Chapter 271 Torturing The Mind Works Best

What the Davis Corporates had now was definitely because of what Emilia had done.

In the eight years she was gone, they have made no progress and even Leon Williams managed to surpass them.

As a result, Micheal Davis had no choice but to make it a public limited company in order to get more capital.

What would Emilia think if she saw that the company that she grew was about to go listed and become part of another giant business empire?

Wouldn't it make her heart ache even more?

“Brother!”

Jessica Wright Davis said, “That’s a good idea, it’s a deadly move!”

However, the living room turned silent instantly!

Micheal Davis’s face turned cold and he reprimanded them in a disappointed tone, “Why do you guys always have to compare yourselves to Emilia?”

“She’s nothing but a loser. Do you only find a sense of achievement from the losers?”

“You should look forward instead of backwards!”

If his children were half as good as Emilia, the Davis Group wouldn't have fallen to such a miserable state, right?

He was actually overtaken by Leon Williams, who had steadily suppressed him. In the end, he had no choice but to go public, sell his shares, and exchange them for operating funds.

Perhaps there may be other small companies who have aimed to go public since their establishment so that they could scam the public for money and leave.

But ...

The Davis Corporate was an established company!

It was the reason why Davis had such a strong foothold in Colorado!

Going public now was because they were desperate!

It would be embarrassing if word got out!

Jessica Wright Davis was silent. After all, she didn't dare to speak.

William Davis, on the other hand, unwillingly said, "Father, you don't know how evil that damned Emilia and Oliver Walker are."

"It's simply making one's teeth itch with hatred!"

"Just ..."

Micheal Davis shouted, "Shut up, you shameless thing!"

In the living room ...

It was once again filled with silence.

William Davis didn't have the courage to speak anymore. He could only lower his head, full of resentment.

He just wanted to suppress Emilia to the depths of hell. He would only be able to vent all his anger by making sure that Emilia had no intentions of returning to the business world.

"We have the support of the first war god now. Within Colorado, there will definitely be no one else who would dare to make a move on us."

"Let her come if she wants to."

"But if she doesn't come before eight, do not let her enter."

This was because after 8 O'clock, the first war god will make his appearance!

At the end of the day, Micheal Davis still doted on his son.

After all, his brother, Isaac Davis, was only kicked out of the company because he did not have a son. Micheal Davis was able to control Davis now because he had a son.

Therefore, everything else was fixed and there was nothing that could scare him now.

As long as he didn't embarrass himself by offending the first war god, everything would be fine.

He could also use Emilia to establish his authority and serve as a warning to others.

"Thank you, dad!"

“Thank you, father!”

The siblings, William Davis and Jessica Wright Davis, were overjoyed when they heard their father agreed with them.

After all, Emilia was a nightmare that lived in their hearts.

If they didn't ruthlessly step on her, they would never be able to let go of the obsession in his heart.

After Micheal Davis left, William Davis couldn't wait to make a phone call and his face was full of pride.

From today onwards, he would be able to completely eliminate his inner demons!

When Emilia saw the caller ID, she was slightly stunned because she remembered that it was William Davis's number.

She didn't want to answer it but ...

Could it be because of the clinic?

After thinking for a moment, she finally answered the phone after the last ring. “What is it?”

No matter how bad of a state she was in, she would still hold her head up high while speaking to them.

This was because she had never let down the company, nor had she let down her grandfather, who had pampered her so much.

“Davis Group is going to be listed!”

William Davis's mouth curled into an evil smile.

He knew that this would be a huge blow to the person on the other end of the phone.

And in fact, it was indeed so!

After hearing the news, Emilia's expression froze and her heart was filled with complicated emotions. However, she still pretended to be calm and replied, "Does it have anything to do with me?"

Chapter 272 A Bustling Night

Getting the company listed was the last resort.

She had never expected that after she left, Davis Group would fall to such a state!

But it was indeed none of her business!

It had been eight years!

It had been eight long years!

She had already let go of what she had!

"Hmph!"

William Davis was not satisfied with the calm voice from the other end of the phone and then he said angrily, "How can it not be related to you?"

"The Davis Corporation. You're the one who made it the top company in Colorado!"

“Don’t you have anything to say about it now that’s it going to be listed?”

It should be noted that such words were extremely shameless!

Was this any different from him sprinkling salt on her wound?

A dejected expression streaked across Emilia’s pretty face. She had a lot to say from the bottom of her heart but she forcefully swallowed them back in the end.

“I no longer have anything to do with Davis and the Davis Group, so don’t bother me anymore,” she said.

She had indeed let go of all these things.

Although their current life was a little poor, Oliver Walker was back and there was still hope for the future.

“You ...”

William Davis, who wanted to show off, didn’t expect the tone on the other end of the phone to be so calm. He then raged, “If you don’t show up at seven o’clock, I’ll get someone to kill that wild dog!”

“You can try and challenge me for it!”

The shameless William Davis wouldn’t be satisfied until he saw how disheartened Emilia would be.

Therefore, he had to force her into a dead end!

“You ...”

Emilia's already restless heart was once again stirred up and she started burning with rage. "How can you be so despicable?"

She believed that with William Davis's character, he was definitely someone who would keep his words.

Moreover, he had suffered such a huge loss at the hands of Oliver Walker.

He definitely wouldn't let this matter rest.

She also knew that he would not just ask her to go tomorrow night to mock her. There must be something even worse.

"Hahaha ..."

"You're gettin nervous!"

"You became anxious when I thought you would be as steady as an old dog!"

"I never thought that a wild dog would be so important to you!"

William Davis was excited and it reached its peak. "Listen up, tomorrow night, seven o'clock, at the Colorado Hotel. If you're late, I'll throw the body of that wild dog in the streets."

When he was done, he didn't give Emilia any chance to speak and directly hung up the phone.

The viciousness in his eyes was like a sharp dagger.

"Hahaha ..."

Jessica Wright Davis laughed and said, "Brother, you're amazing!"

“From the moment she went against us, her fate was already decided,” William Davis said coldly.

“Tomorrow night ...”

“I’m going to teach her a lesson!”

That’s right!

Colorado would definitely be bustling tomorrow!

After all, the first war God’s arrival was a huge honor.

However, he didn’t know that the first war god had left Colorado and returned home to reunite with his family that he hadn’t seen in eight years.

As for tomorrow night, it would indeed be very exciting.

But ...

It wasn’t the kind of brilliance that he fantasised about in his mind!

“Honey, I’m back!”

At this moment, Oliver Walker entered the house and said happily, “That shop will be ours tomorrow.”

He had thought that his wife would be very happy when he told her the news.

But ...

Emilia did smile but she was forcing it. "It's ... Is that so?"

She had so many things on her mind that she had no energy to ask her husband how he had resolved it.

William Davis's threat to her was a fatal injury!

A trace of grief appeared in her beautiful eyes. It was the grief of being controlled and unable to resist ...

Chapter 273 Something Worth Mentioning

"You ..."

"What's wrong?"

At a glance, Oliver Walker could tell that his wife looked worried and he immediately frowned.

Shouldn't she be happy that she got the place?

Why did it turn out this way?

"I'm not ... It's nothing!"

Emilia tried her best to smile, to control the emotions in her heart.

Ever since her husband had returned, he had been the one taking care of the family.

William Davis, that despicable villain, was definitely a ruthless man. After suffering such a big loss at the hands of her husband, it was possible that he would hire an assassin to kill her husband.

William Davis had threatened her in such a way to embarrass her. If she went, the worst thing that could happen was her getting humiliated

However, if she didn't go ...

Her husband's life would be in danger.

Although she knew that her husband was someone capable, it might be easy to hide from a public enemy but not so much a hidden arrow.

Everyone had times when they were careless. Not to mention that no matter how strong one person was, could he be stronger than an entire company?

Plus, the Davises were an established company in Colorado.

So, she had already made a silent decision. No matter what, she would not let anything happen to her husband.

She ...

She would even ask Ma'am Davis for an explanation. After all, William Davis had only suppressed her in the past but now he was about to kill them in broad daylight.

Could it be that Ma'am Davis was really going to ignore it?

She didn't care about Davis's property!

She only wanted her family to be safe and sound!

"Honey, you have to tell me if there's anything. I may be stronger than what you think." Oliver Walker frowned as he said to Emilia.

He had the urge to lay his cards on the table.

However, every time he thought about how his wife would react after hearing only the tip of the iceberg about his identity.

In fact, he ...

He felt helpless as well.

“En!”

“I will!” Emilia smiled sweetly.

She had already made up her mind and would not change it easily.

She couldn't put everything on her husband.

It was a public banquet held by Davis tomorrow. No matter how much William Davis hated her, he wouldn't do something like murder.

The only thing that would happen...

She would most likely be embarrassed in public.

That would be the worst.

How could this 'small matter' be compared to her husband's life?

She ...

She was used to William Davis's shamelessness and Jessica Wright Davis's ruthlessness!

As well as the viciousness of Micheal Davis!

Seeing his wife's beautiful figure walk back into her room, different thoughts naturally appeared in Oliver Walker's mind. He then took out his mobile phone, dialed a number, and said coldly, "Find out who contacted my wife this afternoon, including her phone call!"

The authorities that he had in his hands were unimaginable.

Plus, all the phone calls would be recorded as well.

So ...

Aiden Wilson frowned as he said, "Master, other than you, only one person called her in the past five minutes."

"The Skynet system showed that your wife did not leave the house in the afternoon."

"Who is that?" Oliver Walker asked coldly.

It was clear now that there was something wrong with that phone call.

Peng Shanshan and Zhang Weimin were already caught. Judging from Aiden Wilson's style, he would not let them off easily.

Therefore, they had no chance to threaten his wife!

"William Davis!"

When this name appeared ...

Oliver Walker's eyes became colder and colder. He clenched his fists and made cracking sounds. "It's him again?"

Great!

It was indeed the best.

Honestly, because of the kindness that Emilia's grandfather had shown in the earlier days, he has had mercy on the Davis Corporates.

But ...

He had never expected William Davis to play such despicable tricks again and again!

He was indeed quite bold!

Aiden Wilson said hesitantly, " Actually, there's one more thing. Micheal Davis invited me to attend tomorrow's dinner and according to what we know, he plans to use me as a show and then announce the listing of Davis Group."

Aiden Wilson didn't mention this earlier because it wasn't worth mentioning.

Chapter 274 Visiting Someone Important

But now that his master was angry, this was no doubt a good opportunity if his master wanted to give them one good blow now!

So ...

“Alright!”

“Inform Luke Adams to clear out the company as soon as it goes public. I want all the shares that they are selling.” Oliver Walker spoke in a cold tone.

He had indeed had enough!

Davis! it was time to pay the price!

You shouldn't always bully those who are honest and kind!

He was never a kind person, he just didn't want to argue with Davis.

But ...

He couldn't bear it anymore!

Davis was about to face a storm of revenge.

He really hoped that they could hold on for a little longer. If it ended early, it would be boring.

“Understood!”

Aiden Wilson knew that his master was now filled with rage. Otherwise, he would not have used Luke Adams!

This was one of his juniors. He wasn't a student of Oliver Walker in medicine or martial arts but a businessman.

The Penghai group was one of the richest companies in the country and it was one of the top 500 companies in the world.

In front of Luke Adams, the Davis Corporation was even more tender than a newborn baby!

How much hatred did his master, who had always been calm, have against Davis that he was willing to use a bazooka to kill a mosquito?

It could only be said that Colorado was about to change!

“Since you want to play, then I’ll accompany you to the end!”

The reason why Oliver Walker did this was to seek justice for his wife.

As for the clinic, he would take his time to deal with it but before that, this was more important!

The Davis was the one who forced him to do so.

The next morning, there were only 2 of them left inside the living room of the Davis Mansion.

Micheal Davis said, “The group is going to be listed. Go and burn some joss paper for the old man. I hope that his spirit in heaven will bless us and everything will go smoothly!”

In fact, he didn’t do much research before getting listed.

If he had not been forced to this point by Leon Williams, he would not have made such a reckless decision.

“Dad!”

“You can relax!” William Davis said with a smile.

“We have the support of the first war god. Who would dare to go against us?”

“As long as it’s listed, I’m sure we’ll make a lot of money!”

He had a simple mind which was why he could make a solemn vow.

After all, in addition to their peers, there were also capital predators.

Although Davis wasn’t a major company of the country...

No matter how small a mosquito was, it was still meat!

There would always be someone who would want to invest in them!

“I hope so!”

Micheal Davis nodded. Then, he smiled and said, “The best decision I’ve made was to risk my life and invite the first war god!

“Let’s go!”

A moment later, a high-end Mercedes-Benz S350 drove out of the Davis compound, followed by a few black cars in which the bodyguards were in.

Even if they were only paying a visit to the grave, they still pulled out the most extravagant act.

After all, all businessmen believed in this!

Crouching Dragon Mountain was surrounded by mountains and rivers. The scenery was beautiful and it was the graveyard which had the best Feng Shui in Colorado.

The people who could be buried here were either rich or noble!

Most importantly, it costed a bomb to be buried here and it was incredibly difficult for one to get a place here.

In front of a tombstone in the shape of a villa, there was a man on his knees, with two bottles of wine in his hands. These were not for sale but only for the reception of state banquets!

On normal occasions, only a small number of people would be able to get their hands on these wine.

“Grandpa!”

“I’m back!”

That man.....

It was Oliver Walker, who had a pained expression on his face. After placing the wine glasses on the table, he sat on the ground and said, “Please forgive me for not being able to rush back to attend your funeral.”

“I’ve prepared two bottles of wine today and I’m here to ask for your forgiveness,”

“Of course, I would still be doing certain things which may make you feel unhappy but...”

“For Emilia, I have no other choice.”

Oliver Walker was being incredibly sincere. Indeed, he had long wanted to come and sweep his grandfather’s grave.

After all, in the entire family, other than his mother-in-law and wife, he was the one who treated Oliver Walker with kindness.

When his grandfather had passed away, he was still fighting anxiously on the front line.

But now ...

He had returned but ...

It was too late!

Chapter 275 My Grandfather!

It was regretful and for some regrets, once it happened, it would be there for a lifetime!

Take this for an example. Oliver Walker didn't get to see his grandfather for the last time before he died. He felt extremely guilty because of it.

Therefore, there were tears in his eyes!

"Grandpa!"

"This is a toast for you. I hope you can forgive my unfilial behaviour!"

Oliver Walker looked at the old man on the tombstone with a kind smile and drank the wine in his glass in one go.

Although he was only a son-in-law who married into Davis's family, he had never considered himself an outsider.

This was especially so for Emilia's grandfather, who was also an important reason why he chose to remain silent after his return. This was why he was unwilling to lay his hands on Davis several times.

"But don't worry, I won't break it till it collapses!"

"I'm sure that's not what you want to see!"

"But if I don't change the person in charge, I'm afraid I won't be able to control myself one day."

"You know my temper. Davis's property will only remain in the hands of those from the Davis family."

"Emilia was your most beloved granddaughter when you were alive. I believe you won't have any objections, right? "

He, who was guarding in front of the gravestone, muttered to himself with a bitter smile. He even paused for a moment, hoping to get a response.

But ...

The old man had already left, so how could he possibly answer?

"After this is over, I'll come back to you and ask for your forgiveness. I hope that your old spirit in heaven won't blame Emilia if we've done anything that'll piss you off."

"She doesn't know what I'm doing and she doesn't want me to do it."

"If you want someone to be punished, you can punish me."

After another moment of silence, Oliver Walker stood up with a self-deprecating smile.

He had always valued relationships and loyalty, but in the end, he had been forced to this extent.

He didn't even know if he was doing the right thing!

But no matter what, since he had already made his decision, there would be no changes.

"Grandpa, I'll drink first!"

"Take your time. I'll bring Emilia and Olivia to visit you next time!

"Gulp gulp gulp ..."

After gulping down a bottle of wine, Oliver Walker turned around. The taxi did not have the authority to enter the cemetery so it was still parked outside waiting.

He still needed to walk some distance!

"Mr. Walker, you should leave quickly!"

"I just received a call. Micheal Davis is also here to visit the grave."

"If he sees this, I ... I will definitely ..."

The caretaker of the graveyard smiled bitterly as he pleaded.

If it wasn't for the money, he wouldn't have dared to let this person in.

Although he didn't finish his sentence, the fear in his eyes already said it all!

Oliver Walker took out a check and said, "Take good care of my grandfather. Don't let him suffer!"

Then, he turned around and left!

When the manager saw the number on the check, he was shocked!

Oliver Walker had already given him a thousand yuan in cash when he first arrived at the grave.

And now, Oliver Walker had just given him a check of a million yuan!!

His hands were shaking as he nodded and bowed in excitement. "Mr. Walker, please don't worry. From now on, I will treat Mr Davis as my own grandfather!"

"No..."

"I will treat him better than I treat myself. If you have the time, please come back and visit him."

This was a million Yuan!

For someone like him who dealt with dead people all day long, his pay was considered adequate but with a monthly salary of ten thousand Yuan would require eight to nine years of hard work to save up a million Yuan!

He really did not know why Oliver Walker, who was kicked out of Davis, would be so generous.

It was simply ...

He was stunned!

With such reward, he couldn't wait for Oliver Walker to come every day!

Forget about referring to Mr Davis as his grandfather, he didn't mind it if he had to call Oliver Walker his father!

"You ... No... No, no..."

"Grandpa, take care!"

The man bowed and nodded repeatedly at Oliver Walker's back. He was so pleased with himself that he had forgotten his manners.

He held the check in his hand like it was a treasure and kept it in his arms but he forgot that the two bottles of National Wine in front of the tombstone had not been packed.

At the exit of the cemetery ...

Just as Oliver Walker was about to get into a car and leave, Micheal Davis's fleet of cars drove in slowly ...

Chapter 276 How Dare You Show Yourself Here!

"Wait ... Wait ..."

William Davis had sharp eyes. After seeing Oliver Walker, he quickly asked the driver to stop the car. Then, he got out of the car and shouted angrily, "Wild dog, it's you!"

"Who asked you to come?"

He was furious!

He had already informed the Crouching Dragon Mountain Cemetery not to let anyone other than Davis visit the tomb. Why did this happen?

“I’m here to see Grandpa. What does it have to do with you?”

“Impudent!” William Davis shouted.

“That’s my grandfather. When did he become your grandfather? ”

“Ever since Emilia has been kicked out of the Davis family, what rights do you have to call him your Grandfather?!”

Perhaps it was because he had suffered so much because of Oliver Walker that as soon as he saw him, William Davis would be furious and his emotions would be completely out of control!

“You should be glad that I’m still willing to call him Grandpa!”

Oliver Walker glared at him coldly with his sharp eyes. “Otherwise, you don’t even have the right to talk to me!”

Not only did he not have the right to speak?

Without this connection, William Davis would have been killed countless times by Oliver Walker for what he had done.

Why would the Davis family still exist?

“Hmph!”

At that moment, Micheal Davis also got out of the car and said contemptuously, “You’re too arrogant. You’ll pay the price!”

He couldn’t understand how this fellow could make his children suffer.

However, he didn't take it to heart. After all, to him, Emilia was a tigress who had lost her teeth. She was no longer a threat.

As for his children, the main reason they were brooding over it was because of the obsession in their hearts.

It was all Emilia's fault for never bowing down to the company!

However, if she did, then she would no longer be Emilia that they knew!

"Well..."

Oliver Walker paused for a moment before he got into the car and said, "Let's wait and see!"

Since he had decided to make a move, he would not be soft-hearted anymore. He would definitely hurt Davis, especially Micheal Davis's family!

"Sir, let's go."

He had completely ignored the William and Micheal Davis!

We'll meet!

But when they met again, he would not be like this!

"Fanatic!"

"Impudent!"

Micheal Davis looked at the departing taxi and angrily rebuked, "I'd like to see what storm you can bring to us."

William Davis also gritted his teeth and shouted, "You will pay the price!"

Vicious words?

What kind of ruthless people had Oliver Walker not seen?

Why would he care about such harsh words?

Micheal Davis's face was gloomy as she said, "Forget it. It's a good day today. Don't let it affect your mood!"

"Let's go to your grandfather's grave!"

Before Oliver Walker left, the Crouching Dragon Mountain graveyard was clear and sunny but after the car left ...

Dark clouds covered the sky and strong winds blew!

Not long after ...

It was accompanied by rumbling thunder and lightning!

Perhaps the old master Davis found it difficult to rest in peace in the netherworld and after seeing his unfilial descendants, he was furious.

This was because when he was alive, he hated most when there was internal strife in the company.

He didn't expect that after his death, it would turn out like this!

However, Micheal Davis and William Davis didn't take it seriously. They went to the tombstone after the bodyguards held up the umbrella.

"Motherf*cker!"

"This wild dog actually dares to use this low-quality wine that doesn't even have a brand to it! How dare he?!"

William Davis cursed in a fit of rage. He then raised his leg and kicked the empty bottle over. "Bring the Maotai here. Don't piss off my grandfather!"

After he finished speaking, he prepared to kick the other bottle of wine.

However, at this moment, the sharp-eyed Micheal Davis hurriedly stepped forward and shouted, "Hold on!"

"You can't kick these bottles!"

He was fortunate enough to have seen the National Wine collection once!

However, it was an empty bottle. It looked ordinary on the surface but it was exactly the same as the wine bottle in front of him.

He immediately squatted down and the look on his face changed...

Chapter 277 The Harsh Truth

National Wine!

This seemingly ordinary bottle was the National Wine!

The reason why it kept a low profile was because it had a great relationship with the people it needed to serve.

After all, they were important people in the country. Was it really appropriate for him to be impetuous?

No packaging did not mean that it was really ordinary!

Instead, it gave off a sign of steadiness!

“Dad, isn’t it just a cheap bottle of wine?”

William Davis frowned in confusion and said, “Look, there’s no logo on it. It’s either a five-Yuan cheap wine or at best a ten yuan champagne.”

Forget about William Davis, even the bodyguards were dumbfounded!

Wasn’t this just an ordinary bottle of white wine?

What could be so strange about it?

“You, what do you know?”

Michael Davis put the empty bottle to his nose and sniffed it. He felt that the strong aroma of the wine was refreshing. It was completely different from those low-quality wines. Then, he said with a complicated expression on his face, “This ... This is indeed the National Wine!”

Everyone present was stunned by his words.

National Wine?

Are you kidding me?

In Colorado, who else was worthy of drinking the National Wine?

Could it be ...

Oliver Walker?

Oliver Walker who just left in a taxi?

No!

That was impossible!

That was impossible!

William Davis had an extremely ugly look on his face. A person who could drink the National Wine must at least be travelling in an L5, which was known as the National Car, right?

How could he have fallen to the point of taking a taxi?

Thunder --

With a sudden clap of thunder, a strong wind blew and the temperature dropped a lot!

In an instant, heavy rain poured down!

The atmosphere became much gloomier!

Perhaps this rain was the tears of the old master!

After all ...

Oliver Walker had already informed him!

The man who guarded the cemetery stood by the side was extremely frightened and his expression was aghast.

He was head over heels earlier. How could he have forgotten about this because of that million Yuan check?

“Speak!”

Micheal Davis’s face was even gloomier than the stormy day. “Who else came to visit the old master?”
If it was really Oliver Walker, they would be in big trouble!

Especially on this day where the company was about to get listed. Why wouldn’t they be worried?!

What was Davis compared to a VIP who could drink the National Wine?

He was trying hard to recall ...

Oliver Walker, who was standing next to the car earlier, seemed to smell the same as this alcohol.

But, he was so angry back then that he didn’t think of it!

Now that he recalled it, he was about to go crazy!!”

“Dai ... Lord Davis ... I ... I don’t know!”

The man was on the verge of tears. How dare he say anything else?

That would be courting death!

Therefore ...

“Bastard!”

Micheal Davis roared madly, “My father’s grave is here. Every month, we paid tens of thousands of management fees and now you’re telling me you don’t know?”

“What were you doing?”

He didn’t dare to think about it!

He didn’t have the guts to think about it any further!

It was because it was creepy and too f*cking terrifying!

If it was really Oliver Walker, forget about his identity, why was he here at the graveyard?

This was too f*cking puzzling!

Micheal Davis was going to die!

He really felt as if he was going to die!

His heart was like an ant on a hot pan; anxious and restless!

The caretaker of the graveyard did not dare to speak after being berated. He could only kneel on the ground with a loud thud and put on a sorrowful face.

Or else ...

What else could he do?

Pitter Patter --

Raindrops the size of beans rained down on the ground!

They continued hitting the tombstone!

The smile on the old man's photo was still there but it looked particularly strange in this gloomy atmosphere!

"Dad!"

Micheal Davis knew that he wouldn't be able to get anything out of him. However, he still knelt in front of the tombstone and cried out in fear, "I ... I ... I was wrong!"

"I shouldn't have let the doctor who performed the C-section on my sister-in-law take out her uterus for my own benefit!"

Chapter 278 Guilty as Charged

"Dad!"

“I’m guilty!”

“ ...”

As the saying goes, ‘if you do things right and be on the right path, you will not be afraid of ghosts knocking on your door in the middle of the night!’

But he ...

He was guilty!

Mary Grimm’s massive bleeding when she gave birth to Emilia wasn’t an accident!

Instead, he bribed the doctor and secretly did something in order to obtain the company’s inheritance and gain absolute initiative!

Otherwise, he would not be where he was today.

He had kept this secret in his heart for many years and had never mentioned it to anyone.

So ...

Everyone was shocked by his words!

So.....

That;s what happened that year!

Such a thing had happened?!

As expected, this man was ruthless!

When born in a wealthy family, even blood brothers would kill each other!

However, no one dared to say a word!

Even William Davis was dumbfounded!

This ...

If Ma'am Davis found out about it, then ... How terrible would that be?

However, things have already happened and now.....

There shouldn't be any problem left, right?

"But I only did it for the sake of the company!

"As for big brother, you clearly know what kind of person he is!"

"No matter how outstanding Emilia is, she's still just a girl. If she were to become the head of the family, then it would no longer belong to the Davis family. It would belong to the Walker!"

After a brief moment of repentance, Michelle Davis wailed again, "Father, please bless us. The company's listing this time concerns the life and death of the company!"

"Please consider the big picture!"

The summer storm came and went quickly ...

The rain was over and the sky was clear!

The oppressive feeling brought by the dark sky also disappeared!

“Dad!”

Just then, William Davis said, “Grandpa ... When he was alive, he had friends everywhere!”

“Plus, the first war god is now in Colorado!”

“Could it be ...”

He didn’t finish his bold guess because it was something too much for them to comprehend!

This assumption also gave Micheal Davis a new idea: “You ... Are you saying that this wine was brought by the first war god?”

William Davis nodded his head vigorously!

In fact ...

Not only was this possible, there was a high chance that this was the truth!

After all, the man who looked after the graveyard didn’t see who brought the National Wine.

On second thought, as the first God of War, Aiden Wilson, who had made outstanding contributions, how could he not have a chance to drink the National Wine?

The old man loved to do good in his past life. Perhaps he had helped the first war god before he became famous?

Otherwise, why would the first war god agree to attend Davis's dinner?

"That must be it!"

William Davis said with certainty, "Dad, let's stop worrying about it!"

"Oliver Walker is just a wild dog. Is he worthy of the National Wine?"

"He isn't!"

"He's probably here to ask for grandpa's protection!"

Let's give him a way out!"

Micheal Davis's eyes flickered continuously!

Although his son was a useless man at most times, his analysis this time was reasonable and even he couldn't find any flaws!

"That bastard must have drunk the wine that the first war god gave to the old man!" Micheal Davis roared in rage!

"Otherwise, how dare he act so unyielding in front of me?!"

The wine gave him courage!

No matter what kind of coward a man might be, after downing half a bottle of wine, it was guaranteed that he would be able to fight against the heavens!

This was not surprising!

But, the pitiful man will never know that the first war god had already left Colorado!

As for the other man, he knew who had given Master Davis the two bottles of wine but ...

However, he couldn't open his mouth right now.

Or else ...

He would die without a doubt!

It was too f*cking scary!

Should I tell Oliver Walker about this shocking news?

After all, he had offered a million Yuan. This important piece of information would definitely not be cheap!

"Dad!"

William Davis said with a gloomy face, "I promise that I'll force Amelia to commit suicide tonight to atone for her sins. Then, I'll f*cking kill Oliver Walker!"

"This adulterous couple, they will not be able to get away with this!"

Chapter 279 Despicable Me

Oliver Walker and Emilia were despicable.

They would always create some scary aura which causes others to panic!

If his heart wasn't in good condition, he would definitely be sent to the hospital for emergency treatment.

Even now that he had thought it through, he still had a lingering fear!

"Motherf*cker!"

"We can't let him get away with it so easily!"

Michelle Davis stood up with a cold face. Her pants were wet from kneeling in the rain!

There was also a water droplet dripping from his crotch. He didn't know if it was the rain or if he had peed himself.

In short, he was trying his best to maintain his rationality, but even so, he still cursed in public, "I promise I'll kill all of you if you dare to tell anyone about what happened just now!"

In fact, his words were mainly directed at the man who was in charge for this cemetery!

After all, the people who could be his bodyguards were definitely his trusted aides!

Even if the word spread, with Isaac Davis and Mary Grimm's current abilities, they was nothing that they could do to him.

But ...

His reputation would be ruined!

As the head of the Davis family, he cared about his reputation the most. Even if it was only on the surface, he had to put on a show.

As for that bottle of National Wine that had not been open, they took it away as well!

Could a dead person drink?

But with him, he would be able to serve it to his distinguish guest and put up an act.

“Yes!”

With more than ten bodyguards bending over at the same time, who would dare to disclose that matter?

Wasn't that courting death?

In fact, the two bottles of National Wine were not only Oliver Walker's kind intentions for his grandfather but also a signal to Davis.

After all ...

He didn't want his grandfather in the netherworld to suffer!

However, the self-conceited Micheal Davis and William Davis had perfectly chosen the correct answer and did not realize the seriousness of the matter.

They were still thinking about how to suppress Emilia at the banquet!

Along with how to deal with Oliver Walker.

...

Xinhe District!

Back At home!

For the entire day, Emilia was on tenterhooks. However, she kept her mouth shut and did not say anything in order not to worry Oliver Walker.

When it was six O'clock in the evening, she pretended to take out her phone and answered the call, "Huh ...?"

"Shopping?"

"Sure... Alright then!"

Oliver Walker's heart suddenly ached. He clearly knew that his wife was being threatened but she didn't want him to know about it.

Although this kind of silent sacrifice was stupid, it did indeed reflect that his wife loved him!

"Hubby!"

Emilia smiled sweetly and concealed the bitterness in her heart. She said in her most perfect form, "Luna Thomas wants me to go shopping with her. You stay at home and look after Olivia, alright?!"

This may not be the best reason but she believed that with her husband's character, he would never suspect her.

“Why don’t we let our mother look after Olivia? I’ll go with you.”

Emilia pouted playfully and replied nonchalantly, “Only women are allowed. You’re a man, don’t you think that you’ll be interfering with us?”

“I’m leaving. I promise I’ll be back soon!”

In fact, she did not know if she could come back earlier. After all, by the time she reached the Colorado Hotel, the Davis Company would have the final say. She ...

What was that?

She was just the meat left on the slaughter table!

Looking at his wife’s beautiful figure, Oliver Walker’s heart was undoubtedly pierced!

The Davis family.....

Was indeed hateful!

“Where’s Emilia?”

Suddenly, Mary Grimm came out and she was confused when she didn’t see her daughter.

After all, ever since the misunderstandings had been resolved, her son-in-law and daughter have been inseparable.

“Oh ...”

“She went for a walk. She wanted me to inform you. We’ll be back soon!”

He did not want his mother-in-law to worry and so he definitely wouldn't tell her the truth!

"Alright." Mary Green laughed. "Go, go quickly!"

"Why are you telling me about the things between you two?"

As a mother, she couldn't wait for her son-in-law and daughter to be as close as glue!

In fact, she had something going on in her mind but she couldn't find the right opportunity to say it.

Now that she had a granddaughter, it would be a regretful thing not to have a son.

So ...

However, she also knew that Oliver Walker had just returned and she had to give her daughter some time to adapt.

That was why she didn't say anything!

Chapter 280 Time to Shine

Hotel Colorado.

It was named after the city and one could tell that it was not an ordinary hotel.

In fact, this place was indeed not simple!

It didn't belong to any private company but a state-owned enterprise in the country.

It was also the most luxurious five-star hotel in Colorado.

Davis had spent a huge sum of money and booked the entire hotel just to hold a banquet to welcome the first war god.

However, everyone knew that Michelle Davis had another purpose and that was to announce the news of the Davis group's listing.

Due to how the news that the first war god would be appearing here....

Colorado suddenly became a tourist attraction and everyone came uninvited.

They even tried to squeeze their way into the hotel to show off their extraordinary status.

"Line up!"

"Don't panic, everyone!"

"Those who don't have the right to enter, please don't waste our time."

"Leave on your own!"

This was definitely the highlight of his life for the bodyguard of the Davis family standing by the door.

After all, there were so many top tycoons in front of them and these rich men had to listen to their arrangements!

Whether it was a dog relying on its master's power or a fox exploiting a tiger's might, the Davis family now had the support of the first war god. They would definitely have the right to be confident.

The rich people who were queuing outside the door were dissatisfied but ...

What else could they do?

After today, Davis's status would definitely surpass Leon Williams and return to his former peak!

"Hey, hey. hey ..."

"I'm talking about you. You don't even have a net worth of one billion. Do you think you're qualified to meet the first war god?"

"Hurry up and go away! Don't mess it up for us here!"

The moment Davis's bodyguard said that, everyone was shocked. This ...

The minimum requirement to enter was a net worth of at least one billion?

As for the rich man who was scolded, his face turned red. If it were any other time, he would have already screamed in rage.

But now ...

He could only endure it!

He quickly moved himself to the back like a nobody!

Emilia stood at the back with her brows slightly furrowed. Seeing that it was going to be her turn, her heart was in her throat.

She didn't know how William Davis was going to make things difficult for her.

But for the sake of her husband's life, she had to go in even if she had to swallow bullets!

"What are you doing here, Emilia?"

"Didn't you hear what they said? You are not qualified if you don't have a net worth of one billion!"

"Are you just here to fill up the crowd?"

"What a joke!"

"..."

All the wealthy people present knew about the relationship between Emilia and the Davis family. In order to make their stance clear, they naturally wouldn't give up on this rare opportunity!

Therefore, they all began to ridicule her!

Emilia's pretty face turned red and her beautiful eyes were filled with helplessness.

In fact, she was already mentally prepared when she came!

Naturally, she didn't care about what they were saying!

"F*ck!"

"She's really shameless!"

"You're still trying to show off yourself here? What? Are you thinking of seducing the first war god?"

“If it was in the past, you might really be able to do it. But now, you’re just a pair of worn out shoes.”

“What sweet dream are you having?”

“ ... ”

The ugly words at the scene were simply unbearable to the ears!

Emilia’s expression was slightly angry. “You ...”

She already had a husband. Why would she seduce other men?

This group of people really didn’t have manners at all!

Their words were so unpleasant to hear!

Even if she was prepared for it, it was still unbearable!

“Oh ...”

At this moment, Jessica Wright Davis, who had been waiting for a long time, walked out in her high heels with a contemptuous look on her face when she saw Emilia. She said in a strange tone, “Isn’t this Emilia?”

“What are you doing here?”

She had been waiting for this opportunity for a long time!

Tonight, she could finally vent all the dissatisfaction that had been accumulating over the past twenty years!

Therefore, she would not easily let it go!
