Chapter 491 Making The Tough Decision

"Mom!"

Oliver Walker frowned slightly. "You may have forgotten that I'm a doctor. I know Ma'am Davis's condition better than you do! "

The Heavenly Doctor Sect's prescription could be used to save the world, but it would never be handed over to such a person!

This was the iron rule of the Heavenly Doctor Sect!

He knew exactly what the people from Davis wanted to do!

Once the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask was out of his wife's control, it would be sold at a sky-high price that ordinary people could not afford.

This was far from his ideal of saving the world!

Not everyone could take out hundreds of thousands of dollars!

Not everyone could have enough money for even food and clothes!

He knew this better than anyone else!

The cost of it was within a hundred for each. Even with the agency fee and marketing fee included, it shouldn't be placed at hundreds of thousands like what Micheal Davis and the Leo Group planned on doing!

It was true that he had once sold them for such a price but those people deserved it!

"But the hospital has already issued a critical illness notice. Could it be that these are all fake?"

"Do you have to do this?" Mary Grimm shouted angrily.

"Mom!" Oliver Walker lowered his head.

"It's not that I have to do this, but that I'm helpless here too."

If this matter was just a family matter, then it would be fine!

However, it was a matter of great benefit to the country and the people. He could not choose to lower his head and encourage the arrogance of a profiteer like Micheal Davis!

"Alright then!"

"Leave!" Mary Grimm said angrily. "Leave now and never come back!"

Micheal Davis laughed when he saw this!

Ma'am Davis was relieved as well.

As long as Oliver Walker was driven away, there would only be Emilia left. There was nothing to fear!

"Mom!"

"What are you doing?" bednovel.com

Emilia, who had been silent for a long time, finally couldn't help but say, "Don't fall for their trap!"

She saw it clearer than anyone else!

She also knew that her husband had done all these things for her!

"If you can't stand it, you should leave too!"

Mary Grimm was so agitated that she hugged her head. It was obvious that she was on the verge of collapse.

She was a very traditional woman!

She had been taught that her husband's family was the most important thing since she was young. It was obviously impossible for her to change!

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with anger as she glared at the smug Micheal Davis.

She hated Ma'am. Davis even more. Why did they have to take advantage of her mother's kindness?

But then, her eyes flashed with apology. She didn't want to drive her mother crazy. After all, she had suffered so much with her.

Oliver Walker understood and lowered his head slightly. "If you think that I really have a way to forgive Micheal Davis's sins, then I will leave."

"Mom!"

"Take care!"

With that, he was gone.

He left with a heart full of grievances!

But, at least his wife understood what he had done!

This was already the greatest console.

"Take him away!"

Seeing that there was no turning back, George Lee also left with Oliver Walker!

Then, it was those from the Davis Group that turned shocked.

They knew Mary Grimm!

But not enough to understand Emilia!

They also couldn't see through the unfathomable Oliver Walker!

Blindly indulging in pride would only result in a miserable outcome!

"Oliver Walker!"

"Damn it!"

"You motherf*cker..."

The next moment, when Micheal Davis was dragged out of the ward, he swore and shouted, "Mom!!!"

"Save me!"

"I can't go to jail!"

"I don't want to go to jail!"

"..."

However, as the voice gradually faded away, the people from Davis's family, led by William Davis, finally came back to their senses.

This...

Did Micheal Davis really get arrested?!

Especially Ma'am Davis, she was so anxious that she wanted to get up!

However, she knew that now was not the right time. Perhaps she would still be able to make use of Mary Grimm.

"Get lost!"

"You two jinxes!"

"Hurry up and get lost!"

Chapter 492 Learning When To Let Go

William Davis chased Mary Grimm and Emilia out of the door like a madman!

His father had been arrested, which meant that his good days were over!

If he didn't get his grandma's support, it would be very difficult to keep the company under control.

But in fact, even if his uncle, Isaac Davis, was not valued, there was still his third uncle, Harry Davis!

If Ma'am Davis supported Harry Davis, he would be ruined for life!

So, how could he turn crazy?

"Get out!"

"A jinx!"

"Hurry up and get lost!"

"..."

The next moment, the people from Davis's family also started shouting crazily.

Although they were happy that Micheal Davis had been arrested, they were also aware of the threat that Emilia posed.

Especially Harry Davis, who was working extremely hard!

As long as Emilia was kicked out of the house, wouldn't William Davis be a puppet that he could manipulate?

When Mary Grimm and Emilia were swept out of the door...

"Grandma, what should we do now?!" William Davis hurriedly stepped forward.

He naturally knew that Ma'am Davis was completely fine!

It was just that this act of pretending had paid a huge cost.

Not only did it not have any effect, but the situation had gotten worse!

"Don't worry."

Ma'am Davis opened her eyes, her face gloomy. "I will get your father out!"

"He is a live-in son-in-law. He is not qualified enough to make things difficult for an old woman like me!"

She was very confident!

After all, connections were something that could be used at times like this!

But after seeing Ma'am Davis took out her phone...

William Davis was stunned. "Do you know anyone from the Imperial Guards?"

Those people were not ordinary people!

It didn't belong to the state of Colorado!

Although he knew that Ma'am Davis had connections that extended in all directions, the level of the Imperial Guards was really high!

It was not something that ordinary people could come into contact with!

"What?"

Ma'am Davis's hand trembled and her phone fell onto the blanket. Her face was filled with shock. "You mean, that group of people are Imperial Guards?"

William Davis nodded. " It's true. I saw their IDs!"

He panicked!!!

What should he do?

If there was no other way, then how would he live in the future!

Once his third uncle, Harry Davis, took over the company, he would definitely be kicked out of it!

He would be left with no skills to keep himself alive! bednov e l . c om

It was better to kill him directly than to let him pick up trash for a living!

"Heavens!"

Ma'am Davis was no longer calm. She spread her arms and wailed, "Is the heavens trying to destroy us?!"

"What did you do?"

"Why did the Imperial Guards come looking for us?"

"Tell me! Why?!"

Ma'am Davis had turned crazy as well!

Those were people that she could never be in contact with! Even those that she had connections with!

"Grandma, I... I don't know either!"

William Davis said submissively, "But if that mad dog Oliver Walker is willing to withdraw the lawsuit, my dad will definitely be fine!"

He no longer has any thoughts about the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask.

This was because he knew that once his father was locked up, he would only be in a worse state!

"You mean you want me to lower my head to him?"

Ma'am Davis's face was filled with anger, and the flames in her heart surged. "In my entire life, when have I ever lowered my head to anyone?"

"He... He..."

She didn't think that Oliver Walker had the ability to control the Imperial Guards!

But, the imperial guards had really made their move!

This was why things got difficult!

This was getting serious!

"Grandma!"

William Davis knelt on the ground with a thud and wailed, "But there's no other choice!"

Ma'am Davis's expression changed again and again. From a firm rejection to anger, and then to embarrassment.

It was enough to prove that she was under immense pressure at this moment!

"You... Let me think about it!"

Gradually, she let go of her unwillingness, but she still found it difficult to accept this fact!

She picked up her phone several times, wanting to make a call, but eventually put it down again!

Oliver Walker had forced her into a dilemma!

Oliver Walker did not leave because he knew that Ma'am Davis could not hold it in.

But Micheal Davis was taken away!

Sometimes, people were like this!

They would never shed tears until they saw the coffin before them!

If he weren't ruthless enough, these people would consider themselves invincible!

As for his mother-in-law, she was also brought home to the Sovereign by his wife.

One day, she would understand that Ma'am Davis was only using her and not really treating her well!

In other words, Ma'am Davis was a person who placed interests above all else. She would never treat anyone kindly from the bottom of her heart!

'Ding, ding, ding...'

As expected, in less than three minutes, his phone rang!

Oliver Walker pressed the answer button and said calmly, "Well, congratulations, you woke up quickly!"

A second ago, they issued a notice of critical illness, and the next second, she woke up. What did that mean?

Ma'am Davis was ruthless.

"You actually knew it was me?"

Ma'am Davis's voice was a little cold and surprised.

She didn't have Oliver Walker's number, so he couldn't have hers.

Before she could speak, she was mocked. This meant that Oliver Walker had already predicted it!

"That's not important!"

"Tell me your purpose!" Oliver Walker replied.

Actually, he could already guess it, but when it came to negotiations, he would lose if he didn't have the patience.

Besides, he was the one in control now. The only one who was really anxious was Ma'am Davis!

"I just want to have a good talk with you!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were filled with unwillingness. The fact that she could say such words close to admitting defeat was enough to explain the pressure in her heart at that moment.

However, in the next second, the call was hung up!

In less than a minute, Oliver Walker pushed open the door and entered the ward under the watchful eyes of the people from Davis Company, who dared not speak out!

At this moment, the old woman and the young man looked at each other.

Deep inside, they both clearly know the situation.

"So you didn't leave at all?"

William Davis's eyes were filled with anger. He instantly went forward and questioned, "I knew you had ulterior motives. You were targeting our property!"

"You have no right to speak here," Oliver Walker said indifferently. "Get out!"

Indeed!

This was true in terms of status and qualifications!

Even William Davis was not worthy of talking to him!

It was only because he was approachable and never put on airs. Otherwise, such a person would not even have the chance to see him!

"You..."

William Davis clenched his fists and gritted his teeth like he wanted to eat someone!

"Get lost!"

Suddenly, Ma'am Davis shouted, and William Davis, whose eyes were bloodshot, left the ward.

Then, there were only two people left inside the ward.

The air fell silent!

After a long time, Ma'am Davis, who couldn't hold it in anymore, said, "Tell me, what do you want?"

She was waiting for Oliver Walker to raise his terms. If they were suitable, she would definitely agree to it.

Otherwise, if Micheal Davis really had to go to jail, she would have lost everything!

"It'll just be the same one."

Oliver Walker said neither obsequiously nor arrogantly, "Let Davis Cosmetics leave the Davis Group and let my wife hold the shares alone."

This was done so that the supreme medical skills of the Heavenly Doctor Sect could benefit the people!

He clearly knew that Emilia had no greed, so she could become a true entrepreneur, not a capitalist who squeezed her employees and customers to get money.

Therefore, his wife was the best partner for him to promote these!

"But you should know that I won't agree to it!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were still filled with deep unwillingness.

After all, she couldn't believe that she had lost this battle.

"But you should also know that the initiative is in my hands now!"

Oliver Walker's expression was calm. "You don't have any terms to bargain with me!"

In fact, from the moment Ma'am Davis called him back, the outcome was already decided.

Did he really ask for much?

He didn't.

Originally, Davis Cosmetics had been ruined by William Davis.

When his wife signed the gambling agreement, it was still worthless.

It was only after the introduction of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask that the people of Davis Company, and even the entire business world of Colorado, caught the scent of money!

"I was right about you. You married into the Davis family and lay low for many years. You've taken a fancy to this little bit of wealth!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were filled with incomparable anger. "You have ulterior motives, you are heartless!"

These accusations were useless to Oliver Walker. He just smiled and said, "If that's what you think, then I have nothing to say!"

"But do you really think that this small company can arouse my greed? "

If word got out, he would definitely become the joke of the world.

A person who never knew how much money he had in his bank account would scheme against a small company with only ten billion?

He was even the one who personally raised all this money for the company!

"You..."

Ma'am Davis was speechless, but then she said, "If you do this, will you still be able to face your grandfather who dotes on you, loves you, and admires you?"

"If it weren't for Grandpa, the Davis would have ceased to exist," Oliver Walker said in a deep voice.

"You should know that the only person who can revive Davis and fulfill grandfather's will is my wife."

"As smart as you are, you should know that your descendants can't bear the burden at all!"

"As for the Davis Company, do you want to die here and never give power to my wife? Or do you want to change your pedantic way of thinking and let Davis become famous overseas?"

"This is the choice that you have to make."

He was not joking at all!

Perhaps fame and fortune were the goals that ordinary people fought for in their lives!

But for him, he had already reached the peak of fame and fortune after the end of the war in Indiana, but he had given up.

Whether it was money or fame, only those who could not get it would care about it.

As for him, he had long since left the low-class conflicts of mortals.

He only wanted to help his wife reach the peak of fame and fortune. Then, he would use his wife's name to promote the supreme medical skills of the Heavenly Doctor Sect and truly benefit the people of the country!

Doctors were benevolent!

It was just that he chose this way to love the world!

After all, no matter how strong a person's ability was, there was a limit to it. If one wanted to reach a higher level, they had to work together as a group!

Just like the glory of the war in Indiana was not his alone!

It was those soldiers who fought bravely and fearlessly to kill the enemy. They had fought together with him!

Ma'am Davis fell silent!

She didn't even blink her mucky eyes.

She simply scoffed at Oliver Walker's words!

Because no one could resist the temptation of fame and fortune!

"You're so hypocritical!"

"You can even talk about greed like it's a flower falling from the sky!"

"No wonder my descendants are no match for you!"

That's right!

In her eyes, Oliver Walker was a hypocrite!

"It's good to be hypocritical!"

"It doesn't matter if it's real!"

"My character has nothing to do with this negotiation!"

Oliver Walker said calmly, "You just have to choose to agree or disagree to it!"

"I don't have so much time to chat with you!"

"Or discuss the obvious human nature and the pursuit of a higher level in life!"

Everything he said was true!

However, people who had not reached his level would naturally see hypocrisy instead of sincerity.

It was as if short-sighted people would never understand how lucrative the return could be if they spent tens of millions of dollars to bid for a dinner!

Even if he knew, he might not be willing to do so! bednove l .o r g

This was the difference between people of different tier.

The people standing at the top of the mountain and the people standing at the foot of the mountain naturally saw different scenery.

"You..."

"Alright then!"

"I agree!" Ma'am Davis took a deep breath.

"As long as you release him and destroy all the evidence, I'll sign a transfer contract with you!"

Transfer?

"It's not a transfer," Oliver Walker said with a smile. "It's an acquisition!"

He wasn't being picky. He had seen through Ma'am Davis's schemes!

Perhaps in the end, his wife would get Davis Cosmetics either way, but...

Transferring the contract would put Davis on the moral high ground and cause trouble for the future!

Therefore, it was impossible for him to agree!

"As you wish!"

Ma'am Davis's mouth muscles were twitching fiercely!

She had truly met an expert today!

But in the end, she could only admit defeat!

In the afternoon, Oliver Walker asked his wife to withdraw the lawsuit!

Micheal Davis returned to the company, and Ma'am Davis had no choice but to sign the acquisition contract.

At this point, she deeply understood that Emilia, who had obtained Davis Cosmetics, had already entered the market with the help of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask. She was no longer under anyone's control!

She should have known that such a day would come!

However, she did not expect that this day would come so quickly!

The people from Davis were all dumbfounded!

Ever since Emilia returned to the board of directors of the Davis Group...

William Davis was defeated!

Micheal Davis had fallen!

Now, even Ma'am Davis had fallen!

Such an outcome was hard to accept, but they had to accept it!

Back in the Sovereign.

"Hubby!"

"How should we deal with the aftermath at the agency?" asked Emilia.

Although the company's internal problems had been resolved, Micheal Davis left her with nothing but trouble.

It was impossible for her to license such a product that would benefit the people, gain popularity and regain its reputation to the Leo Group who would sell it at a sky-high price that ordinary people could not afford!

"Let's start another meeting in your name." Oliver Walker said with a smile.

In fact, this did not have to be difficult.

Fernando Walter should have received the news that the contract signed with Micheal Davis was invalid.

If he stopped while he was ahead, they might even compensate him.

As for Micheal Davis, the money that Fernando Walter got was naturally the capital for the acquisition of Davis Cosmetics.

He would never do something like getting something for nothing.

"Well... That's the only way!" Emilia nodded.

It would only depend on whether Fernando Walter was willing to give up on it.

Although this matter had nothing to do with her, she was still willing to take responsibility until the end!

She would have to remain honest and sincere.

This was her belief!

The next morning, at the Leo Group!

"Mr. Walter!"

"Let me remind you again," said Emilia. "Davis Cosmetics has now become an independent company and is no longer affiliated with the Davis Group."

"Moreover, the contract that Micheal Davis signed with you previously did not have any legal effect!"

Fernando Walker snorted.

"I knew that you would play such a trick, but I just didn't fall for it!"

"He signed the contract. If it doesn't have any effect, then I naturally won't let him off!"

This was his trump card to surpass Leon Williams. How could he give it up so easily?

At this very moment, all of the publicity works have already started.

The people who were waiting to buy the facial masks could not wait any longer!

However, Fernando Walker was very smart. He played the mystery game because he was the exclusive agent, but he did not want to be listed!

It could be said to have whetted everyone's appetite!

"You should know that if you give up on the compensation now, no one will be willing to take responsibility of it even if you come to us later on."

"He did take your money, but he doesn't represent me!" Emilia frowned.

"Even if you get the compensation, have you ever thought that the Leo Group will face bankruptcy?"

Everything she said was true!

So what if he would get compensated with a few hundred million?

The Leo Group was worth billions of dollars. This amount of compensation wouldn't even be enough to cover the losses of bankruptcy.

"Get lost!"

Fernando Walter, who was desperate, said angrily, "Get lost now, or don't blame me for being rude!"

"I've tried to speak to you nicely about it but you really have no idea what trouble you're in!"

"Fine!"

"I'll tell you in advance that the market price of the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask has already been determined. It's priced at 500 per box!"

"A box of five!"

"If you can afford to make such losses, go ahead then!"

This product was not meant to make money!

Of course, selling it at such a price would not cause a loss. In fact, she could even make a lot of money!

"Hahahahaha!!!!"

"Do you think I'm a fool?"

"If this mask is sold for 100 each, I'll jump off a building and commit suicide!"

Fernando Walter burst into laughter and said, "Someone, get in here!"

"Chase this abandoned daughter of Davis out of here. Don't ever let her step into the company for the rest of her life!"

In an instant, two fierce-looking bodyguards rushed in from outside!

"You will regret this!"

Emilia was so angry that she stood up and left.

Now that she had said what she needed to say, she had done her best!

It wasn't that Fernando Walter did not understand the stakes, but the temptation was too great to refuse. Therefore, he chose to take the risk!

"I won't regret it!"

"I've never done anything I regret in my life!"

"Selling such a good mask for only 100 each. It's either you're dreaming or I heard you wrongly!"

"You still want to fool me? Dream on!"

If there was only a 10% profit, only a stable person would choose to do it!

When there was a 50% profit, there would be a large number of bold people who would choose to gamble!

And when the profit reached 100%, or even 200%...

Then there was no doubt that lunatics would dare to bet on it.

Fernando Walter was obviously trying to surpass Leon Williams.

Naturally, he would not agree to let go of these!

Inside the L5 car at the entrance of the Leon Group!

Seeing his wife come out in a huff, Oliver Walker already knew the result. He immediately comforted her, "Don't take it to heart. He's an adult. He should pay the price for his ambition!"

It wouldn't be easy to convince Fernando Walter to stop what he did, but they had already advised him thrice.

"That's true."

"Let's go!" Emilia took a deep breath.

In fact, she had a good product, but no one was willing to cooperate with her. It was really depressing.

As for Davis Cosmetics, they were currently in Colorado, but there were only a dozen or so stores. This...

They may not be able to hold on for long.

But now, was there any other way?

At the same time, more than ten Leo shopping malls in the city of Colorado were already packed with people thanks to the magical effects of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask!

"Mr. Walter, look!"

Xue Jiajia, the secretary, smiled and said, "Our mall has been bursting with people these past two days. "

"As for Hongri Mall, which is under the Sky Dragon Group, it's empty at the moment. Sooner or later, you'll be able to replace Leon Williams and become the new richest man in the state of Colorado!"

Ellie Wilson laughed and said, "Hahaha..."

"Inform everyone that the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask will be on sale according to the pre-set price."

"What a joke! Emilia actually used such a clumsy method to deceive me. Did she really think that I would be scared?!"

Fernando Walter could already see his days ahead!

Becoming the richest man in Colorado!

How tempting was this?

After the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask entered the counter, the popularity of his malls would flourish!

With so many customers, there would naturally be many other expenses!

Fernando Walker would then be earning fortunes and by thinking of this, he was already grinning from ear to ear!

"What?"

"200,000 for a piece of mask?"

"Why don't you rob the bank for it instead?!"

"Davis Cosmetics is too evil!"

"That's right. How dare you sell a lousy brand at such a high price?!"

"Even Adams isn't as arrogant as them!"

"This is clearly trying to fool us!!!"

"Whoever buys it is a fool!"

"..."

The Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask had just been placed on the market. After the price was announced, it caused everyone's dissatisfaction.

As for Fernando Walter, he was ruthless. He ordered his men to push all the problems to Davis Cosmetics.

It seemed that the shopping mall under the Leo Group had suffered a great grievance!

"We have to boycott it!!!"

"We must boycott it!"

"Damn it, I will never use this lousy brand of Davis Cosmetics again!"

"Yeah, it's disgusting!"

"Aren't you afraid of being stuffed to death?"

"..."

The angry crowd had been waiting for this for a long time, so they were naturally even angrier now.

How could ordinary people buy it at such a price?

What kind of joke was this?

"A bunch of paupers!"

Fernando Walter, watching the surveillance video

Fernando Walter's eyes revealed a hint of treachery. "Why don't you take a look at yourself? Did you really think that you could afford this mask?"

"What a f*cking joke!"

"Did you really think that I am selling a simple mask?"

Of course, he knew that the price of this mask was not something that ordinary people could accept.

Even middle-class families could not afford it!

The target of his sales was the rich and powerful circles in the state of Colorado. In addition, he used this as a gimmick to increase the traffic of the mall.

As long as the hype was good, the customer flow could be maintained for at least half a year.

Half a year later, even the wealthy Leon Williams would not be able to hold on.

At that time, the Leo Mall would become the oligarch of the state of Colorado!

With such height, they would definitely be on top of the pyramid!

At the same time, inside Davis Cosmetics!

"Fernando Walter is despicable!"

"We've reminded him time and time again out of kindness, but he actually pushed all the responsibility onto us!"

Emilia was furious. When did she set the price to such an expensive level?

This was completely contrary to the original intention of producing the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask!

What was worse was that Fernando Walker was ruining Davis Cosmetics's reputation!

"This is why they say that a human's greed is more than how a snake tries to swallow an elephant."

Oliver Walker said with a smile, "It's not unreasonable for some people to go bankrupt!"

One can't say that Fernando Walker was stupid. It could only be said that he was blinded by his own interests.

That's why he did such a stupid thing!

"Miss Davis, something bad has happened!"

At this moment, Guan Peng rushed into the office, panting heavily.

Emilia stood up from her seat and frowned. "What happened?"

If anything else happened, it would be even more troublesome!

Davis Cosmetics, which she had taken over, was already in decline. She could not take such a blow.

"There are thousands of people outside our building, holding a protest!"

"There are also reporters with them!!!"

"Miss. Davis, if we don't handle this well, then no matter how good the product is. It won't help!" Guan Peng said anxiously.

This was a crisis for their brand. Once their reputation collapsed, it would lose its credibility.

At that time, who would believe them

Emilia's pretty face was filled with nervousness. "Let's go!"

She naturally knew what this meant!

She knew that this was not something that could be taken easily!

Except for Fernando Walter, who deliberately set her up.

There must be someone in the crowd that has been sent by Fernando Walter to heat up the crowd.

Otherwise, no matter how expensive the price was, rational civilians would not launch such a crazy boycott.

Even if the price was really set at 200,000 yuan per piece, so what?

No one would actually put on such a huge protest.

At this moment, on the road!

In a Bentley, William Davis was pleasantly surprised and full of praise. "Mr. Frost, this move of yours is amazing!"

"I admire you!"

They had a common enemy, so it was only natural for them to work together!

William Davies wanted to see Davies Cosmetics, which had left the group, go bankrupt overnight, which would be a huge blow to Emilia.

On the other hand, Arnold Frost hoped to destroy Emilia's source of income so that she would obediently crawl back to beg him!

When the time came...

Not only would he sleep with her, but he could also turn the once arrogant number one goddess of Arizona into his exclusive lover, making Oliver Walker regret it.

Wasn't this the greatest pleasure of revenge?

"This is nothing!"

Arnold Frost sneered. "Go back and tell your father that I've avenged him!"

"The Davis Cosmetics will not last for more than 3 days!"

Naturally, he was the one who pushed for the boycott this time.

The speed at which one spread to ten, ten to a hundred, was absolutely astonishing.

It could also arouse the hatred of ordinary families who really needed to get a scar removing mask but did not have the ability to undergo plastic surgery. They would pour all their hatred on Davis Cosmetics.

"That's just great!"

"Thank you, Mr. Frost. I'll go tell my dad now!"

William Davis's face was full of excitement. He finally vented his anger.

The thought of Emilia and Oliver Walker living on the streets after she went bankrupt made him extremely happy!

That feeling was really awesome!

It had to be said that when Emilia took over the Davis Cosmetics, it caused quite a stir in the business world of Colorado.

After all, she used to be a pampered girl in the business world!

This was the return of the king!

When the large-scale boycott began, everyone began to laugh at them again.

Such a crisis was not something a small company like Davis Cosmetics could handle.

However, they had overlooked one point. It was both a crisis and an opportunity!

"You black-hearted businessman, do you dare to come out and face us?!"

"Emilia, you're shameless!"

"Is there anyone who would be able to afford these masks when you place them at such a high price?!"

"If you don't go bankrupt, there's no justice!"

"..."

After the actors arranged by Arnold Frost deliberately shouted out such moral kidnapping words, those who really needed this mask to save their lives followed suit as well.

This was a protest team of over a thousand people, how terrifying was that?

The continuous shouts were like thunder, attracting the attention of many people once again.

In fact, they had no right to interfere with the pricing of a company's products!

However, those actors and actresses had changed their opinions!

"Everyone, please be quiet!"

When Emilia rushed to the door, she held a loudspeaker and began to shout at the crowd, "You wanted to see me?"

"Then, calm down. If there's a problem, we'll solve it!"

"How are we supposed to communicate with such a ruckus?"

When the voice reached the scene, the protesting crowd gradually quieted down.

The person that Arnold Frost had arranged for was a middle-aged woman in her forties. There were hideous scars on her face.

Then, she walked forward and shouted righteously, "Why would you set such a high price for the Heavenly Beauty Facial Mask?!"

"Do you really want to see us disfigured people go bankrupt just so that we can buy your product?!"

Actually, she said that on purpose!

The effect of this was excellent. The entire crowd was heated once again! b e d n o v e l . c o m

"That's right!"

"You have to have a conscience!"

"You'll definitely go back to being bankrupt if this is how you're running the business!!!"

"..."

The angry crowd that was led by public opinion also raised their arms and shouted indignantly!

This was merely a deal between one who had the supply and the other who had a demand.

If one could afford it, he would buy the product. If he couldn't afford it, he wouldn't buy it then.

After all, facial masks were not a necessity.

However, they had neglected this point and demanded for an explanation!

"Emilia! Don't even think about avoiding the problem!"

"Let me ask you again, why did you set the price so high?"

The middle-aged woman who was the leader of the group had been bribed by Arnold Frost. With a hideous scar on her face, she asked righteously, "I also want to be a woman without scars. Since you have developed this kind of scar removal product, it should benefit the public!"

"You have to be magnanimous!"

"You are supported to uphold such morals if you want to run a business!!!"

Such a ridiculous moral kidnapping would hardly garner any support!

However, her job here was to blow this matter out of proportion!

She didn't care if what she said made sense or not. It was enough as long as it could cause the crowd to be angry!

"I'm not doing charity!"

"As for the explanation for the price, you should be asking the Leo Group. Why are you here instead?"

How could she not be angry?

This group of people was simply being unreasonable!!

But in fact, Karen Waltz took Arnold Frost's money to provoke Emilia's anger. Then, when Emilia loses her mind, she says something extreme and cause public anger!

As for Karen Waltz, she was just a housewife who did not have a job. At this moment, on account of their common hatred, would there be anyone who would care about whether what she said was accurate or not?

"If you didn't set the purchase price high, would the Leo Group sell it at such a high price?"

Karen Waltz spoke shamelessly again, "You have to lower the price!"

Nonsense!

Absolutely unreasonable!

However, everyone present was mad at Emilia. None of them were actually radical.

Of course, there were also some people who were bewitched and shouted together!

Emilia was speechless!

She clearly knew that the woman in front of him was so rude because she was instigated by someone else!

But what could she do?

Then, Oliver Walker rushed into the crowd and came to the woman who was the most arrogant. He said coldly, "It doesn't matter if the price is lowered or not!"

"You'd better tell me who's behind this, or you'll be the one in jail!"

"Gathering a crowd to cause trouble.... This is not a small crime!"

Emilia frowned. She wanted to dissuade him. After all, Oliver Walker was trying to make a big deal out of this!

Regardless of the truth of this matter, once it got out of hand, Davis Cosmetics would be the one to suffer.

After all, most of the public would side with those who are weaker in the situation.

Of course, what she was most afraid of was that her husband might be used by someone with ill intentions.

She didn't believe that the people from Davis Company or their potential competitors would compete fairly!

In fact, these people were sent by the enemy!

"Bah ..."

Karen Waltz placed her hands on her waist and looked like a hoodlum. "What are you going to do to me?!" She roared crazily, "I represent myself. Do you want to hit me?"

"I'm not afraid of you! I'm standing here to represent those who are disfigured and do not have the ability to afford your masks that are sold at such sky-high prices!"

This clamor was not cowardly at all. It was even tit-for-tat!

This was because this was merely a job for Karen Waltz. Plus, they had more people on their side, and they were naturally not afraid of anyone!

"Can you really represent those who have been disfigured?"

"If that's the case, why don't you just disfigure yourself and instead put on special effects makeup?"

That's right!

Oliver Walker could tell at a glance that the hideous scar on Karen Waltz's face was fake. Although it looked realistic, it was still fake.

She might have been able to hide it from others but she would not be able to hide from his sharp pair of eagle eyes.

Fake?

Emilia frowned and looked over. It didn't seem like it!

If it really was fake, it was enough to prove that this was a conspiracy!

The people at the scene also quieted down. This.....

Something didn't seem right!

They looked at Karen Waltz with strange eyes and then at Oliver Walker with doubt. They could not make up their minds for a moment.

"You..."

"You're talking nonsense!"

Karen Waltz's tone clearly paused for a moment. Then, she subconsciously took a step away from the man in front of her, trying to use her loud voice to hide her guilt. "How dare you slander me! I can sue you for this!!!"

"I have been disfigured and you're looking down on me!!!"

But the next moment, Oliver Walker took a step forward and rushed forward. He grabbed Karen Waltz's chin with one hand and tore at the fake scar with the other!

"Ah ..."

"What are you doing?"

"Let... Let go of me..."

"They're trying to hit me!!!!!"

"Those from Davis Cosmetics are trying to hit me!!!!!"

"..."

Karen Waltz twisted her body frantically, but her head, which was being controlled, could not move at all!

She attacked Oliver Walker on all fours!

Emilia's heart was in her throat!

Oliver Walker was being too arrogant!

If that was really a scar, how was she going to salvage the brand's reputation?

This...

"Let go!"

"You guys are bullying me!"

"Everyone, attack together. We can't watch our own people being bullied!"

"..."

At this moment, the crowd surged and an intense conflict erupted!

However, in the next second, Oliver Walker tore off the makeup on Karen Waltz's face at lightning speed and shouted, "All of you have been used. She is a spy sent by our competitor!"

"I hope you can see her true colors now!"

Oliver Walker's voice was like thunder, mixed with the aura of a general. It also had a strong penetrating power and quickly covered the entire scene.

Everyone turned to look at Karen Waltz, only to see that there was no scar on her face.

There was only panic and fear!

Along with the gelatins that stuck to her makeup!

"Damn it!"

"This woman is heartless!"

"Exactly!"

"I've long known that she's not a good person. She's been deliberately stirring up our emotions!"

"Everyone, beat her up together!"

"..."

The next moment, the crowd was enraged!

No one here would like to be treated like a fool.

The people who were provoked by Karen Waltz were either eager to get rid of scars or wanted to get rid of scars for their families.

Therefore, when they realized that they were being used, they became even angrier!

"Everyone, please calm down!"

Emilia quickly shouted through the loudspeaker, "It's illegal to hit her!"

"This kind of person should be punished by the law, not us!"

In an instant, everyone at the scene calmed down!

However, their eyes were filled with anger!

"Miss Davis!!!"

"I really need to ask for a favor from you!!!"

At this moment, a man in his thirties knelt on the ground with his palms together and cried, "My daughter is only ten years old but she was scarred by boiling water!"

"She's autistic now. She doesn't even talk to me or her mother!"

"I... I..."

"She's still a child. There should be a bright future for her!!!!"

The more the man spoke, the more he cried!

Furthermore, he was kneeling on the ground and was continuously begging. "I know that what I'm doing might be wrong but I hope you can understand how it feels to be a parent!"

The atmosphere gradually settled down!

After all, not everyone lost their rationality!

The eyes of the onlookers also revealed a pleading look!

"Miss Davis, please do me a favor!"

"We're all ordinary people. We will never be able to afford it if you sold the mask for 20,000 each!"

"We..."

A wave of desolate guilt filled the entire place!

Everyone's eyes were on Emilia. They hoped that they could seek benefits for themselves or their families through this incident.

All of them here were like this man who was kneeling on the ground. Not everyone could afford a plastic surgery that cost hundreds of thousands.

With these scars on their face, it could actually destroy a person's confidence!

There were a lot of them who would even give up on their lives because of this!

This was the reason why Oliver Walker infused the prescription into a mask and set the price at an extremely low price!

"There must be a misunderstanding here!"

Emilia quickly stepped forward and tried to help the man up. "The price we set is actually not high!"

"The actions of the Leo Group have nothing to do with Davis Cosmetics!"

"This is because we do not have any business deals with the Leo Group!"

All of this news was released by those from the Leo Group only.

She had done her best for the Leo Group. On the contrary, Fernando Walter wanted to put the dirty hat on her head. How could she allow this to happen?

"Miss Davis, I no longer have the courage to get up!"

"Because of my daughter, my wife keeps calling me a useless bastard and wants to divorce me!"

"I can't even protect my own woman. What right do I have to stand up?" The man cried out in despair.

"I know what I'm asking for is too much, but....."

"But ..."

The man's words were filled with the helplessness of a middle-aged man!

He still had to take care of his wife and daughter.

He could no longer see the future in his career, and darkness was the only thing left in his life.

In fact....

Did society only consist of rich people?!

This was the real society!

Men don't shed tears easily! It's just that they haven't been pushed to the brink of being broken.

In fact, Oliver Walker had cried before. He looked at the remains of the soldiers who died in Indiana. Some of them did not even have the time to leave a will.

There were even some corpses that were torn apart!

Who were they?

Who was it for?

Thus--

"Miss Davis, please have mercy and forgive our unreasonable request!"

"Please, Miss Davis!"

"..."

Instantly, more than half of the people present got down on their knees!

If those rich people only wanted to look good, they would not have the trouble of removing scars.

The ordinary people in front of them represented true helplessness and pain!

"You ... You guys...."

Emilia said with a heavy heart, "Please get up!"

However, no one stood up. They knew that this request was obscene.

But it was their only hope!

They needed a product that was effective enough to remove scars but at a low price!

"I never thought of releasing the actual price of it so early on.

"But today, I'll give everyone a heads-up. The price of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask will not exceed 100 per piece!"

As soon as these words were said, the power was no less than a depth bomb, directly detonating the entire scene!

"What?"

"A hundred for one?"

"It will not be more than that?!"

"..."

These words did not make these despairing people feel any excitement!

They couldn't believe what they had just heard!

From 200,000 each to less than 100 each?

This...

"If You set the price so low, would you still be able to earn any money from it?"

The middle-aged man crying at the beginning gulped, and his eyes were dull.

Perhaps this was the only time the user community worried that the manufacturer would not make money by setting such a low price!

Perhaps it was a stark contrast to the previous price that was set!

With such a low price, everyone would be able to buy them!!!

After all, people experiencing poverty really needed it to remove life-threatening problems! It wasn't for cosmetics use!

"I, Emilia Davis, hereby promise all of you!"

"Everything that I say now is true!"

"You don't have to worry about whether I'll be making a loss. I can only say that I would definitely make a profit from this, and it would be more than enough to cover the cost of manufacturing them."

"The Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask will officially launch in Davis Cosmetics tomorrow!"

"But, I'm hoping that all of you would be able to help me keep this a secret for today."

The main reason why it was not on the market now was that it was not ready yet. They still didn't have enough products in stock yet.

They would be wronged if they ran out of stock and were accused of hunger marketing!

"Sure!!!"

"Miss Davis, thank you!"

"We will definitely keep our mouth shut!"

"..."

Thousands of people at the scene showed gratitude. They believed that with Emilia's identity, she would definitely not lie to them.

Moreover, Davis Cosmetics was a well-known brand back then.

It was only after Emilia left the Davis Group that the quality of the products plummeted!

After everyone left, Karen Waltz was handed over to the security guards. What awaited her was legal punishment!

Not only did she cause trouble, she also slandered the reputation of Davis Cosmetics!

As for Emilia, she felt a heavy responsibility on her shoulders. If it weren't for the petition from thousands of people, she wouldn't have believed that a scar removal product would have such an important social responsibility.

"Phew..."

She took a deep breath, but she could not calm down for a long time.

"What's wrong?" Oliver Walker asked.

In fact, he always knew about this, which was why he had now found a new life goal.

Using the path of traditional medicine to do something truly good for the people!

This was his duty.

It was also the meaning of the existence of the Heavenly Doctor Sect!

"Hubby!"

"I have an idea!"

Emilia frowned, but she did not finish her sentence.

This was because.... Oliver Walker had no obligation to do so!

"What is it?"

Oliver Walker asked with a smile. In fact, he knew what kind of person his wife was.

And now, his wife's thoughts coincided with his!

"I want to change the name of Davis Cosmetics to Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!"

"But, I would need your permission to do so."

"I hope that the Heavenly Sect's prescription can benefit more people!"

Emilia was very nervous. The purpose of changing her name was to completely break away from the current Davis Group.

In addition, she could also fulfill her husband's wish/

In fact, she was an entrepreneur, and she really had a social responsibility!

"Sure!!!"

Oliver Walker nodded. "Do as you wish. I have no objections!"

Perhaps ...

Was this what it meant to be a family?

In fact, if one earned too much money, they would naturally lose the meaning of earning money!

Besides, it wasn't that he didn't want to make money, he just didn't want to ask for an exorbitant price!

"You don't object to it?!"

"Are you really willing to allow me to do so?"

Oliver Walker said affectionately, "As long as you want?it, I have no objections!"

"I only want to be by your side for the rest of my life!"

That's right!

He did not want to leave again!

If America was safe and prosperous, who would be willing to give up their wife and children and run to the uninhabited area of Indiana to live a life of fear every day?

Afterall, he was an ordinary man.

He also had his own selfish desires!

Emilia felt comforted after hearing his words.

She smiled in relief!

This man was like a benefactor in her life, always being tolerant of her willfulness.

At the same time, at the Leo Group!

"Mr. Walter, good news! "

"Under your clever guidance, those ridiculous poor people went to Davis Cosmetics to cause trouble!"
Xue Jiajia said.

"The number of customers in our mall has also increased by five times!"

"There are also the big bosses from Colorado who are also here, hoping to get their hands on the mask."

Fernando Walter listened to the report coming from his secretary.

Then, he smiled and hugged Xue Jiajia's hot body. "Hahahahahaha!!!!"

"When I become the richest man in Colorado, I'll immediately make you mine!"

Xue Jiajia put on a pretentious look. "You're finally willing to lay your cards on the table with that tigress in your house?"

Fernando Walker sneered. "Forget about that old woman!"

As he spoke, he pinched the tender leg under the black stockings!"

Xue Jiajia pouted, "You're so annoying but I like it!"

Chapter 493 Negotiation Part 2

Oliver Walker did not leave because he knew that Ma'am Davis could not hold it in.

But Micheal Davis was taken away!

Sometimes, people were like this!

They would never shed tears until they saw the coffin before them!

If he weren't ruthless enough, these people would consider themselves invincible!

As for his mother-in-law, she was also brought home to the Sovereign by his wife.

One day, she would understand that Ma'am Davis was only using her and not really treating her well!

In other words, Ma'am Davis was a person who placed interests above all else. She would never treat anyone kindly from the bottom of her heart!

'Ding, ding, ding...'

As expected, in less than three minutes, his phone rang!

Oliver Walker pressed the answer button and said calmly, "Well, congratulations, you woke up quickly!"

A second ago, they issued a notice of critical illness, and the next second, she woke up. What did that mean?

Ma'am Davis was ruthless.

"You actually knew it was me?"

Ma'am Davis's voice was a little cold and surprised.

She didn't have Oliver Walker's number, so he couldn't have hers.

Before she could speak, she was mocked. This meant that Oliver Walker had already predicted it!

"That's not important!"

"Tell me your purpose!" Oliver Walker replied.

Actually, he could already guess it, but when it came to negotiations, he would lose if he didn't have the patience.

Besides, he was the one in control now. The only one who was really anxious was Ma'am Davis!

"I just want to have a good talk with you!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were filled with unwillingness. The fact that she could say such words close to admitting defeat was enough to explain the pressure in her heart at that moment.

However, in the next second, the call was hung up!

In less than a minute, Oliver Walker pushed open the door and entered the ward under the watchful eyes of the people from Davis Company, who dared not speak out!

At this moment, the old woman and the young man looked at each other.

Deep inside, they both clearly know the situation.

"So you didn't leave at all?"

William Davis's eyes were filled with anger. He instantly went forward and questioned, "I knew you had ulterior motives. You were targeting our property!"

"You have no right to speak here," Oliver Walker said indifferently. "Get out!"

Indeed!

This was true in terms of status and qualifications!

Even William Davis was not worthy of talking to him! bednovel. com

It was only because he was approachable and never put on airs. Otherwise, such a person would not even have the chance to see him!

"You..."

William Davis clenched his fists and gritted his teeth like he wanted to eat someone!

"Get lost!"

Suddenly, Ma'am Davis shouted, and William Davis, whose eyes were bloodshot, left the ward.

Then, there were only two people left inside the ward.

The air fell silent!

After a long time, Ma'am Davis, who couldn't hold it in anymore, said, "Tell me, what do you want?"

She was waiting for Oliver Walker to raise his terms. If they were suitable, she would definitely agree to it.

Otherwise, if Micheal Davis really had to go to jail, she would have lost everything!

"It'll just be the same one."

Oliver Walker said neither obsequiously nor arrogantly, "Let Davis Cosmetics leave the Davis Group and let my wife hold the shares alone."

This was done so that the supreme medical skills of the Heavenly Doctor Sect could benefit the people!

He clearly knew that Emilia had no greed, so she could become a true entrepreneur, not a capitalist who squeezed her employees and customers to get money.

Therefore, his wife was the best partner for him to promote these!

"But you should know that I won't agree to it!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were still filled with deep unwillingness.

After all, she couldn't believe that she had lost this battle.

"But you should also know that the initiative is in my hands now!"

Oliver Walker's expression was calm. "You don't have any terms to bargain with me!"

Chapter 494 Ulterior Motives of Robbing The Davis

In fact, from the moment Ma'am Davis called him back, the outcome was already decided.

Did he really ask for much?

He didn't.

Originally, Davis Cosmetics had been ruined by William Davis.

When his wife signed the gambling agreement, it was still worthless.

It was only after the introduction of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask that the people of Davis Company, and even the entire business world of Colorado, caught the scent of money!

"I was right about you. You married into the Davis family and lay low for many years. You've taken a fancy to this little bit of wealth!"

Ma'am Davis's eyes were filled with incomparable anger. "You have ulterior motives, you are heartless!"

These accusations were useless to Oliver Walker. He just smiled and said, "If that's what you think, then I have nothing to say!"

"But do you really think that this small company can arouse my greed? "

If word got out, he would definitely become the joke of the world.

A person who never knew how much money he had in his bank account would scheme against a small company with only ten billion?

He was even the one who personally raised all this money for the company!

"You..."

Ma'am Davis was speechless, but then she said, "If you do this, will you still be able to face your grandfather who dotes on you, loves you, and admires you?"

"If it weren't for Grandpa, the Davis would have ceased to exist," Oliver Walker said in a deep voice.

"You should know that the only person who can revive Davis and fulfill grandfather's will is my wife."

"As smart as you are, you should know that your descendants can't bear the burden at all!"

"As for the Davis Company, do you want to die here and never give power to my wife? Or do you want to change your pedantic way of thinking and let Davis become famous overseas?"

"This is the choice that you have to make."

He was not joking at all!

Perhaps fame and fortune were the goals that ordinary people fought for in their lives!

But for him, he had already reached the peak of fame and fortune after the end of the war in Indiana, but he had given up.

Whether it was money or fame, only those who could not get it would care about it.

As for him, he had long since left the low-class conflicts of mortals.

He only wanted to help his wife reach the peak of fame and fortune. Then, he would use his wife's name to promote the supreme medical skills of the Heavenly Doctor Sect and truly benefit the people of the country!

Doctors were benevolent!

It was just that he chose this way to love the world!

After all, no matter how strong a person's ability was, there was a limit to it. If one wanted to reach a higher level, they had to work together as a group!

Just like the glory of the war in Indiana was not his alone!

It was those soldiers who fought bravely and fearlessly to kill the enemy. They had fought together with him!

Ma'am Davis fell silent!

She didn't even blink her mucky eyes.

She simply scoffed at Oliver Walker's words!

Because no one could resist the temptation of fame and fortune!

"You're so hypocritical!"

"You can even talk about greed like it's a flower falling from the sky!"

"No wonder my descendants are no match for you!"

That's right!

In her eyes, Oliver Walker was a hypocrite!

"It's good to be hypocritical!"

"It doesn't matter if it's real!"

"My character has nothing to do with this negotiation!"

Oliver Walker said calmly, "You just have to choose to agree or disagree to it!"

"I don't have so much time to chat with you!"

"Or discuss the obvious human nature and the pursuit of a higher level in life!"

Everything he said was true!

However, people who had not reached his level would naturally see hypocrisy instead of sincerity.

It was as if short-sighted people would never understand how lucrative the return could be if they spent tens of millions of dollars to bid for a dinner!

Even if he knew, he might not be willing to do so! bednove l .o r g

This was the difference between people of different tier.

The people standing at the top of the mountain and the people standing at the foot of the mountain naturally saw different scenery.

Chapter 495 Dealing With A Stubborn Donkey

"You..."

"Alright then!"

"I agree!" Ma'am Davis took a deep breath.

"As long as you release him and destroy all the evidence, I'll sign a transfer contract with you!"

Transfer?

"It's not a transfer," Oliver Walker said with a smile. "It's an acquisition!"

He wasn't being picky. He had seen through Ma'am Davis's schemes!

Perhaps in the end, his wife would get Davis Cosmetics either way, but...

Transferring the contract would put Davis on the moral high ground and cause trouble for the future!

Therefore, it was impossible for him to agree!

"As you wish!"

Ma'am Davis's mouth muscles were twitching fiercely!

She had truly met an expert today!

But in the end, she could only admit defeat!

In the afternoon, Oliver Walker asked his wife to withdraw the lawsuit!

Micheal Davis returned to the company, and Ma'am Davis had no choice but to sign the acquisition contract.

At this point, she deeply understood that Emilia, who had obtained Davis Cosmetics, had already entered the market with the help of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask. She was no longer under anyone's control!

She should have known that such a day would come!

However, she did not expect that this day would come so quickly!

The people from Davis were all dumbfounded!

Ever since Emilia returned to the board of directors of the Davis Group...

William Davis was defeated!

Micheal Davis had fallen!

Now, even Ma'am Davis had fallen!

Such an outcome was hard to accept, but they had to accept it!

Back in the Sovereign.

"Hubby!"

"How should we deal with the aftermath at the agency?" asked Emilia.

Although the company's internal problems had been resolved, Micheal Davis left her with nothing but trouble.

It was impossible for her to license such a product that would benefit the people, gain popularity and regain its reputation to the Leo Group who would sell it at a sky-high price that ordinary people could not afford!

"Let's start another meeting in your name." Oliver Walker said with a smile.

In fact, this did not have to be difficult.

Fernando Walter should have received the news that the contract signed with Micheal Davis was invalid.

If he stopped while he was ahead, they might even compensate him.

As for Micheal Davis, the money that Fernando Walter got was naturally the capital for the acquisition of Davis Cosmetics. bednovel. net

He would never do something like getting something for nothing.

"Well... That's the only way!" Emilia nodded.

It would only depend on whether Fernando Walter was willing to give up on it.

Although this matter had nothing to do with her, she was still willing to take responsibility until the end!

She would have to remain honest and sincere.

This was her belief!

The next morning, at the Leo Group!

"Mr. Walter!"

"Let me remind you again," said Emilia. "Davis Cosmetics has now become an independent company and is no longer affiliated with the Davis Group."

"Moreover, the contract that Micheal Davis signed with you previously did not have any legal effect!"

Fernando Walker snorted.

"I knew that you would play such a trick, but I just didn't fall for it!"

"He signed the contract. If it doesn't have any effect, then I naturally won't let him off!"

This was his trump card to surpass Leon Williams. How could he give it up so easily?

At this very moment, all of the publicity works have already started.

The people who were waiting to buy the facial masks could not wait any longer!

However, Fernando Walker was very smart. He played the mystery game because he was the exclusive agent, but he did not want to be listed!

It could be said to have whetted everyone's appetite!

"You should know that if you give up on the compensation now, no one will be willing to take responsibility of it even if you come to us later on."

"He did take your money, but he doesn't represent me!" Emilia frowned.

Chapter 496 The Daydreaming Man

"Even if you get the compensation, have you ever thought that the Leo Group will face bankruptcy?"

Everything she said was true!

So what if he would get compensated with a few hundred million?

The Leo Group was worth billions of dollars. This amount of compensation wouldn't even be enough to cover the losses of bankruptcy.

"Get lost!"

Fernando Walter, who was desperate, said angrily, "Get lost now, or don't blame me for being rude!"

"I've tried to speak to you nicely about it but you really have no idea what trouble you're in!"

"Fine!"

"I'll tell you in advance that the market price of the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask has already been determined. It's priced at 500 per box!"

"A box of five!"

"If you can afford to make such losses, go ahead then!" bednovel. net

This product was not meant to make money!

Of course, selling it at such a price would not cause a loss. In fact, she could even make a lot of money!

"Hahahahaha!!!!"

"Do you think I'm a fool?"

"If this mask is sold for 100 each, I'll jump off a building and commit suicide!"

Fernando Walter burst into laughter and said, "Someone, get in here!"

"Chase this abandoned daughter of Davis out of here. Don't ever let her step into the company for the rest of her life!"

In an instant, two fierce-looking bodyguards rushed in from outside!

"You will regret this!"

Emilia was so angry that she stood up and left.

Now that she had said what she needed to say, she had done her best!

It wasn't that Fernando Walter did not understand the stakes, but the temptation was too great to refuse. Therefore, he chose to take the risk!

"I won't regret it!"

"I've never done anything I regret in my life!"

"Selling such a good mask for only 100 each. It's either you're dreaming or I heard you wrongly!"

"You still want to fool me? Dream on!"

If there was only a 10% profit, only a stable person would choose to do it!

When there was a 50% profit, there would be a large number of bold people who would choose to gamble!

And when the profit reached 100%, or even 200%...

Then there was no doubt that lunatics would dare to bet on it.

Fernando Walter was obviously trying to surpass Leon Williams.

Naturally, he would not agree to let go of these!

Inside the L5 car at the entrance of the Leon Group!

Seeing his wife come out in a huff, Oliver Walker already knew the result. He immediately comforted her, "Don't take it to heart. He's an adult. He should pay the price for his ambition!"

It wouldn't be easy to convince Fernando Walter to stop what he did, but they had already advised him thrice.

"That's true."

"Let's go!" Emilia took a deep breath.

In fact, she had a good product, but no one was willing to cooperate with her. It was really depressing.

As for Davis Cosmetics, they were currently in Colorado, but there were only a dozen or so stores. This...

They may not be able to hold on for long.

But now, was there any other way?

At the same time, more than ten Leo shopping malls in the city of Colorado were already packed with people thanks to the magical effects of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask!

"Mr. Walter, look!"

Xue Jiajia, the secretary, smiled and said, "Our mall has been bursting with people these past two days. "

"As for Hongri Mall, which is under the Sky Dragon Group, it's empty at the moment. Sooner or later, you'll be able to replace Leon Williams and become the new richest man in the state of Colorado!"

Ellie Wilson laughed and said, "Hahaha..."

"Inform everyone that the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask will be on sale according to the pre-set price."

"What a joke! Emilia actually used such a clumsy method to deceive me. Did she really think that I would be scared?!"

Fernando Walter could already see his days ahead!

Becoming the richest man in Colorado!

How tempting was this?

After the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask entered the counter, the popularity of his malls would flourish!

With so many customers, there would naturally be many other expenses!

Fernando Walker would then be earning fortunes and by thinking of this, he was already grinning from ear to ear!

Chapter 497 The Protest

"What?"

"200,000 for a piece of mask?"

"Why don't you rob the bank for it instead?!"

"Davis Cosmetics is too evil!"

"That's right. How dare you sell a lousy brand at such a high price?!"

"Even Adams isn't as arrogant as them!"

"This is clearly trying to fool us!!!" be d n o v e l . c o m

"Whoever buys it is a fool!"

"..."

The Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask had just been placed on the market. After the price was announced, it caused everyone's dissatisfaction.

As for Fernando Walter, he was ruthless. He ordered his men to push all the problems to Davis Cosmetics.

It seemed that the shopping mall under the Leo Group had suffered a great grievance!

"We have to boycott it!!!"

"We must boycott it!"

"Damn it, I will never use this lousy brand of Davis Cosmetics again!"

"Yeah, it's disgusting!"

"Aren't you afraid of being stuffed to death?"

"..."

The angry crowd had been waiting for this for a long time, so they were naturally even angrier now.

How could ordinary people buy it at such a price?

What kind of joke was this?

"A bunch of paupers!"

Fernando Walter, watching the surveillance video

Fernando Walter's eyes revealed a hint of treachery. "Why don't you take a look at yourself? Did you really think that you could afford this mask?"

"What a f*cking joke!"

"Did you really think that I am selling a simple mask?"

Of course, he knew that the price of this mask was not something that ordinary people could accept.

Even middle-class families could not afford it!

The target of his sales was the rich and powerful circles in the state of Colorado. In addition, he used this as a gimmick to increase the traffic of the mall.

As long as the hype was good, the customer flow could be maintained for at least half a year.

Half a year later, even the wealthy Leon Williams would not be able to hold on.

At that time, the Leo Mall would become the oligarch of the state of Colorado!

With such height, they would definitely be on top of the pyramid!

At the same time, inside Davis Cosmetics!

"Fernando Walter is despicable!"

"We've reminded him time and time again out of kindness, but he actually pushed all the responsibility onto us!"

Emilia was furious. When did she set the price to such an expensive level?

This was completely contrary to the original intention of producing the Heavenly Doctor Face Mask!

What was worse was that Fernando Walker was ruining Davis Cosmetics's reputation!

"This is why they say that a human's greed is more than how a snake tries to swallow an elephant."

Oliver Walker said with a smile, "It's not unreasonable for some people to go bankrupt!"

One can't say that Fernando Walker was stupid. It could only be said that he was blinded by his own interests.

That's why he did such a stupid thing!

"Miss Davis, something bad has happened!"

At this moment, Guan Peng rushed into the office, panting heavily.

Emilia stood up from her seat and frowned. "What happened?"

If anything else happened, it would be even more troublesome!

Davis Cosmetics, which she had taken over, was already in decline. She could not take such a blow.

"There are thousands of people outside our building, holding a protest!"

"There are also reporters with them!!!"

"Miss. Davis, if we don't handle this well, then no matter how good the product is. It won't help!" Guan Peng said anxiously.

This was a crisis for their brand. Once their reputation collapsed, it would lose its credibility.

At that time, who would believe them

Emilia's pretty face was filled with nervousness. "Let's go!"

She naturally knew what this meant!

She knew that this was not something that could be taken easily!

Except for Fernando Walter, who deliberately set her up.

There must be someone in the crowd that has been sent by Fernando Walter to heat up the crowd.

Otherwise, no matter how expensive the price was, rational civilians would not launch such a crazy boycott.

Chapter 498 We Want Answers!

Even if the price was really set at 200,000 yuan per piece, so what?

No one would actually put on such a huge protest.

At this moment, on the road!

In a Bentley, William Davis was pleasantly surprised and full of praise. "Mr. Frost, this move of yours is amazing!"

"I admire you!"

They had a common enemy, so it was only natural for them to work together!

William Davies wanted to see Davies Cosmetics, which had left the group, go bankrupt overnight, which would be a huge blow to Emilia.

On the other hand, Arnold Frost hoped to destroy Emilia's source of income so that she would obediently crawl back to beg him!

When the time came...

Not only would he sleep with her, but he could also turn the once arrogant number one goddess of Arizona into his exclusive lover, making Oliver Walker regret it.

Wasn't this the greatest pleasure of revenge?

"This is nothing!"

Arnold Frost sneered. "Go back and tell your father that I've avenged him!"

"The Davis Cosmetics will not last for more than 3 days!"

Naturally, he was the one who pushed for the boycott this time.

The speed at which one spread to ten, ten to a hundred, was absolutely astonishing.

It could also arouse the hatred of ordinary families who really needed to get a scar removing mask but did not have the ability to undergo plastic surgery. They would pour all their hatred on Davis Cosmetics.

"That's just great!"

"Thank you, Mr. Frost. I'll go tell my dad now!"

William Davis's face was full of excitement. He finally vented his anger.

The thought of Emilia and Oliver Walker living on the streets after she went bankrupt made him extremely happy!

That feeling was really awesome!

It had to be said that when Emilia took over the Davis Cosmetics, it caused quite a stir in the business world of Colorado.

After all, she used to be a pampered girl in the business world!

This was the return of the king!

When the large-scale boycott began, everyone began to laugh at them again.

Such a crisis was not something a small company like Davis Cosmetics could handle.

However, they had overlooked one point. It was both a crisis and an opportunity!

"You black-hearted businessman, do you dare to come out and face us?!"

"Emilia, you're shameless!"

"Is there anyone who would be able to afford these masks when you place them at such a high price?!"

"If you don't go bankrupt, there's no justice!"

"..."

After the actors arranged by Arnold Frost deliberately shouted out such moral kidnapping words, those who really needed this mask to save their lives followed suit as well.

This was a protest team of over a thousand people, how terrifying was that?

The continuous shouts were like thunder, attracting the attention of many people once again.

In fact, they had no right to interfere with the pricing of a company's products!

However, those actors and actresses had changed their opinions!

"Everyone, please be quiet!"

When Emilia rushed to the door, she held a loudspeaker and began to shout at the crowd, "You wanted to see me?"

"Then, calm down. If there's a problem, we'll solve it!"

"How are we supposed to communicate with such a ruckus?"

When the voice reached the scene, the protesting crowd gradually quieted down.

The person that Arnold Frost had arranged for was a middle-aged woman in her forties. There were hideous scars on her face.

Then, she walked forward and shouted righteously, "Why would you set such a high price for the Heavenly Beauty Facial Mask?!"

"Do you really want to see us disfigured people go bankrupt just so that we can buy your product?!"

Actually, she said that on purpose!

The effect of this was excellent. The entire crowd was heated once again! b e d n o v e l. c o m

"That's right!"

"You have to have a conscience!"

"You'll definitely go back to being bankrupt if this is how you're running the business!!!"

"..."

The angry crowd that was led by public opinion also raised their arms and shouted indignantly!

This was merely a deal between one who had the supply and the other who had a demand.

If one could afford it, he would buy the product. If he couldn't afford it, he wouldn't buy it then.

After all, facial masks were not a necessity.

However, they had neglected this point and demanded for an explanation!

Chapter 499 Special Effect Makeup

"Emilia! Don't even think about avoiding the problem!"

"Let me ask you again, why did you set the price so high?"

The middle-aged woman who was the leader of the group had been bribed by Arnold Frost. With a hideous scar on her face, she asked righteously, "I also want to be a woman without scars. Since you have developed this kind of scar removal product, it should benefit the public!"

"You have to be magnanimous!"

"You are supported to uphold such morals if you want to run a business!!!"

Such a ridiculous moral kidnapping would hardly garner any support!

However, her job here was to blow this matter out of proportion!

She didn't care if what she said made sense or not. It was enough as long as it could cause the crowd to be angry!

"I'm not doing charity!"

"As for the explanation for the price, you should be asking the Leo Group. Why are you here instead?"

How could she not be angry?

This group of people was simply being unreasonable!!

But in fact, Karen Waltz took Arnold Frost's money to provoke Emilia's anger. Then, when Emilia loses her mind, she says something extreme and cause public anger!

As for Karen Waltz, she was just a housewife who did not have a job. At this moment, on account of their common hatred, would there be anyone who would care about whether what she said was accurate or not?

"If you didn't set the purchase price high, would the Leo Group sell it at such a high price?"

Karen Waltz spoke shamelessly again, "You have to lower the price!"

Nonsense!

Absolutely unreasonable!

However, everyone present was mad at Emilia. None of them were actually radical.

Of course, there were also some people who were bewitched and shouted together!

Emilia was speechless!

She clearly knew that the woman in front of him was so rude because she was instigated by someone else!

But what could she do?

Then, Oliver Walker rushed into the crowd and came to the woman who was the most arrogant. He said coldly, "It doesn't matter if the price is lowered or not!"

"You'd better tell me who's behind this, or you'll be the one in jail!"

"Gathering a crowd to cause trouble.... This is not a small crime!"

Emilia frowned. She wanted to dissuade him. After all, Oliver Walker was trying to make a big deal out of this!

Regardless of the truth of this matter, once it got out of hand, Davis Cosmetics would be the one to suffer.

After all, most of the public would side with those who are weaker in the situation.

Of course, what she was most afraid of was that her husband might be used by someone with ill intentions.

She didn't believe that the people from Davis Company or their potential competitors would compete fairly!

In fact, these people were sent by the enemy! bednovel.com

"Bah ..."

Karen Waltz placed her hands on her waist and looked like a hoodlum. "What are you going to do to me?!" She roared crazily, "I represent myself. Do you want to hit me?"

"I'm not afraid of you! I'm standing here to represent those who are disfigured and do not have the ability to afford your masks that are sold at such sky-high prices!"

This clamor was not cowardly at all. It was even tit-for-tat!

This was because this was merely a job for Karen Waltz. Plus, they had more people on their side, and they were naturally not afraid of anyone!

"Can you really represent those who have been disfigured?"

"If that's the case, why don't you just disfigure yourself and instead put on special effects makeup?"

That's right!

Oliver Walker could tell at a glance that the hideous scar on Karen Waltz's face was fake. Although it looked realistic, it was still fake.

She might have been able to hide it from others but she would not be able to hide from his sharp pair of eagle eyes.

Fake?

Emilia frowned and looked over. It didn't seem like it!

If it really was fake, it was enough to prove that this was a conspiracy!

The people at the scene also quieted down. This.....

Something didn't seem right!

They looked at Karen Waltz with strange eyes and then at Oliver Walker with doubt. They could not make up their minds for a moment.

"You..."

"You're talking nonsense!"

Karen Waltz's tone clearly paused for a moment. Then, she subconsciously took a step away from the man in front of her, trying to use her loud voice to hide her guilt. "How dare you slander me! I can sue you for this!!!"

"I have been disfigured and you're looking down on me!!!"

But the next moment, Oliver Walker took a step forward and rushed forward. He grabbed Karen Waltz's chin with one hand and tore at the fake scar with the other!

"Ah ..."

"What are you doing?"

Chapter 500 I Have A Favour To Ask!

"Let... Let go of me..."

"They're trying to hit me!!!!"

"Those from Davis Cosmetics are trying to hit me!!!!"

"..."

Karen Waltz twisted her body frantically, but her head, which was being controlled, could not move at all!

She attacked Oliver Walker on all fours!

Emilia's heart was in her throat!

Oliver Walker was being too arrogant!

If that was really a scar, how was she going to salvage the brand's reputation?

This...

"Let go!"

"You guys are bullying me!"

"Everyone, attack together. We can't watch our own people being bullied!"

"..." bed n o v e l . n e t

At this moment, the crowd surged and an intense conflict erupted!

However, in the next second, Oliver Walker tore off the makeup on Karen Waltz's face at lightning speed and shouted, "All of you have been used. She is a spy sent by our competitor!"

"I hope you can see her true colors now!"

Oliver Walker's voice was like thunder, mixed with the aura of a general. It also had a strong penetrating power and quickly covered the entire scene.

Everyone turned to look at Karen Waltz, only to see that there was no scar on her face.

There was only panic and fear!

Along with the gelatins that stuck to her makeup!

"Damn it!"

"This woman is heartless!"

"Exactly!"

"I've long known that she's not a good person. She's been deliberately stirring up our emotions!"

"Everyone, beat her up together!"

"..."

The next moment, the crowd was enraged!

No one here would like to be treated like a fool.

The people who were provoked by Karen Waltz were either eager to get rid of scars or wanted to get rid of scars for their families.

Therefore, when they realized that they were being used, they became even angrier!

"Everyone, please calm down!"

Emilia quickly shouted through the loudspeaker, "It's illegal to hit her!"

"This kind of person should be punished by the law, not us!"

In an instant, everyone at the scene calmed down!

However, their eyes were filled with anger!

"Miss Davis!!!"

"I really need to ask for a favor from you!!!"

At this moment, a man in his thirties knelt on the ground with his palms together and cried, "My daughter is only ten years old but she was scarred by boiling water!"

"She's autistic now. She doesn't even talk to me or her mother!"

"I... I..."

"She's still a child. There should be a bright future for her!!!!"

The more the man spoke, the more he cried!

Furthermore, he was kneeling on the ground and was continuously begging. "I know that what I'm doing might be wrong but I hope you can understand how it feels to be a parent!"

The atmosphere gradually settled down!

After all, not everyone lost their rationality!

The eyes of the onlookers also revealed a pleading look!

"Miss Davis, please do me a favor!"

"We're all ordinary people. We will never be able to afford it if you sold the mask for 20,000 each!"

"We..."

A wave of desolate guilt filled the entire place!

Everyone's eyes were on Emilia. They hoped that they could seek benefits for themselves or their families through this incident.

All of them here were like this man who was kneeling on the ground. Not everyone could afford a plastic surgery that cost hundreds of thousands.

With these scars on their face, it could actually destroy a person's confidence!

There were a lot of them who would even give up on their lives because of this!

This was the reason why Oliver Walker infused the prescription into a mask and set the price at an extremely low price!
