Chapter 461 Don't Beg For Me Later On

After the secretary left, Micheal Davis was all smiles. He slammed the table and stood up confidently. "Let's see how you're going to get your products all over the place in two days, Emilia!"

"Hahaha ..."

Emilia remained silent and prepared to leave with Oliver Walker.

They wanted to get out as soon as possible and did not want to waste their time with pointless arguments.

Humans grew up in doubt!

Every defeat and setback would only make him stronger!

"Emilia, as long as my father says the word, he can make all the shopping malls and cosmetics platforms in Colorado stop selling your products!"

"That's right!" William Davis laughed coldly. "This is the power of the Davis Group. You'll never understand!"

The other people from Davis Group also sneered.

The product was a good product. Once Emilia failed, the formula for these face masks would all fall into their hands.

By then, they would still be able to make lots of money, but it would no longer have anything to do with Emilia, who had been kicked out of the company.

“It’s too early for you to celebrate!”

“They’re not here for you!” Oliver Walker said with a smile.

Without his wife, these people still thought that they could restore their previous glory?

What was the difference between that and a daydream?

When they heard the news, all of them were unwilling to lose the opportunity to make money!

“Hahahahahahah!!!”

William Davis looked disdainfully at the backs of the two leaving and spat!

If they weren’t here for them, could it be that they were here for Emily?

How f*cking ridiculous!

At the same time, when Emilia went out, she met at least 20 people in charge of various large corporations.

Most of these people were in the retail and shopping malls, as well as cosmetics.

This was why they wanted these products!!!

“Mr. Davis!”

“Hahaha... Long time no see!”

“It won’t be too abrupt to visit today, right?”

“ ...”

For a moment, more than 20 people directly ignored Emilia who was walking at the front and greeted Micheal Davis enthusiastically instead.

Those who didn’t know about the grudges in the business world Colorado would have thought that they were old friends who hadn’t seen each other for many years!

“Everything has been well!!!”

Micheal Davis smiled and went forward to greet them. “We’re all old acquaintances. Why would you be disturbing me?”

“Come in and we’ll talk.”

The arrogant William Davis shouted, “Oliver Walker, didn’t you say that they’re here to look for Emilia?”

“How do you explain it now?”

This shout also made everyone present stop in their tracks!

After all, William Davis was the heir of the Davis Group. Now that they wanted to cooperate, they naturally could not ignore him too!

“Mr. Davis, you must be joking!”

“I have nothing to do with them. Why would I come looking for them?”

“That’s right!”

“Mr. Davis, please don’t misunderstand!”

“...”

They wanted to get their hands on the facial masks! Why would they speak to Emilia?

They would be looking for the chairman of the Davis Group instead!

Therefore, in an instant, all of them distance themselves from Emilia, afraid that it would cause a misunderstanding!

“Since it has nothing to do with me, then don’t come looking for me later!” Emilia said indifferently.

How could she not know what these people were doing?

Micheal Davis was indeed the chairman of the group, but she had no executive power over Davis Cosmetics, at least until the gambling agreement was over.

Without her approval, no one could be the agent!

“Beg you?”

“You think too highly of yourself!”

“What a joke!”

“Allowing you back to work is an act of kindness from Mr Davis!”

At that moment, the chairman of the Leon Mall sneered coldly, "You have to learn to be grateful!"

"How dare you still complain about Mr Davis who had been so magnanimous?!"

Fernando Walter dared to stand up because he knew how stiff the relationship between Emilia and the Davis Group was.

Chapter 462 The Great Offer

Although she had returned to the Davis Group, it was probably just that Micheal Davis was soft-hearted!

Therefore, mocking Emilia would be equivalent to pleasing Micheal Davis.

Those who came were all smart people. How could they not understand this logic?

Then, the mocking voices followed like surging waves that resounded through the conference room door.

Emilia did not say anything else and returned to her office!

"These people are really snobbish!"

Her words were filled with anger and helplessness!

They seemed to really think that Micheal Davis could control the entire group.

How could he say that about her?

"Forget it. It's not worth it to be angry with these people!"

“They’ll cry later,” said Oliver Walker with a smile.

“Definitely!”

The current Micheal Davis was acting glorious, but soon, he would be in such a sorry state!

After all, the people led by Fernando Walker were not good. Once they knew they would not gain anything from Micheal Davis, they would return the mocking words.

In the conference room...

“You want the agency rights for Davis Cosmetics?”

Micheal Davis ‘brows immediately furrowed tightly. This...

According to the gambling agreement, he had no right to interfere!

William Davis’s expression turned ugly as well!

This...

The atmosphere in the conference room gradually became solemn!

“Haha ...”

Fernando Walter smiled. “Mr. Davis, I understand what you mean. How much do you want? What’s the price?”

“After all, with the current situation of the Davis Group, it’s impossible for them to swallow such a large market.

“We’re all brothers. You would be earning millions, and sharing a portion of it with us would be nice.”

Among the visitors, Fernando Walter was the most confident. After all, Leon Mall was second only to Hongri Mall in Colorado, so its influence was not small, and it did not lack money!

“That’s right!”

“Mr. Davis, name the price and see if we can afford it!”

“Let’s compete fairly!”

“...”

For a moment, the meeting room became lively again.

They thought that Micheal Davis was trying to raise the price of their masks, which was why he had such an ugly look.

However, who knew that Micheal Davis was neither the head of the family nor had any authority over this

“How about this!”

Fernando Walter stood up. After taking a deep breath, he said in a deep voice, “I’m here with sincerity. As long as Mr. Davis is willing to hand over the rights to represent Davis Cosmetics in Colorado, then...”

He hesitated momentarily before saying generously, “I’m willing to pay an agency fee of 500 million a year!”

As soon as he said that, those who worked in the same industry kept quiet obediently.

After all, they couldn't afford such a sky-high price!

Why was Fernando Walter willing to do this?

He was certain that the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask would become a hot product sweeping the market.

500 million a year was not expensive at all!

This was especially so since the Leon Mall was a competitor to Hongri Mall. An exclusive agent of a popular cosmetic product would bring an immeasurable amount of traffic to them!

"5... 500 million?"

Micheal Davis was dumbfounded!

The shock in his heart was simply indescribable!

The current market value of the Davis Group was indeed close to 10 billion, but its revenue was poor. Its total annual profit couldn't reach 500 million.

And now, the agency rights of a subsidiary company exceeded the group's total profit!

What was this?!

How did Emilia have such terrifying skills to attract all this gold?

Moreover, this did not include the money for the mask sales!

It was just a simple agency fee!

This was only the agency fee for the state of Colorado!

However, he was stunned. Looking at the money, he couldn't help but subconsciously gulp with difficulty.

William Davis's eyes flashed with greed. He quickly leaned into his father's ear and whispered a few words.

In the face of such benefits, no one could resist the temptation!

Chapter 463 Taking the Risk

"Yes!"

"500 million!"

"I'll bear all the publicity expenses as well," Fernando Walter said through gritted teeth.

"Mr. Davis, you don't have to worry about our strength in terms of sales channels!"

The others kept quiet because they knew that what happened next had nothing to do with them.

The price, the promise, and the channel that Fernando Walter could offer were all things that they could not offer!

Even if they could lie now, no one would believe them.

In fact, the reason why Fernando Walter had spent so much money was that Hongri Mall, a subsidiary of the Sky Dragon Group, had yet reacted to this piece of news.

If he followed them, the agency would not be so simple!

“Phewww....”

Micheal Davis took another deep breath and was dumbfounded. He then said, “Mr. Walter, please wait for a moment. This is too sudden. Let me take my time.”

This was like a mountain of gold was falling from the sky!

Of course, he would not doubt the strength of the Leon Mall!

But ...

He was hesitating because he didn't have the authority to do so!

He suddenly felt that he had really suffered a huge loss when he forced Emilia to sign the gambling agreement back then.

But before that, who would care about a half-dead cosmetics subsidiary company!

However, it had only been three days. What had happened in these three days?

How could this be...

“Of course, of course!”

Fernando Walter was all smiles. As long as Leon Williams was not here, he did not have to worry.

Micheal Davis and his son arrived at the door with heavy hearts!

“Dad!”

“Stop hesitating!”

“Then...” William Davis hurriedly said. “That’s a 500 million agency along with the countless benefits that follow!”

Micheal Davis frowned. “Of course I know, but once I agree, I will face...”

After all, Emilia was not easy to deal with!

This was not a joke!

“Dad!”

“I think we can take the risk!”

William Davis continued to say arrogantly, “If Emilia had money, she wouldn’t have brought the product to the charity banquet and done such an embarrassing thing.”

“She should be at the end of her rope now. As long as we give her a little favor, she will definitely be grateful.”

“At most, we won’t hold her responsible for her failure!”

Micheal Davis already had this thought in his heart. After being continuously bewitched, he felt waves surging in his heart. How could he resist this temptation?

In the face of huge benefits, it was worth taking the risk!

In fact, as long as there were enough benefits, the law would become worthless!

“That’s right!”

After a few moments of hesitation, he finally nodded.

Then, with a smile on his face, he turned around and entered the meeting room. He said with a smile, “Mr. Walter, when can we sign the contract?”

He was afraid that a long delay would lead to trouble!

If they could get it as soon as possible, they would earn a lot of money as soon as possible!

“Hahaha ...”

“We can sign it now,” Fernando Walter laughed as he said, “You can also pay the deposit of 100 million at any time. ”

“And all the finished products, I want them all!”

In fact, he was the person who was worried most about any delays.

Now, he could use his absolute advantage to crush everyone in the same industry, but if Leon Williams came, it would probably be a money-burning war!

How could his wealth be compared to the richest man in Colorado?

“Good!”

“Then let’s sign the contract now!”

Micheal Davis took it eagerly.

Fernando Walter had already drafted the contract. After reading it carefully from beginning to end, Micheal Davis signed his name.

Actually, there was no problem with the contract.

Whoever breached the contract would bear all the losses of the other party. It was only a normal situation and could not be considered a scam!

“It’s good working with you!”

“I’m happy as well.”

Chapter 464 Fulfil the bet!

Micheal Davis and Fernando Walter shook hands to seal the deal.

When Fernando Walter shook hands with him, the other competitors in the conference room shed tears of envy!

Anyone who wasn’t a fool would know that Fernando Walter was a genius.

Fernando Walter was about to rise!

This ...

However, this was the power of money. No one could stop it!

Fernando Walter did not know that this agreement had no legal effect at all, because Micheal Davis did not keep his word.

At the very least, he had no say in this matter at all!

Emilia waited quietly in her office. However, an hour had passed, and there was still no reaction. It was inevitable that she became a little anxious.

Logically speaking, once those people found out the truth, they should be looking for her, right?

“Honey, I have a bad feeling!”

Her worries were definitely reasonable. After all, it was clear at a glance what kind of character Micheal Davis and his son had.

Without any hesitation, they were like two hungry wolfdogs. Once they saw food, they would do anything.

“Don’t worry!”

“The management rights are in your hands,” Oliver Walker said with a smile. “Even if they sign it, it won’t take effect.”

“Besides, they wouldn’t dare to do that!”

In the end, he had underestimated the ambitions of Micheal Davis and his son!

The truth would be a huge slap on the face.

Emilia nodded slightly. Although she was still suspicious, she did not take it seriously!

“Dong dong dong...”

But at this moment, there was a knock on the door!

“Well, aren’t they here now?” Oliver Walker chuckled.

Needless to say, these people would definitely put down their dignity for the sake of benefits.

However, the one who walked through the doors was not who she expected.

“Come in!”

Emilia shouted, but when the door opened she saw Micheal Davis.

She knew that she had guessed correctly!

“What is it?” she asked.

Micheal Davis had a serious look on his face and he had the aura of a superior. Then, he said coldly, “Now, in the name of the chairman, I take back your administrative rights over Davis Cosmetics!”

“Of course, as compensation, the penalty for the gambling agreement will also be waived!”

This was going to be the hard way!

If he didn’t have to pay, he wouldn’t pay a single penny more.

Due to the huge profits, he revealed his sharp fangs!

“I’m sorry, I don’t agree with that!”

Emilia said in a neither servile nor overbearing manner, “I also reject all other rude requests. If you’re here for these, please leave now!”

She would not accept negotiations!

She also knew how great the benefits were. It was enough for the Davis Group to return to its peak and even expand their business out of the state of Colorado!

Give up?

What a joke!

“You better accept this toast before you have to suffer!”

Micheal Davis said with a firm attitude, “I’m doing this for your own good!”

Such words amused Emilia!

She looked up at the shameless Micheal Davis and retorted mercilessly, “Is it for my own good, or for your own?”

“Also, you should understand that there is no turning back!”

“Since the gambling agreement has come into effect, we should fulfill it. I don’t accept any other result!”

Wouldn’t it be a pity?

If Micheal Davis didn’t know about the huge profits inside this deal why would he come looking for her?

How hilarious!

“You...”

Micheal Davis threatened, “Emilia, you better sit on this. If you refuse, there will be no medicine for regret once you lose!”

He didn’t expect Emilia to be so persistent and her attitude was still arrogant.

He was 100% confident that he could make Emilia lower her head!

Unfortunately, he was wrong!

“I don’t need any medicine for regret,” said Emilia firmly. “Also, I hope that Mr. Davis will stop interfering with my work!”

“I’ll say it again. If I lose the bet, I’m willing to abide by all the terms!”

“I will hand over the shares and quit the Davis Group!”

Chapter 465 Negotiating the Terms for the Authority to Davis Comestics

Such a firm answer made Micheal Davis, who was originally full of confidence, suddenly receive a cold shoulder!

His face flushed red, and then he smiled and said, “Hehe...”

“My dear niece, I’m only doing this for your own good!

“How about this? I’ll give you a million in exchange for the bet. How about that?”

If the hard way didn't work, then he would use the soft one!

He did not believe that anyone could resist the temptation of money!

In addition, Emilia used the emotional card the most, so the chances of it succeeding was high!

Fernando Walter had given 500 million just from the agency alone, and he would only sacrifice a million to get rid of Emilia.

In the end, this was still looking down on her!

"Trying a different method?"

"And also.... A million?" Emilia chuckled.

Was this bribery?

No!

This was humiliation!

She clearly knew the commercial value contained here!

"Eldest niece, ten million it is!"

"This is all the sincerity that I can offer!"

“You have to consider this carefully!” Micheal Davis said. “If you take this money, the bet agreement will be considered invalid.”

“Your shares will still be yours!”

“If you don’t accept it, then you will only end up losing!”

“Thank you, Mr. Davis,” said Emilia coldly. “I may be poor, but I have my principles!”

“I will never betray my conscience!”

“I will only stick to the terms of the agreement!”

Sometimes, it was not good for him to shed all pretenses of cordiality!

After all, they were all living under the same roof, and they would see each other often.

However, he would never spoil her!

“You...”

Micheal Davis wanted to curse. His face was red as he shouted angrily, “50 million, nothing more!!!”

“Don’t be like a snake who tried to swallow an elephant!”

“Think about it. As long as you get this money, you can become a multimillionaire!”

“It would be a wonderful thing!!!”

He was anxious!

Looking at Emilia's reaction, it looks like she would be asking for more!

This...

How could he allow this?!

He had indeed taken 500 million, but he could only give Emilia 50 million at most!

However, Emilia turned quiet suddenly.

This was when the tacit understanding between the couple became obvious.

"You think you're buying vegetables in the market?" Oliver Walker laughed scornfully. "Why are you bargaining here?"

"Leave immediately!"

"We've signed the contract. No matter when and where, we will fulfill it!"

Micheal Davis was burning with anger and wanted to roar, but when she saw Oliver Walker rubbing his hands, he had a bad feeling about it!

He had to turn around immediately and leave!

Without any delay!

After all, he was a famous mad dog. Oliver Walker definitely had the balls to lay hands on him!

“We’re not stupid!”

Emilia shook her head helplessly, “50 million, and you want to send us away? Aren’t you looking down on us?”

In her opinion, Micheal Davis did not have the authority to do so!

He was negotiating to get his hands back on Davis Cosmetics.

But ...

How could she agree to this?

“Of course he’s not stupid,” Oliver Walker said with a smile. “But, he’s trying to act smart here!”

Sometimes, it wasn’t a good thing that these people were trying to be smart.

Otherwise, he would only be asking for trouble!

Suddenly, Emilia frowned and said, “Honey, do you regret it?”

Oliver Walker sat down.

Emilia hesitated for a moment before voicing her doubts. “You should know the value of that formula.”

“Giving it to me is just...”

In fact, she was still feeling a little uneasy.

Everything she had now had nothing to do with Davis.

However, Oliver Walker trusted her so much that she felt an inexplicable pressure!

If she didn't do it well, wouldn't she be betraying his trust?

"Don't be stupid."

Oliver Walker's eyes were full of affection. "You're my wife. Why should I regret it?"

"Besides, I only know some medical skills. I don't know how to do business!"

He didn't know how to do business?

If these words were heard by the eight gods of wealth, they would definitely roll their eyes!

Chapter 466 Burning in Pain

Oliver Walker was not interested in money. Otherwise, if he really entered the business world, the world's number one company, Rothschild, would have to give up its position obediently.

In fact, he did not want to enter the business world because he knew his wife's personality.

Between them, they needed to get along equally. Once the balance was broken, then with his wife's strong personality, she would definitely feel inferior.

"Hmph!"

"How dare you say that I'm stupid?!"

Emilia pouted, then pouted and raised her fist in a fierce manner. "Hurry up and apologize!"

"I'm sorry," Oliver Walker said with a smile. "I'm sorry. I'll have to rely on you to feed me in the future!"

"Alright, then." Emilia smiled. "I'll take care of you just like before!"

In fact, their relationship was getting closer and closer.

Although they had Olivia, they had not seen each other for eight years. They still had feelings for each other, but it was inevitable that they were unfamiliar with each other.

On the contrary, now, they were like a couple in love.

Even Oliver Walker, who was unrivaled in the outside world, would show fear for his wife.

There also times where the cold and aloof Emilia would also have times when she was a little woman!

They were both changing themselves for each other.

Especially Emilia, who tried her best to tolerate all of Oliver Walker's mysterious actions.

She tried her best not to get angry or question her!

In the chairman's office!

"Mr. Walter, don't worry!"

"I've asked the factory. There are a lot of ready stocks now. You can come and get the goods whenever you want!"

"What?"

"You're already at the factory?!"

"Alright, alright, alright..."

After William Davis hung up the phone excitedly, he saw his father enter the door worriedly. He quickly asked, "She... She didn't agree to it?"

If she didn't agree, they would be in big trouble!

After all...

"Damn it!"

"Bastard!"

Micheal Davis clenched his fists and hammered the table. He gritted his teeth and said angrily, "This is too much, too much!"

"I've already given her 50 million, and she's still not satisfied!"

"This is too much!"

William Davis gulped and asked in fear, "But we've already signed the contract!"

"Mr. Walter said that he's going to the factory to get the goods now!"

“We...What should we do now?”

Panic!

He felt frightened!

It was all because he was blinded by profit just now!

But, that was not his fault, right?

Who could resist the pleasure of having money thrown at him?

“What?”

“Who told you to agree to it?”

“What do you want me to do now?” Micheal Davis was furious.

He had no authority in this matter!

This...

Wasn't this riding a tiger with no way to back down?

It was over!

At this moment, their hearts were burning!

He glared at his son, who made the decision without informing him!

“Dad!”

William Davis’s body immediately became weak. “I ... I thought...I thought you could handle Emilia!”

“You...” Micheal Davis said angrily.

“Dad!”

William Davis gulped and his body trembled. “Now is not the time to pursue responsibility. What is important now is what we should do next.”

If Emilia did not agree to it, the contract would not take effect!

As for the compensation for all the losses, as well as three times the deposit, this...

It was not a small amount!

“Damn it!”

“It’s all your fault!”

Micheal Davis placed his hands behind his head and paced back and forth in the office impatiently.
“What should we do now?”

“What should we do now?”

“How would I know that Emilia’s appetite would be so big that even 50 million isn’t enough for her?!”

When he signed the contract earlier, he was indeed being inconsiderate. He felt the same euphoria when he had first taken over the Davis Group and became the overload in Colorado!

Everyone had to compliment him!

Everyone had to react according to how he felt.

How glorious he was earlier would reflect how anxious and pathetic he was now!

William Davis did not dare to speak at all, afraid that he would say something wrong and get into trouble again!

The father and son were equally anxious!

It was as if he was on a stove. Every minute and every second was unbearable torture!

Chapter 467 Forgiveness

“Since they are the ones who didn’t appreciate the chance that I gave, I’ll do whatever I want!

“I’m the chairman of the Davis Group!”

Micheal Davis roared with a ferocious expression, “Why should I be restricted by her?”

That’s right!

He was the chairman!

How could he act according to what Emilia wanted?

If this got out, wouldn't he lose face?

"But this is illegal!"

"Dad, think twice!" William Davis was anxious.

"Why don't we just pay for the compensation?"

He knew that he was incapable. Once Emily really turned against him and sent him into prison, how could he continue to fish in troubled waters?

"Compensate?"

"Can you afford it?"

"That's three times the deposit. That's 300 million!"

Micheal Davis's face turned red. "Besides, I can't afford to embarrass myself!"

His eyes were now bloody red in colour.

Ever since Oliver Walker's return, it was as if Emilia had been reborn.

Not only did he bully his son and hurt his daughter, but he also wanted to attack him. How could he tolerate this?

Besides, was there any other way?

It seemed impossible!

“Then...What if she files a lawsuit?”

William Davis was indeed afraid. After all, Emilia could do anything.

And that damned Oliver Walker. He could even kill his father-in-law, let alone them.

“How dare she?!”

“If she really did this, your grandmother won’t sit idly by!”

“Remember how we chased her out earlier? We will just do the same!”

“Take our men and take over the factory immediately,” Micheal Davis said coldly. “ Prepare to load the goods! ”

Mrs. Davis seemed to be very close to Emilia now.

However, he knew very well what kind of person his mother was!

Once Emilia touched the core interests of the company, Mrs. Davis would definitely not turn a blind eye!

“Yes!”

“Dad, you’re right!” William Davis nodded.

“I’ll bring them over now!”

They were prepared to take it by force!

Micheal Davis had also exposed his true nature in the face of benefits!

“Mr. Davis, something bad has happened!”

“William Davis took over the warehouse with his men and three trucks. He said they were from the Leon Group!”

“They’re robbing all of the finished products of the Heavenly Facial Mask!”

The call was from Guan Peng, the newly appointed R & D manager. In fact, he really didn’t expect Micheal Davis to do such a thing!

“Damn it!”

“Who are you talking on the phone?”

“You traitor!”

“Bang ...”

Before Emilia could say anything, a loud shout came from the other end, as well as the sound of a phone falling to the ground!

Oliver Walker’s expression changed. “Let’s go!”

Was this lawless?

Emilia was also anxious. Guan Peng was just reporting to her as part of fulfilling his duties. If anything happened, her conscience would be uneasy!

She was furious!

Micheal Davis dared to make such a decision without permission, and this was daylight robbery! Things were getting out of hand!

Most importantly...

Without saying a word, the two of them got into the car and prepared to leave!

Suddenly, a Bentley blocked their way!

A bodyguard quickly got out of the car and shouted, "Mr. Walker, Mr. Frost is here to apologize to you. We're hoping that you would be magnanimous about it and forgive us!"

The person in the car was Arnold Frost, whose driver's license had been revoked!

Chapter 468 "The prerequisite is that you have the ability to do so!"

His leg was hurting more and more.

The specialists in the hospital had done everything, but they could not find any problems with it.

According to Oliver Walker, if he didn't come to apologize within a day, he would definitely have his leg amputated!

He did not want to lose his leg!

"I'm not free now!"

Oliver Walker's voice was cold. Then, he drove the L5 and made a difficult 90-degree drift, which even professional racers might not be able to do.

Then, he left!

He was indeed pissed off right now!

All along, although Micheal Davis had gone overboard, he could still tolerate it. Now that Micheal Davis had done such a thing, should he still tolerate them?

“Mr. Frost, what should we do now?”

The bodyguard hurriedly ran back to the Bentley!

“Ahhhhh!!!!”

Arnold Frost, who was grimacing, said angrily, “What else can we do?”

“David, gather everyone we can. Send them their location and chase after them!”

No matter what happened, even if he had to use all his strength, he had to let Oliver Walker treat his leg.

As for others, he didn't even consider them!

He had always thought that Oliver Walker did not race with him that day because his driving skills were bad!

But now, he was dumbfounded!

Oliver Walker shuttled through the traffic with great proficiency, even to the point of perfection!

Why did he assume that Oliver Walker was bad at driving?

Even if he drove a Lamborghini, he almost couldn't catch up!

Fortunately, David's driving skills were excellent. After all, he was a retired racer.

Although he could not catch up to the L5 in front of him, he was still able to keep up by the distance of a few cars behind it.

If he knew that Oliver Walker was driving with one hand while sending messages, he would definitely go crazy!

With this skill, he could directly win the world championship!

"Grandma!"

"Are you really going to sit back and do nothing about this?"

"I'm in charge of Davis Cosmetics, " Emilia questioned angrily. "I'm the one who developed the product!"

"He is committing a crime right now!"

After what happened last time, she had indeed forgiven Ma'am Davis, who was already in her twilight years.

That was why Emilia had decided to give her a call. However, she did not expect Ma'am Davis 'attitude to be as cold as before!

"This is a matter between the two of you. It's none of my business!"

“Besides, he is your biological uncle and also the head of the company. Why can't he directly manage the subsidiary company?”

Ma'am Davis's tone was filled with arrogance!

In fact, she had long known that this day would come. However, in her opinion, Emilia had undoubtedly lost the ability to fight against Micheal Davis which was why she was not worried at all.

The reason why she wanted Emilia to come back was because of her ability!

As a daughter, she was destined to be an employee of the Davis Group. Ma'am Davis would never agree for Emilia to get powers in the higher ups.

Therefore, Micheal Davis did not do anything wrong!

“You said it yourself!”

Emilia was unprecedentedly furious. “Since you aren't going to do anything about it, then I won't be polite!”

“I'll do this the hard way.”

After all, this was an internal struggle in the company. According to her original plan, if Ma'am Davis could intervene, she would not pursue Micheal Davis's criminal responsibility.

But it was obvious that Ma'am Davis thought she was asking for help!

“If you have a way, just use it. Even if you can become the chairman, I won't stop you!”

“The prerequisite is that you have the ability to do so!”

“Beep, beep, beep ...”

The next moment, Ma’am Davis didn’t get a response. Instead, it was the sound of the phone hanging up.

She was still lying lazily on the recliner under the big tree. A teasing expression flashed across her lips. “Sometimes, it’s better not to take yourself too seriously!”

No matter how she thought about it, there was no reason to help Emilia.

She also did not expect that Emilia would be able to interfere with the higher-ups of the Davis Group without any shares or real power!

However, how could she know that the shares in Emilia’s hands were equal to Micheal Davis’s shares?

In fact, Emilia didn’t call to ask for help. She just hoped that Ma’am Davis would step in and not make this matter too embarrassing.

However, Ma’am Davis’s bias was imprinted in her bones. How could she care about Emilias’ feelings?

“If that’s the case!”

Oliver Walker said coldly, “Then let them regret it!”

Chapter 469 Starting A Fight

To remain calm? How would that be possible?

No one was a saint, and what Micheal Davis was doing now was simply infuriating!

How could he let the people of the Leon Group come over without permission?

Emilia finally understood why Micheal Davis offered her 50 million.

The problem was too obvious.

He had smelled the huge business opportunity of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask and wanted to kick her away so that he could have it all to himself.

However, he never expected that Micheal Davis, who had been rejected, would actually go all out and directly take action.

“Who did you text just now?”

“What are you going to do?” Emilia was getting worried.

She was very worried that her husband would not be able to withstand the rage and do something drastic.

“It’s business,” Oliver Walker replied. “I won’t do anything!”

He knew that his wife was worried, so he didn’t plan to make a move this time.

However, that didn’t mean that no one would make a move. After all, George Lee and the others were in colorado.

“Yes!”

“If things get out of hand, I’ll sue him until he goes to jail!” Emilia spoke in a cold tone.

She was indeed angry, but she was more inclined to let the officials solve the problem.

Oliver Walker's thoughts were much more violent!

At the same time, in the Davis Cosmetics Factory in the industrial park of the state of Colorado...

There was already a large truck that was loaded with the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask and left.

The remaining two cars were still being loaded!

"Mr. Walter!"

William Davis said with a smile on the phone, "Don't worry. In another two hours, I guarantee that the lorry will be filled up!"

"We'll only charge you 100,000 yuan per piece for such a good product. This is much more conscientious than what Emilia is selling."

He was overjoyed!

He had never expected that a lousy facial mask could be sold for such a sky-high price. It was simply shocking!

This transaction amount must be in the billions!

It was simply a huge profit!

After hanging up the phone, William Davis began to command again. "You guys... And you over there, hurry up!"

“Do you still want to work?”

“If you don’t want to do it, get lost!”

“Motherf*cker!”

At this moment, there were only about ten men transporting the goods, but hundreds of bodyguards were used to protect the scene. From this, one could see how important these goods were.

“Buzz, buzz, buzz ...”

However, at the same time, Oliver Walker drove the L5 and stopped to the side, blocking the factory door!

“F*ck, are you a dog?”

“How did you hear about the news so quickly?”

When William Davis saw the state guest car blocking the way, he cursed and shouted, “You guys go over and tell them to scram!”

“And you guys, hurry up and load up. Then, quickly leave through the back door.”

What was more important now?

It would obviously be the money that they would gain now.

As for Emilia and Oliver Walker?

Well, it’s too bad for them!

“Yes, sir!”

“Follow me!”

The captain of the bodyguard shouted at the men behind him. Then, he rushed towards the door in a mighty manner.

William Davis had already instructed them to stop the troublemakers at all costs.

Emillia, who got out of the car, frowned. “Honey, should we wait?”

If they attacked now, it would be a private fight.

She had thought it through very clearly, that this matter would be handled by the law enforcer.

Therefore, if they fought, it would be very disadvantageous to them!

“Good!”

Oliver Walker nodded and stood beside the car without any intention of fighting!

“This is an important place in the warehouse. Those who have no business here, leave quickly!”

Lucas, the captain of Davis’s bodyguards, scolded fiercely!

Behind him, more than fifty pairs of fierce eyes seemed to be spewing fire.

This was a dramatic scene.

There was no one else who would dare take another step closer to the factory.

But... Oliver Walker was not an ordinary man!

Chapter 470 Fighting A Boxing Champion

“Lucas!”

“You’re helping a tyrant!” Emilia shouted angrily. “Do you know what you’re doing?”

Of course, she knew the person in front of her.

In the past, he had entered the Davis Bodyguard System as a boxing champion.

Therefore, he was a very powerful man.

“What do you mean by aiding a tyrant?”

“I only know that whoever gives me money is my boss!” Lucas sneered.

“I’m only doing my part!”

“As long as you don’t cause trouble, I won’t do anything to you!”

His expression was full of arrogance. He crossed his arms in front of his chest, revealing his strong muscles.

Emilia’s pretty face was filled with anger.

Indeed, there was no hurry. Even if this batch of goods was transported away, they could still get it back.

But this was infuriating!

William Davis, who was watching the show, retorted, "Damn it!"

"Do you want to rebel?"

"How dare you interfere with the decision of the board of directors?"

Actually, he didn't want to make a move. As long as the goods were transported out, it would be a victory for them.

He didn't think that Emilia and Oliver Walker would do anything to him.

This was also the reason why he dared to be impudent!

"Who's the rebel here?"

"According to the gambling agreement, I have full control over the management of Davis Cosmetics. None of you have the right to interfere! "

"In addition, let me give you a piece of advice. You'd better stop immediately. Otherwise, you won't be able to bear the consequences! "

Lawless!

These people were breaking the law!!!!

Would Micheal Davis and her father really think that she would not resist them for the sake of her grandfather like she did eight years ago?

Then they had really miscalculated!

She would definitely pursue this matter to the end!

It was not for money, but for her ego!

“Do you think I’m scared?”

“Lucas, listen up!” William Davis said coldly. “Whoever dares to take a step forward, beat him up!”

After giving the order, the arrogant William Davis turned around and continued to the warehouse entrance, directing the loading!

A trace of doubt flashed across Emilia’s pretty face. She would definitely be unwilling to see this batch of goods being transported away.

However, for some reason, the person Oliver Walker had informed had not arrived yet. Could it be that he had been bribed by Micheal Davis, which was why William Davis dared to be so fearless?

However, she was wrong. Even if Micheal Davis went bankrupt, he would not bribe the people Oliver Walker had called over!

The Imperial Guards represented absolute loyalty!

It was just that George Lee and the others were not in the downtown area of Colorado at the moment. It would definitely take some time for them to get her.

Crack crack – –

Lucas crossed his hands and cracked his knuckles, making a crisp sound. He glanced at Oliver Walker and said scornfully, “I heard from my brothers that you’re very strong?”

He was born into the underworld, so there was a hint of ruthlessness in his eyes.

However, he was too old to continue fighting, so he left the ring and became the captain of the bodyguards for the Davis Group.

He wasn't around the last few times, so naturally, he wasn't convinced by Oliver Walker.

This was also an important reason why William Davis called him over.

He hoped that when Oliver Walker went crazy, Lucas would teach him a good lesson.

"Mr. Lucas, it's this kid!"

"He beat us up pretty badly last time!"

"Yes, this mad dog is too ruthless!"

"..."

For a moment, Davis's bodyguards were furious.

They had also undergone special training. How could they bear such grievances?

Now that Lucas was here, they had enough confidence. They wanted revenge!!!

Oliver Walker smiled. "Well, I'm not that strong but I'm definitely stronger than you. I may not have killed ten thousand, but at least three thousand!"

He was not joking!

Lucas was indeed an expert in the state of Colorado. Even if he was in the army, his skills would not be much worse than the Soldier King!

But compared to him?

He was just trash.

“You’re f*cking crazy!”

In the next second, Lucas’s eyes flashed with a fierce light. “Then I would like to learn a thing or two from you!”

“Watch my fist!”
