

However, Oliver Walker's reaction speed was faster. He was already furious when he saw the group of bodyguards rushing towards them...

'Honk honk honk!!!!'

However, just as they were about to make a move, ear-piercing honking sounds reverberated through the entire area!

Everyone was stunned for a moment. When they turned around, they saw more than 20 Mercedes-Benz, led by a Maybach that cost more than 5 million!

“Damn it!”

“He..... Why is he here again?”

William Davis frowned and gritted his teeth in anger. “Everyone stop!”

At his command, the hundreds of bodyguards were stunned.

Luna Thomas broke free from the restraints and her eyes were full of rage. “Hmph!”

Who was it?

In the entire Colorado, the only person who could travel in a team of Mercedes-Benz, would be the richest man in the city, Leon Williams!

Leo Davis also didn't expect that this guy would come and join the fun. It was simply incredible!

“Get lost!”

“Don't block the way!”

“Stand aside!”

“...”

When Leon Williams's bodyguards got out of the car, his actions were very rude. When they encountered David's bodyguard blocking the way, they directly pushed them to the side.

This was their boss's order and it was as demanding as it sounded.

As for the bodyguards from Davis, when have they ever been humiliated in such a manner?

But, the young master didn't allow them to attack. Even if they were aggrieved, they could only endure it!

After the bodyguards dominated the scene, Leon Williams walked out with a gloomy face and coldly glanced at two young men from Davis.

These two guys were really lawless!

How dare they stand in the way of Oliver Walker!

It would have been fine if he did not know, but the first God of War, Aiden Wilson, had already warned him.

If anything were to happen to Oliver Walker in Colorado, then he ...

Chapter 209 Oliver Walker and Emilia's Identity

"Make a move?"

"I'd like to see who dares to make a move today!"

Leon Williams's face turned gloomy. After all, William Davis had attacked Oliver Walker and Emilia. This meant that William Davis was trying to get him killed!

Davis's bodyguards froze on the spot and could only turn to their young master.

William Davis wanted to curse out loud. Why was this bastard, Leon Williams, everywhere?

Wasn't this ...

Wasn't he clearly making things difficult for him?

"Uncle Williams, this is our family matter. I hope ..." William Davis said calmly.

Before he could finish his sentence, Leon Williams took a step forward with an imposing aura and said in a deep voice, "Family matters?"

William Davis had no idea what Leon Williams was up to but he still nodded his head. "Yes, this is our family matter."

In terms of seniority, the person in front of him was, after all, of the same generation as his father.

Therefore, William Davis really didn't dare to be presumptuous.

Davis may be one of the strongest families in Colorado but...

In Colorado, Leon Williams was undoubtedly the boss of the town. He should be respected.

Until a certain extent, William Davis must not shed all pretences of cordiality.

Smack smack --

William Davis wanted to hold back but Leon Williams had no intention of holding back. He swung his hands and slapped the two sides of William Davis's face.

His actions were clean and crisp!

"You ..."

This was done right in front of all these people!

William Davis only felt a burning pain on his cheek!

However, compared to the pain, what was more difficult to accept was that Leon Williams had actually dared to slap his face!

How could Leon Williams slap him in the face in front of so many of his subordinates?

William Davis's eyes instantly widened and he clenched his fists in anger!

"Mr. Walker, Ms. Davis!"

However, Leon Williams had already turned around and spoke in a respectful tone. "Leave this to me, you guys can leave first."

It wouldn't be too much to say that the expression on his face was one of grovelling, right?

"En!"

Emilia, on the other hand, heaved a sigh of relief. Leon Williams was here most likely because of Luna Thomas, right?

But...wasn't this too much?

Wait!

There was no reason for Leon Williams to curry favour with Luna Thomas.

Why would he do so?

William Davis was also stunned and the words that were on the tip of his tongue could not come out.

Could it be that Oliver Walker and Emily really had another identity?

This ...

The possibility made him feel a little terrified and dumbfounded!

“Uncle Williams, thank you!”

Luna Thomas said in a coquettish manner, “I’ll treat you to a big meal another day!”

Thomas corporation’s power in Colorado was not as strong as Davis but they had a good relationship with Leon Williams.

After all, they have worked together for a long time.

This was also the reason why her father allowed her to travel to Colorado.

“Younggirl, ask your dad to come to Colorado one day. I’m going to teach him a lesson.”

Leon Williams smiled and said, “He raised you to be such a beautiful young woman now but instead of staying in Eastern Ocean, you keep causing trouble for me!”

They were chatting happily and they did not notice that Oliver Walker had already taken a step forward!

William Davis squinted his eyes slightly and released a cold, threatening look in his eyes.

By the time Emilia noticed it, it was already too late! This was because Oliver Walker and William Davis were standing face to face.

Just by looking at his back, one could tell how cold and cruel Oliver Walker's expression was!

At the same time, the other bodyguards were also stunned ...

What was this Oliver Walker trying to do?

Was he trying to get himself killed?

Why would he provoke William Davis?

"What do you think you're doing?" William Davis asked coldly.

He thought that Leon Williams had come for Luna Thomas.

As for Oliver Walker and Emilia, they were not worthy of such compliments from Leon Williams.

The question just now was mostly out of courtesy!

"I'm not doing anything else!"

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth raised slightly. "I just feel that you deserve a good beating!"

He had been back for so long and had not troubled Davis at all.

However, Davis was closing in on his wife!

How was it that these people did not take him seriously?

Chapter 210 A Lesson Learnt?

“You ...”

William Davis, who had been sulking for a long time, started to curse.

However, before he could curse, Oliver Walker raised his hand and slapped him twice on the face.

Slap slap --

The crisp sound of the slap startled everyone’s heart!

Emilia did not expect this!

Luna Thomas didn’t expect this either!

Neither did Leon Williams!

The rest of Davis’s bodyguards thought that they had heard and seen things that were in their imagination. They gasped as their eyes almost popped out as they watched William Davis being slapped. The flesh on his face was trembling!

Especially the first slap... when it landed, his entire body was about to fly out.

However, after the second slap, his body miraculously regained its balance!

The most inconceivable person was William Davis. He only felt a buzzing in his head and blood flowing out of his nose!

It was unbelievable!

He couldn't figure out where the wild dog in front of him had gotten the courage to treat him so rudely!

"One more dirty word from your mouth and I'll cripple you!"

Oliver Walker's aura exploded and instantly dominated the entire scene. "Also, listen up! If you don't lift the ban on my wife, I will destroy the entire Davis family!

Oliver Walker was saying the most ruthless words with the coldest tone.

At the very least, these words were unbelievable to everyone!

What right did a stray dog have to be so arrogant?

Destroy the Davis Corporates?

How many people wanted to do this but had failed?

If the Davis was so easily destroyed, would they still be considered a strong company in Colorado?

This was crazy!

This man was indeed crazy!

His arrogance was unparalleled!

The corners of William Davis's mouth trembled and his eyes were like those of a venomous snake.
"F*ck!"

“Kill him!”

“Kill him!”

This was getting out of hand!

This was unbelievable!

He could only admit that he was unlucky to have been slapped twice by Leon Williams but what was it to be slapped by Oliver Walker?

If he f*cking tolerated this, wouldn't he be the biggest coward in Colorado?

“Let's avenge the young master!!!!”

“Go!”

“...”

Instantly, all of David's bodyguards turned mad as their eyes turned blood-red.

This guy actually dared to beat up the young master in front of them. He didn't even think that there were so many of them here!

How could they endure this!

No one would be able to bear this humiliation!

No one!!!

However, while looking at the bodyguards, Oliver Walker only gave them a contemptuous look.

Then, he turned around and left!

“Protect Mr. Walker!”

Leon Williams shouted, “Whoever dares to take another step forward will be beaten to death!”

The bodyguards who received the order immediately stood behind Oliver Walker, blocking Davis’s bodyguard.

William Davis had lost his mind!

He was already filled with rage. Why would he still care about what Leon Williams was saying?

To be more precise, it was as if thunder was rumbling in his ears. He couldn’t hear anything at all. He only wanted to kill Oliver Walker!

The bodyguards of the two families were already engaged in battle.

In fact, there was little difference in strength. There was a possibility that Davis’s bodyguard and Leon Williams’ bodyguard were hired from the same security company.

The battle was quite intense.

It was also quite an interesting scene to watch.

However, Oliver Walker did not walk away as Davis deserved to be punished.

Otherwise, he would not learn his lesson!

As for Emilia and Luna Thomas, they only had one feeling when they saw Oliver Walker's expression ...

This man was too domineering!

The way that he remained so calm while walking through a rain of bullets. He didn't even frown.

The expression on his face...

The gaze in his eyes ...

Those steps ...

It was the might of a sovereign descending to the world, a contempt for these lowly livings that were like ants to him!
