Chapter 51 Jessica And William Davis

The fact that Emilia was kicked out of the company, Williams Davis was definitely the culprit behind it.

But, Emilia's father was also to blame. If Isaac Davis hadn't left something in his hands, how would it be so successful?

When Emilia was first kicked out of the company, it shocked the entire state. This also affected Davis hugely.

Fortunately, Emilia left behind a strong foundation for the Davis which allowed them to survive through those difficult times.

"Big brother!"

Jessica Wright Davis had a disgusted look in her eyes as she asked, "Do you want me to give James Floss a call so that Emilia and that little sh*t would be kicked out of the hospital?"

As one of the younger girls in the family, she had been living in the shadows of Emilia.

Now that everything was different, she wanted to take revenge.

"Well, that's not very nice of you!"

William Davis smiled as he said, "No matter what, the blood of Davis runs in Olivia Walker.

"Eight years ago, when we acted ruthless, most of the people felt unhappy about it.

"But this time, we should be more generous. Since Emilia has the money, she shall continue spending it."

If he remembered correctly, Olivia Walker had RH-negative blood. This type of blood was rare.

It wasn't wrong for him to say that it was one in a million.

Leukemia was not a deadly disease, but if Olivia was the one who got it, it would be deadly.

This was because it was extremely difficult for her to find a suitable bone marrow. Even if they had the money to, what could they do?

Wouldn't she be just waiting for death to arrive?

However, if he was the one who got involved, the entire scenario would be different. They might even end up being judged for what they did.

Technically speaking, he was Olivia Walker's uncle.

"Big brother! You're so wise!"

Jessica Wright Davis nodded her head as she chuckled, "We shall be generous for once and let her get away with it this time."

Emilia was no longer a threat to them.

For the past 8 years, they have already steadied their position in the company.

However, she still felt uncomfortable that Emilia was now loaded and could allow Olivia to stay in a VIP ward.

In fact, no matter what happened to Emilia, Jessica still considered her a clown.

It wasn't an issue of whether or not they went after her.

Suddenly, an evil smile appeared on the face of William Davis as he scoffed, "We can be ruthless, but that doesn't mean I can't torture her.

"Emilia has taken away all of my spotlight for the past 20 years, and she took all of the love from our grandmother.

"So now....she shall be living in my shadows for the rest of her life."

With that said, he walked out of the house.

Their niece was admitted to the hospital. Even if they were not directly related, wasn't it still a little mean if they didn't pay her a 'visit'?

Jessica Wright Davis wanted to follow, but she decided against it. It would be better to torture her one by one instead of doing it at the same time. What fun would she have left then in the future?

Hotel Colorado was one of the properties that belonged to Leon Williams.

He had already given the instruction to his men that if Oliver Walker entered any of his properties, he would have to be informed.

This was to ensure that he could grab all the opportunities.

"Mr. Walker, I have already got our main chef to prepare the dishes.

"The taste and ingredients used will definitely be the best. I can promise you..."

Before Leon Williams could finish his sentence, Oliver Walker shot a cold look at him and said, "My wife is hungry. Could you please hurry up?"

It was not like he wouldn't pay for the food.

Plus, with his status, he had to be cautious of people's ill intentions.

Although Leon Williams had been nothing but nice to him ever since his return to Colorado...

This only proved that Leon Williams was a qualified businessman.

Leon Williams knew how to give favor, but Oliver Walker hated these people the most.
