Chapter 261 The Pitiful Man

“My little darling.....”

“I’m back!”

Zhang Weimin was holding a bouquet of roses in his hand. On top of the roses, there was a dazzling diamond ring. His face was full of excitement.

After all, he had saved 5 hundred thousand Yuan a year in rent. He couldn’t wait for the door to open

Then, he realized that the door was not locked. He smiled. “You’re such a careless little sweetheart but daddy likes that about you!”

“Hahaha ...”

In his excitement, he didn’t realise that not only was the door not locked but the lock had been shattered. How could anyone lock the door?

“Surprise surp—!”

He placed the flowers and diamond ring in front of his face, blocking his view. He shouted loudly but there was no response.

However, he didn’t notice anything unusual. Instead, he walked in and said lustfully, “Little sweetheart, are you playing hide-and-seek with daddy?”

“Be good, don’t hide!”

“Look at what surprise Daddy has prepared for you.”

He didn't even know how much he liked Liang Min.

In any case, he would spend tens of thousands on him every month.

After all, she was a clingy little vixen. She was even more torturous when they were in bed. Who wouldn't fall for a woman like her?

It was impossible for him to imagine that the little sweetheart he held in the palm of his hand had sold him out in the blink of an eye.

Oliver Walker sat on the sofa and looked at Zhang Weimin, who was slowly walking into the living room with flowers in his hands. He didn't say anything but just looked on coldly.

Oliver Walker didn't know if this guy would be terrified or turn into ferocious man.

“Hmmm.....”

Zhang Weimin took a deep breath and savoured the taste. He then closed his eyes and said, “Rose-scented shower gel? I didn't expect you to be even more impatient than me!”

“Daddy will definitely satisfy you tonight!”

He couldn't wait to hear that soft echo but ...

The mistress had already left, so how could she still answer his questions?

Gradually, he felt that something was wrong. There seemed to be a strange aura in the air and he immediately put the flowers down.

When he saw Oliver Walker on the sofa, he was stunned.

Bang --

The flowers and diamond ring in his hand fell to the ground. Then, he widened his eyes and said, "What ... How could it be ... you?"

"You ...What are you doing here?"

He was about to pee in his pants!

There was cold sweat all over his back!

It was even more terrifying than seeing a ghost. He asked two questions in a row, each one louder than the last.

Especially the last word, it was almost as high as a professional male soprano's.

That's right!

It was Oliver Walker!

Shouldn't he be running around in circles now? Why was he sitting in the house that Zhang Weimin bought for his mistress?

This ...

Oliver Walker.....

And how did he find them?

How did he get in?

“Since you don’t want to meet me, I shall pay you a visit then.”

Oliver Walker was sitting on the sofa with a calm expression on his face, as steady as Aiden Wilson!

No!

That’s not a sofa!

That was his throne!

Oliver Walker sat there, looking dignified without being angry. He was just like a commander who was counting troops on the battlefield. Then, he said jokingly, “Aren’t you surprised?”

“Do you like it?”

Surprise?

Surprise my ass!

This was a complete shock!

This was definitely a surprise! A motherf*cking surprise!

“Gulp ...”

Zhang Weimin swallowed a mouthful of saliva and his face was filled with fear. “You ...You ...”

“Liang Min! Where’s Liang Min?”

“She ... Where is she?”

Even now, he was still thinking about his mistress. If Oliver Walker didn’t already know that Zhang Weimin had a wife and child, he would definitely think that Zhang Weimin was an infatuated man!

“She left.”

“If it wasn’t because she called you, how could she have lured you in?” Oliver Walker smiled.

To be honest, it was quite pitiful to be a man like Zhang Weimin.

Chapter 262 Scaring The Crap Out Of The Poor Man

He had placed all his gentleness and romance on the money-grubbing mistress and neglected his wife and children at home. In the end, he had been betrayed!

“No...”

“That’s impossible!”

Zhang Weimin took two steps back and shouted, “She ... Why would she betray me?”

“She’s the person I love the most ... I ... I spend so much money on her every month!”

“She! How could she betray me?”

He couldn’t believe this! He didn’t want to believe this!!!

Oliver Walker didn't say a word. He had seen too many people like this who would struggle in their deathbed.

Anyways, there was no rush. He would definitely be able to get it done before night fell.

After all, the landlord was already on the way back!

And ...

So was his eldest disciple who will personally escort the landlord here.

"You .. When did you get together with her?"

"Did Liang Min use the money I gave her every month on you?"

"Speak up, pretty boy!" Zhang Weimin roared. He was doing to get to the bottom of this.

Should he calm down?!

It was impossible to stay calm!

From his perspective, he was the one who brought this residence in Qingya Gardens for Liang Min; even his wife had no idea about this place.

How could outsiders know?

That was why Oliver Walker would appear here. With the phone call earlier, he immediately figured it out. Liang Min and Oliver Walker must have gotten together and set him up!

Just thinking about this possibility made him furious!

The mistress that he had was helping his enemy to mess with him!

The feeling of it...

It was as if he had knocked over the cup of bitter tea!

“Say it!”

“When did you guys get together?”

After thinking of those possibilities, Zhang Weimin roared hysterically, “Why must it be the two of you?!”

Pain!

He could only feel pain!

It was like his heart had been stabbed by the person closest to him!

“I’m not interested in worn shoes like her.”

“Let’s talk about the pharmacy.” Oliver Walker looked at him with a cold glance.

Would he even be interested in women who were kept as mistresses?

Wouldn’t it be a joke?

Forget about how Liang Min was a mistress, even if she was just a beautiful woman, he still felt that nothing was comparable to his sweet wife.

A mistress?

The most ridiculous thing was that Zhang Weimin didn't even know who the man sitting in front of him was!

Why would the great Chaplain of the country get together with such a dubious woman?

Or rather, with Zhang Weimin's knowledge, he would have never thought of someone at such level.

"You ..."

Zhang Weimin's expression changed the moment he heard the word 'pharmacy'. He immediately turned around and ran away.

He wasn't sure of Oliver Walker's strength.

What if a fight broke out and he couldn't win? What should he do?

He could imagine how furious Oliver Walker and Emilia would be after getting tricked.

So ...

Out of the tricks that he had, running away now was the smartest move.

However, just as he was about to reach the door ...

Whoosh ...

Oliver Walker picked up the ashtray on the coffee table in front of him and threw it at the door.

The force of it was so strong that it directly produced the sound of air breaking!

With a loud 'bang', it accurately hit Zhang Weimin's back. He lost his balance and fell to the ground with a loud thud.

"Ah ..."

Zhang Weimin let out a shrill scream as he was in so much pain that he clutched his back and rolled on the ground!

"You better not think of anything else before I allow you to leave."

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth rose slightly. "That's because it's very impolite. It's disrespectful to me!"

As he spoke, he stood up and looked down at Zhang Weimin, who was lying on the ground. He took a steady step forward and said, "Do you understand?"

He didn't want to know the truth now.

After all, once a person was tortured enough, they would reveal everything under unprecedented fear.

Chapter 263 Who's At Fault

The atmosphere turned tense!

The temperature in the room rapidly dropped!

It was clearly a hot summer night but even the night breeze was steaming hot!

However, Zhang Weimin couldn't help but shiver as he looked at Oliver Walker, who was walking towards him one step at a time!

Particularly, when there was a smile on Oliver Walker's face made him feel as if Oliver Walker was looking at a battlefield of white bones!

Zhang Weimin....

He was scared!

He was afraid!

This was terrifying!

"You should look for the person who started this! You should ask for them to be responsible for this!!!

"It's none of my business! It's really none of my business!" Zhang Weimin's lips trembled as he shouted.

"We don't have any grudges in the past and we don't have any recently.. You ... You ...You can't do this to me!"

"We live in a lawful country now!"

"You can't just go around hitting people!!!"

Would he still have the guts to remain stubborn?

Of course not!

He felt as if his spine had been broken by the ashtray.

His entire body was assaulted by intense pain and he couldn't move at all!

"We indeed have had no enmity in the past but was there really none recently?"

Oliver Walker said casually, "Then explain to me what happened!"

He did not want to wrong a good person!

However, he would never let a bad person go!

His wife had just rented the place and all the procedures were complete!

As the previous tenant, not only did Zhang Weimin refuse to leave, he also hid behind the door and ordered people to give out free eggs, pretending to be a saviour.

His wife, the real tenant, had become a criminal that everyone wanted to beat up!

This ...

Wasn't this something recent that happened?

If an ordinary entrepreneur invested all his assets and even borrowed a loan to rent a place but he didn't get his hands on it in the end, wouldn't he hang himself to death?

Although law was something that applied to everyone, there was still an order of hierarchy.

Plus, a lawsuit was not something that ordinary people could afford to fight!

Whether it was money or time, it would cost too much for them to sue.

A person like Zhang Weimin was obviously a specialist in this kind of thing. He had plenty of time to waste on those who didn't have time.

For guys like him.... Although he didn't kill anyone directly, his actions were enough to force others into taking their own lives.

His methods were even more vicious than ordinary murderers!

"I ... I ... I'm not a tyrant ... I wasn't trying to take anything from you!"

"I also have a rental contract. If you don't believe me, take a look!" Zhang Weimin shouted.

He had no other choice!

After all, this man was coming for him!

He quickly took out the rental contract that William Davis had given him. Of course, he wouldn't sell out the people behind him. After all, he regarded Davis as his supporter.

Although Oliver Walker could use Liang Min to trick him, Oliver Walker would never be able to bring the landlord, Peng Shanshan. They would not be able to confront her face-to-face.

This scheme was linked to each other. As long as there weren't any mistakes in the middle, it would be impossible to find out!

Oliver Walker frowned slightly and there was hesitation in his eyes. In the end, he accepted the contract and glanced through it.

He wouldn't have known if he hadn't looked but he was shocked when he did!

The contract ...

It was authentic!

Moreover, the stamp and signature were there!

The rent was also five hundred thousand a year!

“I ... I ... I’m also a victim!”

“If you’re looking for someone to be responsible for it, then look for Peng Shanshan!”

“It’s that damned woman. She’s renting it to more than one tenant. Why ... why are you only coming after me!”

After seeing the shocked expression on Oliver Walker’s face, Zhang Weimin gritted his teeth and roared, “You have to compensate me for all my injuries. I have not done anything wrong!!!”

The room fell silent!

There was a trace of doubt in Oliver Walker’s eyes!

Was it really Peng Shanshan who rented it to more than one tenant?

However, his sharp intuition told him that Zhang Weimin’s eyes were flickering.

It wasn’t the look of someone who was afraid.

It looked like he was feeling guilty!

Could it be that things were more complicated than he had imagined?

Perhaps it was a conspiracy from the very beginning!

Chapter 264 The First War God

“Oliver Walker!”

“You’ve wrongly accused a good man!”

“I will definitely use the weapon of law to protect my legal rights!”

“Plus, you just hit me with that ashtray! I will definitely sue you until you get sentenced to jail!!”

Seeing that Oliver Walker had gone silent, Zhang Weimin thought that he had managed to get away with it. So, he became even more fearless, “I will never let you get away with it! Never!!”

The more unyielding he was now, the more confident he felt!”

Therefore, it was more beneficial to him!

“I won’t kill a good man by mistake.”

“But don’t expect me to let go of any bad guys!”

“Peng Shanshan should be here soon. The truth will come to light then!” Oliver Walker spoke in a cold tone.

Zhang Weimin, who was originally very arrogant, was suddenly stunned!

What?

Wasn't Peng Shanshan out of town?

How could it be that she's still here?

This ...

Was it something that an ordinary person could do?

In his mind, Oliver Walker was just a piece of trash!

Wrong!

It wasn't just his own impression but the impression of most people in Colorado. This was the little puppy that Emilia had raised back in the days where she was still the proud daughter of Colorado!

Even though he had returned when Emili was in such a miserable state.....

Most people guessed that it was because Oliver Walker was doing even worse outside and so he wanted to come back.

After all, in Colorado, there was a silly woman who was willing to follow him!

If you don't do well outside, you can't even afford to find a prostitute!

"That's impossible!"

“You’re just trying to f*cking fool me!” Zhang Weimin shouted.

But the moment these words came out, it was completely considered as a confession that came without a serious beating needed!

It was obvious that there was a problem here!

Zhang Weimin wouldn’t be able to get away with this!

Oliver Walker already knew what was going on and so he ignored it. Instead, he took out his phone and made a call. “Where are they now?”

The war in Indiana had come to an end.

Even when he returned, there were no more conflicts.

Therefore, the number one God of War, Aiden Wilson, who had not returned for eight years, chose to return home to visit his family. Since Colorado happened to be on the way and his master encountered such a matter, he naturally took care of it!

Zhang Weimin was dumbfounded. Will this guy really bring Peng Shanshan back?

“Master!”

“I’m about to get off the plane!”

In the plane on the runway, Aiden Wilson was wearing the uniform of the war gods which was full of emblems that represented honour. “But, someone leaked the news. There are quite a number of people picking us up.”

“But I should be able to get there in ten minutes at most!”

“Alright, I’ll be waiting for your return!” Oliver Walker answered with a smile.

The war at the front line had finally stopped and it had also resolved one of his worries.

There was no need to sacrifice any more soldiers!

He could finally reunite with his family. That was the real good news!

” I really don’t understand why master would return to Colorado!”

After Aiden Wilson got off the plane, he shook his head. In fact, Colorado was considered a small town amongst the second-class cities.

Although he knew that his master’s wife was here, his master could have brought her to another city.

However, he didn’t know that every family had its own difficulties. If Emilia and Mary Grimm were the kind of women who were vain, they would definitely wish that Oliver Walker would have countless wealth.

They wouldn’t even ask where the money came from.

But, if Emilia was a woman of this sort, how could she be worth it for Oliver Walker, who was willing to put down his glory and return to the prosperity of the secular world?

“Reporting! First Wargod!”

“The upper-class people of Colorado are all waiting at the airport!”

“Should we?”

A soldier stood at attention and saluted, his eyes full of admiration!

They were waiting for the answer from this fierce general!

“Let’s go!”

Aiden Wilson nodded. “But, it’s best not to waste any time. Master is waiting to see me!”

Although he didn’t like to be ostentatious and extravagant, his master could hide his identity and do nothing for the rest of his life.

But as disciples, they couldn’t!!!

After all, they were the stabilizing force of the country. Their appearance in the eyes of the people was a sign that the war in Indiana had ended.

It was also an answer they were giving to the people of their nation!

Chapter 265 Micheal Davis Trying to Lure The VIP

“The first war god! It really is the first war god!”

“Is the war over?!”

“That’s great!”

“Who said it wasn’t!”

“...”

In the past, these upper-class people would hold a glass of red wine and sit in a luxurious clubhouse with a high and mighty attitude, judging the country.

If any of them felt unhappy, they would even let out a few vicious words.

But now, all of them were dressed in suits and leather shoes, standing at the intersection, waiting anxiously and humbly.

In fact, they really didn't care if the Indiana war ended or not.

The purpose of coming here was to see if they could connect with the first war god and pave the way for their businesses in the future.

A businessman must have a purpose with everything they do.

Those who truly cared about the people and the country were called entrepreneurs. They were different from ordinary businessmen.

Entrepreneurs may do businesses that would only benefit the people while businessmen would always do businesses that would bring them money.

There was a difference in their quality!

"The first war god has appeared!"

"He's so burly and tough!"

"He's been in Indiana for eight years. He's a real expert who climbed out of a pile of corpses!"

“Look at their sharp eyes!”

“...”

When Aiden Wilson passed through the road, there was an uproar amongst the crowd.

Due to his height of 1.9m, all of them had to raise their heads to look at him.

This was the first war god!

Suddenly, Micheal Davis, who was at the front, said excitedly, “Hello, Mr. Wilson, I am the current chairman of Davis Group. Would I have the privilege to set up a dinner party tomorrow to welcome you to Colorado?”

Everyone was stunned by his words!

Micheal Davis!

Such courage!

Who wouldn't want to be able to welcome the war god personally?!

Not only would it be a huge business opportunity behind this, it also brought a lot of deterrence!

The upper-class people didn't even dare to breathe loudly. They were extremely afraid when they saw Micheal Davis blocking the path of the first war god.

What would the first war god do?

He would definitely send Micheal Davis flying with a slap, right?

No.....

Just one look was enough to suffocate Micheal Davis.

After all, this man was the first war god of the country while the other man was only considered as a snake of Colorado.

The difference ...

One could really imagine the difference between them.

“Move!” Another man shouted,

“The commander is busy with official business and doesn’t have time to attend any parties!” The guard replied.

Aiden Wilson had told him that he had to meet the chaplain, who was also his teacher, as soon as possible. He could not waste too much time on the road.

Micheal Davis didn’t dare to get angry at all. He nodded and bowed as he took a few steps back.

He naturally had a reason for doing so.

The Davis Group was about to get listed.

If the first war god agreed to join them for the event, he would immediately announce this news at the banquet tomorrow.

It would definitely attract the attention of the world. At that time, with the first war god on the stage, Davis would definitely become the top company in the country!

Even if the first war god didn't pay attention to him, his appearance itself was enough to get the other top companies in the country to be interested in them!

They would definitely assume that the Davis Group was close with Aiden Wilson.

But unfortunately ...

He failed!

The upper-class people of Colorado also chuckled in their hearts.

Davis was nothing in front of Aiden Wilson and he still dared to dream of setting up a trap for the first war god?

Ahh.....this rejection was comforting to their hearts.

"Hold on!"

However, at this moment, Aiden Wilson waved his hand coldly and said, "You're Micheal Davis?"

"The Micheal Davis from the Davis family in Colorado? "

He didn't know this name in the past.

However, a few days before his master's return, when he investigated the situation of his master's family, he naturally found out a lot more information.

Even if his master and his wife didn't want to pursue the matter anymore ...

Chapter 266 Start The Show

However, the Davishad taken advantage of his master being away at the frontline and tortured his master's wife!

As Oliver Walker's disciple, he had to settle such debts, right?

"Yes...that's me."

Micheal Davis was extremely nervous. He didn't even dare to meet the eyes of the man standing right in front of him. He couldn't help but take a deep breath.

He had never offended the first war god before.

Moreover, at his level, he wouldn't have come into contact with the first war god, right?

However, how could he know that he had provoked the first war god's master and mistress instead of the first war god himself?

The upper-class people didn't show anything on their faces, but in fact, they were overjoyed.

If Davis went bankrupt because he offended the first war god, they would be able to gain a large piece of the market.

This was how businesses worked.

There were no friendships present, only schemes and deception!

At that moment, no one moved.

Michelle Davis was extremely nervous and his heart was in his throat!

He was feeling frightened.

He felt fear all over his body.

“Alright!”

The killing intent in Aiden Wilson’s eyes gradually faded. “I will but I only have ten minutes!”

“Also, don’t invite the media and do not use my name to hype up the event.”

He knew all too well what Micheal Davis wanted.

How could he be fooled?

Plus, he agreed to attend the dinner party for only ten minutes because that would have been enough for him to deal with Davis!

“Really ... Really?”

In that instant, Micheal Davis was dumbfounded!

The first war god had actually agreed!

He was ecstatic!

He was really overjoyed!

Even if he couldn't invite the media, even if he couldn't be world-famous, at least everyone in Colorado would know, right?

Leon Williams had targeted him a few times in the past. It was time to let him know Davis's power.

This was the pride of an established company!

The Davis had the power to invite an important person like the first war god!

Even if it was only for ten minutes, it was more than enough!

Aiden Wilson did not pay any more attention to anyone and went straight into his car!

After leaving the airport, he rushed to Qingya Gardens at full speed!

"Mr. Davis, congratulations!"

"Congratulations!"

"Davis is going to return to its peak!"

"..."

Originally, the group of people were waiting to see Davis make a fool of himself but then they became envious, jealous, and hateful!

However, no matter how envious, jealous, and hateful they were, they still had to put on a good show!

How much pride would that be that Micheal Davis had successfully invited the first war god?

However, no one had asked why the first war god had come to Colorado!

It was because even though his reputation was at the tip of the pyramid in this country, there were still important people he had to visit in this small city.

If this group of bootlickers knew about this, wouldn't it cause a commotion?

If only he knew that the master of Aiden Wilson was Oliver Walker ...

That's right. The man next to Emilia who was in such a miserable state that she had to pick up scraps for a living, wouldn't they all have to kneel on the ground, wash their necks clean, and wait for the guillotine to fall?

After all, there were many people who had bullied Emilia in the past but Oliver Walker had no intention of making a fuss about it!

"Hmph!"

The flattery smile disappeared from his face and all that's left was mockery and arrogance. "Davis will forever be Davis. It's not something that some nouveau riche can compare to!"

After saying that, he turned around proudly and left.

These people were no longer worthy of being his partners. They should all become his slaves!

This was human nature!

The group of people grind their teeth in hatred but there was nothing they could do. They could only smile and flatter because Davis was Colorado's future.

They also knew that the nouveau riche Michelle Davis was referring to was the richest man in Colorado in recent years, Leon Williams!

Inside the car.

“Where’s the woman that the master wants?” Aiden Wilson asked his men.

As the first war god, it was naturally impossible for him to personally capture an ordinary person.

That would be a degrading act!

Chapter 267 I Am a Good Citizen

“We’re already here at Qingya Gardens!” The guard replied.

“Nice!” Aiden Wilson nodded.

He naturally had his own reasons for agreeing to Micheal Davis’s request!

Otherwise, a small company like Davis would not have the qualifications to invite him!

At the elegant garden by the entrance of the community ...

There were three military JEVS parked there!

Amongst them were ten guards with loaded guns!

On their epaulettes were the eye-catching words ‘National Guard’ and there was even a flying dragon embroidered on it!

That's because.....

The totem of the country was a Dragon!

“Ah ...”

“You ...What are you guys doing?”

“What ... What crimes have I committed?”

“Why did you bring me here?”

“Are you going to shoot me to death?”

The chubby Peng Shanshan sat in the back seat with fear in her eyes!

What did she do?

Was there a need for the Army to arrest her?

Was it because she rented the place to more than one tenant?

How was that possible?

Just thinking about it made her feel ridiculous!

After all ...

It was impossible that Emilia had such powers right?

“Shut up!”

One of the soldiers shouted but did not give any other answer.

This was the woman whom the chaplain had personally given orders to arrest and she definitely wouldn't be a good person.

“Um ...”

Peng Shanshan broke out in a cold sweat and trembled in fear. All ten soldiers were exuding a murderous aura.

It was too terrifying!

It caused her to shudder in fear!

She gulped and her heart filled with fear as she waited anxiously.

“Squeak ...”

At this moment, the car finally stopped at the side of the road!

All ten soldiers got out of the car and saluted. “Commander!”

When the word ‘commander’ appeared, Peng Shanshan’s face turned as white as snow. She was so weak that she needed two soldiers to support her to remain on her feet.

One must know that in the entire country, there were only five great commanders in the entire army.

They were the five War gods!

The person in front of her was someone she had seen on television. He was the first war god, Aiden Wilson!

“Sir!!!”

“I ... I ... What crimes have I committed?”

“Even if you want to execute me, you should at least let me know what for!”

She wet her pants!

She got so scared that she peed her pants!

Peng Shanshan’s lips were turning purple. “I’m a good citizen!”

“I follow the traffic rules and I’m a law-abiding citizen,”

“I’ve never done anything wrong in my life!”

“...”

Aiden Wilson glared at Peng Shanshan and he was rendered speechless!

“I don’t have the final say on whether you are a good person or not!”

“Someone will deal with you later!” Aiden Wilson said in a deep voice.

“Take her away!”

After the military order was given, he walked toward the location that his master had given him.

Peng Shanshan was dumbfounded!

She ...

She had never been here!

Why did such a thing happen?

No...

It was wrong!

It seemed like Zhang Weimin lived here!

Could it be Zhang Weimin?

Her legs could no longer move. With the help of two soldiers, she entered the elevator like a soulless walking corpse!

Buzz buzz buzz ...

At that moment, her brain had already stopped working and all the only thing that was inside her head was the buzzing sound.

...

Inside the room!

“Oliver Walker, stop pretending!”

“Hurry ... Hurry up and let me go!”

Zhang Weimin grimaced in pain and shouted, “I ... I ... I’m also a victim. This has nothing to do with me!”

“You ...You’re committing a crime!”

Now.....

Every minute, every second.....

Was a torture to him!!

It was as if he was in the mouth of a volcano and each minute that passed felt like a year has happened.

Oliver Walker ignored him. He just sat there and looked at the time!

They should be here soon!

Clang...

At this moment, Aiden Wilson, who was dressed in a uniform, pushed open the door and walked in!

Zhang Weimin was dumbfounded!

He raised his head from the ground and looked up at the huge person that had just walked past him!

Chapter 268 I'll Tell The Truth!

When he saw his side profile of the man, he was in shock. "Sir..... the first war god?"

What was going on?

Why was Aiden Wilson alarmed?

Could it be that Oliver Walker found them?

No...

That was impossible!

Absolutely impossible!

Oliver Walker was just a rotten man that Emilia raised. How would he know the first war god?

He slowly turned around and saw the soldiers of the Imperial Army behind him. He was even more stunned!

Motherf*cker!

He really was the first war god!

He rolled his eyes and quickly cried and shouted, "I'm innocent!"

"Sir!!! I ... I'm innocent!"

“He ... He was a bully ... He even hit me!”

These were the National Guards!

It was an existence that protected them!

The first war god had returned triumphantly and would definitely do things for the people!

Therefore ...

As long as he cried miserably, Oliver Walker would definitely die in a way that’s even more miserable than him!

“Master!”

However, the next moment, Aiden Wilson stood in front of Oliver Walker and bowed respectfully!

After the word ‘master’ left his mouth, the entire room fell silent!

Peng Shanshan stopped messing around!

Zhang Weimin stopped crying!

Because they were all dumbfounded!

The first war god from Indiana actually called Oliver Walker his master?

This ...

Damn it!

What was going on?

“En!”

“How have you been?” Oliver Walker asked as he stood up.

He had returned home early and has not been paying attention to the news at the frontline.

“I’m fine!”

Aiden Wilson answered with a smile. “Ever since you returned with the military equipment on the border, the enemy has withdrawn from our borders!”

“The current situation is stable!”

This war had been fought without any declaration. So, there was naturally no need to sign any truce agreement!

The enemy had retreated, which meant that the war was over!

Oliver Walker, who had killed 100000 soldiers four years ago, had stuck his blood-stained and worn armour on the top of the mountain, intimidating their enemy. This man was his master!

The Chaplain of the Country!

“That’s great!”

Oliver Walker smiled faintly and said, “Once the war stops, then there will be peace. We can also be at peace!”

He had always been concerned about the frontline!

If the enemy launched another attack after he had left the frontline, he would definitely have to return to the battlefield!

It was all for the country and for their family!

Their country was more important than their own family!

Everything has its priorities!

“The woman.”

“I’ve brought her here. What do you think we should do with them?”

The next moment, Peng Shanshan was also carried in!

She squatted down next to Zhang Weimin. Her entire body was wood hard!

Who would believe it?

It was like a dream!

A person who became the first war god’s master would actually marry into the family of Emilia Davis?

He actually came to rent a place so that he could open a clinic?

This ...

This was so unbelievable that they wanted to curse out loud.

“Since everyone’s here, it’s time for you to explain yourselves.

“I don’t want to make things difficult for you but I won’t allow anyone to make things difficult for my wife as well.” Oliver Walker warned them in a cold tone.

In fact, there were many reasons why he wanted to open a clinic.

Even if it wasn’t for his wife, after the war, he would still choose to hide in the secular world and open a clinic. He would take in a few disciples, and promote traditional medicine.

He had inherited the ancestral teachings of the Tianyi Sect!

His first identity.....

Was a traditional medicine doctor.

Then, he was a teacher.

And last, he was a soldier.

“I’ll tell the truth!!!” Zhang Weimin panicked.

“Ah ... Pfft ...”

“It’s that damn bastard William Davis. He told me to do it!”

“He was the one who gave me the contract!”

Who was Davis in front of this man?!

They were merely ants!

So ...

He didn't dare to hide anything!

“I ... I ... I'm just a nobody ... I don't dare to disobey Davis!”

“You ... Please let me go!”

He was crying!

He had lost his mind!

He was so frightened that his soul left his body!

Chapter 269 Don't You Want To Give Her a Better Life?

William Davis?

William Davis again?

Oliver Walker did not get angry. Instead, he laughed!

It was indeed quite ridiculous, wasn't it?

“Me too!!!”

Peng Shanshan answered without asking and cried, “It’s all William Davis’s fault. He forced me to do this!”

“If I don’t do it, he ... He will kill me!”

“I was so scared!!!!”

“Huhuhu...”

Both the man and woman were crying harder and harder as if they were competing. Their cries rose from time to time.

Aiden Wilson’s face turned cold. It seemed like he had made the right choice.

Davis was really too despicable. They still hadn’t given up until today!

Oliver Walker got up and left the room without saying anything..

“Master!”

Aiden Wilson caught up with him and asked, “How should we deal with them?”

Regardless of whether they were forced or not, their crime was true. If they were not dealt with, it would not be justifiable.

Moreover, with his sharp senses, he could feel that these two guys might have been forced but they were definitely the kind of people who enjoyed being ‘forced’.

“You can deal with it however you want!”

After Oliver Walker got into the elevator, he said, “I’ll go to Davis tomorrow. There are some things that must be resolved.”

To be honest, for the sake of Emilia’s grandfather, he didn’t want to argue with Davis.

After all, he had taken great care of him and his wife when he was alive.

Now that he was going to question them, he felt that he had let Emilia’s grandfather down.

However, he had already warned them several times. Even a clay figurine would have a temper. He couldn’t possibly endure it again and again, right?

“Master!”

“Davis is hosting a dinner tomorrow night and has invited me!”

Aiden Wilson told the incident in detail. “By that time, the nobles of Colorado will all be there.”

“That’s why I thought that it would be the best time for me to visit him.”

Beating up Davis in front of everyone would serve as a warning.

It would bring the best effect.

If Davis still refused to come to his senses, there would only be destruction left.

After all, his master had done his best.

He has not done anything to disappoint the Davis family but on the contrary, they were the ones who exterminated his master's wife in every possible way.

Even he couldn't take it anymore.

"En!"

Oliver Walker nodded and said with a smile, "Tomorrow night it is then but don't waste any more time. Go back and visit your family."

"I'll take care of this myself."

He didn't want to trouble anyone.

Or rather, from the moment he left Indiana and returned to Colorado, he had planned to end things with his past.

This glory and honour was just a thing of the past. He had nothing to miss.

However, seeing that his disciples had already reached their peak, he was happy for them as their master.

He knew that Aiden Wilson was busy with military affairs and there was no need to delay.

"Yes!"

Aiden Wilson respected his master very much. Due to how he was slightly taller than his master, he would always bow down slightly to express his respect.

"But, aren't you going to give your wife a better life?"

As soon as these words were spoken, Oliver Walker lowered his head slightly. The night wind blew through his hair, making him stop, and a hint of struggle appeared on his face.

After realising his mistake, Aiden Wilson quickly apologised, "Master, I ... I didn't mean it that way, I just wanted to say ..."

"She's suffered quite a lot and so have you. Do you really want to stay in Colorado?"

In his opinion or in the eyes of his brothers and sisters, his master's choice was indeed thought-provoking.

After all, he could live a better life in a bustling city.

Oliver Walker shook his head. He knew what Aiden Wilson meant and he said, "It's not that I don't want to but she's more stubborn."

"There's nothing bad about this small place."

"Maybe Colorado will become another international metropolis of the country in the future?"

He only had a very simple thought in mind.

Chapter 270 Ten Minutes Is More Than Enough

Or rather, to him, it was home to him in every part of this country. Every inch of the country had his blood and sweat so it didn't matter where he lived.

However, it was different for his wife. This was her root.

Especially for his mother-in-law. She was old and definitely wouldn't want to leave this place where she had grown up.

“Of course!”

Eden Wilson nodded. Once those people knew that his master was staying here, Colorado would definitely develop rapidly. By then, the world’s top 500 companies would definitely fight to take root in Colorado.

There was no other reason. It was because his master’s name was Oliver Walker!

“Secondly, to me, fame has long been a fleeting dream. I no longer pursue it.”

“Is there any honor that I haven’t received?” Oliver Walker laughed.

His disciples had all become famous personnel in the country!

They were in the army, the medical world, and even the business world. He only knew so much and had taught everything that needed to be taught. Now, he only needed to fight for his dream.

If anyone else heard this, they would definitely sneer at him!

However, to Aiden Wilson, this was something respectable.

Was there anyone in the country who were important personnel or anyone of the powerhouses who managed to develop overseas wouldn’t bow their heads and call Oliver Walker their ‘teacher’ respectfully?

Perhaps only the five gods of war, the six divine doctors, and the eight wealthiest entrepreneurs were his direct disciples.

However, almost everyone with wealth or status had received guidance from their master.

So ...

Other than living in seclusion in the city and doing what he wanted to do, what else did he have to pursue?

There was a world of difference between the nouveau riche and those who were truly wealthy.

The nouveau riche would always show his excellence in every detail, whether it was in his speech or his personal qualities. He was afraid that others would not know that he was rich and powerful.

He had a domineering personality!

However, the truly wealthy families would settle down. They no longer needed to show off their wealth to prove their status because everyone knew about their reputation.

Oliver Walker alone was the biggest powerhouse in the country!

He was already famous all over the world. Those who didn't know could only say that they didn't deserve to know!

"Alright!"

"Master, I'll go home first!" Aiden Wilson bowed.

As for Davis's invitation, what did it mean to him?

It wasn't that he didn't keep his word but Davis himself had ill intentions. He only wanted to borrow his prestigious appearance to satisfy his own vanity.

Therefore, there was no need to pay attention to them!

Oliver Walker nodded and took out a cigarette. After lighting it, he called his wife and said, "Honey, everything's done. It's all a misunderstanding."

"Alright!"

"I'll be back soon!"

...

The Davis Mansion was brightly lit!

"The first war god?! Would he really be here for the banquet?!"

William Davis said in surprise, "That's great, now the whole world knows about Davis. No one would dare to challenge us!"

Jessica Wright Davis also quickly chimed in, "To be able to form a relationship with the first war god, we will then become the richest and the most powerful people in this country!"

At this moment....

They were surprised!

Ecstatic!

Proud!

This brother and sister pair had been carried away and had long forgotten who they were.

"Yes yes!"

Micheal Davis could not help but smile and nodded. "The first war god is willing to grace us with his presence. It is the greatest honor for us, Davis."

"Although it's only for ten minutes, it's enough."

"You must set up the banquet quickly. It must be at the most prosperous five-star hotel in Colorado. We will be reserving the entire place for the banquet."

"Hahaha ..."

He was over the moon!

Definitely floating in space by now.

Who wouldn't be overjoyed by such a joyous occasion?

"Dad!"

William Davis's mouth curved into a sinister smile. "I have a good idea. Since the first war god will only be here for 10 minutes, why don't we get Emilia to come over? "

"To witness the prosperity of our family?"
