Chapter 511 Wouldn't It be Nice Staying Alive?

Leon Williams and Emilia fell silent! bednovel.com

This was because the more they explained it, the more chaotic it would be!

If someone intentionally spread the news, they would still be quite suspicious.

But just as everyone was waiting to watch the show, Oliver Walker stood up and said, "Is there anything else?"

"I need concrete evidence!"

He was furious!

His eyes have turned cold.

Family was his bottom line!

But now, this group of people had chosen to do whatever it took for the sake of benefits!

"Mr Walker, I..."

Leon Williams panicked. If Oliver Walker did not believe him, then he...

It was completely unimaginable!

Oliver Walker smiled indifferently and waved his hand, indicating that Leon Williams did not have to say anything!

He naturally knew what kind of person his wife was!

He also knew that even if Leon Williams had the heart, he did not have the guts!

Arnold Frost was dumbfounded!

After he went abroad, could it be that his uncle had an inexplicable relationship with the woman he had been chasing for a long time?

This made him very unhappy. He kept feeling that he had been cuckolded by his own uncle!

That kind of feeling was simply worse than eating sh*t!

"Humph..."

Fernando Walter was so anxious that he didn't care about anything anymore. He said coldly, "You pretty boy, your head has turned green!!!"

"Do you really think that your wife would fall in love with a good-for-nothing?"

"It's time to wake....."

However, before he could finish his sentence, Oliver Walker slapped him, stunning everyone!

Boom --

Fernando Walter's body flew five meters away!

He didn't even have the time to scream before he stopped moving!

Emilia frowned. This ...

Why do these people always have to force her husband to fight them?

Wouldn't it be great to stay alive?

This scene stunned everyone present!

All of them were completely dumbfounded!

It was simple and violent, without any twists and turns!

Emma Adams, in particular, was dumbfounded!

"So....."

"What about you guys? You always think that I'm a good-for-nothing gigolo!"

"Alright!"

"Then that's it!"

Oliver Walker smiled like a grim reaper. "Well, I won't reason with you because I feel that it's easier to convince people with my fists and it solves the problem."

That smile caused everyone to suck in a cold breath!

Damn it! Was there anything that this gigolo wouldn't do?!

However, Oliver Walker's violence had long been deeply rooted in people's hearts!

Ever since he came back, dealing with George Johnson and then Davis, there seemed to be nothing that this madman did not dare to do.

The key was that he was still fine until now!

It was too inconceivable!

"Hmmm?"

Oliver Walker patted his head and walked to Emma Adams. He asked in the most humble tone, "You seemed to have a lot to say just now?"

The atmosphere at the scene was filled with a cold and awe-inspiring aura!

Emma Adams couldn't help but shiver. She said, "I ... I..."

"Uh... You... You'd better not do anything rash!"

"This is a business matter and we have to deal with it rationally!!!"

Her body unconsciously retreated, and she was panicking!

This lunatic really dared to do anything!

"Oh?"

"That's strange," Oliver Walker said jokingly. "When my wife was trying to reason with you, you tried to frame her."

"But now that I'm willing to deal with it with my fist, you have suddenly reverted it to a business matter?"

"Sure!"

"Very good!"

"In that case, I'll say it here. Whoever dares to play dirty with us, I'll use business methods to make them bankrupt overnight!"

"Whoever dares to compete with my fists, I'll make sure that they won't be able to see the sun tomorrow morning!"

Chapter 512 The Clown Has Left The Conversation

When the cold words fell, the entire place fell silent!

Arrogance!

Impudence!

Contempt!

If they didn't know his true identity, they wouldn't know how powerful he was!

But damn it; he was just a pretty boy with good martial arts!

Leon Williams's face darkened. Although Oliver Walker had been angry before, he had never been so angry!

It was obvious that no man could take this kind of thing!

The people from the Chamber of Commerce of Colorado were really digging their own graves!

"Also, this is the recording of that day. My wife was at the Leo Group. She was kind enough to tell you the truth, but she was rudely chased away!"

Oliver Walker walked onto the stage, took out his phone, and turned on the recording function!

"Really?" asked Emilia in a low voice.

She had forgotten to leave any evidence.

After all, Fernando Walter couldn't win against her even if he sued her, but she had forgotten about public opinion.

"Of course it's true!"

Oliver Walker said with a smile, "A person should always have a trick up his sleeve!"

The next moment, the sound system in the venue began to play the recording!

The conversation was clear without any editing!

"Mr. Walker, let me remind you again that Davis Cosmetics is no longer affiliated with the Davis Group!"

"And the agency agreement you signed with Micheal Davis is invalid!"

"But even so, I'm still willing to bear your losses!"

Fernando Walter's voice then appeared, "Damn it! I knew that you would play such a trick, but I will never fall for it."

"He signed the contract. I will never believe you!!!"

"..."

Fernando Walker then said, "Get lost!"

"Someone! Get her out of here!!!"

"..."

Emilia's attitude during this conversation was extremely polite!

On the contrary, Fernando Walter cursed at her again and again!

His attitude was extremely bad!

The recording proved that Emilia was not lying. She had indeed communicated with them in advance and personally went to the Leo Group to warn them. It could be said that she was full of sincerity.

But in the end, she was kicked out of the company.

"Everyone!"

Leon Williams said coldly, "Now that we have the recording, the truth is out. You can all shut up about it."

"Fernando Walter had it coming. I am ashamed of myself after seeing how generous Miss Davis is."

That's right!

How many people in business were upright and aboveboard?

However, Emilia did it with a clear conscience!

It was clearly not her fault, but she was still willing to bear the losses of the wrong party. Even if they were to nitpick, no one would not be able to find any fault!

"I don't want to pursue this matter!"

Oliver Walker smiled indifferently. "Since you've already said that you want to use business methods to solve the problem, I'm afraid that you'll have to deal with it."

"So, I would like to ask Mr. Williams, as the president of the Chamber of Commerce of the State of Colorado, what do you think we should do with Fernando Walter?"

"How should Fernando Walter be punished for slandering the brand image of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical?!"

He did not want to make things difficult for himself!

But why should a wife bear the grievance of being framed?

It was not that he was not magnanimous but that he had to deal with Fernando Walter.

There was no need to be magnanimous for someone like Fernando Walter!

Moreover, today was his wife's day to establish a firm foothold in the business world of Colorado. Naturally, he had to warn all of these monkeys once and for all.

Otherwise, in the future, any Tom, Dick, or Harry would come and provoke him as they pleased.

"According to the rules, the Leo Group will naturally be kicked out of the Chamber of Commerce in the State of Colorado!!!"

"I don't think any one of you would have any objections to this," Leon Williams said coldly.

Everyone present knew what it meant to be kicked out of the Chamber of Commerce!

Such a punishment also announced the fact that the bankruptcy of the Leo Group was a foregone conclusion!

He didn't even have the chance to struggle!

Everyone present shook their heads. No one was willing to sacrifice their lives for Fernando Walter, who was no longer useful.

Especially Emma Adams, who was trembling at this moment!

However, there are times when things that you are worried about most would inevitably happen.

Oliver Walker spoke again. "I think Ms. Emma Adams has a unshakable responsibility in this, too, right?"

"We are born as a human, not a beast. You have to be responsible for your words and deeds!"

"So either you show me the evidence or give us a satisfactory apology!!"

Chapter 513 Doing the Unimaginable

When his powerful words resounded throughout the venue, everyone present witnessed Oliver Walker's unyielding attitude.

He wasn't going to let this go!

But, what reason did Oliver Walker have to back down?

"You..."

Emma Adams frowned. She wanted to refute him, but she thought of Fernando Walter.

Now that Fernando Walter has left the scene, she could only lower her head and apologize. "I'm sorry."

"I was wrong!"

"It's my fault for..."

Apologize?

A woman of Emma Adams's status was naturally arrogant. It was indeed difficult for her to apologize in front of so many people.

But in fact, there was no better way!

"Don't say useless things like such. I don't care. I just want to see how you're going to punish yourself!"
Oliver Walker said jokingly.

Apologize?

Perhaps in Emma Adams's eyes, she had been truly embarrassed.

But to him, Emma Adams's apology was worthless!

If an apology was useful, why would they need these people?

"You..."

Emma Adams was driven into a corner. She did not feel good at all. She did not want to follow Fernand Walter's footsteps.

She wouldn't have to be bankrupt like him, right?

She was speechless!

However, with Oliver Walker's crazy behavior, she might really end up in the same state!

"Hubby, forget it!"

"It didn't cause me any losses, after all!" Emilia frowned.

In fact, there was actually no other way!

After all, she had returned to the business world. If she forced someone to die because of such a small matter, was there anyone else who would still be willing to work with her in the future?

This was a circle. Even if she could defeat Emma Adams today, her future would not be smooth sailing too.

Therefore, it was not worth it to pursue the matter.

An apology was enough.

If Emma Adams still had some humanity, she might be grateful for Emilia's generosity.

Of course, she didn't expect Emma Adams to be humane at all. She only hoped that she wouldn't spread rumors everywhere.

After all, her relationship with Leon Williams was not easy to explain.

How did she return to Davis? Even she was confused, let alone outsiders!

"Yes, yes, yes!"

"Ms. Davis is right," Emma Adams quickly said. "We'll all be in the same Chamber of Commerce in the future. We'll see each other often."

"I've really learnt my lesson!!!"

"I promise I'll change!"

Oliver Walker swept a glance at her and ignored her. He then walked off the stage.

The press conference continued as usual. No one provoked him again until it ended.

Until the very last minute, Leon Williams still wanted to explain what had happened but...

Thinking about it carefully, wouldn't it just make things even more confusing?

It was true that he did pursue Emilia!

But at that time, Emilia was single, and he was divorced!

This wasn't a big crime, was it?

Most importantly, Emilia did not give him an answer.

Besides, a graceful lady was a good match for a gentleman.

Even a gentleman couldn't control the beauty of a lady, let alone him.

However, after the meeting ended, Arnold Frost, who did not say a word, stared at Oliver Walker and Emilia's backs like a poisonous snake.

Tonight, he had been completely embarrassed. If he did not take revenge, he would not be at ease!

Then, he went backstage and found a well-known news website in the state of Colorado. He smiled and said, "Chief Editor Li, how have you been?"

Jack Li had specially paid him a visit before.

News reporters like them always hoped to get intel on the happenings of the high-class society.

However, how could the arrogant Arnold Frost take the editor-in-chief of a news media seriously?

If it wasn't because he had a plan in mind, he wouldn't have called this man.

"Thanks to Mr Frost, I've been doing well recently!" Jack Lee smiled.

"Is there anything that you would be able to share with me?"

What happened tonight was enough to grab the headlines tomorrow.

However, the key was that all the major media outlets were there, and they were all reporting the same news. It was nothing more than the bankruptcy of the Leo Group, the rise of Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, or the apology of Emma Adams, the chairman of Adams Group.

Although these were explosive enough, it was inevitable that these headlines would be divided up as most media outlets would be reporting about it.

News media like them relied on eye-catching gimmicks to gain traffic and earn advertising fees.

Chapter 514 An Exclusive Insight

Who wouldn't want to have an exclusive scoop?

"Hehe..."

"There is, but I don't know if you dare to!"

A vicious look appeared in Arnold Frost's eyes. "Well, we don't know how Emilia got the title of the Sovereign."

"She lives in the Sovereign and may have a scandal with my uncle. Don't you think you should dig deeper?"

One of them was the richest man in the state of Colorado while the other was the number one goddess. There was even a good-for-nothing gigolo in the middle of the whole picture. This.....

How could there be no reason to dig deeper?

But...

This thought only flashed through Jack Lee's mind for a moment before disappearing without a trace.

If he wanted to dig deeper, he needed real evidence!

"What's wrong?"

Arnold Frost laughed mockingly. "You have something, but you don't dare to report it?"

Jack Lee smiled bitterly and shook his head. "Mr. Frost, I don't understand. Leon Williams is your biological uncle, right?"

"What benefits do you get from doing this?"

This was deep waters and Jack Lee had to be careful.

Especially since he didn't know what Arnold Frost was thinking.

Jack Lee had climbed to this position. Although he could not be said to be as wealthy as a businessman, he could definitely be considered a successful person.

How could he take the risk?

"Uncle?"

"Does he even look like an uncle?" Arnold Frost asked coldly.

"As long as you dare to expose this matter, I'll give you five million!"

"As long as you nod and agree, I can pay you a million as a deposit now, but the premise is that this piece of news has to be on the hot news!"

Since he couldn't obtain it, he would destroy it!

He thought that Emilia was really capable, but he did not expect her to be sleeping with his uncle!

As for his uncle, he had actually slapped him for a mistress!

F*ck!

This was absolutely unacceptable!

Jack Lee fell silent!

He did not know if there was really something going on between Emilia and Leon Williams.

However, he knew that Arnold Frost, and even the entire Frost Company, was brought to such heights because of Leon Williams.

And now, Arnold Frost actually wanted to do such a thing. Wasn't he repaying his uncle's kindness with ingratitude?

But...

There's five million on the line!

Then, he gritted his teeth.

"However, there are risks involved in this matter. The deposit must be at least three million!"

Actually, it wasn't that dangerous!

After all, he was the editor-in-chief of the news media. He could use the excuse of exposing it to the public to avoid responsibility for this matter.

But just in case, it was better to get the money first!

Three million was his annual salary for five years. Even if he encountered a crisis, it was enough for him to escape!

After all, he wasn't a citizen of Colorado, and he didn't have any fixed assets in Colorado. Naturally, there was nothing to be afraid of.

If the situation goes South, he could just run away immediately!

"You can take it if you dare!"

"But I like you!"

Arnold Frost took out his phone and started transferring money!

Jack Lee, who had achieved his goal, even went home overnight to rush his manuscript. If he did this news well, other than the money, it could also bring him huge benefits!

Brave men were those who were willing to fight great risks. As long as the benefits were sufficient, there was no danger.

Even if there was, it must be because the money wasn't enough.

Back in the Sovereign.

"Hubby!"

"There's really nothing between Leon Williams and me!"

"And back then..."

Emilia's heart was heavy and she did not speak along the way. However, when she reached home, she could not hold it in any longer.

Some things had to be said!

What if her husband really cared about it?

Especially scandals like this, it could hurt the relationship between husband and wife the most.

Moreover, her relationship with her husband was still warming up. If this matter affected her, what should she do?

Chapter 515 Blowing Up The Internet

"Am I that petty to you?"

With eyes full of love, Oliver Walker said softly, "If I don't believe you, then who else can I trust?"

This matter was already very clear.

His wife was nervous not because she had a guilty conscience, but because she cared about his feelings.

Who were those who would be framed?

It must be those who are excellent which is why they end up getting framed. It could only make competitors spread rumors for no reason and try to break the perfection of a perfect person!

"I..."

Emilia heaved a sigh of relief, but she still couldn't bear it. bednovel. net

Fernando Walker and Emma Adams were both despicable.

"I'm fine."

"Don't think so much about it. Rest early!"

Oliver Walker stroked his wife's hair and kissed her forehead.

It really didn't bother him at all.

If he didn't even have this ability to differentiate, then what kind of chaplain would he be? Wouldn't he have been schemed to death long ago?

"Fine."

"Good night!" Emilia smiled.

She finally felt at ease.

However, she still had a bad feeling about this. She felt that this matter would not end so easily.

But she couldn't tell what was wrong!

Perhaps she was overthinking it!

The next morning!

The headlines in all of the newspapers in Colorado went bad!

The popularity it stirred up was no less than when the proud daughter of the Davis family chose a useless man, Oliver Walker, as her husband.

It was no less embarrassing than when Emilia was kicked out of the house!

As long as he turned on his phone, all the headlines state, 'The Richest Man in Colorado and Colorado's Goddess, Those Untold Secrets'. There were countless of them!

The title of the article also attracted a lot of attention!

After all, the richest man and the goddess, one was the social status that men dreamed of, and the other was the goddess that men dreamed of.

When these two were put together, they were like an unstoppable torrent!

The content of the article was even more explosive.

They even dug out the photo of Emilia and Leon Williams attending the event together many years ago.

In the text, it was even more certain that after the downfall, Emilia hid from her useless husband and relied on her body to woo the richest man to return to the top in one fell swoop.

It even exposed that Leon Williams had given the Sovereign to Emilia as a gift.

As well as luxury cars and so on...

From the beginning to the end, the article was full of certainty, but there was no actual evidence.

Even so, it still caused a huge uproar. There were even many people waiting for the subsequent exposure.

On the Internet, it got even more heated!

"There's nothing wrong with the richest man matching up with a goddess!"

"There's nothing wrong with using her body to do whatever she wants. It's just that all of these would have been awkward for Oliver Walker!"

"Right, right, right! They're treating him like his transparent!"

"Even the richest man doesn't care, so why are you so anxious?"

"She's just a cuckold, but she has endless wealth and honor. Look at how jealous you guys are!"

"..."

In an instant, the entire internet boomed!

There were all kinds of comments online, and it was about to explode!

"Damn it!"

"Who did it?"

"Who gave him the guts to do so?!!!"

When Leon Williams saw the news, he was furious. He smashed his computer and roared crazily,
"Investigate into this! Find out the truth!"

"I'm going to sue him until he goes bankrupt and goes to jail. Does he really think that he doesn't have to be responsible for this?!"

What should he do now?

The bigger the impact of this matter, the more disadvantageous it would be for him.

He had never done such a thing, but now he was being framed. Oliver Walker might sacrifice him to the heavens in a fit of anger. Damn it, the mastermind behind this work would ruin him!

"Uncle!"

"It's just some gossip. It's not a big deal. Aunt won't believe it anyway."

Arnold Frost's face was filled with helplessness, but he was overjoyed in his heart. As the mastermind behind the scenes, he enjoyed an incomparable pleasure.

Oliver Walker, that pretty boy, must be more anxious than his uncle at this moment, right?

And that self-conceited and cold Emilia would also feel embarrassed right now!

"Do you really only think of this as harmless gossip?"

Chapter 516 Who Would Be Behind This?!

"This is a f*cking poison that could kill me!"

The veins on Leon Williams's forehead popped out. "I'm warning you for the last time. Don't provoke Oliver Walker and Emilia again. They are existences that even I can't afford to offend!"

If Oliver Walker believed these....

The consequences would be unimaginable!

As the richest man in the world, he naturally had the contact information of all the major websites, but...

However, Jack Lee was very cunning. He did not use the name of the website, but used a private account with a changed IP address. With the help of various teams, he borrowed the bustling traffic on the internet and became a trending topic!

"Yes, sir!"

"I'll call the police now!"

When Arnold Frost turned around, there was a sinister smile on his lips!

What did Leon Williams say?

He couldn't afford to offend Oliver Walker and Emilia?

What a joke!

It was just a guess at first, but now he was sure that Leon Williams definitely had an abnormal relationship with Emilia.

This was the only logical explanation for Leon Williams's mysterious behavior.

Bowing down to Oliver Walker?

What a joke!

This was obviously because his uncle had played with someone else's wife and felt guilty.

It could also explain why Oliver Walker was so arrogant, but no one had punished him for so long. Leon Williams must be behind this!

What surprised him the most was that the cold and aloof Emilia was actually such a woman.

What the actual f*ck?! She was willing to be another man's mistress!

This...

Tsk tsk tsk...

The show had just begun!

"Ding, ding, ding..."

As soon as he left Leon Williams 'office, his phone rang. He answered the call and smiled happily. "You did well. I'm very satisfied!"

"However, we have to maintain this and make sure that every single person in the country knows about this!"

"Money?"

"I'll transfer you another three million immediately!"

After hanging up, he transferred the money again!

This was the viciousness of human nature!

Leon Williams never expected that his nephew, whom he had been nurturing, would actually prepare an extremely poisonous poison for him!

As for Arnold Frost, he was only using his uncle for his wealth and would throw his uncle under the bus without hesitation.

This was a death wish!

Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!

"Ms. Davis and that pretty boy are here!"

"I really didn't expect that Ms. Davis, who looks like a genuine person, would do such a thing!"

"No! The problem is with that gigolo! His wife is already another man's mistress but he doesn't have any f*cking sense of shame!"

"The world of the rich is really wonderful!"

"..."

When Emilia and Oliver Walker arrived at the company, there were employees who were secretly discussing them.

They had naturally seen the news that had been hyped up to the trending news.

Naturally, they knew that there was someone behind this!

How could they still remain calm?!

"Bang..."

As soon as she entered the office, Emilia could no longer maintain her composure, "What are they trying to do?"

"Why do you have to use such despicable methods to maliciously slander me?"

"Do they not even have the most basic morals and respect?!"

She was furious!

In the face of such a matter, it was even more difficult to explain!

Even the employees in the company were talking about him like that, let alone the people outside.

Emilia was so angry that she cried. There was only grievance in her heart!

But who could do such a crazy thing?

Fernando Walter?

Emma Adams?

Or the lingering Arnold Frost?

Or... perhaps Micheal Davis?

Chapter 517 Get Me An Answer Now!

Arnold Frost?

That wouldn't be possible.

After all, he was Leon Williams's nephew. He wouldn't cheat his uncle like that, right?

"Rumors stop at the wise!"

"Don't worry," Oliver Walker comforted. "No matter who it is, I'll find him!"

Whoever it was, there was definitely something wrong with his mentality.

But did he think he was safe just because he changed his IP address?

Didn't he take all these to be too simple?

"Ding, ding, ding..."

At this moment, the phone rang.

Oliver Walker answered the call. "Speak!"

The call was from Leon Williams. His voice was trembling. "Mr... Mr. Walker, this really has nothing to do with me."

"I really don't know who set me up!"

"Still... Also, I've already sent someone to investigate. I believe there will be results soon!"

Thinking about it carefully, as the richest man, it was absolutely normal for him to have some scandals, regardless of whether he did it or not.

This had always been the case since the day entertainment news was born.

However, this time was really different. If it was not handled well, not to mention his future, even his life might be at risk!

He should have come personally, but he was afraid that the paparazzi would follow him.

At that time, adding fuel to the fire would only make things more troublesome!

"I know!"

"You don't have to take it to heart," Oliver Walker replied calmly. "Just do your part."

This was because Oliver Walker would never let go of the person who spread rumors for no reason. No matter who was behind it, as long as he found them, he would make them suffer.

After hearing this, Leon Williams nodded repeatedly. "Yes, yes, yes..."

He heaved a sigh of relief!

But the more he thought about it, the angrier he got!

Damn it! How could this be...

"But the other party hides their traces on the internet. It'll be hard to find them, right?" Emilia frowned.

The person behind this was too despicable!

Even if it was her, if she caught this person this very moment, she would no longer be able to play nice!

"Give me an hour. I guarantee that this news will disappear without a trace!"

Oliver Walker smiled and comforted him, "Don't think too much about it. Run the company well first and leave the rest to me!"

At present, Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was already extremely busy with the facial mask.

His wife must have had a busy schedule since she was in the soaring stage. If her mood was bothered because of such a small matter, then the mastermind behind the scenes would be even more guilty!

"Alright!"

Emilia didn't know what else to say, but she trusted her husband's words!

Because until now, he had never broken his promise!

After Oliver Walker calmed his wife down, he went to the office of the Imperial Guards!

"Sir!"

George Lee and the other ten Imperial Guards stood up instantly!

Their faces were filled with anger!

Thinking about the chaplain, he was above all others. He fought bravely at the front line of the state of Indiana and entered the land of death several times. He was even almost killed seven times before he managed to save the state of Indiana.

But what about these people?

They spread rumors for no reason and maliciously slandered the chaplain and his wife. This kind of behavior was undoubtedly digging his own grave!

"Inform all the news media to stop spreading rumors and get the mastermind to turn himself in."

"If I don't see anyone within half an hour, I will start killing people!"

As soon as he finished speaking, a cold glint flashed in Oliver Walker's eyes!

His cold aura suddenly erupted!

Dragons had scales for a reason and if anyone dares to touch them, they would regret doing so!

However, the other party was dying to offend him! How stupid was this?

He did not easily have the intention to kill!

But once he starts, there will be no way to stop him! bednovel. net

"Yes, sir!"

After George Lee handed the matter over to his subordinates to handle, he quickly reported, "I've already contacted the Internet Surveillance Bureau and started to trace the source. There should be results within half an hour!"

The other party was obviously a hacker who knew how to hide his whereabouts on the Internet.

But...

Chapter 518 You Have One Hour

Hackers?

The true experts were all in the Internet Surveillance Bureau.

Perhaps they weren't famous, but even the top ten hackers in the world couldn't escape them.

"Alright!"

Oliver Walker sat down and stopped talking. His eyes were filled with killing intent!

The Imperial Guards moved quickly, and they had special privileges. Therefore, after receiving the news, the major news media in Colorado immediately got to work to stop the bustling hot news.

However, they could only stop those from their own media outlet. It would at most only reduce the popularity of it now.

This did not stop the news from spreading as Jack Lee continued to transmit news to a large number of mobile phones through the trojans.

Another half an hour later...

George Lee said with a stiff expression, "Sir, we've found out that the person behind this is called Jack Lee, the chief editor of the Colorado Entertainment News Network."

"This is all that we've found about him."

Oliver Walker took the document and dialed the number after seeing it.

After the other party picked up, he immediately said coldly, "You are really one with balls. Do you really think that you'll be able to run away from what you're doing on the internet?"

At this moment, a panicked but calm voice came from the other end of the phone. "Who are you? Why do you have my number?"

This was his personal number, not his work number!

Usually, he would use it to contact his family. Receiving a call from a stranger made him feel as if he had been exposed.

"Not only do I have your number, but I also have all your information!"

"You want to play with us right?" Oliver Walker asked indifferently.

"Then I'll give you an hour to see if you can escape from me!"

Oliver Walker was indeed furious.

Jack Lee had made his wife uneasy all morning. She was restless and her reputation had been ruined.

He shall then let Jack Lee truly experience what it meant to be in despair!

He wants Jack Lee to see death approaching him one step at a time!

"Are you Oliver Walker?"

Jack Lee tried his best to recall the familiar yet new voice. He immediately said in surprise, "You... How did you get my personal information?"

He had just recalled how every media outlet was asking for him to turn himself in!

This was...

What kind of power does this man have?!

And there was only one type of person who could control the news media, and that was...

The military!

Could it be that the guy who was regarded as a gigolo by the entire city be in the military?!

No!

Impossible!

Although his hacking skills could not be considered one of the best, he still wasn't that bad. There was no reason for him to be discovered so quickly!

"You... you still have fifty-nine minutes left."

Oliver Walker looked at the time and said coldly, "It's 10:01 now!"

After those cold words, he hung up the phone!

"Hey, hey, hey..."

At this moment, Jack Lee was afraid!

With an unprecedented panic, he quickly dialed a number. "Mr. Frost, I... I've been exposed!"

"You have to give me a sum of money so that I can leave this place. Otherwise, if I get caught, they will definitely come for you too!"

At the same time, Arnold Frost, who received the call, was also slightly stunned. After he reacted, he said with a gloomy face, "You motherf*cker, how dare you threaten me?"

This man was obviously trying to threaten him!

How could he agree?

"I don't have time to talk nonsense with you. This time, you've offended someone that you shouldn't have!"

"I'm going to run now. If I don't have 10 million in my account within ten minutes, I'll definitely expose you!"

Jack Lee shouted almost crazily, "If Leon Williams finds out about this, it will be over for you too!"

Jack Lee was now confident that Oliver Walker was not as simple as he looked!

Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to find out that it was him all along.

After all, it was a vast sea of people and a virtual network. How could it be so easy to lock onto the one person and even get their hands on all of his personal information.

He could feel that his life was in great danger!

All of this was thanks to Arnold Frost. At most, they would all just perish together!

Surrender?

Only a f*cking fool would turn himself in!

Arnold Frost's face was filled with displeasure, but in the next second, he was shocked by the news of a wanted personnel on the internet.

How long has it been?

They have already found Jack Lee?!

Could it be that he had really offended someone that he shouldn't have?

It shouldn't be!

Did Leon Williams find someone else to investigate?

When this thought appeared, Arnold Frost went crazy. He immediately called back and hurriedly said, "Listen up, I'll give you the money!"

"But if you dare to sell me out, I'll kill your entire family!"

He was afraid!

He can't be exposed!

Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable!

At this moment, how could Jack Lee care about anything else? He immediately said, "I'm a journalist with professional ethics. As long as you pay me enough, I will keep my mouth shut."

Professional ethics?

If he had some, he wouldn't have done such an immoral thing!

But now, he was already driving and preparing to leave the state of Colorado.

After all, he wasn't from here and didn't have any valuable property here. He didn't have anything that kept him here.

Therefore, as long as he managed to escape, it would be a victory!

But...

There was a security check at the highway.

Jack Lee was so scared when he saw the armed soldiers that he turned around on the highway!

A few intersections that led out of the city were also filled with soldiers!

When he saw the arrest warrant, he was in despair!

Run?

How could he run?

As for turning himself in?!

He didn't have the guts!

However, he really did not know who Oliver Walker was!

"Sir, Jack Lee has stopped running!"

George Lee pointed at the motionless dot on the big screen and continued to report, "All the rumors have been cleared up."

"Most of the media outlets have already released statements saying that the news before was a fake piece."

In fact, when they had their eyes on Jack Lee, his location has already been pinned.

Trying to run?

Where could he go?

Even if he could escape the state of Colorado, could he run away from the country?

"Only half an hour?"

"I thought he would be crazy for at least an hour," Oliver Walker said scornfully. "I didn't expect him to be so weak and still dare to do such a thing!"

Oliver Walker was used to ruthless and cruel enemies.

It was indeed easy to overestimate his enemies now that he only had to face ordinary people.

"Let's go!"

Oliver Walker went out and headed toward the place where Jack Lee had stopped.

The fake news had been resolved, but the mastermind had not been found yet!

In addition, this matter would definitely become a well-known matter in the future. This would cause a major blow to his wife's reputation.

Therefore, his crime was unforgivable and could not be forgiven easily!

At the Western Park.

There was a car parked by the lake.

Jack Lee stared at the sparkling lake and smoked one cigarette after another.

It had only been 40 minutes since he received the call, but it felt like a year to him.

The confidence of a successful person in the past no longer existed. It was as if he had aged a decade at this moment.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..."

In just over ten minutes, Oliver Walker had arrived!

After he got out of the car, George Lee and the others followed closely behind and looked at Jack Lee expressionlessly!

Jack Lee, whose face was ashen, could not help but tremble when he felt the cold light coming from behind him. He slowly turned his head and looked at the person who had come. After a long daze, he asked unwillingly, "You... Who exactly are you?"

This... bednovel.com

Could he accept it?

He thought that he had done it flawlessly, but in the end, his identity was exposed in just an hour.

"It doesn't matter who I am!"

"Also, I'm not interested in you!"

Oliver Walker said coldly, "Tell me who's behind this, and I'll give you a quick death!"

Indeed, someone like Jack Lee was not of interest.

Killing him was just like crushing an ant. What sense of accomplishment could there be?

Therefore, Oliver Walker did even bother trying to scare him.

The reason why they tortured him for so long was so that Jack Lee would turn in the mastermind behind this.

Chapter 520 Inhumane Torture

"Huh? Hahahahahahah!!!!"

Jack Lee laughed loudly. "I'm not guilty enough to be prosecuted. At most, I'll be sentenced to a few years. What's there to be proud of?"

"But your wife will always be caught up in the scandal and will never be able to stand up proud!"

By just spending a few years in prison, he would have over ten million in his bank from Arnold Frost. This was money that he would never have even if he worked his ass off.

So how could he tell the truth? bednovel.com

Moreover, he was certain that Oliver Walker must have a military background to be able to find out his personal information so quickly. Otherwise, there wouldn't be armed soldiers at every exit.

Moreover, the few cars in front of him all had military tags!

Usually, such people would never do anything outside of the law.

He was already mentally prepared. The worst that could happen was imprisonment!

He only had to suffer a few canings.

So what?

This was the reason why Jack Lee could still be so imprudent.

"Very good!"

"You are smart, but you did the stupidest thing!"

"That is to piss me off."

Oliver Walker's eyes flashed coldly. Then, he waved his hand, and the headlights of the four military jeeps all lit up!

Then...

With another wave of his hand, two imperial guards walked forward!

"You... What do you want?"

Jack Lee panicked!

This stance was too f*cking scary!

It seems like they were trying to torture him?!

"Nothing!"

Oliver Walker said mockingly, "It's just to make you tell the truth!"

He was indeed a person who liked to do things within the rules!

However, this does not include those who do not abide by the rules.

"Damn it!"

"You... Let go of me!"

"What are you doing?"

"You guys..."

"..."

After Jack Lee's body was bound, he was dragged and forced to kneel in front of the headlights!

"So... are you still going to be hard headed?"

George Lee shouted. He really did not know who gave Jack Lee the courage to do such a thing and talk to the chaplain without fear!

But in their eyes, Oliver Walker was the respected chaplain of the country!

However, in the hearts of the enemies, he was a terrifying killing god!

It was an indelible memory!

"Ah..."

Jack Lee was still struggling. He shouted angrily, "Oliver Walker, why are you acting so mysterious?"

"Everyone knows that you're a good-for-nothing trash!"

"These men are hired by Leon Williams too, right?!"

"You motherf*cker, your wife is already his mistress, how can you still work for him?"

"Are you still a man?"

Such madness was like a dog that had been hungry for ten days and had just seen a piece of meat.

And those words were tearing Oliver Walker's heart apart!

Of course, he knew that his wife would not do those things!

But...

How would outsiders view his wife?

It didn't matter if they said that he was nothing but trash.

Calling him a gigolo and saying that he was useless?

When did he ever take it to heart?

But this time, Jack Lee had touched a taboo that he shouldn't have!

"Attack!"

When the order was given, George Lee took out two toothpicks and held them in Jack Lee's eyes. Then, the four military jeeps instantly switched to bright light mode!

Even during the day, it was difficult for people to look at it directly!

They were like four little suns!

"Ah..."

Jack Lee let out a heart-wrenching roar. He wanted to close his eyes, but the toothpicks stuck in his eyelids kept them open; he even started tearing blood.

To have his eyes forced open and to look into such bright light. This kind of torture was simply inhumane, causing his last bit of stubbornness to collapse. "I... I'm sorry!!!!"

"But even if I broke the law, I should be punished by the law!"

"You don't have the right... to.... Do this....."

"Ah..."
