Chapter 571 The Return of the King

"Good!"

Emilia nodded. She knew that her husband had his own things to deal with.

The rest at the scene also felt that something was wrong and hurriedly left the scene.

The people in the venue had finished watching the show. However, the gossip on the Internet was still growing.

There were posts with the words 'Owe Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals an Apology'.

This was the internet. The direction of public opinion could easily be completely reversed because of one matter.

It was also the reason why so many people liked to clear their names online.

However, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had never hired any support on the internet because Emilia was very pragmatic. The Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had a good reputation and was famous enough.

There was no need to hype up Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals as an online famous company. That would only make passersby feel disgusted.

When the heat faded, it would naturally return to peace.

To get to the bottom of it, an internet celebrity product could always be popular for a while, but it didn't have a long lifespan.

That was because the power of the Internet was a double-edged sword. It could make a person famous, but it could also strangle a person.

Making a good product and using less gimmicks was the only way for the company to survive.

In the parking lot of the Grand Canyon Hotel!

Emma Adams sat in an expensive Rolls-Royce Phantom and said with a gloomy expression, "Mike....I want both their lives!!!!"

"I want them gone from the face of the earth!!!!!"

That cry was hysterical!

It was enough to express the anger in her heart!

"Ms. Adams, Adam Collins is a public figure!" bednovel.com

Mike frowned and said, "If we attacked him, I guess we..."

Who wouldn't be afraid?

If Adam Collins was just an ordinary person, he would have been killed.

But...

"Shut up! I don't even know if my company will still be around after this!!!"

Adams roared hysterically, "Kill them!"

"Kill them!"

She was getting mad!

Otherwise, she wouldn't have lost her mind!

The current her was in a terrible state. If she were to go bankrupt, would she still have the mood to think about the consequences?

That was billions!

She couldn't forget how she had sacrificed her body to attract investors back then.

She would never forget that after the scandal broke out, her husband divorced her with their child.

She had sacrificed too much for Adams.

But now, she had to see the skyscraper that she built fall into pieces.

It was difficult to calm one's state of mind!

"I..."

Mike hesitated!

After all, this matter was not easy to handle!

"Do you not love me anymore?"

Suddenly, Emma Adams played the emotional card. "You weren't like this when you were in bed! You said you were willing to go through fire and water for me!"

"As long as you can come back alive, I'm willing to only have you by my side and I will never bat an eyelash to the other men."

She knew that Mike really liked her.

It wasn't because of money!

That was why he was willing to stay by her side all the time and only be a small bodyguard!

In fact, Mike was a famous mercenary! He had been famous overseas for more than ten years, until he met her...

"Fine. Those would be enough!"

A smile appeared on Mike's face. "I want you to know that for you, I can give up anything and do anything!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he got out of the car!

"If you hadn't given up your position back then, perhaps I would have married you long ago!"

Emma Adams looked at the back of the man and said in disdain, "Unfortunately, you only know how to fight and kill. You'll never be of any help to me! You're nothing but an educated man!"

There was an iron rule in the mercenary world!

If he wanted to wash his hands of the money, he had to leave with nothing. Otherwise, if he wanted to keep his wealth, he had to stay in the mercenary world for the rest of his life.

However, Mike, the king of mercenaries, was really aggrieved. He was once a popular figure.

Chapter 572 What Can You Do?

However, this man was now blinded by love.

Every time he saw Emma Adams with another man, he would be angry, but...

*****

At the same time, on the road leading to the airport where there was little traffic!

Oliver Walker drove the L5 to the side and waited for Adam and Adrienne.

"Sir, what a strong killing intent."

George Lee frowned slightly.

He was also someone who had come down from the battlefield. He was naturally extremely sensitive to killing intent.

Oliver Walker smiled and said, "There are indeed experts!"

"And he's not an ordinary expert. I really didn't expect Emma Adams to be protected by this person."

He had already started investigating when he felt that something was wrong!

According to the information sent by Aiden Wilson, Mike was really a grenade.

"Who is it?"

George Lee's expression was slightly stunned. Someone who could make the state preceptor say that he was an expert was probably not a simple person.

When he saw the photo, he was shocked. "Thunder God from the Blood Evil Mercenary Group?"

"Why is he here?" bednovel.com

It was really easy for a former mercenary king to avoid detection.

If it weren't for his murderous intent today, Oliver Walker wouldn't have cared.

The Blood Evil Mercenary Group was ranked seventh in the world. Their strength could not be underestimated.

"They're here!"

Oliver Walker got out of the car with a smile but did not answer. Instead, he stopped a seven-seater MPV that was speeding away.

At the same time, Adam Collins felt the car stop and asked anxiously, "What's wrong?"

"There's someone in front of us!" The driver replied.

In that instant, Adam Collins 'heart jumped to his throat!

Revenge came so quickly?

It was somewhat surprising!

"Sis! What should we do now?"

Adam Collins panicked, and the bodyguards in the car also became serious.

"Don't be anxious! It's Oliver Walker!" Adrienne Collins said.

After hearing this answer, Adam Collins heaved a sigh of relief. He turned around and got out of the car angrily.

"What else do you want? I've already fulfilled our agreement!" Are you going to continue blackmailing me?"

He had a strong dissatisfaction with Emma Adams and was also hostile to Oliver Walker.

After all, they were all people who played him in the palm of their hands!

"What an ingrate! Get in my car," Oliver Walker said with a faint smile. "Someone wants to attack you!"

He came with good intentions.

Not to mention Adam Collins's character, he was at least a citizen in this country, so he was the target of his protection.

Therefore, even if there was no such thing, they would still rush over after hearing the news.

It wasn't that he would give up on Glory and return to the city to stop doing anything!

As long as he could still breathe, he would have endless worries in his life!

"Of course I know that someone wants to harm me!"

Adam Collins spoke in a very rude manner, and he was also filled with intense hostility. "But how would I know if you would harm me?"

"Besides, you're already a live-in son-in-law, and you still want to protect me? Even if I die, I won't let you protect me! Hurry up and move aside. I'm catching a plane!"

"Little brother, watch your words!" Adrienne Collins quickly stepped in.

"He's just being kind!"

She did not want to offend anyone else.

After all, her brother was just a young hunk. Whether it was Adams Group or Davis, they were both worth billions.

Wanting to kill them was no different from crushing an ant.

"Sis!"

Adam Collins said unwillingly, "I don't think he came with good intentions."

However, after Adrienne Collins glared at him, Adam Collins finally shut up!

Adrienne Collins turned around and said, "My brother is a straightforward person. Please don't take offense, but we're really in a hurry. We're not in the mood to chat with you! We don't need your protection. Letting us leave is the greatest protection!"

Although her words were tactful, they were also filled with distrust!

Even if Emma Adams wanted to attack them, she couldn't have reacted so quickly, right?

However, they still did not know how terrifying their opponent was...

Chapter 573 Death God Has Arrived

Oliver Walker smiled...

For a moment, he did not know what to say!

Very soon... His expression changed!

"Get in the car!"

The killing intent was approaching and coming from afar. This meant that it was a sniper rifle!

He would never doubt the accuracy of a Weapon King's spear technique because this question was extremely stupid!

"I won't go up..."

However, before Adam Collins could finish his sentence, Oliver Walker grabbed him by the collar and threw him to the side.

"What are you doing?"

"Damn it..."

'Bang!'

However, before Adam Collins could finish his sentence, a high-precision sniper rifle bullet pierced through the sturdy asphalt road and sparks burst out.

The next moment, Adam Collins was dumbfounded!

That was because the bullet had landed right in front of him. If he had not moved away, it would have pierced through his head!

"Ah!"

Following a scream, he hurriedly shouted, "Walker.... Brother!!! Please save me!! Quickly send me to the car! Hurry!"

He panicked. At this moment, he only wanted to get up from the green belt!

However, Oliver Walker pressed his head firmly "If you don't want to die, don't move!"

Adrienne Collins was also scared out of her wits. Her face was pale!

The reason why Oliver Walker didn't let Adam Collins, who was shivering, stand up was because he was using the plants to make it difficult for Thunder God to determine his exact location.

"The sniper is at the eight o'clock direction, cover him quickly!"

When he figured out where the bullet came from, he instantly shouted.

George Lee was not an ordinary person either. He instantly reversed the car and blocked his line of sight.

L5, as a state guest car, bulletproof was only the most basic requirement.

Therefore, there was absolutely no problem with the cover of the car. bednovel.com

After all, judging from the caliber of the bullets, the other party had only used a high-precision sniper rifle, not a large-caliber Barrett.

"Listen up, get in the car!"

After the door was opened, Oliver Walker hurriedly pushed the terrified siblings into the car and reminded them again, "Send them off on a private jet!"

No one knew if Emma Adams had any other helpers.

Therefore, taking a private plane was the best choice and with George Lee, ordinary people could forget about getting close.

"Yes, sir!"

George Lee nodded, closed the car door, and left!

Similarly, Oliver Walker's body turned into a shadow under the street lamp and rushed toward the direction of the bullet at full speed.

"Damn it! An expert!"

Mike, who was wearing a night suit and waiting on the roof of the building, had a sudden change in expression. He immediately put away his sniper rifle and slid down the rope from the top of the building.

His movements were extremely agile!

At the same time, in L5!

Adam Collins, who was still panicking, cried and shouted, "I just told the truth, and they want to snipe me? Who are they?"

It was hard to imagine what had happened!

He had encountered a plot that could only be seen in movies!

Although it was only one shot, it had already left a huge shadow in his heart!

"We're here to protect you."

George Lee said coldly, "Don't doubt our professionalism anymore because you don't deserve it. Remember to be a good person in the future. It's best not to touch money that goes against your conscience! Otherwise, we will also become the ones who kill you!"

As an imperial guard, he was now protecting a young hunk. To be honest, he was still a little unhappy.

But...

This was his mission!

Even if this was a young hunk, he was still a citizen of this country.

Adam and Adrienne Collins were both shocked! However, the siblings quickly expressed their stance!

"When we go back, we will definitely be good people! I'll definitely earn money with my conscience!"

"We'll do more meaningful things for the society!!!"

Chapter 574 You Know Who I Am?

"..."

'We are the people who protect the people of this country' had already explained the identities of Oliver Walker and George Lee!

They were also glad that there was such a group of people protecting their safety at all times!

At the same time, under the night sky, there was also a chase!

Mike did not choose to drive because he knew very well this was a forbidden area for mercenaries.

As long as the car was moved, the possibility of being exposed would increase.

However, not only was the person behind him not slow, but he was even much faster than him. He could not help but frown and tense up.

Experts could sense each other's strength.

Mike was not an ordinary person either. He was a famous mercenary king. Looking back at his employment career, he had carried out hundreds of missions, most of which were SSS-level.

However, he had never failed!

He was even able to retreat and live in seclusion for several years, making it difficult for his enemies to find him and take revenge. This was enough to prove his extraordinary strength.

If he was at his peak, Oliver Walker could kill a large number of Weapon Kings at this level in one move.

But the current him...

It was only a heavily injured body, so it could not be underestimated!

After a two-hour long run, they had already left the city and arrived at a paddy field.

It was dark everywhere!

The night wind blew, blowing their hair and clothes!

"Don't force me!"

Experts had dignity, so after feeling embarrassed, Mike stopped and said angrily, "Otherwise, you would have to bear the consequences!"

It wasn't that he couldn't run!

It was just that for the sake of face, he did not want to run anymore!

"You're the only one standing at the top of the pyramid who dares to threaten me! But I don't understand," Oliver Walker said with a faint smile.

"The king of mercenaries, the famous Thunder God, is actually willing to work for the CEO of a company in a small city."

"This... It doesn't make sense, right?"

In an instant, Mike was stunned. "You know me?" bednovel.com

He knew that his identity was definitely a secret!

There were countless people who wanted to kill him!

He was the only one willing to let go of the Blood Fiend Mercenary Corps, not his enemies.

Therefore, he sensed extreme danger from Oliver Walker's smile.

That's right!

To be able to force him to this extent, it was naturally not an ordinary person.

"I have all your information!"

Oliver Walker smiled calmly. "Do you even remember that this country is a forbidden land for mercenaries? You may have hidden your identity well in the past but it seems like you have exposed yourself now."

In fact, there was a complete anti-mercenary organization in the country. Whenever a person with mercenary status returned to the country, they would be subjected to strict inspections.

If he had really committed a heartless murder, then Mike would not have lived until now.

Oliver Walker was the only one who didn't know. After all, his level was too high. It was impossible for him to report every trivial matter to him.

"You... Are you from the government?"

Mike's expression changed unpredictably, slowly becoming gloomy and uneasy. Then, he roared, "I don't want to hurt innocent people. Leave quickly!"

Indeed, he had never made a move on ordinary people before, but today was an exception.

This was because he wanted to marry Emma Adams!

Men could hurt their bones, but they could never fall in love.

Otherwise, no matter how strong a man was, he would turn into a bootlicker!

"You should be glad that you didn't attack ordinary people before!"

Oliver Walker was not in a hurry. Instead, he said with a smile, "Otherwise, you wouldn't have survived until now!"

"You should be glad that you met me! Otherwise, after you succeed, there will be no reason for you to live!"

Did Mike really think that he could do it without anyone knowing?

Little did they know that Mike had long been listed as a dangerous person in the anti-mercenary department.

If something happened to Adam Collins and Liang Min, he would be instantly locked onto and would soon be shot.

Therefore, his words were not exaggerated, but the truth!

"You..."

Mike's expression was extremely angry. "Since you know my identity, you still dare to look down on me like this. How dare you!"

The strong needed dignity!

The strong could die but it was impossible for him to bow down!

Therefore, in order to protect his dignity, he emitted a dense killing intent and became one with the night sky, becoming one with nature...

Chapter 575 Love Worth Protecting

"No! I said so much mainly because I want to know what you think!"

Oliver Walker's aura was still calm, but he did not dare to let his guard down in the face of such a dangerous person. "What are your plans for the future?"

It would be a pity to kill such an expert!

However, if they could not be loyal to the country, then they could only impose restrictions.

"Me?"

Mike frowned. After a long silence, he said, "Get married, have children, and live a peaceful life."

"You're not a mortal, you should understand what I'm thinking of! After the storm, I just want to live a peaceful life."

Actually, the reason why experts lived in seclusion was for the sake of stability.

If it wasn't for the fact that he couldn't refuse, he wouldn't have killed so many people.

Oliver Walker naturally understood that. Then, he said, "What did Emma Adams promise you to make you take the risk?"

It was very difficult for him to understand Mike's current behavior.

He was really stupid! Very silly!

"She said that if I killed Adam Collins, she would agree to be married to me. I'll be the only man that she has."

A happy smile appeared on Mike's face.

He was not very handsome!

However, he was very masculine and had the charm of a mature man.

Although Emma Adams was older, she still had her charm, which locked onto his restless heart.

Sometimes, feelings were just so wonderful!

There was no such thing as reasonable or unreasonable. As long as they liked each other, it was very likely that they would lose their rationality and jump into the trap to wait for their lives.

"You..."

Oliver Walker immediately felt a headache and had to say, "Is it really worth it for such a woman?"

According to Mike, Emma Adams's private life was still quite chaotic.

Even if Mike's appearance was not that outstanding, it was not too bad.

Moreover, he was once the king of mercenaries. How could he watch the woman he liked be in love with another man?

He still had to take risks for this woman?

It was really baffling!

"Aren't you the same?"

Mike laughed foolishly and relaxed his guard. Then, he took out a cigarette and lit it up. He sat on the ridge of the rice field and said, "With your skills, you must be an all-powerful figure. Didn't you still become a live-in son-in-law and endure those rumors?"

"So if you don't talk about me, I won't talk about you. It's the same!"

He had retired too early and cut off contact with the outside world, so it was normal that he did not know Oliver Walker.

However, Oliver Walker also sat down and lit a cigarette.

The two experts started chatting without putting on airs.

For those who had once stood at the top of the pyramid, once they had the intention to retreat, they would naturally not be competitive.

"I'm different!"

Oliver Walker said, "She is worthy of love! For eight years, no matter how hard it was or how tired she got, she never complained about me at all. I even misunderstood her when I came back."

Mike's eyes revealed an envious expression, but he quickly asked, "What is worth protecting is love. Is it not love if it is not worth protecting?"

Oliver Walker was rendered speechless by his rhetorical question! bednovel.com

Love did not matter!

As long as he was moved, he had already lost!

Fortunately, Emilia was really worthy of being pampered!

He couldn't help but sigh as he looked sympathetically at the burly man beside him and slowly talked about the main topic. "The people who took Adam Collins away were the Imperial Guards and you're also being targeted. Do you think there's a need to make a move?"

Mike swallowed a mouthful of saliva and then asked unwillingly, "But I'm more interested in knowing who you are!"

The Imperial Guards?!

The sharp blades of the anti-mercenary department could not stop him, at least before he had the intention to kill but Oliver Walker was different!

Over the years, there were very few people who could escape from his gun.

Not to mention saving an ordinary person from his gun.

Chapter 576 A Useless Pawn

The difficulty between the two were worlds apart.

"Me?"

Oliver Walker smiled calmly. "Four years ago, I became a god in the battle of Indiana. I even slaughtered 100,000 elites of the enemy! While I was injured, I taught five War Gods, eight God of Wealth, and five Chinese medical experts. They called me the Chaplain but then four years later, I received a letter from my daughter and returned from the front line."

He wasn't showing off!

It was because he knew that good people like Mike were rare.

Oliver Walker didn't want him to do anything rash!

Just a simple introduction of the past caused a storm to set off in Mike's heart. How terrifying was a person who could become the teacher of a country?

Although he spoke lightly, he was also someone who had experienced bloodshed. He naturally knew how dangerous the process was.

Suspicion? Was there a need for him to suspect Oliver Walker?

Just Oliver Walker sitting next to him without moving made him feel immense pressure.

There was no need to think too much. As long as he made a move, he would definitely be the one to die!

"Just give up! I can give you a chance to atone for your crimes and not hold you accountable," Oliver Walker said.

"I can promise you a calm and peaceful life. Even when your enemies come knocking on your door, I'll help you hunt them down! But, you would have to live a honest life as well."

Mike's eyes flashed with a hint of hesitation. Then, he clenched his fists. He was clearly making a difficult decision.

He knew that he was no match for the person beside him.

Once they started fighting, the outcome was predictable!

"Alright!" He lowered his head and said. "I owe you a life. You can take it whenever you want! Farewell!"

After saying that, Mike's figure disappeared into the vast night.

He didn't know how to explain this to Emma Adams, but giving up was his only choice.

After resolving the matter without bloodshed, Oliver Walker quickly returned home.

It was already midnight, but the bedroom light was still on for him. This was life, there was always someone waiting for you without regrets.

When he entered the room, his wife was lying on the bed with a book titled 'How to Get Out of the Aftermath of War' in her hand. However, the fatigue of the past few days had made her fall asleep.

"How silly!"

Oliver Walker felt a surge of warmth in his heart. He wished he could tell his wife that he really did not have any aftereffects of the war.

However, there were some things that he had to do.

The next morning...

Adams Group issued an apology statement, which was to the effect that there was an accident at the press conference and they were willing to atone for it. They would also sell all products on the market at a 40% discount for half a month.

Lowering the price was Emma Adams's only chance of survival.

She also knew that the Adams Group could no longer compete with the rise of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!

"Is he dead?" bednov e l . c om

Then, he looked at Mike, who had just entered, with anger in his eyes.

"I need to tell you something. Stop targeting Emilia . She's not someone you and I can offend!"

Mike's words were somewhat sincere, but he did not mention anything about Oliver Walker.

This was because the strong had their own principles!

He was also grateful to Oliver Walker for giving him a way out.

Otherwise, he would have to pay for yesterday's impulsiveness. If he succeeded, this country would never let him go.

"Trash!"

Emma Adams slammed the table angrily and stood up. "You're still bragging to me. What kind of mercenary king is this?"

"I see that you are also a silver-colored spearhead, a good-looking but useless fellow! Get lost! Get lost, get as far away as you can!"

In her eyes, there was only profit. From the first time she sold her body in exchange for resources, to the time her ex-husband left with her child, she was destined not to fall in love with anyone else.

Mike?

He was just a target for her to use!

Chapter 577 Heartbroken Man

"Emma... I....."

Mike's heart seemed to have collapsed."I..."

That kind of discomfort was swallowed in his heart, but there was also pain that he could not speak of.

He could tolerate Emma Adams's ridiculous actions and even with having male pets...

Even if he didn't do anything, it was for the good of this woman!

However, the woman who had once made him give up everything was now asking him to leave!

Instantly, he felt his soul empty! bednovel. com

"I feel disgusted just looking at you! Get out and never let me see you again!"

Emma Adams was a vengeful woman. She hated Adam Collins to the core.

It was fine if Mike did not do it.

He actually made her give up on dealing with Emilia?

What was this?

Adams Group's market value had shrunk by nearly half overnight.

The stock prices had fallen so much that it was simply unacceptable!

"I..."

Mike clenched his fists. He wanted to say something, but after a moment of hesitation, he finally said, "Take care of yourself. You must remember what I said. Emilia isn't the scary one; what's scary is the man beside her!"

After saying his last piece of advice, he resolutely turned around and left!

Money? Does he care about money?

If his heart was dead, what was the use of money?

And Emma Adams killed him further!

It killed his heart that was willing to fall silent for love!

However, he had protected her for so many years, but he could not get her. He also knew that it was time to give up!

That kind of disheartened blow was difficult for many iron-blooded men to bear.

Even when he left, tears of reluctance fell from Mike's resolute eyes.

"Good-for-nothing! A bunch of good-for-nothings!"

Emma Adams smashed everything in the office as if she had gone crazy!

"She, Emilia, is just Davis 'abandoned daughter! And that damned Oliver Walker, he's just a gigolo!

"I started from scratch and am stronger than them! A couple of b*tches!!!!"

"Dogs!!!!"

"Ah..."

She was crazy! All she wanted to do was vent her anger!"

At the same time, in the Davis Heavenly Doctor office building!

"It's really resolved! Our reputation has reversed again!"

"Yay!"

"..."

All the employees went crazy!

The company did not have to close down. This was a great thing for them!

"Tonight, I'll treat everyone to a relaxing meal!" Emilia smiled from her heart.

"Anyone has any suggestion?!"

How high a company could reach depended on whether the boss was willing to let go of his employees.

When it came to employees, Emilia had never taken a cent from them.

This was also the reason why their company had such strong cohesiveness!

"A bar!"

"Yes, the Queen Bar!"

"We shall made Miss Davis pouch bleed tonight!!"

"..."

The group of employees cheered.

White-collar workers had always been under a lot of mental pressure, so it was common for them to go to places like bars to release their nature.

"Alright, alright! Everyone, hurry up and get to work," Emilia said generously. "Let's get the stores up and working."

Amid the cheers of the crowd, Emilia entered the office.

Chapter 578 Shall We Do It Here?

Sarah Lee followed him in. "Ms. Davis, all of our stores are packed with people now. They're asking us to open for business."

"What do you think?"

"Let's wait a little longer!" Emilia quickly answered.

The production capacity could not keep up with the sales volume, which was the most fatal existence. Otherwise, this product alone would be enough to march into the entire province.

However, she had to take this in slowly or she would choke on herself.

"Yes, sir!"

Although Sarah Lee was puzzled, she still left.

The decision made by Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals caused some of them to lose their mind and made ridiculous decisions.

Instead, they bought the Adams products that were sold at a reduced price.

It also allowed Adams to survive, but they were not in a good place as well.

Most of the rational people were still waiting for the products of Davis.

However, there were still some extreme people who doubted that Davis was doing hunger marketing. They were saying that with the Heavenly Sect pharmaceuticals current status, they would definitely be selling at a higher price.

The rumors were shattered by Emilia's personal statement!

Heavenly Doctor Davis would never blindly increase the price. He would only increase the price according to the materials he purchased.

It had to be said that this wave had attracted many rational fans!

"Hubby, what should I do now?"

Emilia smiled bitterly. Previously, she was worried about the quality of the equipment, but now, the production capacity of the Davis Heavenly Doctor was limited and she had no idea what to do about it."

Oliver Walker teased, "Business is good, but you're still worried!"

"If the others hear this, you'll definitely be beaten up!"

Emilia pouted playfully. "Well, then show me a way out!"

Rebuild the factory?

Even if it was an investment, it was not something that they could handle.

"Can't we just rent more production areas?"

Oliver Walker smiled. "I just got some insider news. Some factory contracts in the West City Industrial Park have expired. They're going to start bidding again. This is an opportunity. Seize it!"

In fact, Oliver Walker have been trying to solve this issue.

Therefore, before the news was released, they had already known in advance. bednovel.com

"You... Where did you hear the news?"

"Why didn't I receive any notice?" asked Emilia.

Logically speaking, this kind of news should have been released long ago.

It was impossible for her not to know.

If there was a factory that was ready to be used, the cost could be reduced by a lot. He could just buy some production equipment and put it into use.

It was enough to solve the current urgent situation and help them solve the production problem as soon as possible. It would also get them out of Colorado as soon as possible.

"Would you believe me if I told you I knew how to read fortunes?"

Oliver Walker smiled. "I observed the sky last night..."

Emilie was successfully amused. She smiled sweetly and said, "Alright, alright, I'll be a fool if I believe you! I'll think of a way myself!"

However, just as he finished speaking, Sarah Lee walked in again and said, "Ms. Davis, the supervisor of the West City Industrial Park has sent us an invitation for a bid tomorrow.

As soon as Sarah Lee said this, Emilia's face turned red, as if she had done something indescribable.

Then, she looked at Oliver Walker in surprise and embarrassment.

This fate was really accurate!

"Uh..."

When Sarah Lee saw this scene, she immediately reacted.

The boss and the lady boss were so close to each other, and their auras were so ambiguous. Could it be that she had bumped into something good?

At the thought of this, Sarah Lee quickly blushed and said, "I'm sorry, I... I didn't see anything, you... You guys continue..."

After he finished speaking, she quickly retreated, not giving Emilia a chance to explain.

Emilia had no other choice but to swallow the bitter fruit and say bitterly, "It's all your fault!"

Oliver Walker shrugged and said happily, "I didn't do anything. Besides, you're my wife. So what if we did something shameless here?"

As he spoke, he took a bold step forward.

As their relationship heated up, he felt that it was getting harder and harder for him to resist his wife's charm.

"You... What are you doing?"

Emilia held her breath nervously and quickly said, "This is an office, don't...Don't mess around!"

However, she wasn't really against it....

But shouldn't that kind of thing be done at home? This was the office...

How embarrassing!

"Honey!"

Oliver Walker reached out his hand domineeringly and pulled his wife into his arms. He said anxiously, "I... I can't seem to control myself."

"Do you think I can..."

Chapter 579 Let Me See Who This Kid Is

"You..."

Emilia frowned and suddenly felt speechless. She could only repeat, "This is an office, you... Don't do anything rash!"

She had clearly not done anything just now, but Sarah Lee had misunderstood her. She felt a little embarrassed.

What about now?

If he was really prepared to do something and was found out by others, wouldn't that be awkward?

If it was at home, she would definitely not reject it.

"Hehe..."

Oliver Walker laughed foolishly. "What were you thinking?"

It was indeed embarrassing and also disrespectful to his wife. This was her office afterall.

"Phew..."

Emilia heaved a sigh of relief, but there was an inexplicable sense of loss in her heart.

That feeling was hard to describe with words.

Her husband would be very disappointed, right?

However, her pretty face was still red. She was too shy to say anything.

Nothing happened for a day!

The only thing that counted was that there were more and more customers urging the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to continue selling.

They almost surrounded the company.

However, because of the production capacity, Emilia still refused.

She only reiterated on the Internet that he would definitely not take the opportunity to raise the price and would have the shops up and running as soon as possible.

Adams Group!

"Mr. Martin, is there anyone you can't handle in the state of Colorado.

The graceful and elegant Emma Adams placed a bank card on the table as she exhaled, "Everyone says that there are differences, and there are specialties! I think it's better for you to go back to your old job!"

The man called Mr. Martin had a deep scar on his face. One look and one could tell that he was a ruthless person.

His eyes were especially cold.

His name was Freddy Martin, and people called him Mr. Martin! In this part of the state of Colorado, he could be considered a famous person here.

Especially in the nightclub, George Johnson was like an ant in front of him.

"Hehe... I have to say, I really want to refuse!" Freddy Martin laughed.

"But you helped me in the past. I, Freddy Martin, am not an ungrateful person. Leave this matter to me!"

Actually, he had been trying to clear his name a long time ago.

However, due to his lack of business experience, he had almost gone bankrupt several times. It was Emma Adams who had helped him a few times in secret. Naturally, he did not dare to forget this kindness.

"Great! Mr. Martin is a straightforward person!"

Emma Adams stood up with a smile. "Then I'll wait for your good news."

Freddy Martin shook his head. He has been drinking at my place for the entire afternoon and has no intention of leaving."

Who was he referring to?

Naturally, it was Mike!

He naturally knew about the matter between Mike and Emma Adams!

"Humph!" Emma Adams snorted. "Let him die. He's just a piece of trash!"

After receiving an accurate answer, Freddy Martin smiled and said, "In that case, I can ask him to pay the bill."

"I have to say, this kid can really f * cking drink! He drank more than two million in one afternoon!"

The Queen's Bar was his property. Coincidentally, he had received a team-building from David's Heavenly Doctor today, so he naturally knew how to do it.

The Queen Bar was also the most bustling nightclub in the state.

However, because it was Freddy Martin's place, almost no one dared to cause trouble. On the contrary, it was very safe.

"Mr. Martin!"

A man in a black suit lowered his head and said, "Emilia is here. There are more than 200 people!"

He was Freddy Martin's confidant and one of the Eight Great Kings. He was famous for being a ruthless character in the streets around the state of Colorado.

His name was Andy!

"Yes!"

Freddy Martin nodded. "Let's stick with the plan. I want to know what's so famous about that kid. He even dared to touch my people. He's really blind!"

Lucas, who was the captain of the guards in the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, had fought under him when he was young and had earned lots of wealth together.

Although they no longer had an employment relationship with each other, his brothers in the underworld all knew that one of his men had been touched by Oliver Walker. He could not afford to lose face.

Chapter 580 Meeting Mike Again

It just so happened that Emma Adams had found him, so he decided to do him a favor.

After all, he wasn't prepared to let Oliver Walker go!

At the same time, after night fell, the Queen Bar was already filled with wild cheers. Mixed with the heavy metal music that shocked the soul, everyone went crazy.

"I've already ordered the set meal. Our seats are in Section A.

Emilia instructed her staff to move forward, but slowly, she fell behind.

"What's wrong?" bednovel.com

Oliver Walker could clearly feel that his wife was hiding something.

Therefore, it was inevitable that he was a little worried!

"It's nothing!"

Emilia shook her head, her beautiful eyes looking at the young woman in the nightclub.

He sighed with emotion!

Before Oliver Walker came back, she had no choice but to work at the nightclub under Blue Ocean Entertainment. She had even suffered a lot of infamy back then.

"The past is in the past!"

Oliver Walker comforted her softly, "We won't have to go back to those days. Trust me."

If it wasn't for his employees wanting to come to the nightclub to have fun, he reckoned that with his wife's personality and her past experiences, she wouldn't come to such a nightclub with a mix of good and bad people, right?

"You're right!"

Emilia smiled and nodded. "Thank you!"

If the man beside her had not returned in time, perhaps she... She would really choose to sink into oblivion to save Olivia. She did not dare to imagine what kind of life she would face if she chose to sink into oblivion.

That was why she was getting so emotional.

"Go play with them! It's a good time to relax." Oliver Walker encouraged her.

In fact, he and his wife were people who did not have much entertainment.

They rarely went out to play, let alone appear in such an entertainment venue. Therefore, since he was here, it was not impossible for him to enjoy it.

"What about you?"

Amelia was a little surprised and frowned. "Aren't you coming with us?"

Oliver Walker shook his head. "I saw a friend and wanted to go over and chat with him!"

Friends?

In fact, this was not sure but he still admired Mike!

A man who valued relationships and loyalty was still drinking from the bottle until his face was red.

Sometimes, men seemed very strong. They would not be defeated by a hail of bullets, but what often destroyed a man was precisely the unremarkable feelings but Mike was so drunk which meant that there was something wrong.

Now was the time when he needed someone a listener!

"Alright. Then I'll leave with them then!"

She thought that Oliver Walker simply didn't like nightclubs, so he found an excuse to leave.

After all, her husband had been gone for eight years. How could he have any friends in Colorado?

"Damn it! Bring me wine!"

Mike slapped the table and shouted, "Hurry up!"

His face was flushed red, and his eyes were filled with sadness.

There was also a tear in his eyes, but he was trying hard not to let them fall. No one would understand how much it hurts, only he would know!

"More wine?"

Andy was the person in charge of the Queen's Bar. There was a hint of a contemptuous smile on the corner of his mouth. "I'd advise you to pay the bill first."

In fact, Emma Adams often came to the Queen's Bar and would bring Mike with her.

They would always order up to millions as well in the past but this time was different.

Mike came on his own and was fired by Emma Adams.

"You..." Mike slammed the table in anger.

"I haven't left yet, and you're asking me to pay? Get your boss here!!! Right now!"
