

Chaplain 241

Chapter 241 Second Chances

Albert's face turned pale and he hurriedly thugged Vivian's arms as he stammered, "You ...Do you know who he is?"

"Isn't he just a good-for-nothing?" Vivian was even angrier.

"How good can Emilia's husband be?"

Was there anyone in Colorado who didn't know what kind of person Oliver Walker was?

With men like him, would it even be possible that he had a hidden identity?

What a joke!

"He was personally invited by James Floss to be the Honorary Dean of the First Hospital!"

"He ... He's not even thirty years old yet!"

Albert had been holding it in for so long and he finally said it after Oliver Walker and Emilia left.

His head was so angry that it turned into a pig's brain!

Even now, his brain was still blank.

However, his words were like a bolt of lightning to Vivian. She stood rooted to the ground as if she had been electrocuted and her body stiffened.

“You... Are you telling the truth???”

Perhaps in the eyes of others, being an Honorary Dean would definitely mean that he was a successful man but they have no idea what the position really holds and what it took to be offered with such a title.

However, she was a graduate of a famous university, she knew very well what qualifications were needed to get such a title.

Oliver Walker had just returned and he was already getting invited.

His background must be even more terrifying than what they know now.

“You.....you.....”

Albert said anxiously, “He’s the one that you should pay attention to. He has already rejected me personally.”

“This means...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, Vivian, who was filled with regret, looked at the back of Oliver Walker and suddenly screamed, “Dad, let me go!”

She was struggling with all her might!

She felt that she had committed an unforgivable sin when she thought about how she had offended such a man!

She couldn’t even forgive herself!

“You ... What do you want to do? You must not ... Please don’t do anything stupid!”

Albert grew even more frantic. If his daughter lost her rationality, he would be in even greater trouble.

“Oh my.....”

Vivian stomped her feet anxiously. “He’s the man I’ve been looking for. No matter what, Emilia is not worthy of him!”

After breaking free from Albert’s restraints, she immediately chased after Oliver Walker at top speed, as if her butt was on fire.

“Oliver Walker ...Oliver!! Wait for me, please!”

“I’ve made a mistake! I’ve made a grave mistake!”

“I’m here to apologise to you!”

“...”

Vivian cried and shouted. She couldn’t find any words to describe the bitterness she was feeling at the moment!

That feeling was as if she had missed out on the most important thing in her life.

It was a pity!

Regret!

Pain!

“You...” Emilia frowned.

Wherever they went, he would be the centre of attention!

Now, Vivian was following them. What was this?!

Now, she hated being surrounded by people because it would always be followed by ridicule and criticism!

“I’ll handle it!”

Oliver Walker stopped in his tracks. He did not expect Vivian to be so thick-skinned.

If it was anyone else, they would have felt embarrassed no matter what. They wouldn’t have come chasing after Oliver Walker.

However, she was a lunatic, so it wasn’t strange for her to do anything!

After comforting his wife, Oliver Walker turned around and looked at Vivian, who had rushed over with a face full of remorse. He was angry and amused at the same time!

Inside a huge forest, there would be a huge variety of birds.

“Phew ... Ha ... Hu ...”

After Vivian caught up, she bent over and gasped for breath. After calming down, she quickly said, “Um ...”

“Oliver, I...”

“You’ve already made yourself clear. A man like me does not deserve a wife.” Oliver Walker spoke instead.

“I’m playing hard to get and trying to lure you into the trap but you definitely wouldn’t fall for it”

“You also said that you would never take the initiative to find me!”

Vivian’s face turned red after what she heard.

Chapter 242 Issac Meets An Old Friend

These were the exact words that she had just said but they were returned to her in the same manner.

She instantly felt embarrassed and angry but she smiled and said, “Just now, I ... I was joking, Oliver. Please don’t take it seriously!”

As Vivian spoke, she didn’t forget to throw flirtatious glances at Oliver Walker, showing off her charm!

That kind of look was no different from a whore!

No!

Most eyes would only light up when they saw money but....

Vivian?

“You were joking?”

“But, it was true that I lied to your father.” Oliver Walker said with a faint smile on his face.

“Listen carefully. The world is big but nothing can be compared to my wife’s sweet smile. You are just like a droplet of water that fell into the ocean. You are nothing!”

“You’re only as bright as the ass of a firefly. How can you compare yourself to the moon?”

Then, he grabbed Emilia’s hand and left.

Vivian, who was frozen in place, wanted to slap herself in the face.

How did this...

How did things turn out this way?!

Detestable!

“Oliver walker, you better f*cking listen!”

“Today, you may be indifferent toward me but in the future, I’ll make sure that you are no match for me!”

She was confident about it.

She would succeed one day. She must regain everything that she has lost today after embarrassing herself.

Her eyes were filled with hatred!

It was simply ...

There was a faint smile on the corners of Emilia’s lips but she was also feeling a little worried.

Would this man really pamper her for the rest of her life?

To be honest, she wasn't confident about it.

After all, temptation was everywhere. What if Vivian was not a woman who is unreasonable. What if it was someone who was even more beautiful?

Then ...

She had been sulking in inferiority for too long. She didn't know how outstanding she was and how unshakeable her position was inside Oliver Walker's heart.

Otherwise, she wouldn't be having such wild thoughts!

"Lalala...."

In the evening, Isaac Davis, who had been out for the whole day in the name of finding a job, returned to the entrance of the community with a cigarette in his mouth and humming a tune.

He had been wandering for most of his life and already had one foot inside the coffin. Why would he still want to work?

How was that possible?

"Buzz buzz buzz ..."

Honk honk —

But at that moment, a car suddenly stopped beside Isaac Davis and honked its horn.

He was so scared that his soul almost left his body. After he came back to his senses, he turned around and scolded, "Damn it, which blind dog ..."

When he saw a Mercedes-Benz S350 Luxury sedan that was worth millions parked beside him, he swallowed the words that were at the tip of his tongue.

When the window slowly rolled down, William Davis's side profile appeared in front of him.

Isaac Davis was shocked and the look on his face changed as he took a step back.

After all, he just cursed at William Davis earlier.

As for William Davis, he may be Isaac Davis nephew but...

He was someone that Isaac Davis could not afford to offend now!

Even if he had sounded the car horn on purpose to scare him ...

Isaac Davis had neglected one point. These luxury cars had a good sound proof system. William Davis did not hear Isaac Davis which was why there was still a smile on his face.

"Come in and let's have a chat?"

Although his father had said that for the sake of Davis group's successful listing, he couldn't cause any trouble. How could he swallow this?

Gulp --

Isaac Davis swallowed his saliva and quickly said, "Sure. Of course."

Although he didn't know what William Davis was up to, what if there was a catch to this?

Therefore, he couldn't miss this opportunity and quickly got into the car!

"Umm.... What is it that you want to talk to me about?"

Isaac Davis wasn't afraid of being killed. Anyway, his life was a mess and there was no value in killing him.

This was also the reason why he always acted so boldly.

Chapter 243 Keep An Eye On Oliver Walker

"Well, it's definitely something that will mutually benefit both parties."

William Davis's eyes were full of disdain and then he said, "As long as you do well, I won't mistreat you."

If the fellow in front of him had not returned home, he would not have bothered dealing with Isaac Davis.

However, things are different now. If he wanted to deal with Oliver Walker, he needed a reliable spy.

This rotten man beside him was the person to make use of!

"A team work?"

"Sure..."

Isaac Davis's eyes were shining bright in excitement but he quickly put on an arrogant act. "But, what benefits will I get?"

He just wanted to get more money and continue to squander it.

As for the rest, it really didn't matter!

"Here's the thousand yuan."

William Davis took out a bank card and threw it on the empty seat between the two of them. He said in disdain, "I'll give you another 10000 Yuan after it's done!"

Only twenty thousand Yuan in total?!

The great young master Davis, how could he be so stingy?

Isaac Davis's expression changed as he said in a deep voice, "Are you trying to send off a beggar with this little amount of money?"

This was not what he expected!

How could it be so little? According to his expectations, it should be at least a hundred thousand!

This was more befitting of young master Davis's status!

"Aren't you a beggar?" William Davis sneered.

As soon as he said that, Isaac Davis's face turned red "You .. Are you trying to humiliate me?"

"I will not be working with you!"

Even George Johnson was more generous than this but William Davis ...

“If you don’t want to work with me then get out of my car!”

“Don’t think I don’t know what’s going on with you,” William Davis retorted. “How dare you start acting so arrogantly in front of me?”

“Get lost!”

He was rich but the richer he got, the more stingy he became.

Or to be more precise, the rotten man in front of him was just a stray dog that he kicked out of the company. What right did this man have to bargain with him?

Humiliation was fine!

It was better to send a beggar away!

In short, the current Isaac Davis was only worth this much money.

William Davis wasn’t even willing to give even one cent more!

“You ...”

Isaac Davis’s eyes flickered with anger and he opened the door. “Fine, I’ll leave but no matter how dejected I am, I’m still your uncle.”

“I know every single person here in Colorado!”

William Davis snorted disdainfully and ignored him. He knew that Isaac Davis would crawl back like a dog instantly, wagging his tail and picking up the money that Issac Davis said was for the beggars.

As expected, with one foot on the ground and half of his body still in the car, Isaac Davis hesitated.

“Weren’t you having a good time scolding me just now? It was quite manly, wasn’t it?”

William Davis said sarcastically, “Since you’re so gutsy, do you one more time so that I could at least look up to you. Don’t act as if your words are nothing but farts that came out of your asshole!”

People who are cheap like Issac Davis will always be the same.

They were not worthy of pity or respect!

“Hehe ...”

“My good nephew, just now ... I was just teasing you!”

Isaac Davis suppressed the shame and anger in his heart. He went back inside the car, put the bank card in his pocket, and smiled flatteringly. “So, what do you need me to do for you?”

No matter how small the animal was, there was still meat on it.

For someone like him who was on the verge of death, it was indeed quite a lot!

“I want you to monitor Oliver Walker’s every move. Report to me at once if they have any plans.”

William Davis’s face started to turn gloomy and even his hands on the steering wheel were trembling. “This shouldn’t be difficult for you!”

the atmosphere in the car instantly fell silent!

Isaac Davis's expression changed several times in just a few seconds. "You...He..."

"Why is it about Oliver Walker again?!"

"Who is it? Why would he be worth everyone's attention?!"

In fact, he hated it. He couldn't figure out why William Davis would care about the one million retirement fees that Oliver Walker had.

There was no reason for it at all!

Chapter 244 The Spy's Act

George Johnson had his eyes on Emilia and it made sense.

"Who else has asked you to do so?"

William Davis's interest was piqued. He narrowed his eyes and said, "He is indeed not worthy of my effort but he's a fly. Do you know what I'm saying?"

"It can't bite people to death but it's enough for it to be disgusting."

Although he had suffered a great loss in the past few exchanges, he didn't think that Oliver Walker had any great ability.

That man was just barbaric.

Plus, he didn't plan on making a direct move. With his connections, how could he not play that damn wild dog to death?

“It’s George Johnson!”

Isaac Davis immediately said, “But, he’s still lying in the intensive care unit. I don’t think he’ll be able to be a man again in this life.”

He had been in Colorado for a long time. Although he didn’t have much ability, he still had multiple channels where he could get information from.

When he learned that George Johnson’s lower body had been kicked, he was shocked.

Even all of Blue Ocean Entertainment’s businesses had been seized. One could imagine how miserable George Johnson was feeling now.

After hearing who it was, William Davis felt unhappy. “That’s George Johnson. How can you compare me to him?”

In his eyes, George Johnson and Oliver Walker were no different.

This was because their status was not as noble as his and they were not as rich as him.

If Oliver Walker was really so powerful, why was it that he crippled George Johnson but did not lay hands on him and his sister, Jessica Wright Davis?

This was also the reason why William Davis was so fearless!

“Um ...”

“I didn’t mean it that way ... I’m ...”

Isaac Davis, who realised that he had said something wrong, started being incoherent. Seeing that the atmosphere wasn't right, he quickly opened the door and got out. "I'll head home first. I promise to inform you immediately if there's any sign of trouble!"

William Davis rolled his eyes and didn't say anything. After all, Isaac Davis still had some value.

He would settle the scores one by one after he had killed Oliver Walker and Emilia!

Isaac Davis also wanted to deal with Oliver Walker himself. After all, he was still thinking about the million-dollar retirement fee.

Otherwise, what would be the point of his return?

As long as they kicked Oliver Walker out of the house, even if they got a divorce, their family would still get half of the money.

With his words and Oliver Walker out of the way, wouldn't it be easy to get the money from Mary Grimm?

"Wild dog!"

"It's your honour for three lifetimes to be able to put me in this spot!"

"But you can't afford to be angry with me!"

William Davis's eyes were cold. After muttering to himself, he stepped on the pedal and left the slum.

At dinner, other than Isaac Davis, the entire family was overjoyed.

“My child!”

Mary Grimm couldn't hide her excitement as she said, “Once the clinic is opened, you should only take money that you deserve, You shouldn't be earning money that is against your conscience.”

“He knows what he's doing, mom!” Emilia stood up for Oliver Walker with a smile on her face.

They went shop hunting in the afternoon. Although it wasn't in a bustling area, it was still quite spacious.

However, the landlord was still out of town and would only be back tomorrow.

Therefore, they have not settled anything yet.

Isaac Davis was shocked. “Our family is going to open a Medical Center?”

He couldn't believe it. Was there a doctor amongst us?

Most importantly, if they were to open a Medical Center, did that mean that they would have to use the million-Yuan retirement fee?

How could this happen?!

After all, from his perspective, that sum of money was his!

“Yes, dear!”

Mary Grimm said in high spirits, “We've already chosen the location. We're just waiting to pay the rent!”

She was feeling proud.

With such a good son-in-law, what was there to be unsatisfied about?

"I ... I ... I don't agree!"

But in the next second, Isaac Davis suddenly stood up and broke the harmony with a loud roar!

He had come back for Oliver Walker's retirement fee. If Oliver Walker used it to open a Medical Center, what will he get in the end?!

Therefore, he was very determined about it!

He was loud and clear!

Chapter 245 Timid Olivia Walker

The atmosphere turned tense.

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with disbelief. What right did her father have to disagree?

Oliver Walker remained calm. In fact, he already knew the purpose of Isaac Davis's return. This man was only here for the retirement fees.

However, to be honest, it was a little ridiculous!

His mother-in-law had opposed Oliver Walker previously because she was afraid that he would go astray.

However, his father-in-law was now opposing him because.....to put it bluntly, this man only wanted to split the money. Since there was no hope, the look on his face changed.

Olivia Walker did not dare to speak. After all ...

This man was a stranger to her. He was fierce and with one look, she knew that this man was not an easy person to get along with.

So, she lowered her head silently!

On the other hand, Mary Grimm frowned. "Now that our son-in-law is back, he should at least look for a job, right?"

"Otherwise, how is this family going to survive?"

"Besides, with his medical skills, isn't it a good thing for him to open a medical centre?"

Even now, she still believed that Issac Davis was acting this way because she couldn't have children.

It wasn't that he didn't want to be responsible for the family!

"Ha ..."

"You should only do what you're capable of."

Isaac Davis slammed the table and stood up with a fierce expression. "What kind of medical skills could he have?"

"Are you trying to ruin the family's reputation? I will definitely not agree to it!"

He was firm with his stand.

For him, the retirement fee was his. He would fight the person who dared touch it!

Oliver Walker didn't say anything because he was afraid that it would be difficult for his mother-in-law.

In particular, the sound of him slamming the table gave the introverted Olivia Walker a shock.

Emilia frowned when she noticed it. Then, she said to her mother, who still wanted to explain, "Mom, take Olivia back to her room first. I don't want her to be frightened!"

"I want to have a good chat with dad!"

As a daughter, she had always been unhappy about her father.

It was even more impossible for her to accommodate Isaac Davis like how her mother had done for him because this man had never acted like a father until this day.

She had only allowed him to return home because she didn't want to see her mother suffer. It definitely didn't mean that she had accepted this man.

It was even more impossible for her to let anyone hinder her husband's life plans.

Although this family had fallen apart, her husband still made a name for himself. Plus, he was still willing to stay in this family. She could not make things difficult for her husband.

This was the most that she could take from Issac Davis!

"I don't want to talk to you!"

Isaac Davis's eyes dodged and he roared domineeringly, "Mary, you are not leaving this room. You are not allowed to leave!"

He was not a fool.

In this family, Mary Grimm was the only one who was still willing to listen to him.

After all, he could poke at the wound in Mary Green's heart. No matter what mistake he made, as long as she brought up the incident from back then and talked about it, everything would be solved.

However, Emilia did not owe him anything. Even though she was a little timid after the blow, she definitely wasn't an indecisive woman.

Otherwise, she would not have been able to dominate the business world in Colorado.

"This ..."

Mary Grimm's brows were tightly furrowed. It was obvious that she was struggling internally.. She looked at Isaac Davis then at Emilia. For a moment, she didn't know what to choose.

She was in a difficult position.

Although she knew that Isaac Davis was not reliable, he was still the head of the household in name!

"Grandma, I ... I'm scared ..."

At that moment, Olivia Walker said weakly, "Grandpa is so fierce!"

She was really afraid of him.

However, she also saw the dilemma in grandma's eyes and at the same time, she wanted to help his parents.

Although she didn't know what had happened, it was definitely not right for this strange man to be shouting so loudly.

"Little girl, why are you so timid?!"

Isaac Davis turned around and rebuked angrily. His spittle flying everywhere as he screamed. "What's there to be afraid of?!"

Chapter 246 I Am Your Father

He had been living like a timid man outside of society.

However, at home, it was because he was the head of the family that he had to enjoy the feeling of being the boss.

Such a fierce look made Olivia Walker lower her head again. Her two small hands were tightly clasped together.

Upon seeing this, Emilia frowned and stood up. "You ..."

She was getting pissed!

This man had infuriated her!

Although Isaac Davis was her father, when had he ever fulfilled his duties as a father?

He had never brought any warmth to the family. All he left behind was chaos and trauma.

Mary Green's heart ached for her granddaughter. She couldn't help but reprimand, "Can you keep your voice down?"

“Olivia is still a young girl. So you know how much she has suffered?”

With that said, she quickly stepped forward and pulled her granddaughter into her arms. “Olivia, let’s go inside.”

It wasn’t that she didn’t want to side with Isaac Davis but if she had to choose, she would definitely stand firmly on the side of her daughter and son-in-law.

She had brought Olivia Walker away to prove her stand!

This was because Isaac Davis was being too much.

“Mary!!!!”

Seeing his wife leave, Isaac Davis became anxious. “You... Don’t ... Don’t go!”

Now, there were only three people left in the living room. Who else could he threaten with morality?

It was obvious that neither Emilia nor Oliver Walker would buy it.

He also knew that he had done many ridiculous things. If it wasn’t because he was Emilia’s father, they would have become enemies long ago.

Although he had successfully returned home by attacking Mary Grimm’s sore spot, no one would take him seriously if there were any conflicts.

“Dad!”

Emilia’s voice was cold as she said, “Oliver Walker was the one who earned that money with his life. Would you be paying for his retirement?”

Her mother had already returned to her room and so she went straight to the point. She did not bother to beat around the bush with her father.

This was because ...

There was no need for that!

In fact, whether it was Oliver Walker or her, they both knew the reason behind Isaac Davis's objection to opening a clinic.

Although Oliver Walker didn't say anything, he just didn't want to argue with his father-in-law in public and make things difficult for his mother-in-law and wife.

After all, he had the evidence of Isaac Davis's crime in his hands. He was not at all worried about this hooligan.

However, he had never expected that both his wife and mother-in-law would support him so firmly. It was truly heartwarming.

Perhaps this was what family was.

They would always be thinking for one another. As for his father-in-law ...

It was obvious that he never wanted to be part of the family again. He was only staying here because he had other intentions.

"You ..."

"What nonsense!!"

Isaac Davis did not expect his daughter to say such nasty things. He was so angry that his face turned red. "Do you still take me as your father?!"

Having been touched on his sore spot, he could only use his status as an elder to force his daughter to lower her head.

"But..... When will you ever remember that you have a daughter?" Emilia let out a cold laugh.

Anyone would get tired of having to face such a man as her father.

She could tolerate the others.

But now, when the bottom line was touched, she would never tolerate it.

Oliver Walker earned all this money by risking his life at the front line.

She and her mother had never thought about getting a share of the money. Why would Issac Davis have a part of it then?

What right did he have to covet this sum of money?

If she wasn't afraid that her husband would be put in a difficult position because of family reasons, she wouldn't even want to talk to her enstrange father.

"You ...You ...Impudent!"

"Where did all the manners that you've learnt as a child go?!"

Isaac Davis roared in rage, "I'm your father! How can you ... How can you speak to me in such a tone?"

"You ..."

Chapter 247 The Powerless Head of the Family

How could the extremely chauvinistic Isaac Davis take this?

Emilia had the guts to go against him!

His daughter was disrespecting him! This was treason!

Fire was spitting out of his eyes, and the veins on his forehead were about to pop.

It was obvious that he was in a state of extreme anger!

However, Emilia didn't buy it at all. She faced the angry gaze and said in neither a humble nor arrogant manner, "Whether it's me who has committed treason or you who has no respect for your elders, I believe that we know it better than anyone else.

"The only reason I'm still willing to call you dad is because I want you to fulfill your duties as a father.

"Even if you don't have the ability, I can't care about you cowering outside. I can't be bothered to care about you, but I can't allow you to act unreasonably inside this house."

Her decisive words were her final stand.

No matter what her father had done, she would take care of him as long as he wanted to come home. This was her duty as a daughter.

However, she could not allow her father to lose his temper with her husband. This was the responsibility of a wife.

Since Oliver Walker was still willing to stay in this house, why should she allow him to suffer?

“You ...”

These few short sentences were like a stab to his heart.

There was nothing that Issac Davis could say at this point!

He had no right to refute, which made it worse!

Emilia didn't pay any more attention to her father. Instead, she turned to Oliver Walker and firmly said, “You don't have to feel burdened. Mom and I will support you.”

“Whether you succeed or fail, it's your money, after all. You should be the one to make the decision!”

It wasn't that she didn't want to be a filial child, but she could see that her father had evil intentions, which was something she could never accept.

She made such a statement so that Oliver Walker could go all out.

Was it that important whether he was rich or poor?

If humans had no dreams, how different would they be from salted fish?

Her wings were already broken!

Her husband, who had always been calm and aloof from worldly affairs, finally had plans to do something. As his wife, what reason did she have to object?

Looking at his wife's delicate face, Oliver Walker's heart was warm. He smiled and said, “I won't let you down.”

If he didn't even have this ability, he might as well buy a piece of tofu and hit himself in the head.

"You....both of you!"

Isaac Davis roared angrily, "You really don't treat me as a human?"

Was he angry?

How was it possible that he wasn't?!

"Let me just say something that I should never say...."

"No one here thinks of you as human," Emilia said with a determined expression. "It's up to you whether you want to be a human or not! "

These words ...

It shouldn't have come out of her mouth, but she couldn't help it!

More importantly, she wanted to remind his father that even though he was back, the decision-making power in this family was not in his hands.

Taking care of him when he turned old was already the most that she could do.

If it were most people, would they even allow Issac Davis to step into the house after all the ridiculous things he has done?

Don't even think about it!

After saying this, Emilia returned to her room because she was completely in a rage.

“You ...”

“This is maddening!”

“I’m so angry!”

Isaac Davis clenched his fists tightly. He never thought that he would have no say in his family.

It wasn’t that he didn’t have the right to speak but that his scheme had been completely exposed the moment he opened his mouth.

Emilia was no fool. She would not deliberately make things difficult for Isaac Davis, but she would never allow him to destroy this family that had gone through ups and downs and had finally come ashore in the turbulent sea.

“Good luck!”

Oliver Walker said without mercy, “I think you should know what you’ve done.”

“I’m asking you to be a human so that you don’t make things difficult for Emilia and me. It’s also for the sake of our mother.”

“Otherwise ...”

He didn’t say the rest of it, but Isaac Davis should know what price he would have to pay if this went on.

No one would be able to tolerate him repeatedly.

No matter how mild-tempered they were, they would still explode one day

“You guys are ruthless!”

Chapter 248 Ridiculous Nonsense

Isaac Davis said with an embarrassed expression. Then, he turned around and slammed the door.

Then, Oliver Walker was left behind to quietly clean the dishes.

He didn't know if it was the right decision to allow Isaac Davis back into his house but as a son-in-law, it was something he had to do.

Now, he could only take one step at a time!

The night fell and the moonlight covered the earth.

In the private room of the star café, the Davis siblings, William and Jessica Wright sat opposite each other.

They were drinking expensive coffee and enjoying their luxurious life that he didn't care about Isaac Davis who was standing beside him. He just asked indifferently, “So, what do you want to report to me?”

A flattering smile appeared on Isaac Davis's face. “Of course there's important news. I haven't had dinner yet. Let me sit down and eat first ...”

Looking at the expensive dishes on the table, Issac Davis couldn't help it!

However, just as his butt was about to land on the sofa ...

William Davis's eyes suddenly flashed with a hint of displeasure!

Jessica Wright Davis, who was playing with her mobile phone, turned her head instantly and said coldly, "Are you worthy of sitting on the same table as us???"

Just these words made Isaac Davis feel awkward.

He felt pissed but he didn't have the courage to throw a tantrum now. In the end, she could only force a smile and say, "Um ..."

"Actually ... Actually, I'm not too hungry!"

He didn't expect that he would end up in such a state.

No matter where he was, he was not welcomed!

However, he only had himself to blame for everything!

"To put it nicely, we're working together now.

"But, to put it bluntly, we are your employer. Don't think too highly of yourself!"

"You have to be clear about your identity. You don't deserve to sit at the same table with us."

"If you have nothing to say, leave before you ruin my appetite." William Davis rebuked.

His words made Isaac Davis's face turn even redder!

He had been holding back his anger at home. Now, the words coming out of William Davis's mouth were even more unpleasant than what Emilia had said. However, he still held it in.

“Oliver Walker is going to open a clinic!” He said with a smile.

The moment he said that ...

The faces of the siblings, William Davis and Jessica Wright Davis, were instantly filled with excitement.
“What?”

A clinic?

Oliver Walker wants to own a clinic?

Did they hear him correctly?

Who would believe such news?

William Davis said with a straight face, “If you dare to fool me again, the cooperation between us will be terminated immediately!”

“He doesn’t have any medical skills. Even if he did, where would he get the money?”

For Williams Davis, the starting capital for opening a clinic might only be the amount that he would use to pay for a meal.

However, to Oliver Walker and Amelia, no bank would be willing to lend them a loan.

They wouldn’t even have the capital even if they sold everything.

Therefore, opening a clinic was absolutely nonsense.

The only possibility left was that Issac Davis was lying.

“It’s true!”

Isaac Davis said with a serious expression, “That kid fought in Indiana for eight years. The retirement fee alone is one million.”

“As for his medical skills, I’m not so sure about that!”

He was indeed telling the truth!

Even if he couldn’t take revenge on Davis, couldn’t he use Davis to deal with Oliver Walker?

If it wasn’t for the retirement fee, he wouldn’t have to compromise!

“I knew it! How could that b*tch afford clothes that cost hundreds of thousands?!”

Jessica Wright Davis’s face was gloomy as she said, “So, it’s money from selling your life. How hateful!”

“If that’s the case, they have at least 800000 Yuan left. This means ...”

They do have the capital to start a clinic!

What was the reason for the ban on Emilia?

It was because Emilia was too capable. They were afraid that she would rise up again and take revenge on them.

Therefore, he spared no effort in wanting to cut the weeds and eliminate the roots!

However, he had never expected such changes to happen. The feeling that he was feeling inside was unimaginable!

Chapter 249 A Chance To Prove Herself

“So what?!”

“Even if he has money, I can make sure that he can’t open his clinic!

“She’s trying to fight me while she’s in Colorado?! She no longer has the abilities to do so!”

William Davis’s face darkened. “What’s the location of the shop he chose?”

Without his permission, who would allow this to happen!

Would this person be willing to risk being kicked out of Colorado?!

It was no different from a fool’s dream for Emilia to try to turn over a new leaf!

“It’s on Ramblas Avenue. It was originally a pharmacy but the rent is due!”

Isaac Davis quickly said, “You can’t allow him to succeed with getting a clinic opened!”

In his opinion, as long as the money was not spent, it would eventually fall into his hands.

If they started the clinic and they made a loss, wouldn’t they be taking his money and wasting it?

Therefore, he would never allow such things to happen.

“Get lost!”

William Davis dropped his chopsticks and rolled his eyes at Isaac Davis.

How could he possibly allow Emilia to do so?

He would definitely make Emilia's life a living hell. He will keep her as a lowly commoner for the rest of her life.

He would not give her any chance to turn things around!

"Alright!"

Isaac Davis didn't feel ashamed at all after being scolded like this. Instead, he felt that it was natural.

He tried to fight them but what's the use?

Since resistance was futile, he might as well just accept it. As long as he got the retirement fee, he could just clean his butt and leave.

After Isaac Davis left ...

Jessica Wright Davis's brows furrowed. There was a hint of gloominess in her eyes. "I knew it. Emilia would never give up!"

"She only has a million Yuan now and she's already causing such a scene."

"What if ..."

Her worries were reasonable.

Emilia had indeed been suppressed miserably for the past few years and she had long lost her original ambitions.

However, the more composed a proud woman was, the more terrifying she would get.

Slap --

William Davis slammed the table and his eyes were filled with anger. "There will be no what ifs!"

"None!"

"I will never give her the chance!!"

...

The next morning, Emilia arrived at the public pharmacy on Ramblas Avenue.

This was a two-storey shop!

Since it was not in a bustling place, it was a little deserted. However, it should not be a problem for them to start up a clinic here.

As for the price, they had already discussed it yesterday. They were just waiting for the boss to rush back from another city so that they could haggle the price in person.

The rent was 5 hundred thousand Yuan a year which was incredibly expensive.

They didn't have much to spare. After paying a year's rent, they still had to purchase goods, apply for certificates, and so on. Their expenses were quite high.

As for Oliver Walker, he went to the Colorado First Hospital.

Since he wasn't very clear about some local procedures and he didn't want to trouble his disciples who were busy with official duties, James Floss was naturally the best candidate.

Emilia looked at the time. It was already 10 O'clock, half an hour from the time that they'd agreed to meet.

Then, he took out his phone and made a call. "Hello, how are you?"

"May I know when you will arrive?"

It would be a lie to say that she was not in a hurry.

After all, this clinic carried too many of her dreams.

Firstly, she had to support her family. Secondly, Oliver Walker had given her a chance to prove herself again.

As long as she made money, she could immediately inject capital into the company and this would show William Davis and the others ...

They could suppress her career but it would never suppress her ability!

"Ms. Davis, I'm really sorry. I'm being delayed due to the traffic. Please wait for another ten minutes."

The chubby woman said in a calm tone, "I'll be there immediately!"

Emilia's brows furrowed slightly but she still answered nicely "Alright!"

The landlord was stalling for time, either because she wanted to take the initiative in the negotiation or because she didn't want to rent this palace to them. Of course, it was also possible that she was really delayed on the road.

Emilia would only know the reason why she was late for their appointment.

After hanging up the phone, the slightly chubby middle-aged woman beamed with joy and said, "Mr. Davis, look at her! She's getting anxious."

Chapter 250 Stirring Up Trouble

This woman was the landlord of the second floor, Peng Shanshan.

She wasn't delayed from going to the shop because of the traffic but because she was stopped by the young master of the Davis family.

"Do you remember what I've told you?"

The corner of William Davis's mouth rose slightly. "Do not lower the price. Sign the contract and disappear immediately."

Peng Shanshan laughed awkwardly, "Mr. Davis, this ...

"I can still understand if you don't want to rent it to her but if we tear up the contract, would it cause problems?"

She knew what kind of person Amelia was!

However, the main problem was that if she accepted the money and refused to give Emilia the place, would Emilia agree to it?

When the time comes ...

"I'll be responsible for it."

“You just need to take the money,” William Davis said in a deep voice. “This check amounts to a total of 5 hundred thousand. Now, the right to use this house belongs to me.”

Renting the place to more than one tenant?

That’s right!

This was what they had in mind.

Five hundred thousand was nothing to William Davis. Sometimes, a bottle of wine itself would cost more than one hundred thousand yuan.

But....what would 5 hundred thousand mean to Emilia?

He was clear about this.

All he had to do was to use up all of the available funds that Emilia had. It was simply too worthwhile for him.

Peng Shanshan laughed so hard that her mouth was crooked. “I understand, I understand!”

“Don’t worry, Mr. Davis. I promise I’ll get this done. I won’t waste any of you time.”

She didn’t have to do much and easily earned an extra three hundred thousand yuan. No one would refuse this right?

If William Davis was just an ordinary person, she would not have dared to do this.

But.... he wasn’t just an ordinary person, he was the young master of Davis!

After receiving the money, she could just go on a trip. By the time she returned, everything would have been over by then.

She ...

What's there to be unhappy about?

To put it bluntly, William Davis was giving her a chance!

Then, she happily rushed towards Ramblas Avenue.

"Trying to go against me?"

"You're still too young!" William Davis laughed coldly.

"Little sister, how's the preparation on your side?"

He wanted to set a trap for Emilia, a series of traps. As long as she fell for it, she would never be able to turn the tables.

Jessica Wright Davis replied, "I've already spoken to the pharmacy owner. As soon as Emilia pays the rent, the pharmacy will continue to operate as usual."

The siblings already had a plan in mind.

After this, if Emilia finds out the truth, she would definitely be so angry that she would vomit blood.

Five hundred thousand Yuan was just a dispensable meal to them.

However, to Emilia, it was definitely more important than her life!

“Hehe ...”

“Just wait and see!” William Davis sneered.

At the Pharmacy.

Emilia waited for three whole hours and just as she was feeling disheartened, a white Honda sedan stopped at the entrance.

Peng Shanshan got out of the car and smiled. “I’m really sorry to have made you wait.”

“I’m out of town so I’m a little busy. Anyway, this is the shop. Are you sure you want to take a look?”

“I’m interested in the shop, but the price ...” Emilia said with a smile.

In fact, they had looked for many places yesterday but none of them were what they wanted.

Either it would cost them too much or the location of it was too desolate.

However, this one was different. It was a pharmacy and it had some of the basic facilities. Moreover, they already had regular customers.

Oliver Walker was also the one who chose the place and so she did not want to waste any more time.

“If you don’t have the money, then don’t make me come over.”

“Every minute of mine is worth a lot of money!”

Peng Shanshan's face turned cold. "This is the price for my shop. If you're not sincere about buying it, then forget it."

It was true that the rent for this place was a little high.

Under normal circumstances, she could have offered a lower amount.

However, now that William Davis had intervened into this, it was already out of her control.
