Chapter 441 Extravagant Charity Dinner

At the same time, at the Davis Group!

“Dad!”

“Leon Williams organized a charity dinner but instead of inviting us, he invited Emilia instead!”

“He has simply ignored us!”

William Davis complained indignantly, “Did he really think that Emilia is the one who calls the shots now?!”

“He doesn’t take you seriously at all!”

How could he not be angry?

William Davis had no idea what Oliver Walker had, and how he was able to turn the tables around every time.

He was unconvinced.

“Humph!”

Micheal Davis said with a cold expression, “Then, we shall not attend it. I would like to see how much money would Emilia be able to bring to the table.”

“They’re all snobs.”

If the first war God had been present at the dinner party, would Leon Williams still dare to ignore him like this?

This...

Damn it, Leon Williams was clearly giving him a hard time!

“Yes!”

William Davis gritted his teeth. “We shall be absent from it! We have to see how much money that adulterous couple can whip out.”

In their opinion, if Emelia did donate during the charity event, she would be representing the Davis Group.

If they couldn't come up with the money, it had nothing to do with them.

Then, he would be able to publish a press release and reprimand both Emilia and Leon Williams together.

“Yes!”

“It's settled then!”

Micheal Davis said angrily, “Has Jessica's surgery been arranged?”

Previously, Jessica Wright Davis had been severely injured by Oliver Walker and had just recovered.

She has yet to complete her last surgery to fix her face.

As a father, how could he not be anxious?

“I already moved her to the villa so that she could rest.”

“But she hasn’t been in a good mood.” William Davis said with a frown. “She only occupied with getting revenge and I’m worried that she may do something irrational.”

Did he not want revenge?

They do but it wasn’t the right time yet!

They could only launch their crazy revenge once Emilia and Oliver Walker had fallen to the state of being stray dogs!

Micheal Davis frowned. “As her brother, you must comfort her more.”

“We will definitely seek revenge.”

“Once I get my hands on her revenge, I will definitely make it difficult for her to even survive.”

Indeed, Jessica Wright Davis couldn’t take this lying down. However, she had forgotten that if it weren’t for her repeated provocations, she wouldn’t be suffering now.

If she didn’t hire a hundred men to cripple Emilia, Oliver Walker wouldn’t have been so harsh to her.

In short, she deserved it.

However, how many criminals would truly repent their mistakes??

At this moment, Jessica Wright Davis was wearing an evening gown and a tulle on her face to cover her huge scar. She set off for the Grand Canyon Hotel.

Charity dinner?

She wanted to turn the charity dinner into the infamous grave of Oliver Walker and Emilia!

It was already night time. Although the state of California wasn't big and wasn't considered a developed city, it had its usual neon lights and traffic.

There were countless luxury cars parked at the entrance of the Grand Canyon Hotel, perfectly complementing the prosperity and extravagance!

"You have to remember that those who attend the charity dinner tonight are famous guests in this state." Leon Williams warned Arnold Frost.

"Don't think that just because you're my nephew, you can do whatever you want. It's important to keep a low profile!"

In fact, he used to be a high-profile man.....

Ever since he received Oliver Walker's guidance, his inflated personality had instantly shrunk. So, he had been learning how to keep a low profile!

"Uncle!"

Arnold Frost said confidently, "Don't worry, I understand this. I will not be embarrassing you tonight."

"But there's one person that I would like to meet."

"It's the man who lives in the Sovereign."

He had to find out who it was so that he could about that damned Oliver Walker and make Oliver Walker suffer from the punishment that he deserved.

Chapter 442 Digging Your Own Grave

Oliver Walker was too damn hateful. Not only did Oliver Walker cause Arnold Frost to offend a big shot, but Arnold Frost was also shut out of the Sovereign because Oliver Walker was guilty.

However, even if beaten to death, he would not dare to say this to Leon Williams!

“There will be a chance!”

Leon Williams nodded. “Tonight, we’ll be at the same table as the big shot. You better be smart, kid. Don’t die without even knowing how you died.”

Leon Williams had wanted to say more, but in the end, he swallowed the words that would come out of his mouth.

After all, his nephew was no longer a child. He should naturally understand what he should and shouldn’t do.

After seeing his uncle leave, Arnold Frost also entered the banquet hall.

He was starting to build connections!

Since he was the nephew of the richest man in Colorado, most people naturally were willing to talk to him.

Moreover, Leon Williams had also handed over the Hongri Mall under the Heavenly Dragon Group to Arnold Frost. This was enough to show how much he valued his nephew.

“Mr. Frost, you’re really good-looking!”

“Yes, he looks extraordinary. He looks like a person who can do great things!”

“Hahaha ...”

“Mr. Frost’s future will definitely be a bright one!”

“...”

Everyone present was smart. The words and smiles on their faces might not be sincere, but they made the other party feel especially comfortable.

This was especially true for Arnold Frost, who was already confident in his status and how he had returned from overseas. This made him even more arrogant.

After chatting, he saw Oliver Walker and Emilia in the crowd. He suppressed his anger and asked, “Everyone, do you know that man’s background over there?”

Sun Rong’s information was wrong, but even if beaten to death, he wouldn’t dare to ask Leon Williams.

That was why he asked the people around him.

“One is the abandoned daughter of the Davis Group, and the other the abandoned son-in-law. What background could they have?”

“I heard they’re here to promote their new cosmetics product.”

“They’re both young people, but compared to you, who’s young and promising, they’re simply worlds apart.”

“...”

This was a group of rich businessmen from the state of Colorado. Who would take Oliver Walker and Emelia seriously?

In addition, there were a few hints of flattery, so naturally, the two of them were belittled to the point of being worthless.

After all, based on the current situation, Arnold Frost would definitely be a core member of the Heavenly Dragon Group in the future.

There were simply too many opportunities for them to work together in the future.

“Thank you, uncles and aunties!”

These words also confirmed Arnold Frost’s guess and dispelled his worries. It also showed that Sun Rong was not lying.

Therefore, with a grim smile, he swaggered toward Oliver Walker and Emilia!

Was he afraid?

This was his uncle’s home ground. Even if Oliver Walker had some ability, as long as he dared to be presumptuous here, Oliver Walker would never be able to walk out these doors alive.

“Are you really going to sell our products here?”

Emilia took a deep breath and looked at her husband beside her in confusion. She was a little embarrassed.

After all, her reputation in this circle was not good, to begin with. So...

It was hard to imagine what would happen!

“Don’t worry!”

Oliver Walker comforted him with a smile, “You will understand when the time comes.”

Was he here to promote the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask?

Of course not!

The main purpose was to get familiar with the social circle here. Then, it would be a good time to rob the rich and give to the poor. These people who had once ridiculed their wives and were in need would bleed heavily.

This was especially true for the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask. It had a wide range of effects and was not just for removing scars.

Plus, there were many noble ladies here.

It was also the best opportunity for publicity. Plus, they would be able to do something good with the money.

“Phew ...”

Emilia took a deep breath. She did not understand her husband’s chain of thoughts, so the best way to get along was to support him silently.

“Wow...”

Arnold Frost said in a strange tone, “I heard that you’re going to promote some cosmetics at the charity banquet?”

Seeing this, he was very sure that these two people did not have any status or identity.

If they were competent, even if they were sitting in the corner, others would still want to talk to them.

Therefore, he didn't keep his voice down and attracted the crowd's attention in the venue!

Chapter 443 You Don't Know Who I Am?

The rich businessmen in the banquet hall immediately quieted down.

Originally, they did not have any hostility towards Emilia. However, after the incident at the hospital in Colorado, with how Oliver Walker did not take them seriously at all, it naturally caused many people to be dissatisfied.

These nobles were a close clique.

When ordinary people tried to pull down the nobility of this circle, they would definitely become the target of public criticism.

Especially now, this couple was actually trying to promote their cosmetics product here.

None of them stepped forward because they had dignity.

Now that Arnold Frost had taken the lead in making things difficult, he was naturally gloating.

Furthermore, Arnold Frost had just returned to the country. As Leon Williams' nephew, it was understandable for him to do such a thing to establish his authority after stepping into the circle of dignitaries.

However, they did not know that there was already a grudge between Arnold Frost and Oliver Walker before this!

“What we do has nothing to do with you!”

After what had happened in the morning, her impression of Arnold Frost was extremely bad, and she no longer had any illusions.

“Hehe...”

“Do you know who organized this charity banquet?”

Arnold Floss shouted, “You guys are promoting cosmetics at such an occasion, and you actually dare to say that it has nothing to do with me?”

Emilia turned quiet.

This was indeed not a good way to do so.. She was thinking like a normal person but her husband had always been unconventional.

So ...

She really did not know how to make things right!

“Frost, it wasn’t easy for him to get their positions now from picking up trash!”

“That’s right! We’ve put in so much effort to get the admission ticket to the charity banquet. Naturally, we can’t return empty-handed! ”

“I just don’t know what kind of trash they’re selling!”

“Hahaha ...”

The taunts were like thunder as everyone laughed!

Did they really need to think before picking a side?

It was completely unnecessary!

Not to mention that Emelia was the abandoned daughter of the Davis family. Even if she was still the eldest daughter, so what?

After all, who would actually care about the Davis Group when they have already offended the first war god?

Micheal Davis and Leon Williams's relationship had always been bad. However, no matter how bad it was, they could still greet each other with smiles in the past. They would definitely send an invitation to such an important event.

But this time, he didn't invite them. What did that mean?

It meant that Leon Williams no longer cared about Micheal Davis, who had tried his best to suppress the rise of the Heavenly Dragon Group.

Emilia wished she could find a hole to hide in when she was mocked by the crowd.

If her husband wasn't still around, she really wanted to leave.

After all, she was the daughter of a wealthy family and had been in contact with the rich and powerful since she was young. She knew how embarrassing and ridiculous her husband's current actions were.

However, she still chose to tolerate and try to accept it.

Her goal was to increase her compatibility with this man.

Hopefully, he wouldn't disappoint her.

"Say something!"

Seeing that Emilia was silent, Arnold Frost said aggressively, "I'm in charge of this place now. If you don't give me a reasonable explanation, I have the right to kick you out."

"This is to avoid you from embarrassing the noble class of our state!"

After all, he had just returned to the country.

He wasn't familiar with anyone present.

The reason why these people would compliment him was because of his uncle.

If he wanted to please these people, he had to find common interests with them.

It was obvious that dealing with this despised couple was something that everyone was happy to see.

"You've been talking for so long, so who are you?"

Oliver Walker smiled contemptuously. "If I remember correctly, Leon Williams is the one who initiated this banquet.

Arnold Frost laughed as if he had heard the funniest joke. He turned around and pointed at his chest. He asked the nobles present, "He doesn't know who I am?"

"Hahaha ..."

“So how did this idiot get to this place?”

“Well, it is not surprising. After all, you guys aren’t in the same circle as us.”

Their words didn’t seem like much, but they immediately isolated Oliver Walker and Emilia.

Arnold Frost, on the other hand, had integrated himself into the circle of dignitaries.

Chapter 444 The Unlucky Chicken

After all, Arnold Frost studied psychology, so he was naturally familiar with these dirty tricks.

This was because he understood human nature!

“Listen up, Mr. Frost is Mr. Williams’s nephew!”

“Nephew!”

“Without knowing this, how do you have the face to appear here?!”

“...”

As expected, the nobles present responded.

Arnold Frost immediately got the support of those people inside the room. After all, these nobles didn’t want to lower their status and fight Oliver Walker and Emilia, so they naturally cooperated appropriately.

Otherwise, there was no way that this scene could continue.

Emilia frowned and did not say anything. She knew what kind of people they were and what kind of crappy circle they were in.

These wealthy businessmen would disguise themselves as polite gentlemen in front of people of the same level.

However, when faced with someone a level lower than them, they were just demons who couldn't be bothered to pretend.

Therefore, it wasn't strange for this to happen.

Oliver Walker smiled contemptuously and said, "So, Leon Williams went to the police station yesterday to bail you out?"

Oliver Walker didn't ask about this yesterday, but he didn't expect that Leon Williams and Arnold Frost had such a relationship.

It was no wonder that his father-in-law would clamor that it had nothing to do with him.

"You..."

Arnold Frost was like a vicious dog whose tail had been stepped on. He immediately barked, "Don't talk about that again, or I will teach you a lesson!"

That was his humiliation!

He had just returned to the country, and his dream of sleeping with Emilia had yet to come true.

Instead, he was sent to prison by this damned Oliver Walker. This was a big stain in his life.

The nobles present also shut their mouths in a timely manner.

There were some things that shouldn't be asked, and it was best not to ask. Curiosity killed the cat. This was the unspoken rule in their circle.

"You are not qualified yet to talk to me!"

"Ask your uncle to come and see me himself!" Oliver Walker said calmly.

The moment these words were said, the entire place was in an uproar!

Everyone's jaws dropped in shock at Oliver Walker's arrogance!

This ...

Even Emelia found it hard to understand. Her beautiful eyes were filled with disbelief, even though there might be some relationship between Oliver Walker and Leon Williams.

However, how could this relationship compare to blood relations?

"Arrogant!"

"Damn it!"

"Mr. Williams? Is he someone you can meet whenever you want?"

"..."

The scene was boiling. What was this kid thinking?

Was he really not afraid of being hit in the heel?

“My uncle is very busy. He doesn’t have time to see trash like you!”

Arnold Frost, who had been ignored, felt that he had been humiliated. He immediately said angrily, “Men, chase this man out!”

As soon as he finished speaking, more than ten bodyguards instantly rushed forward!

Seeing that things were about to go out of control again, Emelia immediately frowned!

The wealthy merchants, on the other hand, were watching everything coldly.

With how Oliver Walker had dared to say such arrogant words, it would not be an exaggeration for them to break his head let alone to just throw him out of this place!

Boom--

However, just as the dozen bodyguards were about to rush up, a majestic aura that seemed to be the ruler of the world suddenly erupted!

“Impudence!”

Oliver Walker shouted angrily. In the morning, he didn’t attack Arnold Frost because his wife was worried about him.

However, the other party had treated his tolerance as cowardice and provoked him again and again. If he did not show him any blood here, what would happen?

What was his reason for attending the charity banquet?

He wanted to officially announce to this snobbish circle of nobles that his wife, the former prodigy of the business world, had returned!

He wanted to warn all of them once and for all.

Without a doubt...

Arnold Frost, who felt good about himself and liked to jump around blindly, was that unlucky chicken!

Chapter 445 Looking For Backup

“You... What are you doing?”

Arnold Frost felt a bone-piercing coldness that made his body shiver uncontrollably.

Then, he was very sure that the coldness came from Oliver Walker!

Especially that sharp gaze, which was like an abyss!

But in the next moment, before the dozen bodyguards could rush in, Oliver Walker picked up the wine glass on the table and smashed it on Arnold Frost’s knee acupuncture point!

Bang –

“Ahhhhhh!!!”

Thud –

When the wine glass shattered, Arnold Frost let out a shrill cry and knelt on the ground with a pained expression!

Such a scene caused everyone to turn solemn!

This kid...

Was there really something wrong with his brains?

When the bodyguards saw Arnold Frost kneeling before Oliver Walker and Emily, their scalps went numb.

So should they go now, or should they not?

They looked at each other and instantly lost their backbone!

“Don’t provoke my wife again!”

“Otherwise, you will regret it!”

“I won’t interfere in business matters,” Oliver Walker said coldly. “But if anyone dares to use any illegal methods to get to my wife, I don’t think you have what it takes to deal with me.”

The wealthy businessmen present completely shut up!

This was the second time they had seen Oliver Walker since his return!

The first time, he had beaten up William Davis, and now, he had beaten up Arnold Frost!

Could the two be the same?

In the end, Emilia was still a member of Davis Company. Even if she was not welcomed, she wouldn’t have actually injured them.

But now...

"I ... It hurts!"

"It hurts! There's a needle stabbing my bones! "

Arnold Frost's wails made everyone's hair stand on end.

"Mr. Frost, no... There are no needles!"

One of the bodyguards quickly checked on him.

There was indeed no wound on his knee, and Oliver Walker had used a wine glass, not a needle!

Besides, how much impact could a wine glass produce?

This was as expected of a young man from a rich family. He couldn't suffer any pain at all.

However, they did not know that in the eyes of a true expert, even a leaf could be turned into a hidden weapon that could kill.

Not to mention a hard object like a wine cup?

However, for Leon Williams 'sake, Oliver Walker showed mercy and only used the wine glass to poke Arnold Frost's acupuncture point.

Although he didn't suffer any injuries, he would definitely wish he was dead!

"AHHHH!"

“I’m telling you that there’s something in there!”

“There really is...”

Arnold Frost, who was in so much pain that he was about to die, roared as if he was being torn apart. He hugged his knees and rolled on the ground, and his forehead was covered in sweat!

“What happened?”

At this moment, a man who had just arrived rushed forward when he saw Arnold Frost rolling on the ground.

“Uncle Li, hurry! Help me teach him a lesson!”

“He was the one who hit me!”

When Arnold Frost saw who it was, it was as if he had seen his savior. He grabbed his hand tightly and begged loudly.

“It’s Mr. Li!”

“Yes!”

“Let’s see if this damn kid could still be arrogant!”

“...”

It was Daniel Lee, the chairman of Jinfeng Corporation.

He was also a good friend of Arnold Frost's uncle, Leon Williams!

He was one of the top three in this state!

"Let's see who dares to be impudent!"

Suddenly, Daniel Lee stood up angrily, but when he saw the man in front of him, he swallowed the words that were about to come out of his mouth.

His entire body froze on the spot.

He had met Oliver Walker once!

It was because of his good relationship with Leon Williams that he was told by Leon Williams that Oliver Walker was not an ordinary person.

As for what kind of height he stood at, that was something Daniel Lee could not look up to!

However, when everyone saw Daniel Lee's back, they thought that he was trembling with anger.

Who would have thought that Daniel Lee was so scared that he was weak all over?

"Yes!"

"That's him!"

Arnold Frost endured the pain and roared with a ferocious expression, "Uncle Li, hurry up and get him!"

Chapter 446 Two Sides of the Story

Right now, Arnold Frost only wanted the damned Oliver Walker to kneel in front of him instantly.

Otherwise, it would be difficult to resolve the hatred in his heart!

However, Daniel Lee now had the heart to die!

This ...

“Ahem....”

“Mr. Walker!”

Daniel Lee said in a panic, “You... Have you had anything to eat yet?”

Such words were obviously very laughable, but who could laugh?

The banquet hadn't even started yet, so how would it be possible that they had eaten something?

Plus, why does Daniel Lee look so shocked?

Daniel Lee was Leon William's friend, after all.

But he actually addressed Oliver Walker as Mr. Walker?

This...

Could it be that this guy really had a great background?

For a moment, everyone panicked!

Would they be punished for offending him just now?

Now that their lives were at risk, all of them started panicking.

The banquet hall, which could accommodate hundreds of people, instantly became eerily quiet!

Emilia frowned slightly. What was going on?

However, she did not say anything. Instead, she waited quietly!

Daniel Lee also reacted at this moment, and his face was filled with embarrassment. "I mean ..."

He felt bitter from the bottom of his heart.

He was so nervous that his forehead was covered in sweat. He was instantly speechless!

After all, he was someone who had seen big scenes, but...

Facing such a VIP, who wouldn't tremble in fear?

"Yes!"

Oliver Walker nodded slightly. Then, under everyone's gaze, he looked down at Arnold Frost and said coldly, "If you want to keep your leg, remember to come forward with a sincere apology that my wife would be happy with."

"Otherwise, you'll have to amputate it!"

He did not want to make things difficult for Daniel Lee since none of them had gotten to such status easily.

He didn't want to bully others, but that didn't mean he could accept being bullied.

"Huh?!"

"In your dreams!"

"I won't... I will never apologize!"

At this moment, Arnold Frost's eyes were bloodshot as he said, "Quick! Send me to the hospital!"

He didn't know what was wrong with his leg, but he was in extreme pain!

That feeling was simply worse than death!

He didn't believe that the hospital wouldn't treat him well.

After Oliver Walker and Emelia left, Arnold Frost was also carried out of the room.

This....

An amputation!

It was too f*cking scary!

The people present finally understood why Daniel Lee was trembling so much. It turned out that he could tell that Arnold Frost had been badly injured.

Therefore, it was reasonable for him to plead for mercy.

As long as Oliver Walker's background did not scare Daniel Lee, there was nothing for them to be afraid of!

However, this also showed that Leon Williams quite valued Arnold Frost. Otherwise, Daniel Lee would not have lowered his own reputation in such a manner.

However, the truth was that Daniel Lee was actually scared of Oliver Walker's identity and stuttered. How could he know medicine?

At this moment, his heart was pacing.

He didn't dare to do so, afraid he would offend them!

As for Oliver Walker's words, he naturally believed them.

Arnold Frost was definitely doomed!

"What did you do to him?"

"Why is he in so much pain?" asked Emelia curiously.

Oliver Walker sat in his seat and replied with a smile, "You'll know when the time comes."

He didn't want to be calculative at first, but he didn't want to be bullied by any Tom, Dick, or Harry.

Especially Arnold Floss. He should be severely punished for disrespecting his wife.

Emilia said nothing else because she knew her husband's medical skills were superb.

In the crowd, Jessica Wright Davis, wearing a veil, had hatred in her eyes!

She would definitely take revenge!

Oliver Walker and Emelia should be embarrassed and boycotted by everyone here!

At the same time, Leon Williams went to the stage smiling. "Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for giving me the honor, despite your busy schedule to come to the annual business charity banquet in Colorado!

"Everyone here is successful as we stand on top of the pyramids.

"But there are still so many of our compatriots who are hungry and can't afford treatment even when sick.

"So I hope everyone can contribute a little love to improve our state!"

Chapter 447 She Had No Other Choice

"I now announce that the annual charity banquet officially begins! "

"Heavenly Dragon Group has donated 50 million!"

The opening speech was always so boring!

In fact, Emilia was no stranger to charity banquets because it had always been hosted by Davis.

However, after Leon Williams's rise, Davis, who was in the dark, had already lost its qualifications.

Now, they have even fallen further. They were directly squeezed out of the circle of dignitaries!

Clap clap clap!!!

There was a round of applause at the venue. Leon Williams's donation of 50 million was not unusual. After all, he was the richest man in Colorado!

"Lian City Group, 30 million!"

"Golden Ocean Group, 25 million!"

"Glacier Corporation, 10 million!"

"Jinfeng Corporation, 40 million!"

"..."

Then, numbers were being reported one after another.

No one surpassed Leon Williams. This was the rule. After all, he was the organizer, so he naturally could not lose face.

Therefore, Leon Williams's place on the top was unshakable.

Jessica Wright Davis waited silently. She was waiting for Emilia to report their number, and then she would launch a fatal blow.

After all, the scar on her face was the best proof that Oliver Walker was a bastard who did all kinds of evil.

He still wanted to do charity?

What a joke!

After most of the people present donated, Jessica Wright Davis, who had been lying low, smiled coldly. "Emilia, are you here to freeload?"

Due to how she was masked, no one recognized her and thought that she had donated.

After all, the focus was not on her. Instead, all eyes were on Emilia.

"Hmph! This is not a free meal!"

"I can't believe that they're actually here."

"If it's less than a million, we won't report it! We wouldn't want you embarrassing us."

"..."

The people present couldn't stand Oliver Walker's insolence, especially after he beat Arnold Frost, which was equivalent to offending Leon Williams.

Without even thinking about it, it was impossible for this couple to have a good life in the future.

"Phew..."

At this moment, Emilia was under great pressure. She did not have any mobile funds on hand.

So ...

“Don’t be nervous!”

“Let’s do as we agreed!” Oliver Walker smiled.

This was the best time to use the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask, and it was also the time to make this group of people bleed.

“Alright.”

Emilia nodded. After taking a deep breath, she stood up. “Mr. Williams, can I go on stage and say a few things?”

Leon Williams was stunned at first, but after a moment, he instantly reacted. “Ms. Davis, please!”

The pressure on him standing on the stage was immense!

In terms of status!

It was impossible for him to be the organizer this year.

Even if Oliver Walker was not the host, it should have been Emilia.

However, he had also considered it. After all, Emilia’s reputation was not the best right now. If he did not host it, it was very likely that this banquet would not have happened.

Emilia walked up to the stage under the disdainful gazes of the crowd and said with her usual imposing manner, “I’m really sorry but I think everyone knows the situation of Davis Group now.”

“So this time, we will not be donating fluid cash.”

In fact, when she said this, even felt embarrassed. She did not know if her husband's promise would work. However, she was already at the end of her rope. Was there any other way?

Therefore, before she went on stage, she was already prepared to be ridiculed by the crowd.

"If you aren't going to donate, what are you doing on stage?!"

"Hurry up and get down!"

"Stop embarrassing yourself!"

"Can you even represent the Davis Group?"

"..."

Not many people paid attention to it. The current Davis Group naturally did not know that Emilia had become the second largest shareholder alongside Micheal Davis.

"Although I don't have the money to do so, I have brought along some of our new products."

Chapter 448 An Act of Social Suicide

Emilia ignored their mockery and continued, "I've decided to take out 100 pieces of the latest product of Davis Cosmetics, the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask!"

As soon as she said that, the angry voices at the scene became louder and louder!

If it weren't for the microphone, Emilia really wouldn't have been able to cover up those voices.

However, at this moment, a noblewoman stood up and teased, "Emilia, I feel like laughing when you say that!"

“A hundred masks?”

“Are they made of diamonds?”

“Besides, we’re both in the cosmetics industry. My facial masks have already occupied the mainstream market in the state of Colorado. Should I also donate a hundred of them as well?”

“I’m dying of laughter!”

The woman who spoke was the boss of Adams Group, which was currently the largest in the cosmetics market in Colorado, so her words were still very authoritative.

After all, they were rivals in the same industry, and Emma Adams would not allow Emilia to promote her new product here.

“President Adams! You’re right!”

“Adams’s facial masks, from the mid-end to the high-end products, is there anyone of them that isn’t better than those from the Davis Group?”

“If everyone breaks the rules like you, then I think it’s better not to hold a charity banquet!”

“What? You want to sell this mask for 100,000 yuan?”

“With the size of the Davis Group, it’s not too much to donate 10 million, right?”

“...”

The crowd raised their protest and some even got on their feet.

Jessica Wright Davis's lips curled into a cold smile. She naturally knew that it was impossible for Emilia to have money on hand.

Therefore, she was happy to see how the scene had unfold.

"Therefore, in order to donate cash, I'm here to auction off these 100 Heavenly Doctor Face Masks. All the donations will be used for charity!"

Emilia was under immense pressure and was trying to turn the tables in the face of adversity. "I was hoping..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, Emma Adams shouted again, "What? You want us to be fools and buy your worthless facial mask? Then, you'll be able to gain a good reputation for doing some charity here?"

"Isn't that too shameless of you?"

That's right!

Why should they respect her?

In fact, most wealthy people would use charity auctions to help each other but was Emilia worthy of their time?

"That's right!"

"You want us to be fools?"

"What a joke!"

“ ... ”

The people present were clamoring again. In short, Emilia was no longer allowed on stage.

This was because she had overstepped the boundaries and was breaking the rules.

After all, according to the tacit agreement in the past, whoever was the most capable would hold the charity banquet.

Now, Emilia was clearly going to turn the tables and ride on their heads. How could they allow this to happen?!

Leon Williams did not know what to say. After all...

That man never liked playing according to the rules.

“Everyone, please be quiet!”

“No matter what, Miss Emilia is only doing this out of kindness.”

“We should not be comparing how much everyone can donate while doing charity. It should all be done just out of kindness.”

“We might as well give her a chance!”

As soon as he said that, everyone present quieted down.

As the saying goes, the older ginger are usually the most spicy.

This was absolutely true!

Was Leon Williams giving Emilia a chance?

He wasn't!

Instead, he had dug a pit for her to jump into!

"Thank you, Mr. Williams!"

Emilia lowered her head slightly in greeting, then said, "Everyone should know that after I left Davis, there hasn't been any new products launched yet.

"As a result, our market share has reached a precarious state!

"Now, with my husband's help, we've developed a new Chinese herbal mask. Its effects far exceed all the similar products on the market! "

"So..."

At this moment, Emma Adams said with a cold face and dissatisfaction, "Mr. Williams, it's not that I don't want to be nice about this but I really can't listen to this anymore!"

"I would like to ask Ms. Davis, what right do you have to belittle Adams Group's facial masks?"

"If you don't give me a reasonable explanation, I'll go to court and sue you until you go bankrupt!"

Chapter 449 Disfigured

The effect far exceeded all the similar products on the market?

It was better to just directly say that Adams' facial mask did not have similar effects!

After all, before the Adams, Davis Cosmetics was indeed the trump card of the state of Colorado, and its market share had almost reached the point of domination.

However, in the past eight years, they had cut corners and no new products were launched. They were almost on the verge of bankruptcy.

But such a company actually said that their products were many times better than Adams?

This...

“Ms. Adams, it’s not worth it to be angry with her!”

“I think she’s struggling on her deathbed!”

“Only a fool would buy a facial mask like that. It’s ridiculous!”

“...”

Emilia took a deep breath in the face of the criticism. She knew that if she could not go against the current, she would only perish and become the most ridiculous joke in the state of Colorado forever.

Therefore, she could not remain silent. Instead, she said, “That’s right, it’s stronger than any product on the market now.”

“The Heavenly Doctor Facial Mask is made from pure Chinese herbs so the cost is extremely high but the effect is surprisingly good.”

“Our main focus is scar removal, but at the same time, it also provides anti-aging abilities and it locks moisture onto your skin.

“I can guarantee that you can try our mask for free now if you have any scars. The scar removal effect of it will be immediate.”

The moment these words came out, it caused a huge uproar once again!

Even the plastic surgery hospital did not dare to say such crazy words.

Moreover, was this something that a facial mask could do?

“Hahahahaha!”

“Is there anyone who would use such substandard products from the Davis Group? If they’re disfigured, can you afford to pay for it?”

At this moment, Jessica Wright Davis sneered, “I think you should save it!”

“Adams is the best product on the market!”

As soon as these words were said, almost everyone in the room agreed with her.

Emma Adams raised her head proudly. “No words are as important as the opinions of our customers.”

“No matter how much you brag about it, it won’t work.”

“You have to find someone who dares to try your product!”

Emilia was too arrogant with her words.

It was so over the top that no one was willing to believe it except Oliver Walker, who knew the effects of the product.

Even Leon Williams felt his scalp go numb!

This...

However, due to Oliver Walker's identity and status, he could not say a word and could only watch the farce unfold!

Emilia also knew that after she left, the reputation of Davis Cosmetics had long collapsed!

However, she had come prepared today!

Even if everyone suspected her husband, she would never do so. She said proudly, "Since none of you believe me, then I'll test it with my own body!"

"You..." Emma Adams sneered. "I don't see any scars on your face!"

"Why? Are you going to take off your clothes?"

Such ridicule caused everyone to burst into laughter.

"If there's no scar, then I'll create one!"

However, the next moment, Emilia took out a fruit knife that reflected a cold light under the light. "If you guys aren't willing to do so, I will show it to you."

In an instant, the banquet hall was completely silent!

Did this lunatic, Emilia, really lose her mind?

They looked at the fruit knife and were shocked!

Even Emma Adams couldn't sit still. What kind of product could make the number one goddess of the state of Colorado disfigure herself to test the efficacy?

"Honey!"

Oliver Walker was also shocked. He never expected his wife to make such a decision. He quickly jumped onto the stage and shouted, "Let me do this!"

"I may not understand you." Emilia smiled gently. "But that doesn't stop me from trusting you!"

"I hope you won't disappoint me!"

She smiled as she picked up the fruit knife and placed it on her delicate and flawless face.

She looked at the man in front of her with her beautiful eyes. So what if she was disfigured?

If disfigurement could make her husband feel guilty and change his impulsive and irritable bad habits, then everything would be worth it!

"No..."

"Let go!" Oliver Walker shouted hurriedly. "Stop it!"

Of course, he wasn't questioning the effectiveness of the facial mask. He just couldn't bear to see his wife suffer!

His wife was actually willing to sacrifice her peerless beauty for him. Was this not enough to be moved?

"You're a grown man. Why are you pestering in this?!"

Chapter 450 What She Wanted Most

“Emilia has to be the one to do it!”

Jessica Wright Davis shouted coldly again, “Otherwise, none of us will be convinced!”

She was disfigured!

Naturally, she couldn’t let Emilia get away with it. As for the so-called facial mask that could remove scars, it was clearly a joke!

“Yes!”

“Emilia has to be the one to do it!”

“If it’s possible, I’ll pay a million!”

“...”

The banquet hall was in an uproar!

However, at this moment, Emilia’s eyes and heart were only filled with Oliver Walker. It did not matter what others thought of her or said about her!

She used a little strength in her hand that was holding the fruit knife. The sharp blade instantly cut into her flesh, and blood flowed along the wound!

Oliver Walker’s heart trembled, and tears welled in his eyes. He hurriedly shouted, “Stop! I won’t allow you to hurt yourself!”

Seeing that her husband was about to rush forward, Emilia endured the pain of her pretty face being cut by a sharp blade and took a step back. "Don't! I have a few words from the bottom of my heart that I want to tell you!"

She was very calm!

She wasn't angry at all.

However, some words were stuck in her heart, and she had never found the right opportunity to pour them out.

Now ...

She wanted to say them all.

She was not stupid, but the man in front of her was worth it!

"Fine..."

Oliver Walker's tears rolled down his cheeks!

A woman was willing to use her peerless beauty to negotiate with him... How much trust was this?

He...

"Hubby!"

"I know that the aftereffects of war can cause great damage to a person's mind!"

“Ever since you came back, I’ve noticed your temper has changed. You get triggered easily. Do you know how worried I was about you?”

“I’m so afraid of losing you!

“I’m so afraid that Olivia will lose her father again!”

Emilia cried. Crystal-clear tears hung on her face and slowly fused with the blood that burst from her wound!

“It’s terrific to have you back!

“I want you to be well and stay in this family. I don’t want anything to happen to you that could take you away!

“But my abilities are limited now, and I can’t do it anymore. I can’t stop others from bullying, humiliating, or mocking you!

“I don’t want much. I’ve always wanted a home!

“A home that doesn’t need to be big but must be filled with warmth!”

As Emilia spoke, Oliver Walker listened.

He would nod repeatedly every time his wife said something.

In fact, he had noticed that some love was silent. Since he had money, his wife had not bought him clothes, cosmetics, or food!

However, there were books about the aftermath of the war that appeared in their room.

He had seen all of this. He had thought that he was fine and that his wife would slowly accept it, but now he realized that his wife's obsession was intense!

Her concern for him was beyond his imagination!

The people present also stunned!

Regardless of whether she was an enemy, no one would have thought Emilia could do such a thing for a man!

"Promise me that you won't hurt anyone unless necessary!"

"To me, my face is much less important compared to you.

Emilia was still smiling. "There's always someone better than you. You're indeed strong, but there's always someone stronger than you! "

"Can you defeat everyone in the world?"

Oliver Walker nodded repeatedly. "I promise you not to hurt anyone unnecessarily."

"Put down the knife!"

"Let me do it!"

Not only did Emilia not put it down, but she also slashed her face.

Blood flowed everywhere!

"You will definitely cure me, right?" she asked with a frown.

All she wanted was a peaceful life!

It was really simple!

She was someone that could be easily satisfied!
