Chapter 391 Dogs Were Those Who Looked Down on Others

“Alright!”

“Then I’ll buy The Sovereign!”

Oliver Walker smiled and got out of the car!

At the sales office of the most luxurious villa District in Colorado, there were naturally many luxury cars in the parking lot!

From the Bentley to the Rolls-Royce...

However, these were two L5s national cars that couldn’t be bought with money; no matter where they went, they were eye-catching!

Emilia was completely dumbfounded!

Her wooden and delicate body was completely dragged into the sales office by the overbearing Oliver Walker.

However, their entrance also made the salesperson freeze!

No one had expected that Oliver Walker and Emilia would appear in such a place!

Where were they?

The most luxurious villa district in Colorado!

It was a symbol of status and power. How could ordinary people have it?

It was no exaggeration to say that it was a crime for an ordinary person to even come and take a look!

When it comes to certain things, you would have it if you were born with it. If you were born without it, you would never have it for the rest of your life.

Just like William Davis, he had just bought a set in full!

It made people envious!

Who was to blame for him being so good at choosing during his reincarnation?

He became the young master of Davis!

Although Emilia was also the eldest daughter of Davis, she had left the family with nothing!

Besides, who in Colorado didn't know how miserable she had been all these years?

Therefore, even after they realized that there were a couple that walked into the sales office, no one was willing to serve them. They even pretended to be busy, drinking water and chatting!

In short, even if they were idle, all of them were too lazy to come up and ask.

After all, they were sales people who lived on commissions. What if an important customer came while they were wasting time on Emilia?

Such an attitude made the already angry Emilia even more furious!

It was said that dogs looked down on people, and this saying was indeed accurate.

She had experienced the feeling of being complimented and ignored to such an extent.

In the past, she could always handle it calmly!

However, there were too many things that had happened today, and she couldn't control her emotions at all.

"What's wrong?"

"Is there something wrong with everyone's eyes here?"

Oliver Walker did not speak politely because the attitude of this group of people was really infuriating.

Why did he come all the way here?

First, it was to give his wife a home she had not gotten for a long time!

Secondly....

It was to calm his wife's uneasy heart.

He also knew that the cosmetics business would bring a lot of psychological pressure to his wife!

"Ha ..."

"The layout of the house is there, can't you see for yourself?"

Then, a female sales assistant who had been ordered by the manager sneered unwillingly, "I can understand that you're here to freeload the air conditioning but why are you still acting as if you're Gods?"

Are you kidding me?

If Oliver Walker and Emilia were rich people, they could even be her grandparents, let alone gods!

No wait!

They would, at the very least, be her ancestor!

But ...

Wu Yanyan had no idea that with the help of Oliver Walker, Emilia had already returned to the Davis group's Board of Directors!

After all, it had only been two days. Not only did she not know, even many big bosses in Colorado had not received the news.

Emilia was so angry that she didn't say anything. She just wanted to see what her husband was up to.

After all, it had been a strange day!

Although he used to be arrogant, he hadn't been so bad in the past.

He was strong, so he was not afraid of trouble. However, that did not mean that he was the same in business.

Perhaps he was too full of himself. It was indeed time to let her husband calm down.

Of course, she did not do it to make a fool of herself. She just wanted to teach her husband a lesson. Not everything could be solved with fists!

“I want The Sovereign.”

Oliver Walker smiled slightly, but his words were shocking!

He asked for The Sovereign?

The employees of the Garden Villa sales office were shocked!

The Sovereign was located in the center of the entire district.

Chapter 392 It's Not For Sale

Although these were all costly villas, there was a fundamental difference between costly and luxurious.

William Davis's house had three floors and a yard, which was a thousand square meters!

But what about The Sovereign?

There were five floors, two of which were underground, and they were designed to be explosion-proof!

It was also one floor higher than a normal villa to highlight one's status!

Since it was the residence of The Sovereigns, they naturally had to have a view of the mountains!

But even so, it was impossible for The Sovereign to be worth 100 million.

The reason why the price was so high was mainly because it was not for sale; Or rather, when Leon Williams, who developed the Garden Villa, never thought of selling it.

What one couldn't get was the most luxurious!

Wu Yanyan turned around and left, but she didn't forget to sneer, "What a joke! Don't you know where you are?"

"What's with the act?"

She had seen many tycoons in Colorado, but none of them had dared to ask for The Sovereign!

They knew what The Sovereign represented!

But what was up with Oliver Walker?

This was obviously bragging!

"Hahaha ..."

"He wants to buy The Sovereign?"

"That's for the Gods of Colorado!"

"What a joke!"

"..."

In the sales office, there were others who were looking at the houses around and preparing to pay also laughed at them.

Oliver Walker?

They obviously knew who this man was.

It's the madman who caused a ruckus at Davis's banquet!

He was actually still alive and well. It had to be said that he had some tricks up his sleeves.

What's the use?

This was not enough to buy The Sovereign

But ...

The next second, a security manager walked in and said respectfully, "Mr. Walker, Ms. Davis, I've already gotten people to take good care of your L5."

Although no one asked him to do so, he just couldn't bear the responsibility if there was a scratch or any accident on such an expensive car.

It was just one sentence, but it was like a sudden clap of thunder, and the laughter in the hall stopped abruptly!

L5?

Was there anyone here that didn't know what it meant?

How many tycoons were there in the country?

Even the eight gods of wealth weren't qualified to buy it, which showed how noble it was.

In this country, if you had money, you could buy a custom-made Rolls-Royce Phantom worth tens of millions or even hundreds of millions!

But, you just can't buy an L5 that costs a few million!

This was because it was a symbol of status!

Those people who laughed at him were as flustered as old dogs. In an instant, they covered their faces and left with their tails between their legs.

After all, they were afraid that if they stayed any longer, they might be targeted!

With their little bit of wealth, they were simply worthless in front of the person in power!

It was the first time they had heard of an L5 in Colorado!

"En!"

Oliver Walker nodded his head politely. "Thank you so much."

It was such a simple sentence that made Wu Yanyan, who had just been scornful, couldn't help but smile and say awkwardly, "Mr... Mr. Walker, Ms. Davis, I..."

If she had known that Oliver Walker drove an L5 here, even if this man killed her, she would not have dared to say such unforgivable words!

Emilia remained silent. Power didn't necessarily mean money.

She also knew that Oliver Walker was in the army and was not an ordinary person.

However, it was also an indisputable fact that soldiers didn't earn much money!

“I want to buy The Sovereign. Prepare the contract!”

Oliver Walker couldn't be bothered with the pretentious woman. Simply put, he was here for the best villa here.

No matter what his wife said out of anger, since she had spoken, he had to make the arrangements!

Wu Yanyan said awkwardly, “Well..... It's not that I don't want to sell it, but... It's not for sale!”

“Mr Williams said that he won't sell it to anyone!”

This was hard for her as well.

How did she end up provoking an L5 driver?

If she used this as an excuse, he would definitely torture her to death!

Chapter 393 Learnt To Give Up

Not to mention Wu Yanyan, everyone in the sales office was trembling in fear!

After all, this man had come in an L5!

This was not a joke. If they did not handle it well, they would all be finished.

Therefore, everyone was watching Oliver Walker's every move, for fear that there would be any unsatisfactory reception.

Their attitudes were completely different from before.

This was the reality!

“This was developed by Leon Williams?” Oliver Walker asked with a frown on his face.

Until now, he still didn't know who the investor behind the Garden Villa was. He just thought that it was a good place.

“It's... It's...”

Wu Yanyan nodded repeatedly and stammered, “Why... Why don't you and Ms. Davis wait for a while and I... I'll call the headquarters now?”

The Heavenly Dragon group was huge, and the Garden Villa was only one of its projects. Therefore...

Leon Williams wouldn't have direct jurisdiction over it, and when she made a call, she would have to search layer by layer.

Therefore, it was very troublesome, but she didn't dare to say it out loud, for fear that the person in front of her would be unhappy.

“There's no need for that.”

Oliver Walker took out his phone and dialed a number. “Where are you?”

His calm tone made everyone present take in a cold breath.

Who was Leon Williams for the rest of them here?

He's the richest man in Colorado!

Who would not be respectful when they saw him?

On the other hand, Oliver Walker didn't even greet him respectfully!

However, after thinking about it carefully, he had come in a state car, so his status was naturally not ordinary.

Therefore, the rest of them finally felt relieved.

"Mr. Walker, if there's anything you need, just tell me!"

Leon Williams, who was in the Sky Dragon Building, quickly stood up from his chair respectfully after hearing the man's voice!

His respect for Oliver Walker came from the bottom of his heart!

Especially the words that Oliver Walker had said to him before, they would benefit him for his entire lifetime!

Although both capitalists and entrepreneurs were making money, there was a fundamental difference.

Capitalists were demons who exploited the last bit of ability of workers, but entrepreneurs were different. They shouldered the responsibility of a successful person, giving back to the society, and the contribution to the country.

Oliver Walker asked, "I heard that The Sovereign is not for sale?"

For Oliver Walker, if it was really not for sale, he would not force it.

But what if there were other reasons?

Emilia's phoenix brows furrowed slightly, and she suddenly became a little anxious. Could it be that this man was really going to buy The Sovereign?

Can't he understand that she was only saying those words out of anger?

"Alright!"

"Then I'll go and take a look!"

After Oliver Walker replied, he hung up the phone and turned around. "Honey, come on. Let's take a look inside."

On the other hand, Emilia heaved a sigh of relief. Although she didn't know if it was Leon Williams who didn't want to sell it or Oliver Walker who gave up on the purchase, it was good news for her.

As long as he didn't buy The Sovereign, he could take a look if he wanted to!

When the two turned around and left, the oppressive atmosphere in the sales office was lifted in an instant.

"Mr Williams is amazing."

"Yeah, he didn't even give in to the big boss who was driving the state car!"

"It's all because of Oliver Walker. He's too arrogant."

"That's right, he doesn't have any manners at all!"

"..."

The people present all heaved a sigh of relief. They were just ordinary people. They only knew that Leon Williams was the richest man in Colorado. As for how powerful he was, they had no idea.

Naturally, he would not know how noble Oliver Walker's status was!

It was just like the farmers in ancient times. They would even imagine if the Emperor would use a gold hoe when he was farming.

But in reality, how could a great emperor know how to farm?

As for Leon Williams, he was naturally not as strong as they thought. After hearing Oliver Walker's words, he instantly gave up all his work and rushed over in a hurry!

Garden Villa!

"Mr. Davis, this house is really beautiful!"

"Agreed!"

"The Sovereign is up ahead!"

"I'm so envious!"

"..."

Davis's group of juniors ran over excitedly after learning that William Davis had bought a house in Garden Villa

They were really envious. After all, they couldn't afford it.

Chapter 394 You Want To Visit My Place?

The Davis group's market value was close to 10 billion, but Mrs. Davis alone would take more than half of the dividends.

The rest of the money was split between Michelle Davis and her son. So, although they were employees of Davis company and might be able to fork out a few million, they really couldn't afford the villa here.

"Hahaha ..."

William Davis laughed proudly. "I won't hide it from you. Mary Grimm's family is going back to the old mansion. I just don't want to see them!"

"How unlucky!"

In fact, he had long wanted to move out, but he had never been able to do so. Now that he had finally found an excuse, he was proud of himself!

"Right!"

"Emilia is disgusting!"

"So is that Oliver Walker!"

"If we're not family, we can't be in the same house!"

"..."

William Davis's cousins, about a dozen people, quickly began to pour out their thoughts.

Ever since Emelia had returned, their days had naturally not been as good.

It was because it was impossible to make money!

“Hmph!”

“One day, I’ll drive them out again!” William Davis said coldly.

In an instant, the air at the entrance of the Garden Villa turned cold!

Most of them quickly shut their mouths!

They knew how ambitious William Davis was.

“One day, I will live in The Sovereign.”

Why didn’t he go back to his?

It was because after seeing The Sovereign, he suddenly felt that the villa he had spent tens of millions on was a pile of trash!

At the same time, William Davis, who was standing in the crowd, did not realize that Oliver Walker and Emily had already arrived at the back garden of The Sovereign.

He had also heard the words spoken earlier clearly.

However, the two of them didn’t have any intention of paying attention to him. They turned around and wanted to leave.

“Huh.....”

“What are they doing here?”

“F*ck!”

“They’re really like ghosts that won’t leave!”

“...”

In an instant, the group of juniors from the Davis family began to mock and ridicule.

In the corporation, they had to suffer from Emilia’s pent-up anger. As soon as they got out of that place, they naturally couldn’t help but want to vent it out!

William Davis also gathered his courage and wanted to regain the dignity he had lost countless times. He shouted, “You guys are shameless. Why do you follow me wherever I go?”

Ever since Oliver Walker returned, he had lost all his face and prestige.

Now that he had bought a grand villa, he naturally couldn’t help but want to show off.

“Let’s go. Just ignore them.” Emilia frowned.

If these people knew that they were also here to look for a house but had not bought it yet, these people would definitely mock and ridicule them.

She was not in the mood to bicker.

After all, the cosmetics business was still hanging on the line.

It could be said that what she lacked the most now was time!

“Alright!”

Oliver Walker nodded. He really didn't want to deal with these people, because it was unnecessary!

But...

William Davis had finally found a place to vent his anger, so how could he give up so easily?

After having several encounters with him, he had gradually understood Oliver Walker's temper. As long as they didn't get into a physical fight, nothing would happen!

“Ha ...”

“Didn't you guys come here to secretly visit the villa I just bought?”

He pointed at the luxurious building behind him and continued, “See that? It has three floors and an attached garden!

“You won't be able to enjoy such luxury in this lifetime!”

“However, as long as you apologize to me, I can allow you to visit!”

As soon as these words came out, the rest of the junior laughed into a ball, not forgetting to add a taunt.

“Mr. Davis, you're just too kind!”

“If we let them in, they won't be able to afford the damages if they destroy the renovation!”

“Yes, yes, yes ...”

“He really thinks he’s a boss when he’s actually working for someone else. He actually has the courage to come and look at the houses here at Garden Villa. I don’t know where he got the courage from!”

“Hahaha...”

Chapter 395 Buying the Sovereign

The people from the Davis Group thought that it was impossible for Emilia and Oliver Walker to have bought those shares themselves.

At most, they were working for the behind-the-scenes boss, and how much money could he earn by working?

The Garden Villa was a super residence and the only real estate in Colorado that had to be bought in full payment.

So even if Emilia’s annual salary was in the millions, how many days had she been working?

Therefore...

They were not afraid at all!

Emilia’s pretty face was ice cold. No matter what, this group of people had never taken her seriously.

They only recognized William Davis as the young master, but they had forgotten that she was the oldest person in Davis’s third generation.

But, it was true that there wasn’t much she could say.

However, Oliver Walker said jokingly, “This villa of yours looks alright!”

It was true that it was an ‘alright’ place. Oliver Walker didn’t give the chance to William Davis to be pleased, and continued, “But that’s all there is to it. In front of The Sovereign, it’s nothing.

In fact, all the houses in the Garden Villa were attached to The Sovereign.

The closer the villa was to the venerable sovereign, the more distinguished it was!

Therefore, in terms of definition, The Sovereign was an unattainable existence.

In addition to the marketing plan of the Heavenly Dragon Group, the nobleness of The Sovereign had been deeply engraved in the hearts of every Colorado citizen.

“Ha...”

“This villa of mine naturally can’t be compared to The Sovereign!”

“But at least it’s much better than you blood-sucking bugs who don’t have a house and are dying to return to the old mansion!”

William Davis blushed and said, “How shameless can you be to say that my new villa is just alright?!”

He knew very well what level his villa was at.

It couldn’t be compared to The Sovereign, but ...

Compared to the other villas, it was definitely an existence that could be defeated in seconds. This was also the reason that allowed him to be so arrogant!

“I think he still insists on saying that the grapes are sour because he just can’t eat them.”

“Pfft...”

“You’re just working for someone else, yet you’re still showing a sense of superiority!”

“Mr. Davis’s villa is a luxury you can never afford!”

“...”

William Davis enjoyed the feeling of being supported by a large group of people, and the feeling of being envied, jealous, and hated by others stacked on top of that.

Then, he crossed his arms and sized the couple up with a teasing look.

“But I still feel that it can’t be compared to The Sovereign!”

Oliver Walker’s unhurried tone once again angered the people from Davis company!

In f*cking Colorado, could you find anything more luxurious than the venerable sovereign?

“Hmph, The Sovereign is indeed honorable!”

William Davis blushed and said, “But mine isn’t bad either. Besides, I’m less than 50 meters away from The Sovereign!”

He tried his best to climb up to the nobleness of a God.

After all, not many people in Colorado would be able to buy a house near The Sovereign.

Therefore...

The closer he was to The Sovereign, the more he was allowed to boast.

“Owuuu!”

Oliver Walker said with a smile. “Well, I’m sorry, I’ve already bought The Sovereign!!

His words were like a sudden clap of thunder, instantly silencing the entire atmosphere!

William Davis was silent!

One by one, the juniors from the Davis family were also rendered speechless!

He bought The Sovereign?

This...

Are you kidding me?

Even Emilia’s eyes were wide open!

She had always been by Oliver Walker’s side. When did he buy The Sovereign?

This ...

Is this a joke?

Her already gloomy mood made her so angry that she gritted her teeth again. “You...”

She really could not understand why her husband's vanity was getting stronger and stronger.

Was it really that hard to admit that he couldn't afford it?

Even if he wanted to be respected, he couldn't boast so much, right?

How was he going to do it later?

"Honey!"

"Don't worry, you'll know later!" Oliver Walker replied with a smile

Emilia took another deep breath and swallowed all her grievances back into her stomach. She couldn't stay any longer. "I'm going back to work!"

She really couldn't take it anymore!

Chapter 396 Leon Williams Is Here!

They were trying to take over the Cosmetics Business.

Time was short, so she really didn't have the leisure to continue listening to this nonsense.

"Eh ..."

"Wait!" Oliver Walker shouted, wanting to ask his wife to stay, but his wife left stubbornly.

He clearly understood that this day was indeed very difficult for his wife to accept. He was already being very considerate of his dignity by not throwing a tantrum in front of them.

'Forget it, I'll give her a surprise tonight!'

"Hahaha..."

"I understand now, he's just bragging!"

"He must be bragging!"

William Davis laughed loudly, "The Garden Villa is a newly developed estate. I seem to be the first owner to complete the transaction, which is why it's still so cheap."

"But, you want to buy The Sovereign?"

"Oh! I'm dying of laughter!"

That's right!

The Garden Villa had just opened for sale, and he was the first owner.

And its prestige was based on The Sovereign which was not for sale.

So...

Before the rest of the villas were sold out, how could they sell The Sovereign that was used as a gimmick?

"Aren't you afraid of being struck by lightning?"

“This is really funny!”

“Forget about The Sovereign. If you can afford any villa here, I’ll live stream myself peeing upside down!”

“...”

The group of young men burst out laughing!

They were almost frightened but this was still hilarious!

However, Oliver Walker’s bragging skills were indeed very good. Until now, he could still keep a straight face and calm heart.

That was enough to explain everything!

“Buzz Buzz Buzz ...”

At this moment, a fleet of cars drove in slowly, breaking the lively atmosphere.

“Isn’t this Leon Williams’s car?”

“Yeah!”

“He! Why is he here?”

“...”

The first car was a Rolls-Royce Phantom, and the ones behind were all Mercedes.

It could be said to be very impressive!

After all, Leon Williams was the richest man in Colorado, so it wasn't strange for him to have such a lineup.

The old Davis Group, which was in decline, was no longer comparable to the rising Heavenly Dragon Group!

"I know!"

William Davis smiled confidently and said, "It must be because I'm the first owner to complete the deal, so Leon Williams is here to hold a ceremony to welcome me!"

These words also made the rest of them suddenly realize something!

Indeed!

In such a distinguished place like the Garden Villa, under normal circumstances, the first owner would be given great preferential treatment.

From the fact that William Davis was able to buy it at the villa near the Sovereign at a discounted price of ten million, it was enough to see how important the deal was.

Oliver Walker laughed!

He had to admit that William Davis had a really good imagination. He could even forcibly connect such absurd things together.

William Davis didn't know that Leon Williams was here to give him the key!

After the convoy stopped, Leon Williams got out of the car, and more than 30 bodyguards instantly walked around to protect his safety.

Leon Williams, on the other hand, walked towards Oliver Walker at his fastest speed.

But....

They still had to go through the crowd of people from the Davis Group.

However, he didn't even have the desire to say hello!

All of them looked so dumb that it was becoming funny.

But Leon Williams had no intention of greeting him. William Davis, on the other hand, took a step forward and prepared to shake hands. He didn't forget to politely say, "Mr. Williams, there may have been some grudges between us but I don't take it to heart."

"I'll support the garden Villa. You didn't have to come in person!"

He felt that these words were enough to bury the hatchet.

Davis and the younger generation also had a sense of superiority from being a known wealthy family in the past. They had no respect for Leon Williams, the richest man in Colorado.

Moreover, if Leon Williams came in person, didn't that mean that he also wanted to come over to make peace after the Davis Group went public?

Therefore, even though their seniority was not high, their attitude was very arrogant.

In their minds, Leon Williams would definitely say a few words of flattery in return.

However, they were obviously overthinking it...

Chapter 397 Who Is Behind Oliver Walker?

“Get lost!”

Leon Williams didn't have such a good temper. In addition, the attitude of this group of young men clearly showed that they didn't take him seriously. How could he tolerate this?

Are you kidding me?

Grudges?

Forget the past?

Is this what you should say to a senior?

He had never liked Davis's arrogance!

From top to bottom, this group of people had been blinded by the words 'old aristocratic family' and could not see themselves clearly.

Did they really think he was the richest man in Colorado?

This sentence made William Davis want to find a mouse hole to hide in!

The rest of them were also completely dumbfounded!

This...

Why didn't this man show them any respect?

This was simply...

Leon Williams pushed William Davis, who was in front of him, away and walked straight to Oliver Walker. He immediately smiled and said, "Mr. Walker, The Sovereign doesn't have a key. It uses iris recognition for the entire house."

"It's the most powerful intelligent security system in the world!"

"Let me show you around."

William Davis and the others, who had just returned to their senses, were once again dumbfounded!

Leon Williams, who had been impolite to them, was so respectful to Oliver Walker, a wild dog.

And why was the price of The Sovereign 100 million?

There was naturally a reason why it was expensive!

It wasn't rare for high-end villas to have fingerprint locks!

But ...

This house was secure with iris recognition!

It was definitely not just for show if it dared to claim to be the strongest intelligent security system.

“There’s no need for that.”

Oliver Walker smiled and said, “Let’s reset the system,”

Perhaps this intelligent security system was the strongest system on the market.

In fact, it was far from being that advanced.

However, it was indeed enough for their household use!

People like Leon Williams would have no access to security systems that were even more advanced than that.

“Yes!”

Leon Williams opened the system respectfully and began to verify Oliver Walker’s identity.

As long as their iris prints were keyed in, the villa would no longer belong to anyone else.

“F*ck!”

“Motherf*cker!”

“What the hell?”

“...”

William Davis and the others had completely given up!

He had never thought Oliver Walker would really be able to take over the Sovereign.

They had also seen Oliver Walker enter The Sovereign with their own eyes, and their jaws were about to drop.

He couldn't believe it!

They couldn't believe it!

"Mr. Davis, this... This kid..."

"He isn't someone that simple."

"No! Didn't you say that The Sovereign is not for sale?"

"..."

In fact, The Sovereign was really not for sale.

Leon Williams had wanted to use this place as a gimmick to promote the Garden Villa!

But ...

Oliver Walker had asked for it!

Wouldn't he be an idiot if he didn't give it away?

Not to mention anything else, just that Oliver Walker lived here was already a blessing to his ancestors!

"It's the person behind him. He has a strong background!" William Davis spoke in a cold tone.

“This is too damn detestable!”

William Davis clenched his fists!

He had thought that as the first owner of the Garden Villa, he could use this identity to expand his social circle again, but...

He didn't expect to be bombarded by the Sovereign!

Who was the person standing behind Oliver Walker?

Why did it make people shiver?

In the garden of The Sovereign!

“I have transferred the money over to you!” Oliver Walker mentioned it to Leon Williams.

He was a man with strong principles.

Leon Williams had paid for his daughter's medical expenses and the broken Mercedes-Benz.

Therefore, Oliver Walker had his account information.

Chapter 398 Help From A Lover

However, Leon Williams smiled bitterly. “Mr. Walker, you... isn't this just unnecessary?!”

“I... It's my honor that you picked the Sovereign. It's the glory of the state of California!”

“How can I accept your money?!”

“Besides.... this place isn't worth 100 million!”

He did not know how rich Oliver Walker was.

However, he clearly saw that even the first War God who shook the entire state of Indiana had to call this man his master!

He was a man of such status.

Secondly, The Sovereign was indeed just a marketing gimmick. 100 million was obviously beyond the normal price.

The money that he was getting paid for it made his hair stand.

“Rules are rules!”

Oliver Walker said in a dignified manner, “No matter if it's you, me, or anyone else, we can't destroy it so easily!”

Perhaps 100 million was indeed an empty mark.

However, his wife had already made it clear that she wanted this place. He would take it even if it cost a billion, let alone a hundred million!

“Uh...”

Looking at Oliver Walker's back as he left, Leon Williams rubbed his hands nervously. It was more important now to decide how he was going to use this money.

In short, he could not keep it for himself.

“Xiao Liu, I’m hosting a charity dinner in my name!”

If the extra money was donated to charity in the name of Oliver Walker, then...

This was great!

This was the best solution!

He could also make Oliver Walker look at him in a new light!

At the same time, William Davis, who had happily bought the villa, had got his mood destroyed.

This...

Everything tasted like wax!

Especially when he saw the Sovereign in front of him, he felt as if he had eaten sh*t!

But, there was nothing he could do!

“Mr. Davis, if you ask me, Emilia won’t be arrogant for long!”

At this moment, Chris Davis gritted his teeth and said, “The bet agreement states that if Davis Cosmetics doesn’t return to its peak within half a month, then Emilia will have to hand over all her shares.”

“Will her boss actually let her get away with it?”

Such analysis was indeed reasonable!

However, they did not know that the person behind Emilia was Oliver Walker!

“Yes!”

William Davis gritted his teeth. “You’re right. It’s not that easy to mess with my cosmetics business!”

In just fifteen days, it was definitely impossible for her to come up with a new product.

Old products that lacked an edge to compete with the current market, how would they be able to sell any?

However, he was still worried, so he took out his phone and dialed a number. “Elie dear, I haven’t mistreated you in the past few years, have I?”

Elie Walker was the manager of the cosmetics department. When she received the call in her office, she already knew what was going on.

She was wearing a deep V-cut business suit and quickly expressed her loyalty coquettishly. “Mr. Davis, don’t worry.”

“I will only belong to you whether dead or alive.”

“Other than you, I will accept no one else.”

Elie Walker was one of William Davis’s lovers and she was quite pretty.

Most importantly, she had her unique charm.

One look and you could tell that she was a stunner!

“It’s good that you know!” William Davis sneered.

If he didn’t give Emilia some trouble, he would feel a little uneasy!

“Oh my! Of course I do!”

“I still have Emilia’s documents here.”

Ellie Walker quickly acted coquettishly. “But you have not been meeting me for a long time. I’ve missed you so much. I miss you! ”

She didn’t come from a good family, but she relied on her body to climb up to the high branches like William Davis. Naturally, she knew what to do.

Listen to Emilia’s commands?

Wouldn’t that offend William Davis?

She couldn’t do such a stupid thing!

“Hehe...”

“What an alluring little vixen. When things are over, I will definitely give you all of my time.”

William Davis hung up the phone.

In the next moment, Ellie Walker saw Emilia walking into the office.

However, she pretended not to see her.

The other executives who were called to the meeting also gloated and watched the show!

“You’re the R & D manager, right?”

“Why didn’t you carry out my orders?”

Emilia immediately questioned Ellie.

When Emilia returned to the company this morning, she had already sent the formula to Ellie Walker. However, when she went to the R & D department to take a look, no one even knew about the new formula.

Emilia cared most about the execution when it came to work and what Ellie Walker had done was something that she despised.

“Hmmm... who are you?”

Ellie Walker, who had the support of William Davis, said sarcastically, “You’re already so hot-tempered. Are you going through menopause?”

Chapter 399 Assistance Denied

Ellie Walker was not afraid at all. When she spoke, she even deliberately puffed up her chest to show off her proud racks as a woman!

However, it was obvious that she was not born with it. No matter how Emilia looked at it, it felt awkward!

Emilia was here to discuss work, so she naturally wouldn't dwell on this issue. "I'm the general manager. I'm asking you one last time. Why didn't you carry out my orders?"

There were many managers in the group such as the R&D manager, the marketing manager, and the HR manager, but there was only one general manager!

She also knew that it would not be easy to take over. William Davis would definitely not be idle, so things were within her expectations.

"Wow...."

"I'm sorry!"

Ellie Walker crossed her legs disapprovingly and sneered, "I only know of Mr. Davis. Oh, right! You're also from Davis Group!"

"But the Mr. Davis I know is called William Davis, not you, Emilia....? The one who has been kicked out of the family?"

Why would she be afraid of this woman?

The fiercer the fight, the more William Davis would be aware of her!

Therefore, even though she had received the memo from the human resources department and knew that Emilia had taken over William Davis' position, she was still acting arrogant.

After all, even if William Davis was fired, his father was still the chairman of the Davis Group, right?

"Alright!"

"Very good!"

Emilia had put on her professional aura. She placed the dismissal letter on the table and said coldly, "You can go to the finance department to get your salary now!"

This was a company after all.

If the superior couldn't command her own subordinates, then what was the point of keeping them here?

Especially now that time was tight and she did not have time to confide in her heart. She had to let her subordinates have 100% execution ability.

Therefore.....

She wanted to set an example now and fire the one that was the most rebellious!

"You..."

"What do you think you're doing?!" Ellie Walker was stunned.

"I work for Mr Davis! How dare you treat me like this!"

In fact, she didn't have any real talent to begin with. She only relied on her body to get to the top of the Davis Group. If she lost her job, wouldn't she have to start all over again?

This.....

It was definitely not the result she wanted!

“You can stay here but from now on, the company will no longer be paying our salary.” Emilie spoke in an indifferent tone.

“Also, if you’re not convinced, you can go to William Davis and ask for an explanation!”

“But if you’re working for me, you will have to listen to me!”

She coldly swept her gaze across the other executives in the office.

She wanted to establish her might.

It was time to let these people know what it meant to actually do some work.

Those who dared to resist or disobey openly would be expelled!

Those people sucked in a breath of cold air and gulped. They hurriedly lowered their heads to avoid the sharp edge and pretended to work hard!

“Humph!”

“You win!”

“But Mr. Davis won’t let you off!” Ellie Walker roared angrily.

With that, she turned around and left.

“As for the rest of you, if you have any objections against me, you can leave now!”

“I hope you know who’s in charge here!” Emilia warned the rest of them inside the room.

There was an unquestionable dominance in those words!

It also made the publicity manager and the HR manager shiver!

“Oh my...hahahaha!”

“Hello, Ms. Davis. Welcome back, Ms. Davis!”

At this moment, the HR manager, Wang Chengyong, quickly stood up with a silly smile. “We will definitely do as we are told!”

They were all grown men and had elders and children waiting for them at home. Especially those who had reached their current position, it was not easy to find another job after being fired.

If Emilia was a little more ruthless and wrote a few bad words on their resume, their lives would be over.

Therefore, the manager of the publicity department, Yu Lili, also smiled and said, “Ms. Davis, if you need anything, please let me know.”

The marketing manager quickly nodded.

There were a total of four managers, one was fired, and three had pledged their allegiance.

This was enough to show that the management of Davis Cosmetics had changed!

How could these supervisors not know what to choose?

Emilia was still the same woman from the past. She was still a decisive woman who would do whatever she wanted!

“Good!”

Chapter 400 The Gathering

After Emilia stabilized her position, she said, “Who is Guan Peng?”

A man in his thirties silently raised his hand and said, “Ms. Davis, I...I am!”

He was the deputy manager of the research and development department. All these years, he had been suppressed by Ellie Walker, who had relied on her body to get to the top.

Therefore, he was the happiest after Ellie Walker was fired.

After all, all these years, Ellie Walker only cared about sleeping with William Davis. He was the one who did everything.

However, the credit belonged to Ellie Walker and he was merely the scapegoat.

How could he not feel aggrieved to work behind such a woman?

“From now on, you’ll be acting as the manager of the R&D department. Do a good job and I’ll make you the permanent manager.”

“If you can’t, you’ll take your bag and leave!”

Everyone present was clear of the situation.

This was the rule of the workplace. A huge slap would establish prestige first, and then a sweet date would be given to establish an understanding image and give people hope.

This move was indeed beautifully played!

However, if she did not even have this ability, how could Emilia have led Davis Group to glory back then?

“Yes!”

Hearing that he had been promoted, Guan Peng was excited. “Thank you, Ms. Davis, for giving me this opportunity. I will definitely work hard to repay you!”

Guan Peng had been lacking the chance to shine!

He was about to resign, but he didn’t expect that he would still have the chance of getting promoted!

“The same goes for the other department like the publicity department, marketing department, and human resources department! ”

“If there’s anyone who doesn’t do their job, it’s better to pack your bags and leave now!”

“From now on, Davis Cosmetics will only allow employees with abilities to get to the top and not those who have connections!”

Emilia knew that it was basically impossible to win the bet but...

She had to give it a try. she couldn’t just admit defeat!

What she had to do now was to rectify the chaos. She had to have absolute authority.

Even if she had to fire all these people and take on many roles, she would not hesitate!

“Yes!”

“Ms Davis is almighty!”

“...”

In an instant, everyone saw the light of dawn!

As an outsider, being a supervisor in the Davis Group was already the limit.

However...

Things are different now.

At least there was still hope of getting to the top of the pyramid!

The three managers were also extremely nervous. They were afraid that they would be replaced!

“Guan Peng, I’ll give you the new formula!”

“There’s no need to doubt the ratio. I need you to stop all production lines immediately and go all out for this new product.” Emilia gave her first orders to Guan Peng.

There were only fifteen days. Did she have any other choice?

However, there were all these Chinese medicinal herbs and were not things that were expensive.

There was no need to purchase them again!

So, she could only risk everything with this formula.

All her hopes were pinned on this formula!

After doing all this, Emilia left the silent conference room with a heavy heart.

“Ring, ring, ring...”

Suddenly, her phone rang. Emilia glanced at it and hesitated for a moment before answering the call. “Hello!”

This was a call from an old classmate. However, they had not been in contact with each other all these years!

Moreover, their relationship was not the best when they were in school.

That was why she hesitated!

“Is that you, Emilia?”

“We haven’t seen each other for a long time. Do you want to get together?” A woman asked with a bright smile on her face.

After a moment of silence, Emilia politely refused, “I really haven’t had time recently. I’m sorry!”

If she didn’t succeed this time, she would be in big trouble! How could she still be in the mood to gather with old classmates!

Most importantly, they were not familiar with each other!

There was indeed no need for that.

“Actually, there’s someone else here tonight. He’s a senior executive at Hongri Mall!”

“I thought you didn’t have a job?”

“What if he would be able to help you with it?”
