Chapter 541 Memories

Faced with so many questions, Adam Collins, who was known as the piano prince, could only say, "Well...."

"This... This was a very... very famous piano piece!"

"He played it..... well."

However, after he finished speaking in a profound manner, his forehead was covered in sweat that no one knew about.

He felt guilty!

But, he couldn't let his fans know what he truly felt!

He couldn't show that he didn't understand and so, he could only bite his tongue and pretend to appreciate the music.

'Wait for me, I'll be back

But you have to wait bitterly

Waiting for the gloomy rain,

It arouses your sadness and your sense of righteousness

When the snow falls,

When the heat is unbearable,

When others no longer look forward to their loved ones...'

However, at this moment, Emilia, who was immersed in the artistic conception of music, could not help but recite Simonov's 'Wait for Me, I'll Be Back'!

In the next moment, everyone present were shocked!

This...

It was indeed Simonov's 'Wait For Me, I'll Come Back'!

As expected, after the magnificent music, under the control of Oliver Walker, the music changed from the magnificent military camp to one that was full of regret!

When the last sentence flowed out of Emilia mouth, tears welled up in Oliver Walker's eyes!

That's right!

Eight years ago, when the war broke out in Indiana, how many young men filled with ambition had stepped onto the train of no return in order to fight for their country?

They bid farewell to their wives, children, parents...

However, how many of them returned in the end?

In the midst of great sorrow, the tone of the piano changed again. It turned into great joy after the rise of ambition, but it quickly turned into loneliness and sorrow again!

The success and fame that they have achieved were the glory of the soldiers who sacrificed themselves, building it with their blood, sweat and tears!

Three poems in a row made Oliver Walker recall half of his life as a soldier!

Those familiar faces gradually disappeared from his eyes!

He could never forget!

In the uninhabited area, when the soldiers ran out of ammunition and food, the brave soldiers picked up their bayonets and fought the enemy in the most primitive way!

Not one survivor walked out of that camp!

But, their flag stood tall.

Oliver Walker couldn't forget those tragic scenes...

There were too many memories from it and it broke him.

However, everyone present was immersed in that magnificent artistic conception. That last key that he played off tune was like the finishing touches to the heart-wrecking piece.

It represented the unwillingness and longing in his heart!

For a long time, Emilia was speechless!

Even everyone around them stayed quiet.

She stared at the back of the person sitting in front of the piano in a daze!

Adam Collins had already been humiliated, and it was impossible for him to ever play to the levels of these three songs.

"Hubby!"

"You... What's wrong with you?"

Emilia noticed her husband's back trembling slightly. She quickly rushed forward with a worried expression!

Olivia Walker quickly said, "Mom! He...He's crying!"

Crying?

Oliver Walker was indeed crying.

The battlefield was a cruel place that he didn't want to recall in his life!

But...

There were always some things and people that were hard to forget!

However, he clearly understood that if there was a war at the border one day, he would still risk his life to lead the army!

He believed that his wife would not object!

"I..."

Oliver Walker's voice was a little choked, but he said with a smile, "I'm fine!"

He may have to endure endless hardship deep inside but he will never forget the faces of those who sacrificed their lives.

"You..."

"I'm sorry, it's all my fault!"

Emilia knew very well that her husband must have thought of his past. Otherwise, he would not have played such a shocking piece!

Chapter 542 Black Hearted People

This man had been through more than she could imagine.

She had underestimated the damage that the aftermath of war could do to a person who valued relationships and loyalty!

"Let's go!"

Oliver Walker withdrew all his aura, hugged his daughter, and smiled gently.

A man should be able to let go of things magnanimous.

He should stand up tall.

Unparalleled in the world!

This was also the reason why he gave up all glory and returned to be an ordinary person.

There was not much he could do now!

He could only protect this beautiful country that he comrades had served.

After Oliver Walker left, everyone looked at his back in awe!

All of them had mixed feelings.

"Hehe..."

Adam Collins smiled and said "This... Those were wild songs that should not be presented on stage. They would never be considered elegant."

"He even ruined the good atmosphere here!"

Adams Collins changed his opinion.

How could he not care about himself? bednovel.com

He was still saying that it was a world famous piano piece but it turned out to just be a sing-along for a poem!

Most people would hum a few lines of pop songs, and they could also talk about world-famous songs in a jovial manner.

But...

Was there anyone who would still appreciate the culture that their ancestors have left behind for them?

It wasn't that Oliver Walker rejected foreign cultures, but he just really liked what the country had created for itself.

The things left behind were the fruits of years of struggles by their ancestors and they were something that should be passed on.

"He... I think he must have been a soldier and went to the front line!"

"He must have gone through a rough patch before coming back."

"No wonder it can produce such an artistic performance!"

"A Hero!"

"..."

The people present started discussing!

Many misunderstandings were slowly resolved!

Back then, Oliver Walker did not leave without saying goodbye, nor did he fool around outside. Instead, he went to Indiana to fight for his life.

However, he never refuted the mockery!

This was who Oliver Walker was.

Seeing that no one was paying attention to him, Adam Collins felt extremely embarrassed. He turned around and left with a gloomy face.

He had wanted to get everyone present to take a video of him and upload it online to build his image as an approachable person, but in the end, this wild man stole all his limelight!!!

He was really angry!

Then, he said coldly, "Find out who that is!"

"After buying the Heavenly Doctor Mask Mask, I'll definitely teach him a lesson!"

"He had humiliated me in public!"

However, Oliver Walker had never competed with him!

Oliver Walker wouldn't even be bothered with doing such things.

The purpose of Adams Collins trip here to Colorado was because he heard of the godly mask that had just been released.

"Sure."

The manager, who looked fine on the outside, did not feel good about this either.

After all, her income was closely related to her artist.

Such a great moment of publicity has been ruined. How could she let this happen?!

The chair by the corridor, Emilia who was worried, tried consoling Oliver Walker, "Hubby, you should forget some bad things so that you can become better!"

Oliver Walker smiled faintly. "Some things, though not beautiful, are unforgettable."

"This..."

"This is life, right?"

Emilia was speechless because she realized that her husband was right.

Was it really possible for her to forget what happened to her during those eight years?

Olivia Walker stood at the side, not saying a word. She could only feel that her parents had a lot on their minds. She could only pout her little mouth and reveal a solemn expression.

"The mask that Davis are selling almost killed me!!!"

"Everyone, come and take a look. This is a black-hearted company!"

"It's clearly a beauty mask, but it disfigured me!"

"..."

At this moment, a sorrowful voice once again set off a huge uproar.

Emilia's expression tensed up as she heard their company being mentioned. They had just started selling today at Hongri mall and so, she quickly said, "I'll go over and take a look first!"

CHAPTER 543 I WANT 100 MILLION

The Davis Heaven Sect Pharmaceuticals was now well-known in Colorado and had a good reputation.

However, such a conscientious company had such a scandal at this moment. Was there anyone who wouldn't be interested?

Therefore, when a young woman with a red and swollen face appeared, many people quickly gathered at the shop.

Especially those who were just about to buy it immediately put down the mask in their hands.

"Ms. Adams, don't worry. This is my cousin, Claire. She's absolutely reliable!"

Ellie Walker stood on the second floor and looked at the counter in the center. She revealed a sinister smile. "She owes 500,000 yuan to the loan sharks. If she doesn't pay it back now, she'll be sold to the pimps."

"I only promised to give her a thousand yuan, and she agreed."

Ellie Walker said with a smug expression.

She was now the manager of Adams Group, and her income was no less than when she was at the Davis Group.

In addition to the resentment towards Emilia, they were willing to pay out of their pockets, as they wanted revenge.

Emma Adams, who had just arrived, said elegantly, 'As long as she can screw them out, 500,000 isn't anything to me!'

"I'll pay it back for her!"

"Not only that, but I can also give you a huge bonus."

She had seen a lot of girls like these.

Claire was addicted to an exquisite life and wanted to hook up with a rich man.

However, as a woman in the circle of dignitaries, she knew too well that those rich people were playing around.

Who would fall for such a woman?!

In the end, with no rich men around, this gold digger could not sustain her luxurious lifestyle.

She could only borrow money from loan sharks to survive. After she fell into a quagmire, she could only borrow more money to support herself, and she would never be able to turn over a new leaf.

"Thank you, Ms. Adams!"

Ellie Walker thanked her excitedly. "You're really a benefactor in my life."

If it weren't for the fact that she had the formula, she would have ended up like her cousin.

"Hehe..."

Emma Adams said elegantly, "Work for me and do your best. Once we defeat them, you will definitely benefit from it."

In fact, as a businessman, Emma Adams had sharp eyes.

If it wasn't because of the formula, how would Ellie Walker be able to hold such an important position?

The first thing Emma Adams would do after she got her hands on the formula was to kick this piece of trash out of the company.

At the same time, the commotion in front of the counter intensified!

The female salesperson frowned and said, "Miss, are you sure you used our facial mask that led to this?"

This was a huge scandal!

Especially for new products, once their reputation collapsed, it would be totally over!

"What do you think?" bednovel.org

"It's all because of your lousy facial mask," Claire stated angrily.

"This is why I ended up disfigured! Look at my red and swollen face. How am I supposed to face people in the future?! Since you've destroyed me, I will destroy you too!"

The saleswoman at the counter felt pressured by countless people looking at her.

She didn't even know how to explain it.

"What's wrong?"

At this moment, Emilia rushed over and quickly comforted her, "Madam, please calm down."

"Our company isn't like what you started. If it is really because of our mask, we will bear the responsibility of it."

This was a crisis of trust. No matter the price, it had to be resolved before the matter spread.

Moreover, she firmly believed in these masks because she had personally monitored them. Moreover, the source of the medicine was definitely legitimate, so there shouldn't be such accidents.

"Look at my face, look at my face!"

"How do you expect me to calm down?"

Claire's voice got even louder! She even held her phone and started a live broadcast. "You ought to compensate me, right?"

"I want 100 million!"

This woman was a living example of greed.

They have not figured out the problem yet, and she demanded 100 million.

The Heavenly Doctor Mask's profit was only about 30% of its cost. Even if the sales were outstanding now, it would still need to sell more than 3 million more to make a profit of 100 million!

What was this woman actually up to?"

Emilia frowned but said, "If it's really my problem, then I'm willing to bear the responsibility!"

CHAPTER 544 AN ALLERGIC REACTION

"But there's no evidence to prove that there's a problem with our product. Aren't you being too arbitrary?"

This would be a devastating blow to their company.

Furthermore, this woman needed evidence to support her claim!

"You're just shirking your responsibility. I only turned out this way because of your mask!"

However, Claire, who was holding her phone and starting a live broadcast, shouted unreasonably "Everyone, look! I used the facial mask from Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals that claims to be able to make people look beautiful."

"I decided to stand up so that no one else would fall for their tricks!"

She was not here to solve the problem, so she naturally asked for a huge sum of money.

Even when she had no evidence of it!

She already owed 500,000 yuan to the loan sharks, and the loan sharks were coming after her everyday. Where would she get the money to buy a mask that cost 100 yuan?

Although the price was not sky-high, it still wasn't one that could be afforded by the public. Ordinary people definitely wouldn't use it often unless they really needed to remove scars.

Therefore, the positioning of the product was originally medium to high-end.

"Please put down your phone first. Let's solve the problem, okay?"

"The problem now..."

"Shut up!" Claire shouted. "I'm going to gather netizens together to boycott this lousy mask!"

She was being unreasonable and acted as if they were right just because they were the self-proclaimed 'victim'. They did not want to negotiate, which made things difficult for Emilia.

"D*mn, I really didn't expect this!"

"This is a huge problem for something that sold at such a price."

"Don't rush to a conclusion. What if it's not their problem?"

"That's right. I also used the Heavenly Doctor Mask. I'm fine."

"You guys aren't Internet trolls, are you?"

"The streamer said that she only used the Heavenly Doctor Mask. How can it be fake?"

"..."

For a moment, the live broadcast room and the shopping mall were in an uproar! bednovel.com

After all, there were tons of keyboard warriors on the internet. They were already hostile even when they had not used anything.

In addition, there were also netizens hired by Emma Adams to lead the crowd. For a time, those who spoke up for the Heavenly Doctor Mask were labelled as 'bought fans'.

Seeing that things had gotten out of hand, Oliver Walker stepped forward. "Have you been to the hospital for a checkup?"

"Do you know why your face is red and swollen?"

"You have to take responsibility for framing someone. Would you be able to bear it?"

He could see the problem at a glance.

Therefore, it was very imposing!

First of all, there was absolutely no problem with the Heavenly Doctor Mask because there were no side effects.

As for the redness on the woman's face, he could naturally tell the reason.

"Ha!"

Claire sneered. "Of course I've seen it. The doctor said it was a problem with the mask."

It was indeed a problem with a mask, but it had nothing to do with this particular mask. She knew this very well.

However, she had to stay firm with her acting!

As for taking responsibility?

She was already at her wits 'end. Why would she care about taking responsibility?

What a joke!

"Good!"

"Now that you've seen one, you should know that this is an allergic reaction to a certain chemical but I dare to make a promise to everyone present!"

"The Heavenly Doctor Mask is a pure herbal mask. It doesn't contain any chemical substances!"

"It's even more impossible for metallic mercury to exist!"

He had said this boldly because he knew that there was nothing wrong with the masks.

No matter how this scandal continues, it would have nothing to do with them.

Claire was speechless!

This was because Oliver Walker was right. The allergy on her face was caused by the inferior and cheap facial mask, which caused her to be allergic to metallic mercury.

Suddenly, Ellie Walker came out of nowhere, "HA!"

"Just because you said it's pure herbal substances, does that mean it is?"

"There's clearly nothing written on your ingredient list!"

Chapter 545 Here they Come!

Ellie Walker's appearance instantly caused an uproar.

After all, as a former manager of the Davis Group, he definitely knew about the problems with the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

As for why she was fired, it was not difficult to guess. After all, the emperor had his own courtiers. After Emilia ascended the throne, it was reasonable that she would not appoint William Davis's trusted aides!

"So it's you?"

Emilia took a step forward and said indifferently, "The development of the Heavenly Doctor Mask has already applied for the national confidentiality policy. If the product really contains any chemicals, we are willing to accept the supervision and investigation of all parties."

"But do you know the consequences of such slander?"

Unsurprisingly, an employee who was fired for not following her orders would appear here.

"Do you think it's a secret just because you said so?"

Ellie Walker said, "Where is the evidence?"

"Besides, I'm here to speak up for my cousin. Don't even think about fooling around with this matter."

She was in control of this show.

Only by destroying them could she vent her anger. Of course, more importantly, she could also curry favor with her new master.

"That's right!"

"You need evidence for everything," Claire said angrily. "Where's your evidence?"

"I've already called the police. Just wait and see!"

She had indeed called the police.

Moreover, the Health Bureau was in charge of such products!

This was not a joke!

In fact, were there any businesses that didn't have any secrets?

As long as they found out even a small problem with it, it would be enough to ruin Emila's reputation completely.

Emma Adams stood in the crowd on the second floor with a graceful smile on her lips.

Sometimes, the clown was more capable than she thought.

Then, she left the scene. If someone found out about it, they might suspect her.

She also knew that it would not be easy to defeat Davis, so she had to hold a press conference in the name of the leading cosmetics company in Colorado to denounce these counterfeit products.

Even if Emilia were made of iron, it would be difficult to withstand such a two-pronged attack.

"You have to give us an explanation for this!"

"Yes!"

"We can't allow them to earn such dirty money!"

"This is too much!"

"..."

For a moment, the indignant crowd and the keyboard warriors who were not afraid of causing a big deal online had already started to spew wildly. It was as if there was really a problem with these masks.

This was the source of Ellie Walker and Claire's confidence. After all, under the deliberate leadership of the netizens, those people would become the sharpest swords in their hands.

This was definitely enough to destroy the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

"Did you report it?"

Oliver Walker smiled. "Great. We'll wait then."

It was useless to say anything now, but the origins of their masks were far more impressive than his competitors thought.

"Humph!"

Ellie Walker crossed her arms and said coldly, "Just wait!"

At the same time, the first team of more than ten people, led by Jeremy Adams, entered the crowd.

The Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was now a key company in Colorado, and the Heavenly Doctor Mask was a key promotion project for the benefit of the people. Therefore, after knowing that something had happened, the director of the Health Bureau naturally headed over.

He was furious!

Therefore, when he arrived at the counter, he said coldly. "Who reported the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals?"

For a moment, the crowd had already quieted down.

This was because the law enforcers had already arrived at the scene.

"I... It's me!"

"My face has become like this ever since I used their products," Claire quickly shouted.

"I suspect that they are faking it. They must be severely punished!"

"I have a live broadcast here, and there are many people still waiting for the answer. I hope you can enforce the law impartially!"

The reason why she was so confident was because she knew that she had the support of the people and was in control of their opinion.

Chapter 546 The Abyss of Eternal Damnation!

Therefore, there was no need for him to panic.

Forget about the live broadcast, this was slandering in broad daylight.

As long as Jeremy Adams had a brain, he would know what to do.

Emilia frowned slightly and said softly, "What should we do now?"

"Don't worry," Oliver Walker said with a smile. "It'll be fine!"

If it was just a facial mask, it would indeed be difficult to withstand being slandered

However, was the Heavenly Doctor Mask an ordinary one?

No!

It was a blessing for many families who could not afford plastic surgery for their scars.

More importantly, compared to plastic surgery that cost hundreds of thousands, the facial mask only cost a hundred!

"Live broadcast, right?"

The righteous Jeremy Adams looked at the phone camera. "Alright, then let's do a live broadcast, just ensure that it's transparent, fair, and just!"

He owed Oliver Walker a favour, so he would naturally repay it.

Of course, there was also a personal touch to this. He had indeed experienced this product personally. His wife's face, which was disfigured by the fire, had completely recovered.

What kind of godly medicine was this?

How could he allow them to destroy these masks?"

However, Ellie Walker misunderstood. She thought that Jeremy Adams was under pressure and had no choice but to act impartially. Then, she said, "Claire, hand the phone to the Health Bureau."

"They will definitely seek justice for you!"

Claire quickly nodded, but the next moment, Jeremy Adams stepped forward. "Just give me the phone!"

Such a scene made Ellie Walker, who was a scoundrel, glare at Emilia provocatively!

Emilia was indeed nervous.

Although they had a clear conscience, sometimes public opinion did not care about the truth. They only cared about the liveliness.

Once the excitement died down, even if the rumors were refuted, not many people would pay attention to it.

In other words, if the problem was not solved on the spot, then the crisis of their company would be impending.

By then, if she wanted to solve it, not only would the procedures be complicated, she would also have to wait for at least a week before she could get the results of the investigation.

In other words, no matter what the final outcome was, her company would be in debris.

This show that they've put up was indeed a vicious one.

It would be strange if she wasn't angry with how they've almost completely ruined her company.

"Dear netizens and friends present, I am the director of the Department of Health here in Colorado!"

Jeremy Adams said righteously, "In view of the increasing popularity of Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, I have no choice but to make an official response!"

Ellie Walker's face was filled with ruthlessness!

This time, she would definitely make Emilia fall into the abyss of eternal damnation!

How dare she fire her?!

Humph!

This was retribution!

In this line of work, it was not easy to build one, but it was definitely easy to destroy one.

Claire was also proud of herself. If she won this, she might not be able to get a sky-high compensation of 100 million. It should not be difficult to get compensation for plastic surgery.

Everyone was fighting for their own interests!

At this moment, the netizens in the live broadcast room and the tourists in Hongri Mall also pricked up their ears.

In fact, they also wanted to know if the Heavenly Doctor Mask, which had been praised to be divine and became popular overnight in the entire state of Colorado, was reliable.

Emilia held her breath and thought of a countermeasure!

This was because she knew that this matter was far from as simple as it seemed.

On the other hand, Oliver Walker remained calmed. bednovel. org

It was no exaggeration to say that the Heavenly Doctor Mask was a product that had no weaknesses!

Whether it was in terms of efficacy, cost-performance ratio, or even its role in the medical world, it was beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

There was no need for him to panic.

Those who did evil could only taste the bitter fruit themselves, and they could also promote their products for free.

This was great news!

Chapter 547 Willing To Stand Firm

"The formula of the Davis Heavenly Sect's mask is indeed confidential and has been legally certified!"

"I am here to certify that there are no chemical substances present in them."

As soon as Jeremy Adams opened his mouth, it exploded like a deep-sea bomb!

Who was he?

The director of the Department of Health of Colorado.

Could it be that he could speak without thinking?

"You... You..."

"How much money did you take from Emilia? How dare you go against your conscience and say such heartless words?" Ellie Walker said angrily.

Embezzlement?!

For a moment, this term flooded into everyone's mind.

That's right!

How much money did he have to accept to be able to say so confidently?

However, when he mentioned those two words, Jeremy Adams reprimanded him in an upright manner, "Embezzlement?"

"I've been clean for decades, and I've been able to show every expense to you as if it were my family's treasure. I even dare to announce all my financial status!"

"You're making wild guesses. Whose money did you take then?"

Jeremy Adams... accepted bribes?

What a joke! bednovel. org

Even if Oliver Walker had paid for the five facial masks, he would not have paid for anything else.

Ellie Walker also realized that her words were a little too extreme, but before she could apologize...

"Everyone in the state of Colorado knows that I'm a useless man. My wife was disfigured in a fire, but I can't afford to let her have plastic surgery!"

"But now, I would like to tell everyone that my wife's face has been completely restored after she used the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask."

"My wife has even sent over a gift to them!"

The more he spoke, the more excited he became. This also caused the people present to be dumbfounded!

Especially Ellie Walker and Claire.... This was getting out of hand. The script clearly wasn't written in this manner.

Why did it change?!

This...

At this moment, a woman with a red face and snow-white skin walked into the camera from the crowd and appeared in the live broadcast room with a red banner!

"Thank you, Ms. Davis!" she said with difficulty.

"Your mask is truly worthy of the title of a heavenly doctor. You gave me the courage to face life again."

In an instant, the scene exploded again!

Most people knew about the disfigurement of Jeremy Adams's wife, and it was even on the news back then.

Along with her husband's status, this was definitely one of the greatest accomplishments of the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

"Ah..."

Emilia was slightly stunned, but she quickly smiled and said, "This is what we should do. It is also the social responsibility that we, the Davis Heavenly Sect, should shoulder."

"It's certainly because there are a lot of us who are not able to pay for plastic surgery that they need this mask to get rid of life-defining scars."

She was worried a while ago, but now, she felt overjoyed.

If it was given to any other cosmetics company, they would really not be able to withstand such a drop.

Emilia's smile was not excessive, her politeness was not pretentious, and her natural and unrestrained appearance vividly displayed the title of the number one goddess in the state of Colorado.

"That's right!"

Jeremy Adams's wife trembled with excitement. "I can't represent everyone, but today, I have brought along many disfigured patients who have received the grace of the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask to express their gratitude."

She and her husband had wanted to do this for a long time.

They have indeed made preparations long ago, but they never expected to encounter such an opportunity.

"Thank you, Ms. Davis!"

"Thank you, Doctor Davis!"

"We are willing to prove that the effects of masks are absolutely not fake!"

"..."

Soon, another group of people spoke out from the crowd.

They couldn't watch such a good product disappear just like that, so they had to voice out their opinions!

Businesses that treat their products seriously and also their customers whole-heartedly should be appreciated.

In just an instant, the trolls at the scene and the keyboard warriors in the live broadcast room completely shut their mouths.

Even with those hired by Emma Adams, they were being scolded by the group of people who benefited from the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask.

The entire unfavorable situation for the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals have been completely reversed!

Those who are in the right would always be supported and liked while those who aren't will always suffer losses.

Chapter 548 The Approval

A good product would never be short of people who would benefit from it.

"But... this only meant that their products could remove scars. It did not mean that their products did not have any chemical components!"

Ellie Walker still refused to give up and gritted her teeth. "My cousin was disfigured because of this face mask!!!"

She could not admit defeat!

No matter what, she had to bite the bullet and continue moving forward. After all, if she admitted defeat, she had to bear the responsibility!

"Well...."

"Then I'll announce another piece of news to everyone," said Jeremy Adams coldly.

"This is something that the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had not mentioned all along."

"Before the Heavenly Doctor Mask got into the market, it has already got the approval of all 5 Chinese medical sages!"

His words were like thunder!

The Chinese medical sages?

All five of them?

The Chinese medical sages were the most authoritative in their country!

These people were the pillar of traditional medicine in their country!

Davis Heavenly Doctor was just a small company, and it was not considered big in the state of Colorado. If it was not for the quality of its products, how could it have been recognized by them?

"Do you think this is the end?"

"No!"

"I'm telling you, it isn't!"

Jeremy Adams said passionately. "Just yesterday, another ten Chinese medical experts from the National Medical Hall jointly approved it. In other words, the effect of the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask has been approved by them unanimously!"

These words were no different from a heavy bomb that fell into the crowd!

This...

All ten of them acknowledge it!

How terrifying!

Everyone knew what kind of existence the National Medical Hall was!

That was the place where the best doctors of the country gathered!

They were even more authoritative than the Chinese Medicine Hall!

If this wasn't enough to convince them that this product was the best, nothing else would.

Ellie Walker's expression turned extremely ugly!

Claire's entire body seemed to be frozen!

These people were definitely tough!

This was not as simple as kicking the firm wall! They have fought the wrong battle!

They finally felt panicked!

They were definitely doomed this time!

This...

"Even so, the price of the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask still did not increase. They still fulfilled the agreement and placed it at a price where it is affordable for most people."

"To all my friends in the live broadcast room and netizens there, ask yourself! Shouldn't we protect such a conscientious enterprise?"

Jeremy Adams's words were fierce, and his movements were extremely agitated. "If even such a company has to be scammed and destroyed, then we, the state of Colorado, are not worthy of a company with such conscience!"

"It's because we're not worthy!"

"I hereby swear by my status that according to all the information I have, the Heavenly Doctor Mask made from only traditional herbs does not contain any chemical substances."

"It would not cause such allergic reactions!"

After another sentence, the bullet comments in the live broadcast room stopped!

This...

Claire and Ellie Walker were completely flustered!

They had thought that things would be very simple and that they would be able to send these two into the abyss of eternal damnation very quickly, but they had never expected...

The result turned out to be like this!

Emilia smiled in relief. She indeed had no time to publicize their product with this information.

After all, they had yet to do any marketing.

All of the marketing done was by Fernando Walker who had paid a double price to promote them!

"This is far from enough!"

Jeremy Adams took out a piece of paper and shouted, "This is Miss Claire's allergy report. It shows that the source of the allergy is metallic mercury, an element that doesn't exist in the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask!"

"Now, tell us. Did you really use the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask, or did you do it to frame them?"

CHAPTER 549 NAME CLEARED, BATTLES WON

When the evidence was presented again, Claire was stunned!

Who would believe her now?

Even if it was the netizens that they have hired, they wouldn't be able to do anything now!

Wasn't this the same as walking right into the trap?

"Say something!"

"There's a price to pay for framing someone!"

"This is too much!"

"..." bednovel.net

For a moment, the crowd erupted with loud voices filled with righteous indignation.

If she said that she was disfigured because of the Heavenly Doctor Mask, wasn't this a blow to these products that had saved lives?

Of course, they did not believe in Emilia. They only believed in the National Medical Hall and Jeremy Adams!

The National Medical Hall was the authority in the field of medicine, and Jeremy Adams was famous for being an honest and upright official!

This...

The fact that the National Medical Hall and Jeremy Adams supported the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was enough to explain the problem.

After all, Davis was just a small company that was about to close down. Even if Emilia took over, she would not be able to have such a huge influence!

This was the crux of the problem!

Claire, who was facing so many accusations, was speechless!

She didn't know what else she could do!

But...

At this moment, Ellie Walker immediately said, "Claire! I have been nothing but nice to you. How could you hurt me?!"

"If you haven't used the Heavenly Doctor Mask, you can't just splurt out nonsense!"

Ellie Walker was a woman who cared about benefits.

At this point, she naturally had to immediately sever all ties with her to ensure her own safety!

"Sis!"

"It was clearly you..."

Claire immediately spoke, but before she could finish her sentence...

Ellie Walker said angrily, "I don't have a sister like you!"

"You're on your own now!"

As soon as she finished speaking, she hurriedly left!

In any case, only the person who instigated the problem should die!

Moreover, she had already paid Claire to do this. This had nothing to do with her.

"No, no, no. It's not like that..."

"It's her... She asked me to do this..."

Claire panicked. If they were to pursue the matter, she would be in trouble!

She did not expect that her cousin Ellie Walker, who kept saying that she was doing this for her own good, would betray her in the blink of an eye!

"You can eat whatever you want, but you can't say whatever you want!"

Ellie Walker's face was gloomy as she said shamelessly, "I treated you like a sister, but you wanted to drag me along into this?"

"People like you deserve to be drowned by spit!"

Ellie Walker panicked as well.

She knew that she could not stay here for long and decided that she had to leave immediately.

However, just as the entire stadium was looking down on Claire...

Emilia stepped forward and shouted, "Ellie Walker, I hope you remain a human!"

She had seen everything clearly.

Claire must have been bewitched by Ellie Walker. Otherwise, there was no enmity between them. How could Claire defame Heavenly Doctor Davis?

However, Ellie Walker was different. She had previously become a manager as William Davis's lover. Ellie Walker was fired because she refused to follow Emilia's orders.

There was indeed a grudge between them!

Therefore, in terms of motive, it could only be that Ellie Walker had instructed Claire to deliberately frame them. Her goal was to completely ruin the reputation that Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had painstakingly won back!

"Don't slander me!"

"I was also deceived!"

Ellie Walker said righteously before turning around to leave, leaving Claire, who was despised by everyone, in the crowd!

The live broadcast was still going on and its popularity was soaring!

This was definitely more popular than any advertisement!

After all, with the identity of Jeremy Adams and the recognition of the National Medical Hall, wasn't it better than any advertisement?

"Ms. Davis, do you have anything to say to your clients?"

"Or is there any misunderstanding that you want to clear?"

Chapter 550 A Respectable Woman

Jeremy Adams gave the spotlight to Emilia.

After all, he was truly grateful!

Gold and silver cups were not as good as the customer's reputation!

"Hello, everyone. I am the chairman of Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!"

Emilia smiled lightly and faced the camera. She said gracefully, "I don't have anything to explain. I'm very grateful for everyone's support and the recognition of the National Medical Hall!"

"We will definitely make better products and sell them at a fair price. We will shoulder the social responsibility and mission of an entrepreneur caring for the people of this country!"

She glanced at Oliver Walker. She had wanted to drag him on screen to clear up most of the misunderstandings.

However, after thinking about it, her husband wanted to keep a low profile. Otherwise, with his ability, why would those misunderstandings spread like wildfire?

So, she decided not to do so.

A round of warm applause rang out in the arena!

"Daddy, Mommy is so beautiful!"

Olivia Walker, who was in the crowd, smiled. "She seems to be very popular!"

In the past, they were like rats crossing the street, being despised wherever they went.

But now, her mother seemed to be really respected!

"Of course!" Oliver Walker laughed. "She has dedicated her work to the people, so she'll naturally be respected!"

"You'll understand when you grow up!"

His wife was an entrepreneur, not a capitalist. Therefore, she knew what to do and what she should never do!

"Yes!"

Olivia Walker said seriously, "When I grow up in the future, I want to be like my mother and be a respected person!"

Respect!

It was what she desired!

Her childhood experiences were still fresh in her mind. If not for the encouragement of her teacher, Lily Jones, she would not have dared continue going to school.

"That's my girl!"

Oliver Walker rubbed his daughter's head and smiled in satisfaction!

The storm had finally ended.

The Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals relied on its powerful product power to not stumble under such slanders and even manage to show what it can truly do!

Those who won the hearts of the people won the world. This saying was not false at all!

If it was any other company, would they be able to do this?

It was obviously impossible!

"Mr. Adams, thank you for your help!"

As Emilia walked away from the crowd, she said gratefully, "If it weren't for you, I wouldn't be able to clear my name even if I tried my best."

Jeremy Adams waved his hand and replied with a smile, "Ms. Davis, I should be the one thanking you!"

"I only hope that one day, more pharmaceutical companies will be found here in Colorado. It's not easy to change. If there's a need, I'll definitely help those within my abilities."

It was naturally beneficial for him to have such a conscientious company under him.

Besides, with Oliver Walker's medical skills where could train five Chinese medical experts, it was naturally not a problem.

The difficult part has been trying to infuse traditional medicine into modern medicine.

After all, traditional medicine was different from modern medicine. It was about one prescription for each disease. Different people had different physiques. Therefore, even if they had the same disease, they could not use the same amount of medicine.

This was the real challenge.

"Definitely!"

"We will work hard!"

After some small talk, Jeremy Adams left, while Emilia and Oliver Walker took Olivia Walker back to the old Davis residence.

After all, Ma'am Davis wasn't asking too much.

She was also approaching the last of her days. How much longer could she live?

Therefore, they wouldn't do their filial piety.

Adams Group, outside the chairman's office!

"Ms. Walker, you can't go in!"

"The chairman doesn't like to be disturbed when she's meeting others."

This was Emma Adams's habit.

Especially when she was meeting guests, she even had to turn off her phone.

"I..."

"Please inform them that this is something urgent!"

Ellie Walker was impatient, but she couldn't break in. She could only stomp her feet anxiously. "If something goes wrong, can you bear it?"

She did not forget that Emma Adams was going to hold a new product launch.

It would be a live broadcast!

If the matter of the Heavenly Doctor Mask was brought up, they would be in big trouble!
