

Chaplain 551

Chapter 551 Urgent Matters

"Rules are rules. Even if you're in a hurry, you can only wait here!"

The bodyguard's tone was very loud. After all, he was Emma Adams's trusted aide. He naturally knew Ellie Walker's status in the Adams Group.

In other words, Emma Adams had never treated Ellie Walker as one of her own.

Naturally, he had to be on guard no matter what Ellie Walker did, and it was even more impossible for her to come into contact with core secrets.

If Ellie Walker was allowed inside, it would be his dereliction of duty!

Ellie Walker was so anxious that her eyes were wide open. She was panicking!

She wondered if Emma Adams had watched the live broadcast. If she hadn't, wouldn't it be troublesome later?

This was the place she relied on to survive. How could she dare to mess around?

If she lost this job, she would be no better than Claire.

If she couldn't get the money from here, she would have to borrow from loan sharks to maintain her current high quality of life.

Just thinking about it made her scalp tingle!

At this moment, in the office, Emma Adams said cheerfully, "Mr. Adam Collins, I'm very satisfied with your reputation and your fanbase."

"As long as you are willing to agree to be Adams's spokesperson and follow me to the press conference, I will definitely give you what you want."

She kept glancing at him flirtatiously!

Fresh meat!

Was there anyone who wouldn't want him?

Especially with Adam Collins's appearance.

Most of his fans were young girls. Is anyone of them actually an owner of a cosmetic company?

"Ms. Adams, how much do you plan to pay for the endorsement?"

Adam Collins was very reserved. He had not planned to take on any cosmetics endorsement.

However, he had specially come here to buy the Heavenly Doctor Mask. He had never expected that it would be the company of the couple who had made a fool of him in the afternoon.

How could he be willing to do that?

It was even more impossible for him to promote it to his fans.

"The contract is here. Take a look!"

"If it's appropriate, accompany me to a new product launch tonight."

A charming smile appeared on Emma Adams's lips. It was obvious that she had her eyes on the fair-skinned piano prince.

"Ten million a year for endorsement and only one advertisement?"

Adam Collins gulped. Although his popularity was not bad, it had not reached this level!

This price was already twice his normal price!

How could his eyes not light up?

"Hehe..."

Emma Adams said flirtatiously, "I just don't know if this extra price can buy two hours of your private time!"

"If it's possible, I'll pay immediately after signing the contract!"

Successful men liked to play with women, and successful women liked to play with young hunks. It was the same principle.

Although she was already in her forties, she had taken good care of herself. Other than being a little fat, her looks were still okay.

Adam Collins thought for a moment and said, "This... That's not good, right?"

Of course, he understood what Emma Adams meant.

Wasn't it obvious that she wanted to lay her hands on him?

"Hehe..."

"There are still two hours before the new product launch," Emma Adams said with a smile. "Think about it yourself."

As a female boss with a net worth of billions, she naturally did not lack this bit of money.

Of course, she usually looked for male models, but this was the first time she was playing with a famous celebrity, so she was full of anticipation. "Besides, isn't this just a deal?"

"You need money and I have it."

Adam Collins couldn't hold it in anymore. Although Emma Adams was almost old enough to be his mother, who wouldn't want money?"

He quickly changed his serious attitude. "Ms. Adams, I... I'm honored!" bednovel.com

After the conditions were settled, Emma Adams stood up and walked to Adam Collins's side. She lifted his chin with her finger and flirted with him. "My darling, show me your skills."

Adam Collins had a serious expression on his face. F*ck, five million in two hours?

This was a bloody profit!

Moreover, the endorsement fee was not low. It would be strange if he gave up!

Very soon, an indescribable scene of passion took place in the office!

On the other hand, Ellie Walker, who was waiting outside, saw that the time for the new product launch was getting closer and closer. She paced back and forth anxiously at the door. "I... I really have something urgent!"

Chapter 552 Plagiarism!

Would your matter be more urgent than Ms. Adams's matter?" the bodyguard asked coldly.

"You really don't know what's good for you!"

"If you don't behave yourself, I'll throw you out!"

As Emma Adams's trusted aide, he knew exactly what Emma Adams was doing inside.

After all, he was often brought into the office for similar reasons.

"You..."

Ellie Walker never thought that a stinky bodyguard would dare to talk to her like that. However, she held it in in the end when she saw his fierce appearance.

But now, every minute and every second was a painful torment for her!

Finally, two hours later, Emma Adams opened the office door with a disdainful expression.

As expected, that man was useless.

As for the man, his legs were trembling. Adam Collins, who was walking behind, also despised Emma Adams for being too ruthless. Not only was she old, but more importantly...

However, it was alright since he would be paid for it. be d n o ve l . n et

Suffering two hours of torture was not a loss!

"Ms. Adams!"

"I..."

Ellie Walker finally heaved a sigh of relief and quickly prepared to report the situation.

However, Emma Adams said, "Yes!"

"Accompany me to the new product launch!"

"Remember to read according to the script I gave you!"

A sinister look flashed across her face. This time, she could at least pull down Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals from the pedestal, right?

Trying to fight with her?

No way, they were still amateurs.

"No... I mean..."

Ellie Walker was so anxious that she was incoherent, but Emma Adams ignored her at all.

It was obvious that Emma Adams wanted Ellie Walker to go on stage because she wanted to use her previous identity as the manager of Davis Cosmetics to expose some dirt that would cause a fatal blow to her competitors.

As for the rest....

Ellie Walker would be useless to do anything else.

"Adam Collins!"

"How the new product sells will depend on your fanbase."

"And you guys, you must ensure the safety of the scene!"

"If anything goes wrong, don't blame me for being merciless!"

Emma Adams was an overbearing female CEO. When she worked, she still had that domineering aura.

After all, Leon Williams was the richest man in the state, and she was the richest woman in the state. How could she become a tycoon in the state without some iron-fisted means?

It was just that the pitiful Ellie Walker followed behind her and without getting a chance to say anything.

In the blink of an eye, they arrived at the venue.

The major media outlets that had arrived early had already prepared their cameras, but Ellie Walker still hadn't said a word.

Cold sweat broke out on her forehead!

"Welcome, friends! To the Adams Group's new product launch!"

Emma Adams stood on stage and smiled at the camera. "The new product that Adams brought this year will be a facial mask that has healing effects. It has a good scar removal effect while it's also restoring youth and beauty."

As soon as she finished speaking, a promotional video that had been prepared in advance appeared on the big screen behind her.

All of its functions, including the gimmicks, were exactly the same as the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask.

The reporters were completely stunned.

After all, the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask was so famous now. Was there anyone who didn't know about it?

What more them?

"Ms. Adams, I want to know, is there any difference between this and the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask?"

"I've been looking at it for a long time, but I don't see any difference."

"They're completely identical!"

"..."

Soon, the voices of doubt in the venue sounded like a tide!

This was plagiarism!

Chapter 553 The Truth?

Of course, there's a difference!"

Emma Adams didn't understand why the reporters present said that, but she still insisted, "As everyone knows, the Adams Group replaced Davis Cosmetics eight years ago and became the leader of the cosmetics industry in the state of Colorado!"

"Their products can't even withstand a single blow from us!"

"Today, not only would we be launching our new product, but there is also a mystery guest to reveal the truth behind the fall of Davis Cosmetics, which is also the current Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals."

As soon as she said that, the entire place erupted.

What was this?

How could a product with a reputation recognized by the public, the National Medical Hall, and guaranteed by Jeremy Adams with his integrity and innocence be so weak?

However, the reporters soon quieted down. Perhaps Adams Group could really bring a bigger surprise?

This was a live broadcast, so the Internet went wild!

"Emma Adams is really confident!"

"Just wait and see!"

"Would you look down at an established enterprise?"

"I support the Adams Group!"

"I heard that Adam Collins is the spokesperson. I'll support him first!"

"..."

There were all sorts of comments on the internet. Some were about plagiarism, while others were supportive.

Of course, the supporters included many of Adams's old clients and Adam Collins's fans.

Therefore, the quarrels were getting intense!

"Next up, joining us would be the former R & D Manager of Davis Cosmetics, Ellie Walker!"

To strike a blow to her competitors, Emma Adams did not even care about her face. "If you have any insider information you want to know, you can ask her directly."

Ellie Walker's heart was trembling with unease. After she went on stage, she hurriedly said, "Madam Adams...."

There was a change of plans!

Things were really not what she had imagined.

If she were to say anything about the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask now, she would be looking for trouble.

However, Emma Adams did not know. Instead, she smiled and said, "You don't have to be nervous. Just say what you have to say."

"Adams Group, as the leading company in the cosmetics industry in Colorado, needs to expose some of the darkness in the industry and set a new example!"

In her opinion, Emilia would already be facing a series of scandals and could not even care for herself.

Now, it was the time to sprinkle salt on their wounds!

"..."

Ellie Walker was dumbfounded. Why couldn't Emma Adams listen to her?

Did Emma Adams really think that she was nervous?

She wasn't just nervous!

She was scared!!!

At the same time, Emilia was lying on her bed when she saw the live broadcast. Out of curiosity, she clicked on it. However, after seeing this, she immediately said, "Hubby, look!"

As expected, Ellie Walker was instructed by someone to frame the Heavenly Doctor Mask today deliberately.

And Claire was just a scapegoat!

"They're just a bunch of clowns!"

Oliver Walker chuckled and said, "They can't stand how popular our products are now."

"Forget about the formulas. Without the ratio, the effect may be greatly reduced or even have the opposite effect."

"Even if they really figured out the ratio, we released it earlier than them."

Of course, Emilia understood this, but she couldn't figure out why Emma Adams would do such a mysterious thing.

If Emilia knew the truth, she would definitely laugh out loud.

Emma Adams, who was overconfident, missed the afternoon news to covet the young hunks. Coupled with her blind arrogance, she did not take Ellie Walker, who was on the same side as her, seriously at all.

Otherwise, she would never do such a ridiculous thing.

At the press conference, Ellie Walker was extremely embarrassed. bednovel.net

More importantly, she didn't know what to do!

If she continued to defame Emilia, she would definitely be criticized to the heavens!

Could it be that Emma Adams had seen the news at noon and insisted on doing this to fight to her death?

"May I ask, Ms. Walker, what news are you going to reveal?"

"What would you be sharing with us today?"

"Could it be that you have some concerns?"

Chapter 554 We Paid You For This

The reporters at the scene began to get anxious.

Emma Adams glared at her, causing the scene on stage to be so awkward that it was suffocating.

"Uh..."

After Ellie Walker weighed the pros and cons, she still said, "The main reason for the low price set in the Heavenly Doctor Mask is because it uses inferior raw materials!"

"Plus, they are only trying to make money by selling those masks for a hundred per piece when it only takes them a few cents to make them."

Would it work if she didn't say anything?

Ellie Walker was depending on this job.

After all, Claire's fate was still fresh in her mind.

Even if she was despised, she had to bite the bullet and expose it.

What she said was also true, but that was the Davis Cosmetics when William Davis was in power, not the current one."

There was a fundamental difference between the two!

"Damn! Is it that dark?"

"I knew it. Those who use products from Davis Cosmetics are all idiots!"

"Damn it!"

"Humph! This is slandering! Can't you see it?"

"Yes, yes, I used the Davis Heavenly Doctor Mask. The effect is excellent!"

"I support Adam Collins!"

"When are you coming out?"

Very soon, the Internet was filled with a split of opinions.

However, as a newly-risen company and without buying any 'fans' on the internet, the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals still had the upper hand when compared to the Adams Group even when the Adams Group had invited Adam Collins to be their spokesperson. This was enough to show how popular Heavenly Doctor Davis was now.

After all, it had only been three days since the mask was released!

The reporters below the stage no longer dared to speak casually.

This news was shocking, but the Davis Heavenly Sect Masks were the best selling items now. Who would dare to report anything about it now?

Meanwhile, Ellie Walker was still on stage, revealing the news. But in fact, the more information she revealed, the more she was getting reprimanded.

At the same time, Emma Adams was also watching the comments on the big screen behind her. She felt that the comments in the livestream were a little strange.

Why did so many people support Emilia?

Seeing that the situation was not right, she quickly smiled to ease the awkwardness and said, "Now, let's welcome our brand spokesperson, Mr. Adam Collins!" bednovel.com

In her opinion, Adam Collins was quite popular.

They were only at a disadvantage now because Adam Collins's fans had yet to participate in the battle.

Soon, Adam Collins, who was dressed in white, went on stage with a smile on his face. "Thank you, Ms. Adams, for bringing us such a good product. This can be considered a benefit for my fans."

"The effect of this is definitely the best."

As expected, as soon as Adam Collins went up on stage, his super charisma was instantly reflected.

"Adam Collins!!! You're so handsome!!!!!"

"Oh my!!!"

"You're awesome!!!"

"..."

If the previous livestream was about the Adams Group and the Davis Group, it would be a small fight in the state of Colorado.

However, after Adam Collins took the stage, fans from all over the world joined the battle!

Comments from Adam Collin's fans filled the screen.

Seeing that the situation had stabilized, Emma Adams said calmly, "Mr. Adam Collins has always been using our products."

"And so, he will also become the first person to experience our facial mask!"

As she spoke, a recliner was brought up.

Adam Collins frowned slightly, but he knew that it was a live broadcast, so he could only turn off the microphone and hurriedly said in a low voice, "Ms. Adams, the contract didn't mention this!"

Emma Adams's expression turned cold. "After taking so much money, it's not too much to apply a facial mask on the spot, right?"

"But..." Adam Collins said, aggrieved.

He had allergic skin!

He never dared to use cosmetics indiscriminately!

If something went wrong, then...

Chapter 555 Taking A Gun and Shooting Herself In The Head

"As a young handsome man in this industry, you should know what you should be doing. I don't want any of us to be embarrassed in the future."

Emma Adams's face was filled with displeasure. She was already dissatisfied with Adam Collins's skills in bed, but now he was f*cking up the press conference.

If it wasn't for the live broadcast, she would have fallen out with him long ago!

"No... Ms. Adams, I... I have sensitive skin, and I've always used custom-made cosmetics. This..."

Adam Collins frowned. If anything happened, Emma Adams would not be the only one in trouble.

It would also be a huge blow to his reputation.

"This is a great herbal facial mask. Hurry up and stop talking nonsense."

"If I can spend 10 million to hire you as an endorsement, and I can spend 100 million to ruin your reputation!"

Emma Adams said with a firm attitude, "Don't be ungrateful!"

Why was a grown man being so pretentious?

It would be a f*cking pity if he didn't reincarnate as a woman in his next life!

"Alright... Fine!"

Adam Collins braced himself and turned on the microphone on his collar with a forced smile. "Ms. Adams and I have just discussed it and decided to show the fans the scar removal effect of the new facial mask."

"Dear fans, please watch carefully!"

Perhaps only Adam Collins knew how helpless he was.

Then, he picked up the safety blade and cut a bloody wound on his cheek, and laid down on the recliner.

Meanwhile, the staff member at the side also removed the mask and applied it on his face.

He felt numb. He felt uncomfortable.

But, this was the power of money!

If he does not do as he was told, he would definitely be punished to death!

Now, he could only pray that the Adams Group's new facial mask really had the same scar removal effect as the Heavenly Doctor Mask, and that it was safe and reliable.

Otherwise, he would be disfigured!

"Oh god!"

"Our idol..."

"It must be very painful!"

"My heart aches so much!"

"..."

The fans in the live broadcast room were already arguing, which increased the popularity of the broadcast.

Therefore, more and more people entered the live broadcast room.

"Everyone, calm down! Wait for ten minutes. I guarantee that there won't be any scars on his face."

Emma Adams laughed. After all, that was what Emilia did at the new product launch at Davis.

So...

She firmly believed that there was nothing wrong with her product.

Especially when the product went offline, she had found someone to try it out. All the tests had also met the safety standards. Otherwise, how would she dare to do such a thing in public?

However, she had neglected one thing. Adam Collins really had sensitive skin.

If anything went wrong, it would turn red and swollen!

The most important thing was that her formula did not have the perfect ratio, so the effect was really different from the Heavenly Doctor Mask.

"I'm so anxious!"

"If there's a scar on my idol's face, I'll never buy Adams cosmetics again."

"This is too much!"

"Why didn't the old witch draw on her own face?"

"..."

The muzzle of the gun in the live broadcast room was instantly aimed at Emma Adams!

Obviously, Emma Adams saw it too, but she didn't care.

This was because she was very confident! bednovel.com

But at this moment, Ellie Walker hurriedly walked up and said in a low voice, "Ms. Adams, the last time we tested the scar removal effect, it was indeed worse than that of Heavenly Doctor Davis!"

Emma Adams glared at him. "Nonsense. It's just a small wound this time. If it can't heal, how can I compete with the Heavenly Doctor Mask?"

Ellie Walker was scolded so badly that she stopped talking. She could only lower her head and stand at the side.

Her heart was in a mess.

After all, the few promotions of Heavenly Doctor Mask had been perfect. If something went wrong, wouldn't it be...

*****

Back at the Sovereign.

Emilia and Oliver Walker looked at the television on the bedside table in shock!

"Did.... Did she really do that?"

"Could it be possible that she just shot herself in the leg?!"

"Of course."

"..."

Emma Adams's motive for doing this was already very obvious.

It was a gamble. If she lost, she would really lose the entire game.

Chapter 556 An allergic Reaction

"It's been nine minutes!"

"Ahhhhhh... I'm so nervous..."

"He will definitely be fine!"

"..."

The comments were like wildfire!

It was obvious that Adam Collins had been cut, which had affected the hearts of countless young female fans!

But... this was the effect Emma Adams wanted. The more they cursed, the crazier they would be when she removed the mask later. bednovel.org

However, Adam Collins was in extreme pain.

This was because his face felt very itchy, it was obvious that he was allergic to the mask.

If he removed the mask, what would happen?

However, a minute passed quickly.

Emma Adams got up from her chair and smiled confidently. "The audience in the live broadcast room, please follow me as we remove the mysterious mask on the piano prince's face. Let's witness a miracle together..."

The female fans holding their phones held their breaths!

None of them blinked!

Emma Adams also lifted a corner of the mask. Her heart was filled with excitement, but when she saw that under the mask..... It was swollen with bumps and was flaring red, as if he had been stung by a hornet. It looked terrible.

How did he...

How could this be?

Why was this happening?

What exactly happened?

It was over!

If she moved aside and this was captured by the camera, it would be a big problem!

In an instant, the smile on her face disappeared!

"Old witch, get out of the way!"

"I want to see our idol!"

"Who wants to see your pail waist?"

"..."

Adam Collins's fans were anxious!

They began to put pressure on Emma Adams!

"Ms. Adams, what's wrong?"

"That's right! Let us witness the miracle too!"

"..."

At the same time, the reporters at the scene also shouted.

However, no one knew that Emma Adams was on the verge of tears!

Instantly, a burst of anger burst out from her eyes as she glared at those ugly faces. He wanted nothing more than to go forward and strangle Adam Collins to death.

Oliver Walker, who was watching TV at home, shook his head and said with a smile, "This is a live broadcast. Is she going to go back on her words?"

It was obvious that Emma Adams had not moved for a long time. Something uncontrollable must have happened.

"I don't think so, right?" Emilia frowned.

"All products have to go through safety inspections before they can be launched."

Adams Group was completely different from the time she was forced to try the facial mask.

Back then, she had not completed the clinical certification.

However, Adams Group clearly had plenty of time!

Even if there was a mistake, they should have fixed it by now.

Otherwise, the entire Adams Group would suffer a fatal blow!

However, they were not present at the scene, so they could only assume.

She also did not know that Emma Adams would be so unlucky to find Adam Collins, a fellow with skin allergy, to test her facial mask.

At the same time, Emma Adams broke out in cold sweat.

The atmosphere in the venue had gone from the initial clamor to a deathly stillness!

Ellie Walker had already guessed that there might be a problem. She was the one who found the formula, so she naturally couldn't escape the blame.

So she quickly stepped forward and said, "Ms. Adams..."

However, before she could finish her sentence, she was completely stunned!

She had thought that the scar had not been completely removed, but when she walked in, she realized that Adam Collins's face was much more serious than her cousin's.

Emma Adams gulped while thinking of a countermeasure.

She knew that once the camera captured Adam Collins's face, it would cause a terrible impact!

She hated Adam Collins!

She hated Ellie Walker even more!

The anger in her heart rose, but she couldn't f*cking show it to the public!

She was definitely now at pit bottom!

Chapter 557 Managing The Chaos

"Listen up!"

"Immediately, cut off the power!"

Emma Adams moved her lips in despair as she conveyed a message to her trusted subordinates.

However, it did not make any sound. It was just lip reading!

The bodyguard immediately understood.

After all, he had undergone professional training. Lip reading was just a basic skill. He then disappeared from the stage.

"What exactly is going on?!"

"Exactly!"

"What happened?"

"This old witch, is she deliberately taking advantage of us?"

"..."

As time dragged on, the violent comments became louder and louder.

This caused everyone to be dissatisfied!

Slam --

However, in the next second, the entire scene fell into darkness!

Everyone was lost!

Why did the power suddenly go out?

This was odd!

"Ah..."

But at this moment, Emma Adams screamed, "Will there be a robbery?" bednovel.com

"Protect Adam Collins!"

"Where are the security guards?"

"Hurry up!"

It had to be said that Emma Adams definitely had her own methods to be able to make Adams Group this successful.

The only solution now was to cut off the electricity.

She can't let that damned Adam Collins ruin Adams Group's reputation!

"Damn..."

"Why is there a blackout at such a time?"

"Where's brother?"

"At least that old witch is sensible and knows how to protect our brother!"

"..."

The people present were not flustered.

But...

Under Emma Adams's arrangement, the security guards began to deliberately create chaos.

"Miss Adams, be careful!"

"Someone is breaking in!"

"Quickly follow us. The reporters at the scene! Quickly leave now under our escort!"

"..."

As soon as he said that, the reporters who originally were not flustered and were still waiting for the results instantly panicked.

Did someone break in?

Who could it be?

But now, it didn't matter who it was. The most important thing was to ensure their safety first.

Therefore, under the leadership of the security personnel, everyone evacuated!

However, due to the darkness, chaos is inevitable.

Those live broadcast rooms were naturally completely interrupted because of the departure of the reporters.

*****

Back at the Sovereign

"What happened?" Emilia asked with a frown.

That's right!

This entire thing felt strange.

There were so many question?

Did someone break in?

If yes, then who was it?

"I'm afraid things are not that simple!" Oliver Walker said coldly.

Was this a conspiracy?

That was definitely the case!

Realisation dawned on Emilia as well. "You mean, Emma Adams might have deliberately framed me?"

Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals is in a competitive relationship with Adams Group.

The complexity of this matter was imaginable!

The Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had released the scar removal masks which threatened Adams Group's position in the cosmetics industry.

Chapter 558 Ruined Piano Prince

For her own benefit, Emma Adams colluded with Ellie Walker, who had been fired by Emilia, to publicly defame the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals at the same new product launch.

Then, in order to stop Adams Corporation's new product launch, it was very likely that the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals would send someone to break into the venue and take revenge on the higher-ups of Adams Corporation.

When a series of questions surfaced in her mind, Emilia 's pretty face became colder and colder. "She's still trying to frame us. Is this all that she's got?"

However, even when these treats were obvious to those people with discerning eyes, the effects were surprisingly good.

At that time, all the sh*t would fall on them!

"I don't think it's that simple!"

Oliver Walker shook his head. "Something uncontrollable must have happened. That's why Emma Adams had no choice but to do this, but I have to say, this is a good move."

Emma Adams was there at the scene. There must be a reason for the delay.

What was the reason that made Emma Adams change her previous plan?

Could it be that she has decided it wasn't a good idea to use her popularity to sell her product?

"Then what should we do now?"

"I think there will be a lot of bad news tomorrow morning," Emilia frowned.

Such a public public relations crisis was naturally very important.

Once there was no way to break it, even if she was wronged, it would be considered a fact to the public.

"Leave this matter to me!"

"Rest early!" Oliver Walker said with a faint smile.

In fact, he already had a guess in his heart that something had happened to Adam Collins, which was why Emma Adams had no choice but to change the plan.

However, to think of such a vicious method in a critical moment, Emma Adams could only be said to be a scheming bitch!

"Yes!"

Emilia's face was full of worry as she tried to think of a countermeasure. How could she really fall asleep?

At the same time, there was a commotion on the Internet.

Even the words 'Brother Adam Collins, how are you?' were instantly pushed to the hot search by his fans.

The influence of this matter was clearly expanding.

"Tell me, why is this happening?"

"Why?"

In the Adams Group, Emma Adams was roaring crazily in her office. "Why did the formula you brought disfigure Adam Collins?"

"If I hadn't reacted quickly, the entire company would have been finished!"

"Also, why are there still a large number of fans of the Heavenly Doctor Mask who are against us?"

"Didn't you say that their reputation has already been tarnished?"

Although she had managed to fool Adam Collin's fans, she still had to hurry and give them a satisfactory explanation!

However, Adam Collins's face was red and swollen. He did not know when it would be gone.

If he went to the hospital, wouldn't they be exposed?

Therefore, the problem was more troublesome than she had imagined.

"Madam Adams...I..."

Ellie Walker stuttered, "I... I've tried tell you that.... There has been a change in plans!"

Regarding this matter, she was really wronged.

She had mentioned it a few times, but Emma Adams did not listen to her!

As for why Adam Collins became like this after using the facial mask, she did not know.

"You don't deserve to call me Madam Adams!"

"Get lost!"

"Get lost now!"

Emma Adams's face was gloomy. She went up and slapped Ellie Walker. "What a b*tch! A b*tch who relied on her body to get to the top is not worthy of being the product director of my group!"

Emma Adams was indeed furious.

If she didn't have an idea in a hurry, she would really be finished!

This was self-destruction!

"I..."

Ellie Walker was anxious. If she lost this job, she would end up miserable as well! bednovel.org

Her cousin Claire, who was plagued by loan sharks, would be the best example.

"Ms. Adams told you to get lost!"

At this moment, the bodyguard gave him a vicious kick. "You've really f*cked up."

Ellie Walker, on the other hand, could not fight back at all and quickly ran away.

"Phew... Huff huff..."

Emma Adams sat on the sofa and panted heavily. "Mike, you can really read my mind. I'll definitely give you a raise."

If Mike had not read her lips, then the Adams Group would have been in an even more chaotic state.

"Helping you solve your problems are my dutis."

"Ms. Adams, we will definitely get through this."

However, at the next moment...

Adam Collins, who was wearing a white baseball cap, black sunglasses, and a mask, rushed in angrily.

"Ms. Adams, there is a problem with your product."

"I rely on my face to make a living. How do you want me to explain this to my fans now?"

Chapter 559 Do Something!

Adam Collins was also holding back his anger!

He had already made it clear that he had sensitive skin and was easily allergic.

Therefore, other than custom-made cosmetics, he did not dare to use anything else indiscriminately.

However, under Emma Adam's coercion, she had no choice but to use a new facial mask.

This...

Now, it has caused a huge problem!!!

"Humph..."

"You dare to challenge me?" Emma Adams said coldly.

"Believe it or not, I can make you stay in this small piece of land in the Colorado forever."

What was the meaning of this?

This was clearly a threat!

Adam Collins's heart trembled, and his expression changed.

After all, this was not his territory. It was too easy for a tycoon like Emma Adams to kill someone silently.

However, at this moment, Adam Collins's manager, who was also his biological sister, Adrianna Collins quickly smiled and said. "Ms. Adams, please calm down. My brother became famous at a young age and doesn't know how to speak properly. Please be magnanimous!"

"Look, we'll return the money to you. We won't take on this endorsement deal, okay?"

It was the time to lose money and avoid disaster. If he was unwilling, he would really lose his life here.

"Do I care about that bit of money?"

Emma Adams glanced at them with disdain and said with a cold expression, "I will deal with his face."

The main problem now was her company!

How much would a young hunk's broken face worth?

Compared to the Adams Group, they were simply not on the same level.

"Then..." Adrianna Collins was about to raise another question.

"Can't you see that I'm very frustrated now?" Emma Adams scolded angrily.

"Get lost!"

"All of you! get out!"

She was also thinking of a foolproof plan now!

No matter what, she couldn't allow her company's reputation to be ruined.

Adam Collins couldn't take it anymore. Just as he was about to speak, he was glared at by his sister, Adrianna Collins, who was also his manager. He could only keep quiet.

Adrianna Collins smiled and said, "Alright then. Please have a good rest."

Emma Adams didn't say anything. She just waved her hand impatiently! bednovel.net

Adrianna Collins and Adam Collins could only leave helplessly!

After a moment, Emma Adams 'eyes flashed. "Emilia, you're unlucky this time. All that will happen to you would just be taking the fall for this unfortunate incident."

"Humph!"

"You're still too inexperienced to fight with me!"

She had to admit that she was not a fool!

She had also thought of the possibility that Oliver Walker and Emilia had thought of.

It was supposed to be a quick response to a crisis, but she never expected that it would give her the opportunity to deal with them.

"Mike, contact the media."

"Just say that the person who caused the mess is suspected to be from the Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals. Just say that it was malicious competition and that they've decided to use such dirty methods."

"Remember, you must find a reliable person and don't let others know that we're behind this."

"Do you understand?"

Mike nodded.

He was Emma Adams's personal bodyguard, Emma Adams's man, and Emma Adams's trusted aide. Naturally, he had done this many times in the past.

Therefore, it was considered a walk in the park!

*****

In the Adams Group's housekeeping department!

"Sis, what should we do now?"

"Damn it, Emma Adams!" Adam Collins 'eyes turned red. "Will my face get worse now that she's locking us up in this place?"

Adrianna Collins took a deep breath. "Don't worry. There will be a way. I'll go out tomorrow and buy some Heavenly Doctor Face Masks for you to try."

With such a good reputation, there shouldn't be a problem.

Adam Collins nodded.

"I still trust the Heavenly Doctor Davis, but the boss is a despicable man!"

The aim of his trip here was to buy the Heavenly Doctor Mask.

Unexpectedly, Oliver Walker slapped him in the face which meant that they had a grudge between them!

Chapter 560 Only Panic When Necessary

The next morning, after the night's brewing, the matter became more and more serious.

The Internet was filled with Adam Collins fans who were questioning the Adams Company's official site.

Emma Adams had already expected this, so she quickly issued a statement saying that Adam Collins was fine, but for the time being, he could not show his face to ensure his safety.

As for the 'assault' incident last night, the police had also been called to handle it. The situation was still unknown.

It wasn't convenient for her to reveal anything.

However, soon, many rumors from the media spread.

The attack on Adams Group was done by their competitor, Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals. The purpose was to interfere with Adams Group's new product launch.

When this news spread, the situation became more and more intense.

Adam Collins's fans, in particular, could not find a place to vent their anger, so they instantly began to attack Davis Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

"This is too much!"

Emilia turned off the computer, trying to calm herself down.

Anyone who wasn't a retard wouldn't believe such a thing!

However, Emma Adams had done this and instantly, all the spearheads were pointed at her.

There was no way to explain herself.

"Mr. Davis, something bad has happened!"

At this moment, the beautiful public relations manager, Sarah Lee, rushed in hurriedly. "Our store is surrounded by a group of people who claim to be Adam Collins's fans."

Emilia tried to remain calm. After thinking for a moment, she gave her orders. "Call the police immediately to maintain order."

"We can't allow a group of ignorant people to ruin our company's reputation!"

How could they just frame something on her, thinking that she would not resist?

This was simply treating her as a pushover!

But at this moment, Oliver Walker smiled and said. "Close the shop!"

Close the shop?

Emilia's beautiful eyes were filled with confusion!

If they closed the shop now, wouldn't they look guilty?

However, she had always trusted her husband's decisions. She frowned and said, "What are you thinking of?"

Based on her understanding of her husband, it was impossible for him to make the decision to close the store just because the store was blocked.

There was definitely a scheme behind it.

"We have to ensure the safety of our employees first," Oliver Walker said with a smile.

"Even if we call the police now, no one knows when a bunch of people will appear again." bednovel.com

In fact, he hadn't told his wife the truth.

Because at the moment, he wasn't too sure if that was the case.

What if his guess was wrong?

"Yes!"

"You're right." Emilia nodded.

No matter what happened, the safety of the employees must come first.

Especially since the factory had not been expanded yet, and the sales of the Heavenly Doctor Mask had already shot beyond their expectations and there was already a short of supplies.

Therefore, stopping now was just in time to allow their production to catch up to speed. After the storm, the most important thing was to be able to supply the goods normally.

Her husband's decision was undoubtedly the best one at the moment.

"Honey, I'm going out for a while!"

Oliver Walker smiled and said, "You'd better not go out either, in case you encounter any mishaps."

Sarah Lee's jaw dropped in shock!

Pointing at Oliver Walker's back, she clenched her fists and said angrily, "Ms. Davis, look at him! He's still smiling at a time like this. He actually wants to go out?"

She really couldn't understand why Emilia would listen to such a man!

She also did not understand why Emilia, who was so well-off, would fall in love with a gigolo!

Was it because he was handsome?

In fact, this was a truth that many people did not understand.

With Emilia's beauty, even if she had a child and was penniless, she would still be loved by successful men, let alone the chairman.

After all, the number one goddess of the state of Colorado was not just a casual remark.

"If he doesn't smile, then it would mean that things have gotten out of hand."

"It's fine." Emilia smiled. "You don't know him, but he's not as simple as you think."

That's right!

It would be her turn to panic if he wasn't smiling anymore.

On the contrary, her husband smiled, which meant that he already had a countermeasure. She could rest assured.
