Chapter 231 You Could Have Gone To Jail

“Huhuhu...”

Karen Adams panted heavily as she ran. Even though she was so tired that her face and neck were red, she didn't dare to stop.

She even looked back from time to time ...

The truth was that Oliver Walker never wanted to kill her. He just wanted to scare her so that it would put an end to all the bullying that his family suffered.

So, after chasing for about 20 metres, he stepped on the brakes.

Even though the car was slowing down, Karen Adams, who was like a bird startled by the mere twang of a bow, still did not dare to stop.

What if that lunatic continued to accelerate?

Who would have thought that the gossip who had dominated the community for so many years would fall into the hands of Oliver Walker?

Such an outcome was simply beyond everyone's expectations ...

“You ...”

The moment Emilia came back to her senses, she immediately ran to the car. She was so angry that her lips were trembling. “Is this something very impressive?”

“If someone really dies from this, what should we do?”

Only the heavens knew how worried she had been at that moment.

Oliver Walker was being too impulsive!

Only a reckless person could do such a reckless thing!

Even after Karen Adams had disappeared, Emilia’s heart was still beating wildly!

That feeling ...

It was simply indescribable!

“I’m also doing this for ...”

There was a guilty look on Oliver Walker’s face. In fact, he and his wife were really not the same kind of people.

They had very different views when it came to these issues.

Oliver Walker only wanted to protect his family.

Emilia only wanted to live a peaceful and ordinary life after a series of setbacks that she had encountered all these years!

In fact, he could understand what his wife was feeling but there are times where being too weak would only lead to others bullying her.

“Do you know how worried I was?”

Tears welled up in Emilia's beautiful eyes as she stared at Oliver Walker, who was sitting in the driver's seat. The distance between them grew stronger and stronger. "If she didn't run away or if you didn't brake in time, do you know what would have happened?"

"You would have gone to jail!

"When you went to battle, I could tell Olivia that you're a great hero!

"But, if you ended up in jail, what am I supposed to tell Olivia?!"

"Do you know how much she likes you?"

"You.... Even if you don't care about my feelings, can you please consider Olivia's feelings?"

This was maddening!

She was pissed.

She didn't want to see Oliver Walker being so extreme. There will be times where he would have to pay the price for his impulsiveness!

Even if he was lucky enough to get away with it once or twice, who wouldn't get their shoes wet as long as they walked along the river?

James Floss was stunned too...

He looked at Oliver Walker, who was like a child who had done something wrong. With an awkward smile on his face, Oliver Walker got out of the driver's seat.

It turned out that VIPs like him were also afraid of their wives!

However, what Emilia said was right. At that time, he even broke out in a cold sweat!

“Alright! We’re done here!”

“We’ll talk at home!”

Although Mary Grimm’s heart was also in a mess, she still had to protect this man’s dignity in public.

Moreover, what he did just now may be a little extreme, it did help her vent the anger inside her.

People like Karen Adams should be scared. Otherwise, she would always think that the sky was the limit and she was the one who ruled earth. She was always domineering in the community and bullying those who are nice!

It could only be said that what Emilia said was right but what Oliver Walker had done was also understandable.

A man’s and a woman’s thoughts would never be the same.

Therefore, even if it was the same situation, they would have different ways of dealing with it.

“You ...”

With tears in her eyes, Emilia finally turned around and left. She didn’t know what to do. If she stayed, she would just continue being mad at Oliver Walker.

But ...

She was only having her family’s and Oliver Walker’s interest at heart!

“Emilia!!!”

Oliver Walker wanted to chase after her.....

Mary Grimm, however, said considerately, “You should handle your things here first. That’s just how she is but she’s only doing it for your own good.”

“Don’t take it to heart!”

His mother-in-law was definitely considered someone who had done her part.

It wasn’t being biased to either one party...

Chapter 232 Replacing Emilia

In fact, from her perspective, both her son-in-law and daughter were human beings. There was no such thing as being superior to others.

She was angry before because she mistook Oliver Walker and Isaac Davis for the same kind of person. However, after all these, she really liked Oliver Walker.

At least emotionally, she treated Oliver Walker as her own child.

“Alright!”

Oliver Walker smiled awkwardly. “Mom, please help me with explaining it to her!”

He was indeed impulsive, but sometimes, couldn’t he be so?

A man should never lose his courage and impulsiveness!

“Don’t worry!”

“Mr. Floss, you guys take your time!” Mary Grimm quickly added before leaving.

In fact, she still hoped that Oliver Walker would agree to James Floss’s offer. After all, their family lacked social recognition.

He would be getting the title of the Honorary Dean. Even if it couldn’t be compared to when they were in the company, it was still much better than what they had now.

However, this was Oliver Walker’s business and she would not interfere.

If she was after money, how could she have allowed her daughter to marry Oliver Walker?

Looking at his mother-in-law’s back, a happy smile appeared on Oliver Walker’s face.

His mother-in-law was an understanding woman and why shouldn’t he be grateful for this?

When he turned around and before he could speak, it might have been guilt that caused James Floss to quickly promise without any hesitation. “Cough cough ...”

“Mr. Walker, don’t worry. I will never tell anyone about this.

“Besides, as a man, I understand how everything works.”

Oliver Walker just smiled and said, “If I am ever thinking of running my service in a hospital, I will definitely consider the First Hospital first.”

Oliver Walker wasn’t trying to put on an act.

He really didn't care about fame!

He just wanted to live a normal life like this; protecting her family and living the life of an ordinary person.

The fact that he could live in seclusion meant that there would be no more trouble in this country.

If there was ever a day where he got summoned, it meant that the situation in the country was changing again!

That was not what he wanted to see!

After his uniform has been removed, all of his achievements and fame would be hidden as well!

This was the life he was pursuing. He didn't need anyone to remember him; as long as the country was peaceful and prosperous and the people could live and work in peace and contentment!

"Alright!"

James Floss quickly nodded his head. "I shall no longer disturb you, Mr. Walker. However, Colorado's First Hospital will always welcome you with open arms! I hope you can come and guide us when you have time!"

In fact, even though he was lucky to have such a famous personnel in Colorado, he was also under a lot of pressure!

After James Floss left, Oliver Walker also strolled home.

This time, his mother-in-law would no longer object to the idea of him having a clinic and it could be considered a load off his mind.

“Mary Grimm managed to find such a wonderful son-in-law!”

“She got lucky!”

“Exactly! If my son-in-law had such capabilities, I’d wake up laughing from my dreams!”

“Hey, Mr Huang? isn’t your daughter still single?”

“I don’t think Emilia treats him right. This is a great opportunity that you shouldn’t miss!”

“...”

The people at the scene started to discuss.

How could Mary Grimm be worthy of such a good son-in-law?

Emilia doesn’t look like someone who knows how to cherish her husband!

It was simply hateful!

Who wouldn’t drool from the sourness?

The man called Mr Huang, patted his head in realization. “You’re right!”

“I’ll go back and prepare the dowry now. After all, my daughter is still a young girl. She’s much better than Emilia, is she not?!”

This was an opportunity and he had to grasp it!

The most important thing was that Emilia had given him a chance!

“Mr Huang, you can do this!”

“Oh! That child is famous for her good looks!”

“You’re right!”

“You’re absolutely right. Emilia is a b*tch and she has such a bad temper!

“...”

Under the influence of Karen Adams for two years, they all agreed that Mary Grimm and Emilia were jinxes and that they should never stay in the neighborhood and continue to destroy the Feng Shui.

After all, they were still waiting for the government to buy their homes from them and make a fortune!

However, they only saw how fierce Emilia was but they had never thought of how much love she had put in.

They also never thought that Emilia was irreplaceable in Oliver Walker’s heart!

Chapter 233 A Married Couple’s Problem

After returning home, Emilia realized that she had done something wrong.

No matter what, she really shouldn’t have gotten angry at Oliver Walker in front of so many people.

After all ...

He was doing this for the family!

Especially after what Mary Grimm said, she regretted it even more. "Mom, I ... I really didn't do it on purpose."

"I just don't want to see him act rashly!"

What more could she ask for?

That man's temper towards her was still as good as before.

He allowed her to be unreasonable and didn't say a word.

On the other hand, she ...

"I understand," Mary Grimm sighed.

"But, Oliver Walker is indeed a good kid. He was forced to do this."

"If he didn't do so, Karen Adams would've made things worse."

Emilia didn't retort at all because once she calmed down, she could see everything clearly.

That man was extremely domineering on the outside but he was actually standing up for her, her mother, and her daughter.

On the contrary, back at home, he was as docile as a little lamb.

"You have to treasure it!"

Mary Grimm frowned. "Times are different now. I didn't expect that when we were abandoned and broke, not only did he not despise us but he has been nothing but considerate of us in every way.

"Compared to Isaac Davis, the difference between them are like heaven and earth!"

"You've chosen the right person but you have to learn to cherish him. You're husband and wife, not enemies. When it's time to give in, remember to hold onto it."

As a mother, she was also very worried.

Who wouldn't want their children to live a carefree life?

Of course, she knew that Emilia had always been a strong woman but she has never been like this in the past. It was just that she had suffered too much in the past few years.

As a result, there were many times when she could not control her emotions.

No one was a Saint and there would always be times when they would lose their ways.

"En!"

"I understand," Emilia answered as she nodded her head.

In fact, she understood everything her mother said.

She also knew that Oliver Walker was different from those men. He truly cherished her. It could be seen from every look and expression in his eyes.

"I have also reconsidered the idea of having a clinic. We must give him our support.

“After all, a man should have his own career.”

Mary Grimm’s face was filled with guilt. “It’s all my fault for not trying to understand. I’ve wronged this child but no matter what, we may be making money from opening a clinic but we shall never make money that forces us to do things that are against our conscience.”

Oliver Walker had indeed proved himself and made her look at him in a new light.

Perhaps her son-in-law was not as simple as he seemed.

However, no matter if he was rich or poor, he was her son-in-law; unless one day, Oliver Walker insisted on leaving.

“Alright!”

At this point, she was extremely regretful and she didn’t know what to say.

She was thinking about how she would face Oliver Walker.

Ever since he returned home, he had been misunderstood. However, that man had always protected this family without any regrets. Was she still going to hide from him?

Knock knock – –

At that moment, there was a knock on the door. Mary Grimm quickly said, “You should have a good chat with him. I’ll go back to my room to rest for a while.”

It was still easier for the couple to solve the problems amongst themselves. As their mother, she could only persuade her daughter.

After her mother returned to her room, Emilia took a deep breath and opened the door. When she saw that familiar smiling face again, she felt a sense of panic.

She didn't know what to say!

"Emilia, please calm down!"

On the other hand, Oliver Walker had a warm and sincere smile. "I was being too impulsive just now. I promise that I won't let you worry next time."

In fact, the feeling of being cared for by someone else was great.

Because in this world, there was still one person who was always thinking of him.

"You ..."

Emilia's phoenix-like brows furrowed slightly and her beautiful eyes were suffused with a strange colour.

Her husband had been wronged but when he came home, he actually took the initiative to apologise to her?

Just this action alone made her feel inferior.

Chapter 234 Withered Flower

Forget about the fact that he was a capable man. There were still many male chauvinistic men who may not be capable of doing anything, right?

"I know you're doing this for my own good. I definitely won't make the same mistake next time."

Seeing that his wife was not saying anything, Oliver Walker suddenly became anxious. No matter what, he had to coax her first.

After all, it was easy to get a wife these days but it was difficult to get a good one.

Or perhaps other than Emilia, no one else would care so much about him.

“I ...”

In the face of her husband’s apology, Emilia was caught off guard and said incoherently, “You .. don’t say another word!”

She was ready to apologize.

However, she had never expected that this man would accommodate her so much.

This was just...

Her tone?

Oliver Walker frowned. It seemed that his wife was really mad at him. Then, he said, “Let me explain.”

“I did that for ...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, Albert walked up the stairs and hurriedly reprimanded, “Mr. Walker, you don’t have to apologize to her!”

“I have to tell you that she and Mary Grimm are unreasonable people.”

He had come to propose marriage for his daughter, Vivian.

If they weren't present at the city square this afternoon, they wouldn't have known that Mary Grimm's son-in-law was such a capable man.

At such a young age, he was invited by Colorado First Hospital as an Honorary Dean!

This man didn't have to do anything and could enjoy the treatment of being a dean of the hospital.

Not to mention the other things that came with it, just his social status alone was enough to make countless people envious.

A hint of displeasure appeared on Oliver Walker's face. He remembered Albert. He had been second only to Karen Adams in the crowd.

He did not expect that this man would come all the way to his house and criticize his wife!

What an idiot!

It was simply a show that made people's scalps go numb!

"What are you doing here?"

Upon seeing Albert, Emilia's expression turned cold. "We don't welcome you in our house!"

Albert wasn't someone to be underestimated.

In the neighborhood, he was on the same level as Karen Adams and often spread rumours about her family.

She really didn't want to see him here.

“Hmph!”

“I didn’t come here to find you,” Albert rebuked coldly.

“Who do you think you are?”

“Why would I come all the way here to meet you?”

“You” Emilia’s face flushed red with anger.

Was this a joke?

He wasn’t here to look for her. Then, why was he standing in front of her house?

Seeing how bad Albert’s attitude was towards Emilia, Oliver Walker said coldly, “Then who are you looking for?”

Albert’s expression was as bright as the sun in June. His disdainful expression towards Emilia earlier had instantly turned into one of flattery. “I’m here to talk to you!!”

Oliver Walker was a little surprised and immediately said, “Do I know you?”

This was something that surprised him.

However, anyone who disrespected his family would not be able to live with his respect!

“It doesn’t matter if you didn’t know me before. Don’t you know me by now?”

Albert wasn’t angry at all. He shamelessly took out his phone and said shamelessly, “I don’t think you’ll be able to enjoy anything nice here in this house.”

“It’s even more impossible to be happy if you stay with Emilia!”

“Look! This is my daughter. She’s only twenty-four this year and has graduated from a famous university. She’s so good-looking and has never had a boyfriend.

“No matter what, she’s still better than a withered flower like Emilia, right? ”

“Besides, how could you not know what she does for a living?”

Emilia felt embarrassed.

Was she a withered flower?

This man was actually introducing his daughter to her husband right in front of her and even belittled her?!

If it wasn’t because they had good manners, they would have already cursed at Albert for such actions.

Chapter 235 Take it and Leave My Son-in-law

“Get lost!”

Oliver Walker’s face suddenly turned cold.

If it wasn’t because he was worried that his wife might be angry at him, he would have slapped this man.

Wasn’t this man here to destroy the harmony of his marriage?

The even more hateful thing about this was how the insulting words that came out of this man’s mouth were based on nothing!

After seeing Oliver Walker's resolute attitude, Emilia, who was about to burst in rage, felt a little better.

Thus, she held back for the time being but ...

Albert was too much of a bastard!

"Um ..."

Albert said awkwardly, "It's alright! My daughter is prettier in person than in photos. I've already asked her to come over as soon as possible!"

"As long as you're willing to marry my daughter, you can rest assured that I'll give you enough money for the dowry. I won't ask for a single betrothal gift."

"Besides, I only have one precious daughter. All my assets will be yours in the future."

"You shouldn't be mistreated in this household."

Albert thought that since he was offering these sincerely, any human being would not be able to reject his offer.

After all, he felt that his daughter was indeed a beauty!

With every condition Albert stated, Emilia's face, which had just taken a turn for the better, became colder.

Was this something that a human could do?

It wouldn't be a big deal if this man talked to her husband in private but to ask her husband to divorce her in front of the wife??

Just how much did he look down on her?

That's right!

Oliver Walker had changed. He was no longer the 'trash' that needed her protection and support in the eyes of others.

He was now an honorary dean who had been personally invited by James Floss. In the slums, he was definitely a top-class, successful man.

Oliver Walker was now the rich man that everyone wanted for their daughters.

She smiled bitterly and did not say anything else.

She believed that Oliver Walker should be very clear with his choices.

If his heart belonged to her, no one would be able to take it away. If it wasn't, then no one should force him to stay with her.

"I'm warning you one last time. Leave our home immediately."

"No matter how outstanding your daughter is, it has nothing to do with me."

Oliver Walker said firmly, "I'm already married!"

To tell the truth, he was angry but he wanted to laugh out loud as well."

This man called Albert was truly a talent. He was capable of doing all kinds of strange things.

In particular, no one would have thought of such ridiculous words, right?

However, not only did Albert think of it, he even said it out loud. More importantly, he even brought along the documents.

“Ummm.....”

“Aren’t you going to reconsider?” Albert asked shamelessly.

“Vivian is especially outstanding. You don’t have to bow down to Emilia or Mary Grimm anymore.”

Oliver Walker’s face was gradually filled with anger.

When dealing with this kind of person, they will never know what they have done wrong unless you beat them to the core.

But he ...

Was going to hold his anger in.

After all, his wife was already mad at him and he couldn’t add fuel to the fire!

However, Albert threw him the look with a hidden message of how he could understand Oliver Walker was doing. Seeing Oliver Walker’s appearance, he must be afraid of Emilia, right?

It would be great if this man was scared of his wife. Once Oliver Walker married his daughter, wouldn’t it be easier for them to control him?

Then, Albert's face turned cold as he turned around and scolded, "I shall advise you to be more sensible. Marriage is not built with threats."

Emilia couldn't hold it in any longer and she was about to go berserk.

She admitted that it was wrong of her to lose her temper but when has she ever threatened Oliver Walker?

However, before she could open her mouth ...

Albert waved his hand and took out a bank card. He said in an imposing manner, "There's 100000 Yuan in here. It's yours if you leave my good son-in-law."

"You will never be able to earn this much money in your entire life!"

A hundred thousand?

She wouldn't be able to earn it her lifetime?

This...

Emilia looked at the bank card in front of her and felt a great sense of humiliation. No matter how well-mannered she was, she couldn't hold it in anymore. "Take your stinking money and get as far away as you can!"

"I don't care if it's a million or ten million. Let alone a hundred thousand!!!!"

Chapter 236 Regretful Things That People Do

With that said, she turned around and told Oliver Walker, "if you're willing to go with him, i won't force you!"

Then, she returned to her room hurriedly.

What was that?

What the hell?

That man was definitely here to piss her off, right?

Since those words have already come out of her mouth, she would be willing to do everything said.

Marriage was not something that should be forced.

Seeing that Emilia had left, Albert had a smug look on his face as he boasted, "Look, she's gone! You should marry my daughter instead!"

Looking at Albert's fawning face, even Oliver Walker was speechless!

There were really all kinds of people in this day and age!

He was too lazy to say anything and directly took the bank card!

Just as Albert was feeling smug and thought that Oliver Walker had been seduced by him, he heard a 'whoosh'. The bank card had flicked out from between his fingers and then flew out of the window by the stairs.

At that moment, Albert's heart was trickling with blood. He said angrily, "You ..."

However, he quickly calmed down and smiled, "There's no money in that card anyway. I was just lying to Emilia about it but as long as you agree to the marriage, I'll promise to give you real cash!"

Why would he be willing to give Emilia all that money?

He just wanted to let Emilia take the card so that he could show Oliver Walker that Emilia was a vain woman.

However, he didn't expect that the detestable Emilia didn't fall for it at all.

"Get lost!"

After his wife left, Oliver Walker's temper suddenly soared and he even raised his fist. He really couldn't help but want to lay his hands on this man.

It was said that the poor were mischievous. This saying was indeed the truth.

Of course, the meaning behind this sentence only referred to a very small number of poor people who lost their consciousness by unscrupulous means in order to mess with other people's life.

It was also because there were too many poor people and so it was completely normal for a few weirdos to be present amongst them.

In fact, Oliver Walker even suspected that Albert was a lunatic.

Because normal people would not do such a foolish thing!

As for Albert, when he saw that raised fist, his expression changed once more and a look of terror appeared in his eyes.

After all, he had witnessed Oliver Walker's abilities. He had managed to subdue Karen Adams so well that she turned completely obedient. Albert didn't have the guts to test it out.

Then, Albert left in a sorry state!

Oliver Walker shook his head and didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

Such lunatics were indeed rare!

However, his wife, who was already angry, should be even angrier now.

So ...

What should he do?

He had no other choice but to take a deep breath, close the door, and prepare himself for the baptism of the storm.

This was an undeserved calamity!

What sin had he committed?

In the bedroom, Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with tears.

It was because of the rage she was feeling. It was not because of Oliver Walker but because of the shameless Albert.

She sat on the ground and leaned against the wall, looking like she was struggling.

What if Oliver Walker really had enough of it and was seduced by the offer from Albert?

She ...

Regret. This was the only thing that she felt.

Indeed, she shouldn't have lost his temper but that was because...

Tap tap tap...

Then, footsteps were heard from outside the door. Emilia quickly wiped away the tears at the corner of her eyes and stood up, pretending to be strong.

She was waiting for the final outcome. If that man really wanted to leave ...

She would not force him to stay because no matter who she was, she could never be humble to the point that she would give up her dignity.

"Emilia!"

Oliver Walker opened the door. This was the first time he saw the inside of the bedroom.

It could only be described as a house with four bare walls...

His wife and daughter shared a single bed?

In an instant, the tip of his nose turned sour and he felt speechless!

The atmosphere inside the room was tense.

Although Emilia had wiped away her tears, there were still obvious tear stains at the corners of her eyes. She pretended to be strong as she asked, "You ... have you made your decision?"

Although she didn't plan on asking him to stay, she was still scared that this man would leave her!

In fact, she had already accepted Oliver Walker back into her life but she didn't know how to express it!

Chapter 237 Hubby

"En!"

"Yes!" Oliver Walker nodded.

When he saw the tear stains at the corner of his wife's eyes, he roughly knew what was going on. He immediately took a step forward ...

However, Emilia took a step back. It clearly showed that she was dodging Oliver Walker. Her red lips parted slightly as she choked with tears, "Then ... I wish you happiness!"

She was just an injured little bird.

Any wind or grass movement would make her feel like she was on edge!

Not to mention that Vivian was indeed younger than her.

And ...

She had misunderstood Oliver Walker so much for the past few days. It seemed that there was no need for him to stay.

She could only give her blessings, right?

What else could she say?

"My happiness would still depend on you!!!" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

“I wonder if my beautiful wife would give me the chance to be the happiest man alive?”

Emilia was a little stunned but she quickly reacted. “I ... i ... I won't force you to stay.”

“It's true. If you want a divorce, we can sign the papers now.”

Actually, she had forgotten that although they had a shabby wedding ...

They still hadn't collected their marriage certificate!

But inside her heart, she and Oliver Walker were already a legally married couple.

Regardless of whether it was in name or in reality!

“We don't even have a marriage certificate, how are we going to get a divorce?”

Oliver Walker was moved as he said, “I wonder if I can officially propose to you now?”

“Eight years ago, you were so busy with your company that you even got married in such a hurry!”

“But eight years later, would you allow me to give you the chance to have a grand wedding?”

Emilia was in shock.

She had thought that Oliver Walker was joking but soon she realised that they had never been married. They only had a child together.

“You....are you being serious?”

Emilia was a little overwhelmed by happiness!

She was completely stunned instead.

Oliver Walker said solemnly, "Of course I'm being serious. If you aren't willing to give me the chance, how can I be happy?"

As a man, he did owe his wife a grand wedding.

The wedding that happened eight years ago should not be considered as a wedding ceremony.

It could only be said that their small family had a meal together!

Back then, his wife was busy all day long and he was just a useless man who only knew how to fight.

But...everything has changed now.

The current him had the ability to give his wife the happiness she deserved and make up for the regrets that she had.

Then, Emilia's brows furrowed slightly. "Where's Albert?"

That fellow's words were truly infuriating.

He said that she was a withered flower and she even said that she was ...

"I told him to get lost!"

Oliver Walker's smile was like the warm sun during the winter days. "You're my only choice in this life unless you don't want me anymore!"

Emilia started crying again as she was feeling touched.

However, the long silence made Oliver Walker a little anxious. "Are you still not happy?"

In fact, he had been thinking about re-organizing the wedding for a long time. He wasn't going to leave his wife with an empty promise!

"I'm not..."

Emilia gave a faint smile and said completely subconsciously, "I'm sorry, hubby!"

However, this sentence made Oliver Walker's nerves overjoyed. "You... What did you just call me?"

That 'sorry' was simply dispensable.

However, the word 'husband' went straight into his heart!

How could he remain calm?

"Ummm..."

Emilia also reacted instantly and quickly stammered, "I ... I ... I didn't ... ah!"

Oliver Walker said, "You clearly said it earlier! I heard it clearly!"

This was the first time that his wife had called him 'hubby' when there were only the two of them in the room.

Usually, she would only refer him as her husband out of courtesy in public due to their relationship.

But... by addressing him in private, wasn't it acknowledging him in disguise?

"You .. Since you've already heard it, why ... why are you still asking me about it?"

Emilia blushed and lowered her head. She bit her red lips and her coquettish words made Oliver Walker feel like he was in a dream.

But ...

Emily spoke again in a worried tone, "Let's push back the wedding."

Chapter 238 The Rich Husband

The truth was that she wanted one.

But, now was not the time!

With their current status, holding a wedding again would definitely be difficult for them from all sides.

If it wasn't going to be what they wanted, what's the point of having another wedding?

"Why?" Oliver Walker asked.

He had the ability to give his wife a dream-like wedding.

He wanted her to become the happiest woman in the world.

It was to repay his wife's kindness and to make up for the regrets in her heart!

“I want you to focus on your career first!”

“Let’s open the clinic!

“This is also mom’s idea!”

Emilia suddenly looked solemn as she said, “Perhaps money isn’t omnipotent but without money, it will be really difficult for us to survive.”

“That’s why the money in our hands must be spent on the right places!”

Even if it was a simple wedding, it would still cost a lot, right?

If it was too luxurious, they would not be able to support it with their current economic conditions.

She already had too many regrets and didn’t want to have any more.

After a moment of hesitation, Oliver Walker said, “Fine.”

Perhaps he was being too hasty since the war in Indiana had not officially ended.

If they held a wedding now, it would be a huge burden for the entire country.

It would be better to wait for the Indiana war to officially end and then hold a National wedding for his wife.

It was a good time to celebrate the final victory of the war and welcome home the soldiers who had returned from the front lines!

Upon seeing her husband’s dejected expression, Emilia immediately asked, “What ... What’s wrong?”

She thought that it was because of her and she wanted to explain herself.

However, Oliver Walker shook his head and said, "No!"

"You're right. Let's set up the clinic first."

He was only feeling dejected because he thought of the soldiers who have lost their lives in the frontlines.

With the Grim Reaper watching over them, how many have returned from these ancient battles?

Oliver Walker was considered lucky!

He survived the battle.

He could still protect his family!

But there were still so many people whose lives were forever frozen in the extremely cold regions of Indiana!

"I'm sorry! I shouldn't have said that to you!"

This apology had been kept inside Emilia for a long time!

Now that she said it, she finally felt comfortable!

"There's no need for you to apologize." Oliver Walker said with a smile on his face.

Emilia smiled sweetly and didn't say anything else. It seemed like there was indeed no need for them to apologise to each other.

However, she knew that her husband had been tolerating her willfulness ever since he came back!

This was something she had never expected!

On the other hand, she rarely put herself in her husband's shoes and thought about things from his perspectives.

"Let's go!"

"Where to?"

"I'm going to buy groceries and cook!"

...

Downstairs!

A young woman with dyed blonde hair and fashionable clothes said with dissatisfaction, "Dad, what are you doing?"

"Don't you know that I still have to work?"

This was Vivian, who had been tricked into coming home by Albert, saying that he had fallen while taking a bath and needed someone to take care of her.

In the end, when she came back, she was dumbfounded. Nothing happened to her father!

"Vivian!"

“Don’t blame me for this.

“I couldn’t wait for you to come back because I found you a rich man!

“If you don’t come back now, you will never have the chance!”

Albert was all smiles. “Didn’t you always despise men? Didn’t you think that men are incapable but are still asking for things from their wives?”

“See, I’ve found you a capable one,”

“I guarantee you’ll be satisfied with it!”

He thought that Oliver Walker had driven him out because he had not seen his daughter’s beautiful face!

If Oliver Walker met Vivian, would he be able to hold back?

Vivian’s eyes suddenly lit up and she asked impatiently, “Dad, who is it?”

Chapter 239 Have Some Self Awareness

The reason why she’s still single?

It’s all because she couldn’t find a rich man!

Vivian’s goal was very clear. She only wanted to marry a successful man.

In her eyes, ordinary men should not get married.

This was because the offspring of ordinary men would only be more ordinary.

Although their city was loaded with wealthy men, no one was interested in her.

It wasn't because she wasn't pretty but she just wasn't pretty enough.

Most of the rich men would either find beautiful women or a woman of equal social status. How could they like someone like her who was ordinary?

At this moment, Oliver Walker and Emilia walked down the stairs, chatting and laughing.

Albert became incomparably excited. He pointed at the stairs and shouted, "Vivian!!! Look! That's him!"

To an ordinary person, the honorary dean definitely showed that he was a successful man.

As for the honorary Dean, although he didn't have any real authorities, he was still an honorary Dean of a hospital!

However, his identity, status, and reputation would definitely surpass the Dean by several times.

In Albert's eyes, James Floss was already an outstanding but....

Oliver walker?

He was young and handsome!

It was completely in line with all his fantasies of having a rich son-in-law in the future.

Seeing that not only did Albert not leave but that Vivian was also by his side, Emilia's mood, which had been slowly improving, turned sour again.

Oliver Walker rarely came into contact with such a lunatic and so he was unhappy as well.

"What?"

"You meant him?"

Vivian, who was originally full of anticipation, almost burst into rage when she saw the man beside Emilia. "Isn't that useless traitor that Emilia picked up from the streets?"

"Dad, are you crazy?"

"Even if you want to humiliate me, you shouldn't find a married trash to do so!"

"Even if I don't get married for the rest of my life, I will never spend my life with a useless man like him!"

This was crazy!

Her father had really gone crazy!

Originally, she was still wondering who amongst the successful, rich men would live in the old Xinhe Community!

In the end, it turned out to be the good-for-nothing that Emilia had raised!

What was even more laughable was that Albert had even mysteriously told her about him....

Oh my god!

Her morals were about to collapse.

“Shh ...”

Albert’s excited expression suddenly changed upon seeing his precious daughter speak without thinking. He waved his hands, gesturing for Vivian to stop.

But, this was not who Vivian was.

Completely ignoring Albert, she aggressively walked up and coldly rebuked, “A piece of trash like you wants to marry me?”

“Even if you weren’t married, I still wouldn’t like you. Let alone if you were married!”

“A disgusting guy like you only deserves to be with a woman like Emilia!”

As if he was looking at a clown, Oliver Walker looked at Vivian with a mocking gaze, who was improvising and putting in a lot of effort to perform.

She actually belittled him and his wife?

Well, it did save him a lot of trouble!

On the other hand, Albert’s anxious expression turned bad. He rushed up and stammered, “Vivian... Don’t ... Don’t say it anymore ... That’s enough!”

Originally, he had been very confident that his daughter’s unparalleled beauty would definitely be able to charm Oliver Walker.

However, he did not expect the situation to turn out this way. He also wanted to give Vivian a surprise which was why he did not reveal Oliver Walker’s identity.

“Dad, get out of the way!”

“I’m going to spill the beans about what happened today!”

With a wave of her hand, Vivian pushed Albert, who had come forward to stop her. Then, she continued to scream at the couple in front of her.

“What the hell were you thinking?”

“Don’t you know who you are?”

“I’m a university student, a graduate from a famous university!”

“I have a monthly salary of 6800 Yuan and I have insurance. I wear branded clothes. Ask yourself, would you be able to support me financially?”

“As humans, one must have some self-awareness!”

Emilia was quite angry initially but her expression gradually turned into one of disbelief.

Was this woman crazy?

Wasn’t Albert the one who had been stirring things up?

What did her husband say?

Albert was completely stunned as well!

He had never thought that his daughter's combat strength would be so formidable!

Everything's over now!

Chapter 240 The Narcissistic Lunatic

Oliver Walker would definitely feel offended!!!

This ...

Seeing the rich man in his palm...

It just slid away so easily...

Was there anyone who would be happy with this?!

"You're right. Everything you say is correct." Oliver Walker scoffed.

He only did that to Karen Adams because it would never come to an end unless he dealt with her once and for all.

And it was obvious that the two people in front of him ...

Like Father, Like Daughter!

Albert had insulted his wife in front of him and even introduced his daughter to him in front of Emilia!

There was no doubt that he was crazy!

As for Vivian, she had no idea what was going on and went on ranting like a mad woman. Not only was he not infuriated, he thought of her as a clown.

With a monthly income of 6800 Yuan and insurance, it was true that it wasn't a low monthly income.

But, it wasn't exactly something high as well.

So, who exactly gave this father and daughter such confidence?

By talking with people like them, another word wasted on them would definitely lower their intelligence.

"Honey, let's go!" Oliver Walker said to his wife.

"En!" Emilia held back her laughter and turned to leave.

However, the smiles on Oliver Walker and Emilia's faces made Vivian feel irritated.

He was clearly mocking her!

Then, he shouted at Oliver Walker's back, "I know what you're up to. You must have lied to my dad!"

"You're pretending to leave calmly just to play hard to get and to lure me into a trap!

"But, I will never fall for your trick. I will never take the initiative to find you!"

"Because you're not worthy of it!"

"A rotten man like you is not worthy of outstanding women like me!"

“You’re just a second-hand ugly duckling and you want to marry a White Swan?”

“What a joke!”

Those words were inexplicably familiar to Emilia. Perhaps in another 30 years, Vivian would be the next Karen Adams!

No!

That’s not right.

With Vivian’s skills now, it wouldn’t have to take such a long time. At most, it would only be ten years before she gets better than Karen Adams.

Just her ‘higher education’ background was enough to beat the sharp-tongued Karen Adams.

Emilia even had a terrifying thought in her mind.

If Albert, Karen Adams, and Vivian were to form a family, then ...

How terrifying would it be?

Albert was feeling extremely anxious as he watched Oliver Walker and Emilia leave.

However, Vivian was starting to get furious.

They were ignoring her?

He was ignoring her and disrespecting her!

“If you’re still a man, say something!” Vivian roared in rage.

She had already spoke so much.

No matter how good-tempered Emilia was, she couldn’t take it anymore and stopped in her tracks.

Oliver Walker also turned around and spoke in a cold tone. “I want to live with a human, not an animal. I want to live peacefully.”

“Don’t be too narcissistic. I’m very sure that this is the reason why you can’t find a man who’d want you.”

These words didn’t seem like much!

It didn’t bring much damage but Vivian was definitely insulted by it.

Vivian stomped her foot in anger. “How dare you refer to me as an animal?!”

“You actually ... you actually dare to say that I can’t find a man who’d want me???”

She exploded with anger!

She was getting infuriated!

How could she endure this?

However, Oliver Walker and Emilia ignored her and left.

If he wanted to defeat a lunatic, he would have to turn himself into a lunatic!

However, neither Oliver Walker nor Emilia wanted to become lunatics and continue arguing with Vivian and Ebert!

“Ah ...”

“Stop right there! You are not allowed to leave just yet!!!”

Vivian, who thought that she had been insulted, was completely enraged. She even chased after Oliver Walker aggressively ...
