

Chaplain! 57

Chapter 57 Oliver Walker To The Rescue

Emilia did not say a single word because she knew that it was impossible to communicate with a monster like him.

She didn't have the strength to fight him!

If she couldn't calm herself down, she would be the one who would suffer!

Back then, she never thought that she had made a mistake.

William Davis was a spoiled brat. She was the one who saved Oliver Walker, and she wouldn't allow him to be bullied by William.

The company took advantage of her skills and brought Davis Corporate to a new height they could never achieve on their own.

Eventually, they ended up fearing she would take over the company and decided to get rid of her.

What else could she do other than surrender?

This was life, and she had to admit defeat!

"Speak up!

"Why aren't you saying anything?!"

William Davis let out a cold laugh as he continued, "Did you think I will go easy on you just because you are keeping quiet now?"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Did you think that I have no idea about what you really wanted? You want the invitation cards from the godly doctors, don't you?"

"But....do you deserve it?"

His face looked even more vicious than before.

The more Emilia could keep her mouth shut, the more dissatisfied he felt. So, he was using all of the things that he could find to provoke Emilia.

Mary Grimm clenched her jaw as she screamed, "William Davis! You shouldn't act so ruthlessly! This is too much!"

"When you first took over the job, you caused a 2 million loss to the company because you were being playful. I was the one who helped you with it.

"When you first stepped into the company and knew nothing, Emilia was the one who taught you everything!"

"You can be ungrateful but....but how could you be so mean to those who offered you nothing but kindness?"

"You are a human!"

"Not a monster!"

Previously, William Davis had been daydreaming all the time and drowned himself in alcohol while waiting to inherit his family's fortune.

He had obviously caused a lot of problems, and if it weren't for Emilia, people like him who were useless would have already been kicked out of the company.

"Enough!

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Shut up!"

William Davis bent forward and looked at Mary Grimm and Emilia. He had a crooked smile on his face.

"If she didn't become so powerful, why would I look like nobody in the company?"

"Why did I end up being mocked by others?"

"No matter what I do, you shouldn't be the one to lecture me!"

"At least, for now, I gained the victory! The person who could laugh till the very end!"

"HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!"action

Survival of the fittest! This was how the world worked!

Those who won would be able to laugh at others and look down on those lowly beings!

As for the losers, they only deserved to hide in the corners and bow in admiration toward the victors.

Emilia kept quiet!

Mary Grimm felt desperate!

Olivia Walker felt helpless as she could only watch her grandma and mother being bullied by this bad person!

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Well, it's unfortunate..."

Suddenly, there was a cold voice that appeared by the door. "It's too early for you to be so happy!"

William Davis suddenly felt chills running down his spine, and he quickly turned around.

However, when he saw who it was, William Davis wasn't afraid at all. Instead, he started laughing, "HAHAHAHAHAHAHA!!!"

"I was just wondering why this old b*tch had the guts to hit me! It's because you're back!"

"So?"

William spread his arms and put on a provocative look on his face, "Do you have the guts to hit me?"

"Do you?"

Oliver Walker was burning in rage!

He had never planned on making it easy for the Davis, but he didn't think that William Davis would send himself to them!

However, he was still contemplating if he should hit William Davis as he was trying to be considerate to his wife and daughter!

After all, he was still trying to reclaim himself!

As for Emilia, she looked confused when she saw that Oliver had returned.

There was also a hint of surprise in her eyes!

This man did not leave!

At the same time, Mary Grimm couldn't believe her eyes as well!