Chapter 581 Paying The Bill

As a famous soldier king in the mercenary world, how could he not have a temper?

No one would feel comfortable being looked down upon like this!

"That's what the boss wants!" Andy sneered.

"If you don't pay, don't blame me for being rude!"

As soon as he finished speaking, more than ten security guards behind him had already approached. Each of them had a fierce look on their faces as if they were going to eat the drunkard in front of them.

But... The cold light on Mike's body became brighter and brighter!

He really wanted to kill someone now!!!

Now that Emma Adams didn't want him anymore, there was no point in staying in this country!

At worst, he would just do one last job and leave the state of Colorado!

Money?

That's not what he wanted. He only wanted to drink!

Plus, he was not a good person to begin with!

"I'll pay for him!"

At this moment, Oliver Walker walked over and sat opposite Mike.

He could tell that the wine on the table was expensive. But to him, money was really something that he had no concept of. Anything that could be solved with money was really not a problem!

"You? Are you sure you want to pay for him?" Andy laughed. "Do you know how much money he spent?"

That was more than two million!

Even though Emilia was quite wealthy now, Oliver Walker, as her live-in son-in-law, shouldn't have such power, right?

Paying for a stranger? Who would believe that?

"I said, no matter how much! I'll pay for him!" Oliver Walker repeated domineeringly.

Mike's eyes flashed with a strange color.

He was also a little touched. Every time he wanted to commit a crime, Oliver Walker would appear.

Was it a coincidence?

Or... perhaps....

But, no matter what, he still couldn't pay for what he had tonight.

"I advise you not to get yourself into trouble. He spent more than 2.8 million yuan, and that's without the service charge..." Andy scolded angrily.

He thought that Oliver Walker would be embarrassed after he reported the number and immediately get up to leave.

After all, two million was not a small amount! He even suspected that Mike might be drunk. This man had drunk so much!!! However, for an expert of Mike's level, he was no longer under the control of alcohol.

As long as his stomach could hold it, he could drink as much as he wanted.

At this moment, Oliver Walker took out a black card. "There's no password on this card, and there's no limit. Take it and pay the bill. Then bring what the man wants."

He didn't even know how much money was in this card. His disciples would transfer in money every month. Other than the expenses of the charity under his name, the rest was in the card.

"Alright!"

Andy nodded. "It better be as you said. There better be enough money in this card to pay the bill. Otherwise, I'll teach you a lesson."

In a while, he would have to make a move on Emilia but he never expected that this pretty boy would cause trouble first.

However, what shocked him was that there was indeed enough money on the card and the transaction went through.

"Brother Andy, what should we do now? Should we send the wine over?" asked one of his subordinates.

Andy glanced at him.

"Send the wine over!"

Who would go against money?

Mr. Martin had said that they should keep these legitimate businesses clean. They were different from the shady businesses.

This was the rule!

"Why are you helping me?"

When the XO red wine worth more than 100,000 was served, Mike opened the bottle with familiarity and then gulped it down.

Oliver Walker reached out and grabbed Mike's wrist.

"Why are you lying to yourself?!"

Chapter 582 Bootlicker

"You should know that people like us do not get drunk!"

At Mike's level, he was already immune to alcohol!

Forget about drinking this kind of extremely strong wine, even if he directly poured pure alcohol, nothing would happen. Now, Mike's face was red and he was a little drunk. It was clearly a disguise, but it made others think that he was really drunk.

"I..." After being exposed, Mike's words instantly stopped.

After a long time...

"She kicked me out of the house because I didn't complete the mission!" she cried bitterly. I protected her for so long!"

"She...She actually..."

Some things really couldn't be said because even he felt embarrassed!

Then, it was followed by a loud roar.

That heart-wrenching hoarse voice was enough to explain the pain.

Fortunately, the music in the bar was loud enough.

Many of the people who had come to have fun were immersed in the noisy heavy metal music, and no one paid attention to him at all.

No one cared about him!

"Listen to my advice. Some people are not worth protecting! Some people are not worth loving!"

"You're a man," Oliver Walker said in a deep voice. "You should know how to distinguish right from wrong. Tonight, I'll pretend that you're really drunk and vent all your frustrations. When the sun rises again, I hope you can pull yourself together again."

He was a person who loved talent.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have bothered to talk nonsense! As a person who used to be all-powerful, once Mike could submit and find a new life goal, everything would definitely work out well for him.

"I..."

"It hurts! It hurts here!"

Mike put down the wine bottle and punched his chest. He roared with tears in his eyes, "You're right. She's not worthy of my love!"

"F * ck that snobbish woman and all her male pets!!!! I don't care!"

"I want to be an upright person! I want to raise my head and stop being that lousy bodyguard that everyone looks down on!"

"I'm sorry." Mike continued. He was venting his emotions without stopping.

"But do you know the feeling of not being able to get what you love? It's as if someone is holding a knife and mercilessly sliced my heart apart. I've helped her so much! Doesn't she know?"

If Emma Adams didn't have him, would she have developed to this point?

It was obviously impossible!

In the business world, some things could be brought to the table and resolved through negotiation. However, some things could only be resolved in private.

He had done so many things for Emma Adams 'career.

He had never complained, but in the end...

He was still kicked away!

A real man who had crawled out of a pile of dead bodies through a hail of bullets was now like a child with tears in his eyes. Oliver Walker did not say anything, because what Mike lacked was not comfort.

Oliver Walker allowed him to rant. He did not laugh at him. He just quietly listened to the grievances in the depths of his heart.

Sometimes, he was really glad that his wife was so understanding.

She had never made things difficult for him. She even took everything to heart.

Most importantly...

Loving and being loved were actually different. Loving someone and loving each other were two completely different things!

He and his wife loved each other, but Mike only had unrequited love for Emma Adams. He was destined to be hurt.

When Mike humbly endured all the grievances, as long as Emma Adams gave him a little sweetness, he would be happy to the heavens...

However, Emma Adams would never be satisfied, she would only look down on a man like Mike even more. Because in Emma Adams's heart, she had long defined Mike, who truly loved her, as a bootlicker!

That's right, he was a bootlicker who couldn't even be called a spare tire!

When Mike retreated humbly, Emma Adams would only think that Mike could become even more humble.

This was human nature!

"Hahaha..."

After Mike finished talking, he began to laugh out loud.

Chapter 583 Bringing the King on His Side

Such a sacrifice was still in vain!

How dare you have extravagant hopes for love?

No!

There was a feeling of fear!

"It's really good that you can let it go! What should we do tomorrow?" Oliver Walker asked indifferently.

After he finished speaking...

"Tomorrow?"

Mike was stunned. He immediately swallowed a mouthful of saliva and asked with a blank expression, "I... Do I still have a tomorrow? Aren't I asking for too much?"

Being able to live in seclusion in this country for so long was naturally related to his ability.

This was because this country did not allow mercenaries. Perhaps even his enemies couldn't believe that he would return to this country after he retired.

In fact, when he made this decision back then, he was thinking in reverse.

The more dangerous a place was, the safer it was.

"My hands are filled with blood! You're an official, I'm a bandit!"

Mike smiled bitterly. "I never expected that the person who wanted to understand me the most was the person I hated the most in the past.]"

Mercenaries were an extremely crazy organization that would do anything for profit.

It was not a regular army. Therefore, it was not fake at all to mock himself as a bandit.

"Aren't we friends now?"

Oliver Walker smiled indifferently. "You don't have to fear me. If I wanted to touch you, I wouldn't have waited until now. I only care if you have the blood debt for this country on your hands. I don't care what you've done before!"

He was narrow-minded.

He only cared about his own country, as for the others? Sorry, it was not within his protection range.

"I... I, Mike, swear to God that I have never accepted any missions trying to harm the people of this country!"

Mike raised his right hand and pointed at the ceiling.

"A wise man will die for his confidant. Since you understand me, I'm willing to sacrifice my life for you!"

In fact, the reason why he chose mercenaries was because killing for money was absolutely terrifying to the point that it made people doubt their lives.

He had seen too many brothers fall out. He even accepted a mission where a man hired him to kill his own son. Only in the darkness could one see the greed, abhorrence, and depravity of human nature!

Therefore, he wanted to wash away his past sins. He did not want to do something for money.

This was his future goals.

Oliver Walker frowned and hesitated. In fact, didn't he just want to take Mike for his own use?

However, in the face of such a person, what kind of identity should he give?

This was the real problem. If they were brought into the intelligence organization, once they were discovered, it would definitely affect the country's reputation.

"I don't need an identity. I only know that you have a goal. From now on, I will kill whoever you want me to kill!"

Oliver Walker shook his head.

"Endless killing will only destroy people's hearts! Don't fall too deep, or you won't be able to extricate yourself. No one can save you!"

Mike nodded crazily because he had nowhere to go now.

Only by following the man in front of her could she achieve a great career.

"Come to Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals tomorrow. I'll tell my wife about it. Don't worry about the money. I'll give you a fair price."

He did not like to take advantage of others.

Mike was worth this money!

After experiencing his wife's kidnapping, he had become more cautious. There would always be times when he was not around. If Mike was here, then there would not be many people in this world who could touch Emily.

To him, this could be considered as having accomplished his goal!

It also allowed Mike to have a home. As for loyalty?

He believed in his own eyes!

Meanwhile, three hours had passed.

"Is everyone having fun? If you're done playing, I'll pay the bill," Emilia said after looking at her employees. They all looked tired.

"Thank you, Miss Amelia!" Sarah Lee said with a smile.

"Pay the bill. We still have to work tomorrow!"

The people in the booth also expressed that they had a good time.

Chapter 584 Stirring Up A Storm

In private, Emilia was an approachable person without any airs.

She had completely blended in with here employees!

"The bill, please!"

Emilia greeted.

"Alright!" Andy walked over again.

There was a malicious smile on his face.

He had just let Oliver Walker show off. Now, he would see how she would pay for it.

He took the bank card and swiped it on the machine. "I'm sorry. You don't have enough money!"

As soon as he said that, the booth fell into an awkward situation.

What would one be afraid most on a night out? Not having enough money!!!

This.. How embarrassing!

"That's impossible!" Emilia's face turned red. "Try it again. I've calculated the total price of the set meal I ordered. It's more than two million yuan. And there are tens of millions in this card!"

Their company was growing quickly and it was indeed fast to recoup costs, but the investment was also huge.

In addition, she had not opened his shop for two days, so he had no income at all, but even so, she was still very generous.

They've spent more than 200,000 tonight which meant each other them spent 10000.

"Hehe... Who told you that you spent more than 200,000 yuan?" Andy laughed scornfully.

"Aren't you going to take a closer look at the price of the set meal?"

"It's 100,000 per person! Ms Davis, don't tell me you can't even take out 20 million?"

Everyone was shocked when they heard this!

Many of them often came to bars which also meant that they knew the price.

Sarah Lee protested. "Nonsense! We're regular customers here. How can there be more than 20 million here?! You're just trying to scam us!!!!"

Soon, the staff of Davis Heavenly Doctor also shouted!

"This is nonsense!"

"We want to file a complaint!"

"This is too much!"

"More than 20 million yuan. You can directly book the entire place, right?"

"..."

They played with restraint and knew how to be grateful.

Although Emilia didn't order any famous wine that cost hundreds of thousands, it was definitely good for white-collar workers like them.

In addition, this was only an employee benefit, so...

"If you want to complain, you can come to me directly! I'm the person in charge here!" Andy sneered.

To put it bluntly, this was daylight robbery!

Although Emilia could afford to pay more than 20 million, she definitely did not feel good.

And this... was just the beginning!

Next...

"We clearly ordered the thousand-yuan per person set meal," said Emilia calmly.

"Buy you're telling me that it's 100,000 per person now?"

Was he really throwing away his face for money? Or was there another reason?

However, it seemed like she had never offended Andy!

"I have the final say here. Even if we go to court, I will definitely win against you. You're not paying for the expenses?" Andy asked coldly.

When he finished speaking...

A large group of men in black suits instantly surrounded the booth.

At a rough glance, there were at least a hundred people!

Most importantly, everyone was holding a shiny machete in their hands! Such a scene also made the people of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals speechless.

When had they ever seen such a scene? It would be strange if he wasn't afraid!

"Either pay up or leave a finger behind!"

Andy's lips curled into an evil smile. "Everyone, think carefully about this."

Chapter 585 30% vs 200 fingers

"Clang clang..."

Just as he finished his sentence, the hundred men in suits with knives deliberately knocked their blades on the iron bars at the side, making a terrifying sound.

"You..." Emilia said angrily.

She turned around and looked at her employees. All of them looked terrified.

After all, they were all normal citizens.

They were all paid to support their families. Who wanted to go head-to-head with these people!

In fact, Freddy Martin had his reasons for giving such instructions.

That was to break Emilia's position in the hearts of the employees.

Once they knew that she couldn't afford it, the employees would feel insecure. When that time came...

Things would be much easier!

It had to be said that this move was vicious enough!

"I don't have more than 20 million on me right now." Emilia frowned and took a deep breath.

"Why don't you let my employees leave first and I'll gather money for you here!"

She had no other choice.

She knew that this was no different from robbery, but if she didn't agree now, was there any other way?

"Miss Amelia!"

"Ms Davis!"

In an instant, the group of employees burst into tears!

At this moment, instead of worrying about her own safety, Emilia wanted them to leave first.

Where would they find such decent bosses?!

Twenty million was indeed not a lot for the current market value of Davis.

But...

Mobile funds and market value were two different things.

Furthermore, the current Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was still in the midst of rapid expansion.

"Hehe... If you don't have money, don't start a company!"

"Don't allow it to turn out this way where you can't afford to pay anything." Andy mocked.

"I will not let any of you go."

If he allowed any of them to leave, how would he be able to threaten them?

No one was a fool!

He had been in the underworld for so many years, so he naturally understood the principle that the more hostages there were, the greater the power.

"Then what exactly do you want? I have enough money in my company's financial account," Emilia questioned angrily. "But I can't carry my company's account with me all the time, can I?"

The most important thing now was to ensure the safety of the employees.

This was a matter of structure!

Once the hearts of the people were scattered, the company would not be far from bankruptcy.

"Hehe... "Who knows how much money you have in your company account?"

Andy rubbed his nose and grinned. "However, there is still a solution. I wonder if these employees are that important to you."

In an instant, the scene fell silent!

In fact, everyone understood that what happened next was Andy's true goal.

It just depended on how big his appetite was!

"Tell me!" Emilia questioned.

She could not let her employees suffer any mishaps because of her.

However, no matter what price he had to pay tonight, he would not let this matter rest.

"Pa..."

At this moment, Andy threw a contract on the table and squinted.

The main event was about to begin!

This was a share transfer agreement!

"So you're here for Doctor Davis?"

"What?!" Emilia's pretty face was filled with anger. However, after opening it, she became even angrier.
"You want 30% of my shares?"

She finally understood! She finally knew what was happening.

This...

Even if she could afford to pay more than 20 million, Andy would probably make her pay a higher fee.

And these...It was not his goal!

Their goal was to target Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, whose market value was increasing!

"What's wrong? Aren't your employees worth more than this share?"

"Besides," Andy teased, "I only asked for 30%. I didn't ask for 50% from you. Compared to 200 fingers, isn't this deal generous enough?"

Shameless!

Chapter 586 Beautiful Bodies

How shameless!

He made it sound like a robbery and even used moral kidnapping.

Emilia was about to explode from anger!

But now, Oliver Walker was nowhere to be found.

If he was here, would he...

These weren't things that she should consider now. After hesitating, she took a deep breath and picked up the pen in the contract.

"Miss Emilia, you can't sign it!"

"This company is your blood, sweat, and tears!" Sarah Lee shouted.

She had always had a good relationship with Emilia.

She knew how much effort Emilia had put in for Doctor Davis.

However, more people chose to remain silent.

Although Emilia was a nice person, no one wanted to become a cripple in the future!

"I'll give it to you!" said Emilia resolutely. Even though it was just a voice, it made her heart warm.

Soon, she signed her name on the contract!

The staff of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals didn't feel good either, but...

After all, not getting hurt themselves would be better. No matter how good the company was, it was not like they would work for the company for the rest of their lives. Their bodies were more important.

"Uh..."

Andy was stunned at first. He never expected that Emilia would really sign it. This...

Was it too easy?

"Let them go first. I'll give you the contract later!"

"Otherwise..." Emilia gritted her teeth.

Those employees were completely convinced! This was definitely the first time she had seen their boss in this manner.

This...

If there was no better development in the future, such a boss and such a company were indeed worth fighting for for a lifetime.

"Ms. Davis is generous! But I don't trust this contract!" Andy sneered.

"Let me take a look first!"

If they let him go so easily, what would happen next?

In fact, this contract was drafted by Andy. What was there to be worried about?

To put it bluntly, Andy's ambition was not satisfied and he wanted more.

"What?!" Such behavior infuriated Emilia. "Are you done? What else do you want?"

She had already done so much!

In the end, the other party was still unwilling to let the matter rest.

She was afraid that no matter how much she promised, there would not be a good outcome tonight.

"Whether it's over or not, it's not up to you! This is my territory!" Andy shouted angrily.

After he finished speaking, he gave a look to the person beside him!

Very soon...

The hundreds of men in suits outside began to walk towards the booth. Each of them looked fierce and fierce. It was obvious that they were pressuring her!

"Ah..."

Soon, someone could not hold on any longer and shouted.

With the first person, there were others who were also pressured by the tense atmosphere and broke down first.

After all, those shiny machetes were no joke!

Many people were indeed scared out of their wits.

However, they were all ordinary people. In fact, it was not embarrassing for them to be frightened to this extent in front of Andy. It was a completely normal reaction!

Emilia was anxious!

She didn't know what would happen if she delayed any longer. Especially when he looked around, he saw the men in suits holding machetes constantly swinging them.

From time to time, he would even let out lewd laughter.

"This woman is very hot but not as good-looking as Emilia!"

"Tsk...I don't like young women who have given birth!"

"You little brat, what do you know? Only a young married woman has taste, and only a young married woman knows more postures!"

"Hahaha..."

"..."

Emilia's face turned red with anger!

Could these people still be considered humans?

"You still have one minute to consider. If you don't agree, I'll chop off one finger every minute. Of course, beautiful women can also use their bodies to pay off their debts!" Andy smiled lewdly.

Chapter 587 Suicidal Thoughts

The scene fell silent!

This...

This man had increased his requirements time and time again. There was no bottom line at all!

Emilia was also so angry that she could not say a word.

She knew that the other party was deliberately stirring up trouble.

But...

"There's no need to consider!"

At this moment, Oliver Walker walked over and took the share transfer agreement from his wife. He tore it into pieces and threw it on the ground. "If any of you dare to move tonight, I'll make you regret for even being alive!"

As soon as these words were said, it exploded in everyone's ears!

This...

There was an even crazier one!

However, the people from Davis didn't like Oliver Walker at all.

In their eyes, he was just a pretty boy. He really didn't understand why the fair, rich, and beautiful Emilia would fall for such a man.

As for the company's crisis last time, they didn't think Oliver Walker could resolve it.

The reason why Emilia said that was to save face. But now that Oliver Walker had stepped forward, he was not trying to save them. Instead, he would only infuriate Andy and the rest of them, making them suffer even more.

Therefore, it was impossible for them not to hate him.

However, unlike them, Emilia was relieved when she saw Oliver Walker.

Her husband may be violent, but he really couldn't use ordinary methods to deal with this group of shameless people.

At the same time, the men in suits with machetes also looked at him curiously.

Did this kid not want to live anymore? Was he mocking them for not having the guts?

In an instant, everyone's eyes were filled with ridicule.

"What shameless boasting!"

"Cripple this bastard!"

Andy was definitely a ruthless person in the underworld, and his subordinates were also ruthless. It was common for him to cripple a person!

"Brother Andy, let me do it!"

A man in a suit shouted coldly and charged at Oliver Walker with his saber.

However, Oliver Walker didn't even move!

On the other hand, Mike, who was beside him, shouted, "What kind of dog is this? How dare you be so arrogant in front of me!"

"Get lost!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he kicked the man in the suit away.

That person was also unlucky. He did not expect that whether it was Oliver Walker or Mike, they were both people he could not afford to offend.

As his body flew backward, a stream of blood spurted out of his mouth.

'Bang...'

When his body crashed down, it smashed the hard marble table and made a loud sound.

From this, it could be seen that Mike's attack was a killing move!

Andy was stunned!

He knew that Mike had some ability. Otherwise, he would not have been Emma Adams 'personal bodyguard.

But his subordinates were not cowards!

Just one move...

Defeating in just one move was something he found hard to accept!

"You guys leave first. Leave this group of bastards to me!"

Mike shouted at Oliver Walker. He had been sullen for a long time, especially after losing what he thought was love. His temper had become even more violent.

Just as he was troubled and had no place to vent his frustrations, this group of unlucky people came knocking on his door.

Wasn't this courting death?

"Damn it!"

"Kill him!"

At this moment, Andy was furious. How could he care about Emilia and those useless hostages?

If his subordinates were beaten up and he did not take revenge, then he would not have to work in the underworld in the future.

"You're in danger now!"

Oliver Walker said calmly, causing Mike to be stunned.

Did they think that this group of people could kill him?

But soon, Oliver Walker said, "The murderous aura is too strong. It's easy to go berserk."

"Control yourself. Don't kill anyone!"

He wasn't pitying these pitiful people!

Instead, he was teaching Mike how to control his killing intent!

For martial artists, once their desire to kill surpassed their rationality, they would really turn into demons with a single thought and would not be able to stop in the end.

Oliver Walker would not dare to take such a person in!

He could kill!

Chapter 588 Summoning the Death God

It was because he had long been able to control his killing intent.

However, Mike had clearly not reached that realm, especially now. After many years of abstinence, once he activated the killing mode again, the consequences would be unimaginable.

"Yes, sir!"

Mike immediately replied, "I guarantee to complete the mission!"

The conversation between the two stunned even the people from Davis, let alone Andy's people.

If they didn't know the truth, wouldn't they think that they had the upper hand?

This...

Each one was crazier than the last!

"Let's go!"

"Leave!" Emilia shouted and started to get her employees to leave.

Those who received the order instantly reacted and rushed out. After all, no one wanted to stay in this damn place and let their lives be threatened.

But how could two people protect more than two hundred people?

"F*ck!" Andy shouted angrily before everyone could figure it out.

"Do you think it'll be that easy for you to leave?"

As soon as he finished speaking, the group of men in suits waved their shiny machetes and rushed forward.

But at the same time, Mike also moved!

Not to mention that they did not know Mike's identity, even if they did, they would not take a mercenary king seriously.

Because... Those who do not know fear not.

They had never experienced such a bloody scene, so how could they understand the harsh conditions of becoming a mercenary king?

It was not as simple as a hooligan holding a machete on the streets every day, chopping down other hooligans from the eastern district to the northern district.

As expected, Mike blocked most of the attacks alone.

Occasionally, some hooligans would rush over from the side, but they would also be mercilessly knocked down by Oliver Walker.

Soon, all the people from the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals left.

Not only did Mike not stop, but after he lost his fear, his attacks became even more powerful.

"A bunch of brats. Do you think you're a gangster just because you're holding a machete?"

"Childish!"

Mike snatched two machetes and kept swinging them with both hands.

As he walked past the crowd, fresh blood flowed along the blade and dripped onto the ground.

And he was not injured at all.

"Ah..."

"Damn it!"

"Kill him!"

"..."

In an instant, the men in suits were enraged.

People kept falling and losing their combat power. It was only because of Oliver Walker's warning that Mike did not kill them. Otherwise, they would have died long ago!

"Brother Andy!"

"Something's wrong!"

"He..." One of his subordinates hurriedly shouted. "He..."

Wasn't he just a bodyguard?

How could he be so powerful?

Moreover, Andy was known as one of Freddy Martin's Eight Great Warriors, so he was naturally not an ordinary person.

His subordinates were all ruthless people.

They even specially found people who practiced underground boxing to be their sparring partners. They learned the martial arts of chopping people.

If Mike was an ordinary bodyguard, they would have no issues dealing with him.

But now?

Mike did not treat his subordinates as people at all, but as straw!

In addition to that sentence, it was completely killing people's hearts!

"Wait!"

Andy finally spoke. He couldn't just let his men fall.

After all...

It was not easy to nurture them!

After hearing the order, the group of subordinates also stopped, but they held their machetes tightly and stared at Mike, who was standing in the middle and surrounded.

No!

How could they have surrounded Mike?

It was clearly Mike who had surrounded them all around him!

This was simply not human! He was like a god of death!

"Clang..."

Mike disdainfully threw the machete on the ground and said coldly, "If you still refuse to surrender, show yourself then."

Chapter 589 Hiring The Emperor King

With just one sentence, the atmosphere at the scene became much more oppressive.

When Mike's cold eyes swept across the entire scene, those who could still stand quickly trembled and took a step back.

There were even some who were scared out of their wits and hurriedly threw the machete in their hands to the ground. That appearance was really comical to the extreme.

"Brother Mike, with such skills, why do you have to suffer?"

"As long as you name a price, I will satisfy you!"

Andy finally understood why Oliver Walker wanted to pay more than two million yuan for Mike.

It turned out that this pretty boy had long known that Mike was a ruthless character.

If he had known earlier, he would have taken in five people worth more than two million, let alone two million.

After all, such a fierce person was a true trump card.

Of course, he was not afraid that Mike would dare to seize power. After all, those in the underworld all paid attention to seniority.

As long as Mike lowered his head and followed him, if he dared to betray him in the future, he would only be chased down crazily.

However, it was a little too late to understand now!

"Hahaha..."

Mike laughed wildly.

"Name your price?"

"It's not too much for me to ask you for one billion, right?"

If he was at his peak, just accepting an SSS-rank mission would cost him hundreds of millions.

So was one billion too much?

However, he knew that even if Andy had so much money, he would not agree.

"You..."

Mike swallowed a mouthful of saliva, and his face turned red.

"You should know the consequences of offending our Black Dragon Sect. If you don't submit, Mr. Martin won't let you off."

The Black Dragon Sect used to be an underground organization in the state of colorado.

Freddy Martin was the commander-in-chief of the state of colorado.

It was only in these few years that they had been clamoring to whitewash their identities, so they had quieted down.

However, his strength did not change at all.

As long as Freddy Martin waved the flag, the thousands of people would quickly gather.

Such a force was absolutely terrifying!

"A mere Black Dragon Sect?"

Mike's eyes were filled with contempt.

"Don't provoke me again!"

" Don't provoke Doctor Davis again, or you'll regret it!"

After saying that, he left the Queen Bar proudly.

In the first half of his life, he would do anything for money.

But now, even if Freddy Martin really took out a billion, he would not agree.

A scholar dies for a confidant!

Oliver Walker understood him, so he was willing to work for him!

As for the requirements?

Actually, it wasn't high. It was fine as long as they gave him food to eat.

"Brother Andy!"

"He... He's too arrogant!"

"Damn it, gather our brothers and kill him!"

"..."

The people of the Black Dragon Sect had always been arrogant.

He did not expect to see someone even more arrogant now!

Not only Mike, but also Oliver Walker. They were all crazy people.

This made them lose all their face.

" Shut up and send our injured brothers to the hospital."

After saying this, Andy hurried out of the door. This matter was beyond his ability. He had to ask Freddy Martin for instructions. Otherwise, the consequences were not something he could bear.

At the same time, after watching the employees leave safely.

"He..." Emily frowned. What about him?"

That's right!

They had left, but what about Mike?

She had never expected that the friend Oliver Walker mentioned was Emma Adams 'bodyguard.

To be honest, this turn was a little too big and caught her off guard!

"He should be coming out soon!"

Oliver Walker looked at the time and smiled." Honey, how much do you think he can pay if he works at Davis?"

Chapter 590 Something Left Unsaid

A person like Mike definitely could not be included in the formal department.

Once the news was leaked, it would definitely affect America's reputation.

However, if he was in Davis, he could still do everything he could.

" Isn't he Emma Adams 'bodyguard?"

"You didn't poach Emma Adams, did you?" asked Amelia in surprise.

Such behavior was absolutely despised in the business world.

She was a decent person and did not care about such petty tricks.

"It's a long story!"

Oliver Walker was about to speak...

At this moment, Mike, who was covered in blood, swaggered out.

" You?" A strange light flashed in Amelia's beautiful eyes." On you?"

"It's all their blood. It has nothing to do with me!"

It was a simple sentence, but it was hard for Emily to believe it.

Who was her husband and Mike?

There were hundreds of criminals with machetes!

Just...

He walked out just like that?

"Are you sure you want to work at Davis Group?" he asked in a daze.

"Has Adams Group resigned?"

At the mention of Adams, the silly smile on Mike's face gradually cooled down.

The corner of his mouth twitched before he pretended to be relaxed and said, "Mr. Davis, I..." I have nothing to do with them anymore, so I beg you to take me in."

Amelia was silent for a long time. She was thinking about it, but she finally said, "Currently, someone is already taking on the role of the security department manager for Davis Heavenly Doctor."

"If you work here, I can only give you a slightly higher salary than ordinary security personnel."

"Can you accept it?"

Actually, she was still a little dissatisfied with the security department.

The security department had collectively lost their voice when they had just encountered such a crisis. From the nature of their work, it was completely dereliction of duty.

However, logically speaking, it was just after work hours. There was indeed no need for them to work so hard.

"Honey..."

Oliver Walker was embarrassed and quickly said, "He..."

Mike did not want to make things difficult for Oliver Walker. He quickly nodded and said, "Mr. Davis, I don't ask for salary. Just give me a meal."

He had long passed the age of doing things for money.

What he lacked was someone who could appreciate him, and what he lacked was warmth.

In terms of status, Oliver Walker was one of the few big shots who were qualified to admire him.

During the most difficult times, Oliver Walker was by his side and listened to him.

How could a man be so pretentious?

This was especially true for men who had grown up in the midst of bloodshed. Sometimes, when making friends, it was very likely that they could become close friends with just a look.

"Good!"

"Come to work tomorrow!"

Emily smiled. She was not a fool. She could naturally tell that Mike was not an ordinary person.

The reason why he said that was because of the company's system.

After all, there were many considerations in her position.

However, he had never thought of mistreating Mike.

And this favor was given to her husband.

"Thank you, Mr. Davis!"

"Thank you, Mr. Walker. I'll go back first!"

Mike's eyes were filled with excitement. After greeting him, he turned around and left.

Oliver Walker shook his head. "That's not like you!"

In his impression, his wife was not a rigid person.

How much could an ordinary security guard earn per month?

Even if it was slightly higher, just over 10,000, could it reach 20,000?

"I can't represent you?"

"What you have is your relationship." Amelia smiled coquettishly. "He and Doctor Davis have a normal working relationship."

"Let's go home!"

In fact, there were still questions that she wanted to ask but did not ask.

Why did Andy and his gang suddenly make things difficult for her?

Could it be that he was jealous of the rise of Heavenly Doctor Davis?

This matter was probably not as simple as he had imagined!
