Chapter 421 Time To Teach Them A Lesson

“Not only am I sure about it, I can confirm it as well.”

William Davis patted his chest and said confidently, “Because I have already used all the connections that we have.”

“Just wait and see!”

“I reckon that Emilia will come back to beg you later.”

Pleased!

After all, not everyone could force Emilia to this extent.

Secondly, the stakes were too high!

“Beg me?”

Micheal Davis laughed coldly “In her dreams. I don’t believe that I would not be able to defeat two children like them.”

“You did well on this matter!”

To him, he wanted to slap Emilia and Oliver Walker to the ground so that they’ll never be able to stand up ever again.

Therefore, he would not let go of this opportunity!

At the same time, Emilia, who had just returned to the company, had been thinking about all the issues following after this.

Now that the problem with the production line had been solved, they had to start promoting and arranging sales channels.

In such a short period of time, it was simply impossible to suddenly go from less than 5% of the market share to 30%.

However, there were things that one would never know if it would work unless they tried their best.

Moreover, she had her husband supporting her.

“Honey, I need to head out for a minute.”

Oliver Walker had already received a message that Essac’s wife had accepted a million dollars from William Davis.

There was something to be done here.

“Yes!”

Emilia was so occupied that she did not bother asking. Her husband naturally had his reasons and freedom to do what he wanted!

Oliver Walker smiled and walked toward William Davis’s office.

This time, he had to get ‘The Kiss of Judas’ back because it was the dowry that his grandfather had given to his wife.

Secondly, he couldn’t just allow William Davis to play tricks behind his back!

An appropriate punishment was also absolutely necessary!

Therefore, he did not knock on the door. Instead, he shattered the lock and used the simplest and most violent method to push the door open.

“You’re annoying!”

“You’re the worst!”

“Well, most women like mischievous men.”

“You’re right. Hehehehe...”

“...”

William Davis and Ellie Walker having a lovely night.

They were startled by the sound of the door opening and instantly stood up from his chair. “You mother...”

However, the moment he saw Oliver Walker, he could not help but swallow the vulgarities that were about to come out of his mouth.

This...

After being tricked, his brain automatically registered the fact that he should not swear or he may end up in big trouble.

“Bang ...”

However, Ellie Walker, who was caught off guard, was pushed down and sat on the ground. She grimaced in pain and shouted, "Ah..."

Her eyes were filled with anger!

She glared at the person who came and was furious. "Mr. Davis, he...He didn't even knock!"

In fact, William Davis was also furious. He said with a gloomy expression, "What do you mean by this?"

Which man could endure such grievances?

They were about to start having fun, but it got ruined! The good atmosphere just now was wasted!

"I'm here to talk to you about something. Tell the irrelevant people to get lost!"

Oliver Walker couldn't be bothered with Ellie Walker at all. He didn't even look at her.

Ellie Walker was furious. "You..."

"Who's irrelevant here?"

"I'm Mr Davis's...."

However, before she could finish, William Davis interrupted her and shouted, "Get lost!"

Ellie Walker's temper suddenly disappeared without a trace. She gritted her teeth and glared at Oliver Walker before leaving the office.

What Oliver Walker said was true. How could a rich second-generation heir like William Davis fall in love with a woman like Ellie Walker?

At most, she was just a toy.

How could she asked for a real relationship?

Chapter 422 Don't Slander Me!

She was undoubtedly daydreaming!

When there were only two men left in the office, the atmosphere became cold!

But soon, William Davis put away his anger and sat back in his chair. He crossed his hands on his slightly fat stomach.

"I know why you're here!" His eyes were full of playfulness.

"So I advise you not to do anything reckless. Otherwise, you won't be able to bear the consequences!"

Oliver Walker smiled and sat on the sofa. "Since you think you know why, then tell me why I'm here!"

He was a little surprised. When did William Davis become so shrewd?

However, if William Davis had guessed it, he should be afraid. How could he still laugh?

Therefore, he must have misunderstood!

"Hmph!"

"The factory has been sealed so you're here to beg for mercy!"

William Davis's tone was filled with arrogance. "But I want to know, why did Emilia send you here instead?"

"Is it because she can't put down her pride and doesn't want to lower her head in front of me?"

This was the only explanation. After all, he was the one who had the initiative.

Even if he did not do anything now, it was impossible for any accidents to happen.

In short, he would definitely win!

"It's a pity." Oliver Walker said indifferently. "You're wrong!"

"But it is as I have expected, you have never been smart!"

Such words undoubtedly provoked William Davis' dissatisfaction. He said in a stiff tone, "Impossible!"

"You're definitely here to beg for mercy."

"You must have been sent by Emilia here to negotiate with me!"

William Davis had been sullen for so long and thought that it was time to counterattack. Therefore, his tone became more and more agitated. "Because you can't afford the price of failure!"

"Both of you must be working for someone!"

"Emilia is working for him, and the Sovereign is his; even the L5 is his!"

"You're just a lousy driver who drives for a big shot!"

“Am I right?”

The analysis was as fierce as a tiger, but when he looked at the results, it was nonsense!

But...

William Davis believed that this was the truth. It explained why Emilia suddenly had shares in the group!

There was also the Sovereign and the state guest car. These were luxury goods that even wealthy people couldn't afford.

“I'm here to get back the 'Kiss of Judas'. You should know that you shouldn't be greedy for something that doesn't belong to you!”

Oliver Walker went straight to the point. “The reason why I can still talk to you calmly is not because you're amazing, but because I want you to see with your own eyes that any schemes and plots are nothing in the face of absolute strength!”

In fact, the evidence in his hands was enough to send William Davis to prison.

But was it necessary?

To deal with such a person, one had to make him despair bit by bit before he would completely give up on those childish thoughts.

“Heh ...”

“Is your family's economy so bad that you can no longer make ends meet?” William Davis said disdainfully.

“But I don't have the 'Kiss of Judas' with me.”

How could he admit it?

The key was...

How could he hand over something that he had already obtained?

What was the difference between that and admitting one's mistake?

Although he did not like the famous painting that was worth millions, he definitely could not let Emilia have it. This was a disguised means of attack!

"But my father-in-law confessed everything in the prison!"

"Plus, you can be stubborn but even Essac Florence has been captured, and he mentioned your name."

"You can deny it, but you can't change the truth!" Oliver Walker smiled.

"Whether you want to go to jail or continue to live a leisurely life, it's up to you!"

Those words were like a bolt from the blue, striking straight at William Davis' brain!

Instantly, his face turned pale!

How did this kid know?

Has he really been discovered?

William Davis couldn't help but start to panic, but he still pretended to be calm as he slammed the table and shouted crazily. "Why should I be scared?!"

"Don't slander me!"

The corners of Oliver Walker's mouth curled up slightly, and a thought-provoking look appeared in his eyes. He casually threw the folder on the table and said, "See for yourself!"

Chapter 423 Show Me Your Sincerity

"Phew..."

William Davis took a deep breath and forced himself to calm down before he slowly opened the folder!

However, the more he read the contents, the more frightened he became!

In particular, the confession of Issac Davis and the record of him transferring money to Essac Florence's wife were all clear.

After reading it, his hands were trembling and his confidence was gone!

He was afraid!

He was feeling scared!

He also started to panic!

"I think your days are slowly becoming... dark?"

"Do you think you'll ever see the light of day again if I bring this evidence to the police station?" Oliver Walker teased.

“After all, the amount involved is huge. The country might even have to invite you behind bars.”

Dark?

Getting behind bars?!

Of course, William Davis knew that something had gone awfully wrong.

Days getting darker meant that he would never regain freedom and getting behind bars was already self-explanatory.

William Davis’s expression was extremely ugly. “You...”

Oliver Walker smiled without saying a word. Anyone who could read knew how terrifying the evidence was!

“You didn’t even have mercy on your father-in-law?!”

William Davis couldn’t hold it in anymore and roared angrily, “He’s Emilia’s father! ”

“Aren’t you being too ruthless?!”

In fact, Oliver Walker did not know what George Lee had done. He only asked his father-in-law, who was not clear-headed, to calm down for a few days.

Therefore, he had nothing to target.

But in fact, under George Lee’s orders, Issac Davis was now a lackey in prison.

In a place like the prison, there were many big brothers everywhere!

Issac Davis's intestines were about to turn green with regret!

"Fine!"

William Davis gritted his teeth. "Fine! I'll confess!"

He knew that if he continued to persist, the situation would only get worse and worse. For some things, he knew that they could not fall into Emilia's hands but the direction of things was simply getting out of his control.

When he took out the treasured 'Kiss of Judas' from the bookcase, his heart ached so much that he could not speak. He could only close his eyes and hand it to Oliver Walker.

"Just like how you took it away from my wife back then, you're going to give it to my wife today!"

Oliver Walker stood up scornfully and said coldly, "If she doesn't accept it, then you should know the outcome!"

There was a saying that it was easy to invite a god but difficult to send it away.

As of now, this painting, 'The Kiss of Judas' was a hot potato for William Davis.

You want to get away with it so easily?

That was wishful thinking!

In fact, Oliver Walker was very magnanimous, but once he got serious, he would not be so easily extinguished.

“You.....”

“What do you mean?”

William Davis roared angrily, “Tell me clearly!”

How could he not be anxious?

The fire was burning!

When Oliver Walker reached the door, he stopped and teased, “I think if you can apologize in public and return this painting to its owner...”

“With my wife’s breadth of mind, she shouldn’t make things too difficult for you!”

“Let’s see if you’re sincere enough to do so.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned around and left!

In the huge office, only the dumbfounded William Davis was left behind. He did not feel good at all!

“You want me to apologize to her in public?”

“Is she worthy?”

“Impossible!”

“I will never apologize to her!”

William Davis shouted loudly, but slowly, his body became weak!

What should he do now?

If he didn't do as Oliver Walker said, he might really be sent to prison.

Between pride and freedom, which was more important?

This ...

It was unbearable!

"Mr. Davis, what happened?"

At this moment, Ellie Walker walked in with her slender waist and said charmingly "Shall we continue?"

She still had no idea what was happening.

William Davis, who was in a fit of anger, was completely enraged. He charged forward like a wild beast.

He grabbed Ellie Walker's collar and roared in embarrassment, "Damn it, did you betray me?"

Chapter 424 The Calm Before The Storm

How would anyone else know about this?

In other words, Ellie Walker must have leaked the information. Otherwise, how did Oliver Walker find out about this?

How did Essac Florence end up being arrested?

“Mr. Davis... I...”

Ellie Walker was frightened. She cried aggrievedly and shouted, “I didn’t...No...Ah ...”

However, William Davis, who was furious, roared angrily, “How dare you still f*cking say that you didn’t do it?!”

“You traitor!”

“Get lost. I never want to see you again!”

Bang bang --

As soon as he finished speaking, William Davis pushed Ellie Walker to the ground. Just looking and hearing the sound of her butt hitting the ground was painful.

“Ouch!!!”

Ellie Walker cried. Her tears kept flowing. The pain was as if her tailbone had been broken.

However, when he saw William Davis, he was like a lunatic. How could he dare to stay?

She hurriedly hugged her butt and limped away while enduring the pain.

She hated Oliver Walker and Emilia to death!

In fact, she knew that William Davis only treated her as a toy, but she was unwilling to believe it.

She had always dreamed of using her body to rise to the top.

After doing all this, William Davis seemed to have used up all his strength, and his entire body was paralyzed in the chair.

He panted heavily...

His face was filled with despair!

In fact, from the moment he went against Oliver Walker, the outcome was already doomed.

How could an arm win against a thigh?

Most importantly, this arm was still a child's arm, but the thigh was an adult's thigh.

The disparity in strength was too great!

At the same time...

Emilia sat in her office and after learning the truth, she said angrily, "How can he be so shameless?"

"Is he really going to disregard the interests of the group just to deal with me?"

"I guess it's true."

"In their eyes, I'm just an outsider!"

She felt depressed for sure.

She gave them her sincerity but they disregarded it.

“Don’t be angry yet!”

“William Davis has deeply realized his mistake.” Oliver Walker said with a smile.

“He will apologize to you soon!”

In fact, it might be difficult for William Davis to accept it and let go of his pride, but the choice was already very obvious!

“Heh ...”

Emilia smiled coldly and did not take it seriously. Would William Davis apologize to her?

Unless the sun rose in the west and set in the east!

“Ding, ding, ding...”

Suddenly, the phone rang.

Oliver Walker smiled...

Emilia picked up the phone but before she could say a word, the call ended.

Her pretty face was filled with disbelief as she asked in surprise, “What did you do to him?”

Although William Davis’s tone was not pleasant...

He was indeed apologizing!

Furthermore, he wanted her to go to the staff area now!

Her first reaction was to wonder if William Davis was up to something.

But ..

How did all these make sense?

“Me?”

“I just tried to persuade him with emotion and reason,” Oliver Walker replied calmly. “He finally came around.”

“I’d be a fool to believe you!” Emilia rolled her eyes.

As soon as she finished speaking, she walked towards the staff area. No matter what, she had to figure out what William Davis was up to.

Then, the staff area was already filled with colleagues from the Davis Group. None of them knew what had happened.

Even if they wanted to have a meeting, it shouldn’t be held here, right?

But if they weren’t going to have a meeting, then what was the reason?

“Mr. Davis, is there something important to announce?”

“Even Emilia is here!”

“Looks like this is something serious.”

They had their own assumptions but...

No one knew what was going on.

However, who would have thought that William Davis would apologize to Emilia in person?

Chapter 425 Their Trump Card

“Did he really do that?”

“Are you really going to agree to it and embarrass me?” Micheal Davis said coldly.

No matter what, he could not accept such an outcome!

But...

William Davis said with a long face, “Then what should I do now?”

Other than apologizing, was there any other way out?

After all, it was absolutely impossible for him to go to jail!

He had a good youth and had not had enough of the world!

“Did you say that Isaac Davis was arrested?”

Micheal Davis frowned, and a cold light shot out of her eyes. “I’ll inform Ma’am Davis now. Emilia has gone overboard with it.”

William Davis was stunned for a moment before he reacted. "Dad, this is brilliant!"

"That wild dog is simply too much!"

"Motherf*cker, let grandma teach him a lesson!"

Ma'am Davis was already unhappy with Issac Davis' absence the last time.

Now that they had found the place where Oliver Walker had committed treason, they naturally would not let him go easily. Ma'am Davis may be so enraged that she might end up kicking them out of the household.

Why didn't he think of this?

"Mom!"

"Something happened to the corporation. Is it convenient for you to come over now?"

After Micheal Davis made the call, her tone was extremely deep. "Alright, we'll wait for you!"

Although Ma'am Davis had retired, she had always been concerned about the company.

After all, she was the largest shareholder even when they announced that she had retired. Whenever there was a major decision, Micheal Davis still had to obediently ask her for instructions.

Therefore, after receiving the news, she rushed over without stopping!

When the call ended, Micheal Davis snorted. "I would like to see how capable they can be this time!"

“Let’s go!”

William Davis seemed to have been revived and said excitedly, “Let’s go!”

Five minutes later, when Micheal Davis and his son arrived at the staff area, the staff of Davis Group could not hold it in anymore.

“Big brother, what exactly is going on?”

Harry Davis frowned. He felt that something was wrong!

The rest of the people from Davis also pricked up their ears.

They were waiting for an answer!

“Everyone, don’t be nervous!”

Micheal Davis waved her hand and said with a smile, “It’s nothing serious. Ma’am Davis is coming to the company for an inspection, so I called everyone over.”

These allowed the others to feel relieved.

But soon, a new doubt appeared again. Why did Ma’am Davis suddenly decide to come to the company?

Did something big happen?

William Davis, on the other hand, had been staring at the damned Oliver Walker with resentment, waiting for his grandmother to come over and teach the wild dog a lesson.

At the same time, Emilia also felt that something was wrong. She frowned slightly and said, “Looks like it’s not what you said!”

Ma'am Davis suddenly came?

This...

They must have come with ill intentions!

"Don't worry." Oliver Walker said softly. "No one can change the outcome of it!"

He was very calm, like Aiden Wilson, who stood tall and unmoving!

Did Micheal Davis and her son really think that they could suppress his thoughts by bringing in Ma'am Davis?

How childish!

As time passed, the atmosphere in the staff office became more and more tense.

They even began to whisper to each other. So, why did Ma'am Davis come?

As for Emilia, she was a little nervous.

After all, she was very busy now. She only wanted to bring Davis Group to the peak of glory again.

An internal strife?

Grandpa hated it and she hated it as well!

If Emilia hadn't been forced into a corner, she wouldn't have retaliated so much.

Unexpectedly, Micheal Davis and his son became even more arrogant!

They weren't going to give up until they had been sentenced.

Did they really want to fight him to death?

"Deng Deng Deng Deng..."

At this moment, the sound of a walking stick hitting the floor came from the elevator.

Ma'am Davis asked anxiously, "What happened?"

Chapter 426 Starting A Fight

"What is happening here?"

She was worried sick along the way.

After all, she knew that the corporation had been going downhill.

However, she did not expect that it would actually reach the point where she had to step in!

"Mom!"

Micheal Davis quickly went up to him and started complaining. "I finally know why Big Brother was the only one absent on your 80th birthday!"

His current thoughts were simple. Emilia and Oliver Walker will never be able to get away with this.

He had to find a way to make sure that Issac Davis gets released from prison.

He was the only one who could cause trouble for Emilia and Oliver Walker.

The moment these words were said, the entire place was in an uproar!

That's right!

Even Mary Grimm was there that day, so why wasn't Issac Davis there?

Could there be something fishy going on?

"Tell me!"

Ma'am Davis's face was gloomy. She thought it was a matter of the corporation, but she did not expect it to be a family matter.

However, even so, it was still difficult for her to accept it. After all, the overall situation in the company had been decided. She only wanted her eldest son and his family to come back.

But now, it seemed that it was not her eldest son who hated her, but there was something else.

Emilia frowned, not knowing what Micheal Davis was trying to do.

Ma'am Davis must have been intentionally called to the office.

But, her father did not attend the birthday banquet. What did it have to do with her?

"Grandma, let me say it!"

William Davis, who had been sullen for a long time, quickly said, "Uncle was sent to prison by his good son-in-law!"

The moment these words were said, it was like a clap of thunder that instantly detonated the entire scene!

This ...

Did Oliver Walker send Issac Davis to jail?

What was going on?

In an instant, many gazes sized him up! Especially Ma'am Davis.

After hearing that, her hunched body could not help but tremble. Her face instantly turned cold as she glared at the man who she could not figure out!

She had really been having trouble eating and sleeping for the past two days!

When she was awake, she wondered if Oliver Walker really had a background or he was just putting on a show?

Even in her dreams, she dreamt of how Oliver Walker would be the one who'd help Emilia take everything that once belonged to the Davis family.

"William Davis, that's enough!"

"Do you think you can still see the light of day after all the dirty things you've done?"

“You still want to slander others?” Emilia scolded angrily.

No matter what, she would not listen to any provocation!

Her father was indeed too much!

And she didn't want to acknowledge him!

She also knew her husband's temper. Although he was hot-tempered, he would not lay a hand on her father-in-law.

No matter what, Isaac Davis was still her father.

Besides, Oliver Walker had been considering her feelings ever since he came back. If he had really done such a thing, he definitely wouldn't keep quiet about this.

“I'm slandering you?”

William Davis sneered. “If you have the guts, ask him then! Such a treasonous person actually married into our family. I feel embarrassed!”

“Can you imagine that the person beside you is the culprit who sent your biological father to prison?”

Indeed!

To put it nicely, it was called putting righteousness above family!

But in fact, even if Isaac Davis had indeed gone overboard, it was not to the point where he would make an enemy of all mankind.

To put it bluntly, wasn't it treason to send his father-in-law to prison?

“What is going on?”

Ma’am Davis ‘expression became uglier and uglier as she roared angrily, “You have to give me an explanation today!”

“No matter how bad my son is, he’s still a member of Davis. He’s still my son!”

“We shall see if there’s anyone who dares to act irrationally!”

Ma’am Davis was famous for being protective of her own son. How could she tolerate her eldest son being sent to prison by her grandson-in-law?

This was a matter of dignity, and she could not tolerate it!

Emilia slowly turned around and frowned. “Hurry up and say something. Are you going to let them slander you?”

Although she hadn’t seen his father for a few days....

Wasn’t it normal for a man like her father to just disappear?

She didn’t like it but she didn’t want her husband to bear the infamy of treason and hearsay!

Chapter 427 Making Them The Enemy

“I was indeed the one who sent him to prison.”

Oliver Walker didn’t hide anything and spoke frankly.

He was not someone who likes to lie and disguise himself.

Secondly, there was no need for that!

He didn't do anything to Issac Davis. Even if he did, had he gone overboard with it?

After all, Issac Davis had taken a lot of his money in the past few years, and all that money was money that saved his daughter's life.

If it weren't for the truce at the front line in Indiana, he wouldn't have been able to return triumphantly. Then, his wife, who had no money, might have done something stupid to save her daughter's life.

But even if she really did something stupid, would she be able to save her daughter?

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that he didn't want his wife to be angry at him for doing all those terrible things.

But, that didn't mean that Issac Davis didn't do anything outrageous!

"You..."

Emilia's delicate body was slightly stunned. She could not help but take a step back, as if she wanted to keep a distance from Oliver Walker.

Micheal Davis laughed!

William Davis laughed as well!

The same expression appeared on the faces of those. Even the ordinary employees of Davis Corporation were so shocked that their eyes were about to pop out.

William Davis was too pleased with himself. Oliver Walker wanted him to apologize to Emilia in public?

This was a f*cking joke!

He would let Oliver Walker die a social death first!

Oliver Walker wanted to compete with me?

Wasn't it just to see who was more ruthless?

What he was looking forward to the most was that Emilia and Oliver Walker would turn against each other, so that they could break through separately.

"Can you give me a reason for it?"

Emilia could not understand why her husband would do such an immoral thing.

How could this happen...

Would it mean that he would have to bear the infamy of treason and heresy for the rest of his life?

"How capable can I be?"

Oliver Walker smiled. "He's suspected of financial crimes. He was summoned for a talk. We don't know the results yet."

In fact, he didn't intend to do anything to his father-in-law. He just wanted to scare him.

He didn't expect his father-in-law to turn over a new leaf, but at least he wouldn't pester them anymore, right?

“Phew...”

Emilia took a deep breath and nodded. She could accept such a reason.

How could she not know what kind of person her father was?

However, such an answer made William Davis, who was waiting for Emilia to fall out with him, so shocked that his jaw almost dropped.

Emilia wasn't angry?

This was obviously not going according to the script!

“Stop pretending to be innocent,” he added. “The evidence was conclusive. What else do you have to say?”

“Grandma, he's really lawless!”

“He even reported his father-in-law. I'm afraid that if we keep him here. There may be a day where he will send all of us into prison!”

Such words immediately attracted the agreement of everyone present!

“Mom, he's detestable!”

“Grandma, you can't let her off easily!”

“This is too much! He should be punished and expelled from the company!”

“...”

But soon, the people from Davis were stunned.

Oliver Walker had even broken through the cruelest family law as if it were a piece of flat ground. What other family law could there be?

Kick him out?

This man has never returned to the family.

Instantly, all of them turned speechless.

It seemed that they really couldn't find a way to punish Oliver Walker!

"Do you know that by doing this, you are making an enemy out of the entire Davis?"

Mrs. Davis asked in a dignified manner, "Have you ever thought about the consequences?"

"How dare you send my son to prison?"

"You're really something!"

When she said the last sentence, Ma'am Davis waved her walking stick desperately and raised her voice!

Everyone was glaring at him, wishing that they could skin Oliver Walker, who had trampled on the dignity of the company, alive!

A live-in son-in-law should act like one, how could he turn the tables?

Issac Davis was indeed unpopular, but it was the Davis family!

He was still the young master of the Davis family!

“Firstly, I have no intention of making an enemy out of Davis. But if you insist on thinking that way, then we shall be enemies.”

Chapter 428 No One Is Allowed to Harm The Family

Faced with thousands of accusations, Oliver Walker said neither obsequiously nor arrogantly, “Well, if you make a mistake, you should be punished!”

“I’m not afraid of anyone, but I don’t want people to think that I am.”

Such words were simply arrogant!

What was the meaning of this?

Oliver Walker wasn’t taking them seriously.

In fact, did Oliver Walker really care about Davis’s family background?

Well, they were not that important.

“Alright...”

“Great!”

“You.....”

Mrs. Davis was so angry that her face turned purple. She felt like she could not stand firm. "You are the first junior who dares to shout at me like this in the past few decades!"

"Let me tell you this. Even Leon Williams, the richest man in the state of Colorado, has to respectfully call me his senior when he comes to me!"

Who was she?

She was the most respected person in the business world in the state of Colorado!

No one dared to offend her!

But now?

However, she was despised by Oliver Walker!

"Well, please don't get mad."

"What's going to happen next might be even more difficult for you to accept." Oliver Walker added.

Since Micheal Davis and his son were not tactful and ignited the flames of war, he would not be him if he did not retaliate!

William Davis's expression changed drastically. He was afraid that his secret would be exposed, so he immediately shouted, "How dare you!"

"Shut up!"

Why did they get Ma'am Davis here?

Didn't they plan on using the company to suppress Emilia and then restrain Oliver Walker?

However, the current situation was clearly beyond his control.

How could he not panic?

"Let him continue!"

Ma'am Davis's face flushed red with anger. After all, she was someone who had seen great storms.

After all, the country hasn't always been as peaceful as it has been now.

When she started the business with the old man, she had to deal with assassins who killed without blinking.

Therefore, she was not afraid and wanted to stabilize the situation!

"Grandma!"

Now it was William Davis 'turn to panic. If this wild dog continued, something uncontrollable would really happen!

"Shut up!"

After Ma'am Davis scolded William Davis, she turned around and said angrily, "Continue!"

Everyone's eyes were on Oliver Walker because this matter revealed something strange.

Although the Davis Group had declined, no one in Colorado had the guts to not give face to Ma'am Davis.

They wanted to see where Oliver Walker got his confidence from!

Emilia did not say anything. Instead, she looked at the people from Davis Group who focused their attacks on her husband.

She wanted to help, but she didn't know the truth, so keeping quiet and not causing trouble was the greatest help.

"If I don't get a satisfactory answer today! "

"Then don't blame me for being impolite!"

"My father-in-law may not go to jail, but William Davis must go to jail!"

Oliver Walker said domineeringly, "Don't doubt my abilityies because you don't have any chance to make mistakes! "

"Plus, do you really think the Davis Group can change my mind? "

"Our family can live without Davis, but you will suffer!"

In an instant, William Davis 'expression changed!

Wasn't this mad dog afraid of anything?

Micheal Davis was regretting it as well. He slapped her forehead and began to look for a countermeasure.

After all...

He didn't think too much about it back then. In his eyes, Ma'am Davis was an omnipotent existence.

But now, it was obvious that Oliver Walker's arrogance had exceeded his expectations!

"How dare you!"

Ma'am Davis glared at him and roared, "He's my grandson. If you dare to lay a hand on him, I'll definitely make you suffer!"

She was furious as well and had been thinking of countermeasures.

She was also thinking about what exactly Oliver Walker had on William Davis that allowed him to continue playing dead and waiting for her to come out.

In short, this matter...

It was strange.

However, she was determined to fight Oliver Walker to the death this time. Even if she had to use all her connections, she would never allow anyone to harm the Davis Group.

Chapter 429 The Truth Exposed

"Hubby!"

Suddenly, Emilia stepped forward and said, "Let's make things clear once and for all. We won't cause trouble, but we can't allow others to make trouble for us."

She didn't want her husband to bear the infamy, but that didn't mean she was willing to let her husband suffer.

Not to mention the person in front of her, it was her grandmother who did not love her!

Even if the Jade Emperor were to come, she would not take a step back!

“Alright.”

Because of his wife’s words, Oliver Walker didn’t lose his temper. Instead, he said directly, “There’s everything you want on the phone!”

“I hope you can still be so self-righteous after looking at it.”

In fact, the truth had long been revealed!

Issac Davis didn’t attend the birthday banquet because he felt guilty. It was not because he was arrested.

William Davies first stole ‘The Kiss of Judas’ and then bribed Essac Florence for his own benefit, betraying the interests of the group!

There was nothing left to say!

“Grandma ...”

William Davis was anxious. He quickly took a step forward and wanted to snatch the phone. There was evidence inside. He couldn’t allow his grandmother to look at it.

“Get lost!”

Ma’am Davis shouted angrily. No one wanted to be considered a fool. No matter what they did next, they had to figure out the truth!

“Mom!”

Micheal Davis also stepped forward, wanting to plead for mercy!

But, Ma’am Davis shot him another look, and he ducked back.

Ma’am Davis looked at the documents carefully and seriously. The more she looked, the more shocked she became!

As she continued, her heart turned cold.

She had never thought that his son and grandson would do such a thing!

She gulped difficulty and seemed to have aged by more than ten years. She put down her phone and left!

She didn’t say a word?!

What did that mean?!

In fact, it was obvious!

She had nothing to say!

If these things were brought to court, it would be useless even if they had hired the best lawyers to defend them.

Micheal Davis’s actions had really broken her heart!

Didn't she want to protect her own son?

Of course she did.

Was there a way to?

"Mom!"

"Grandma!"

"..."

In an instant, everyone in Davis was curious about what was hidden on the phone that made Ma'am Davis enter the elevator in silence!

This ...

"Honey, let's go back!"

Oliver Walker said in a low voice. As for what to do next, it was already clear for the rest of them.

"Alright!"

Emilia took a deep breath and turned to leave!

Suddenly.....

William Davis was afraid!

"Big sister! Please give me another chance!" he shouted with a pale face.

“It was all my fault in the past. As long as you let bygones be bygones, I’m willing to apologize!”

“Oh right ...”

“And the ‘Kiss of Judas’ too. I’ve preserved it very well. It’s not damaged at all!”

“It’s still in my office!!!”

He shouted as he ran!

His pride?

How much is it worth?

Even his greatest support wasn’t going to help him, could it be that he was being left to die?

The people from Davis Company and the employees of the corporation were all dumbfounded!

William Davis, who had always been arrogant, was actually in such a sorry state?

Most importantly, he apologized and even called her sister!

This ...

Micheal Davis felt like there was a fishbone stuck in his throat. He had a bad feeling about this. After all, his son had lost this match. It would be embarrassing for him!

He could only roar at the crowd, “What are you looking at?”

“Don’t you have any work to do?!”

“This is none of your business! Get lost!”

The chairman was furious. Was there anyone who dared go against him?

No!

Oliver Walker may be fierce...

But, they were not Oliver Walker!

Chapter 430 The Harmonious Family

What else could he do?

He could only act as a coward!

At the same time...

Emilia received the ‘Kiss of Judas’, but she was not happy. She wanted to inherit her grandfather’s will and bring Davis to new glory.

But now, there was an internal strife and she felt helpless about it.

“What are you thinking about?”

“Are you unhappy?” Oliver Walker asked softly.

He could understand his wife's feelings, but wasn't he the same?

His grandfather treated him like his own. If everyone in Davis Group were obedient, he would definitely bring the Davis Group to a new peak since he never had a family of his own either.

But...

The situation did not allow it!

"It's not that."

Emilia pursed her red lips and shook her head with a forced smile. "I want to bring my mother and Olivia back."

After all, the villa was big enough. How could she bear to let her mother and daughter live in that old mansion?!

Moreover, with Micheal Davis's character, would he make things difficult for her mother and daughter?

But, it was impossible for her to go back!

"Sure!"

Oliver Walker nodded. "I'm thinking about it too. Since we've settled the matter, I'll bail him out too."

Arresting Isaac Davis was not really to convict him.

He really just wanted to scare Issac Davis, and now his goal should have been achieved.

Oliver Walker also knew that although his wife did not blame him, she definitely felt uncomfortable!

“Good!”

Emilia nodded absent-mindedly, then got up and left.

She did not blame him because she knew that everything her husband did was for the sake of this family.

What right did she have to blame him?

Emilia drove away the L5 as she went back to the old mansion.

Along the way, she was still thinking about these messy things and could not calm down!

Back at the mansion.

Ma’am Davis lay on the recliner, basking in the sun with complicated thoughts.

Today was Sunday, so Olivia Walker, who didn’t have to go to school, was playing in the garden.

Everything here was unfamiliar to her.

Including the old woman on the recline...

Oliver Walker watched quietly. She wanted to leave, but she was also curious.

It was at this moment that Ma’am Davis suddenly opened her eyes and saw the beautiful Olivia sizing her up. She then waved her hand kindly. “Come here!”

Olivia Walker mustered up her courage and walked over. This was a family relationship she had never experienced before.

Ma'am Davis spread her arms and said with a smile, "Come, little sweetheart, let me hug you."

In Olivia Walker's eyes, she saw pure innocence.

This was a precious emotion that she had schemed against for a lifetime and could never get back.

Olivia Walker timidly walked over. "Hello, Madam!"

She didn't know who this woman was, but she knew that Grandma called this old lady 'mom'!

"Yes!"

"Such a good girl!"

Mrs. Davis removed her clothes from her neck and said kindly, "Here, this is a gift from me!"

Olivia Walker quickly shook her head and said in a childish voice, "Mom wouldn't allow me to accept things from others."

"Am I someone who's considered an outsider?" Mrs. Davis asked.

"I'm your mother's grandmother which makes me your great grandmother. We're family!"

This child was so much like Emilia!

If Emilia wasn't a girl, things wouldn't have ended up this way, right?

She personally put the jade pendant on Olivia Walker's neck. As she looked at it, she began to laugh!

What was she going after all her life?

"Olivia....?"

At this moment, Mary Grimm, who realized that her child was missing, came over. After seeing the scene in front of her, she wanted to say something but stopped herself.

"Mom, where's Olivia? "

Emilia was here as well. She followed her mother's gaze and her expression became solemn.

Ma'am Davis, who had never loved her, was now hugging her daughter and playing intimately in her arms.

"Why are you home?"

"Don't you have to work?" Mary Grimm asked curiously.

After thinking for a moment, Emilia shook her head. "I ... I just miss you guys."

In the end, she did not say anything about that matter!

Perhaps it was because of this harmonious scene before her.

She knew that his mother preferred the old house, and Olivia was her life. If she took Olivia with her...

Her mother would have no one to talk to in this cold mansion.

For a moment, she was caught in a dilemma!
