

Chaplain! 34

Chapter 34 Hendric Smith

Hendric Smith's appearance broke the silence at the scene and also interrupted their thoughts!

When James Floss lifted up his head and saw who it was, he was incredibly shocked, "Mr.....Mr. Smith!"

As a doctor, he obviously knew about this important man who often made his special appearance in the medical field!

This was the godly hands of the International Medical Center!

He...

How did he get here?

Oliver Walker was the one who spoke first, "Quick! Follow this woman and save her son! Give it your all!"

Everyone at the scene was confused!

What was going on?

Who was this old man?

Save her son?

How?!

James Floss had already given the death notice!

Even Laile Lee was looking hopeless!

"Of course!"

Hendric Smith didn't get the chance to ask anything else. The only thing that he said was, "Where is the patient?"

James Floss immediately crawled from the ground and screamed, "Mr. Smith, please come with me!"

If they wanted to save that man, it could only be done by these godly hands.

If Hendric Smith wasn't able to do so, then...

Soon, with James Floss leading the way, Hendric Smith went to the patient at Bed 69.

The old woman stood up, and even if this might be an act, she still couldn't give up.

If she were to give up now, how would her weak son on the bed be able to survive this?

"You...you have really outdone yourself!"

Emilia said hopelessly, "How blind could I be to have fallen in love with you?!"

"Do you know what I have to carry on my shoulders from this day onwards?!"

"You..."action

Oliver Walker made her completely speechless!

Then, she fell onto the chair and covered her pale, tired face with both her hands.

She couldn't understand how Oliver Walker was able to make such promises?!

Oliver Walker frowned. He knew that even if he explained it, his wife would never trust him, but he would still be able to prove that he wasn't lying.

As long as that man was still alive, he could be saved.

"Wow! What a scene!"

Suddenly, there was a complacent voice that rang through the corridor.

Oliver turned around and saw that it was George Johnson!

According to what James Floss had told him earlier, those ventilators that were damaged must have been done by this man!

Rage!

Rage ignited in his heart!

"Why...why are you here?"

Emilia looked nervous. Things were still unsettled yet on one end, but another wave was about to start. She was already exhausted!

What was George Johnson doing here?

Was he here to rush her into getting married?

What should she do?

"Hahahaha..."

George Johnson laughed at the misery he was seeing and said, "I came to visit my fiancée. That's not a bad thing, right?"

"Although Olivia isn't my daughter, I am her stepfather. There's nothing wrong with me checking up on her, right?"

He considered Emilia to be his fiancée.

This was because he knew that Emilia would not be able to gather a hundred thousand dollars within such a short period of time.

The most important part of it was what he said in the end. He was here to check on Olivia?

No!

He only wanted to know if Olivia Walker was dead!

Especially when he spoke and looked at Oliver Walker scornfully. He was definitely trying to provoke Oliver Walker.

"As a man, you really are useless to be in this situation!"

"You can't keep your woman, and you can't save your child!

"If I may, useless men like you should just be dead so that you don't waste the limited air we have left!"

"Hahahahahahah!!!"

George Johnson's men, who were standing right behind him, started laughing as well.

"Mr.....Johnson..."

Emilia bit her lips. After a while, she said, "I.....I will definitely return the money to you."

She really hated how he was referring to her as his fiance. She even hated it more when he said that he was Olivia's stepfather.

But, no matter how angry she was, what else could she do?

If the man standing beside her was a little more responsible, would she be in this miserable state?

She was angry at how useless he was!

She was pissed!

"HAHAHAHAHA..."

George Johnson scoffed. He ignored Emilia and looked at Oliver Walker instead. After seeing how angry he was, George Johnson acted like an idiot and started challenging Oliver Walker, "What's wrong? You're mad?"

"Keep it down your throat!

"Hahahahaha..."
