Chapter 501 How Would You Be Able To Run The Business This Way?

"There must be a misunderstanding here!"

Emilia quickly stepped forward and tried to help the man up. "The price we set is actually not high!"

"The actions of the Leo Group have nothing to do with Davis Cosmetics!"

"This is because we do not have any business deals with the Leo Group!"

All of this news was released by those from the Leo Group only.

She had done her best for the Leo Group. On the contrary, Fernando Walter wanted to put the dirty hat on her head. How could she allow this to happen?

"Miss Davis, I no longer have the courage to get up!"

"Because of my daughter, my wife keeps calling me a useless bastard and wants to divorce me!"

"I can't even protect my own woman. What right do I have to stand up?" The man cried out in despair.

"I know what I'm asking for is too much, but....."

"But ..."

The man's words were filled with the helplessness of a middle-aged man!

He still had to take care of his wife and daughter.

He could no longer see the future in his career, and darkness was the only thing left in his life.

In fact....

Did society only consist of rich people?!

This was the real society!

Men don't shed tears easily! It's just that they haven't been pushed to the brink of being broken.

In fact, Oliver Walker had cried before. He looked at the remains of the soldiers who died in Indiana. Some of them did not even have the time to leave a will.

There were even some corpses that were torn apart!

Who were they?

Who was it for?

Thus--

"Miss Davis, please have mercy and forgive our unreasonable request!"

"Please, Miss Davis!"

"..."

Instantly, more than half of the people present got down on their knees!

If those rich people only wanted to look good, they would not have the trouble of removing scars.
bednovel.net

The ordinary people in front of them represented true helplessness and pain!

"You ... You guys...."

Emilia said with a heavy heart, "Please get up!"

However, no one stood up. They knew that this request was obscene.

But it was their only hope!

They needed a product that was effective enough to remove scars but at a low price!

"I never thought of releasing the actual price of it so early on.

"But today, I'll give everyone a heads-up. The price of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask will not exceed 100 per piece!"

As soon as these words were said, the power was no less than a depth bomb, directly detonating the entire scene!

"What?"

"A hundred for one?"

"It will not be more than that?!"

"..."

These words did not make these despairing people feel any excitement!

They couldn't believe what they had just heard!

From 200,000 each to less than 100 each?

This...

"If You set the price so low, would you still be able to earn any money from it?"

The middle-aged man crying at the beginning gulped, and his eyes were dull.

Perhaps this was the only time the user community worried that the manufacturer would not make money by setting such a low price!

Perhaps it was a stark contrast to the previous price that was set!

With such a low price, everyone would be able to buy them!!!

After all, people experiencing poverty really needed it to remove life-threatening problems! It wasn't for cosmetics use!

"I, Emilia Davis, hereby promise all of you!"

"Everything that I say now is true!"

"You don't have to worry about whether I'll be making a loss. I can only say that I would definitely make a profit from this, and it would be more than enough to cover the cost of manufacturing them."

"The Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask will officially launch in Davis Cosmetics tomorrow!"

"But, I'm hoping that all of you would be able to help me keep this a secret for today."

The main reason why it was not on the market now was that it was not ready yet. They still didn't have enough products in stock yet.

They would be wronged if they ran out of stock and were accused of hunger marketing!

"Sure!!!"

Chapter 502 Social Responsibility of An Entrepreneur

"Miss Davis, thank you!"

"We will definitely keep our mouth shut!"

"..."

Thousands of people at the scene showed gratitude. They believed that with Emilia's identity, she would definitely not lie to them.

Moreover, Davis Cosmetics was a well-known brand back then.

It was only after Emilia left the Davis Group that the quality of the products plummeted!

After everyone left, Karen Waltz was handed over to the security guards. What awaited her was legal punishment!

Not only did she cause trouble, she also slandered the reputation of Davis Cosmetics!

As for Emilia, she felt a heavy responsibility on her shoulders. If it weren't for the petition from thousands of people, she wouldn't have believed that a scar removal product would have such an important social responsibility.

"Phew..."

She took a deep breath, but she could not calm down for a long time.

"What's wrong?" Oliver Walker asked.

In fact, he always knew about this, which was why he had now found a new life goal.

Using the path of traditional medicine to do something truly good for the people!

This was his duty.

It was also the meaning of the existence of the Heavenly Doctor Sect!

"Hubby!"

"I have an idea!"

Emilia frowned, but she did not finish her sentence.

This was because.... Oliver Walker had no obligation to do so!

"What is it?" bednovel.com

Oliver Walker asked with a smile. In fact, he knew what kind of person his wife was.

And now, his wife's thoughts coincided with his!

"I want to change the name of Davis Cosmetics to Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!"

"But, I would need your permission to do so."

"I hope that the Heavenly Sect's prescription can benefit more people!"

Emilia was very nervous. The purpose of changing her name was to completely break away from the current Davis Group.

In addition, she could also fulfill her husband's wish/

In fact, she was an entrepreneur, and she really had a social responsibility!

"Sure!!!"

Oliver Walker nodded. "Do as you wish. I have no objections!"

Perhaps ...

Was this what it meant to be a family?

In fact, if one earned too much money, they would naturally lose the meaning of earning money!

Besides, it wasn't that he didn't want to make money, he just didn't want to ask for an exorbitant price!

"You don't object to it?!"

"Are you really willing to allow me to do so?"

Oliver Walker said affectionately, "As long as you want?it, I have no objections!"

"I only want to be by your side for the rest of my life!"

That's right!

He did not want to leave again!

If America was safe and prosperous, who would be willing to give up their wife and children and run to the uninhabited area of Indiana to live a life of fear every day?

Afterall, he was an ordinary man.

He also had his own selfish desires!

Emilia felt comforted after hearing his words.

She smiled in relief!

This man was like a benefactor in her life, always being tolerant of her willfulness.

At the same time, at the Leo Group!

"Mr. Walter, good news! "

"Under your clever guidance, those ridiculous poor people went to Davis Cosmetics to cause trouble!"
Xue Jiajia said.

"The number of customers in our mall has also increased by five times!"

"There are also the big bosses from Colorado who are also here, hoping to get their hands on the mask."

Fernando Walter listened to the report coming from his secretary.

Then, he smiled and hugged Xue Jiajia's hot body. "Hahahahahaha!!!!"

"When I become the richest man in Colorado, I'll immediately make you mine!"

Xue Jiajia put on a pretentious look. "You're finally willing to lay your cards on the table with that tigress in your house?"

Fernando Walker sneered. "Forget about that old woman!"

As he spoke, he pinched the tender leg under the black stockings!"

Xue Jiajia pouted, "You're so annoying but I like it!"

Chapter 503 The Product That Blew The World's Mind

However, at this moment, a manager ran in in a panic. "Boss... Boss, something bad has happened!"

"According to the reports of the people who went to cause trouble, Emilia has already stated the price. It'll only be sold at 100 per piece!!!"

However, just as he finished speaking, he saw an extremely ambiguous scene in front of him!

He was completely dumbfounded!

Were they doing it in the office?!

Umm....

He wanted to retreat, but he couldn't!

"What?"

Fernando Walter was shocked. "Only a hundred?!"

"Did she get kicked in the head by a donkey?!"

If that was the case, then he was done for!

The customer flow of their shopping mall would definitely plummet, and its reputation would even suffer!

This was like lifting a rock and smashing his own feet!

Xue Jiajia, the mistress who was in a hurry to get to the top, really thought of herself as the boss's wife.
"Perhaps Emilia is just trying to fool those poor peasants."

"Don't worry!"

Such a sentence calmed down Fernando Walter.

He nodded his head! "Yes!"

"What you said makes sense. I don't believe that she would dare to sell it at such a low price!"

How could such a good product be priced so cheaply?

There was only one possibility, and that was that Emilia was fooling those poor bastards who were not to be trifled with!

At the same time, inside the Davis Group!

"Dad!"

William Davis said with a smile. "If you ask me, there's no way Emilia would be able to deal with this public relations crisis."

"The bomb is about to explode. It will only be time before she has to shut down the company and declare bankruptcy once again!"

He told his father everything that had happened!

Micheal Davis clenched his fists and laughed coldly. "It better be so!"

When had he ever suffered such a huge loss?

However, he obviously didn't have the guts to come up with any bad ideas!

After all, Oliver Walker and Emilia were both tough people to deal with!

But now, Fernando Walker and Arnold Frost were both extremely dissatisfied with them too.

Therefore, the best way now was to sit back and watch the tigers fight and be the only winner that gets to reap the benefit in the end.

In fact, the rich and powerful families of the state of Colorado had also been watching this matter closely!

After all, such a product was enough to attract everyone's attention!

The next morning, the stores under Davis Cosmetics had a completely different look and now hung the name of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals. bednove1.com

There was already a queue at the entrance!

"I heard that it's a hundred each!"

"Really?"

"It can't be real, right?"

"The Leo Group is selling them at 200,000 each!"

"That's right. The price difference is two thousand times. How is that possible?"

"..."

However, when the stores opened for business and announced the price, it caused an uproar in the entire state of Colorado!

It was really 100 each!

"This is clearly a company with a clear conscience!!!"

"If they don't bloom from this, something must have gone wrong in the heavens!!!"

"Miss Davis didn't lie to us!"

In fact, everyone in Colorado had seen the effect of the mask. This was all thanks to the Leo Group who has been advertising it for them.

It covered the entire state of Colorado!

"Fortunately, we prepared a lot. Otherwise, we would have sold out!"

Emilia said with a smile. In fact, the popularity was within her expectations, but she never expected it to be so popular.

In just one day, there was still a long queue at the entrance of the Heavenly Sect's direct store even when it was dark.

There were people who needed it to remove their scars!

There were also women who wanted to stay young!

They were also some who wanted to buy these as gifts for their wives and girlfriends!

The reputation of Davis Cosmetics also rose rapidly within a day!

Oliver Walker laughed.

Emilia nodded with a smile in her beautiful eyes. "By the way, Hubby, there's a press conference tonight. Would you like to come on stage with me?"

Who wouldn't want to do businesses like this that could bring money and reputation?

Who wouldn't be jealous?

"Me?" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

Chapter 504 Some People Just Never Learn

"I won't show my face. I'll wait for you backstage!"

At night, in the Leo Group...

"Damn it!"

"What is Emilia up to?!"

"Doesn't she want to earn money?"

Feeling furious, Fernando Walter smashed everything in the office!

Crazy!

He was really crazy!

In just one day, the number of customers in the Leo Mall had decreased by more than half.

According to the current trend, it would only become worse. There was no sign that this situation would get better soon!

More importantly, those who had spent all their money on the goods had gathered in groups at the entrance of the Leo Mall, asking for a refund!

He had invested so much money!

The product that was originally prepared to surpass the Heavenly Dragon Group and become the richest man in the state of Colorado had actually become a disaster that would definitely bankrupt him!

Who could accept such a disparity?

After venting his anger, he immediately prepared a car and rushed to the Grand Canyon Hotel, which was hosting the press conference!

He absolutely had to do so!!!

This was cutting off his path of survival!

Such a situation not only drove Fernando Walter crazy, but also drove him mad!!!!

Fernando Walter, the Davis, and Arnold Frost were stunned!

At this moment, there were already many dignitaries gathered in the Grand Canyon Hotel!

While they were still preparing, the audience seats were already full.

"Mr Frost, please don't worry!"

Emma Adams smiled. "Our products have also been put into production. Moreover, according to the current crazy trend on the market, we can even save on publicity costs.

"When the time comes, the price will be lower than that of Emilia's. It will definitely occupy the market and force Heavenly Doctor Sect to a dead end!"

Arnold Frost's expression was gloomy as he said, "When will our product enter the market?"

Emilia's pricing had indeed caught him off guard.

Even his uncle, Leon Williams, came to him and asked about why he didn't offer to work with Emilia.

How could he tell the truth?

Emma Adams sighed. "The procedures are a little complicated, but it shouldn't take more than a few days."

As a competitor, how could she feel at peace when she saw Emilia making money?

"Alright!!!!" bednove l .o r g

Arnold Frost's eyes darted around for a moment before he said in a low voice, "Later, when the press conference starts, you would have to say..."

What was his motive?

That was to force Emilia into a dead end and then get her!

How could he watch Emilia climb to the top of the state of Colorado again?

"Mr. Frost, leave this to me."

"Even if you don't say it, I won't let her off!"

Emma Adams's eyes flashed with a cold light.

People in the same trade were enemies. No one wanted to see their own benefits being taken away by others.

Especially when it was a company that she had knocked down from its pedestal. Wasn't this a slap to her face?

At the same time, Oliver Walker overheard the conversation clearly.

This was because he was only a few seats away from them!

Did they really not take him seriously?

But that's right, who would take him seriously!

This was good. He could still have some leisure time to himself.

There was no doubt about how Emma Adams obtained the formula.

The formula that she got was the authentic one too.

However, those were just a list of the ingredients used.

There were no specific ratios or measurements written on it.

If Emma Adams could still come up with the same formula, then the prescription of Heavenly Doctor Sect would naturally not be so valuable.

With these prescriptions, the difference of merely one gram would make a huge difference.

Sometimes, adding a little more of a certain medicinal ingredient would completely change its effect!

After the two of them whispered to each other, Emma Adams looked embarrassed because she saw Oliver Walker sitting next to her.

This....

At the same time, the gazes of the surrounding people also turned over!

With a gloating expression!

Although Oliver Walker was a good-for-nothing, it was still rare that he got the attention of Emilia!!!

Emma Adams and Arnold Frost were just badmouthing Emilia in front of Oliver Walker.

This felt strange.

"Humph..."

Arnold Frost quickly calmed down, but he stubbornly provoked, "I knew that you're here, but I said it on purpose. What are you going to do about it?"

Chapter 505 You're Only Here Because Of Your Wife

In fact, Arnold Frost really didn't care about Oliver Walker before. Otherwise, even if his brain was cramped, he wouldn't have said such wicked words.

However, after realizing it, he did not feel embarrassed at all. Instead, he became even more unyielding.

After all, he could not lose face in front of his love rival and a live-in son-in-law!

The people at the scene were also watching a good show!

Arnold Frost had just returned to the country and had no idea how arrogant Oliver Walker was.

He definitely wasn't the good-for-nothing since he dared to ruin the Davis's banquet!

"If you insist on making a fool of yourself, I can't stop you, right?"

Oliver Walker was not angry. Instead, he teased, "However, let me give you a piece of advice. Don't be too arrogant!"

Such a humiliating warning made the atmosphere tense up!

As expected, this kid was a fearless person!

Those from the Davis Group did not welcome him.

Plus, this kid was called a wild dog and from this, it could be seen how annoying he was!

Slam!

Arnold Frost slammed the table angrily. "You... Are you even qualified to talk to me like this?"

"In terms of strength, you are simply trash to me!!!"

He was so arrogant!

The young master of Frost Corporation!

The general manager of Hongri Mall!

The main reason why he could be so arrogant and domineering was because his uncle was the richest man in the state of Colorado.

However, even with such a prominent identity, he could not woo Emily. Forget it!

After all, she had the title of the number one goddess in the state of Colorado!

It was understandable that a beauty like her would be cold and aloof!

But...

Who the f*ck was Oliver Walker?

his was a f*cking gigolo that he hated to the core, yet he had married and had a daughter with the goddess that Arnold Frost had been pursuing since he was in school but never managed to get his hands on!!!

How could he accept this?!

Just the thought of it filled his stomach with anger, not to mention this hateful fellow even reported him for dangerous driving. This man caused the authorities to revoke his driver's license, shot him in the leg and caused him to be in pain for an entire day!

"In terms of strength?"

"Heh ..."

Oliver Walker smiled contemptuously and said, "What right do you have to say such words that offend your superiors?"

"I drive a state-owned car and live in the Sovereign."

"What about you?"

Initially, he did not want to argue, but the press conference was about to begin. If he did not make this fellow kneel on his knees, he might cause trouble later!

"You..."

Arnold Frost was so angry that his face turned purple, and he was instantly speechless!

In fact, everyone present was also completely dumbfounded!

Oliver Walker was definitely just a pretty boy but he drove a state-of-the-art car and lived in the most prestigious property in Colorado!!!

No one could compare to him!

Even Leon Williams was obviously a level lower, let alone Arnold Frost!

"Those aren't yours!!!"

Emma Adams mocked sourly, "You're a lousy driver, and you even have a sense of superiority. Who gave you the confidence to do so?"

To be honest, who wouldn't want to ride the L5?

This wasn't a matter of money. No matter how much money one had, they wouldn't be able to buy them.

Therefore, there was no doubt that this was jealousy!

"And you!"

"You'd better use your brains while working. Don't be fooled by others!"

"Or else, you would just end up like Fernando Walter."

"Fernando Walter is now suffering because of his own stupid mistake."

As soon as he said that, Arnold Frost said angrily, "What's wrong with Fernando Walter?!" bednov e l . c o m

"He's not as good as my uncle, but he's the second best in colorado. Do you have the right to judge him?"

In fact, the dignitaries of the state of Colorado were already used to such words.

Ever since this kid returned, nothing has been normal about him!

There was nothing strange about him saying such crazy words!

"You wouldn't believe me if I told you that the financial chain of the Leo Group is broken and that it's about to go bankrupt." Oliver Walker said with a smile."

Forget about Arnold Frost, was there anyone here who would actually believe him?

Oliver Walker was left with nothing but contempt!

"You have to know your limits. You have to understand what kind of occasion this is!"

""You also have to know your identity. It's best not to say anything that you shouldn't say, so as not to become a laughing stock!"

"You're just basking in your wife's glory, or else you wouldn't be qualified to sit next to me," Arnold Frost said proudly.

In fact, most people thought so.

Chapter 506 It Wasn't Me!!!

After all, everyone present were dignitaries!

Which one of them didn't have a net worth of more than a few hundred million?

Letting a pretty boy sit in the middle of the main seat was really a mockery to them!

"Mr Williams is here!!!"

At this moment, Leon Williams, the richest man in Colorado was here! It was indeed unexpected!

Therefore, everyone immediately stood up and prepared to exchange a few pleasantries to show their status!

Meanwhile, Oliver Walker was still sitting firmly in Aiden Wilson's seat. He did not like socializing!

There was no one worthy of him pretending to be polite!

"My uncle is here, and you're still not getting up?"

Arnold Frost was furious.

In his opinion, Oliver Walker's actions were simply against humanity.

His uncle was the richest man in Colorado!

Who wouldn't be polite when they saw him?

"Him?"

"He should be here soon!"

The next moment, Leon Williams walked over to his seat while talking to the people around him.

However, due to how his attention has been occupied by those around him, he naturally did not notice that Oliver Walker was sitting next to him!

At the same time, Arnold Frost quickly reversed the truth and said, "Uncle!"

"This kid has no respect for you. He even spoke ill of you just now!!!"

He was at his wit's end!

After all, Oliver Walker was really a mad dog!

He didn't leave any way out when he spoke or did things!

This made him very unhappy!

So what?

His uncle was the richest man in the world!

Would it be difficult for them to deal with this kid?!

The people present were also watching the show! bednovel.com

This was getting interesting!

As the leader of the state, all of them stood up to greet Leon Williams as a sign of respect.

However, this gigolo remained in his seat, yet he still dared to speak ill of Leon Williams?

This man was crazy!

He was absolutely crazy!

If Leon Williams were to get angry, he would not be able to hold the press conference tonight!

The atmosphere became tense!

They all knew that Leon Williams would definitely be angry in order to protect his status.

In fact, when Leon Williams saw Oliver Walker, he shivered all over, followed by endless fear!

After that, it was a towering rage!

He repeatedly warned his nephew not to offend anyone.

Even if his nephew were to be an idiot and offended someone, he could have offended anyone else other than this VIP whom he had to bow down to!!!

Slap~

The next second, the crisp sound of a slap resounded throughout the entire arena!

The one who ended up being beaten was Arnold Frost!

This scene was also something that no one had expected!

Arnold Frost's ears buzzed, and he was dumbfounded. He widened his eyes and covered his face in grievance. He asked in a daze, "Uncle, I'm not the one who said those things! It was him!!!"

He really felt wronged!

Being slapped in front of everyone, this had embarrassed him!!!

However, the person who hit him was Leon Williams which made him feel even more wronged!

Slap!

After another slap, Leon Williams shouted in a trembling voice, "You little bastard, what have I thought you?!"

"Shouldn't you reconsider your words and actions before acting on it?!"

"Apologize to Mr. Walker!"

The moment he said that, everyone was petrified!

The mocking gazes turned dull!

What....

What was going on?

Forget about Arnold Frost, even the spectators around them were lost.

CHAPTER 507 WHO IS THIS MYSTERIOUS MAN?

"Uncle, I'm your biological nephew!"

Arnold Frost covered his burning cheeks and shouted aggrievedly, "How can you make me apologize to him?"

Unwilling!

Dissatisfied!

He became even angrier!

"You little... Little bastard!"

"Are you trying to anger me to death today?"

Leon Williams's tone began to tremble. He went up and kicked him, shouting angrily, "You've been studying abroad for nearly ten years, and the only thing that you've learned is to do this?!"

Most important and wealthy people liked to keep a low profile!

He did not dare to expose Oliver Walker's identity outside!

However, his nephew was stubborn and did not know what was good for him!

"I'll teach you a lesson on behalf of your mother today!"

"I must kill you!"

Leon Williams's abnormal behavior shocked everyone!

No...

Was there a need to go to such an extent?

Even if Arnold Frost was spouting nonsense regardless of the occasion, was it really appropriate to make a mountain out of a molehill?

The key was that the richest man did not care about his upbringing and even cursed in public. It really shocked them.

However, if they found out about Oliver Walker's background, they would not be able to survive, let alone be shocked!

"Uncle... Stop hitting me!!!"

"I'm your biological nephew!"

"Ah... It hurts..."

At this moment, Arnold Frost's wails and howls could be heard in the banquet hall that was supposed to be a high-end venue and was filled with all the famous people in the state of Colorado.

Most importantly, Arnold Frost did not dare to run!

Frost Corporation could not be considered a company. It could only be said that Leon Williams had single-handedly promoted it. bednovel.com

It was only because Leon Williams had achieved high achievements that the others got to such a status as well.

"Forget it!"

Oliver Walker waved his hand. "This isn't the right occasion to educate young kids."

To educate young kids?!"

In fact, Arnold Frost was the same age as Oliver Walker!

Did this guy really think that Leon Williams was punishing his nephew because of him?

This clearly had nothing to do with him!

Oliver Walker really knew how to f*cking take advantage of others!

Especially Arnold Frost. After hearing this, he was even more furious!

Damn wild dogs!

However, the next moment, Leon Williams swallowed a mouthful of saliva and said in a trembling voice, "Alright... Alright..."

He was almost scared silly!

How dare he say anything else?

At this moment, sitting next to Oliver Walker was like sitting on pins and needles!

Could he have asked to change seat?!

What if he offended a big shot?

Perhaps this was what it meant to accompany a tiger when accompanying a king?!

However, what he did not know was that Oliver Walker was a very approachable person. It was just that his status was too high that everyone had to look up to him, giving others a sense of inferiority!

Everyone present was stunned!

Leon Williams was being so obedient!!!

Why did it feel so strange?

Could it be that this pretty boy had a powerful background?

But, how powerful could he be that even Leon Williams had to listen to him?

If he was still fine after driving a state car, living in the Sovereign and causing a ruckus in the Davis Banquet Hall...

Thinking about it carefully, it was extremely terrifying!

Could it be that Oliver Walker was the one who helped Emilia return to Davis when the Davis Group went public and was controlled by a mysterious person?

F*ck!

In an instant, this thought filled everyone's mind!

Especially Emma Adams. Her graceful and elegant demeanor as a noble lady instantly disappeared!

It was as if she had fallen into an ice cellar, and she kept trembling!

On the other hand, Arnold Frost was furious!

Damn it, if Oliver Walker was so capable, why would he need to be a live-in son-in-law?

He still needed to rack his brains to get his wife back to Davis?

Chapter 508 The Final Blow

All these are just nonsense!

Just as the audience fell silent, Emilia finally appeared!

After all, she was the number one goddess in the state of Colorado. Under the spotlight, she was still incredibly beautiful.

Especially the calm but confident smile on her face. The once proud daughter of heaven had once again returned to the business world of Colorado!

At this moment, no one could stop her!

"Hello, everyone!"

"I'm very grateful to the Chamber of Commerce of the State of Colorado for giving me this opportunity to launch the new product launch of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals at the Grand Hotel in California!"

As Emilia spoke, she was actually looking at her husband, who was sitting quietly below the stage. "Although there were many twists and turns in the process, fortunately, everything went smoothly. I would like to sincerely thank everyone who supported me!"

After the graceful opening speech, Leon Williams took the lead in clapping, making it sound like there was thunder coming from the audience.

Actually, he was the one who initiated this press conference!

Therefore, many of the people who really came were doing this for Leon Williams's sake. Of course, there were also many people who harbored ill intentions or were curious.

"Ms. Davis, I would like to know if the current Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals is still related to the Davis Group?"

"How did you return to Davis Group?"

A reporter asked impatiently.

After all, a sudden change in a company's name would either mean a new life or death.

Most people were more concerned about how she got back to the Davis Group.

After all, eight years ago, after being expelled from Davis, Emilia had lost the bargaining chip to make a comeback.

But now, she was standing in the spotlight again!

However, no one from the Davis Group came. This was obviously a big problem.

"Now, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals is no longer related to the Davis Group."

"I have full ownership!"

"As for how I returned to Davis, it's a long story, but it would all be because of my dear husband." Emilia said with a bright smile on her face.

As soon as she said this, everyone was shocked again!

Oliver Walker was the one who helped Emilia?!

Why did these words sound so harsh?

Why was it so unrealistic?

Arnold Frost, in particular, could not help but glance at Oliver Walker, who was sitting next to him, with a belly full of anger!

F*ck!

They had come all the way here to watch them show their love for each other?

The more Emilia expressed her goodwill to Oliver Walker, the more upset he felt.

How was he worse than Oliver Walker?

Why wasn't he the one who was doted on by Emilia?!

Why was it this useless man?!

Immediately after, there were many more questions, and Emilia answered them fluently!

It was about to end, but Emma Adams didn't have the courage to make things difficult for the sake of Arnold Frost because he had been beaten up. bednovel.com

But....

At this moment, an extremely discordant voice resounded throughout the entire arena!

"Emilia, has your conscience been eaten by a dog?"

"Give me back my money!!!"

In an instant, everyone looked over.

It was the furious Fernando Walter.

Fernando Walker roared with a ferocious face, "She's a liar. She caused my liquid funds of more than two billion yuan to go down the drain!"

Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was on the rise but the Leo Group was now truly crippled!

The situation was getting more and more intense, causing him, who was originally prepared to make a lot of money, to suffer a head-on blow.

This time, he was ready to pull Emilia into the gutters along with him and so that she would suffer too!

"Hehe..."

"The Leo Group has been scammed!"

"I heard that the agency fee alone is 500 million yuan. There's also the initial purchase funds and the overwhelming advertisements two days ago!"

"Losing more than two billion is completely reasonable!"

"..."

The crowd laughed gloatingly!

Then, he looked at the stage with a mocking smile in his eyes.

Emilia might have risen from ash, but she was also tainted with a stain that could never be washed away!

Emma Adams was especially happy!

She couldn't wait for Fernando Walter to wipe out the rapidly rising reputation of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals overnight!

After all, the press conference was attended by many mainstream media outlets!

If they didn't give any reasonable explanation, this news would be the headlines for all of the newspapers in Colorado.

This piece of negative news was definitely a devastating blow to the reborn Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical!

Chapter 509 Always Frame The Others

"Mr. Walter!"

There was no surprise on Emilia's face. Instead, she said firmly, "Please don't slander me. When did I cheat you of more than two billion?"

In fact, she was quite angry as well. This kind of person really wouldn't shed tears until he saw the coffin!

She had called Fernando Walter once, and her husband and her had gone to the Leo Group separately, which meant that she had informed Fernando Walter three times about how that agency contract is invalid.

They even offered to compensate him!

She had never taken this money before, so she had already done her best!

At this moment, why would she feel guilty?

There was no doubt that the reason why the Leo Group had fallen to such a state was entirely due to Fernando Walter.

Fernando Walter's personal greed!

"Hah!!!!"

"I just signed a contract with you and you took my exclusive agency fee of 500 million!"

"There's also the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask that costs 100,000 per piece. It cost me more than a billion yuan, including the post-production publicity."

"I have just finished everything and didn't even have time to earn money, when you announced the selling price of 100 each!!!"

"Isn't this blatant deception?"

"This contract in black and white is irrefutable evidence. Do you have the balls to confront me?!"

What kind of demeanor did Fernando Walter still need now?

He was about to go bankrupt, and he was about to become a mad dog!

At the same time, Emma Adams also stood up and said, "In fact, we all know that the Leo Group is the agent of the Heavenly Doctor Beauty Mask."

"You are breaking the rules of the industry by doing this. It is shameless."

"You have to pay legal responsibility!" bednovel. org

Of course, she was happy to see it happen. Therefore, she would stand up and speak at the appropriate time.

After all, the popularity of the scar removal mask had already been completely hyped up!

As the leader of the cosmetics market in Colorado, she naturally did not want to see this cake being swallowed by the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

If the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals were to fall, she would be the biggest beneficiary!

Emilia then said calmly, "May I ask if I was the one who signed the contract with you?"

She was naturally not afraid of others making things difficult for her.

She didn't feel guilty at all because she didn't do anything wrong from the beginning to the end.

"This is just a game that you Davis are playing because you aren't the one who signed the contract!!!"

Fernando Walter angrily rebuked, "Could it be that Micheal Davis, as the chairman of the Davis Group, can't decide on the matters of the subsidiary company?"

"Now, you're all done taking everything from me, and you've turned around to continue earning black-hearted money!"

"Aren't you afraid of being struck by lightning?"

"A week ago, the management rights of Davis Cosmetics no longer belong to the Davis Group," Emilia informed him coldly.

"I have told you more than once, but you refused to listen. Even yesterday, you chased me out of the Leo Group and still held onto this agency contract that has already been deemed fake."

"Do you admit to this?"

She had warned him more than once!

This was the reason why she could stand here and confront him with confidence!

Furthermore, the responsibility was not on her!

Micheal Davis was at fault and Fernando Walter was at fault

Both of them were blinded by greed!

"Bullshit!"

Fernando Walyer roared in a heart-wrenching manner. Then, he walked up to the podium and said to everyone present shamelessly, "I've never received any notice that this agency contract is invalid!"

"Mr. Williams, as the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of California, you have to uphold justice for me!"

He immediately denied it!

There was no hesitation at all!

He knew that if he admitted that Emilia had warned him three times, this would only be his personal problems!

He also knew that even if the Leo Group didn't go bankrupt, they would only be left with a small chunk of the company. Therefore, the main purpose of this trip was to frame them.

In any case, Emilia had only warned him verbally, but she had never had any evidence!

Facing such a shameless person, Emilia frowned!

In fact, even if she did not respond to this matter, she would not be able to be traced back to her. However, it would definitely cause a devastating blow to the reputation of Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

Once a new company gets surrounded with darkness, it would be very difficult to clean up.

Chapter 510 Richest Man, Prettiest Girl, Useless Gigolos

Fernando Walker deserved it, but she was the one who was wronged!

For a moment, everyone's eyes were on Leon Williams. If this matter was not handled well, even the richest man in Colorado would find it difficult to convince the public.

Leon Williams, on the other hand, frowned. He naturally knew that with Oliver Walker's identity, he would not do such dirty things, but...

Everything depended on evidence!

Emma Adams pressured him again. "Mr. Williams, you're a respected senior in the business world of Colorado. You're also the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the state. This matter has a huge impact."

The business world has always been like this.

When it came to their own interests, even if there were some unconfirmed scandals from their competitors, they would exaggerate the scandal like a vicious dog and even turn it into a real scandal!

As for those whose interests were not involved, they would try their best to just stay out of trouble.

This was the way of survival!

Emma Adams's words were even more domineering. She accused this undecided scandal as the established truth.

Leon Williams stood up and said, "Please pay attention to your wording. There is no clear truth yet that points to the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals."

"You can eat whatever you want but you can't just speak as you please. You have to be responsible for your own words."

Such words made Emma Adams laugh coldly. She said sharply, "Mr. Williams, can I take it that you're siding with Emilia?"

"Rumors have it that nine years ago, when Emilia was unmarried and you were in the process of divorce, you pursued her crazily!"

"Are you rekindling your old feelings now, or did you and Emilia reach some kind of secret agreement?"

This.....

You should never mention such scandals in an official event!

But now?

Emma Adams was throwing out vicious words.

The intention of digging up such old news was obvious. It pointed to the ambiguous relationship between Emilia and Leon Williams.

"You..."

Leon Williams's expression turned extremely ugly!

This was tearing apart his old scar!

He had indeed done such a thing in the past, but now, even if he had the heart, he did not have the guts!

Who was Oliver Walker?

This conversation also made the people present watch the show with relish.

Of course, Emma Adams was willing to offend Leon Williams to help Fernando Walter.

Fernando Walter's purpose here was quite obvious.

Emma Adams would benefit from this too.

"Don't slander me!"

"I have a clean relationship with Mr Williams!!!"

She had never expected that Emma Adams would turn into a crazy dog with jealousy!

Trampling on her innocence like this!

It would be strange if she wasn't angry!

Oliver Walker, who was sitting in his seat, had a murderous look in his eyes!

Misfortune comes from the mouth!

This stupid woman was still showing off her ignorant knowledge!

"HAHAHAHAHAHAH!!!!"

Fernando Walter sneered angrily, "Is there any adulterous couple in this world who would say that they are not innocent?"

"Not a single ghost would actually believe that you are innocent!"

"I don't believe that you can return to the Davis board of directors because of that good-for-nothing gigolo. Do you dare to say that Leon Williams is not behind this?"

Such accusations instantly caused an uproar!

That's right!

As an abandoned daughter and an abandoned son-in-law, what ability did Emilia have to return to Davis?

They even got to separate Davis Cosmetics from the Davis Group? bednovel.com

This time, it was going to be lively!

It would definitely be the front page headline tomorrow!

Just the thought of the number one goddess of the state of Colorado having an affair with the richest man in Colorado while raising a useless gigolo was f*cking exciting!
