Chapter 221 The Villain's Plan

As a woman, it was already very painful to lose her fertility.

Now that it was being brought up in public, it felt as if her scar was being torn apart and they were sprinkling salt on her wounds.

Mary Grimm felt the malice from this world.

This world was cruel!

It was difficult to describe what she was feeling inside.

Especially when she recalled what Isaac Davis had said earlier.

This was the very reason why her family had been kicked out of the company. She felt even more ashamed, angry, and remorseful!

"Too far?"

"Let the people in the neighbourhood talk sense into you. How have I gone overboard?"

Karen Adams continued relentlessly, "Your entire family is jinxed. If you didn't live here, the residential area would have been demolished long ago. We would have become an abandoned neighbourhood!"

These words were extremely provocative!

When the topic of demolition was mentioned, the eyes of the onlookers all lit up.

That's right!

Mary Grimm's family was a jinx!

If their family didn't live in this neighbourhood, wouldn't their houses be demolished by now?

"You don't deserve to live here!"

"You have a rotten family and you will never be able to live a good life. You're only here to affect our Feng Shui!"

"Hmph!!!"

The onlookers who were infuriated started cursing at Mary Grimm as well.

None of them showed mercy.

None of them remembered what etiquette and manners were.

They were a group of uncultured people who were particularly superstitious in order to live a good life.

In fact, they had never thought that if Mary Grimm really had the magical power to interfere with Feng Shui, her family wouldn't be in such a miserable state.

"You....!!!!

"All of you!!!"

Mary Grimm's face turned red and tears were welling up in her eyes!

Why?

According to what these people were saying, does it mean that Mary Grimm's family doesn't even deserve a chance to continue living a normal life?

It was said that close neighbours were better than distant relatives but she really didn't feel that having close neighbours was a good thing.

It was fine if they were gossiping behind her back but now, they were criticising her in public.

Was there anything else that she could do?

"What about us?"

Karen Adams was overbearing as she screamed in a fierce tone "Your family is a shit stirrer!"

"Shit stirrer!!! Do you understand?"

Mary Grimm lowered her head. She felt a breath of air in her chest that went straight into her brain.

She could no longer control her emotions.

This is too hateful!"

"People like them are a waste of resources for them to be alive! They even waste land after they are dead!"

"They were only born to harm others!"

"..."

The sarcastic words that were hard to swallow caused Mary Grimm's head to start spinning.

Her blood pressure was also rising rapidly!

"Mom

After seeing her mother being surrounded by a group of people, Emilia immediately became nervous.
"She's being surrounded!"

"That's Karen Adams who would always bully mother!"

Oliver Walker could see it as well.

He knew that his mother-in-law, wife, and daughter were not welcomed in this ignorant neighbourhood.

It had even reached the point where everyone wanted to beat them up, stopping them from escaping by any means.

"Don't panic just yet."

"I'll go and take a look!" Oliver Walker comforted his wife in a deep voice.

After he finished speaking, he headed towards the crowd at full speed.

Don't panic?

How could she not panic?!

She had asked her mother to stop working because she wanted Mary Grimm to have a good rest and relax those nerves that have been tensed up for the past 2 years.

She didn't think that her mother would end up getting bullied!

However, she couldn't keep up with Oliver Walker's pace. She could only grit her teeth and run over as fast as she could!

"Say something!"

"Why did you stop?"

"Are you mute?" W

With a vicious look on her face, Karen Adams reached out her hand and started pointing fingers at Mary Grimm. "You're a jinx. You will never have a good life and you even drag us along with you!"

"We can't allow this to happen! We will have to kick you out!"

"Guys! Tell her who's right!"

Karen Adams was extremely pleased with herself.

It has been a long time since she started slandering Mary Grimm.

The people in the neighbourhood also had an extremely bad impression of Mary Grimm's family.

Therefore, at this moment, she definitely had the support that she needed.

There was a feeling of grandeur, as if she had become the main character of a movie. She could get the storm as long as she demanded for it.

“Right!”

“We can’t let her stay here!”

“We must drive her family out of this place!”

Chapter 222 Toasted By Rage

“Karen’s right!”

“...”

The elderly people in the neighbourhood criticised Mary Grimm with righteous indignation.

Did they really think that this place was not demolished because Mary Green’s family had ruined the Feng Shui?

“You ...You guys ...”

“I ...”

Mary Grimm’s breathing started to become rapid!

She was a strong woman.

She could endure any kind of pain or fatigue but she couldn’t stand the mockery and the harsh words that dug out her heart.

The next moment ...

Her vision turned black and her steps were staggering.

She felt so light-headed that she couldn't stand steadily.

This scene gave the group of old men and women a huge fright.

Then.....

Her voice was getting softer and softer!

“You!!! Don't put up a show here!”

At the same time, a flustered look appeared on Karen Adams's originally arrogant face. “Look! All of them were here to witness this! It is none of my business!!!

“This ... this is none of my business!

“It's her ... She's the one who's sick!”

If Mary Green was really dead, she would definitely be implicated.

So now, she had to draw a clear line between them.

Otherwise, she would be in big trouble.

The large group of onlookers had stopped talking.

In any case, the responsibility should be borne by the person who started this. They were only here to watch the drama!

“Boom ...”

As she was feeling mad and embarrassed, Mary Grimm struggled a few times before finally falling to the ground!

The entire venue fell silent!

“Mother!”

In the next second, after Oliver Walker shouted, he rushed into the crowd. “Get lost!”

A towering rage surged into his heart!

Why were these people so unwilling to have mercy on others?

Although his mother-in-law was a little stubborn, she would never offend anyone easily. She was a kind woman.

What pissed her off so badly to this extent?

“Quickly run!”

When the rest of them saw that the situation had worsened, they immediately acted as if this was none of their business and wanted to escape from the scene!

Boom --

However, an aura suddenly exploded and instantly dominated the entire scene!

“I’ll see which one of you has the guts to take another step!”

Oliver Walker squatted down and pinched his mother-in-law’s philtrum acupoint while sweeping his cold eyes across the audience!

This has happened to his mother-in-law and they think that they could leave in one piece?

How on earth would there be such a nice thing?

If anything were to happen to his mother-in-law, he would send all these bastards to hell!

“Ummm...”

“We...”

The group of elderly only felt that their bodies were being forced to the ground by something that weighed hundreds of pounds.

They wanted to run away but they couldn’t!

What kind of aura was this?

It was the aura of a man who led hundreds of soldiers on their galloping horses.

It was the domineering aura of the man who dominated the borders in Indiana and fought an entire on his own.

For the past eight years, he has served the country!

However, his family was being abused in the land he protected. It would be strange if he wasn't angry!

Respected elders?

Respect, my ass!

An old man worthy of respect would be called a wise man.

An old man who was not worthy of respect was merely hooligans who have become old.

Karen Adams was dumbfounded. Her heart was in a mess. Under the pressure of that overbearing aura, she felt that it was difficult to even breathe.

As for the rest of the group, they weren't any better.

Fear rose in their heart. The only thing that they could do was shudder in fear.

"Mom!"

"What happened to her?!"

"You guys, move aside!"

As Emilia squeezed through the crowd, she cried and shouted, "If anything happens to my mother, all of you are the culprits! Murderers!"

Wasn't her family miserable enough?

Why did these people have to be vicious and unwilling to give them even the slightest hint of mercy?

Did they really have to force her family to a dead corner?

Plus, her mother had always been very concerned about their reputation!

Chapter 223 Punished as Guilty

They have gone too far with this!

Even Karen Adams knew that she had gone too far!

She only wanted to take revenge for the time when Emilia rejected her youngest son. She had never thought that it would cost someone's life.

But now ...

What should she do?

She couldn't escape!

No!

Why should she run?

As long as she ignored it to her last breath, it would have nothing to do with her.

After all, there were so many people present here. Who would want to bear the responsibility for this?

Since this was an old neighbourhood and there were no surveillance cameras, she could just say that Mary Green had fainted on her own.

Right!

That's the way!

"Mom!"

"Wake up, please!"

Emilia half-knelt on the ground, guarding her mother. She didn't know what to do and so she could only ask, "What's wrong with mother?"

Oliver Walker quickly answered as he tried to treat his mother-in-law, "It's nothing serious. Her blood pressure just shot up because she got angry."

"I'm trying to calm her down now."

His mother-in-law was fine indeed but he can't allow this to happen without any consequences!

He never wanted to be involved with these mundane things!

However, there were always people who wanted to piss him off!

"That's good!"

"That's good!"

The anxious Emilia heaved a sigh of relief. She believed that Oliver Walker would not lie to her.

However, her mother's health had already deteriorated due to overwork.

It filled her heart with guilt.

After all, her mother had raised her through all the hardship but she could not offer her mother a better lifestyle This was unfilial!

"Cough cough ..."

With Oliver Walker's help, Mary Grimm gradually regained consciousness.

However, there were tears in the corners of her eyes. Under such circumstances, she really didn't want to wake up. She wanted to find a hole on the ground so that she could hide in it.

"Mom, how are you?"

A hint of surprise appeared on Emilia's pretty face as she asked impatiently.

However, the embarrassed Mary Grimm didn't answer. Instead, she turned her head and let the tears of humiliation fall down her face.

How embarrassing!

She had indeed humiliated all eight generations of her ancestors!

"Hmmm....."

Only she knew how much helplessness, pain, and grievance that sigh contained!

However, her awakening allowed everyone else to heave a sigh of relief.

Now that Mary Grimm was fine, they obviously didn't need to take responsibility for it.

The aura around the area was getting weaker as well.

However, even though their bodies had regained their freedom, they could still feel a lingering fear when they thought about the overwhelming and oppressive aura just now.

How was the son-in-law of Mary Grimm?

How was he so domineering?

He wasn't just powerful! He was incredibly powerful!

"Emilia!

"Take care of mother!"

After giving his instructions, Oliver Walker slowly got up. He couldn't let this happen just because his mother-in-law had regained consciousness.

This was only possible because he arrived on time. If he wasn't and the person who made his mother-in-law faint ran away, it wasn't an exaggeration to think that this could become a life-threatening situation.

"You...what are you going to do?"

"What's wrong?" Emilia asked with a slight frown. Although she was also angry, it caused an even bigger problem if Oliver Walker laid hands on these elderlies!

Any one of them fell to the ground, the money their family had now wouldn't be enough to compensate any of them!

The furious Oliver Walker did not say anything. He chose to act first and report later. He went straight to Karen Adams and repeated his wife's question indifferently, "What do you think you were doing?"

It was such an imposing tone that it was like a sudden clap of thunder!

It struck everyone's hearts!

It definitely was a scene that wasn't nice to witness.

This woman would have to pay the price!

When Oliver Walker made a move, he didn't care if the person in front of him was an old man or a woman!

As long as he could confirm the person in front of him had done something unforgivable, the person would have to be severely punished as a warning to others!

"I ... I ... I ..."

Chapter 224 Respecting An Old Bastard?

Karen Adams gulped as she stuttered in fear, "She ... She fainted on her own, so it's not my fault! Ahhhhh!!!!"

She was feeling frightened!

That fear came from the depths of her soul. How could she not be afraid?

At this moment, Oliver Walker's eyes were like an eagle hunting for its prey. Even a general with 100000 troops would not dare to act rashly in front of him, let alone an ordinary person!

Slap --

Oliver Walker slapped Karen Adams and repeated himself. "Say it once more!"

Karen Adams was dumbfounded. She felt her head buzzing and the burning pain on her face made her tears fall uncontrollably. She said aggrievedly, "You ... How could you lay hands on me?!"

Her heart was filled with anger but she didn't dare to be rude anymore.

Her arrogance was only directed at those who were weaker than her.

Or rather, someone with a better temper than her.

When she encountered a ruthless and brutal one, she would immediately lose her guts!

To put it simply, people like Karen Adams were always bullying the weak but afraid of those stronger than them!

Emilia was also stunned. Oliver Walker was too irascible. Even if she went forward to pull him, she might not be able to move him!

The onlookers also gasped in fear!

There was a clear handprint with five bloody fingers on Karen Adams's face. They could feel the pain by just looking at the print.

“I’m a rough man,” said Oliver Walker coldly. “I only know how to fight!”

“Do you have any objections?”

The reason why he didn’t ask the rest of them to leave?

He left them here on purpose!

He wanted to teach all of them a lesson!

If it was any other time, he definitely wouldn’t make a move so easily!

However, for the past few days that he has been here, he had personally witnessed the bullying that his mother-in-law, wife, and daughter had suffered.

It was only worth reasoning when the other party was someone educated and well-read.

When dealing with b*tches who pestered endlessly, the only solution to it was his fist!

“You.....I...”

Karen Adams roared with a sobbing tone, “I ... I ... I’m almost sixty years old, you ... How can you hit me?”

“Where did this wild dog come from? Doesn’t it know that respecting the elderly is a traditional virtue of this nation?!”

She was going crazy!

After all, she had been slapped in public and did not dare to fight back. With her personality of only taking advantage of others and could never allow herself to be embarrassed, how could she be happy with this?

Therefore, she wanted to occupy the moral high ground and condemn the violent Oliver Walker so that he would not dare to make a move again!

Slap—

However, her condemnation didn't get Oliver Walker's compromise. Instead, another crisp slap resounded throughout the entire venue.

The old men and women who had come to join in the fun were completely dumbfounded. If that slap had landed on their bodies, would they have been able to take it?

"The nation's virtue?"

"You're actually talking to me about respecting your elders?" Oliver Walker laughed.

"Then I'll have a good chat with you about this!"

"Elders are only worth respecting if they are someone respectable!"

"Respect isn't for bastards who take advantage of their age. You aren't an elder worth respecting, you're merely a bastard who has turned old!"

With every sentence he said, his aura rose sharply and the coldness in his eyes also soared. "So, are you considered someone respectable?!"

It was not that he did not respect the elderly!

He had earned a lot of money over the years and had also done a lot of charity work under a different name.

Nursing homes all over the world were just one of his many projects!

He didn't even count how many of them were under his care.

However, if he were to raise an old woman like Karen Adams, he would rather feed money to dogs than raise an old bad woman like her who would bring disaster to the world!

That was not merit but sin!

Karen Adams was stunned but she couldn't say anything to refute him!

She was afraid that if she said another word, Oliver Walker would slap her again.

She couldn't leave even if she wanted to now!

She couldn't even fight even if she badly wanted to!

This kind of grievance was like being propped on top of a volcano and her body was being roasted publicly.

With her sharp tongue, she had dominated the community for many years and could slander anyone she wanted.

Who would have thought that they would meet such a nemesis?

In the past, regardless of whether it was reasonable or not, she only needed to stand on the moral high ground and coldly say that respecting elderlies was a traditional virtue in this country!

No one would be able to refute this!

But...

Mary Grimm's son-in-law was simply a madman!

He was simply a bastard who didn't follow the rules!

At the same time, the entire place turned quiet. Was there anyone who dared say 'no' to Oliver Walker?

Was there anyone who wasn't afraid of getting into trouble?

Chapter 225 Sharp Stabs Into Her Heart

"Y-y-y-you....."

Karen Adams was in pain and angry. Her fingers were trembling. "You ..." He's just a barbarian, an unemployed person, a stinky hooligan!"

"As a man, you only know how to bully the old. You're simply not worthy of being human!"

"No one in your entire family doesn't even has a decent job. You're all scourges!"

Karen Adams was ready to lose everything!

She was going all out in the battle against Oliver Walker.

This was because she couldn't stand this humiliation anymore!

"If you can't even bear such a small evil consequence, then how did my mother and my wife survive after suffering so much grievances because of your rumours? "

“Put yourself in my shoes, who’s acting like a barbarian?”

Oliver Walker took a step forward and said coldly, “You have the nerve to mention that we’re humans?!”

“Then, let me remind you of this. If you’re born as a man and can’t even protect your own family, then you’re not worthy of being a man!”

Seeing Oliver Walker step forward, Karen Adams panicked and quickly took a step back.

After all, she was afraid of being beaten!

“Also, let me tell you one more thing. Even if none of us worked, our family will still live a better life than you!”

“Are you envious of us now?” Oliver Walker had a cold smile on his face.

“Are you jealous?”

“Do you hate me?”

“But you should only be left with this!”

He approached Karen Adams step by step and she had no idea but to retreat step by step, as her body trembled all over.

She wanted to admit defeat but she couldn’t afford to lose face.

She wanted to act tough but was afraid of getting beaten up at the same time!

It was as if she had reached the crossroads of life and didn't know what to choose. She was caught in a dilemma.

She could only try her best to struggle her way out of it, not knowing that ...

The more she struggled, the deeper she would fall!

Karen Adams gulped with difficulty. She mustered the last bit of courage she had and roared crazily, "What are you bragging about?"

"You don't even have a house and can only rent a house in this old neighbourhood. You can't even afford a decent home appliance and your wife can only use her body to please those men in the club. She doesn't even have a decent job!

"Are you even worthy of saying that you're better than me?"

"You have been cheated on. You're a waste of air when you're alive and a waste of land when you're dead. It's a joke that God played on your family when you were born!

"It's a punishment for us, a torture for us!"

"..."

Karen Adams relied on her mouth to make a living and it would be natural for her to be a fighter with her words.

Once they started firing, they were no different from machine guns.

She was typical of those women who gossiped.

She was able to say the most vicious words without using any curse words.

Every sentence was a sharp knife stab, thrust deep into Emilia's heart.

All these people knew was that she couldn't find a job because of Davis's ban. In order to save her daughter, she could only wear fishnet socks and clothes that she hated while working in a club.

However, none of them knew that she was just an ordinary waitress in the club.

Although George Johnson liked touching her, she managed to dodge all of them.

Now that her past was being brought up again, in addition to the fact that her mother had fallen unconscious from her high blood pressure after being angered by these people, it was undoubtedly rubbing salt on her wound. "You don't have to worry about our family's work!"

"We'll be opening a clinic soon..."

Mary Grimm, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly had a sad look in her eyes.

She had finally managed to persuade her daughter and son-in-law to go on the right path.

However, in the end, this loathsome Karen Adams has to say such words. It would be impossible for them to go back on this idea since her daughter has already announced it publicly.

Would anyone be able to survive without the sense of acknowledgement?

It wasn't just to satisfy one's vanity but for one's social status!

It was the most basic respect between people in a society!

How many people would go astray for the sake of vanity and a few words of flattery?

The entire scene was silent. This family is going to own a clinic?

This ...

Karen Adams was also stunned but she quickly said, "Open a clinic?"

"Let's not talk about whether you have the money. Even if you have enough to rent a shop, do you have the qualifications to practise medicine?"

She knew very well that Oliver Walker was a soldier.

Even if he was not a deserter, he would have nothing to do with the glory that would come after the war.

Chapter 226 A Scheme to Cheat Others For Money!

These people

Want to open a clinic?

It was simply a huge joke!

"Aren't you doing it so that you can cheat others for money?"

"Who would believe that?"

"Maybe he's so poor that he's gone crazy!"

"..."

The group of old men and women became bold again when they saw that Oliver Walker had stopped attacking Karen Adams.

After all, it was embarrassing to be frightened by a young man!

Especially in the public eyes, doctors, teachers, and lawyers were professions that brought honour to their ancestors and could make a fortune.

Who would believe that a poor family that needed to rent a place in the slums had the ability to open a clinic?

It was simply the biggest joke in the world!

Emilia also knew that she shouldn't have said it but she was indeed forced into a corner.

She just wanted these people to respect her mother!

Of course, the fact that she dared to say it out loud showed her trust in Oliver Walker!

"Mary Grimm, aren't you going to do something?"

Karen Adams put her hands on her waist and arrogantly shouted, "In today's society, you don't even need to write a script before acting all arrogant?"

"With your daughter and your son-in-law, if they succeed in having a clinic, I will kneel in front of your family's ancestral grave. I will burn incense sticks and bow to them!"

Faced with all the accusations, Mary Grim only felt pressured as if a huge mountain had sat on his chest.

After a long silence, she weakly said, "Can you not open a clinic?"

She knew that her son-in-law was doing this for the sake of the family.

Blaming him now was already useless.

"Mom, you have to believe him!"

"Even if you don't believe the video, he was the one who treated you when you fell unconscious just now."

"How can it be fake?"

Emilia tried to persuade her mother while Oliver Walker remained quiet. Opening a clinic meant a lot to him.

It was because he needed money since he had lost interest in money a long time ago.

If it was to make money, he had other ways of doing so.

The speed of others robbing a bank wouldn't be as fast as how he could earn money.

"Do you even know what is required to own a clinic?"

"Which one of you is a medical student?"

"How can you mess around with this?!"

Mary Grimm's earnest and well-meaning dissuasion was definitely not to help the evildoers but she had to do it to prevent her children from going astray.

“Look, I knew it! They don’t have a single doctor and they still want to open a clinic?”

“If it isn’t because they wanted to cheat money from others, why would they do this?!”

Karen Adams said arrogantly, “If you dare to open a clinic, I will report it to the authorities!

“I’m going to put you in jail and make you pay until you go bankrupt!”

The group of old men and women joined the battle again!

They had a strong determination to fight to the death!

Mary Grimm smiled bitterly. This was how the human heart worked. Even if Oliver Walker had the ability, what could he do?

There were so many people who were jealous of them. How could these people be happy to see them live a good life?

There was only anger left in Emilia’s beautiful eyes. After all, Karen Adams was really capable of doing such a despicable thing.

Slap – –

“Your old stinky mouth really deserves a good beating!” Oliver Walker raised his foot and kicked Karen Adams to the ground. He said coldly, “But I’m not afraid of people who break the rules.”

“I will tell them what the consequences are for breaking the rules.”

Why does society need law?

It was to maintain a peaceful life.

The nature of the natural order was to bind the strong and protect the weak. Once this was broken, the strong would become stronger and the weak ones would never be able to raise their heads!

“Oh my...

“I’m going to die!

“He laid his hands on me again!”

Karen Adams rolled on the ground in pain and the sound at the scene disappeared without a trace.

At the same time, a Volkswagen Passat sedan slowly entered their field of vision.

Chapter 227 You Broke My Back!

“Mary Green, it’s over!

“You broke my back!! I will definitely sue you!

“I want you to go bankrupt!!!!!”

karen Adams was in pain but it was far from the extent that there were any broken bones.

After all, Oliver Walker had already controlled himself and only gave her a slight punishment to make him shut up.

Otherwise, forget about how he had kicked her. One huge slap from Oliver Walker would have been enough to send her to hell.

But, why was Karen Adams screaming like that?

She just couldn't allow him to do this to her and so she had to make a big deal out of it so that she could send Oliver Walker to prison.

She was already injured and if they were to take this to court, she would definitely have the upperhand!

After all, in today's society, no matter what happened, whoever made the first move would have to take responsibility!

Mary Grimm and Emilia already knew what Karen Adams had in mind.

Their family was now in trouble.....big trouble!

For some time, she didn't know what to say.

All of them turned quiet.

"This ... What's going on?"

James Floss, who had just gotten out of the car, was completely confused.

All he saw was a woman lying on the ground and Oliver Walker with a cold expression on his face. At that moment, he didn't know what to say.

"Isn't this the director of the first hospital? "

"Mr. Floss, you're here!"

"That's great!"

“ ... ”

All of the onlookers rubbed their eyes to see clearly who it was that had arrived.

After all, in their eyes, the head of a hospital was definitely a successful man.

He was also a man whom they usually wouldn't have a chance to come in contact with,

Hence, their eyes were filled with respect!

It was human nature to bully the weak and fear the strong!

This was without a doubt!

Oliver Walker didn't say anything. He was still thinking about how to deal with Karen Adams, who was being so persistent.

Since he had made a move, he had to make her submit to him!

Otherwise, there would be no point in making a move!

“Mr. Floss, you're here just in time!”

“I want him arrested!”

“This guy is pretending to be a doctor and wants to open a clinic to cheat money from others. I was only talking to him but he got so angry that he hit me!”

“Look at my face! It’s still burning in pain!”

Karen Adams’s ability to turn right to wrong was extraordinary. She even jeered, “Brothers and sisters, you all saw it clearly. You can all testify for me!”

Emilia’s expression turned cold as well. She and her mother had known what kind of person Karen Adams was.

This time, Oliver Walker had indeed caused a huge problem.

In fact, did Oliver Walker really hit someone because of this?

It was not!

If it wasn’t for Karen Adams’s overbearing words that made his mother faint from anger, why would Oliver Walker lose his mind?

James Floss was stunned as well. Oliver Walker laid hands on another woman?

Wait....he wanted to open a clinic?

“Yes, Mr. Floss! You’d have to help us!”

“A person like him wants to open a clinic. He wants to cheat our money and murder us!”

“Not only that, he even hit a civilian!”

“...”

The group of onlookers suddenly burst out with equivalent combat power to Karen Adams!

Because they firmly believed that James Floss wouldn't just allow all these to happen under his watch.

Since they thought that they had someone to support them, they were going at it with even more force!

They had to put Oliver Walker in the abyss of eternal damnation!

"Mr. Floss, you have to help us!"

"We can't allow a person without medical qualifications to harm Colorado!"

"We know them well which is why we wouldn't get fooled but what about those who don't know them?!"

Karen Adams's eyes were like a poisonous snake that was hunting for its prey. She stared at Oliver Walker.

On the surface of it, she even created the look of a wronged victim.

"You know them well?"

James Floss was a little stunned. He had just arrived and so he couldn't react in time. Then, he asked, "Do you know who he is?"

As soon as he said that, Karen Adams was also a little stunned.

"Of course I know who he is," Karen Adams answered angrily. "He's the ungrateful traitor that Emilia raised, who has been wandering outside for eight years without achieving anything!"

Mary Grimm's heart was beating nervously.

Although she knew that James Floss didn't have the authority to stop one from opening a clinic, he was still from the medical field. If he wanted to mess with Oliver Walker, it would be a piece of cake.

Chapter 228 The Title of an Honorary Dean

He could pin Oliver Walker to the ground by all means and prevent Oliver Walker from doing anything.

The matter of being blackmailed by Karen Adams was already a difficult problem to solve. If he was charged with fraud and the creation of fake medicine, he would have to spend the rest of his life in jail.

Mary Grimm closed her eyes in despair!

Perhaps her family really did not deserve to live a peaceful life.

"Do you have any misunderstanding about being a good-for-nothing?"

James Floss gradually understood what had happened and slowly got into the zone.

How could a person like him who was the master of the divine traditional medical doctor, Hendrik Smith, be a swindler?

Would he actually care about that small amount of money?

Wasn't it an honour for the people of Colorado if he actually opened a clinic?

That sentence directly stunned Karen Adams!

The group of indignant onlookers also completely quieted down.

What did James Floss mean by that?

The situation didn't seem right?

It was completely different from what they had imagined!

"Hello, Mr. Walker!"

James Floss no longer paid attention to the group of ignorant onlookers. He immediately said respectfully, "After a heated discussions amongst the board of the hospital, we have come to a decision. I would like to personally invite you to be the Honorary Dean of the Colorado first hospital.

"What do you think?"

His words were like a sudden clap of thunder, directly blowing up the group of old men and women!

It was so quiet that one could even hear the sound of people breathing in cold air.

Emilia's face was filled with shock!

She knew that Oliver Walker was an expert in medicine but ...

She had never thought that he would one day receive an invitation from the First Hospital to become an Honorary Dean!

An honorary dean?!

This meant that the person had to be a highly respected doctor!

He had to be an influential figure in the industry.

Whether it was an Honorary Dean of an academy or of a hospital, they were definitely important people who had outstanding achievements in the industry.

And ...

Wasn't all of them old men with their heads filled with white hair?

No matter how young one could be, they would usually be at least 50 years old, right?

But... Oliver Walker was not even thirty years old!

This ...

This was a huge surprise!

It was definitely something unexpected.

Mary Grimm's originally frowning expression instantly disappeared and was replaced by an indescribable excitement!

This.....

It was really a great joy from the heavens!

Could it be that her family was really going to make a comeback?

The one who suffered the most was Karen Adams who was still lying on the ground.

Her face was filled with disbelief!

“Honorary Dean?”

Oliver Walker repeated. Then, he gave a firm reply, “I’m sorry, I’m not interested.”

He didn’t care about fame and fortune!

This was because before returning to Colorado, he had already received the highest honor!

Why would he care about the title of an honorary Dean?

As soon as this was said, Mary Grimm turned speechless.

Emilia was shocked as well!

Karen Adams and the others all widened their eyes!

This must be an act!

This man was incredible with his acting skills!

A stray dog who doesn’t want the title of an Honorary Dean?!

However, such a straightforward rejection was within James Floss’s expectations.

He understood that if a person who became Hendrik Smith’s master cared about such superficial honor and fame, he would have been famous by now.

This man was an important figure who was above the divine doctors of medicine.

The only reason why no one knew about him was because of how indifferent he felt about fame and fortune.

So, he didn't think that Oliver Walker was pretending at all!

"Uh ..." James Floss laughed awkwardly.

"I know that such an invitation can be sudden and offensive to you. You can blame me for not considering it thoroughly.

"Bu, I also want to say that even if you become the Honorary Dean of our hospital, it will not affect your decision to having your own clinic.

"If you agree, you don't even have to run a service in the First Hospital. You can enjoy all the benefits of a director in the hospital with just the title.

"Would it....be possible for you to reconsider your decision?"

Chapter 229 You Are Held Responsible For This

Karen Adams was dumbfounded!

The group of onlookers who were watching had also gone completely crazy!

In their minds, Mary Grimm's family should suffer for a lifetime and be never allowed to turn over a new leaf.

How could such a character appear?

Especially Oliver Walker, who was the matrilocal son-in-law that joined their family!

If he was so capable, why did he want to agree to be a matrilocal son-in-law?

Although Mary Grimm was happy, she still couldn't believe it.

It was completely understandable if the video was fake, but now that James Floss had appeared in person, it definitely wouldn't be fake!

There was finally a man in their family who was promising!

She was holding onto Emilia's hand. She got so excited that she was trembling.

It felt like she had been in the abyss for decades and suddenly saw the light.

This was it!

It was the joy of defending themselves until the clouds had parted and the moon had appeared!

Emilia only knew that her husband was skilled in medicine, and it shouldn't be a problem for him to open a clinic. Who would have thought that he would be personally invited by James Floss?

Especially when James Floss was the Director of the First Hospital!

"We'll talk about this later!" Oliver Walker said with a frown on his face.

He didn't like empty titles.

Perhaps these titles were supreme glory in the eyes of others.

In his heart, they come with heavy responsibilities.

“Alright!”

“Alright!”

Although James Floss was rejected, he didn't dare to feel unhappy about it.

It was normal to be rejected.

After all, Oliver Walker was the master of the god doctors from the International Medical Centre. It would be a waste of talent to be the Honorary Dean of Colorado's First Hospital.

“You ... You're really shameless!”

At this moment, Karen Adams's eyes were filled with jealousy. “It's an honour to be invited by Mr Floss and you have the audacity to refuse him.”

“Why are you putting up that act?!”

“It's an honor that Mr Floss is willing to invite you. How dare you not appreciate such an offer?!”

She just didn't like Oliver Walker and couldn't bear to see Mary Grimm's family living a good life.

This was because the better Emilia's life was, the more uncomfortable she felt!

In fact, Mary Grimm and Emilia did not expect Oliver Walker to reject the offer.

Along with how Karen Adams was trying to drive a wedge between them, their hearts couldn't help but start racing frantically.

The rest of the onlookers at the scene were also waiting for James Floss to burst out in rage as well.

Sure enough, the look on James Floss's face started to turn ugly.

In the eyes of others, it was definitely explainable for him to be angry. After all, Oliver Walker was the one who was being ungrateful!

When Karen Adams saw this, she seized the opportunity and started to attack fiercely. "Do you know how busy Mr. Floss is?"

"He took the time to personally invite you and you aren't even feeling grateful for it?"

"I ..."

Just as she was about to continue, James Floss couldn't take it anymore. "Shut up!"

"Mr. Walker, it's beneath you to be the Honorary Dean of our hospital. It's our hospital's honor to be associated with you!

The rest of them knew that James Floss was angry but they didn't know why!

They also didn't even know that he was covered in cold sweat!

James Floss was mad because a villain like Karen Adams was deliberately sowing discord and trying to provoke Oliver Walker.

He was afraid that other than not being able to invite Oliver Walker to join them, these people may even piss him off!

Everyone else was simply shocked once again.

Why was Colorado's First Hospital that was trying to get close to Oliver Walker?

What the hell?

What was going on?

It was simply inconceivable!

Oliver Walker's patience had also reached its limit. To deal with someone like Karen Adams, he would have to make things clear. Oliver Walker asked in a cold tone, "Are you going to stand up or not?"

He was sure that Karen Adams was fine.

This woman was lying on the ground just to scam them!

Oliver Walker didn't want to go too far and make a mountain out of a molehill but he had to teach this scoundrel a lesson!

"I've injured my back. How do you want me to get up?!"

"No!" Karen Adams cried. "You have to take me to the hospital for a full-body examination! You have to be responsible for my injuries!"

"I can't move anyway, my whole body is in pain!"

"Heavens!"

"Oh heavens! Oh dear! Where is the logic in this!"

She took off her shoes and slapped them against the ground, crying her heart out.

Those who didn't know better would think that she had suffered a great grievance.

As for Mary Grimm and Emilia, they just felt extremely embarrassed.

Chapter 230 The Crazy Son-in-law of Mary Grimm

They all knew what kind of person Karen Adams was. When she could no longer beat or scold him, she would go back on her word!

What can they do now?

With Karen Adams's personality, she would definitely stay in the hospital and refuse to leave. The daily hospitalisation fees and nutrient fluids alone would cost a lot.

Wouldn't they be worn down if this woman decides to stay for a year or so?

After all, it was just adding fuel to the fire for an ordinary family to support a single patient.

Not to mention, it was from a poor family like theirs.

"Alright!"

"It's a good thing that you can't move now."

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth rose slightly and he immediately said, "Mr. Floss, please lend me your car keys!"

James Floss was stunned at first but he didn't ask anything. He quickly handed the Passat's key to Oliver Walker.

There were at least 40 people watching.

All of them were feeling confused.

What was Oliver Walker trying to do?

Why did he get inside the car?

Was he trying to escape?

Vroom...

Something's not right!

The car engine was started!

Could it be ...

Emilia also noticed that something was amiss and her pretty face suddenly changed as she tried to dissuade him, "Calm down!"

It was without a doubt that Karen Adams wanted to force Oliver Walker to act impulsively. If things worsened, the situation would only become worse!

"I'm not being impulsive!"

After smiling, Oliver Walker stepped on the accelerator and the engine let out a loud sound.

At that moment, everyone turned silent!

Even Karen Adams broke out in cold sweat. "You .. You want to ... What are you doing?"

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth rose slightly. "I love scamming others. I'll deal with whoever I catch. I have to check if it's true that you can no longer move."

Wasn't she trying to scam him in front of all these people?

Well, she got the wrong target!

To be precise, he wasn't going to allow it!

"You're crazy!"

"Don't you dare!"

Karen Adams was dumbfounded. This lunatic was going to hit her with his car!

Not just her but even James Floss, Emilia, Mary Grimm and the onlookers were all stunned.

Using violence to curb violence?

That's it!

It was about to happen right before their eyes!

This man was using violence to curb violence!

"Vroom vroom ..."

Then, Oliver Walker's foot released the brakes.

The ordinary black Volkswagen Passat instantly became a racing car on the track, making a 90-degree drift.

When she saw the front of the car facing her, Karen Adams's face suddenly changed. She no longer had the slightest bit of arrogance!

She quickly picked up her shoes and ran as she shouted, "Murderer! He's trying to kill someone ..."

"He's trying to kill me!!!!"

"Someone! Come quickly!"

"There's a lunatic here who wants to kill me!"

"..."

Crazy! This man was indeed a lunatic!

It was said that when a scholar meets a soldier, there was no reasoning between them.

No matter how unreasonable one can get, they would still be afraid of those who did things without considering the consequences and were not afraid of death!

She ran as fast as she could. It was no exaggeration to say that if there was a senior race, she could definitely get first place with her skills!

This was because Karen Adams was frightened!

When one's life was in danger, one's potential was limitless!

Mary Grimm's expression became a little unnatural!

Emilia's heart was burning with anxiety. Something major was about to happen but she couldn't stop it!

The eyes of the onlookers were about to pop out of their sockets!

Oliver Walker was indeed a crazy man!

No one should offend him at all!

After all, even a person like Karen Adams had admitted defeat. How much more courage did they have to provoke him?

In the future, when they meet Mary Grimm and Emilia in this neighborhood, They would have to walk away with their heads hung low. After all, they have rebuilt their reputation with such a son-in-law in the family!
