Chapter 401 Scumbag Reunion?

Sun Rong's words instantly stabbed into Emilia's heart...

She had researched and found that Davis Cosmetics did not have much market share.

Hongri Mall was the largest mall in the state of Colorado. If they could have a counter there, it would definitely be the best publicity.

It could also increase sales!

"Sure!"

After thinking for a long time, she finally agreed!

No matter what her husband had done, she had to do her best and leave it to fate. Even if she lost, she could not leave any regrets.

As for the classmate who was a senior executive at Hongri Mall, it turned out to be him...

This caught her off guard.

However, at seven o'clock in the evening, she still had to go to the Grand Hotel in Colorado.

"Honey!"

At this moment, Oliver Walker came and said with a smile, "Let's go. I'll give you a surprise."

The Sovereign was now his, but it was missing its female owner.

“I’m not free!”

Emilia suppressed the frustration in her heart and said coldly.

In fact, she was furious!

One moment, it was a gambling agreement. The next moment, it was the Sovereign. What was he trying to do now?

Another surprise?

She would have died from shock.

Her mental endurance had already reached its limit. How could she still have such thoughts?

“What’s wrong?”

Oliver Walker asked guiltily, “Don’t worry, it’s a pleasant surprise... ”

However, Emilia turned around and said, “Haven’t you done enough?”

“It’s true that you gave me those shares.....”

“Even if I work for you, you must respect my opinion, right?”

“I can’t even get the product batch number in half a month!”

“Also, do you know if there are enough production workshops?”

“In half a month, even if we work overtime now, how much can we produce?”

“Heh.....”

“You signed it just like that, but you have no idea how difficult it is!”

Under work pressure and Oliver Walker’s strange behavior, Emilia went completely ballistic.

This...

It was simply baffling!

It was completely beyond her tolerance. Then, her beautiful eyes were filled with anger as she said angrily, “You can play by yourself!”

With that said, she turned around and left with all her grievances. She...

She was afraid that she would lose control of her emotions and say something that would hurt her husband even more!

But she...

“Where are you going?”

Oliver Walker quickly chased after her. He only thought that the time was right, but he did not expect his wife to find still it difficult to accept!

He just wanted to give his wife a surprise!

How did it turn out this way?

“A class reunion!”

“I’m coming too!”

“...”

In the presidential suite of the Grand Canyon Hotel!

A man and a woman were lying on a huge double bed. After their passionate night, they were still cuddling with each other.

Sun Rong’s face was flushed. “Mr. Floss, I didn’t expect you to be so infatuated that you still can’t forget Emilia!”

Her tone was clearly filled with unwillingness, anger, and discomfort.

They were filled with jealousy!

“Hehe...”

“You’re a woman.” Arnold Floss said with a smile.

“You don’t understand, but if I don’t sleep with a peerless beauty like Emilia, it’ll be something that I will always regret.”

Sun Rong was still lying in his arms but was already thinking about Emilia.

It must be said that he had brought out his scumbag nature to the extreme!

Chapter 402 The Shameless Man that Tagged Along

Especially after knowing that Emilia was not doing well, he could not suppress his evil thoughts!

“Then....I was the one who helped you set up the meeting.”

Sun Rong coyly snuggled up in that embrace and deliberately flirted. “You have to promise me that you won’t forget it.”

She hated Emilia to death.

She really did not know how she was inferior to that woman.

“Isn’t it just a low-priced shop?”

Arnold Floss laughed contemptuously. “It’s just a matter of me giving a simple command. Don’t worry.”

This was the benefit of status. Some people were even willing to sacrifice their bodies for a small shop in Hongri Mall.

He, on the other hand, controlled the management of the entire Hongri Mall.

This feeling of superiority made him very proud.

Sun Rong couldn’t stop smiling. After all, she didn’t have high goals, and she knew that she couldn’t possibly be worthy of Arnold Floss, so she didn’t have the intention of fishing for a rich guy.

The simplest way was to give what Arnold Floss wanted, and she would get what she deserved.

After all the conditions were discussed, Arnold Floss changed into a presentable suit.

He was in high spirits as he headed downstairs!

At the same time, Emilia, who had already arrived at the Grand Canyon Hotel, ignored Oliver Walker on the way because she was really angry.

Keeping silent was now the best solution.

Oliver Walker looked at his wife's side profile from time to time. He had to admit that fairies had no blind spots. No matter where he looked from, she looked absolutely perfect.

His wife definitely was a top-grade goddess.

"Phew ..."

Emilia took a deep breath and frowned. "I'm going to my class reunion. Are you coming as well?!"

In fact, it wasn't that she didn't want to bring her husband along, but her husband's personality was too irritable.

Moreover, this time, she was trying to ask the other person for a favor. If something unpleasant happened, it would be troublesome.

"You're so beautiful. Of course I have to follow you!"

Oliver Walker laughed shamelessly. In fact, there was something strange about this matter.

It had been so many years, but he had never heard of anyone helping out Emilia. Based on his wife's personality, she definitely wouldn't really attend any class reunion.

His wife definitely had something that she needed from these people.

Then, there was someone who suddenly invited his wife to a class reunion. It was probably not that simple.

Of course, he did not have any concrete evidence. The above were all deductions, his premonition of danger.

“Fine!”

“You can go in, but don’t say anything.” Emilia frowned.

“The person inside is very important to me!”

There was indeed no hope of winning the bet.

But...

She had to try, right?

Emilia was afraid that her husband would cause trouble, but she could not bear to let him stay outside. She was even more afraid that this man would let his imagination run wild.

She didn’t want the relationship that she had worked so hard to get to where it was today to break up just like that, so...

Emilia could only allow him to come along. After all, she had clear conscience of coming to this meeting!

“Of course!:

Oliver Walker smiled. “I’ll just focus on eating. You can talk about your business!”

When he said this, Emilia did not feel comfortable. Instead, she felt even more suffocated.

This man had taken on everything, but in the end, he had placed all the burden on her.

She really did not know what to say about such grievance.

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. She pushed open the door of the luxurious private room with Oliver Walker. When Emilia looked around, she saw that there was only Arnold Floss inside.

It was inevitable that she was a little shocked. Wasn't it supposed to be a class reunion?

Could it be that she came early?

"Hahaha ..."

At this moment, Arnold Floss, who was wearing gold-rimmed glasses, had a refined appearance, but his eyes were completely focused on the delicate body in front of him. "Long time no see, Emilia!"

Just thinking about how Emilia was going to be like Sun Rong and submit to his authority made it impossible for him to hide his excitement!

"Where are the rest of them?"

Emilia frowned slightly, knowing that something was wrong.

In fact, Arnold Floss had pursued her crazily when she was in school. Now that he was acting like this, she could not help but feel afraid.

Fortunately, Oliver Walker was here. Otherwise, if he found out about it, how would she be able to explain all these?

Chapter 403 Speaking of the Past

“Them?”

Arnold Floss smiled and said, “They probably haven’t arrived yet. Emilia, it’s really nice to see you again!”

In fact, this was not a class reunion; it was just him and Emilia.

The others obviously wouldn’t be present.

He pretended to be a gentleman and stretched out his right hand. He could not help but want to touch the skin that he had always dreamed of.

Emilia knew that something was wrong. In order to avoid suspicion, she took a step back and smiled.

At the same time, Oliver Walker, who was blocked by the door, squeezed in with a smile. He reached out and shook Arnold Floss’s hand.

He did not forget to declare his ownership and said, “Hello, I’m Emilia’s husband!”

“It’s nice to meet you!”

In an instant, Arnold Floss felt terrible!

What the fk?!

He wanted to hold Emilia’s hand!

This was just...

Why was this man so thick?!

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that Arnold Frost's eyes were about to burst out into flames

However, in order not to lose his composure, he forcefully suppressed the disdain in his heart and said with a fake smile, "Oh....hello!"

After a handshake, Arnold Floss quickly struggled to let go. He really didn't want to pay attention to anyone other than Emilia.

After he let go, he quickly took out a towel from his chest pocket and wiped his hands before throwing it on the ground.

Oliver Walker had expected such disregard.

Based on Arnold Floss's performance just now, it was clear that he had ill intentions towards his wife.

As for the class reunion, normally, people would arrive early to chat. It shouldn't be that there were only two people here.

Moreover, there wasn't even a waiter in the luxurious private room of a five-star hotel. This was clearly something that Arnold Floss had deliberately instructed.

As for Arnold Frost's little trick, Oliver Walker didn't take it seriously.

However, it was obvious that Emilia took offence to it. What was the difference between disrespecting her husband and disrespecting her?

If it wasn't for the Hongri Mall, she would have turned around and left. She wouldn't have to endure this.

"Emilia, since you're here, let's catch up!"

Arnold Floss said enthusiastically, "Please sit!"

He disregarded Oliver Walker. Logically speaking, a man with a little self-respect would definitely be furious at such contemptuous behavior.

However, Oliver Walker didn't say anything, which confirmed Sun Rong's claim that this man was a good-for-nothing.

"Sure!"

The moment Emilia nodded her head, she held Oliver Walker's hand and sat down. In order to avoid suspicion, she deliberately kept a seat's distance.

After all, it was indeed inappropriate for Oliver Walker to sit beside Arnold Frost.

This was her classmate after all.

However, such a lovey-dovey little action made Arnold Floss feel more and more uncomfortable.

"You know, I went abroad to further my studies after graduation."

"I don't know what happened in Colorado. I'm very sorry about what happened to you."

He started acting with deep emotions, but the feeling he gave others was full of pretentiousness. "When I came back yesterday and heard about those things, I was really furious."

“What right does Davis have to treat you like this?”

“It’s too much!”

In fact, Arnold Floss was not a man without brains.

Due to how he had studied psychology, he knew how to arouse a person’s emotions.

“Well....”

“Let’s not talk about the past anymore.” Emilia smiled awkwardly.

If it wasn’t for the fact that she needed help from this man, if it wasn’t for the bet, she really wouldn’t have stayed any longer.

This was because as soon as the man in front of her opened his mouth, she had already seen through him.

“No!”

Arnold Floss said with an indignant expression, “There are some things that I have to say!”

“There is only two reasons to why they had such balls to bully you!”

Chapter 404 Provoking the Beast

“First, you’re too kind!”

“Secondly, you’re isolated and helpless. You don’t have a capable man to support you!”

As he said this, Arnold Floss glanced at Oliver Walker and said provocatively, “Jacob, I’m not targeting you on purpose. I’m just saying what I feel.”

“You don’t have any objections, do you?”

What was the purpose of doing this?

It was to provoke Emilia’s dissatisfaction with Oliver Walker. It would slowly turn into a prairie fire even if it were just a small flame.

When it reached its limit, it would be too late to extinguish the fire.

Especially Oliver Walker, as long as he had a little bit of a man’s courage, he would not have been humiliated like this.

As soon as he lost his temper, it would make Emilia think that this man was useless and would also be pissed.

As a result, their conflict would only get worse!

Emilia frowned slightly. She knew what Arnold Flos was trying to do. She was terrified that the man beside her could not hold it in.

After all, if it were any other time, she would ignore it, but...

Not this time!

Arnold Floss was the head of the Hongri Mall. If she wanted to open up a market for Davis Cosmetics, this was only the first step.

It could be said that she loved and hated the man beside her.

He had chosen a hellish opening for her!

“Well...”

Oliver Walker smiled. “You guys can continue chatting away. Don’t worry about my feelings!”

Perhaps an ordinary man couldn’t endure this kind of grievance, but what was this to him, who was used to seeing life and death?

As long as Arnold Floss did not cross his bottom line, he could not be bothered with a clown!

His answer made Emilia heave a sigh of relief. After all, it was already good enough that her husband did not lose her temper on the spot.

Otherwise, there would definitely be no way to talk about what would happen next.

What was known as worldly wisdom?

This was it. In fact, although he hated it, he had to pretend to be polite for the sake of his life!

Arnold Floss gulped. He didn’t expect this man to be so f*cking patient. He was obviously a Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtle!

Why wasn’t he angry?

What kind of joke was this?

After taking a deep breath, he continued, “Hmm, for a handsome man like Jacob to return after disappearing for eight years, he must have a successful career, right?”

“I wonder where you’re working right now?”

Arnold Floss did not believe he could even deal with a piece of trash.

Naturally, he also knew that Oliver Walker didn’t have a job. According to Sun Rong, he couldn’t survive alone, so he had secretly come back.

Therefore, this sentence would definitely cause fatal damage to him!

“I’m used to living a carefree life. I don’t want to work!”

Oliver Walker smiled without being annoyed. “After all, I have a very capable wife.”

If this were all Arnold Floss could do, it would be challenging to provoke him.

He could give up the title of chaplain and return to the state of Colorado; why would he care about the reputation of these useless people?

“In that case, you’re living off a woman?”

The smugness on Arnold Floss’s face grew. He could not be angry, but he had a way of making Emilia feel uncomfortable.

As long as Emilia hated the man beside her, his goal would be achieved.

“If that’s what you think.” Oliver Walker said indifferently, “Then I’m just a man who lives off a woman.”

Such a conversation didn’t make Emilia hate Oliver Walker. Instead, she felt guilty.

Has she always been too self-centered?

As a result, her husband did not even know how to retort and allowed himself to be humiliated.

She....

Frowning, she could not help but look at the man beside her who was chatting merrily.

She wanted to say something, but she struggled internally.

Her husband may not be angry, she was!

Arnold Floss was too shameless!

Chapter 405 Standing Up For The Right Man

“Emilia, I’m not criticizing you, but back then, you were the campus belle of all high schools in Colorado!”

“If you could find a decent man, you wouldn’t be in such a state now.”

Knowing that he couldn’t anger Oliver Walker, Arnold Floss immediately changed his mind and said indignantly, “Besides, with your conditions back then, isn’t there any other man that you could find?”

“Why did it have to be... Sigh ...”

He deliberately did not finish his sentence and even let out a deep sigh.

It was just to let Emilia think about the gap between them. No one would be able to withstand it, right?

She was once the number one goddess of Colorado, but now, she had fallen to such a state!

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll take my leave first!”

After struggling for some time, Emilia stood up. Even if she lost the bet, she would not bow down to someone who had humiliated her husband time and time again!

Her husband was indomitable!

He was a hero who came back alive from the frontline in Indiana. Why was he being pointed at by a rich second-generation heir?

Oliver Walker’s ability was beyond his expectations.

Even if he came back with one limb missing, she was willing to support him for the rest of her life!

This was because he was an unparalleled hero, he should not suffer such humiliation!

Seeing that Emilia had gotten up, Arnold Floss instantly became anxious. This...

What was going on?

Arnold Floss, who had repeatedly wanted to anger Oliver Walker, finally couldn’t hold it in and exploded first. “I admit that my words were a little harsh.”

“But I’m telling the truth. I’m doing this for your own good. When a woman finds a partner, she should find a man who’s useful to her.”

“He is useful and good enough for me!” Emilia smiled contemptuously. “You don’t have to worry about me!”

“Secondly, he’s not a gigolo who lives off a woman. I’m not as miserable as you think.”

She was certain that Arnold Floss had definitely asked Sun Rong for information.

Plus, it was definitely not a coincidence that no one else came.

This must have been one of Arnold Floss’s schemes.

As for his intentions, did he need to say more?

If her husband hadn’t followed her by force, she would have been in deep trouble.

After all, a date with a male classmate in a luxurious private room...

These rumors were enough to severely injure her reputation.

Oliver Walker didn’t say anything because he knew that his wife wasn’t that kind of person.

“You...”

Arnold Floss was so angry that his body trembled. “Did you really think that I don’t know how miserable you are now?!”

“You’ve already been expelled from the Davis family, and you left with nothing. You can only bring your daughter and parents to live in the slums of the New City District! ”

“I’m sincerely helping you. As long as you say the word, I can immediately get you a job!”

He really couldn’t understand why Emilia would be so attracted to a pretty boy!

“Sun Rong told you all this, didn’t she?”

“Well! She’s wrong!” Emilia shook her head with a smile. “She knows too little!”

“That was before. Now, I’m the second largest shareholder of Davis Group and the general manager of Davis Cosmetics.”

These words made Arnold Floss widen his eyes!

How could he believe it?

Had Sun Rong lied to him?!

Impossible!

This was absolutely impossible!

Sun Rong needed his help and wouldn’t have the guts to lie to him!

So, Emilia must be one who’s lying!

But the next second, Emilia continued, “And all of this was given to me by the pretty boy right here!”

“He didn’t refute because he had manners!”

It was indeed time to let the people of Colorado know that she had returned to the top of the Davis group with her husband’s help.

This man had only been concerned about her feelings and reputation which was why he never wanted to show his face in public.

But, she had to redeem her husband!

Every sentence made Arnold Floss feel as if he had been electrocuted. His body stiffened on the spot, and he could not believe that this was true.

Chapter 406 The True Face of the Scumbag

Arnold Floss slowly turned around and stared blankly at Oliver Walker, who did not fight back at all. He was instantly indignant!

He had to expose Emilia's lie!

Oliver Walker was trash!

This was a fact that was set in stone. Even if Jesus came, it would not change the established facts!

Arnold Floss also understood that he had been too radical.

Emilia was a woman with a strong self-esteem. She would definitely not admit that she had found a good-for-nothing as her husband!

Therefore, he quickly changed his strategy and smiled. "I'm sorry, I was a little emotional."

"Jacob, you should be able to understand me, right?"

"I'm doing this for the sake of my old classmate!"

These words seemed to be much softer, but they did not have the intention of apologizing.

It would depend on how one interpreted it!

“I don’t mind.”

Oliver Walker was as calm as still water. “It’s just that my wife wants to leave, so I’m sorry!”

He stood up!

His wife could do whatever she wanted. No matter what, he would support his wife.

Arnold Floss had such lustful thoughts, but it was best not to have such thoughts, or else...

Oliver Walker had a hundred ways to kill this self-righteous fellow!

“Emilia!”

Arnold Floss said shamelessly, “We haven’t seen each other for so long. The night can’t end like this, right?”

“Look at the table full of food, you didn’t touch them at all!”

In fact, Arnold Floss was just testing the waters. With a poor man, especially a pretty boy as her husband, combined with the truth that Sun Rong had revealed to him, it could almost be certain that Emilia’s family had a hard time getting their stomachs filled.

Not to mention having these delicacies!

As long as Oliver Walker stayed, the man who was inexperienced would definitely show how greedy he actually was. Otherwise, how could Oliver Walker not be angry after being talked down in that manner?

Emilia frowned and hesitated for a long time. She was not sure if her husband was angry.

In fact, Arnold Floss had already apologized and she wanted to stay.

So...

“There’s more!”

“Since you’ve returned to Davis Group, and I’m the general manager of Hongri Mall,” Arnold Floss quickly added. “We should talk about the corporations that we can do together.”

He spared no effort in persuading her. After all, other than testing her, he did not want to make things too difficult for her.

It was because he knew all too well that Emilia wasn’t a woman like Sun Rong who would do anything for money.

Once things went south, he might not have the chance to do so in his lifetime!

The deal was indeed an irresistible temptation for Emilia at this point. She took a deep breath and sat down again!

“Emilia”

“I don’t think that they will be coming today. Why don’t we just start without them?”

Arnold Floss smiled as he made the arrangements while picking up his chopsticks. “Jacob, feel free to eat whatever you want.”

Oliver Walker replied, “I’m indeed hungry. You guys can continue discussing the deal. Just ignore me.”

He picked up his chopsticks and began to eat.

His wife did not allow him to speak, so he would not say anything.

However, even though Arnold Floss had a glib tongue, he wasn't worthy of making him angry, let alone make him attack.

Only those who were incapable would care about what others thought.

At his level, it was not an exaggeration to say that other than his family, it was really difficult to make his state of mind waver!

Looking at Oliver Walker's good-for-nothing appearance, Arnold Floss was relieved. He was also certain that Emilia had only said those things to save her husband's reputation.

However, he was really furious. He really envied and hated that trash!

Why couldn't such an outstanding man like him get at least a friendly smile from Emilia?

But Oliver Walker got to protect Emilia?!

"Cough cough..."

"We're all old classmates. If you are encountering any difficulties, you have to tell me about it."

Arnold Floss broke the awkward atmosphere in the luxurious private room. In fact, from the beginning, he was the only one performing to his heart's content. "Don't be embarrassed. I actually managed to achieve something in my life!"

"Naturally, I don't want to see you in trouble!"

Chapter 407 Supercars

In fact, Arnold Floss's thoughts were very simple. As long as Emilia needed his help, it would be easy to take action.

After all, greed was human nature. Greed was equivalent to desire.

Most people would do anything to achieve their goals.

He wasn't afraid if Emilia wanted something from him, he was worried more if Emilia didn't want anything from him!

"Yes!"

"I do need a favor from you."

"I would like to have a counter at Hongri Mall." Emily mentioned with a frown.

This was indeed her purpose for coming here!

There was no point of hiding her intentions now.

"Although the counters in Hongri Mall are very difficult to get, don't worry, I'll definitely try my best to help."

Arnold Floss chuckled.

Of course, he would agree to it now.

However, whether or not to do it was another matter.

At the very least, he needed Emilia to come to him. As long as she came to him, there would definitely be a chance for intimacy.

Secondly...

He didn't believe that a strong-willed woman like Emilia would really fall for a good-for-nothing man like Oliver Walker.

To be precise, the love she showed in front of him earlier was just to let others think that she was living a happy life.

This was a woman's mentality!

After the meal, Arnold Floss felt more confident in taking down Emilia

After paying the bill and entering the parking lot, he smiled and said, "Emilia, let me send you home!"

"I just bought a super sports car, a Lamborghini. I've never driven anyone before."

What did this mean?

He was hinting at her!

As long as Emilia dared to get into his car, she would definitely get into his bed.

Therefore, he could bring her to a hotel without hesitation.

Oliver Walker smiled. "A Lamborghini?"

He could not help but remember that his car was parked right next to one.

The selling price on the official website of that car was more than seven million.

Without a doubt...

Arnold Floss was deliberately showing off. When he heard Oliver Walker, who had been silent all this while, suddenly speak, he immediately said proudly, "Yes, it is!"

"They aren't available yet in this county, so I added one million three months to get it in advance. I only got the car yesterday."

When he spoke, he wanted to see the surprised expression of a bumpkin like Oliver Walker.

But, he was just disappointed!

"You had to pay extra?" Oliver Walker smiled.

"Aren't local cars good enough?"

As soon as he said this, Emilia was stunned ...

Locally produced cars were indeed not bad, but most of them took the common-friendly route and were not suitable for commercial reception.

She liked domestic products, but it was undeniable that the type of luxury cars produced were few.

Even if the L5 was excellent, it was not something that just anyone could buy!

"Locally produced?"

"How can you compare it to a Lambo?!" Arnold Floss chuckled.

“You haven’t seen much of the world yet, so you won’t understand. However, my car only has two seats, so perhaps you can take a taxi?”

Talking about locally produced cars with him?

Was this a joke?

He would never drive a cheap domestic car in his life!

“I drove here too!”

“I don’t have to take a taxi!” Oliver Walker said with a smile.

Emilia didn’t say anything because Arnold Floss had indeed gone too far. Her husband had been holding back his anger and it was time for him to show off too.

In fact, Oliver Walker wasn’t trying to show off.

He just couldn’t hold himself back. If Arnold Floss had bought it at a normal price, he wouldn’t have anything to say.

The key was that this man even paid extra and there were others who were still fighting to buy it. This was something he could not understand.

“Yo!”

“You drove too.” Arnold Floss teased.

“That’s good. You don’t have to take a taxi then. Look, Emilia! this is my big bull!”

“Isn’t he handsome?”

Lambo was the belief of most men!

It was a belief that many men fought for their entire lives.

It was also a super sports car that many women would sacrifice their bodies to ride in.

“Wow!”

Chapter 408 The Car Cooler Than A Lambo

“Not bad!” Emilia nodded.

This sentence made Arnold Floss come to his senses. He knew that no woman could resist the temptation of being in the passenger seat of a Lamborghini.

Just as he opened the car door and was about to get in, he suddenly noticed a car parked beside him. He could not help but exclaim, “An L5!”

This...

What kind of luck was he in today!

There was actually someone in a small, eighteenth-tier city like Colorado who owned a car that money couldn’t buy?

“You know this car?” Oliver Walker teased.

Arnold Floss took out his phone and rolled his eyes excitedly. “Nonsense, this is a state guest car. Is there anyone who doesn’t know this car?!”

“Although my car is great, it’s still lacking by a lot when compared to this!”

Sometimes, price isn’t everything.

It was just like the state guest car. Its price was not as expensive as the Lambo but whether it was in terms of aura or appearance, it was more than ten streets ahead of the Lambo.

Even the Rolls-Royce Phantom was not as great as the L5 in this country!

The excited Arnold Floss stood in front of the L5’s car and kept posing in various handsome poses as he began taking photos!

However, he did not know that this car belonged to Oliver Walker!

After taking a photo with the state guest car in satisfaction, Arnold Floss said, “Emilia, get in the car. I’ll send you to the New City District.”

Although he had lost his dignity just now, was there any man that could resist the temptation of a national car?

After all, this car was not something that could be bought with money.

The person who could ride it must be a famous big shot.

“There’s no need for that.”

Oliver Walker smiled. “My wife doesn’t live in the New City District anymore. She lives in the Garden Villa!”

As soon as he said this, Emilia's pretty face was filled with anger again!

She wanted to speak up, but she didn't know if she should ruin the mood!

However, such bragging would be exposed sooner or later.

In fact, she did not know that Oliver Walker had obtained ownership of The Sovereign after leaving the Darden Villa in the afternoon.

But in her opinion, this was simply impossible!

Arnold Floss was stunned at first, then he suppressed his laughter and said "What a coincidence. My uncle is the one who developed the Garden Villa. Hurry up and get the car. We'll leave together!"

Just by looking at Emilia's shocked expression, one could tell that Oliver Walker was deliberately acting cool!

He wanted to crush Oliver Walker in all aspects and let Emilia know how unbearable that man was.

Plus, he did live in the Garden Villa. After all, he was Leon Williams 'nephew!

"Honey!"

Oliver Walker smiled without saying anything. He opened the door and said, "Get in."

This was a surprise for his wife!

Now that it was finally about to be completed, it would be a lie to say that he was not excited.

He wanted to see his wife's happy expression.

But ...

For the first time, Emilia hesitated. She really didn't want to see her husband in this manner. Was he really lying to save face?

Was she such a materialistic woman?

However, she still got into the car in the end. However, her pretty face was filled with disappointment!

Arnold Floss was stunned!

Motherf*cker!

Did that car belong to Oliver Walker?!

How was this possible?

But if that wasn't the case, how did they get inside the car?!

In the next moment, when the engine of the car was started, the majestic and steady atmosphere instantly killed him!

And just now, he had actually praised that car in front of Emilia. His face instantly felt hot!

No!

There must be something wrong with Emilia's expression just now!

This car couldn't be Oliver Walker's. Could it be that Oliver Walker was just the driver?

Of course!

That must be the case!

That must be the case!

After thinking this through, Arnold Floss gritted his teeth and activated the bull. He said hatefully, "I must expose your true identity!"

"Damn it!"

"This is too much!"

Then, the Lamborghini exploded with a powerful sound wave the moment it was activated.

This was how a supercar was!

Therefore, he wanted to overtake and give Oliver Walker a taste of his exhaust gas!

Otherwise, it would be difficult to resolve the hatred in his heart!

Chapter 409 Snitchers

"Are you done messing around?"

Emilia suppressed the anger in her heart and tried her best to speak in a calm tone, "I beg you, I'm really not the kind of woman you think I am."

How wronged was she?

For the others, there may be no difference between her and the other gold diggers.

But in reality, has she ever worshipped money?!

If she was really a materialistic woman, why would she end up like this with Oliver Walker?

“Honey!”

“I’m not joking. You’ll know it when we get there!”

Oliver Walker knew that his wife would not believe him no matter how he tried to explain it.

For now...

It wouldn’t matter.

“Heh ...”

“Are you going to tell me that you actually bought the sovereign that’s not for sale?” Emilia laughed bitterly.

She did not know why her husband was so stubborn. In fact, she...

“Buzz, buzz, buzz ...”

However, before Oliver Walker could answer, Arnold Floss drove the Lamborghini and overtook the L5 in the crowded traffic.

He even kept making all kinds of provocative actions and slowed down from time to time.

It was obvious that he wanted Oliver Walker to crash the car.

The owner of the car would definitely be extremely angry if there was a crash. So...

However, Arnold Floss's driving skills were far inferior to Oliver Walker's.

He had actually failed to do so several times.

It also made him so angry that he gritted his teeth. As expected, people who could be L5 drivers had good driving skills.

But he would not give up!

"Damn it!"

"That's dangerous!"

"So what if you drive a sports car?!"

"This is the downtown area. Are you in a hurry to reincarnate?"

"..."

The other drivers on the road were so angry that they started cursing, but they only dared to do it inside their cars.

After all, a person who could drive such cars must be established. In any case, they could not afford to offend him.

If they were to get into an accident with it, they would be prepared to go bankrupt!

This completely diverted Emilia's attention as she asked, "What is he trying to do?"

"Doing this is illegal!"

If a traffic accident happened in the downtown area, it would definitely cause a traffic jam!

There might even be lives lost!

In fact, most people who drove sports cars were crazy and loved to show off.

After driving an L5, who would want to do something as demeaning as racing?

"You're right. He broke the law!"

Oliver Walker shook his head and said with a smile, "This is simply lawless!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he sent the video recorded by the car recorder to the Ministry of Transportation.

Trying to overtake him?

Only children would do that!

After receiving the call, the Ministry of Transportation quickly responded, "Attention, car owners with the license plate number Jiang A888DE1. Please pull over immediately for an inspection.

“You are suspected of driving dangerously and ignoring traffic rules. If you don’t stop for inspection, you will be arrested.”

“We will also take enforcement measures!”

” I’ll repeat it one last time”

When Arnold Floss, who was secretly pleased with himself and had a plan for Oliver Walker, was suddenly dumbfounded to receive such news!

To stop?

Or not to stop?

He definitely had to!

What the f*ck!

“Who the f*ck is that wicked to report me?!”

“Don’t let me find out who you are, or I will kill you!”

He was angry!

He was furious!

Arnold Floss gritted his teeth as he looked at Oliver Walker, who continued driving, speeding past in his L5 without even stopping!

He could only slam the steering wheel and wait for the people from the police from behind to fine him.

That kind of grievance was like a fishbone stuck in his throat!

“Well done!”

“Uncultured guys like him should be severely fined!”

“You were arrogant before. It shouldn’t be too much to have your license revoked!

“Hehe... He’s driving a Lamborghini but you want his driver’s license revoked. Are you actually dreaming?”

Chapter 410 Finally Accepting The Sovereign

“...”

The people watching by the side of the road were happy. After all, the arrogant Arnold Floss had already aroused the anger of the crowd.

Soon, a police car stopped by the side.

Two traffic police officers came down from above and said, “Driver’s license, car license, turn off the engine immediately!”

Arnold Floss’s expression turned ugly as he said, “My uncle is Leon Williams. Even if you’re not going to be lenient for me, you should at least do it for him, right?”

The reason behind why he dared to act so arrogantly?

It was because Leon Williams is his uncle. He had the right to be arrogant.

After all, he was the richest man in colorado!

“Driver’s license, car’s license. Turn off the engine and get out of the car immediately!”

“If you don’t move according to the warnings after three times, don’t blame us for being rude!” The traffic police warned him again.

Arnold Floss exploded, and his saliva flew everywhere as he roared, “Don’t you understand?”

“My uncle is Leon Williams, the richest man in your state!”

“I’m his biological nephew!”

This was f*cking ridiculous!

“Driver’s license, car’s license. Turn off the engine and get out of the car immediately. Be cooperative!”

“3!”

“2!”

“...”

The impartial traffic police ignored Arnold Floss’s words.

Even if his uncle was Leon Williams, he would have to be punished.

Driving so dangerously in the downtown area in public and breaking the rules many times was already a crime.

No!

It wasn't a suspicion. With the video from Oliver Walker's camera, they were solid evidence for his crimes.

Arnold Floss's face turned green. He was f*cking unlucky!

He didn't manage to trick Oliver Walker, but he ended up getting himself into trouble.

He didn't dare to resist anymore. He could only do as he was told and was taken to the police station!

...

In the Garden Villa, the Sovereign was indeed eye-catching.

Oliver Walker's car had already been verified, so the door opened automatically!

When Emilia saw this, she frowned and asked uneasily, "You ... Did you really buy this villa?"

Her heart was in turmoil!

This ...

It was simply unacceptable!

Didn't they say that it wasn't for sale?

Didn't they say that the price was 100 million and that it was just for show?

How did this happen?!

“Honey!”

Oliver Walker opened the car door and said gently, “I said that I would give you a home, a warm home. Now I’ve finally done it!”

Actually, in this world, there was no such thing as a product that was not for sale!

If there was, it meant that the price was not right!

Of course, there were some things that money couldn’t buy, but they were definitely items that could be exchanged for!

Was it true that Leon Williams didn’t want to sell this place?

No!

He wanted to sell it!

He just didn’t want ordinary people to buy it!

The state of Colorado might not be big, but there were quite a few people who could fork out 100 million yuan.

But, what could Leon Williams get from selling to these people?

Therefore, Leon Williams only wanted someone who was much more powerful than him in terms of status to buy the title!

And Oliver Walker was the right candidate for it!

“I...”

Emilia looked at everything in front of her as if she was dreaming. The seemingly strong girl suddenly burst into tears and threw herself into Oliver Walker’s arms. “I’m sorry, I’m really sorry. I’ve wronged you again!”

She really didn’t expect her husband to be able to buy the Sovereign!

Ever since she left Davis with nothing, she had wanted to buy her own house more than once.

But, she never had high expectations of it.

It could just be a three-bedroom suite. Everyone in the family could have their own room and Oliver Walker would no longer have to sleep on the sofa in the living room.

However, even a three-bedroom suite was an unreachable luxury for her.

Now, Oliver Walker had actually bought the Sovereign!

How could she not be surprised?

How could she not be moved?

Was there any woman who didn’t want a house of her own?

“Alright, stop crying!”

Oliver Walker patted his wife's back and comforted her gently. "You would look like a dirty cat once you smudge all your makeup."
