Chapter 55 Drowning In Tears

It was true that Olivia was still young, but she only had to know that she was out of luck.

So what if she was at the hospital?

She was only counting down her days!

"Huhuhuhu..."

Olivia got so scared that she started crying. Humans....were all afraid of death.

What more if it was a child like her?

She had always known what she was suffering from.

But....it was William Davis' aura that frightened the young introverted girl.

Most importantly, he was saying that she was a wild child with no father.

William Davis was indeed vicious. Not only did he hurt Olivia Walker with his words, but he also managed to hurt both Emilia and Mary Grimm as well.

He was satisfied with what was happening, and he let out a loud laugh, "Hahahahahahaha!!!"

Emilia was no longer a threat to him. He was only doing so to satisfy his twisted vanity.

He wanted to get revenge by seeing how this woman, who was better than him previously, was living such a miserable life! This sense of satisfaction was something he had never experienced before.action

He could only say that this was incredibly satisfying!

Emilia rushed forward when she heard Olivia crying. She hugged her little girl and asked out of anger, "William Davis, are you even human?!"

"She's just a child!"

"You can do anything to me!"

"Come at me!"

"I can take it! I can take anything!"

This bastard claimed he was Olivia's uncle, but he had done something so horrible! He was worse than a monster!

Mary Grimm, who was a gentle lady, felt pissed as well when she saw what happened.

However, no matter how angry they felt, what could they do?

William Davis was shameless, but he was right about one thing.

If he wanted to torture them, it could be easily done. He could even chase them out of this state.

"Hahahahahaha...."

William Davis laughed till his heart desired.

"I know that you could take it! I know that you're stubborn! You even ended up being a sl*t! What else couldn't you do?!"

"Did you think that I had no idea that George Johnson took you in?"

"No!"

"I knew it all along! I just allowed it to happen!"

"I didn't think that the Goddess of Colorado, Miss Davis, the CEO of the Davis Corporate would end up being a sl*t!"

In the first part of her life, Emilia lived a glorious life! She was the most honorable woman in town!

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that she was blessed by god!

Back then, Emilia was so gifted that she was able to stomp on the young master of Davis to the point where he felt suffocated.

But now?

Emilia bit her lips. She might have saved her own dignity and did not allow anyone to take advantage of her while she worked at the club.

But, does it matter?

After working at such places, it would be impossible for her to regain her dignity.

Mary Grimm was filled with rage, but she could only hold it in. This was life! This was the life of an adult! This was how it was to live at the bottom of the pyramid as an adult!

For Olivia, they didn't dare go against the man before them.

All of it for a small hint of hope!

"You're a bad person!

"You can't speak to my mother like that!

"My mother is a great woman, and she is not what you said!

"My father.... I have a father! He is the hero who is fighting on the front lines! He....he even got lots of medals!"

The adults had already surrendered to the hardships!

However, the little girl was the one who still had the courage!

Ever since she could remember, the thing she heard constantly was that the woman who loved her the most was a sl*t and she was a wild child with no father.

Most of the time, they would say it behind her back, and since she was a timid child, she never spoke back.

But, she saw her mother cry!

She couldn't stand it anymore!

She mustered up all of the courage instead and held her mother's face. Olivia was crying as well as she said, "Mummy, please don't cry. Daddy will come back and protect us!"

Both the woman and her child were drowning in tears!
