

Chaplain 291

Chapter 291 200 vs 1

Everyone was stunned. What was this Oliver Walker trying to do?

He was going to fight everyone that disagreed with him?

Even Micheal Davis was anxious. "You bastard!"

At that moment, everyone's attention was focused on the sound system that was flying over!

It was travelling at such a fast speed. If he got hit, it definitely wouldn't be a light one, right?

"Young master, be careful!"

At this moment, the bodyguard who had tipped Oliver Walker off pushed William Davis aside.

Bang ...

The metallic shell of the speaker hit the bodyguard's abdomen, it was severely deformed.

The powerful impact also sent the bodyguard flying to a table ten metres away.

"Ahhhhh!!!!1"

Bang --

The marble table was smashed into pieces and the bodyguard struggled to get up after falling to the ground. He eventually passed out.

Everyone gasped!

Especially for William Davis... even though he had managed to escape it, he still had a lingering fear as he looked at the scene in a daze.

He felt as if his heart was about to jump out of his mouth.

This motherf*cking ...

He wanted to kill this wild god!!!

However, Oliver Walker had already sent Jessica Wright Davis into the intensive care unit. There was no need for them to talk.

His forehead was covered with sweat. "You wild..."

Meanwhile, Oliver Walker's eyes narrowed. "Wild?"

His sharp eyes made everyone present shiver!

Gulp ...

This was not something surprising. After swallowing a mouthful of saliva, William Davis lowered his head and said in a trembling voice, "I'm not ... It's nothing ..."

Before the reinforcements arrived, who would dare to speak against Oliver Walker?

They would be digging their own graves!

Emilia had a new understanding of her husband. Was he just a violent man?

No!

He was simply a violent maniac!

To be honest ...

She was pissed.

He had once promised her to not use violence but why did he become more and more violent?

Plus, he attacked with the intention of taking someone's life. How terrible would he be in the future?

"Honey!"

"Let's go!"

Oliver Walker's cold eyes swept across the audience with contempt and disdain, as if an Emperor had descended to the world!

However, when his gaze landed on his wife ...

It turned gentle!

He had said that he would protect this woman for the rest of his life and he would definitely keep his promise.

Whoever dared to bully her would be challenging him!

It would attract a storm of revenge!

“En!”

Emilia was afraid that he would continue making a big deal out of this and things were getting out of hand. So, she quickly nodded in response.

Everyone present watched as the couple walked down the stage!

Micheal Davis had an extremely hideous look on his face!

He had originally planned to suppress Emilia and completely remove the demonic barrier in his son and daughter’s hearts.

In the end, he did not expect ...

How did such things happen?!

This is too much!

This was simply bullying!

However, he would have never thought that with Oliver Walker’s indifferent character, he would not have been bothered to fight these people if it wasn’t because they have challenged his bottom line!

It was because it really didn’t bother him.

“Ta ta ta ...”

However, at this moment, a series of messy footsteps came from the door, accompanied by a few anxious roars. "Hurry up!"

"All of you, hurry up!"

Everyone's eyes looked over and it was the bodyguard that Davis had called for!

After all, they were the top company in Colorado. Their security force was not just for show. There were more than 200 people.

They were wearing black suits with earphones in their ears and walkie-talkies on their waists.

They were definitely professional bodyguards!

Then, they collided with Oliver Walker and Emilia. There was only less than ten metres between them!

The atmosphere at the scene was extremely tense!

The 200 bodyguards exuded an overbearing aura.

Their gazes were like sharp daggers that could cut through everything!

"Hahaha ..."

When William Davis saw that reinforcements had arrived, the fear in his heart was instantly swept away. He laughed loudly and said, "Wild dog, your time of death has arrived!"

"I'd like to see how great you are!"

"You may be able to defeat 10 and even 50 people!"

“Can you beat up 200 of them at once?!”

“Go!”

Chapter 292 Jesus Is Welcome To Join The Banquet

The wealthy men of Colorado heaved a sigh of relief at this scene.

If the arrogant Oliver Walker was not punished, it would be the greatest humiliation to them!

Who the f*ck could bear to see a poor man acting tough in front of them?

“Kill him!”

“Motherf*cker!”

“We’ll take revenge for the young miss!”

“...”

At that instant, the bodyguard’s eyes turned completely red after receiving the order.

If they didn’t kill Oliver Walker today, they would lose their jobs!

“What ... What do we do?”

Emilia was panicking and her palms were sweating. She didn’t mind losing her life but what about her husband?

What would happen to Olivia and his mother?

She was about to break into tears!

How did it end up this way?!

If ...

If only she had not been so stubborn at the entrance earlier on.

Would she be allowed to leave without getting humiliated?

Then, her husband wouldn't have been forced to this extent?

At this moment, she wasn't feeling angry. She felt guilty!

She knew that this wasn't Oliver Walker's fault!

The Davis were the ones who were being cruel and evil!

"Stop!"

Just as the first batch of bodyguards was about to rush up, Micheal Davis's voice resounded through the entire venue!

None of the bodyguards dared to disobey the order. After all, he was the head of the family and the chairman of Davis Group!

"Dad!"

William Davis was anxious and he roared in confusion, " "Why?"

"This wild dog sent my sister into the intensive care unit!"

"If we let him go, how are we going to show our faces in this city?!"

In fact, William Davis wasn't the only one who couldn't understand. Even the rest of those present were all dumbfounded. They looked at each other with doubtful eyes.

They thought that they had heard him wrongly.

They really couldn't find any reason that would allow Micheal Davis to give up the opportunity for revenge!

"The VIP is coming soon!" Micheal Davis said coldly.

"Hurry up and clean up the venue!"

Didn't he feel aggrieved?

How was that possible?

But ...

What else could he do?

If the first war god came and saw the scene of wolves fighting each other, would he vent his anger on Davis?

After hearing his words, everyone present suddenly understood why Oliver Walker dared to make a scene in the hotel.

This was because ...

He had this in mind! He was fearless!

William Davis's eyes were filled with unwillingness!

The bodyguards could only allow him to leave.

William Davis's teeth itched with hatred!

"Phew ..."

Emilia finally heaved a sigh of relief. After the matter was over, she would have to make a trip to Davis no matter what.

She also had Davis's blood in her. She didn't believe that her cold-hearted grandmother would really allow Micheal Davis's family to kill her!

She didn't want much!

She just wanted a peaceful life!

Was it too much?

"You got lucky!"

"Get the hell out of here!" William Davis shouted.

Oliver Walker looked back coldly and ignored William Davis. He looked at Micheal Davis and said, "The first war god won't be coming!"

"The banquet is over now!"

"Go home and wash your necks. Wait for the butcher's knife to fall!"

Contempt!

Disdain!

His arrogance soared!

Then, he held Emilia's hand and left the hotel.

To lay a hand on these bodyguards was simply tarnishing his identity!

"Wild dog!"

Micheal Davis screamed to the man who was leaving and shouted in a desperate rage, "Who do you think you are?!"

"The first war god would actually listen to you?"

"I am the one who hosted this banquet. Even if I wanted Jesus to attend, no one would be able to stop me!"

He had been forced into a corner!

He really couldn't take it anymore!

He wished he could swallow Oliver Walker alive!

Chapter 293 The Calm Before The Storm

Oliver Walker held Emilia's hand and left the banquet hall. Everyone present sneered at this!

Who could stop the first war god?

Was this not a joke?

Furthermore, the hotel had already been rented. Even if the first war god didn't show up, the banquet would still go on!

The reason why Micheal Davis allowed Oliver Walker and Emilia to leave was so that he would not delay the arrival of the first war god.

He clearly got lucky, yet he still dared to be so arrogant?

This was simply rare in the world!

"This is too much!"

William Davis roared, "Dad, after the banquet is over, we can't let them go!"

He had never hated someone so much before!

He had thought that Emilia was already detestable enough, but he never expected that the most detestable person on earth would be that wild dog!

“Don’t just stand there!”

Micheal Davis looked at his watch and said, “There’s still five minutes before it’s almost eight o’clock. Let’s hurry up and clean up the scene.”

What should he do if he didn’t?

What would the first war god think if he witnessed this?

He could only say that no matter how angry he was, he had to endure it!

“Yes, yes, yes!”

“Everyone! Pack it up!”

“Let’s clean this up together!”

“We can’t allow the first war god to see the barbarism in the upper class of Colorado!

“...”

Soon, the banquet hall was bustling!

As for Micheal Davis, he was anxiously giving out instructions while looking at his watch in melancholy. Time was passing by and there was no way where he could stop it.

Outside the Colorado hotel ...

The neon lights in the night dispelled the darkness and set off the heavy traffic and prosperity of the city.

“Phew ...”

Emilia took a deep breath and said. “We?”

Everything that had happened tonight had happened so suddenly. Most importantly, she was speaking incoherently and her heart could not calm down for a long time!

“Next, we just have to wait and watch a good show!” Oliver Walker replied with a smile.

He had arranged for two good shows!

It would definitely make Davis company’s people go from their previous lofty ambitions to anxiety and then to a desperate exit!

“A good show?”

Emilia’s pretty face was filled with doubt and she had an indescribable feeling.

He ...

What was he up to?

Davis might not be able to cover the sky in Colorado currently but they were definitely a powerful force in this city!

Could it be Leon Williams?

It was impossible!

Even if Leon Williams was the richest man in Colorado...

He's like an insignificant ant when compared to Davis, who has the support of the first war god!

She could only say that....

It would be difficult.

But suddenly, her beautiful eyes brightened. She quickly raised her head and asked in shock, "Is the first war god really not coming?"

This was the only possibility that could make the people of Davis Company feel despair.

Because at this moment, Micheal Davis had already regarded the first war god as Davis's support!

"Of course ..."

Oliver Walker wanted to blurt it out but he hesitated and said in a euphemistic tone, "Probably not?"

Perhaps not many people in the country knew that he was the master of the first war god.

However, he didn't dare to be too obvious. It would after all be too shocking and his wife might not be able to accept it!

"What do you mean by probably?"

Emilia retorted but then she said worriedly, "Let's go home!"

To be honest, she was really surprised and touched that her husband would appear tonight.

But ...

After tonight, she was starting to feel worried.

Their family's already tough days would only become worse!

The storm would eventually come!

They could only hope that it wasn't too violent or they definitely wouldn't be able to withstand it!

After his wife stopped a taxi, Oliver Walker took out his mobile phone, typed a text message, and sent it out.

Not only would he stop the first war god from being able to make it to the scene!

It would also make this group of arrogant, self-proclaimed aristocrats get out of the state-owned enterprise – the Colorado Hotel.

Let them experience the taste of despair!

Their revenge....

Has finally started!

At this moment, the banquet hall had already been cleaned up. It was as if everything that had happened earlier had never happened.

"It's 8:05!"

Micheal Davis closed his eyes, took a deep breath, and relaxed his tense nerves. "William, quick! See if he's here yet!"

By right, a person at the level of the first war god would definitely be punctual.

When he hadn't tidied up the banquet hall, he was still rejoicing that the first war god didn't arrive on time.

However, now that everything was ready, they began to feel nervous again!

What if the first war god didn't show up? How would they end this?

After all, this banquet was related to whether the Davis Group would be able to dominate the stock market after it went public. He also knew that everyone present was here for the first God of War.

Davis had actually been going downhill in the past few years but he was just doing well on the surface!

"Alright!"

William Davis didn't dare to slack off and he quickly ran out.

If the first war god were to come, William Davis would be able to greet him with his identity as young master Davis immediately!"

He couldn't miss such an opportunity to flatter the other party.

The wealthy Colorado businessmen were also a little impatient from waiting. They also had doubts in their hearts. After all, Oliver Walker's unyielding attitude was inexplicable!

If he only had military strength, would he dare to challenge the nobles of Colorado?

Could it be ...

That the first war god wasn't going to come here today?

However, no one dared to make a sound. If they did, based on Michelle Davis's character, he would definitely make an issue out of this matter and use it as an example to others...

No one wanted to touch this bad luck!

"Hahaha ..."

Micheal Davis pretended to be relaxed and laughed, "Ladies and gentlemen, my comrades in the Colorado business world, I am honoured to be able to be here with you!

"It's also an honor that the first war god has chosen to attend Davis's banquet!"

"Once again, I would like to thank everyone for your support for Davis Group!"

If it wasn't for the incident where Oliver Walker had wreaked havoc in the banquet hall..... If the first God of War had arrived on time, then he ...

He wouldn't have been so polite!

It was precisely because these two things that shouldn't have happened happened at the same time that caused him to lose his confidence!

Perhaps only he could understand that kind of melancholy!

"Mr Davis, you're being too polite."

“Davis is an old company in Colorado. We should thank Davis for his great contribution to the Colorado business community.”

“Yes, yes. yes ...”

“Well said!”

“ ... ”

The group of bootlickers began to flatter Micheal Davis.

Although that unpleasant incident had happened, as long as the first God of War arrived on time, Davis would replace Leon Williams and dominate Colorado. Nothing will change!

Leon Williams was the only one in the audience who didn't agree. He didn't even bother to say any polite words!

After all ...

He was the target for them.

However, Davis didn't know that Oliver Walker, whom they called a wild dog, was the person they were anxiously waiting for, the teacher of the first war god!

This was the key to the problem!

No matter what, Davis was definitely going to be lost!

At that time, it would definitely not be easy to clean up the mess!

“Everyone, please take a seat!”

Micheal Davis, who was under immense pressure, could only force a smile and began to arrange seats for the rich businessmen.

After all, even if the first war god didn't come, this banquet still has to go on!

Moreover, with the identity of the first war god, he wouldn't go back on his word, right?

The first war god had even accepted his invitation in front of so many people, so there would definitely be no accidents.

No one knew that the white lining of his suit was now drenched in sweat!

Chapter 294 Anxiously Waiting For His Saviour

They could only hope that it wasn't too violent or they definitely wouldn't be able to withstand it!

No one knew that the white lining of his suit was now drenched in sweat!

Chapter 295 The Happiness of An Opposing Party

As time passed, second by second ...

In the blink of an eye, an hour had passed. The already fretful crowd made the atmosphere even more depressing!

“Is the first war god really not coming?”

“I think so too!”

“Davis is definitely in big trouble this time!”

“I knew it! How could the first war god be interested in Davis!”

“It’s most likely a lie!”

“...”

Another 15 minutes passed, voices of doubt appeared!

The expressions on the wealthy Colorado businessmen slowly turn strange. They wanted to laugh ...

However, they didn’t dare to do so and had to endure it!

This wasn’t a comfortable feeling.

Finally, Micheal Davis couldn’t hold it in anymore. He took out his phone and asked, “William, is there any movement outside?”

He knew very well that if the first war god did not appear, he would not be able to escape from feeling embarrassed.

Then, the people who were crazily flattering him just now would change their attitude!

This was because ...

They were enemies as well...

Who would want to see their enemy grow stronger and stronger step by step, and then get above their heads?

“There’s nothing!”

“It’s calm! There’s no movement at all!”

On the other end of the phone, William Davis’s tone was also getting a little impatient!

Something had gone wrong!

Something was really wrong!

Logically speaking, if the first war god wanted to attend the banquet, the entire area would be blocked, right?

Micheal Davis, who was wearing leather shoes, took two steps back with an embarrassed expression. When he stepped on the floor, he even made a slight sound.

Usually, no one would have noticed.

But it was a sensitive period of time now.

The banquet hall was filled with silence!

Countless pairs of eyes were staring at him!

“Well.....”

Just then, Leon Williams gloated, “I don’t think that the first war god would be coming tonight.”

This was definitely good news for him.

Although Oliver Walker did not allow him to curry favor with him, it was still better than Davis offending him again and again, right?

According to what Oliver Walker had said, he was prepared to let Emilia take over the Davis Group.

That would mean that not only would Davis Group not go bankrupt but it would also grow stronger and stronger with unstoppable momentum!

However, growing strong in the hands of Emilia and Micheal Davis were two different scenarios.

After all ...

Micheal Davis would definitely exterminate him but Emilia could live in peace with him!

Such words were like a huge explosion that had been lit up!

“I don’t think he’ll come either!”

“Why wouldn’t he?”

“But the first war god has agreed to it!”

“Maybe he was just being polite?”

“He must have forgotten about this!”

“That’s reasonable!”

“ ... ”

Seeing that the noise from the crowd was getting louder and louder, Micheal Davis was desperate and pointed her finger at Leon Williams, who took the lead in making sarcastic remarks. “What do you mean by that?”

According to his original plan, once it was successfully listed on the market, he triumphed over Colorado with the name of the first war god. They would fight against Leon Williams, who had been famous for the past two years.

Then, Davis would be able to return to being the best in Colorado!

“What did I mean?”

Leon Williams smiled and said, “The first war god one won’t be coming anyway. I’ll take my leave first. You guys can continue waiting!”

He only left now because he already had the answer in his heart.

As for the others, even if they wanted to leave, they didn’t dare to move half a step!

What if ...

What if the first war god came?

So, they could only watch Leon Williams leave!

On the other hand, Micheal Davis stared at the man who was opposing him in every way and his face turned red with anger. “No, the first war god will definitely come.”

“I’m sure he will be coming!!!”

He didn't want to give up! He was furious!

He immediately took out his phone and made a call.

Chapter 296 Ditching The Original Plan

After the call went through, he eagerly asked humbly, "Hello, I ... I'm Micheal Davis, the head of the Davis family, may I ask ... May I ask where the VIP might be right now?"

With his social status, how could he possibly have the number of the first war god?

He was calling the military.

He ...

He firmly believed that someone would definitely answer!

In an instant, everyone in the banquet hall sucked in a breath of cold air. Then, they perked up their ears and listened carefully.

Well....

Since he didn't turn on the speaker, they wouldn't be able to hear him since they didn't have clairaudient ears.

The reason why they did this was completely subconsciously and it was ridiculous!

"Micheal Davis, right?"

A deep and powerful voice came from the other end of the phone, which made Micheal Davis quickly reply excitedly, "Yes, yes, yes! That's me!"

He was so touched that he was about to cry!

He didn't expect the first war god to remember him. Otherwise, how could the people in the military headquarters have heard of his name?

However, the next second, the voice turned cold. "The VIP already went there but he was unhappy about it so he left."

"Good luck!"

After those cold words were spoken ...

The call ended abruptly!

His words were like a bolt of lightning on a clear day, causing the smiling Micheal Davis to instantly become dumbfounded. "Hey! Hello..."

He had clearly heard the sound of the call being ended but he still called out unwillingly!

Why.....

Why did they ignore him?!

"What ... When was he here?!"

"He....he clearly wasn't here!"

“How could I not ... Why was he unhappy about us?!”

Micheal Davis mumbled to himself in a daze. How could he have known that the VIP mentioned was not the first war god?

He was the teacher of the first war god. The man who had always been honored as the Chaplain of the military in this country!

He was also the country’s national weapon. With just a broken and bloody military uniform placed on the border, it forced millions of enemy troops to withdraw from their territory!

Oliver Walker was a legend in the hearts of every soldiers in the country!

Now that he was offended, what good could come to them?

That was pure nonsense!

“I’ll be damned!”

“He’s not coming?”

“Then..... what are we still doing here?”

“Let’s go!”

“I’m going back to watch the football game!”

“...”

When Micheal Davis received the news ...

All the wealthy Colorado businessmen left without giving him any mercy.

“You ...”

“You can’t leave yet ...”

Micheal Davis quickly stood on the stage and shouted anxiously, “I ... I ... I haven’t even announced the big news of the company. We’re getting listed!!!”

The company’s listing was a big deal for him and even for the entire Davis Group!

But ...

It was nothing for the others.

They would be getting listed?

It would be a great fortune if their family wasn’t exterminated after offending the first war god.

None of them had expected that Micheal Davis had such a bad eye for the situation now and he was still so f*cking greedy!

What a joke!

How lamentable!

But...it was not worthy of their time and pity.

“Ah ...”

Looking at the empty banquet hall, Micheal Davis angrily shouted, "They're all snobbish!"

"Motherf*ckers!"

"A bunch of despicable people!"

"Bunch of sluts!"

He vented his anger loudly, anger almost igniting his entire body.

Then, William Davis, who was outside at the entrance, rushed in and asked in a flustered tone, "Dad!"

"What's going on?"

"The banquet hasn't even started yet! Why have they all left?"

Not only did they leave...

William Davis couldn't even get them to stay. There were even some hot-tempered people who directly scolded him ruthlessly, not respecting him at all!

Chapter 297 Get Out Now!

He was dumbfounded!

In the banquet hall, other than the hotel staff and David's bodyguards, there were only the people from Davis Company left!

"Thump thump ..."

Micheal Davis, who couldn't accept the reality, fell on the podium and kept muttering, "Finished ... I'm finished ..."

"It's all over!"

"What ... How could it be ... why does it end up this way?!"

"Why is it like this?"

He needed an explanation!

He couldn't accept this!

He wanted to use the name of the first war god to help Davis Group get listed but...

He ended up with a huge mess all over the ground.

He knew that with what he had done, he had offended most of the wealthy businessmen in Colorado. If his listing was hit, Davis would likely go bankrupt.

At the thought of this, his face turned pale and he roared hysterically, "That wild dog, Oliver Walker, came here to cause trouble on purpose!"

"And Emilia!!!!"

"Ahhhhh!!!!!"

"I'm so angry!"

He finally understood why Oliver Walker and Emilia had the guts to be so fearless.

Wasn't it all for this?

Oliver Walker wanted the first war god to put fault on him. He had to admit that this move was a sinister one!

"Dad!"

William Davis's face turned red and he said angrily, "I've said it before! That wild dog has ulterior motives."

"Along with that damned Emilia! She's even more detestable!"

"They all deserve to die!"

He gritted his teeth in hatred!

But....there was nothing they could do!

That kind of feeling gave people a deep sense of helplessness!

"Wild dog! What other tricks do you have?"

"Show them to me!!!"

Micheal Davis seemed to have gone crazy. He got up from the ground, bared his fangs as he roared, "Come on!"

"Let's see if I, Micheal Davis, would be able to face it!"

He had thought that Oliver Walker was useless and would be helpless.

But ...

Suppressing Micheal Davis's prestige in the company was only the first step!

He had prepared two great gifts for tonight and now ...

"Mr. Davis, you have to leave now!"

Just then, the General Manager of the Colorado Hotel walked out with a cold tone.

All the employees of Davis Company turned around.

Wasn't this adding oil to the fire?

Micheal Davis, in particular, roared in anger, "Leo, what do you mean by this?"

"I've booked the entire hotel. Are you going to chase the guest away?"

Right now, he was filled with anger and he just wanted to find a place to vent them!

Leo, on the other hand, was just an employee working in a public institution. To put it nicely, it was a public institution but to put it bluntly, it was just a servant who served others.

Just because the Davis had embarrassed themselves today that a servant like him would be able to bully them?!

This was too much!

This has gone overboard!

William Davis was also glaring at Leo. Anyone could hit him when he was down but what right did a servant have?

“This is not my decision!”

“The higher-ups have given the order,” Leon said proudly. “Without permission, the Colorado Hotel will no longer be serving anyone from Davis Company!”

“So, you guys should leave quickly. Don’t make things difficult for me!”

With his firm words, the entire banquet hall fell into silence!

What?

They will no longer serve anyone from the Davis Group?

What the hell?

What was going on?

At this moment, their hearts were filled with grievance and there were a million questions in their heads.

However, no one would answer their questions!

“You ...”

Micheal Davis's face was ferocious and just as he was about to open his mouth to curse.....

He thought of how the Colorado hotel was a state-owned enterprise. He instantly felt frightened.

What was Davis?

In Colorado, they were already at the point where they couldn't walk with their heads held high, yet they still dared to go against state-owned companies?

Chapter 298 Oliver Walker's First Move

Unless he was courting death!

This order was naturally given by Oliver Walker.

The Davis had shut his wife out for eight years. Oliver Walker was going to make these people fall into despair step by step.

He had always been a man of principle and so, his revenge had to be equal!

"Let's go!"

Micheal Davis knew that it would be useless to say anything. He could only roar with hatred, "What are all of you doing?!"

"Leave now!"

He was defeated today!

This was a good hand but it had been turned into a pile of dog shit by Oliver Walker!

However, he didn't know that from the moment he grabbed it, it was a terrible card that only looked exciting on the outside. The truth was that he lost the moment he played the game!

His daughter was not the only one who had lost this match. She had been sent to the intensive care unit.

It wasn't just because the first war god wasn't here for the banquet and he lost his chance to make the announcement.

The real loss was that he could no longer step into the important circle.

The reason was simple. The Colorado Hotel was the oldest, most luxurious and a five-star hotel in Colorado. There was no other hotel like it.

No matter who it was, as long as one's status had reached a certain level, they would definitely book the entire Colorado hotel if they had any event.

This was a symbol of power!

However, from today onwards, Davis has lost their qualification forever.

What was even more terrifying was that he was now beginning to worry that they would get impacted once they got listed.

In the end, it would lead to bankruptcy!

The more he thought about it ...

The more he felt his heart turn cold, the more he felt chills running down his spine!

He was almost torturing himself into a lunatic!

Where would he have the time to care about Jessica Wright Davis in the intensive care unit?

He didn't have the energy to deal with the main culprits of all this, Oliver Walker and Emilia.

After all, Davis was like a clay Bodhisattva crossing the river. He could even afford to protect himself now!

...

The next morning, Davis Corporation got listed without any applause or cheers!

"Are you guys buying it?"

"Are you?"

"I got some news that Davis is about to rot."

"What happened? Tell me!"

"It's hard to explain in a few words. Anyway, look, there are so many large businessmen in Colorado. Did any of them buy the shares?"

"According to what you're saying, does that mean ..."

"It would be a hellhole to buy it now?"

"You're quick witted. Anyway, if you still want to live a peaceful live, you should stay away from Davis group's shares."

“They’ll be harvested soon like leaks.”

“...”

These words were constantly reverberating in every stock exchange.

The most important thing was ...

There were even rumours on the internet.

As for the real world...

Davis group’s influence was limited to Colorado. Shareholders from other places didn’t even know of the existence of such a group, so how could they buy it?

In other words, no matter how much Davis sold, no one would buy it in the end, which meant that the stock was still with the Davis family.

Ring ring ring – –

At this moment, his phone suddenly rang. Oliver Walker picked it up and asked, “How is it?”

He did not even look at the stock market.

He had his disciple to look after it for him, what was there to worry about?

If they couldn’t even deal with a small company like Davis after learning from him for all these years, they could just commit suicide by hitting their heads against the wall.

“Master!”

Luke Adams said respectfully, "The overall situation is under control. My team has already set their eyes on them. They won't be able to get away with this."

"If no one buys it in Colorado, then there are only two options left for the Davis Group."

"They could lower the stock price and recoup our losses."

"Or release a certain amount of equity to tempt people who are interested in Davis Group."

"No matter which path he chooses, I will be able to deal him a fatal blow!"

"Yes!" Oliver Walker nodded.

"Well done. Keep an eye on it. Spread the word that whoever dares to buy Davis group's shares would mean that they would be going against us!"

"They shall then be prepared for their bankruptcy."

He had set a trap for Davis...

The exciting show was yet to come!

In less than three days, his wife would hold these shares and return to the Board of Directors!

Those from the Davis Group.....

What look would have they have on their faces once he revealed this?

Chapter 299 Getting the Shares

"Yes!"

Luke Adams hung up the phone after receiving the instructions.

He really couldn't understand the Davis family. What were they thinking? Why were they even offending his master?

Wasn't this just seeking death?

"Hubby!"

Right after the call ended, Emilia walked out and quickly asked, "Have you seen the financial news?"

To be honest, it was shocking!

The stock market today looked strange.

Oliver Walker sat on the chair and said with a smile, "What happened?"

He knew that his wife had been paying attention to the news of the stock market.

In other words, his wife could never forget the days when she was in the business world.

"Most of the shares from the Davis's family were not sold. There were some transactions occasionally but the total value is only three to two thousand dollars. It's obvious that they are new to the market."

"I don't understand this. With the Davis group's influence, this shouldn't have happened."

Emilia's pretty face was filled with doubt. "Micheal Davis decided to place the company onto listings because the group couldn't make ends meet. He wants to exchange it into cash flow and slowly relieve their economic pressure."

"If this continues, I'm afraid ..."

She was born to be in the business world.

She was merely stripped of the stage because of her own kindness towards her family.

Otherwise, the Davis Group would not have fallen into such a miserable state.

Therefore, without much additional information. She could already analyze most of the problems just from the stock market index.

"Dear!"

A faint smile appeared on the corner of Oliver Walker's mouth. "If I did all of this, would you believe me?"

In fact, he didn't want to hide it from his wife and he didn't want his family to be anxious because of financial difficulties.

So ...

It was time to lay his cards on the table!

As his wife, she naturally had to know what kind of person he was!

Emilia was stunned at first, but then she nodded and said with a serious face, "I do!"

These words made Oliver Walker stand up in excitement. "Really?"

In fact, he had wanted to tell his wife about this news for a long time.

It was just that so many things had happened in the past and they would have been emotionally affected.

He had been constantly hinting at his wife.

He wanted his wife to accept the fact that he was really rich.

He believed that his wife would have already detected it.

"Of course I believe you!"

"If I give you another bottle of wine, will you be telling me that the entire world is our house?" Emilia said with a sweet smile.

How could she possibly believe that?

In her eyes, her husband was an excellent soldier.

It was already a miracle to be able to return from the battlefield alive.

As for how rich he was?

She had never thought of it!

She had always been a simple woman.

It had never changed!

“Um ...”

Oliver Walker was embarrassed. Wasn't the hidden meaning in his wife's words implying that he was bragging?

But this was what he had expected of his wife!

This was indeed who she was.

“Alright, I'm done!”

Emilia also realized that her words just now would definitely hurt her husband's pride. She then smiled gently and said, “Let's go to the clinic!”

“No matter what happens to Davis, we still have our own days to live!”

Although it was a pity with what was happening to the Davis Company...

They only felt this way because of grandpa!

The rest of it was not within her scope of consideration.

She didn't take to heart anything that Oliver Walker had said on the stage last night.

She also wouldn't be so unreasonable as to look for Oliver Walker and ask for shares of the Davis Group.

“Alright!”

Oliver Walker smiled. The medical center was their priority now. The Davis family were just irrelevant.

He would just leave it to his disciple!

As for Oliver Walker and Emilia, they happily went to work at their clinic

But ...

In the conference room of the Davis Corporates.

Micheal Davis, on the other hand, had been staring at the computer ever since the company got listed. He was completely dumbfounded.

Chapter 300 A Defeat!

His expression was also extremely complicated.

“How can this happen? Only 50 shares?” He muttered to himself.

“How did this happen?”

After the review by the Securities Regulatory Commission, the Davis group’s share price was 68 yuan per share.

But..... even if it was only 70 Yuan a share, there were only 5000 yuan of them sold.

Didn’t they say that the stock market was the place to harvest leeks?

With the influence of their company, it might not rise to 100 yuan per share, but it should at least sell hundreds of thousands of shares a day and cash out tens of millions. That shouldn't have been a problem.

However, from 9 am till now, only 50 shares had been sold, which was less than 3500 Yuan!

They didn't even earn the Commission fee for the listing!

The atmosphere in the conference room was extremely oppressive!

No one dared to take a deep breath!

They were afraid that Micheal Davis would shoot them randomly and use them as a target to vent his rage.

"Mother... Motherf*cker!"

Micheal Davis was stunned for a long time before she stood up and cursed, "William, come over and take a look. Is my computer broken?"

"Why hasn't the data changed even after half an hour? "

To be honest, he found it hard to accept such a huge contrast!

So, after eliminating all possibilities, he found a theory that he thought was relatively reliable.

The computer was broken!

The computer must be broken. Otherwise, it was impossible that no one would buy it!

How could he have known that he had really offended a VIP last night?

No one was willing to buy their shares in the entire business world.

Forget about only those in Colorado; even in the entire country, no one dared to disobey the VIP's orders.

Unless they were tired of living and thought that they had the ability to compete with Luke Adams.

Even the 50 shares that were sold were actually businesses who were new to the industry and did not know anything at all.

The entire room turned quiet.

Everyone lowered their heads.

William Davis was no exception.

Now, he was afraid that his father would find a reason to vent his anger. In the end, even breathing was an issue.

Slam --

Sure enough, the next moment, Micheal Davis roared angrily, "I'm talking to you. Damn it, didn't you hear me?"

"My computer is broken. The data has stopped moving. Hurry up and help me take a look!"

Such a commotion scared William Davis out of his wits. He quickly stood up with a trembling body and said, "Dad ..."

“You ... The computer isn’t broken ...”

“We ... Our data hasn’t changed!”

He definitely would have known if there was something wrong with the computer.

Therefore ...

“Impossible!”

“This is impossible!”

Micheal Davis’s face turned green. “If it’s not broken, why isn’t my data moving?”

“Huala ...”

“Boom ...”

In a fit of rage, he pushed everything he could see to the ground, except for the computer.

He shook his head repeatedly, causing his hair to become messy and he looked even more ferocious.

But soon, his eyes lit up and he shouted, “If the computer isn’t broken, then the internet is cut off. It must be!”

“That’s definitely the reason!!”

This was crazy!

This was maddening!

He was about to turn crazy!

In short, he had to find all kinds of excuses to prove that the amount of shares sold was definitely not what he was looking at.

Only fifty?!

F*ck, what's the difference between this and humiliating him, humiliating the entire Davis Group?

It was simply hilarious!

In the face of Micheal Davis's berserk state, the employees of Davis Company were even more afraid to make a sound.

Even their heads were buried lower than the other, afraid that their names would be called.

Especially the third brother who was sitting next to Micheal Davis, he was trembling. He was in a dangerous spot.

"Dad!"

William Davis frowned and summoned his courage to shout, "The internet is fine. There are no changes to our data."

"Please calm down and accept the reality!"

"We've only sold 50 shares. It's a crushing defeat!"
