

Chaplain! 35

Chapter 35 I'll Teach You A Lesson

Oliver Walker tried to remain calm as he stepped forward after being challenged, "You are playing with fire!"

If Emilia wasn't present, he would have started a fight.

Although he had no evidence that George Johnson was the culprit for all the damaged ventilators all across Colorado, the way that he was standing right here and saying all these words was enough to prove that he had the intention!

His intention solidified his motives!

"Fire?"

"Do you really think that you're fire?"

"My god! What a fking joke!"

George Johnson continued acting foolishly as he said, "In three days, your ex-wife will become mine.

"Your daughter will be my stepdaughter..."

As he was speaking, Mike White and the rest of them were getting excited.

This was definitely the greatest insult to another man!

They wanted to see what reaction this idiot would have without the support from Emilia.

"Mr. Johnson..."

Emilia could feel that something wasn't right with Oliver Walker. She knew this man really well. She knew that once he went crazy, he would not care about the consequences.

Although she was mad at him, this man was still her husband and the father of her daughter!

Follow current on storynovel.net

She would not allow this man to fall into the abyss, unable to save himself under her watch!

"Move aside!"

George Johnson suddenly felt angry as he pushed away Emilia and said, "You better mother fking listen to me. Stay put and prepare to be my bride..."

Before he could finish his sentence, Oliver Walker, who was already extremely pissed, grabbed onto George Johnson's collar and screamed, "You idiot! How could you be so cruel! I will make you pay an eye for an eye!"

Then, his fist was raised above his head.

If his apprentice didn't get here in time, that patient could have died because of the lack of ventilators.

Until now, he still couldn't forget how Laila Lee's eyes looked earlier.

His daughter's life was important.

But their lives mattered as well!

"You...don't you fking dare lay a finger on me!"

George Johnson might be frightened, but he didn't think that Oliver Walker would do anything to him.

The men standing behind him weren't useless!

"Damn it!"

"Let go of him!"

"You're dead, you fker!"

"..."

Follow current on storynovel.net

Mike White and the rest of the men started shouting!

At the same time, Emilia panicked as well!

No matter how evil George Johnson was, they still couldn't offend him!

Otherwise, it would only make it worse for her!

Boom --

Just when everyone else thought that Oliver Walker would not have the guts to hit George Johnson, Oliver's fist landed straight on George's face!

At that moment, two of his teeth flew out of his mouth, and there was blood everywhere!

"AHHHHH!!!!!"

George Johnson felt intense pain radiating from his face, and he wailed in pain.

He really had no idea how Oliver Walker had the guts to lay his hands on him!

But...

Then...

Another punch landed in the same place!

George Johnson's eyeballs were about to pop out of his eye sockets!

"I want you to know that you have to pay for what you have done!

"I want you to know that there is still justice!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

It was impossible for Oliver Walker to dispel all the anger in him. This was the bastard who intentionally ruined the other ventilators and almost cost his daughter's life!

They almost killed that old woman's son! action

As humans, how could he be so cruel?!

Mike White and the rest of them were in shock. Seeing how his fist landed one after another, none of them dared to open their mouths.

This was because they knew that this crazy man would not be able to stop.

If they continued to threaten him, it would further provoke this man!

Then, Emilia, who finally regained her senses, rushed forward and hugged Oliver. She cried painfully as she said, "Please! I beg of you! Stop it!"

"He is someone we can't offend!"

"Do you really want to see Olivia dead?!"

"Please! I'm begging you!"

"Could you please stop?!"

The rage and pain in her heart were unimaginable.

Who was George Johnson?

This man was the bully of Colorado! His men could come after her family at any time!

She hated this man the most!

Why was Oliver Walker trying to act tough?!

Why did he do this?!