

Chaplain 451

Chapter 451 Give Me Ten Minutes

“Yes, yes!”

“I definitely will!”

Oliver Walker was filled with grief. He never expected his wife to wake him up in such a way.

But he has never lost himself.

Perhaps, the difference between the both of them was indeed huge. One was the abandoned daughter of the Davis family who was ridiculed by all while he was the national’s chaplain revered by tens of thousands of people!

In fact, they were all trying their best to get closer to each other, but there was a huge difference between them.

He was upset not because his wife was disfigured, but because he saw his wife in pain!

“Good!”

Emilia smiled and said in front of everyone, “President Adams, didn’t you want an explanation?”

“Let me show it to you now. Can your product treat the wound on my face?”

Adams Cosmetics had risen to prominence in the past few years. They had been openly and covertly attacking Davis Cosmetics. They had wantonly belittled Davis Cosmetics ‘products!

In fact, it was bad but it was definitely not as bad as what the Adams Group has claimed.

“Hmph!” Emma Adams snorted coldly. “I’d admit that the Adams Mask can’t remove such a scar, but I also don’t believe that you can do what I can’t!”

To be honest, she didn’t expect Emilia to be so extreme.

She also felt a little flustered.

If the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask really had the effect of removing such scars, then...

Wouldn’t they rise to the top again?!

However, she quickly calmed down. This was impossible. Up until now, she had never heard of any facial mask that could have such an effect.

“Great.”

“In that case, I’ll prove the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask now and test it on the spot. If you still have any doubts, please raise them in time.”

Emilia looked around the stage with a smile on her face, not showing the slightest hint of panic.

Her husband always liked to take the unconventional path, so she went all out too.

If they lost, they would have to start all over again.

As long as that man could understand her determination!

At this moment, the entire place was silent.

Jessica Wright Davis 'eyes widened.

It was true that plastic surgery could cover scars by transplanting skin, but...

They would still look fake.

If the facial mask really had such an effect, it would be great news for her.

“Can we start now?”

Emilia lay on the chair that Leon Williams had arranged and her beautiful face was filled with a gentle smile.

Her beautiful eyes were filled with trust!

“Sure!”

Oliver Walker tore off a facial mask and simply applied it on his wife's face without using any technique.

He had never doubted the prescription of the Heavenly Doctor Sect.

This was because it had been verified countless times. There were many things in traditional medicine that science could not explain.

For example, Yin and Yang, magnetic fields, and even meridians!

All the eyes below the stage were fixed on Emilia and Oliver Walker, who were on the stage. They did not even blink, for fear that these two may be sheathing.

Well, even if god was here, it would have been difficult for them to cheat.

At the same time, when the mask was applied to her face, Emilia first felt a refreshing chill.

Then, a magical scene happened. In all of the coldness, she could feel some warmth coming from it as well.

It was as if all the cells in his skin were jumping.

It was an indescribable feeling, but it was as comfortable as plucking one's ears!

That's right!

If she really had to described it, the feeling was only of one world – comfortable.

Her entire body seemed to have entered a wonderful state, completely relaxing her body and mind.

She also forgot about his troubles!

“Give me ten minutes. I'll show you the power of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask.”

“This is the formula made of traditional medicinal herbs that has been carefully researched by countless predecessors.

“It is absolutely safe and has no side effects!

“And the effect it can produce is unprecedented.”

The scene was still silent...

Everyone was waiting for the final result.

Ten minutes was not a long time, but at this moment, it felt like a century.

Waiting like this was almost torturous!

Chapter 452 Unveiling the Mask

However, most people still scoffed at it. No one would believe that such a completely revolutionary facial mask would appear.

If there was, then from now on, the cosmetics industry would stir up a huge storm by the Davis Group.

“Madam Adams, they’re...”

“Yeah, you’re an expert. What are the chances?”

“Tell us quickly!”

“...”

The people at the scene could barely hold on in the last three minutes!

It was too f*cking torturous!

Emma Adams frowned. What should she say?

Actually, she didn’t know what to do!

But if she didn’t answer, wouldn’t that be equivalent to admitting defeat?

After thinking for a moment, she said affirmatively, "That's impossible. Even if such technology exists, it wouldn't appear on Davis Cosmetics."

"Don't worry. They're just digging their own graves!"

After receiving such a firm answer, everyone present heaved a sigh of relief.

If it really had such an effect, then it wouldn't be called a facial mask anymore. It could directly beat the current medical standards.

At the same time, Leon Williams's heart was trembling.

If the effect did not work, then wouldn't he be guilty?

This ...

Therefore, he was more nervous than anyone else and more afraid than anyone else!

Every minute and second was torture for him!

Jessica Wright Davis was the same. She hoped that the scar removal effect of the facial mask would work but she did not want Emilia to be the one selling this product.

It could be said that she was conflicted to a certain extent deep inside!

"Ten minutes is up!"

"Hurry up and remove the mask. Don't cheat!"

"Yeah, we're all waiting for the results!"

“ ... ”

In an instant, everyone present stood up!

Because in the next moment, they would be able to expose Emilia's lie!

How could he not be excited?

If she failed, then Emilia would be nailed to the pillar of shame, never able to raise her head again.

Emma Adams was the same. When Oliver Walker was about to take off the mask, she shouted, “Wait!”

In an instant, the entire place fell silent!

Oliver Walker looked back and asked, “What now?”

Emma Adams gulped and mustered up her courage. “In order to be fair, I should be the one to unveil this mask.”

Although it was unlikely that Oliver Walker would cheat, she still wanted to nip the possibility in the bud.

“That's right!”

“Ms. Adams, please remove the mask. Mr. Williams will be the witness!”

“This way, the results will be more convincing!”

“ ... ”

For a moment, the entire hall was in an uproar.

Especially the noble ladies present, they were even more focused and calm, not daring to have the slightest bit of carelessness.

The richer they were, the more they cared about their appearance.

They wished they could stay young forever.

If...

The Heavenly Doctor Face Mask really had a magical effect. Only a fool would not use it!

“Good!”

Oliver Walker spread his arms and took a step back, indicating that there was nothing in his hands!

Emilia’s breathing began to quicken!

In fact, she had indeed gambled everything for her husband, but regardless of whether she succeeded or not, she would never regret it.

In his heart, she was also prepared to face a storm if she failed!

It was not like she had never lost before!

Even if she lost again, what was the big deal?

Moreover, if she did not do so, it would be difficult to open up a market. At that time, she would still lose the bet.

She had never been someone who would sit still and wait for death!

At the same time, Emma Adams inadvertently took a deep breath. Her outstretched hands were still trembling. When she removed a corner of the mask, her eyes instantly widened and she froze on the spot...

Chapter 453 The Miracle

The atmosphere suddenly became steep!

The people present were already impatient!

He wished he could climb onto the stage and see what was going on!

“What happened?”

“Ms. Adams, say something!”

“I’m so anxious!”

“...”

That kind of entanglement confused the hearts!

It was as if the truth was right in front of them, but there were those who didn’t want them to know.

“Ah ...”

Emma Adams exclaimed with a pale face. She staggered two steps back. “Impossible!”

“How is this possible?”

“How can there be such amazing technology in this world!”

She was mind blown.

She felt like everything that she knew was thrown aside.

Emilia was done for!

This was what everyone present thought, but they didn't dare to be sure without seeing the real face!

The next moment, Oliver Walker stepped forward, removed the mask on his wife's face, and said, “The effect is immediate. For example, a small knife wound will disappear without a trace within ten minutes!

“No matter how serious the burn is, I only need five Heavenly Doctor Beauty Masks!”

“Of course, this is not the only magical part. Long-term use can even slow down aging!

“Although it can't achieve the effect of eternal youth, I can guarantee that I will make the user ten years younger! ”

Everyone was shocked!

As for Emilia, she touched her face that had been cut by the fruit knife. Her skin felt more delicate, smooth, and elastic instead.

The wounds that should have existed had already completely healed.

She forcefully suppressed her excitement, took out her phone, and turned on the camera. When she saw that her face was as good as new, she was extremely excited!

The man beside her was not boasting!

It was because this mask was truly magical!

She smiled!

Her nerves, which had been tensed up for the entire night, suddenly relaxed!

“This ...”

“Gulp ...”

There were others who still wanted to object to it, but in the end, they were so dumbfounded that they did not know what to say.

After all, such an effect had broken their understanding!

All of them could only stand there in a daze!

Jessica Wright Davis’s eyes were filled with excitement, jealousy, and hatred!

The complicated feelings she felt were indescribable.

“This is the moment that all of you have witnessed a miracle!”

“Eight years of research and development. This is the answer that Davis Cosmetics gives to the public.” said Amelia with her head held high.

“We did not fall behind. We have just used the money from marketing onto research and development!”

“As Ms. Adams said just now, nothing is more important than a customer’s trust!”

These words made Emma Adams’s expression even more ugly!

The effect was indeed beyond imagination. If the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask could be mass-produced, wouldn’t it be able to quickly erode Adams ‘high-end market?

This was something she could not accept!

Especially when Emilia used her words against her with how the customer’s reviews are most important. Why did it sound so harsh?

She seemed to see the company rapidly entering a period of decline under the strong attack of Davis Cosmetics. Then, she seemed to have gone crazy and shouted, “That’s Impossible!”

“This is definitely cheating!”

“It doesn’t count!”

“Emilia is a liar!”

As soon as she said this, everyone present was about to agree, when Leon Williams stepped forward and shouted coldly, “Are you saying that I was bribed by Ms. Davis to put on an act?”

He was, after all, the richest man in Colorado!

After being pushed to the point of being a notary, Emma Adams’s words were clearly doubting him as well.

Therefore, he had to stand up for himself.

“1...”

Emma Adams was speechless. Her eyes were filled with unwillingness. If she continued, it would be equivalent to offending Leon Williams.

Chapter 454 The End of a Fiasco

After all, Adams was just a cosmetics company. Its market value was not even comparable to the declining Davis Group. How could it be compared to the Heavenly Dragon Group?

Those who wanted to chime in quickly calmed down!

This...

Was there anyone who still dared mess around now?

“Ladies and gentlemen, Miss Emilia did demonstrate it to us just now.”

“It was under everyone’s supervision. I don’t think it is necessary for me to mention the effects of these masks.”

“I’ll pass over the stage to Ms. Davis now!” Leon Williams said.

The banquet hall was still silent!

Most of them couldn’t react in time.

“It’s true that Davis Group did not donate cash this time, but we came with sincerity!

“The Heavenly Doctor Face Mask hasn’t been released into the market yet. We now only have 99 pieces with us. I won’t ask for an exorbitant price. 2 hundred thousand for one piece. If you’re willing to bid for it, I’ll donate all the money I get!

“If there is no one who wants it, I will not force it upon you either.”

There was only confidence on Emilia’s pretty face. She no longer had any doubts about the effects of the product.

“I... I want it!”

“200,000 yuan each. I’ll buy them all!”

“Madam Zhang. You shouldn’t do that. Everyone here should have a fair share of it!”

“That’s right! You can’t just raise the price of goods at will. This isn’t an auction!”

“...”

The noble ladies present no longer had their graceful and elegant look.

They were more like an auntie in the market who was scolding the vendors endlessly for a discount of two cents!

Oliver Walker and Emilia looked at each other and smiled!

No woman could resist such a mask!

To them, beauty was second only to life!

Some people even risked their lives to undergo plastic surgery and get injections of uric acid in order to preserve their looks!

Didn't they do all these just to look younger?

But now, with just one simple facial mask, who wouldn't go crazy for something that it could do?!

In the end, under the leadership of Leon Williams, the people who were willing to buy it were divided equally.

The banquet hall also quieted down!

"Now, I announce that the VIP who donated the most is..."

Leon Williams kept them in suspense, and the people present were completely uninterested because Leon Williams had donated 50 million and occupied the top spot. There was no doubt about it.

The amount of donations was actually a matter of character. Even if they were really willing to donate, they would never donate more than the organizer.

"Miss Emilia and Mr. Oliver Walker!"

When he finished speaking, it was no less than a huge bomb. The power of the explosion instantly set off a huge wave!

Jessica Wright Davis stood up unwillingly and gritted her teeth. "They only donated these masks!"

"Where else is the rest of the money?"

That's right!

Ninety-nine face masks. Even if they cost 200,000 yuan each, it wouldn't even cost 20 million yuan!

Although there were quite a few, it was too far-fetched to say that they were number one!

"Actually, Miss Emilia and Mr. Oliver Walker not only donated the mask, but they also donated another 50 million in cash."

"They just want to keep a low profile, but I think doing charity should be something high-profile. Otherwise, it will be difficult to have an effect!"

Leon Williams's words made the entire arena calm down once again!

Even Emilia was stunned. She slowly turned around and looked at her husband. She frowned and asked in a low voice, "You're the one who donated it?"

Oliver Walker was stunned for a moment before he said, "I think so?"

He didn't know that Leon Williams had donated half of the cost of Sovereign in his name.

Instead, he thought that the charity organization under his name had donated money for him!

However, he didn't care about this.

This was because he had always been doing charity, and the dividends given to him by the eight disciples of the God of Fortune were simply inexhaustible.

Therefore, most of it was taken from the people and used by the people!

Emilia did not ask further and just nodded. Although he did not discuss it with her, there was no need to discuss such matters.

“Damn it!”

Jessica Wright Davis left the hall with a gloomy expression. She naturally had to report these things to her father quickly.

Otherwise, he would be in big trouble!

Emma Adams, who was in despair, left silently with her scalp feeling numb!

Chapter 455 Their Special Night?

The charity dinner had come to a perfect end.

During this period, many people came forward to propose a toast, but whether it was Emilia or Oliver Walker, they all hated it!

When these people attacked them, they spared no effort. Now, when they tried to curry favor with them, they were as fake as ever.

Perhaps this was the business world!

It was a battlefield without smoke but full of schemes.

If they weren't careful enough, they would be torn apart mercilessly.

If these people knew that the masks that sold for 200,000 yuan tonight would only be sold for 100 yuan each when they went on sale, what would they think?

However, neither Oliver Walker nor Emill felt guilty about doing so.

One had to use the same trick to deal with the same kind of person.

Those greedy fellows would only be even greedier if their identities were swapped!

The night was shrouded, and the lights inside the Sovereign were brightly lit.

Seeing his wife walking past him, Oliver Walker took a step forward and stared at her delicate face.

“You...”

Leaning against the wall, Emilia blushed like a ripe apple. “What are you doing?”

She lowered her head, and her heart began to beat faster!

Could it be that her husband couldn't hold it in anymore?

But.... This was only natural.

After all, he was a normal man, and they were husband and wife. If he made such a request, she would not reject him.

“What do you think I want to do?”

Oliver Walker reached out and caressed her beautiful face. His eyes were filled with affection!

Emilia trembled as if she had been electrocuted, and even her breathing became rapid.

Although she was mentally prepared,...

All of these were too sudden!

She closed her eyes and pursed her red lips. She wished she could let her long hair cover her burning face.

Oliver Walker did have the urge, but he did not have the courage.

He did not like to force others, and he respected his wife's wishes.

Therefore, when he gave a hint, and his wife did not answer, he immediately extinguished the flame in his heart.

"Next time, don't do something so silly!"

"My skin is rough, and my flesh is thick. I should be the one to do it!"

Even now, his heart still ached when he thought about how Emilia picked up the fruit knife and cut her cheek.

His wife was always so understanding!

She was willing to trust him unconditionally!

"I..."

Emilia opened her beautiful eyes. For a moment, she did not know how to express her emotions.

In fact, when she made that decision, she also thought that she was crazy, but she just wanted to get closer to her husband.

No matter what the outcome was, she was willing to go crazy with him!

Their eyes met, and time seemed to freeze at this moment.

They could feel the love in each other's eyes!

Just as Emilia was about to speak again, she felt a scorching hot breath that sealed her mouth.

She didn't know how to respond. She was like a statue that couldn't move. She leaned against the wall, closed her eyes, and allowed the man to take whatever he wanted.

Could it be that tonight they.....

In fact, Oliver Walker was also hesitating. He wanted to hold it in, but it was difficult for him to hold it in!

After all, they had feelings for each other!

But if he did continue, would his wife blame him?

Would she think he was an impetuous man no different from ordinary people?

But then again, she was his wife.

If word got out that they were living a married life in name only, who would believe it?

But in the end, he still stopped his impulsive thoughts!

“You should go to bed early,” Oliver Walker said with a smile. “I think you’ll be very busy in the next few days!”

The next few days were indeed very busy!

This was because the mask had gone public, and its name would have spread like wildfire.

According to his guess, many people would take the initiative to get the exclusive agency.

After all, as long as one wasn’t a fool, they could smell the business opportunities inside.

Secondly, if they wanted to occupy the market share, their target group was not the rich and powerful.

Chapter 456 Bribery

Especially when he took out the prescription to save the world!

It had to be cheap and affordable for everyone!

So...

The publicity work still had to continue!

“Yes!”

In fact, after her husband stopped moving, Emilia was indeed a little disappointed.

But, due to how shy she felt, she quickly returned to the bedroom!

At that moment, she felt like the little deer in her heart was about to jump out.

The next morning!

Oliver Walker didn't go to the company. Instead, he brought five masks to Jeremy Adams 'house.

He would never forget such a public servant who truly served the people!

As for Jeremy Adams, who was about to leave for work, he immediately greeted Oliver Walker with a smile when he saw the person. "Mr. Walker, why didn't you tell me you were coming?"

"I came uninvited," said Oliver Walker with a smile.

"I heard about what happened last night," said Jeremy Adams enthusiastically.

"You guys have done a great deed!"

"Once this product is released, it will cause a sensation!"

The scar removal effect was immediate!

As long as this gets displayed, will there be any cosmetics brands that wouldn't tremble on their feet?

"It's not worth mentioning," Oliver Walker said with a smile. "I'm here today to deliver some of it for your wife."

As soon as he said that, Jeremy Adams's expression instantly changed!

"You..."

“What do you mean?”

“I’m warning you one last time. Do your job. If you’re trying to bribe me, then leave quickly. I’ll pretend that this never happened!”

He knew how important his position was.

Therefore, he never dared to be careless. For more than ten years, he had been walking on thin ice.

“You can pay me for it.”

Oliver Walker smiled. “Business is business. How can it be called bribery?”

He admired people like Jeremy Adams who had clean hands.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t have personally delivered himself to his doorstep!

“I...”

Jeremy Adams’s face was red. After half a minute, he lowered his head and said in a deep voice, “I don’t have money!”

This mask cost 200,000 each, and five masks would be one million yuan.

This was a huge sum of money that he would never be able to save in his entire life!

“I don’t believe you can’t even fork out 500 for one?”

Instead of getting angry, Oliver Walker continued, “If spending money to buy it violates your principles, then I have nothing to say!”

The next moment, Jeremy Adams said angrily, "Bullshit!"

"Do you think I don't know what happened last night?"

"To be honest, I want it, but I don't have the guts!"

"I can understand why you set such a high price for it."

"After all, you need research and development funds!"

"But you..."

"Don't try to trick me like I'm a fool!"

It was short for him to take the hand and short for him to eat the mouth!

Some things could be done, but some things could never be done!

At this moment, a woman in plain clothes with a scarred face walked out. "Honey, what happened?"

However, when she saw the unfamiliar Oliver Walker, she immediately closed the door in panic!

Ever since she was disfigured, she did not dare to see strangers again. She did not even leave the house.

That sense of inferiority was imprinted in the depths of his soul.

Seeing this scene, Jeremy Adams took a deep breath and said, "Take your things and leave my house immediately!"

“I’ve given the green light to Davis Cosmetics because they have good products! ”

Oliver Walker smiled. “Then have you ever wondered why this product was recognized by the five Chinese medical sages in the Chinese Medical Hall?”

“Do you think it’s because the product is good?”

“With my status, I don’t need to bribe you!”

Chapter 457 Finding Out Who He Actually Is

Oliver Walker rarely revealed his identity to anyone, but he had to say it now!

After all, he liked the integrity of Jeremy Adams.

In fact, he had never deliberately hidden his identity, whether it was from his wife’s family, the people of Davis Company, or even the entire state of Colorado.

But, he couldn’t just go around calling him the ‘chaplain’, right?

What was the difference between this and a fool’s behavior?

“You...”

Jeremy Adams was stunned. “Who exactly are you?”

As someone who had been in politics for a long time, he could feel that although the person in front of him was young, his words and actions carried the aura of a superior.

Especially that last sentence, it really woke him up!

If Oliver Walker was just an ordinary person, then no matter how effective the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask was, how could it surpass him and gain the recognition of the National Medical Hall?

Most importantly, the five traditional medical sages swore at the same time that this was not something that could be achieved with money.

These experts represented the peak of traditional medicine. Each of them had similar status to those tycoons in the country.

Why would they be corrupted with money?

“All of them are my disciples.”

Oliver Walker’s words were shocking!

And this sentence really scared Jeremy Adams!

Just by looking at him, he knew that Oliver Walker was young, yet he dared to boast that he was the master of those experts?

This wasn’t a joke, it was treason!

However, before he could get angry, Oliver Walker had already called Hendrik Smith on his phone.

Oliver Walker knew that Jeremy Adams was stubborn. If he didn’t believe Oliver Walker, he definitely wouldn’t accept it.

“Master, what’s the matter?”

Hendrik Smith, who was dressed in a white suit, said respectfully, "Did the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask encounter any difficulties?"

"I'll get someone to inform the people from the Colorado Health Department now!"

His status was so high that he didn't even know of the existence of Jeremy Adams.

Therefore, he needed his subordinates to complete it!

"It's fine."

Oliver Walker said calmly. "I just wanted to inform you that the effect is pretty good. It might be named after the 'National Medical Hall'"

"I just thought of informing you about it."

The effect was already there!

However, it still lacked a strong gimmick!

This was an important factor in whether it could be quickly promoted in the market!

"Master... You... Are you joking?"

Hendrik Smith said awkwardly, "You can just use the name of the National Medical Hall. Why do you need to ask us for permission? Not to mention the five of us, even the other five old fellows are clamoring all day long for you to be their masters!"

He felt that his master was just teasing him!

This was...

Who was his master?

If he wasn't low-key, he would be a household name in the country!

Using the name of the National Medical Hall was the greatest recognition for them!

"I'm just informing you in advance!"

Oliver Walker said casually, "In case they have any objections!"

After the video call ended...

Jeremy Adams was dumbfounded!

He could barely stand!

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed that Hendrik Smith, who was often on the major news, would be so respectful toward Oliver Walker!

To be able to become the master of a traditional medicine sage, how brilliant must his medical skills be?

No wonder he could develop a divine product like the Heavenly Doctor Facial Mask!

"Uh ..."

"If you still don't want to believe me," Oliver Walker said, "I'll go through with the official procedure!"

Such words made Jeremy Adams feel ashamed. “Mr. Walker... Mr. Walker, you.... Aren’t you just making me feel guilty?”

“I want the facial masks. I...I’ll pay for it!”

Someone of such status needed to bribe him?

This was a joke!

Jeremy Adams finally understood how worthless his persistence was in front of Oliver Walker.

In fact.....

It wasn’t funny at all, or Oliver Walker wouldn’t have come to him in person!

“Great!”

Chapter 458 Amputation VS Apology

Oliver Walker smiled and took out five masks. “I admire your honesty. Also, you don’t have to treat me like this. Let’s just get along as usual.”

Jeremy Adams gulped and said in awe, “Alright... Alright...”

Treat him as a normal person?

How was this possible?

Even if Jeremy Adams was beaten to death, he wouldn’t dare to overstep the etiquette!

When he took out 500 dollars and handed it to Oliver Walker, he was extremely excited. "Mr. Walker, please come in!"

"It's alright." Oliver Walker said with a smile. "I still have other things to do!"

"You should spend more time with you wife."

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned around and got into the car to leave!

In fact, he knew that it would be completely unnecessary for him to stay.

He had experienced the guilt that Jeremy Adams felt towards his wife.

No matter how dark the world was, he would never let good people suffer.

After watching Oliver Walker's car leave, Jeremy Adams could not hide his excitement and shouted, "Honey, your face can finally be saved!"

Jeremy Adams was usually a calm and collected man.

It was impossible to calm down at this time.

In order to raise enough money for his wife's plastic surgery, he had not dared to have any extravagant spending for more than ten years.

Even the clothes on his body did not look like what he should wear at his level!

And now...

He had finally completed what he had persisted for more than ten years. How could he not be happy?

If not for his old arms and legs, he would have jumped into the sky!

In the garden villa...

“What kind of lousy place is this?”

“How can I not be sick?”

“Quack!”

“A bunch of quacks!”

“Oliver Walker, one day, I will have your lie lay under my body!”

“The humiliation you gave me, I will take it back tenfold or a hundredfold!”

Arnold Frost, who could no longer get out of bed, had completely gone crazy!

He had seen all the specialists and was very sure that there was nothing wrong with his knee.

However, the biggest problem was even when they could not find any problems, it still hurts to the bone marrow, making it difficult for him to get out of bed!

“Darling, you... Don’t be anxious!”

Sun Rong panicked and hurriedly asked. “Do you want to...? Why don’t you just apologize to them?”

“They only want a counter but they even consented to such cruel acts.”

“You want me to apologize to him?” Arnold Frost was furious.

“Are you f*cking with that wild dog?”

“Even if I have to amputate my leg, I won’t apologize to him. This has got something to do with my dignity!”

“Dignity!!!”

He roared crazily. In fact, he had already knelt down yesterday. What dignity was there to talk about?

Which guy in the crappy circle of dignitaries in the state of Colorado dared to say that he had not suffered a loss at the hands of Oliver Walker?

Sun Rong was so frightened that she didn’t dare to speak. After all, she only stayed because she also wanted a new shop at the Hongri Mall.

“Sigh... Aiyo....”

However, at this moment, Arnold Frost, who was still unyielding just a moment ago, grimaced in pain again. He shouted with sweat all over his head, “But I ... I don’t want to amputate my leg. I’m still young...”

“Damn it, send me to the Davis Group!”

He refuses to apologize?

Was that even possible?

He was not a hero.

Besides, the ancients always said that it was never too late for a gentleman to take revenge!

The King of Yue, Gou Jian, could still endure hardships and taste gall. Why couldn't he do the same?

Inside the conference room of the Davis Group!

"Ms. Davis, it's been three days. How's your new product coming along?"

William Davis sat on the chair and asked with ill intentions, "Don't lose without a fight!"

The people present tried to hold back their laughter.

What was the use of just production?

It seemed that Emilia's reputation as a pampered daughter of the business world was going to be defeated by Oliver Walker.

Everybody could not help but look at Oliver Walker, who still looked like he was enjoying himself. He had no idea how serious the matter was!

Chapter 459 We Will Not Be Paying For It

"Brother!"

However, just as everyone was waiting to see Emilia make a fool of herself...

Jessica Wright Davis quickly winked. She wanted to say it last night, but it was too late.

And before she could say it today, William Davis brought it up again!

Wasn't this asking for trouble?

After all, the effects of the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask were too powerful!

She had a bad premonition!

Emilia was really going to dominate the group again, and she had yet to avenge her deep hatred!

"Hehe..."

William Davies did not notice his sister's hint and continued to say proudly, "In fact, you didn't lose in vain. After all, you believed Oliver Walker's words. You couldn't win even if you wanted to!"

"Hahaha ..."

In an instant, the entire hall burst into laughter!

Emilia still did not say a word. How could she give up so easily before the results were out?

Oliver Walker didn't say anything, either. He just smiled as if he was watching a clown.

"Brother!"

Jessica Wright Davis was anxious. She winked at him crazily. "Stop talking."

On the contrary, William Davis patted his chest nonchalantly and said, "Sister, you don't have to say another word. I have to speak up about my feelings."

He stood up and was about to continue speaking...

Jessica Wright Davis also stood up and whispered into William Davis 'ear about what happened last night.

The more William Davis heard, the more shocked he became. The look on his face became uglier and uglier!

After hearing everything, he was completely stunned. "You... What you say is true?"

"That lousy mask can be sold for 2 hundred thousand each?"

As soon as he said that, everyone's expressions changed!

Even Micheal Davis couldn't sit still!

What kind of facial mask was that?

It could be sold at such a high price?

Was this a joke?

More importantly, were there people who would actually buy it?

If that was the case, the consequences would be unimaginable!

"Just because you don't have the abilities to do so, doesn't mean that others don't have it."

Amid the silence, Emilia stood up and said, "After all, all men are equal, but there are differences in ability and intelligence!"

It could be said that Emilia had said these intentionally for William Davis.

William Davis's face turned ashen as he said angrily, "You..."

No one dared to interfere. In fact, they could not see the situation clearly.

On the surface, it was still Micheal Davis's family who controlled the group. However, after such a long period of fighting, they soon realized something.

Emilia may be at a disadvantage but she could always turn the tables!

"You... Emilia! Who gave you the permission to donate 19.8 million on behalf of the company?"

However, at this moment, Micheal Davis angrily said, "These masks belong to the corporation! You've committed a crime!"

He thought that he had something on her, something that could pull her down from her pedestal!

After hearing such a huge amount, everyone looked at Emilia!

That's right!

The facial mask belonged to the company, not to Emilia herself!

What right did she have to donate so much money for the company?

"We will never acknowledge this!"

"You're the one who got the good name but we are the ones who have to pay for it. This is too much!"

“You really don’t take us shareholders seriously?”

“...”

The people from Davis were furious. That was nearly 20 million!

In fact, except for Micheal Davis’s family, who lived slightly better lives, the rest of them were not considered rich even though they did not have to tighten their belts!

Therefore, it’s obvious that they didn’t want to pay for it.

“According to the gambling agreement, I have the right to deal with everything related to Davis Cosmetics!”

“That’s enough to explain everything.” Emilia answered indifferently.

Actually, there was indeed such a rule in their gambling agreement!

Chapter 460 The Good News

Especially since the donation last night was made in the name of Davis Cosmetics and not an individual donation.

After the crowd fell silent, Amelia stood up again. “Also, I will tell you that the formula is ours. You can either sit here and earn money or take out the money for research and development!”

“Don’t expect to take advantage of your seniority, and don’t expect me to respect any of you here.”

“I, Emilia, will only respect those who have shown me respect.”

When the powerful words of retaliation fell, everyone understood that Emilia, who had returned, did not treat herself as a member of the Davis family.

In other words, there were no elders in this meeting room.

They were of the same level and were merely subordinates.

She was indeed powerful!

However, his powerful display of strength gave people a headache!

“If that’s what you’re saying,” Micheal Davis said coldly, “then I’ll say something too. If you want the publicity fees, you have to apply again!”

“The corporation doesn’t belong to you alone!”

Perhaps they did have a good product, but he did not believe Emilia could regain her market share so quickly without publicity and the sales channels!

Perhaps only Micheal Davis could make such a shameless request.

This was equivalent to having Emilia’s neck stuck, and she couldn’t sell the goods even if she had them.

“There’s no need for that.”

“There will be others begging to be the executive agency to sell them.” Oliver Walker said calmly. “We don’t have to beg them.”

“The Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask will be fully available in Colorado in less than two days!”

Such arrogant words made everyone present suck in a cold breath!

Where did his confidence come from?

Emilia did not deny it. She and her husband had the same judgment.

There were no eternal enemies or friends in the business world!

Only eternal benefits!

Plus, she had a product that could sell like wildfire. It was enough to break all the blockades and attract them to fight for it.

“Hahahahaha!”

Micheal Davis smiled disdainfully. “Then I’ll wait for the good news then!”

Would he believe it?

Would they believe it?

Forget about Emilia; even the entire Davis Group was not well-liked in the current business world of Colorado.

Otherwise, he would have received an invitation to the charity dinner last night!

It could only be said that the short-sighted people of Davis Company did not think about how to make the company profitable at all. Instead, they were all eyeing the shares in Emilia’s hands!

“Mr. Davis!”

At this moment, a secretary in a black suit hurriedly pushed the door open and broke the cold atmosphere in the meeting room.

It also attracted everyone's attention!

The secretary wouldn't have barged into the meeting room so rashly if it wasn't for something urgent!

"What happened?"

Micheal, Davis asked in a dignified manner.

"They're here!" The secretary quickly replied, "Representatives from various large corporations downstairs are asking to meet with you!"

As soon as he said that, Micheal Davis's heart instantly tensed up...

Damn it, what's going on?

Could it be that they're here to bully him?

"What did they say?"

Micheal Davis forced himself to calm down and make himself look less afraid!

"They are hoping for cooperation together." The secretary quickly said.

Cooperation?

Micheal Davis's heart instantly relaxed!

This was true.

After all, the appearance of the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask had given these merchants, whose noses were sharper than dogs, a sense of unlimited business opportunities.

If they could be the agency to sell them, they could definitely make a lot of money!

However, those people obviously didn't know that the control of Davis Cosmetics was with Emilia. Micheal Davis couldn't make the decision!

Therefore, they had looked for the wrong person.

“Bring them to the conference room and have them give me a moment. I'll head over right now.”

Micheal Davis was delighted. His face was brightly glowing with glory. All of them rushed over to their office seeking a business deal. What did this mean?

It meant that the Davis Group was still the towering tree in Colorado!
