

Chaplain 211

“Let’s go!”

By the time Oliver Walker returned to Emilia, the aura coming from Oliver Walker’s body had already dissipated like the smoke.

The only thing left was the humility of a gentleman!

There wasn’t a hint of ruthlessness on his body. On the contrary, he looked more like a gentle and elegant, weak scholar.

Who would have thought that just a moment ago, he was a thug who slapped William Davis?

“Um ... Yes, yes ...”

Emilia bit her red lips and looked at the fight that was happening at the door. She suddenly became worried. “Then, they ...”

Although she had no feelings for Davis and was not familiar with Leon Williams, this fight was started because of her. Wouldn’t it be too much for them to just leave right now?

“Sister Emilia, it’s fine now!”

Luna Thomas held Emilia’s hand and laughed mischievously. “Uncle Williams is someone powerful!”

“Isn’t it true, Uncle Williams?”

Leon Williams glared at Luna Thomas with the eyes of an elder. “You little girl!”

Luna Thomas grinned and laughed.

“Ms. Davis,” Leon Williams said again. “Please go ahead. Leave this place to me!”

He knew that this time, he did not disgust Oliver Walker. So, no matter what the outcome was, he had definitely earned something from today’s incident.

Was it for money or power that he wanted to curry favours with Oliver Walker?

In fact, that was not true.

He was just thinking that in the future, when his enemies seek revenge on him, he would have a golden ticket that could spare his life.

On the surface, Oliver Walker looked like a stray dog.

If it wasn’t because the first war god had called him, Leon Willaims wouldn’t have believed that this man was someone so important!

However, he knew that this man had infinite power.

He was one of the few people who stood at the tip of the pyramid in this country.

Perhaps no one could not see the benefits now, but in fact, he had already earned potential benefits.

The others might not understand why he would attack Davis for the sake of Oliver Walker and Emilia. This was because they were short-sighted!

In any case, he had obtained what he wanted!

This was more than enough!

The battle ended not long after Oliver Walker and Emilia had left.

After all, no matter how angry William Davis was, he didn't have the balls to fight Leon Williams. He could only admit that he was unlucky and take revenge in the future.

At the same time, inside the Spa Club, Alison Carter vomited out the bitter water in her stomach and spoke in agony, "Ms. Davis, Emilia is simply too much!!!!

"We can't let her get away with it!"

In the beginning, Alison Carter wanted to stand on the same side as Jessica Wright Davis. But, who would have thought that Jessica Wright Davis was so mentally fragile after being frightened?

Slap --

With a strong backhand slap, Jessica Davis slapped Alison Carter's face and roared with a ferocious expression, "You b*tch!"

Then, Jessica Wright Davis rolled her eyes and turned to leave!

She didn't want to stay in this place anymore!

It was frightening!

"Ms. Davis!"

Alison Carter was dumbfounded. She had never thought that this would be the result.

However, before she could feel any pain, she quickly took out her phone and shouted as she ran after Jessica Davis! "I've sent a request to join the club. Please approve my request! "

Jessica Wright Davis's eyes were like a poisonous snake. She suddenly turned around and sneered, "Don't you know what you are?"

"You think you're fit to join the group?"

"That's a group with people who are noble and wealthy not b*tch who are mistresses!"

"Get lost!"

What the....

Alison Carter was dumbfounded!

She stood in a daze, watching Jessica Wright Davis leave with a pained expression on his face.

She had been beaten up twice for nothing and ...

She didn't get anything in return?

This...

This was a huge loss to her!

However, her mouth, after opening slightly, closed again!

She could only watch Jessica Wright Davis enter the elevator, leaving behind a resentful expression. "Ah ..."

“Emilia!!!! This is all because of you!”

“...”

She was about to turn crazy!

She was already turning crazy this very moment!!!

She had originally wanted to use the abandoned Emile as her stepping stone to enter into the society of the upper-class people.

But, in the end.....

She had offended Luna Thomas instead.

Even Emilia’s arch-enemy, Jessica Wright Davis, who was the young miss of the Davis, did not take her seriously!

Chapter 212 His True Identity

However, she had never thought that under the circumstances where she had nothing, even if she were to squeeze her way through and enter a circle that she didn’t belong to, she would still be excluded and ignored.

In fact, many of these noble people were not stupid. How could they not tell the difference between a despicable person who was sucking up to them?

They didn’t expose her because she still had value to them.

The more desperate one was, the more she would be looked down upon!

That night, they had a wonderful meal at a Western restaurant.

Emilia and Luna Thomas had a heated conversation the entire time.

The topic was also about the cultural differences between their country and others. On the other hand, Oliver Walker, who was sitting opposite them, seemed like a third party. He felt out of place!

“Ding Ling Ling ...”

After the meal, Luna’s phone rang. She quickly got up and said, “Sister Emilia, Mr. Walker, I’m really sorry! Mr. Walter is urging me to go back now.

“I’ve already paid the bill. I’ll talk to you again tomorrow!”

She didn’t have many friends after returning to this country.

It was difficult to have such an enjoyable conversation since she had returned.

“Alright!”

“I’ll treat you to a meal another day!” Emilia quickly said as she stood up from her seat.

To be honest, Luna Thomas was very friendly and easy to get along with.

Luna Thomas was not putting on an act as the young miss of a wealthy family.

“Don’t worry!”

Luna Thomas smiled and left as she waved her arms.

After she left, Oliver Walker and Emilia left the restaurant as well.

The sky had already turned dark, and there was a huge traffic jam on the road.

Both of them decided not to hire a cab and decided to take a stroll back home.

“Why did Leon Williams come to help us?”

Gradually, Emilia broke the silence. There were too many doubts in her mind.

From his medical skills to his status!

She really had to re-examine the man beside her.

“Because of Luna Thomas!”

“They know each other!” Oliver Walker smiled.

He didn't dare to tell the truth.

This was because he felt that his relationship with his wife had not yet eased to that point.

“Do you think I'll believe you?”

“I'd admit that I've always thought that you were someone who could do nothing but fights,” Emilia said with a self-deprecating smile.

“But now...”

There were things she didn't know how to say. She walked to the green belt beside the park, where there was little traffic, and stopped. With a puzzled gaze, she looked at the side profile of the man beside her.

She always felt that this man was unfathomable.

It couldn't be that simple!

A trace of desire appeared in Emilia's beautiful eyes, and her expression was filled with anticipation. “I hope you can look into my eyes and tell me the truth!”

But would he be willing to tell her the truth?

She really had no confidence!

If a man insisted on hiding it, it would be impossible to find out.

Oliver Walker also stopped and looked at his wife. He took a deep breath and asked nervously, “Do you really want to hear the truth?”

He was very hesitant!

He didn't want to hide it!

But...was his wife really mentally prepared?

After all, his identity was something extremely surprising and important, even if he was in another country.

It was undoubtedly a bombshell!

“Yes!”

“Of course, I want to hear the truth!”

With a determined expression, Emilia said, “I don’t want to know nothing about my husband, and I don’t want to be sleeping next to a stranger!”

No matter who Oliver Walker was, she could accept it!

She would be able to!

The most important thing was that she didn’t want to be deceived!

As for Leon Williams, she was sure that he was not there today because of Luna Thomas.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have been so respectful to her and Oliver Walker.

When she thought of his divine medical skills and his outstanding military achievements, she was even more certain that her husband definitely wasn’t a nobody!

She didn’t even care if she had to give him her heart...

But as husband and wife, they should always be sincere, right?

However, she would never have expected that...

Her husband, who had returned after waiting for eight years, was the chaplain that was respected by thousands of people!

Chapter 213 The Master of the WarGods

Seeing his wife's firm expression, Oliver Walker hesitated for a moment, then said, "You would have heard of the five gods of war, right?"

He wanted to tell her everything, but in the end, he chose to tell her bit by bit.

After all, his experience was regarded as a legend by the world.

For those who didn't know him well, they wouldn't believe it when they first heard of him!

"Yes!"

There was a firm look in Emilia's beautiful eyes. In fact, she had already expected that Oliver Walker wasn't an ordinary man.

However, her heart still trembled when the five great War gods were mentioned.

Could it be ...

Her husband was a Deputy general under one of them.

If that was the case, then ...

It was unbelievable, but it wasn't something she couldn't expect.

She believed she was already mentally prepared and was only waiting for the answer to be revealed!

The first war god is Aiden Wilson, the second war god is Miya Curtis, the third war god is Douglas Martin, the fourth war god is Azure Dragon, and the fifth war god is Mo Xiaodao!

Oliver Walker listed out the names of the five great War gods one by one. No matter where they were placed, these five names were daunting death gods.

But, when it came out of his mouth, it sounded like they were commoners.

“Phew ...”

After taking a deep breath, Emilia held her breath and kept telling herself that she had to keep her cool.

No matter who the man in front of her was, he was her husband and her daughter’s father!

He shouldn’t just be a stranger!

“They ...”

Oliver Walker paused for a moment. Seeing that his wife was still in good condition, he said, “They’re all my disciples!”

Even though she was already prepared for this, she was still shocked by what she had heard!

The master of the five WarGods?

What a joke ...

Was this a joke?

However, just as she was in shock, she realized that there was only calmness on Oliver Walker’s face ...

It was like an ancient well, without the slightest ripple!

Then, her eyes widened because this man wasn't joking!

As he recalled the past, Oliver Walker lit a cigarette and continued, "They followed me and learned martial arts and military tactics for years!

"I'm gratified that they all have managed to stand on their own now."

The night wind blew, and the hair of the two people was also blowing at Emilia's wildly beating heart!

The master of the five WarGods?

This ...

"You...Are you sure you're not joking with me?"

Emilia asked, finding it difficult to speak. If her husband were to say he was a Deputy general under a certain God of War, she would definitely believe him without hesitation.

She could even accept it if he said they were as close as brothers.

But ...

It was getting ridiculous now!

The master of the WarGods?

Her heart felt like it was about to explode!

Her beautiful eyes were filled with disbelief!

Seeing his wife's expression, Oliver Walker smiled and said, "I ... I ... I was just joined, isn't it funny?"

He could only smile bitterly in his heart!

As expected, no one would believe it!

It was completely reasonable!

"It isn't funny at all!"

"The five WarGods," Emilia's expression turned cold. "Every one of them is an unparalleled hero with outstanding achievements. They deserve the respect of all the citizens of this country."

"But, you were making fun of them. Do you think I would be able to laugh at it?"

Just ...

It was quite ridiculous!

If a country's citizens were to mock all of their heroes, the country would become a joke!

Perhaps Oliver Walker was just trying to make her happy, but she refused to accept these jokes that had no limit to them.

This was because she couldn't accept it!

"Emilia, I..."

After seeing how his wife was getting angry, Oliver Walker quickly said, "Actually, I know them. We often chat together. I ..."

"Alright, I'll be honest ... I am one of the commanders."

He didn't know how to introduce himself. After all, the Indiana war had not officially ended.

He couldn't build his glory as a general while the bones of his soldiers rot in the ground.

There were lots of soldiers who sacrificed their lives for the victory in Indiana. How could he take all the credit?

"Don't do this next time!"

After a moment of silence, a trace of guilt appeared on Emilia's exquisite face. "I'm sorry for overreacting just now!"

"In fact..."

"You're a hero to Olivia!"

Chapter 214 Disappointing Children

In fact, he was more than just a hero in Olivia's heart.

He was also the hero in her heart!

But.....she was too embarrassed to say that.

It was mainly because she was afraid that Oliver Walker would be too arrogant!

She had heard of the commander of the Pioneers.

They were the elite troops of the first Wargod, Aiden Wilson and they were known as the king of war.

However, she did not expect that this man was actually the commander of the same troop!

She believed him! Of course she would!

This would also explain why there was no information about him at the local military department!

His family needed protection!

Therefore, their privacy must not be leaked!

Plus, her husband's status was so prominent. As the richest man in the country, it would be possible that Leon Williams managed to get the information that they couldn't.

Therefore, it would explain why Leon Williams had come to help!

"Then, what about me? What am I to you inside your heart?"

Oliver Walker heaved a sigh of relief. His wife finally believed him.

However, he really wanted to know what his wife thought of him.

A hesitant look appeared on Emilia's face before she asked, "In my heart?"

Of course, he was a hero!

The ones that were unparalleled!

She was proud to call this man her husband!

But, how should she express it so that it wouldn't appear exaggerated?

Oliver Walker replied seriously, "Yes!"

This answer was really important to him!

It meant whether his wife had accepted his return or not!

"You can take a guess!"

Emilia smiled sweetly and turned around, leaving only a beautiful figure for Oliver Walker.

That amorous feeling was intoxicating!

"I don't want to guess. I want to hear it from you."

"I won't be saying it."

"..."

The shadows of the two slender figures were reflected on the sidewalk under the street lights.

On the endless street, there was a burst of laughter from time to time.

Even if Emilia didn't say anything...

It was not difficult to infer that her view of Oliver Walker had changed dramatically.

In the huge, luxurious living room of Davis's mansion!

"Dad, we can't accept this!

"Look at the handprint on my face! There's still a mark there!"

William Davis cried, "That wild dog has gone too far!"

Jessica Wright Davis wasn't any better off either. She immediately spoke up with a coquettish voice, "Amelia as well!. She's such a b*tch!

"Just because she has a wild dog that bits everyone in their way, she started acting arrogant!"

There was a gloomy look on the face of the man that looked at Issac Davis.

He was the father of William Davis and Jessica Wright Davis.

Ever since he removed Issac Davis's family from the company, he had taken over the entire business.

After all, Ma'am Davis was already turning old and had gradually stopped getting involved in the business of the Davis Corporates.

However, he had never expected that his children would be bullied so badly by Emilia!

“Look at you cowards! You can’t even deal with a few stray dogs! Aren’t you embarrassing me?”

“What else does Amelia have now?”

“What does Oliver Walker have?”

“You ...”

“You guys ...”

“Hmph!”

“I’m so angry!”

Micheal Davis’s heart was filled with anger and he was disappointed that they did not live up to his expectations!

The young master and young miss of Davis had been beaten up by Emilia who had been kicked to the curb. How could he be proud of that?!

Jessica Wright Davis lowered her proud head because it was truly something embarrassing!

It was something that humiliated all of them to the core!

“Dad!”

“You can’t blame us for this!”

“It’s all that all because of that damn bastard, Leon Williams!” William Davis quickly shouted. “He’s the one who’s making things difficult for us! He’s going to make a move on us!”

“It’s a great disrespect to the Davis family!”

Chapter 215 Good-For-Nothing Murderes

William Davis was on the verge of tears and he started shouting hysterically.

When had he ever suffered such a great grievance since he was a young boy?

Even when Emilia was around, the worst that could happen was the other comparing the both of them but no one has ever laid hands on him!

Today, Leon Williams had given him two slaps!

But, what was even more infuriating was that the b*stard, Oliver Walker, had also given him two slaps on the face!

His lungs were about to explode from rage!

“Leon Williams?”

Micheal Davis’s face turned cold, “Him? Why did he get involved?”

He had thought that it was a small matter but if Leon Williams was involved, it would become a much bigger problem.

Could it be that there was something going on between Emilia and Leon Williams?

That motherf*cker.....

There was such a possibility!

“It’s ... It’s because of Luna Thomas!”

William Davis firmly said, “It’s Luna Thomas. She insisted that Emilia was her best friend!

“Dad!”

“Leon Williams is close with the Thomas family. He might even sacrifice Davis to the heavens for them!”

After analysing their relationship carefully, there was really such a possibility.

After all, Leon Williams was already a powerful man here in Colorado!

But, Davis was not weak either!

If Leon Williams wanted to be the king of Colorado, he would likely join forces with Thomas Corporation in the Eastern Ocean City to suppress Davis.

Standing up for Oliver Walker and Emilia was most likely just an excuse!

Micheal Davis was looking extremely pissed. “I’ll hold it in for now and observe the situation closely.”

This was not something beneficial to them.

Why did it feel like this was a conspiracy?

As for Oliver Walker and Emilia, he didn’t care about them at all.

The real tricky problem was the strong alliance between Leon Williams and the Thomas Entertainment, which would cause a devastating blow to Davis.

“Dad!”

“How can I endure this?”

Jessica Wright Davis roared unwillingly, “Why don’t we just find someone and kill them?!”

The temperature in the living room dropped rapidly!

Kill?

Micheal Davis’s eyes were filled with rage. “What did you just say?”

Jessica Wright Davis roared again, “I said just hire someone and kill them all!!!!”

“I can’t take it anymore!”

“I’ve had enough!”

How could she not feel aggrieved?

From what she knew, Emilia should have bowed down to her but look at what happened today?

This wasn’t what happened today!

Slap – –

However, Micheal Davis slapped her hard.

“Ahhhh!”

Thud.

Jessica Wright Davis was thrown to the ground by the huge impact from the slap. She felt a burning pain on her face and tears kept falling. She cried as she asked in confusion, “Dad, why did you hit me?”

William Davis was stunned as well. He did not expect his father to be so angry!

Was it because he couldn't bear to kill his own niece?

This wasn't right!

Something has definitely gone wrong here!

Based on his understanding of his father, he knew that his father was not a soft-hearted man!

“We're a family that does proper businesses. We definitely won't do things like murdering others.”

Micheal Davis coldly said, “You have to abandon the extreme thoughts of killing people at the drop of a hat. Once you open your mouth, things will get out of hand.

“Not only that you wouldn't be able to bear the consequences of it. The entire company would be dragged along with you!”

Things are different now!

He really couldn't commit murder and arson anymore.

All the major companies were trying their best to clear their names but his good-for-nothing daughter actually wanted to step into the fire pit. Was this a joke?

The victory at the Indiana battlefield would be announced soon.

Once the issue at the border has been settled, there would definitely be a purge in the country.

This was aimed at the evil forces who have been acting against the law.

It was the abyss for people like them!

He knew his priorities!

Chapter 216 Associated With a Liar

“Then...”

William Davis asked in an unwilling tone, “then, are we just.... going to allow him to be so arrogant?”

William Davis couldn't stand this!

The main thing was because.....

He felt that he had been badly bullied!

“Endure and allow him to continue being so arrogant?”

Micheal Davis sneered, “There are many ways to kill a person. Why don't you use your brains? Why do you have to choose the stupidest one? ”

“Also, I’m planning to get the company listed. Don’t cause any trouble for me.

“If Leon Williams comes looking for trouble, I’ll teach him a lesson!”

It was true that the Davis Corporates weren’t as powerful as they used to be.

Especially when Leon Williams and the Thomas Corporate who could join forces to suppress them at any time, he could only go public and reap a wave of intelligence tax with their old reputation!

William Davis and Jessica Wright Davis naturally weren’t satisfied with such a result.

However, no one dared to say anything. When Micheal Davis left, Jessica Wright Davis finally asked with hatred, “Big brother, are we just going to bear with it?”

“Bear with it? William Davis repeated her question.

“Why should I?”

“But, dad is right. There are many ways to kill a person!”

“I’ll keep an eye on them. I don’t believe they’ll be able to continue acting in such a manner!”

That’s right!

It was impossible for Emilia and Oliver Walker to remain silent forever, right?

Oliver Walker would definitely have to look for a job to feed his family.

When that time comes ...

Jessica Wright Davis instantly understood and her eyes were full of viciousness. "Then we'll make them lose all their capital and suffer a great loss!"

The next morning, under the persuasion of Oliver Walker and Emilia, Mary Green gave up on her work.

It wasn't that she didn't want to suffer but she didn't want her daughter and son-in-law to worry.

As for Isaac Davis, as if to show off, he went out to work in the morning, as if he had changed for the better.

He had heard that George Johnson had been severely punished and was still in the ICU.

In addition, all the businesses under Blue Ocean Entertainment had been liquidated and were now considered bankrupt.

He didn't even have to use his brain to know that it was all Oliver Walker's doing.

How would he have the balls to mess things up now?

As for the video of Oliver Walker saving another man's life yesterday, it was spreading like wildfire on the internet.

It refreshed the knowledge of the people of the society about traditional medicine.

It was Andy Cooper who informed Oliver Walker after he saw the video.

After all, Oliver Walker and his wife rarely used social media platforms like TikTok.

If it wasn't for Andy Cooper, Oliver Walker wouldn't have known that he had become an internet celebrity and a highly sought-after miracle doctor.

However, this was also good news to them. After all, he also wanted to open up a clinic soon.

"If I don't go to work, I can't just sit around doing nothing, right?"

"How about this ..."

"You guys can go ahead to work. I'll take care of Olivia." Mary Grimm offered with a frown on her face.

"How about that?"

It was true that her job didn't pay much. She would be exhausted by the end of the day and wouldn't earn much.

However, Oliver Walker and Emilia were stronger than her.

"This is a good option!"

"But I still want to open a clinic!" Oliver Walker brought up the topic once again.

The harmonious atmosphere was instantly broken!

Emilia's face was filled with confusion. Why did he say it out loud?

This was spreading salt on her mother's wounds!

She was willing to support him but how could Emilia convince her mother?

Her original plan was to take out all her savings and open a clinic secretly. After all, Oliver Walker was indeed someone who knew medicine.

But.....

“I already said this before. Not everyone can own a clinic!”

The expression on Mary Grimm’s face changed in an instant. Her tone was filled with rage. “You are a hero from the front line but you must not use this glorious title to cheat money from others!

“We have hands and feet. Why can’t we just earn money with proper means?”

Emilia glared at Oliver Walker with hidden bitterness and immediately said, “Mom, please give him a chance. He really knows medicine.”

In fact, Oliver Walker didn’t have to do this so suddenly. Emilia wasn’t even prepared for it!

She knew that her mother was an upright and unyielding person and so it would be impossible for her to agree to it!

“You want me to believe him?”

“How do you expect me to believe you?”

“Does he look like a doctor to you?”

Mary Grimm had a strong opinion about this. She rebuked him with deep hatred, “If you insist on opening a clinic you would either have to show me evidence for me to believe you or you’d have to leave this family!

“I will never associate myself with a liar!”

Chapter 217 Liars! Liars! Liars!

Mary Grimm hated liars the most in her life.

They would rather starve to death than see their closest family members go astray.

This was a matter of integrity!

Life may be bitter and it may be tiring. It could be without dignity but it must not be without any bottom line!

“Mom!”

After all, she had personally witnessed Oliver Walker’s amazing medical skills.

This ...

How could it be fake?

She did not believe that Oliver Walker could work with the attending doctor of the emergency department of Colorado hospital to deceive her.

So, Oliver Walker really had medical skills.

It was enough to support the operation of a Medical Center.

“That’s enough! You don’t have to say anymore!”

Mary Grimm retorted firmly, “This is the bottom line of a human being!”

Emilia turned around and glanced at Oliver Walker, her face looked helpless.

Her mother was being incredibly stubborn.

She didn't want to believe him at all.

However, this was something normal. After all, if Emilia didn't see it with her own eyes, she would find it hard to believe that a person who had been at battle for the past eight years would have medical skills!

"Mom, look!"

"This is a video of me and Emilia saving a dying man on the road yesterday," Oliver Walker answered with a smile.

"It's all over the internet right now."

Although he didn't like showing off, he...

It was very important for him to open a clinic.

First, it was to promote the culture of traditional medicine and achieve his goal of helping the world.

Secondly, he could also have a reasonable source of income for his family to live a good life.

It was difficult for men to make a living these days.

When he had no money, he would face all kinds of problems.

When one had money, one would still face different problems.

It seemed that the difficulty of survival for men increased from the moment they were born.

When Emilia saw the video, she was instantly overjoyed. "Right!"

"I was there yesterday.

"This man was involved in a car accident and even Dr. Allie Wilson said that she wouldn't be able to save him.

"But, Oliver did with just a few silver needles!"

She was still very surprised by it. She never expected that someone would actually take a video yesterday and post it on TikTok. Now that the evidence was conclusive, her mother should be able to accept it with peace of mind.

She did not expect her husband to come prepared!

"This..."

After watching the entire video, Mary Green's expression changed several times. "Are you sure you want to lie to me about this?"

"You really think that it's so easy to fool me that I can't see through such a simple lie?"

This man would first stir up the popularity on the internet and then frantically reap the traffic.

Wasn't this a basic trick of a swindler?

She may be a woman...

She was once the young miss of Davis. So, how could she not recognize such a simple deception?

“Mom!”

“It’s true!” Emilia was getting anxious.

“Why won’t you believe it just for once?!”

Sometimes, she felt as if she had no other choice!

Although Emilia believed it, it was too difficult to convince others.

It was even more difficult to convince her mother to believe him!

“I’m done with this!”

“Do not say anything else about this!”

“I’m not dumb and old yet!” Mary Grimm rebuked coldly.

After saying that, she could feel that the atmosphere around wasn’t too pleasing. So, she sighed and went downstairs.

She didn’t want to put it in such a harsh way. After all, she still liked Oliver Walker.

When a person encountered difficulties, they would always think of different ways to deal with the situation, it was very likely that some would step into the abyss of eternal damnation.

As someone older than them, the only thing that she could do was to try her best to prevent the younger generation from making mistakes.

In fact, she could understand Oliver Walker and Emilia's thoughts. After all, they were a family and it was too difficult for them to even feed themselves.

The living room was instantly filled with awkwardness!

"You shouldn't have brought it up so recklessly." Emilia said helplessly. "My mother ..."

She knew her mother's character well.

If it wasn't the truth, she wouldn't believe them at all.

This was the stubbornness of those from the older generation!

"Mother ..."

Chapter 218 The Difficulties Of a Family Man

"She just has the best intentions in mind for us."

Although Oliver Walker was a little disappointed, he was still in a good mood. He then said, "It's just that..... we can't continue living like this, right?"

"We can't buy a house nor own a shop....."

"Even with all the money with us, are we going to just live in the same condition as we are now?"

It was indeed quite depressing!

After all ...

Oliver Walker wanted to change the current situation at home.

He also had sufficient ability but there was a lack of trust.

In the end ...

Emilia had to lower her head!

She knew what Oliver Walker meant.

He just wanted to secretly open the clinic.

After a moment of silence, she said with difficulty, "But.... if we do that and once mom finds out, she'll definitely be furious!"

He didn't even get any support from her even when he wasn't going to keep it a secret.

If he secretly opened the clinic, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Oliver Walker said anxiously, "The point is that we aren't doing this to cheat others. Once the clinic starts operating and it has a good reputation, she wouldn't object to it."

Now that such a situation had occurred, he could only hope to obtain his wife's support.

Otherwise, when would this stalemate end?

Other people were troubled because they didn't have money but he was getting tied up because he had money and he couldn't use it!

If word got out, it would definitely become a joke.

It was indeed unbelievable.

“Hmmm...”

“I’ll go down and discuss it with her.” Amelia said with a frown. “Maybe I might be able to convince her?”

If they had the choice not to hide this, it would be what she preferred.

After all, it was too unkind.

“Alright then!”

Oliver Walker felt nothing but helplessness. He knew that his mother-in-law had good intentions.

It definitely wasn’t very kind of him to open the clinic secretly.

However, the feeling of wanting people to understand him was getting frustrating.

He only wanted his family to live a better life. Was it that difficult?

Back at the First Hospital of Colorado.

In the dean’s office!

“Mr. Floss, have you made a decision after what happened yesterday?”

Allie Wilson sat on the chair with her face full of anticipation. She knew that the man's medical skills were quite impressive.

He was definitely a talented man.

"Wilson, don't be anxious!"

James Floss smiled and asked, "Are you sure that this man really has medical skills and that it's not a scam?"

In fact, after thinking about it for the entire night, he still felt that it was a little unbelievable.

There were definitely experts in the field of traditional medicine but....

Why would they be in a small city like Colorado?

How was that even possible?

If he was really as amazing as Allie Wilson said, he had to be at least a master-level traditional medicine practitioner.

How could he be a young boy?

"It's absolutely true!"

"Mr. Floss, even if you don't believe him, don't you believe me?"

Allie Wilson said anxiously, "I can guarantee that what happened yesterday was not fake!"

"That man is really a rare divine doctor!"

James Floss shook his head. "I'm the dean of the hospital and I have to be responsible for it.

"I wouldn't want to send out an invitation without having concrete evidence."

It was not that he did not want to believe in Allie Wilson but there were lots of similar schemes.

Many people made a big mistake because of their momentary foolishness and destroyed their lifelong reputation.

Therefore, it was quite normal for Allie Wilson to make an error in her judgement!

"Oh lord!"

"Why is it so difficult for me to explain this to you?!"

"Look! This is the video of the incident yesterday. Many people are looking for the miracle doctor."

Allie Wilson stood up in a fit of anger. She took out her phone and slammed it on the table in an aggressive manner. "Look!"

"Take a good look. Take a good look before you come to a conclusion!"

She was feeling speechless!

She has been an emergency doctor for more than twenty years. How could she be so easily deceived?

No matter how good this man's trickery was, he could only fool laymen. How could he fool an emergency specialist like her?

When the TikTok video popped up, James Floss saw the side profile of Emilia and the man of the topic. He instantly stood up and complained with a shocked expression, “Why didn’t you mention that it was Oliver Walker?”

Chapter 219 An Honorary Dean

If he had known that the miracle doctor mentioned by Allie Wilson was Oliver Walker, why would James Floss question her?

That man?

He was a man that even the god doctor, Hendrik Smith, had to address as master.

At first, he had the same thought as Jessica Wright Davis, mistakenly thinking that it was Hendrik Smith who was being friendly and down-to-earth. Perhaps Oliver Walker was only referring to him as ‘mister’ instead of ‘master’.

However, after watching the video, everything changed.

Oliver Walker really knew medicine. Coupled with Allie Wilson’s amazing description, what did that mean?

It meant that it was possible that Oliver Walker was really Hendrik Smith’s master.

As for why it was Hendrik Smith who had saved Olivia, it was not something that unexplainable.

A master’s test for his disciple?

“I’m just afraid that you’ll have too many opinions about him.”

“After all, his wife is Emilia. I can’t be sure that you wouldn’t be angry after hearing who it was.” Allie Wilson rebutted him with her face flushed.

She didn't mention anyone's name because she had too many concerns.

She wanted to settle things with James Floss first. By then, the invitation would have been sent out and everything would have already been set to stones.

"Nonsense!"

"Rumours and rumours! This is professional work!"

"Besides, what's wrong with Emilia?"

"Isn't she human?"

James Floss blushed and said, "You ...Do you have Oliver Walker's contact?"

In fact, Emilia did have a bad reputation in Colorado.

If he hadn't met Hendrik Smith, he wouldn't have dared to break Davis's ban but now, he had no scruples left.

Once Oliver Walker agreed to join the First Hospital of Colorado, did that mean that the hospital's reputation would rise to the same level as the International Medical Centre?

If that was the case, he would not resign no matter how much money the director was paid, let alone be promoted.

After all, the status of the International Medical Centre was similar to Aiden Wilson's status in the business world.

Moreover, Hendrik Smith was one of the most important personnels amongst the other tyrants.

This ...

This would be a great honour!

“I... I don’t have any,!”

Allie Wilson said with remorse. “That day, I didn’t even have time to say anything before he left. You have to think about it carefully. If you want to rope in such a godly doctor, I don’t think you’ll have a chance if you bring the right offer to the table.”

Allie Wilson was taking this seriously.

With such superb medical skills, it shouldn’t be a problem for him to hold the title of a professor in the hospital.

She had worked for more than 20 years before She became a director.

However, Oliver Walker was different. If he was given the position of the head of the department despite being new here, no one would be unhappy about it.

After all, his abilities would prove that he was worthy of it.

“An Honorary Dean!”

James Floss took a deep breath. “I hope he’ll take a fancy to it!”

“No, I have to personally invite VIPs like him!”

Honorary Dean?

Allie Wilson was instantly stunned!

This was ...

James Floss was really offering the best that he had.

Honorary Dean? Was he being serious about this?

She originally thought that James Floss would give Oliver Walker the position of a specialist consultant or the title of a director but she never expected James Floss to offer something so barbaric.

However, as she thought about it carefully, offering Oliver Walker the position of a Honorary Dean definitely wasn't over the top.

At least, Allie Wilson was convinced of it.

...

New City District, City Square.

Mary Grimm had already forgotten how long it had been since she had rested. It was her first day where she didn't have to work. After feeling relaxed, she felt uncomfortable all over.

"Hey, isn't that Mary Grimm?"

"Why didn't she go to work today?"

"Maybe she's having one day off?"

“She works as a street cleaner? Why would she have days off?”

“...”

Mary Grimm’s appearance was like an explosion, attracting the attention of many people.

In the minds of these old men and women, Mary Grimm shouldn’t be anywhere else but at Pearl Street at this time of the day.

Mary Grimm naturally heard the voices around her.

Due to Karen Adam’s malicious publicity and Mary Grimm family’s situation, they had a bad name in the neighbourhood.

However, such judgements and gossip made her feel aggrieved.

Chapter 220 A Woman With No Sons

She was already 50 years old, couldn’t she just rest for a day?

However, she didn’t want to argue. She just wanted to live her own life. Was there anyone who didn’t have others talking behind their backs?

She walked to the area with gym equipment, wanting to exercise and relieve her sore muscles.

However, she didn’t think that she would meet the person she least wanted to meet!

The person she had once regarded as a friend but in the end, had ruined her reputation behind her back.

So, she turned around, wanting to leave immediately!

“Oh ...”

“Isn’t this Mary?”

“Why aren’t you sweeping the roads today?”

However, when Karen Adams saw Mary Grimm, she quickly took a step forward. She didn’t intend to let Mary Grimm go at all. Karen Adams continued speaking in a strange tone, “Have you gathered enough money to save your granddaughter’s life?”

Such aggressive words caused the surrounding people to laugh at Karen Adams

However, her ‘heart was now filled with anger.

It was all because of Emilia’s appearance at the Military Department that had stolen all her limelight and embarrassed her!

This ...

Could she endure it?

Mary Grimm stopped and retorted angrily, “You! Why do you always have to be so mean?”

“My granddaughter has already completely recovered from her condition. You don’t have to worry about her anymore!”

In the past two years, because of Olivia’s illness, she had indeed suffered a lot of eye-rolls.

However, she could now proudly announce that Olivia was now a normal child!

She was no longer suffering from a disease!

“What?”

“She’s cured?”

“Would it be that easy to treat leukaemia?”

“Where did you get the money?”

“...”

The others started to discuss heatedly once again.

After all, in the past two years, most of the humiliation that Mary Grimm had suffered was because of Olivia’s condition.

Olivia has recovered just because she said so?

Mary Grimm didn’t care much and held her head up proudly.

It was true that Olivia had completely recovered!

She was confident about it!

“Just because you’re saying that she has recovered, it doesn’t mean that its true!

“That’s a deadly disease!

“How would that even be possible!”

“Also...” said Karen Adams coldly, “You better make it clear. You don’t even have a son. How can you have a granddaughter?”

“Olivia Walker isn’t your granddaughter by blood!”

“You’re already an adult, yet you don’t even know this bit of common sense. I really suspect that there’s something wrong with your brain.”

As soon as these words were spoken, it instantly sparked laughter from the surrounding people.

Although the onlookers didn’t participate in the verbal criticism of Mary Green, their unrestrained laughter was still full of sarcasm.

Karen Adams’s mean words were the one that pierced Mary Grimm’s heart the most!

The fact that Mary Grimm had no sons!

It was because she had no son that caused Ma’am Davis to support Micheal Davis after kicking Issac Davis out of the family.

The ancient people often said that there were three ways to be unfilial and having no descendants was the worst amongst all three.

Having no son was the same as having no descendant. It was the same!

Children of any gender would be equally important but a woman who had a son, whether at home or in public, would be more confident than a woman who could not give birth to a son!

She had personally experienced it and understood how serious it was to value men over women.

Her eyes were filled with rage but she had no choice!

“Why are you staring at me?”

Karen Adams continued pressuring Mary Grimm “Did I say something wrong?”

“Since you can’t give birth to a son, neither can your jinx daughter!

“For generations, your family name would take up the last name of an outsider!”

“Once you’re dead, you will no longer have people who will sweep your grave!

“This is because you have no descendants! You have broken the name of the family!”

Karen Adams’s words were harsh and her spittle flew everywhere.

She had to vent all the pent-up anger she had felt from earlier from the encounter that she had with Emilia at the Military Department.

No one would be able to stand such malicious words!

So, Mary Grimm’s body was trembling as she felt ashamed. “You ... Don’t go too far with this!”
