

Chaplain! 39

Chapter 39 Time To Clear Some Misunderstanding

"Answer me!

"Why are you acting mute?

"Hahahahaha....."

Emilia laughed and cried at the same time. She felt sad and hopeless as she asked, "You....you only want me to give you the money for Olivia's treatment, isn't it?"

"But, you are to be gravely disappointed. I have been through worse storms and witnessed worse things!

"I am already used to it!

"I'm used to it all!

"You have already exhausted all of the trust I have in you! I will never trust anyone else ever again!"

Was he even a father?

He was an animal!

No!

Calling Oliver Walker an animal was an insult to the animals!

Even the animals would not harm their own offspring!

Follow current on storynovel.net

How stone-hearted did this man have to be that he could do such cruel things without ever feeling guilty?

"Ma'am, I.....I don't need you to pay me!"

Hendric Smith, who had been keeping quiet, finally opened his mouth. He was looking extremely sincere as he kneeled on the ground, "Please! Just give us a chance! Please give my master a chance!"

"Our little sister's priority should be our utmost concern! You shouldn't act impulsively!"

As an apprentice, it was normal for him to kneel before his parents.

His master was like a parent to him. His master's wife was akin to his own mother then.

Although it's true that their age gap was a little wide...

Age should never be taken into consideration when it came to such things.

"Impulsive?"

"You're right! I am being impulsive!"

Emilia, who was covered in tears, screamed at the top of her lungs, "Both of you are so good at acting that I almost believed you!"

"Oliver Walker! I thought that you only wanted the money!"

"I never thought that you would..."

"That you would find some charlatans to harm your daughter so that you could get the money!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

She wasn't the one who was being doubtful!

It wasn't that she didn't want to trust Oliver Walker!action

But, with everything connected together, she wasn't convinced.

A coincidence?

Where would there be so many coincidences?

Their motives were very clear!

Without the bone marrow transplant, Olivia will die!

Then, they would not need the money that they prepared for the surgery!

At the end, who would be getting the money?

Oliver Walker took a deep breath, but he still kept quiet.

In fact, he had already accounted for Emilia's suspicions.

Previously, he wanted to slowly but steadily win over Emilia's trust.

But, he had still rushed it, which led to their misunderstanding becoming even deeper. He had been too careless!

However, his daughter was still in the ward. If he had no other choice, he would have to forcefully do it.

Follow current on storynovel.net

As for Hendric Smith, there was nothing else he could do after how Emilia acted.

Well, they couldn't just tie her up in order to treat Olivia, right?

Forget about whether or not his master would agree. Even if his master did, he still wouldn't be able to do such disrespectful things!

"I.....will not fall for it!

"I will never fall for it!

"Just give up already!"

Emilia sounded more determined after each word. She bit her lips so hard that there was blood coming out of her lips, but she couldn't feel the pain.

Compared to how her heart hurt and how she had lost hope!

This physical pain was nothing!

Her eyes were now looking desperate!

She no longer believed anyone else!

But, just as she turned around and was about to enter the VIP ward...

She saw the teary-eyed Laila Lee emerging from the corridor once again.

Why was she here?

Perhaps?

Oliver Walker let out a breath of relief. It was time for them to clear out some misunderstandings!