

Chaplain 301

Chapter 301 Second Chances

The truth shocked the employees of Davis Company, who were fantasizing about getting rich!

All of them had an ugly expression on their faces.

The most embarrassed person was still Micheal Davis. His face was red and his chest was rising and falling violently.

For a long time, there wasn't a single thing that he could say.

That kind of feeling ...

It was simply indescribable!

"Impossible!"

"That's impossible!"

Micheal Davis seemed to have gone crazy as she shouted, "The Davis Group, isn't it considered influential in Colorado?!"

"Why is no one buying our shares?"

"What..."

His tone had been firm earlier but soon...

Gradually, it began to soften. From this, one could see how big of a blow he had suffered!

If not for the fact that everyone in the company was present, he would have cried!

“Big ... Big brother!”

At that moment, Harry Davis said weakly, “Could it be that... Oliver Walker is really capable of doing this?”

Last night, everyone heard everything!

Oliver Walker was going to help Emilia return to the Davis group’s board of directors!

Originally, they had scoffed at it, but now.....everything felt strange!

They had left a bad impression on the first war god!

But ...

Who was the first war god!

Why would he care about something as trivial as the Davis group?

He had even forgotten about the banquet that was held for him.

“Impossible!”

“That’s impossible!”

Micheal Davis clenched his fist and hammered the table. He roared with spittle flying everywhere, "He ... He's just a wild dog!"

"What would a wild dog like him know?!"

"How could he have such capabilities?!"

His mind went blank!

He couldn't believe what was happening!

The result was completely different from what he had expected!

"Dad!"

William Davis angrily slammed the table. "It's all because of that wild dog that we, Davis, have fallen to this state. I'll find someone to take revenge on him now!"

In the past, they would at least look glorious on the surface!

But ...

Right now, everyone knew that Davis was really going to be destroyed!

"Motherf*cker!"

Micheal Davis clenched her fist and said, "I have to get my revenge. He dared to ruin my business. Go ahead and see what they are doing!"

"I must make them pay back at least a hundred times, I, Davis, can't take this defeat!"

“I will never admit defeat!!”

The atmosphere in the conference room was silent. No one dared to make a single sound.

As for others, none of them would be able to say a single word.

“William, stay!”

Micheal Davis roared, completely in a state of anxiety, “The rest of you, dismissed!”

They definitely couldn’t allow this to just go on this way.

If there was no external capital injection, then the group would not be able to last long.

Therefore ...

“Dad!”

William Davis furrowed his brow and said anxiously, “What do we do now?”

Perhaps the others didn’t know the seriousness of the matter but he and Michelle Davis were in charge of the company. How could they not know that there was an issue here?

“Phew ...”

Micheal Davis took a deep breath and said, “What else can we do?”

“Is it because the investors think that we’ve released too few shares and none of them are interested?”

It was obvious that he could no longer count on those individual investors.

Therefore, he could only count on those bigger capital investors.

In order to ensure that the company had full control of the company, Mrs. Davis had strictly ordered that the shares on the market could not exceed 10%.

This way, even if it was bought by one person, it would not cause any turmoil to the management of Davis Group.

After all, he and his son, William Davis, had 20% of the shares each.

Chapter 302 Dealing With The Devil

Therefore ...

Although the Davis family was a huge family, Michelle Davis and William Davis made up one-fifth of the total.

And the majority of it was in Ma'am. Davis's hands ...

As for the others?

They were only here to earn a small amount of dividends.

"Dad!"

William Davis was also a fake and he couldn't analyze the situation of the stock market at all. He could only echo, "perhaps it's possible?"

"I'm afraid that if we don't let out some blood, we won't be able to lure those ambitious big capitalists."

The father and son discussed it deeply, thinking that there were many big bosses in the business world who had their eyes on the Davis Corporates.

None of them were making a move because it was too little and they were waiting for Davis to release more shares.

In fact ...

Little did they know that Luke Adams's Secretary had informed all the businessmen in Colorado.

Even if they were interested, they didn't have the guts to do so.

Micheal Davis was silent for a long time, then said, "If we can't bear to part with the child, we won't be able to hunt the wolves!"

"If we can't recoup our capital, we won't be able to pay out the dividends for the next quarter."

"Your grandmother will definitely be suspicious. The situation will also become worse for us!"

William Davis also realized the seriousness of the matter and quickly lowered his voice. "Then ... You mean ..."

He couldn't say those words out loud.

After all, it was too shocking and it was a sign of challenge against Ma'am. Davis 'authority!

"Release another 10% of the shares!"

Micheal Davis's face turned fierce, "I want to see the effect!"

Davis Group was valued at five billion and 20% of the shares would be worth one billion once they were released into the market.

It was definitely not a small number!

However, he didn't know that the more anxious he was, the more he would fall into the trap that Oliver Walker had dug for him.

"What if grandma ..."

William Davis gulped and he was completely dumbfounded.

This was treason and heresy. If they got exposed, they would be in deep trouble!

"She doesn't understand the stock market!"

Micheal Davis said with a cold face, "Just do as I say. As for Oliver Walker and Emilia, we'll allow them to be arrogant for a while longer to avoid any more trouble!"

The future for Davis was not good now. There were countless pairs of eyes watching them.

Once someone got hold of it, the consequences would be unimaginable!

"Alright!"

William Davis replied, "Dad, I'll give you the share transfer agreement now."

They had no other choice. This was the only thing that they could do now.

Or else ...

They would only be facing their own death.

When Michelle Davis threw out another 10% of the shares, he had been staring at the computer interface. He didn't believe that the data wouldn't move a single bit.

As soon as there were movements here, it was instantly detected.

"Mr. Adams, Micheal Davis can't hold on any longer. He just sold another 10% of his shares."

"Do you think we should reel in the net?"

A sexy secretary in a black silk business suit placed the organised documents on the table.

Luke Adams glanced at it and took out his phone. "Master, do you want to reel in the net?"

In fact, many of the people in charge of large corporations didn't have more than 10% of their shares.

But ...

The Davis Corporates was a small company after all, so the position of the person in power was unbreakable.

However, he still had to follow his master's wishes.

With twenty percent, he would definitely be a major shareholder!

Oliver Walker, who was in the medical center, smiled and said, "That would be enough. Let's pull in the net first!"

“After the acquisition, pass me the share transfer agreement!”

Oliver Walker could crush Davis to death in one move but there was no need.

After all, his wife had suffered eight years wandering outside. How could he let Micheal Davis taste the taste of despair overnight?

This was not in line with the principle of retaliation.

“Yes!”

After receiving the order, Luke Adams hung up the phone and said, “Inform the team to immediately execute the acquisition plan.”

He was calm.

The transaction that cost a million yuan was indeed nothing in his eyes.

If it wasn't for his master, he would not have bothered with the acquisition.

Oliver Walker put away his mobile phone and muttered to himself, “You can't even hold onto it for half a day. I've indeed overestimated you!”

Chapter 303 Idiots Stammering In The Market

He had originally thought that it would take three days for his wife to join the board of directors.

But ...

Now, as long as he got the share transfer agreement, he would be able to do it tomorrow!

“Honey, what are you doing?”

Emilia walked over with a head full of sweat but there was a blissful and sweet smile on her face.

After all, this clinic was their future.

“Oh ...”

Oliver Walker laughed and said, “Oh...It’s nothing!”

“It’s almost time for lunch. Why don’t we ask our mom to come out for a meal?”

In fact, he wanted to help his mother improve her quality of life. Life at home was too frugal.

It was alright for him. After all, he had suffered a lot on the Indiana battlefield.

But ...

His family didn’t have a body made of iron like him.

“No... Don’t you want it?”

Emilia’s phoenix-like brows furrowed as she said, “We should be more frugal. If the clinic can’t continue, we would have another backup plan.”

“And ...”

“I ... I ... I want a new home!”

When she was done, she bit her red lips and her beautiful eyes were filled with desire.

Although they had a house to live in now, they were still living in the slums.

The bed in the room was so small that it could only fit her and her daughter. Her husband had to sleep on the broken sofa in the living room.

Her heart ...

She felt apologetic.

“Honey!”

Oliver Walker’s expression turned serious. “Let’s go buy a house!”

“I owe you a home!”

This was something he had wanted to do for a long time.

Money?

He had it!

Even the best villa in Colorado was just a cheap thing in his eyes.

“Ah ...”

Such a sudden statement caught Emilia off guard, and she quickly explained incoherently, “I ... I ... I’m not trying to pressure you.”

“Actually ... Actually, it’s pretty good now.”

“I mean, we can’t just keep renting a place, right?”

“Plus, Olivia is about to enter the first grade. I think ...”

She felt so bad from self-blame.

She also knew that she shouldn’t have said such things. After all, her husband had all his money in his bank card.

At this time, if she wanted to buy a house, wouldn’t that be putting pressure on her husband?

“Honey!”

Seeing how his wife was blaming herself, Oliver Walker quickly held her slender hands. “I’m being serious as well. It’s been hard on you all these years!”

“I can give you a better life ...” He said.

Seeing that her husband was caught up in the topic of buying a house, Emilia quickly changed the topic and said with a smile, “Didn’t we talk about eating?”

“I ... I ... I’ll call my mother now so that we can bring Olivia out for a meal.”

She was anxious!

She really wanted a warm little home that belonged to them.

But ...

This wasn't the right time yet.

"Alright!"

Seeing how anxious he looked, Oliver Walker didn't have the urge to laugh. He just found it difficult to speak.

When would his wife be willing to believe that he really did not lack money?

He felt helpless.

There was nothing that he could do other than feel helpless!

In the Conference Room at the Davis Corporates.

"Dad!"

"It got sold out!"

Suddenly, William Davis jumped on his feet. "They finally made their move."

"All of them were huge purchases, divided into ten transactions. The highest transaction price was more than 300 million and the smallest one was more than 20 million!"

In fact, he didn't know that all ten transactions had been purchased by one person.

By doing so ...

It was just to not arouse the suspicion of the Davis Group and it was also how a normal businesses would acquire shares

However, Micheal Davis and his son, who had only been in the safety of their own company instead of the stock market, were like two country bumpkins. They didn't notice anything unusual at all!

"Alright!"

Chapter 304 Only Five Star Hotels!

"That's great!"

Micheal Davis said excitedly, "The stock price has also risen. It's almost three Yuan a share!"

"That's equivalent to not only extorting one billion but also a few hundred million with the shares in hand!"

"Is this the stock market?"

The two of them were still immersed in excitement and joy. After all ...

It was a complete surprise!

However, he did not realize that danger had quietly arrived!

"Hmph!"

Micheal Davis laughed coldly. "That country bumpkin in Colorado must be regretting it now, right?"

"If they dare to look down on me, even if the first war god wasn't here last night, I'm still an existence that they can't match up to."

With money in his hands, he would definitely be able to stand up strong.

Thus, William Davis smiled and said, “Dad, I’m going out for a meal. I’ll come back in the afternoon to continue working.”

Michelle Davis waved his arm, unable to hide his joy. “Go!”

“Okay, dad!” Due to his lack of money, William Davis had not gone to any high-end hotels alone for a while.

Therefore, he had to reward himself this afternoon. “F * ck the Colorado hotel. I don’t want to go anymore!”

“Shangri-La Hotel doesn’t seem too bad either.”

“There it is!”

After he left the house, he drove his Mercedes-Benz and sped towards his destination.

The atmosphere in the car was not harmonious.

This was because Emilia really didn’t like her father, who was sitting in the front passenger seat talking non-stop.

Mary Grimm’s face was filled with guilt. This man was her husband after all. No matter how unpopular he was, he still had to be included in the family as well.

So, she reached out and held her daughter’s hand, hoping that she would forgive her.

After all, he knew that Isaac Davis had done a lot of dirty things.

Emilia took a deep breath and held back!

“Since it’s a treat, I have to say this in advance. Small restaurants are not hygienic and the ingredients are not fresh. You definitely can’t go there.”

Isaac Davis still didn’t notice the cold atmosphere in the car. He continued to go overboard, “Otherwise, I’m not going!”

“After all, I’m in Colorado and I have a reputation. If others see me entering a food stall, wouldn’t I be embarrassed?!”

Mary Grimm couldn’t bear to listen to such words.

What do you mean by unsanitary small restaurants?

What did he mean by the ingredients were not fresh?

What kind of family would go to a star-rated hotel for lunch?

However, Oliver Walker did not take it seriously at all. It was good that his father-in-law was here.

After all, if he said that he wanted to go to a five-star hotel, his wife would disagree as well. So, he would just make a fuss.

Although he didn’t like his father-in-law, he didn’t mind preparing another set of chopsticks. It was enough as long as his mother-in-law and wife could enjoy it.

However, after holding it in for a long time, Emilia finally couldn’t hold it in anymore. “Who do you think you are?”

“Can’t you wake up from your dream?!”

“You’re no longer young master Davis!”

“How can you still demand to have lunch at a five-star hotel?!”

“We ...”

She didn’t know what to say.

After all, this was too much. Now, none of them in the family was going to work and completely relied on Oliver Walker’s life in exchange for the retirement fee.

She wouldn’t even buy new clothes for herself.

This father of hers could still speak so boldly. He was asking for a meal at a star-rated hotel?

Was he worthy?

Who else in their family was worthy of going to such a high-class place?

The driver pretended not to hear what they were saying. After all, was there anyone whom he hadn’t seen?

“Enough!”

Isaac Davis was furious and said, “What do you mean by that?”

“If you can’t even arrange a five-star hotel, what’s the point of us having dinner?!”

"I won't be going then!"

The only reason he was causing such a ruckus was because he didn't get the retirement fee.

Since he couldn't get it anyway, he had to spend as much as he could.

This was unbelievable!

Emilia's stomach was filled with anger as she said angrily, "If you don't want to go, then don't. We didn't invite you!"

It wasn't that she didn't want to be filial!

But with such a father, she couldn't find any reason to be filial!

"Issac, don't go too far."

Mary Grimm's brows were tightly furrowed as she tried to persuade him with a troubled expression, "How can we afford it? It's a five-star hotel!"

Isaac Davis shouted even louder, "What's the matter? When other people's daughters get married, the betrothal gifts are sky-high!"

"You've been married for eight years and you can't even treat me to a meal?"

"Oliver Walker, you're so f*cking poor. How did you have the audacity to marry my daughter?"

Chapter 305 You Owe This To Me

His words made the atmosphere in the taxi even colder!

No matter what, Oliver Walker was a matrilocal son-in-law.

Betrothal money?

Even if Emilia were to get married, she wouldn't ask for any sky-high betrothal gifts!

If the person who wanted the betrothal gift was Mary Grimm, she would have nothing to say.

However, the person who proposed this was someone who never cared about her and had even harmed more than once or twice!

This ...

To be honest, their values had been shattered.

Forget Emilia, even Mary Grimm was stunned!

No one had expected that Isaac Davis would mention the betrothal money!

"Cough cough ..."

Seeing that the atmosphere was getting more and more awkward, Oliver Walker quickly said, "Let's have a meal then."

In fact, wasn't this the main purpose of getting Isaac Davis to come?

Therefore, it was more in line with his intentions if they were to make a fuss!

“Alright!”

“You said it yourself. A man can’t go back on his words!

Isaac Davis quickly shouted, “Driver, let’s go to the Shangri-La Hotel in front!”

The taxi driver didn’t say anything but his tense face was obviously trying to hold back a smile.

Well, this was amazing!

This was unbelievable!

He could tell!

Perhaps, Oliver Walker was just being polite but ...

He didn’t expect that Isaac Davis would demand such an exorbitant price!

From the five star hotel that was mentioned earlier, it was upgraded to the Shangri-La Hotel, which was the second best to the Colorado Hotel.

This consumption ...

Tsk tsk tsk ...

Not to mention other things, according to Isaac Davis’s personality, he would definitely order a bottle of wine that cost more than a hundred thousand Yuan, which was his annual salary.

Oliver Walker had failed to show off and he was about to get struck by lightning.

“How can you be so overbearing?!”

Emilia’s pretty face had turned pale from anger!

There were no other reasons. If they really went to the Shangri-La Hotel for lunch, her father might spend all of her husband’s remaining retirement money!

At first, Mary Grimm wanted to win him over but when she found that Isaac Davis was walking further and further down the wrong path, she quickly criticised him, “It wasn’t easy for our child to get this money...”

His intentions were obvious.

Wasn’t it because he didn’t get the retirement fee?

In fact, even if Oliver Walker gave the bank card to his mother-in-law and wife, they wouldn’t have accepted it, let alone Isaac Davis.

There were different kinds of people in this world.

There were those where you would hate to the bone!

While there were some who could make you give up everything else willingly without feeling any regret!

“Hmph!”

Isaac Davis ‘face turned cold. “Me? How am I being overbearing?”

“Wasn’t it that kid who promised me?”

Emilia took a deep breath and quickly turned around, trying to get Oliver Walker to take back his words.

Mary Grimm could only sigh!

“Cough cough ...”

Oliver Walker laughed awkwardly and said, “Mom!”

“My wife and I have been married for so many years but we have never treated you to a decent meal!”

“Shangri-La Hotel it is! Let’s go to the Shangri-La Hotel!”

Wasn’t that just a normal five star hotel?

To put it bluntly, this was why he wanted Issac Davis here!

If he were the one who requested it, his wife and mother-in-law would probably think that he was crazy!

But even so...

His mother-in-law and wife were still in disbelief!

This ...

“You heard it, he said it!”

“I didn’t ask for it!”

Isaac Davis quickly said shamelessly, “Hmph!”

“It’s not easy for me to raise a daughter!”

Raise a daughter?

From the time she could remember, she had no impression of her father caring for her!

Instead, he had been squeezing every single cent she had from her!

He actually had the audacity to say such shameless words?

But that’s right!

If Isaac Davis really knew about propriety, justice, and honor, he wouldn’t have done so many things to hurt his family!

“You ...”

Chapter 306 The Shameless Man

Tears appeared in Emilia’s beautiful eyes. If she didn’t feel heartache for her husband, who else would?

He must have been forced to make such a decision!

“Don’t worry!”

“I know what I’m doing!”

“Just this once,” Oliver Walker said with a warm smile.

“You should be happy since we get to go out as a family.”

Emilia took a deep breath and tried her best to calm her emotions.

After a long silence, she finally said, “Alright. We shall go to the Shangri-La Hotel but please don’t order anything too expensive. Just pick a few!”

If it was just a regular meal, it may be expensive but he could still afford it.

If ...

Who could afford to eat exotic delicacies?

“Since you’re so sincere, I won’t make things difficult for you.”

“I definitely won’t pick the expensive dishes!”

Isaac Davis’s expression showed that his scheme had succeeded and the most important thing was ...

He was very clear about how much money Oliver Walker had left!

After all ...

Other than the rent, he was only left with three hundred thousand Yuan!

Couldn’t he afford the best?

“Phew ...”

Emilia's nerves had been tense the entire time. She had a feeling that her father would definitely not let this matter rest.

However, it seemed that she could not find a reason to reject him. She could only look at her husband with a resentful gaze and there was only sigh and anger in her heart.

Why did she have such a father?

Mary Grimm felt the worst.

But what could she say?

"We're here!"

The taxi driver finally heaved a sigh of relief when he arrived at his destination. He almost laughed out loud on the way here!

However, he was afraid of getting negative reviews and complaints which was why he had been holding it in!

He was free!

He was finally free!

When this weird family got out of the car, he was going to have a good laugh!

"Hahaha ..."

When all the passengers got out of the car, he couldn't hold it in anymore. He leaned on the steering wheel and laughed so hard that his stomach was cramping.

But he just couldn't help it!

Who in Colorado didn't know about Emilia's family background?

The most important thing was that pretty boy, he actually put up with it and agreed to what Isaac Davis wanted.

If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't get in, he would have followed them inside and see how this family would have embarrassed themselves!

"Mister, let's go?"

"I'm not leaving!"

At this moment, a person knocked on the car window and asked.

The driver refused without hesitation. Then, he continued to laugh wildly and he couldn't stop!

Ridiculous!

Did he not know how much money he had in his pocket?

At the entrance of the Shangri-La Hotel!

Isaac Davis held his head high and puffed out his chest. His aura was like a boss who had come to inspect his work!

As for Emilia and Mary Green, they followed behind with worried expressions!

Oliver Walker remained calm the entire time.

He even had the urge to laugh. This weird father-in-law of his clearly wanted to trick him but he didn't know that he was actually being used instead.

If his father-in-law wasn't here, why would his wife and mother-in-law, who had always been frugal, be willing to come to such a high-end place?

"Isaac Davis?"

"Emilia?"

"What are you doing here?"

"We don't hire security guards, waiters, or cleaners!"

"Besides, I won't recruit you even if I want to!"

"Go back to where you came from. Don't delay our business!"

At this moment, the smile on the waitresses' face disappeared. It was replaced by coldness and disdain.

This family was famous!

He was in a high-end place in Colorado and so he heard a lot of rumours from time to time.

His words made Mary Grimm and Emilia, who had always been headstrong, even more uncomfortable.

Could it be that they were only here to apply for the job of cleaning and service staff?

The security guards at the entrance and the eight pretty female waitresses in cheongsam also looked over to watch the show.

This ...

This was shocking!

Was the sun rising from the West?

Chapter 307 Bringing A Gun To A Sword Fight

“F*ck you!”

Isaac Davis shouted, “Open your dog eyes and see who I am!”

He would obviously be in a fit after being ridiculed.

After all, he had just been in the car, bragging about how he was a respected man in Colorado.

In the end, this snobbish fellow said that he was here to apply for a position as a security guard. Wasn’t that a slap to his face?

“You ...”

Freddy, the waiter, felt mad as well and in the blink of an eye, he said coldly, “Aren’t you Isaac Davis?” he asked.

“Or is it grandpa Davis now?”

Disdain!

Contempt!

Freddy was definitely looking down on them!

If it was someone else, Freddy would have definitely got on his knees and flattered them.

But ...

Who were these people? Issac Davis's family!

They were the ones who have been expelled from Davis!

They were just a bunch of stray dogs!

"I'm here to have a meal!"

Isaac Davis was flushing with rage as he roared again, "You really have a pair of narrow eyes. Do you naturally like to look down on people? "

"Get lost!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he lifted his foot and kicked Freddy!

Oliver Walker didn't stop them. It was said that the wicked would be tortured by the wicked. Now, two wicked people were standing on opposite sides. It was time to see who was more wicked!

It was just that Isaac Davis's strength was not as great as he had imagined, causing Freddy to only take two steps back and not fall.

After being hit, what followed was a monstrous anger. "You dare lay hands on me?!"

“You think you have what it takes to challenge me?!”

“Brothers, get your weapons!”

In an instant, a row of security guards took out rubber rods and surrounded Oliver Walker’s family!

Emilia and Mary Green didn’t like to cause trouble.

When they saw this, his brows furrowed tighter and tighter. There was an indescribable bitterness!

“Hahahahhaa.....”

“You’re just calling for help just because you can’t win me, right?”

Isaac Davis’s face turned red immediately. How could he have the guts to fight with these people?

He hurriedly took a step back and had an idea. He said shamelessly, “Cough cough ...”

“Just ... You little brats are not f*cking worthy for me to fight!”

“You can fight me once you defeat him!”

Oliver Walker?

He was a retired soldier!

Issac Davis didn’t believe that Oliver Walker wouldn’t be able to deal with such a small group of men.

However, he panicked but in the spirit of 'having his comrade take the trouble first' even if he was going to be beaten up, it would be Oliver Walker who would be the unlucky one first.

If things were to take the wrong turn...

He would look for an opportunity to run for his life!

Emilia felt helpless. Of course, she knew that these security guards couldn't deal with her husband.

But ...

His father's actions were as shameless as it could get.

After all, Oliver Walker did not say a word. Issac Davis was the one who caused the disaster.

"Hmph!"

"Then let's beat them up together!"

"Attack!" Freddy roared in anger.

After receiving the order, more than a dozen bodyguards waved their rubber batons, ready to beat them up!

However, Oliver Walker was not affected at all. He didn't even feel scared.

But.... he felt somewhat helpless, not knowing whether to laugh or cry!

Ever since he left the Indiana battlefield, his opponents had dropped to the level that it was unnecessary for him to fight them.

“Wait ... Wait ...”

At that moment, the walkie-talkie on Freddy’s waist rang!

Obviously, the situation happening at the entrance had been captured by the surveillance room!

Chapter 308 Ordering For A Village

The person who spoke was the manager of the Security Department!

His subordinates may not know about this but as a small leader of his department, he had received an order from his boss, who had returned from the banquet last night.

Davis’s ban on Emilia has been lifted!

It was just that he didn’t have the time to convey it to his staff!

After all, he did not expect that Emilia’s family would come to the Shangri-La Hotel in such a short period of time!

Without the restriction of the ban, no matter who came, they would be distinguished guests.

After all, this was how a business was run. Furthermore, the hotel was part of the service industry.

“Brother Liu, what’s going on?”

Freddy hurriedly waved his hand to stop them. The few security guards at the scene asked with dumbfounded faces, “They’re the ones who have been kicked out of the Davis family!”

“It’s obvious that they’re here to scam us!”

The next second, the manager of the Security Department rushed from the surveillance room to the entrance and said in a deep voice, "The ban has been lifted!"

The people in the Shangri-La Hotel were all stunned!

Are you kidding?

The ban was lifted? Just like that?

"I'm sorry, everyone!"

"Our staff were the ones who were being impolite."

Dylan, who was wearing a suit, quickly smiled and said, "Please come in!"

He had been in a high-end hotel for many years and being able to stay in such a high position showed that he was naturally a smart man.

Davis had clamoured back then that they would ban Emilia for life.

The news of the ban being lifted has not been announced but the higher-ups had suddenly issued a notice. What did this mean?

It was obvious that something had happened!

"En!"

However, before Oliver Walker, who had been pushed to the front, could say anything, Isaac Davis who realised that he no longer had to fight and walked to the front. "You brat! You're still a smart man!"

Dylan's expression changed drastically. He was extremely displeased, but he still held back his anger!

However, Isaac Davis did not give up. He took two more steps forward and waved his hand on Freddy's face. He did not do anything that injured Freddy but it was indeed something humiliating. He patted him twice. "You dog! Next time, open your eyes!"

"Even your superior doesn't dare to talk to me like that. Now you know who I am, right?"

Freddy swallowed his saliva. He wanted to slap the fat man in front of him to death but the manager had already held back. What else could he do?

He could only admit defeat!

After teaching the security guards a lesson, Isaac Davis was no longer as afraid as before. Instead, he held his head high and strode forward in high spirits.

It could be said that he had a firm grasp of the temperament of the boss of the underworld!

He thought Dylan was afraid of his identity.

He didn't know that the glory he had now was entirely because of Oliver Walker, who had beaten the Davis Group to the ground.

It was precisely because of this that the merchants of Colorado were no longer afraid of the Davis Group.

Both Emilia and Mary Green were speechless!

But, they had no other choice but to follow him inside.

When they arrived at the dining table, they attracted many glances from the others but fortunately, they were used to it and no one paid attention to those crazy words.

On the other hand, Isaac Davis put down the menu handed to him by the waiter, crossed his legs and said arrogantly, "There's no need for this."

Emilia's heart felt a little more at ease.

If he didn't even look at the menu, it meant that he wouldn't order anything that was too expensive!

However, the next moment, Isaac Davis said triumphantly, "I come to this restaurant often. I can even recite the menu backwards!"

"I want the biggest Australian lobster and make it into a cold dish."

"The abalone must be the imported ones. I want them braised!"

"Next, I'll have four servings of bird's nest porridge with golden thread!"

"And steam a fresh stone-spotted fish that weighs more than three catties!"

"..."

With each dish that he ordered, Emilia's face looked more and more embarrassed.

He only ordered things that were expensive!

Based on the current situation, Emilia estimated that her father would have already spent twenty to thirty thousand Yuan. However, looking at her father who was still going on with it and didn't look like he was about to stop, she quickly stopped him. "I ... I ... There are only four of us, can we eat that much?"

If her father didn't restrain himself, he would spend all of Oliver Walker's money!

How could he not feel heartache?

Mary Grimm had an uncomfortable look on her face as well. She looked at her son-in-law sitting opposite her with guilt.

She ...

Her original intention was to have a normal meal as a family but who would have thought that Isaac Davis would act this way?

Could they afford such an expensive meal right now?

Chapter 309 Daydreaming

"These ... Are you prepared to take away some of the food?"

Isaac Davis said shamelessly, "If I don't order more and others see this, wouldn't they mock me for not being able to afford it?"

"You saw how influential I am at the entrance just now!

"I'm a man of status!"

Such shameless words made Emilia so angry that she wanted to get up and slam the table so that she could leave. This was too much!

But at this moment, Oliver Walker quickly said, "Honey, just this once. Let's calm down!"

How could he not know that his wife and mother-in-law were worried for him?

However, his wife and mother-in-law did not understand that the reason he allowed Isaac Davis to do as he pleased was to improve their quality of lives. “Besides, Olivia hasn’t eaten yet. If we can’t finish, we’ll pack some and bring it home!”

Emilia pursed her red lips and her delicate body struggled for a moment before finally sitting down!

That kind of feeling was simply indescribable!

“Alright, I’m done!”

“I’m not ordering anymore!”

Isaac Davis slammed the table and left unhappily. He hadn’t achieved his goal yet!

However, it was obvious that if he continued to order, they would have asked him to leave.

So, he sneaked to the side of the restaurant, pulled the waiter over, and said, “Cough cough ...”

“That ... Give me another bottle of white wine. It doesn’t have to be too expensive, just a few hundred thousand Yuan will do!”

The waiter’s heart felt like it was being stomped on by ten thousand horses!

He wanted to ask a few questions but in the end, he decided to keep quiet about it.

To play it safe, Isaac Davis said, “That, before the wine is served, you have to open the bottle so that they can’t return it!”

The waiter gulped!

In fact, she had also roughly understood that Issac Davis was trying to ruthlessly trick Oliver Walker.

Forget about Emilia and Mary Grimm who couldn't stand it anymore, even she, an outsider, despised this man.

What kind of father-in-law was this?

Wouldn't he feel uncomfortable if he didn't extort all of his son-in-law's money?

As a woman herself, she felt indignant for Emilia's father!

But she ...

She was just a waiter!

After explaining himself, Isaac Davis swaggered to the bathroom.

That was probably all the money that Oliver Walker had left.

This meal would definitely cause them to go bankrupt!

Oliver Walker was the one who refused to share it with him! Oliver Walker even dared to use the past to threaten him to apologise to that woman!

Once that little rascal, Oliver Walker, ran out of money, he would find a rich heir to madly pursue Emilia.

He did not believe that his daughter wouldn't have change of hearts!

Hmph!

This was the consequence of offending him!

“My child!”

At the dining table, Mary Grimm’s face was filled with embarrassment. “I ... I ... I don’t know why ... it turned out this way!

“He ... It was too ...He’s too greedy!”

“I ...”

She could only blame herself.

She was now filled with guilt!

Because of feeling exhausted all these years, the wrinkles at the corners of her eyes were particularly obvious.

That pair of delicate eyes made one’s heart ache even more.

Emilia didn’t say a word and just sat beside her husband with her head lowered!

She ...

She had always thought that her husband was doing this for his face!

That was why she allowed her father to mess around.

After sensing the dull atmosphere, Oliver Walker quickly smiled and said, “Mom, don’t worry too much.”

“Eat and drink as you should!”

“I have another surprise for you guys tomorrow!”

Mary Grimm and Emilia didn’t say anything, thinking that Oliver Walker was only comforting them!

He was only doing this so that they could be at ease!

However, they didn’t know that Oliver Walker really had a huge surprise waiting for them!

With how his family was kicked out of Davis, he would let his wife sit on the director’s seat in the Davis group’s conference room in broad daylight tomorrow!!

It was indeed impossible to obtain absolute control with only 20% of the shares.

However, in the entire company, only Ma’am Davis had more shares than him.

Even Micheal Davis, the nominal Chairman, might not have as many shares as his wife!

Soon!

The dishes were getting served!

Australian lobsters!

Golden abalone!

Chapter 310 Delicacy

Bird's nest porridge with golden thread and so on ...

It did look good!

But.... all of these cost money!

"Don't move!"

"Don't move!"

Like a host, Isaac Davis took out his phone and shouted, "I have to take pictures of these and post them online!"

However, he didn't know that even if there were all sorts of delicacies placed in front of Emilia and Mary Grimm, they wouldn't be in the mood to eat.

Were they just having a simple meal?

No!

They were eating the blood and sweat of Oliver Walker on the battlefield!

How could they swallow these?

Their loathing for Isaac Davis had reached the extreme!

"Hahaha ..."

“Alright, I’m done!”

After taking a few photos, Isaac Davis shouted happily, “Well, I am going to help myself now!”

He had not had such an expensive meal in a long time.

After all, even if he could get 100000 Yuan from Oliver Walker every month, how could that be enough for the expenses of having a meal at such a high-end hotel?

It was not an exaggeration to say that for poor people, no matter how hard they tried to save, they would not be able to save much.

Even a small-capital family could declare bankruptcy if they had such an expensive meal.

How could there be so many rich people?

Besides, even the rich would not be so extravagant and wasteful!

Seeing that Isaac Davis had made his move and his wife had no appetite, Oliver Walker leaned close to her ear and said in a very low voice, “Honey, if you and mom don’t eat it, won’t it be too easy on him?”

It wasn’t that he had a big opinion on Isaac Davis but that men like him were indeed disgusting!

“Mm ...”

After feeling the hot wind in her ears and hearing his words, Emilia’s beautiful eyes dimmed slightly.
“Let’s eat!”

“Why aren’t you eating?”

She had no doubt that with her father's character, he would finish everything by himself!

If she didn't eat, everything would have happened according to what her father wanted.

She had to eat them!

"Mom!"

"Pick up your chopsticks!"

Oliver Walker laughed. Perhaps this meal didn't mean anything but at least he had done something that he had wanted to do for a long time.

Now, he had fulfilled a small wish.

"Alright!"

Mary Grimm nodded. "I've eaten all of these in the past. It's nothing new for me."

"But, Olivia has never tried these. I'll leave some for her!"

She used to be the young mistress of Davis and so she often had these delicacies.

However, Olivia had been living a hard life with them since she was born.

Weren't all parents like this?

However, people like Isaac Davis were rare even when there would always be people like him.

Insatiable greed that was spurned by others!

However, Isaac Davis was a self-centered person. He never cared about what others thought of him.

As long as he lived well, it was all that mattered!

As for his family?

Does he even have one?

However, they were just targets that could be used!

In one of the rooms in Shangri-La Hotel ...

A chubby man in his fifties smiled after receiving the news. "Williams, let me tell you a joke."

"Oliver Walker, who caused a scene at Davis 'dinner last night, ordered a meal that caused twenty thousand at my restaurant!"

"Hahaha ..."

"I really don't know where Emilia got the courage to spend money at my place!"

"If they can't afford these later on, it would be a joke!"

The man was the owner of the Shangri-La Hotel, Daniel Lee.

He laughed so hard that he was almost out of breath!

Twenty thousand yuan was nothing to him.

However, for Oliver Walker, it should be a sky-high price, right?

But then again, Emilia was indeed pretty. If he couldn't afford to pay the bill, he wouldn't bother making things difficult for Oliver Walker.

As long as Emilia agreed to spend a night with him, it was possible for her to repay the debt with her body.

After all, she was once the number one goddess of Colorado. If he got her in bed with him, it would be worth it!

More importantly, Emilia was a clean woman.

With her personality, Oliver Walker was probably the only man that she had. She was much cleaner than those young models who were cheap and for sale.
