

Chaplain 471

Chapter 471 Completely Crushed

Lucas was not a king man. In addition, his underlings had been beaten up and his master had been taught a lesson. Naturally, he had a strong desire to show off.

Therefore, a fist the size of a clay pot instantly blasted out, and a powerful force erupted!

"Mr. Lucas, kill him!"

"Damn it, this kid is asking for a beating!"

"Yes, beat him up until his teeth are all over the ground!"

"..."

It was really frustrating to be a bodyguard in Davis. They were supposed to be better than others but they were beaten up by Oliver Walker. What was this?

In their opinion, no matter how strong Oliver Walker was, he was no match for Lucas!

After all, Lucas used to play underground boxing, which was a life-risking profession. Without a certain level of strength, he might be crippled in the first round. If he was unlucky, he would die immediately.

The fact that Lucas had survived proved his strength!

"Whoosh whoosh ..."

Especially when he dived down with his fist, there was even the sound of wind. If this punch landed on him, not to mention a person, even a steel pipe would be broken!

"Hubby!"

"Careful!" cried Emilia.

She knew how terrifying Lucas was.

In addition to the fact that he weighed more than 200 pounds and had a firm body without any excess fat, it was enough to know that her husband was not on the same level as Lucas.

If his husband took it head-on, he would definitely suffer a huge loss!

However, even when the fist was right in front of him, Oliver Walker did not move an inch. He was like a towering Aiden Wilson, unmoving and indestructible!

Instead, when he saw who it was, a contemptuous smile appeared on his face. bednovel.org

"You're courting death!"

Lucas snorted coldly. In the next moment, he punched Oliver Walker in the face.

Emilia closed her eyes subconsciously. She didn't know what to do now. Perhaps she could only pray!

At the same time, the faces of Davis's bodyguards also revealed smiles.

They seemed to have already seen the scene of Oliver Walker being knocked down!

"Bang ..."

But at this moment, Oliver Walker's speed was extremely fast.

Still, he did not dodge. Instead, he waved his hand and grabbed Lucas's fist.

In an instant, everyone's eyeballs were about to pop out!

The expected bloody scene of Oliver Walker's face covered in blood did not appear. Instead, Lucas could no longer move forward, as if his body had been frozen.

"Ah ..."

Lucas roared and unleashed a second burst of power.

He clearly knew that his punch could break steel without any problem, but it was caught so easily.

But, what shocked him even more was that the palm that wrapped around his fist seemed to have an unfathomable power.

In order to prove himself, Lucas could only use all his strength!

He tried to knock down the person in front of him!

Crack --

However, at this moment, Oliver Walker exerted strength in his palm and easily crushed Lucas's bones!

That's right!

He crushed it!

"This is the consequence of offending your superiors and having a dirty mouth!"

Oliver Walker's expression was cold, and his aura suddenly erupted!

A pair of cold eyes that seemed to come from Asura's purgatory!

"Ah..."

It was also at this moment that Lucas, who had only realized what was going on, roared out in a heart-wrenching manner due to the intense pain!

It was said that the fingers were connected to the heart, but the bones of his right hand were instantly crushed. Just thinking about it made one's hair stand on end.

"I... I'll kill you!"

Lucas widened his bloodshot eyes and swung his left fist at Oliver Walker's temple like a mad beast!

"Bang ..."

However, as expected, it was caught again. Immediately after, another cracking sound was heard. Lucas was completely crippled for life!

Even if he cured the shattered fractures in his hands, it would be impossible for him to fight like this again.

"Kill me?"

"Are you even worthy of it?"

Oliver Walker smiled scornfully. He lifted his leg angrily and kicked Lucas's body out of his way.

Everyone present was completely dumbfounded!

This...

Lucas was once the champion of underground boxing!

Chapter 472 Helping Arnold Frost

In less than ten seconds, he was completely crippled?

In fact....

Oliver Walker wouldn't even need more than 2 seconds to kill him.

On the other hand, Emilia heaved a sigh of relief. As long as that man was fine, shouldn't she retaliate?

She would not make excessive demands and let her husband stand there passively and be beaten up!

Lucas deserved it for provoking Oliver Walker!

"Damn it!"

"Avenge Mr. Lucas!"

"Attack together!"

"..."

A moment later, the clear-headed David's bodyguard's eyes turned red with anxiety!

Firstly, they could not accept this!

Secondly, they did not believe that Oliver Walker could be that strong!

Honk, honk, honk!!!

However, at this moment, more than ten cars rushed in!

Leading the group was Arnold Frost's Bentley, and behind him were more than ten black cars. They were all helpers that he had gathered!

Such a scene made Davis's bodyguard stop in his tracks!

No one expected that this kid actually found a helper!

David, who was in charge of driving, quickly got out of the car. "Mr. Walker, please save Mr. Frost!"

"He's already been tortured to death by the intense pain!"

Arnold Floss had been shouting all the way until his throat was hoarse. He could not make a single sound now.

Even though the air conditioner was on in the car, he was still sweating!

"I'm not free today!"

Oliver Walker shouted coldly, "Tell him to stay there obediently and not disturb me!"

Why would he save such a person?

Wouldn't he continue bringing disaster to their world?

But at that moment, David was stunned when he saw Davis's bodyguard. "Mr. Walker, my young master, is sincerely remorseful."

"Well, I guess it's time for my to show my skills."

"Brothers, attack! Beat up these little brats!"

He was from the Frost Company and was also responsible for Arnold Frost's safety when he was studying abroad!

Therefore, he was naturally not an ordinary person!

However, they had to force Oliver Walker to treat their young master's leg, but they did not expect that they would stand on the same side as Oliver Walker!

Plus, the Frost Corporation was supported by Leon Williams. After all, it was his sister's in-law's family.

How could he not give her preferential treatment?

In addition, Davis and Leon Williams were not on good terms. Naturally, the Frost Company could not stand Davis's bodyguards!

Therefore, after David gave the order, his men rushed forward and fought with Davis's bodyguards!

The scene of hundreds of people fighting was quite spectacular!

Emilia quickly walked over and asked in a low voice, "What did you do to him?"

Oliver Walker explained, "It's nothing much. It just punctured one of his acupuncture points. It won't kill him."

"At most, it'll just be amputation!"

These words made Emilia recall what happened at the banquet last night. She frowned and said, "Leon Williams has helped us a lot after all!"

"If Arnold Frost is really his nephew, then wouldn't doing this..."

She did not finish her sentence because she did not want to force her husband to do something.

Besides, Arnold Floss was detestable, but he shouldn't be in such a miserable state, right?

In addition, Leon Williams had never made things difficult for her and had even helped her a few times. She naturally remembered these friendships.

"Alright!"

Oliver Walker smiled. "I'll help him."

It was indeed not a big deal. As for Leon Williams helping him?

It was indeed more than a little help.

Although it was not of much help, Leon Williams was still respectful toward him.

He wasn't the type to force people into a dead end, so he walked forward and opened the car door. However, Arnold Frost had already fainted with a pale face.

He had only tapped Arnold Frost's leg lightly. It seemed like he had done nothing, but he had indeed unlocked the acupoint!

This caused Arnold Frost's expression to soften slightly.

"It's done?"

Emilia did not expect things to be so simple. It was completely out of common sense!

"Then what else do you want?" Oliver Walker shook his head, then pointed at the scene of the scuffle and said with a smile, "Just watch the show!"

Chapter 473 Worth 300 Million!

Pressing acupoints was a method to seal the blood flow of a person.

The blood circulation was blocked, and the inner Qi that Oliver Walker instilled into his body would naturally cause him to be in excruciating pain.

However, acupuncture points and meridians were unique to traditional medicine.

Until now, traditional medicine was still a technique that was difficult to explain with science. In the end, it could only be referred to as witchcraft.

However, acupuncture was a high-level technique in traditional medicine. It had nothing to do with witchcraft!

Emilia didn't understand this. She looked at the crowd and said thoughtfully, "Things are getting out of hand!"

She was still a little worried!

After all, no one could predict what the consequences would be!

"We didn't do anything!" Oliver Walker comforted her.

Emilia nodded. That's right! They haven't done anything.

Therefore, her nervous mood slowly relaxed.

As for Lucas?

It was just out of self-defense. Once he lost the ability to hurt them, her husband had to stop fighting him.

She was a very dutiful person and liked to look at everything with the law!

"You guys...What do you want?"

William Davis watched as his bodyguards fell one after another, especially Lucas, who was lying on the ground. His subordinates had no skills to resist David, who was also very skilled.

He was instantly anxious!

He had never expected that such an unknown group of people would be involved.

When all of Davis's bodyguards fell to the ground, David stopped and ran over. "Mr. Walker, my young master... "

Oliver Walker replied, "He's already recovered!"

"Just bring it back!"

The scene had been cleaned up, but David was still worried. Then, he said, "I'd better solve all the trouble for you!"

He was afraid that Oliver Walker was lying!

If Arnold Frost was really going to be amputated, wouldn't he be in big trouble?

"Honey!"

Oliver Walker didn't refuse. Instead, he turned around and said, "You have the final say on what to do!"

His wife was present, so he didn't want to get involved in Davis's matter.

After all, it was a completely different concept for him to make a move and for his wife to make a move.

It was because he was a Walker while his wife, a Davis.

"Yes!"

Emilia nodded and walked over.

William Davis was scared out of his wits. He saw that the goods were loaded, but he couldn't send them off. This was a business worth more than a billion!

His eyes instantly turned red as he roared angrily, "What exactly do you want?"

"I should be the one asking you that, right?" asked Emilia coldly.

"I will settle the goods!"

"We'll go through legal procedures!"

"Fine, you win!" William Davis said angrily.

"Just you wait!"

"Retreat!"

He was gone!

After all, even if he stayed here, he wouldn't be a match for these people.

However, he couldn't figure it out. Were these people the subordinates of the big shots behind Oliver Walker and Emilia?

Yes!

That must be the case!

However, he did not know that these people had actually come to fight Oliver Walker initially.

In the end, they ended up fighting!

After William Davis led his men to retreat, Emilia rushed into the warehouse and asked, "How many goods were lost?"

"Other than the cart that was just towed away, there are about 3,000 of them." Guan Peng frowned.

"I just heard that the people from the Leon Group bought it for 100,000 yuan each."

"In other words, the goods that were towed away are worth a total of 300 million!"

Chapter 474 Impending Death For The Leo Group

Emilia nodded. After understanding the situation, she saved the surveillance video and the shipment records.

This time, she was going to fight Micheal Davis to the end!

On the way here, she had already informed Ma'am Davis, but the biased Ma'am Davis not only did not say anything fair, but even ridiculed her.

How could she endure such anger?

100,000 for one mask? One really dared to do such things and the other was stupid enough to buy it.

"What do you want to do next?" Oliver Walker asked.

Emilia thought for a moment and said, "I don't want to have any influence on the group, but I must hold William and Micheal Davis accountable."

"They're too outrageous. From the beginning to the end, they've never taken me seriously."

"I'm here to sort out their criminal records!"

Oliver Walker nodded. "Alright. I'll go to the Leo Group."

"Are you going to fight again?" asked Emilia with a frown.

She knew that the Leon Group had done something wrong, but since they were going to take legal action, fighting would only make things more complicated!

"What are you thinking? I'm a civilized person. Why will I fight?"

"Didn't you say that you don't want to affect the group?" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

"I'll go and get those goods back. This is an internal matter of the group!"

"You're right!" Emilia nodded.

She had things that she had to deal with now and she wouldn't be able to be at both places at once.

Therefore, if her husband could help, she naturally could not refuse.

They would only be able to increase their efficiency by splitting up.

Leo Group!

After hearing the report from his men, Fernando Walker frowned and picked up his phone. He asked angrily, "Micheal Davis, what do you mean?"

"Don't forget, we signed a contract. We clearly ordered 10,000 Heavenly Doctor Face Masks. Why did we only get 3,000?"

One hundred thousand per piece meant there were a million here!

With the agency fees included, wouldn't that be a business worth more than a billion?

"Fine!"

"You'd better settle this quickly. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

"We've opened all the publicity channels for the product," Fernando Walker said coldly. "Otherwise, you won't be able to afford the compensation!"

"It's not that I don't have money to pay for the masks!"

Fernando Walter hung up the phone angrily!

He was also afraid that the Heavenly Dragon Group would intercept him halfway!

This was a great opportunity for him to make a comeback!

"Mr. Walter, there's someone who wants to see you."

A charming woman walked in.

The secretary of Fernando Walter was also his lover.

Fernando Walter, who was in a rage, slammed the table and roared, "Tell him to scram. I won't see anyone now!"

"He said that he's the person in charge of the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask, and he has something urgent to discuss with you!"

Fernando Walter's face slowly softened. ""Let him in!"

He knew that Micheal Davis wouldn't dare to do anything rash after signing the contract. He just didn't expect it to be so fast.

A moment later, when he saw that it was Oliver Walker, he sensed that something was wrong and asked coldly, "Why did Micheal Davis send you here?"

Oliver Walker had married into Davis 'family, and his wife, Emilia, was not welcomed.

Could it be that he was here to take the blame?

"He didn't send me here. I'm just here to remind you to return all the masks to us to avoid unnecessary losses."

Oliver Walker smiled. "Also, Micheal Davis has no management rights over Davis Cosmetics. All the contracts you signed with him have no legal effect."

Fernando Walter smiled and looked at Oliver Walker as if he was looking at a fool. He said coldly, "Do you think I'm a fool?"

"He, Micheal Davis, is the chairman of the Davis Group, and Davis Cosmetics is only a subsidiary of the Davis Group. How can he not have management rights?"

"My contract in black and white is not a joke!"

"Go back and tell Micheal Davis not to f*cking go back on his word!"

He had already regarded the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask as a cash cow, a trump card that surpassed the Heavenly Dragon Group and replaced Leon Williams as the richest man.

At this moment, if they wanted him to give up, they might as well kill him directly. It would be even more satisfying!

However, he didn't know that a huge crisis that could bankrupt the Leo Group had quietly arrived!

Chapter 475 About To Get Sued

Oliver Walker said honestly, "The products that you think are enough to make you rich will definitely not bring you any wealth in the end!"

"That's all I have to say. You can comprehend it yourself!"

"Get out!" Fernando Walter shouted angrily.

"Although I haven't climbed to the top of the mountain in Colorado, I'm still on the mountain itself to know better. I'm not afraid of you!"

"Get lost!"

"Don't regret it!" Oliver Walker said indifferently.

For some people, there was no need to explain!

Fernando Walter spent 500 million to get the agency that was not protected by the law.

He spent another 100,000 yuan on the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask, spending more than a billion yuan on this business deal.

This was equivalent to all the liquid funds in his hands!

In addition to the loan, how much would he have to sell one for?

For such an ambitious person, the price should be at least 200,000, right?

And their asking price?

One hundred per mask.

What would this mean?

This undoubtedly meant that Fernando Walker had paid an extra billion for nothing, plus the 500 million invalid agency rights along with the upcoming promotion!

He was destined to go bankrupt!

What was Oliver Walker's original intention in launching the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask?

It had never been for the sake of making money. It was only for the sake of helping the world so that more people could enjoy the medicinal formula of the Heavenly Doctor Sect.

Those who went against him and wanted to make a fortune were destined to suffer a loss!

Back at the Davis Group.

"What happened?!"

Micheal Davis said with a cold expression, "Didn't you say that everything would go one smoothly?!"

What would happen if they couldn't supply the goods?

There would be a sky-high compensation!

He had to take out half of the Davis Group's assets! b e d n o v e l . c o m

"Dad!"

William Davis gritted his teeth. "I don't know either. A group of people suddenly appeared and knocked out all of our people!"

"I..."

"I have no choice!"

He was about to go crazy from anger!

Emilia had actually dared to do this. Did she really not take them into consideration?!

"Damn it!"

"This is too much!"

Micheal Davis roared angrily, "She really doesn't know what's good for her! I'll talk to her now."

He could not afford the consequences of short-supplying Fernando Walter.

Therefore, no matter what method he used, he had to get Emilia to give him the stocks!

"Bang ..."

The next moment, Micheal Davis violently kicked open the office door and roared in desperation, "What exactly do you want?"

In fact, Emilia had just returned from the factory. Facing Micheal Davis's rude question, she asked coldly, "I should be the one asking you this, right?"

She was still fuming!

If it weren't for the dramatic scene where Arnold Frost needed his husband to treat his legs, the outcome today would be really hard to predict!

"You're asking me?!"

"Fine!"

"I'll give you an answer then!"

Micheal Davis's face turned red as she shouted, "I'm the chairman of the group and the head of the Davis family!"

"I have the right to make any decisions. The only person who can deny me is Ma'am Davis, and you have no right!"

He was prepared to sacrifice anything!

No matter what, he had to make Emilia yield today!

Otherwise...

He would be in big trouble!

"First of all, my shares don't come from the Davis family!"

"Secondly, this is a corporation, not a company where you can call the shots!"

Emilia took out a folder from the drawer and said coldly, "This is a lawyer's letter. Since you're here, there's no need for me to send it over."

"You should know what you've done!"

After hearing that there's a lawyer's letter, Micheal Davis's confidence instantly disappeared without a trace.

This...

Chapter 476 Negotiating the Deal

Was Emilia really going to sue him?

And what he had done was indeed a crime!

He could be convicted!

As long as Emilia sued her, she would have to spend the rest of her life in jail!

"Hiss... Whoosh ..."

Micheal Davis, who was furious, instantly tore up the lawyer's letter and roared crazily, "Do you know the consequences of doing this?"

"You're also a shareholder of the group. If you don't agree to supply the Leo Group, we'll have to face sky-high compensation and go bankrupt! "

"Have you forgotten what your grandfather said before he died?"

The unreasonable man decided to pester her with the emotional card.

He clearly knew that the only person who could suppress Emilia was the old man who had passed away!

This was also an important reason why he dared to take the risk.

According to his assumption, no matter how cold Emilia was, she would not let the company go bankrupt.

so...

She could only submit to him!

There was indeed a hint of pity on Emilia's pretty face, but it disappeared in an instant. "Mr. Davis, you might be mistaken!"

"You're the one who needs to pay for the compensation. This matter has no impact on the group.

"After all, you don't have the right to manage Davis Cosmetics. The contract with the Leon Group is only in your name and doesn't have any legal effect."

Since she had enough and decided to launch a counterattack, Emilia naturally could not be soft-hearted anymore!

As for his grandfather?

Eight years ago, she had already given in once.

Moreover, the shares were not hers but Oliver Walker's. She was only holding them on behalf of him. She was not qualified to consider these complicated issues.

"You..."

Micheal Davis's tone gradually became weak. He turned to cry, "But I'm your uncle after all. Can you really do such a cruel thing?"

Emilia was expressionless. She raised her head and asked, "Back then, when you swept me out of the company on groundless charges and took over the company's power despite Grandpa's dying wish, you didn't think that I was your niece, did you?"

It was just one sentence, but it stunned Micheal Davis for a long time. There was nothing that he could say.

He saw determination in Emilia's eyes. She was completely different from the soft-hearted little girl eight years ago!

However, could he blame Emilia for being heartless?

After returning to the top management of the company, she had already forgiven the people of Davis Company for the past eight years on account of her grandfather.

She had even abandoned the grudges from back then!

But how did the people from Davis Company treat her? b e d n o v e l . n e t

They still treated her as a soft push over!

If she were to be soft-hearted again, how would she be able to stand in the group?!

Could it be that the tragedy from eight years ago was going to repeat itself?

It was impossible!

In the past, she was part of the Davis family!

But now, she was not, nor was she qualified to forgive!

She couldn't tolerate Davis's excessive actions just because Oliver Walker was good to her and hurt him all over!

"Good!"

"In that case, let's ride a donkey and look at the account book!"

"Once a person is forced to a corner, they would be willing to do anything!"

Micheal Davis hammered the table angrily. In fact, he was indeed forced to a dead end.

If Emilia did not agree to this, then his life would be over!

Stay rational?!

If he had any sense, he would not have done such a thing in the morning!

"What do you want then?"

At this moment, a bone-chilling voice sounded at the door!

Micheal Davis's body trembled uncontrollably. She turned around and said, "You..."

Oliver Walker!

It was that damned Oliver Walker again!

It was Oliver Walker who defeated him again and again, making him unable to fight back!

This was clearly trash!

Why was he able to accurately strangle his throat every time?

"There are some things that can be done and some things that can't be done!"

"I'm not going to do anything!" Oliver Walker said coldly. "But, once you cross the line, no one can stop me!"

"Remember, you can't touch my family!"

Chapter 477 Raging Idiots

Oliver Walker was never a stingy person. He could always let go of things if he wanted to.

He could accept winning or losing!

If it was a normal business struggle, he would not use any means.

However, if someone threatened the safety of his family, then...

The other party would be severely punished.

"Humph..."

Micheal Davis snorted coldly. "I didn't say anything about that!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he left in a sorry state! bednovel.com

Something was wrong with this kid!

He finally realized that things were not normal."

"What did you say at the Leo Group?" Emilia asked with concern.

She was still quite worried.

Although Micheal Davis did not have the management rights of Davis Cosmetics, she was still the chairman of the group.

The signed contract did not have any legal effect.

However, once the situation got out of hand, it would definitely have a huge impact on the group.

"I've told him about the pros and the cons.

Oliver Walker shook his head helplessly. "Let him fend for himself!"

Emilia fell silent and did not say anything else.

When it was time to get off work, the two of them returned to the Sovereign.

At the same time, William Davis also barged into the office with the latest information. "Dad, I just found the truth behind everything that happened!"

"Those people are also Oliver Walker's enemies!"

"His name is Arnold Frost, Leon Williams' nephew!"

This news could be said to be good news!

It meant that they had help!

Most importantly, Arnold Frost's identity could very well ease the relationship between Davis and Leon Williams!

"Yes!"

Micheal Davis's head seemed to explode. "Let's put this matter aside for now!"

"You brat, behave yourself these days. Don't cause trouble for me!"

After saying that, he left the office and returned to the Davis Mansion!

It could be seen that Emilia was determined to sue him!

This accusation was almost certain!

Even if he was lucky enough to win, it was impossible for Emilia to supply the goods. Would the Leon Group let him go then?

It was impossible!

So he was now in big trouble!

How could he still be in the mood to deal with Oliver Walker and Emilia?

He only wanted to protect himself!

However, the news that William Davis brought was indeed good news. At the very least, it would become an important bargaining chip for him in the future!

At this moment, in the garden villa!

"I didn't ask you to beg him to treat my leg!"

"I told you to beat him up!"

"F*ck you, how can you be so spineless?"

"You even helped that dam idiot fight William Davis?!"

After Arnold Frost woke up, he instantly flew into a rage. "You... You're driving me crazy!"

His personal bodyguard actually bowed to Oliver Walker on his behalf?

How f*cking embarrassing was this?

David bent over and frowned. "But Young Master, I... I'm was just thinking for you!"

What if he met a tough nut to crack?

What if Oliver Walker would rather die than treat his young master?

He wasn't a coward. He had just changed to a more mature solution.

He may have embarrassed himself but at least he saved Young Master's leg, right?

"There's no need for that!"

"I don't need it!"

Arnold Frost, who did not know what was good for him, roared crazily as if he had gone mad!

He clenched his fists with a ferocious expression and grimaced. "I won't let you off. I will never let you get away with it!!!"

"Just wait for the storm of revenge!"

"One day, I will make you kneel in front of me and watch me f*ck your wife!"

Chapter 478 Looking For Help From His Dear Mother

He was already possessed!

He had even thought of a countermeasure, especially when he heard that William Davis was also living in the Garden Villa. He quickly began to ask around.

The enemy of an enemy was a friend. There was no doubt about this!

So...

They could cooperate!

Meanwhile, in the old Davis mansion, Ma'am Davis's face turned green after hearing her son's complaint. "She... Is she really going to sue you?"

Micheal Davis said with a trembling voice, "Mom, it's true!"

"Emilia has wild ambitions. If you don't make a move now, it'll be too late! "

He had been forced to a dead end and could only beg Ma'am Davis for help.

In fact, he had brought this upon himself!

When he saw Emilia, he forgot all about the false accounts of the past eight years and abandoned the hatred from the past, so he thought that he could continue to bully her.

Who would have thought that this time, Emilia's attitude would be so firm?

"You... You really deserve it!"

Ma'am Davis pointed at her son with a trembling hand and reprimanded him in disappointment, "She doesn't even have any shares. How can you lose to her?"

"This is infuriating!!!"

"I'm so angry!"

Her heart! It felt cold!

This was an indescribable feeling!

Especially after hearing that the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask could be sold at such a high price, she had to believe in Emilia's abilities once again!

If Emilia was a boy, would she have to support this piece of trash kneeling before her?

She and the old man were both influential figures in the state of Colorado!

They had experienced turbulent times and various financial crises, but why had their three sons not inherited any of their strengths?

If his grandson had half of Emilia's abilities, she...

She didn't have to worry about so many things at this age!

"Mom!"

"I know I'm useless. I know I've let you down!"

"But now is not the time to talk about this!"

Micheal Davis was so anxious that he was about to cry. "You have to save me!"

"I... If I go to jail, what will happen to Davis in the future?!"

"Get lost, you good-for-nothing!" Ma'am Davis snapped.

"I want to see how capable she is and whether she will still allow me to intervene in this!"

To be honest, after learning the whole story, she was furious and sad.

Of course, Micheal Davis did not dare to tell her that the reason why he was played so miserably by Emilia was because he was the reason why Emilia had so much shares.

However, since Ma'am Davis said so, it meant that she would not sit idly by. He heaved a sigh of relief.
"Thank you, Mom! Thank you, Mom! "

"I... I definitely won't let you down in the future!"

When her son left the bedroom, Ma'am Davis was stunned for more than ten minutes. She did not say a word, but her turbid eyes were filled with complicated emotions.

What could she do now?

When Emilia informed her, she had said such harsh words. With Emilia's temper, she would definitely hold a grudge, right?

But now, her son's weakness was in Emilia's hands. She had no choice!

After thinking for a long time, she finally took out his phone and dialed Emilia's number!

When Emilia saw the caller ID, she was not surprised. She also knew what Ma'am Davis wanted to do, so she turned it to silent mode and ignored it!

There were some things that could not be turned back once the bow was drawn!

It wasn't that she was heartless, but if the current situation was reversed, would Micheal Davis let her go?

Would Ma'am Davis ask for mercy from Micheal Davis on her behalf?

Obviously, it was impossible!

"Buzz, buzz, buzz ..."

But soon, the phone vibrated again.

After repeating this several times, she finally pressed the answer button. "Hello, Grandma, what's the matter?"

She would never forget the answer she received when she informed Ma'am Davis at noon that made her give up on her fantasies!

Ma'am Davis was still the same old woman from before.

She could do anything for her son and grandson, but she would never give any love to her granddaughter!

"Emilia!"

"I was just bored and wanted to chat with someone. Well, I just thought of you instantly."

Ma'am Davis knew that her granddaughter might not be swayed by gentle coaxing, but she would definitely not be swayed by force. Thus, she said, "Do you have time to chat with an old lady like me?"

Chapter 479 The Sympathy Card

"Grandma!"

"Let me just tell you the truth."

Emilia's tone was extremely calm. "I'm really busy now!"

One sentence, just one sentence, it directly blocked all of the words that Ma'am Davis had prepared in advance.

I'm really busy!

Such a straightforward rejection!

Ma'am Davis's expression was extremely ugly, but she did not get angry. Instead, she smiled and said, "Emilia, isn't our relationship a little distant? "

She thought that if she took the initiative to call, Emilia would definitely be extremely excited!

However, reality had given her a cruel slap!

Not only did Emilia not fall for it, but she even dealt with it with ease. This really made Ma'am Davis anxious.

In fact, she couldn't even say her motive at this moment!

Emilia was naturally clear about the purpose of the call. Then, she said, "Haven't you distanced yourself from me?"

"Actually, I feel that our relationship has never been closer!"

Now, she could calmly face her past memories because she had already walked out of the shadow of her childhood!

Therefore, there was no burden or worries!

If Ma'am Davis did not mention this, she naturally would not take the initiative to mention it either.

However, she was not in a hurry. Ma'am Davis's expression turned ugly. "Actually, what I meant was..."

"Grandma," Emilia interrupted with a smile, "I hope you can think about it before you tell me your purpose. Is it appropriate for you to say anything now?"

"Or perhaps, would it be right for me to nod my head obediently?"

Ma'am Davis was anxious!

She even struggled to stand up from the recliner!

Even her hunched body was trembling slightly.

She also understood that she would not have an easy time in the future!

"Do you still remember how you treated me every time I wanted to get close to you when I was young?"

"Every time William Davis makes a mistake, why must I always be his scapegoat?"

"And eight years ago, you did not even stand up for me. You just watched as Micheal Davis chased me out of the company."

"Have you forgotten all these things?"

Emilia's tone was still calm. The past was the past, and the present was the present. She was very clear about this.

Especially when some memories were pain that could never be erased!

"But you and Jessica Wright Davis are both girls. I've never been biased towards anyone!"

Ma'am Davis's face was gloomy. She tried her best to keep her tone calm because in this kind of negotiation, whoever was anxious would pay a painful price.

Especially now, the initiative was in Emilia's hands. Ma'am Davis wanted to resolve the current crisis without bloodshed.

"You're right!"

"But at least she can get the love of her father and brother," said Emilia with a smile. "What about me?"

"If you're still going to continue talking about this, then there's nothing left for us to talk about."

"Goodbye!"

Once she was done, she immediately hung up the phone!

She did not want to continue talking to her grandmother.

This was because she could still remain calm now and knew that Ma'am Davis had been trying to open her heart!

Her grandmother has been trying to get her sympathy!

But ...

That would be impossible!

She knew who was kind to her and who had treated her badly!

After hanging up the phone, she rubbed her temples and lay on the sofa in exhaustion as she was deep in thoughts.

At the same time, back at the Davis Mansion!

After hanging up the phone, Ma'am Davis seemed to have been petrified.

She froze on the spot!

After more than a minute, she roared angrily, "You actually hung up on me?"

"She actually dared to hang up on me?"

This was something she had never expected!

If it wasn't for Davis, who kept trying to hurt Amelia, things wouldn't have come to this.

She found it unbelievable. Naturally, Ma'am Davis thought that she was the pillar of Davis.

And Emilia? Who did she think she was?

She actually refused her so straightforwardly!

Chapter 480 Stomped Over To The Sovereign

However, after getting angry, Ma'am Davis was not satisfied. She said angrily, "Fine!"

"This is great!"

"I want to see how capable you are!"

"David, get the car ready!"

She was furious and decided to go to Emilia's place to reason things out. bednovel.com

No matter what, a daughter of the Davis family should never send a son from the same family into jail. This was her bottom line.

Inside the Sovereign, after Oliver Walker came out of the shower, he looked at his distressed wife and couldn't help but ask, "What do you plan to do?"

Ma'am Davis? was too overbearing and only knew how to care for herself.

However, she had never taken into account Emilia's feelings, which led to the explosion of the entire matter.

"I don't want anything. If they can give me a decent explanation, I might change my mind."

"But I never thought that Ma'am Davis would still be so arrogant!" Emilia spoke with a surprised look on her face.

"She actually wanted to use her powers to shut me down!"

"Doesn't she know how cruel this is to me?"

She definitely felt wronged!

They were both Mrs. Davis 'descendants, but they were treated differently.

No matter what kind of outrageous things Micheal Davis's family did, Ma'am Davis would always protect them.

Even if she did ten thousand good deeds, she would not be able to gain Ma'am Davis 's approval!

She felt devastated!

"Well, it's fine."

"Let's go to bed early." Oliver Walker said with a smile. "Don't think too much about it!"

This was the Davisf family forcing his wife into a dead end!

Moreover, his wife had never admitted that she had returned to the family.

However, they were still like a blood-sucking worm, unwilling to let go of any value she had created.

"I can't sleep!"

"I can't." Emilia shook her head. "This time, I must make sure that Davis Cosmetics draws a clear line between them and the Davis Group."

"I don't care about the entire Davis Group. Just let them fend for themselves."

If she still had a little bit of confidence, she would not have said such desperate words.

After all...

There was really no other way!

Ding dong ...

At this moment, the doorbell rang!

Emilia took a deep breath and turned on the surveillance camera. When she saw Ma'am Davis standing in the night, she didn't feel surprised.

After all, William Davis lived in the same villa complex.

"What do we do now?"

Emilia frowned slightly. Ma'am Davis's arrival meant that she had reached the peak of rage.

Otherwise, she would not have come personally at such a late hour!

"Do what you have to do!"

"After all, you don't owe her anything," Oliver Walker said proudly. "Since you have an idea, just go ahead and stick to it."

Actually, there was nothing wrong with separating the Davis Cosmetics from the Davis Group.

In this way, his wife would not be controlled by anyone.

"Yes!"

With her husband's approval, Emilia became more confident and said, "It's better if you don't show yourself. I have a way to deal with it."

The people from the Davis Company were already dissatisfied with her husband. If her husband showed up again, something uncontrollable might happen.

"Sure!"

Oliver Walker smiled and left the living room without saying anything.

As soon as Emilia opened the door, she was greeted by Ma'am Davis, who had a cold expression on her face and was holding a dragon-headed cane!

William Davis relied on Ma'am Davis's authority and questioned fearlessly, "Look at how angry you've made Grandma."

"Are you even human?!"

Now that their grandmother had appeared, he did not believe that Emilia's pride would still be so firm!

Therefore, their faces were filled with pride, as if they had grasped Emilia's weakness.

He even stood on the highest point of morality and attacked mercilessly.

"Alright!"

"I won't fuss about this matter!"

Ma'am Davis's face was full of arrogance as she questioned aggressively, "I just want to know, are you going to give in to this for my sake?"
