

Chaplain 381

Chapter 381 You Asked For It

Just as the dozen or so people charged at her, Emilia didn't know what to do.

However, she did not retreat!

She knew that her injured husband was right behind her!

"You asked for it!"

All of a sudden, Oliver Walker's aura burst out, and his body was like a sharp arrow. With a 'whoosh', he got up from the bed.

"Ahhhh!"

"F*ck ... Jacob, this kid was pretending!"

"Motherf*cker, I've been tricked!"

"..."

It was a piece of cake for Oliver Walker to kill them.

Bodies fell onto the ground as soon as he lifted his hand, without the slightest bit of sloppiness!

These hooligans dared to lay their hands on him?

Emilia was shocked! But, when she saw her husband's agile movements, she immediately understood what was going on!

This man was completely fine!

She couldn't help but feel happy but ...

She was feeling mad at the same time. It turned out that Oliver Walker had been pretending to be injured for the entire day.

However, on second thought, he was murdering these people!

What should she do?

What if ...

She didn't even dare to imagine it!

When all of his men fell to the ground, Jacob's eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

'Plop ...'

Without any hesitation, he knelt on the ground and cried, "Big... Big brother, please spare... Please spare my life!"

He had always thought of himself as a ruthless man. After all, he had never seen anyone as fierce as Oliver Walker.

It had only been half a minute!

All of his men were dead!

What does this mean?!

What Jacob didn't know was that all of these happened when Oliver Walker was still injured. In his peak state, he was a god of death that made his enemies tremble in fear!

"Spare your life?"

"There should be quite a number of victims who died in your hands, right?" Oliver Walker asked with a faint smile.

Jacob was instantly dumbfounded!

Ever since his girlfriend had cheated on him, he had indeed committed many murders.

This was because he stayed in the middle of the wilderness. With the corpse destroyed, no one could trace it to him!

But today, he had messed with the wrong person.

At this moment, his entire body was trembling...

Cold sweat kept oozing out of his forehead!

He didn't even dare to look at that pair of sharp eyes!

"I don't want to kill anyone!"

"But, don't be happy about it first. I won't let go of anyone who deserves to be killed!" Oliver Walker spoke in a cold tone.

After he spoke those cold words, he smashed Jacob's skull with his palm.

With a loud 'boom', the 1.8-meter tall man instantly fell to the ground!

Emilia's face was pale because she had never seen human life so fragile.

But ...

In just one minute, more than a dozen people had died!

"You ..."

When she looked at her husband again, there was a sense of unfamiliarity in her eyes.

To be honest, it was something hard to accept.

The thick smell of blood in the air made her breathing quicken uncontrollably!

In fact, she even took two steps back involuntarily!

"I....." Oliver Walker furrowed his brows.

It wasn't that he wanted to kill them but these people asked for it!

What if he was an ordinary person?

How could he escape from the hands of these bastards?

“I... I... I understand!”

Emilia’s left hand was placed on her heart as she said with a pale face, “Just give me some time.”

In fact, she clearly understood that if Oliver Walker did not make a move, this group of people would not have left them alone.

If they were too light-handed, this group of people would continue to harm others.

It was just that she found it a little difficult to accept it!

“Buzz Buzz Buzz ...”

At the same time, George Lee, who sensed the killing intent, suddenly sped up.

He stepped on the accelerator!

“Mr. Walker!” He shouted as he rushed into the room.

He did not doubt for a second that the chaplain could not even deal with the local ruffians!

He was only afraid that the enemy would come back for revenge!

After all, when the chaplain left the front lines in Indiana, his injuries had not fully recovered!

“I’m fine!”

Chapter 382 Time To Go Home

Oliver Walker waved his hand and said, “Take care of this place. Oh, right, give me the car keys!”

He could not stay here any longer. He was afraid that this would leave a shadow in his wife's heart.

So he chose to go home!

"Yes!"

What was it that George Lee had not witnessed?

Then, he took out his phone and started to call for backup. Someone who could make the chaplain kill would never be anyone kind.

If he dug deeper, there might be an accomplice behind this!

Therefore, he had to capture them all in one fell swoop!

On the way home...

Emilia, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, woke up from her numb state. "Just... we're fine just like that?"

"Who is he?"

She had never come into contact with such an incident.

She knew nothing about this.

Even if they killed a bad person, there would still be some questions asked, right?

As she panicked, she had long forgotten what her husband had said.

Even if she didn't panic, she didn't believe that Oliver Walker was the master of the five great War Gods. She always took it as a joke.

However, one thing was for sure. It was the fact that her husband definitely wasn't someone with a lowly status!

"Honey!"

"I know that some things are hard for you to accept, but these are the rules of survival," Oliver Walker frowned as he tried to explain it to his wife.

"I kill people to uphold justice!"

"They were robbing people and raping women!"

Although both parties were killing people, there was a fundamental difference.

Plus, he had been killed multiple times, and he was already used to it.

He just didn't know how to make his wife accept it.

If he had known that George Lee would come, he wouldn't have had to make a move.

"What do you mean?"

After thinking for a moment, Oliver Walker said, "I have the right to kill them!"

If he didn't have the power, who else would?

He might have retired, but he has not been removed from his position.

“I...”

“I understand...”

Emilia frowned slightly. She did not blame him at all.

She knew that her husband had no other choice in that situation.

When they returned home, his mother-in-law and daughter were already asleep.

They moved quietly into the house so that they wouldn't wake anyone up.

However, that night, Emilia did not sleep well. It was also the first time that Oliver Walker had gone to sleep in her room.

According to George Lee's message, the truth behind the 'Kiss of Judas' had been revealed.

He had to get this painting back!

This was because William Davis didn't deserve it!

The next morning, when the bodyguards from the Davis family came to welcome Mary Grimm, she had no idea what was going on.

However, when she learned that she could return to the old mansion, she was overjoyed.

“Emilia, did you hear that? I can go home!”

“We can go home!”

Mary Grimm was so moved that tears fell. To her, Davis was indeed her home. After all, she had lived there for so many years.

“Mom!”

“If you’re not used to it, you can always come back!” Emilia smiled brightly when she saw her mother excited.

She was worried that those from the Davis family would make things difficult for her mother.

However, she also understood that she could not stop her mother’s desire to go home!

On the other hand, Oliver Walker did not say anything because he believed that the people from the Davis family would not have the guts to touch his mother-in-law!

Unless...

He was already tired of living.

After watching her mother get into the car, Emilia turned around and sincerely said, “Thank you!”

She understood that this man might not be good at expressing himself.

But...

This man was willing to exchange his life for what she and her mother wanted!

“Is that still necessary?”

“Get in the car. I’ll send you to work!” Oliver Walker answered her with a warm smile.

He had thought about buying a car but other than the L5 parked downstairs, what other car could match his wife’s nobility?

Moreover, the things that he should and shouldn’t do have already been done.

His wife’s ability to accept things was actually better than he had imagined!

*****

Back at the Davis Group.

“Dad!”

“That old woman really went back to the old mansion.” William Davis was pissed.

“I can’t stay in that house anymore!”

“I’m annoyed just by looking at them!”

In fact, not only was he annoyed, he was also afraid.

Chapter 383 Saving The Cosmetic Brand

Micheal Davis’s face was dark as he said, “It’s good that you’re leaving. Just buy a villa outside.”

He always treated his son as a precious treasure.

He also knew that Oliver Walker was a typical lunatic; even his daughter had been beaten up to such a state.

If his son also were to enter the intensive care unit, he would not even have a place to cry!

“Oh right, dad!”

“That woman is coming to work today. She won’t do anything crazy, will she? ”

He was feeling worried!

After all, the financial report had already been submitted. Emilia would still be able to sense it if it was fake.

“Hmph!”

Micheal Davis snorted coldly, “So what if she has shares?”

“Don’t forget! The entire Corporation is under our control!”

According to his guess, even if Emilia wanted to make a move, she didn’t have the ability to do so.

Did she really think that the corporation was still the same as before?

Slap!

Emilia received the group’s financial report as she wished, but after reading it, she was so angry that she slammed it on the table!

“What’s wrong?” Oliver Walker asked as he frowned.

What he cared about the most was his wife’s feelings.

How could he bear to see her angry?

“This is infuriating!”

Emilia rubbed her forehead and said, “When I left the corporation, the cosmetics business was the best in Colorado!”

“However, now...”

“It’s now a third-tier brand, to the point where no one is interested in it now!”

The profit margin of the cosmetics industry was something that one didn’t need to think about.

Often, cosmetics that sell for more than thousands when the cost of making it was only a dozen of dollars.

After William Davis took over, in order to further lower the cost, he used inferior products to replace the good ones. This was why the Davis Group’s cosmetics products could no longer stand firm.

In the eyes of consumers, it was a product that only fools would buy!

Oliver Walker smiled and comforted Emilia, “Don’t worry. As long as we have good products, we’ll soon occupy the market again.”

In his opinion, this was not a problem at all.

After all, he was in this line of work. Any beauty prescription, as long as it could be produced according to ingredient list, would definitely blow up the entire market.

Just because he didn't want to make money, that doesn't mean that he didn't know how to make money.

It wasn't like there was no way to earn money!

"You don't have to comfort me!"

"The cosmetics that the Davis Group owned has already lost its market share and the confidence of its users." Emilia said with a bitter smile.

"Plus, the R&D team isn't even doing a good job. How can it be that easy?"

Her husband might be very powerful but business matters were not that simple.

Not to mention that they didn't have any good products, even if they did, what could they be able to compete with the other cosmetic brands?

Without market share and the support, it would only lead to a slow death.

It was harder to turn things around than to ascend to the heavens!

"I'm not comforting you. I'm being serious!"

"It's in women's nature to love beauty." Oliver Walker quickly suggested.

"I happen to know a pure Chinese medicine prescription for removing scars. The effect of it will definitely beat all the scar-removing products on the market!"

"Really?" Emilia was stunned.

"When have I ever lied to you?" Oliver Walker laughed.

He picked up a pen, then wrote down more than a dozen Chinese medicinal herbs, and showed them to his wife.

He was waiting for a compliment.

"This ..."

After reading it, Emilia frowned and said, "Are you kidding me?"

"These are the commonest Chinese medicines. There's nothing that stands out here!"

She really didn't know anything about medicine.

However, after being a general manager for so long, she had a good understanding of cosmetics.

Without an expensive herb as a gimmick, how could it cause a trend?

Even when it gets launched in the market and gets noticed, who would buy something so mundane?

"I'll make you believe me."

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth rose slightly. "Now, it's up to you how you're going to take over this subsidiary company!"

He had enough confidence.

After all, the medical skills of the Tianyi Sect were no joke.

Often, the simplest and most inconspicuous medicinal materials could exert the greatest effect after being fused together.

Chapter 384 Negotiation

If the ratio was not right, even if it was a high-grade medicinal herb, there would still be a conflict.

In the end, not only would it not work, it would also be harmful to the body!

“I...”

Looking at her confident husband, Emilia hesitated for a moment before standing up and saying, “I’ll call for an emergency meeting now!”

No matter what, she had no reason to doubt her husband!

No matter what the consequences were, she would bear it alone!

“Ding Ling Ling...”

When she pressed the bell, the people from Davis Group were stunned!

What was Emilia trying to do?

She had already received the financial report. It couldn’t be that she had found out that something was wrong so quickly, right?

Was it time to settle the score?

Ten minutes later, the group's conference room was filled with those Davis Group.

These were the shareholders of the group.

As soon as Micheal Davis took over, he drove out all the executives Emilia had promoted at that time.

So now, all the senior management positions in the group were held by those from the Davis family.

This was also the main reason for the group's decline!

"She....what does she want?"

"She has only been in the office for one day and she's already holding an emergency meeting. Doesn't she think too highly of herself?"

"I still have a social event to attend to."

"..."

Perhaps it was because of their guilty conscience, those from the Davis family vented their dissatisfaction and expressed how they were fearless.

Micheal Davis and William Davis sat in their respective seats and did not say a word.

Emilia was clearly trying to intimidate everyone!

She had initiated an emergency meeting but she was not here yet. It was simply too much.

“I’m very pleased that everyone is on time!”

Just as everyone was feeling dissatisfied, Emilia took a look at the time, took her documents, and sat down in her seat.

Meanwhile, Oliver Walker also had his own seat but it was all the way in the end of the room.

He didn’t mind that as he could have some peace and quiet.

This was his wife taking the initiative and revitalising Davis Group was definitely what their grandfather wanted to see.

Therefore, he would naturally support her unconditionally.

“What do you mean by that?”

William Davis’s face was gloomy as he said, “Didn’t you just finish the morning meeting?”

“Didn’t you get the financial report you wanted?”

Micheal Davis was the Chairman of the Board. It was obviously not suitable for him to make trouble but William Davis was the General Manager, so he naturally didn’t care.

“I’ve seen the financial report!”

“Are you all only good at playing the game of covering your ears and stealing the bell?” Emilia said coldly.

“Did you really think that a fake financial report could trick me?”

William Davis guiltily shut his mouth.

After all, he knew that he could not hide it.

If he spoke again, he would be asking for trouble!

“You didn’t call for an emergency meeting just because of this, did you?”

Micheal Davis pretended to be calm and said, “I don’t think there’s any problem with the financial report. Just state your request.”

In fact, he was admitting defeat!

Those from the Davis Group didn’t dare to say a word because they were guilty as well.

“I only have one purpose. As long as you are willing to agree to it, then I will no longer pursue the matter of the financial report fraud!”

She also understood that if they didn’t pay a price, this group of people wouldn’t easily let go of the cosmetics industry.

Therefore, she immediately threw out the terms.

As expected, everyone’s eyes lit up.

For them, this was the best!

But Micheal Davis smelled a conspiracy. “What do you want?”

He knew Emilia too well!

Once he got serious, he was a master who couldn't be fooled!

As for Emilia, who had returned to the corporation, she would definitely take it seriously and would no longer be as patient as before.

Therefore, it would be impossible for her to be so magnanimous to throw out such a huge olive branch.

His heart couldn't help but started racing.

Chapter 385 Taking the Cosmetic Business Back

"I want the management rights of the cosmetics company under the group!"

Emilia didn't hesitate or beat around the bush. She went straight to the point.

This was because she was on a different path from these people, she didn't need to disguise herself.

Or rather, she had never been someone who liked to put on a pretense!

"What?"

William Davis suddenly stood up in a rage, his face red. "I don't agree to it!"

Why's that?

Davis Cosmetics was his money tree.

He had always been personally in charge of it.

The moment Emilia came back, she started slaughtering him first. Wasn't she just trying to kill one of them to warn the others.

Micheal Davis's face also turned ugly!

He knew it was nothing good!

Although Davis Cosmetics didn't make money, William Davis could earn a lot of extra money from it.

The amount of it was not small at all!

"You don't agree?"

The corners of Emilia's lips curled up slightly. "Dare I ask, what right do you have to disagree?"

"This is the shareholders' meeting. Although you are the General Manager, you don't have any shares left, right?"

As soon as these words came out, William Davis was like a dog whose tail had been stepped on and he suddenly became angry from embarrassment.

However, after grimacing in pain, he realized that he couldn't refute her at all.

He stood rooted to the ground in extreme embarrassment!

The people at the scene all took in a cold breath.

Emilia was indeed ambitious.

To have the audacity to lay hands on Willian Davis's businesses...

Wasn't that the same as slapping Micheal Davis in the face?

Is she really going to fight it head-on?

"You also know that management rights can't be changed at will!"

Micheal Davis pretended to stay calm and said, "William has been managing the cosmetics business for the past few years. Has he done anything wrong?"

"You can't go against him because of your past grudges!"

"You have to know that this is a group, not just a random company!"

These words were said perfectly.

He stood on the moral high ground and secretly attacked Emilia in order as if she was only doing this for personal gains.

Secondly, he had exonerated his son from the crime!

"So, according to you, he's managing it very well? "

Emilia turned her face to the side and asked, "I'm making things difficult for him?"

Micheal Davis said in a serious tone, "I didn't say that you're making things difficult for him. I'm just stating the facts."

Although William's ability isn't great and didn't make any contributions, he didn't do anything wrong.

They would never let go of this piece of cake.

After all, the benefits were huge!

“No mistakes?”

“When I left, the cosmetic market share in Colorado was as high as 30%.

“Why is it that now..... it has been reduced to less than 5%?”

She was a genius in business. Data was important in doing business.

What was the use of being polite?

These were all obvious!

“Don’t you accuse me!”

Micheal Davis retorted, “It’s mainly because of Adams Cosmetics. They’ve emerged as a new force and their products are competitive. They also hired a research and development team from abroad.

“So what does the decrease in the cosmetics market share have to do with William?”

He would never admit it.

In short, he was sure that Emilia couldn’t do anything to him. After all, everyone inside the room had to listen to him.

He was still the chairman!

He was the owner of this place!

“Right!”

“Adams Cosmetics is a strong competitor and they have a foreign research and development team.”

“What about our research and development team?”

“For eight whole years, the research and development’s budget is over 100 million but the products on the market now are still the same as eight years ago!”

“I would just like to know whose pocket has this money gone into?”

Michelle Davis immediately became anxious. “You ...”

“Don’t you slander me!”

Chapter 386 Exposing Secrets

If he admitted to this, it would be a great crime!

Whose pocket did this money end up in?

Naturally, it was in his! Other than him, no one else lay their hands on it!

“I’m slandering you?”

“There’s also the annual advertising cost, as high as 50 million. It is a huge deal!”

“But I’ve rarely seen any advertisements in the past eight years. What does that mean?”

William Davis’s expression became more and more embarrassed as she continued to speak.

She was clearly going against him!

However, Emilia didn’t stop. Instead, she continued, “And the raw materials. It clearly says that they are imported but they used...”

It looked like all his secrets were about to be exposed!

Slam!

Micheal Davis instantly slammed the table and stood up. “Enough!”

“This is the Board of Directors’s meeting! The decision should be made by the shareholders. You can’t make the decision by yourself.”

He had no other reason to refute!

Therefore, he could only use power to suppress Emilia!

No matter what, this matter must not be exposed.

“Alright!”

“Then, let’s be fair. We’ll vote. Do you have any objections?” Emilia spoke with confidence.

It could be said that in the past eight years, she had seen with her own eyes how the Davis Group, the one that she built with her bare hands, was destroyed in the hands of those from the Davis family.

In the past, even if her heart ached, she didn't have the ability to do so. After all, she was still struggling to survive in this world.

But now that her husband had given her a chance, she naturally had to seize it.

She couldn't let her grandfather, who loved her the most, die in peace.

So, it wasn't to target anyone here. She just wanted to carry the flag that had fallen after his grandfather's death and continue moving forward.

"Alright! Let's vote then."

Micheal Davis said with conviction, "Now, those shareholders who agree that William should continue to manage the cosmetics business, please raise your hand!"

Was there anyone here who would go against him"?

William Davis also sneered. That's it?

They were going to fight him with just this?

This must be a joke!

Instantly, the 13 people with shares in the room were ready to raise their hands.

Although they didn't want William Davis to take all the money, they knew that this was just a fantasy.

After all, Micheal Davis held great power.

Who would dare to offend him?

Seeing that everyone present was about to raise their hands one by one, Emilia said in a calm manner, "Manager Harry Davis, I think there is a problem with the financial report you are responsible for."

"Why don't I ask the Securities Regulatory Commission to look into it?"

Micheal Davis's younger brother, who was also the financial manager, Harry Davis, immediately looked embarrassed.

His hand that had just been raised stopped in mid-air.

The financial report was naturally adulterated and the amount was huge.

The Davis Group was a listed company that was under the jurisdiction of the Securities Regulatory Commission.

Once the financial report gets disclosed, it would be obvious that it was fake. As the first person in charge, he would face inevitable imprisonment.

So after struggling for a moment, he gulped and put down his arm!

He didn't even dare to look at Micheal Davis's face, much less look into Emilia's eyes.

In his heart, he felt aggrieved!

"That's right!"

"There's also the Greenwork Project in the district. The blueprints showed that the planning was not according to the regulations given."

Emilia's words once again turned into a bullet and pierced through the woman sitting opposite her.

The woman forced a smile and said with a trembling voice, "All... We're all... A family, this... There's no need, right?"

This was getting uncomfortable.

She was Emilia's aunt, and she was in charge of the Greenwood Project.

There were many parts of the plan in it that did not meet the standards of publicity.

Once word got out, how terrible would that be?

The rest of the people also began to hesitate!

Looking at how Emilia seemed to be very familiar with the situation, she couldn't sit still when her past was about to be exposed.

This ...

Who could stand it?

"I'd advise everyone to check with your conscience before raising your hands to vote. Ask yourself if you can face the company and the rest of the group!"

Emilia's cold eyes swept across the people around her, disregarding what they thought.

Oliver Walker was overjoyed. His wife had a convincing charisma!

Chapter 387 The Bet

However, this is how the people from the Davis Group should be treated.

Greed was the ladder of human progress.

It was the driving force that everyone needed to climb up.

But, one had to learn to have a limit to greed!

Obviously, those from the Davis Group had already lost their standards.

Take William Davis, for example. He had been in charge of the cosmetics business for eight years but had not released a single product. He was just simply defeated by his competitors in the market.

But along with it?

The research and development funds and advertising costs have not been cut.

It was obvious where the money went.

As for the others, after putting in some thought, they finally decided against raising their hands.

All of them lowered their heads like sinful children. After all, Emilia had things in her hands that could be used against them.

If they don't make the right decision now, they might end up in prison.

If they offended Micheal Davis's family, the most they had to do was sell their shares and escape from the company.

Moreover, with so many of them here, even if Micheal Davis was more capable, would he dare to act rashly?

The faces of Micheal Davis and his son were extremely ugly.

He had never expected such an outcome.

These people actually dared to disobey them?

They were courting death!

“Mr. Davis, it seems that the shareholders are really dissatisfied with William Davis’s control of the cosmetics business!”

“I’m terribly sorry,” Emilia spoke slowly to make herself clear. It wasn’t hurtful, but it was extremely insulting.

As soon as she returned to this position, she would have to be firm and strong.

Once she has decided to move on these people, no one would be able to stop her.

This was the suppression of strength!

Of course, Emilia was also clear-headed enough to understand that the reason why she had this position to showcase her business talent was because of that silent man.

That man was the one that kept her strong.

Slam!

Micheal Davis's face turned red as he roared, "You... You're cheating!"

"You're threatening them!"

"This doesn't count!"

He was the absolute leader of the Davis Group, so how could he allow Emilia to bully him like this?

Going public was really a bad decision!

Otherwise, even if Emilia had enough support, she still wouldn't be sitting here!

"Ha!"

"Cheating?"

Emilia chuckled nonchalantly, "You could've cheated too. Do you think that I don't have any evidence of your crimes?"

This was enough to shut him up.

Micheal Davis had to admit that he was the one who had made the most gains in recent years!

However, the truth was that he didn't get much in his own pockets.

Due to how the Davis Group has not been doing well, in order to stabilize the company's position and stop Mrs. Davis from becoming suspicious, he had to embezzle a huge amount of money and send it to the old lady as dividends.

In other words, Mrs. Davis was the one with the greatest vested interest!

This was also the main reason why she could still take charge of Davis after her retirement.

None of them would dare act without her permission.

“I don’t want to make things too ugly, but I also strongly advise everyone here...”

Emilia’s aura has been fully released. She supported herself with both hands on the marble table and said coldly, “Every man loves money, but you have to do it the right way!”

“If there’s a next time, I won’t let you off easily!”

If she hadn’t pinched the tail of those from the Davis Group who were present here today, she wouldn’t have dared to launch an attack.

It could only be said that they were the ones who had given her this opportunity!

“Fine!”

“It’s not impossible for me to hand over the cosmetics business to you!” William Davis said coldly.

“But after getting it, you would have to bring better results than mine!”

“Otherwise, it will be hard to convince the rest of us here.”

At this moment, retreating was necessary.

However, it was inevitable that he would set a trap!

Of course, he wouldn’t give up on such a huge piece of meat so easily.

“Since I’ve decided to take it, I’m confident of it!” Emilia retorted with a smile.

She didn’t know if the prescription her husband had given her would work.

However, she knew deep inside that her husband was the man that she should never doubt.

“Alright!”

“Make an oath here, and I won’t make things difficult for you.” Micheal Davis chipped in.

“If you can launch a new and explosive cosmetic product within three months and regain the market share that Adams took over, then you’ll be considered capable!”

“However, if it doesn’t work out, you will have to be punished for your actions today.”

Three months?

He wanted her to get back all the market shares that they’ve lost in three months?!

Chapter 388 Half A Month’s Time

This...

It was undoubtedly making things difficult for Emilia!

When William Davis was in power, he had not launched a single new product for eight years.

But when it came to her, they wanted to see results in three months?

It was like using the standards of a saint to restrain her, but using the standards of a sl*t to restrain William Davis.

To think that Micheal Davis could still boast so shamelessly!

“There must be a necessary punishment!”

“I agree with Mr. Davis’s idea!”

“I also agree!”

“ ... ”

In an instant, the rest of them, who had just been threatened, also spoke up.

They clearly knew that they had already offended Micheal Davis and now it was time to redeem themselves.

Secondly, being threatened would make anyone uncomfortable.

Furthermore, the person who threatened them was none other than Emilia, who had lived in the slums for eight years.

Most importantly....

A junior like Emilia had reprimanded her elders! How could any of them accept this?!

Therefore, it was necessary to counterattack!

Looking at the group of shameless people from the Davis Group, Emilia was completely speechless!

She really didn't dare to accept it!

She didn't have the slightest bit of confidence!

Suddenly, Oliver Walker, who had been silent for a long time, stood up and smiled. "Three months? isn't that a little too long?"

"I think half a month will be enough!"

Oliver Walker smiled.

Trying to make things difficult for his wife?

Well, these people have made the wrong decision!

Everyone was shocked by his words!

Half a month?

Why don't he just commit suicide instead?

"You..."

Emilia turned around instantly. She never thought that her husband would be goaded into action by these people at such a crucial moment!

Wasn't this pushing her into the fire pit?

Half a month? How was that possible!

Even the people present at the meeting were shocked.

What exactly was this Oliver Walker on?

Could it be that he had quarrelled with Emilia, so they parted ways?

But no matter what, they could not miss this great opportunity!

Micheal Davis instantly launched a counterattack. "You're the one who said it. If you can't regain your market share within half a month, what are you going to do?"

"If we can't get control of the market shares that we've lost within half a month, my wife will leave the board of directors." Oliver Walker spoke confidently.

He had the product!

He did not lack the logistics!

So...

Half a month's time was indeed enough!

Slam!

Micheal Davis quickly slammed the table, "Alright!"

"William, draw up a bet agreement now. If Emilia loses, she'll withdraw from the Board of Directors!"

“If she wins, she will be in charge of Davis Cosmetics!”

No matter how one looked at it, Emilia’s chances of winning in such a bet were zero!

What wouldn’t he bet on it?

Emilia was anxious. There were many things she wanted to say but...

Seeing her husband’s confident look, she didn’t say anything in the end. After all, it was her husband who had given her this position!

Therefore, after the contract was drawn up, she signed his name in the end even though she was very reluctant!

“Everyone, let’s end the meeting!”

Micheal Davis took the contract that belonged to him, clapped his hands, and a contemptuous smile appeared on his face.

This wild dog was really crazy. He was a professional at torturing his wife.

On the other hand, Emilia was also filled with doubts. It was impossible to say that she wasn’t angry!

However, she still had to endure it!

She was waiting for everyone to leave before she could openly speak what’s on her heart!

Then.....

William Davis did not leave. Instead, he laughed arrogantly. “You’re going to lose, Emilia!”

“I know you’ve returned to the old mansion, but I’m sorry, I have to go buy a villa in the afternoon!”

“Hahaha ...”

“I will never... never share a house with someone like you!”

Chapter 389 Somewhere Important

Emilia didn’t say anything because the situation was really bad for her. and It was extremely bad!

Looking at William Davis’s face, no matter how angry she was, she couldn’t say anything.

It was uncomfortable!

Even more so, it was unbelievable!

“Huh?”

Oliver Walker took a step forward and said with a smile, “Someone like us? May I ask what kind of people we are?”

That smile made William Davis, who had lost his sense of self-satisfaction, instantly wake up.

Although this mad dog had made an extremely stupid decision, one couldn’t ignore the fact that this man was a strong one!

He...

Was afraid that he might get beaten up again.

Therefore, he left in a hurry with a panicked expression!

When there were only the two of them left in the large conference room, Emilia finally couldn't hold it in anymore. She said anxiously, "You... How can you be so impulsive?"

Even three months would be an impossible feat, let alone half a month!

After all, Davis Cosmetics had not only lost their market share, but their reputation had also collapsed. There weren't any malls who would take their brands.

As for the Davis Cosmetics store, she had a rough understanding of it. There were less than ten of them in the entire city of Colorado!

What did this mean?

It was simply...

"Honey, don't worry!"

"I'll never fight a battle without any preparations!"

Oliver Walker smiled. "The formula that I just gave you? Just mix it according to the proportion and send it to the production workshop."

In fact, half a month was already a long time.

If it wasn't for the fact that they were afraid that the production line wouldn't be able to keep up, they would be able to sell like crazy in a week!

“No matter how good the product is, we’ve already lost our reputation and our market share!” Emilia said with a frown.

“Forget about these. Do you know how difficult it is to complete the procedures alone?”

New products need to be tested repeatedly and you can’t just have them on the market.

There was also the production license, the sales license, and so on ...

It wasn’t that she looked down on Oliver Walker but these were just myths. They wouldn’t be able to do it.

“Leave these to me!”

“Let’s not talk about the business for now. I’ll take you somewhere important!”

Oliver Walker’s smile had always been so gentle, like a honey trap!

The place he was going to was naturally the place he had promised!

He had said that he would give his wife a home, so he had to. Now, he had finally found the right time.

“Where to?”

Emilia was completely dumbfounded. Although her husband had never lied before, this time was really different!

She was going crazy!

The man standing before her still had the audacity to laugh!

If it weren't for the past month, she would have really thought that her husband was a spy sent by Micheal Davis!

"Follow me and you'll know!"

Without saying anything, Oliver Walker pulled his wife and left.

Perhaps the rest of them had to work since they hold a position in the company.

However, there was no need for Emilia to do so, as she was only a shareholder!

Not a senior executive!

"Hahaha ..."

"I almost died from laughing!"

Micheal Davis laughed so hard that his stomach hurts. That kind of hearty feeling was as if her name was inscribed on the scrolls. "Fifteen days?"

"He, who do you think he is?"

"Amelia is so obedient to him. It seems like that kid is pretty good in bed!"

"Hahaha ..."

He really couldn't hold it in any longer. He slammed the table without any care for his image and laughed wildly.

15 days?

Even if a God were to come, there was no way they could bring Davis Cosmetics, which had fallen to the rock bottom and eliminated from the market, back to its peak!

“I know!”

“It’s ridiculous!”

William Davis laughed so hard that he was almost out of breath. “Just look at how he thinks he’s capable of something. He really thinks he’s an all-rounder!”

“Hahaha ...”

“When the time comes, they’ll cry!”

How can they not?

No one knew where Emilia found the support but she had obtained 20% of the Davis Group’s shares. If she didn’t complete her part of the agreement, she would have to return all of it to them.

What did those people supporting Emilia had in mind?

They would definitely be pissed once they’ve heard this.

Chapter 390 The Sovereign

After all, it was now worth nearly two billion!

What did this mean?

Who wouldn’t feel heartache after losing two billion?

If those people didn't fly into a rage, he could even stream himself peeing upside down.

However, he didn't know that two billion was really just a number to Oliver Walker...

"Dad!"

William Davis laughed so hard that he was cramping up. "I'll have to go buy a new house for myself first."

"Sure, go ahead." Micheal Davis said with a huge smile on his face.

"I want you to buy a good one!"

"Buy the most expensive Garden Villa. I'll transfer you the money if it's not enough!"

"You're already at the age to get married. We can't let others think that we're incapable."

The Garden Villa was the king of villas in Colorado!

The average price of it was 100000 Yuan per square meter and the cheapest one was four to five million Yuan!

As for the most expensive villa known as The Sovereign, Leon Williams, who was in charge of the development, didn't want to sell it, so he set the price at 100 million.

At the same time, those who could live in a Garden Villa must be the VIPs of the city.

"Thank you, dad!"

William Davis looked at the text message and saw that there was an extra ten million in his bank account. He couldn't stop smiling.

It seemed like his father was really in a good mood. Otherwise, he would not be so generous!

With this sum of money, he wouldn't have to be so aggrieved!

Therefore, he directly chose a villa worth tens of millions and looked at it proudly!

At the same time, Emilia, whose heart was on fire and couldn't wait to get back to work. However, not only was she taken to lunch by Oliver Walker, she was also taken to the sales office of the Garden Villa!

Instantly ...

The suppressed anger in her had completely erupted!

"What are you trying to do?"

"Do you want to watch me lose the bet?"

She did have a bad temper.

However, under normal circumstances, she wouldn't have screamed at the people that she cared about.

But now, Oliver Walker's actions had disappointed her!

Although she had no hope of winning, she still had to give it her all. This was a matter of attitude!

"Honey!"

Oliver Walker, who was sitting in the driver's seat, suddenly looked back. He held the slender, white, and tender hand and said affectionately, "I want to give you a home!"

"A warm, happy home filled with love!"

This was something he had always wanted to do, but he had been unable to do it. All of it had been delayed.

Therefore, he could not wait any longer.

Every time he entered the New City District, he would feel a sense of guilt when he saw that dilapidated house.

It wasn't that he couldn't bear that kind of suffering!

Instead, as a man, he fought for the country in Indiana but he left his wife, daughter, and mother-in-law to live in a moldy rental house!

Wasn't this heart wrenching?!

"Buying a house?!"

Emilia, who was still in a fit of anger, could no longer control her emotions. "Buying a house here?!"

"Do you know how expensive this place is?"

In fact, she believed that the reason why Oliver Walker could give her 20% of the shares was because her grandfather had left it for her.

Her husband was indeed very strong physically but how much would a retired soldier earn?

Of course, she wasn't a snob. Otherwise, she wouldn't have been able to get to where she was with her husband.

It was just that her husband has been exceptionally arrogant today.

First, he signed up for a bet that they would never win and now he was here trying to buy the most expensive villa in Colorado.

It was simply unbelievable!

In fact, Oliver Walker was perfect. The only thing was that he was too arrogant, which made it difficult for her to accept at the moment!

"If we were to buy a house, we'd have to get the best ones!"

"Only then will I be able to give you the best!" Oliver Walker was still smiling.

He was serious!

He wasn't making a joke!

"Alright!"

Emilia laughed at herself in disbelief. "The most expensive one here is The Sovereign. It's worth 100 million Yuan. Buy it then if you think you're that capable."

"Can't we be more realistic?"

"Can you let me go back to work?"

She was really on the verge of a mental breakdown!

She could not understand her husband's ridiculous behavior!

What was it for?
