Chapter 591 Looking for Trouble

Naturally, Oliver Walker had thought about this question.

But because there were too many people tonight, it was not suitable to do it, so...

He didn't say anything!

However, wouldn't it be a joke if he just let this matter go?

No matter who was behind Andy, they would have to pay a painful price for this kind of robbery.

The next morning!

"What?"

"You hurt so many brothers, and you still haven't settled the matter?" Freddy Martin was furious.

"Where do you want me to put my face?"

He had been in the underworld for so many years.

However, in the business world of Arizona, who would dare to not give face to anyone with some status?

"Mr. Martin! I didn't expect Mike to be so powerful!"

Andy frowned. "The key is that something unpleasant happened between us. It's hard to talk."

He really couldn't figure it out.

Is there sh*t in Emma Adams 'head?

How could such a powerful bodyguard be fired just like that? What kind of joke was this?

Moreover, he kept saying that he was a good-for-nothing!

F*ck!

Andy had really screwed him over!

"After all, I owe Emma Adams a favor. I can't let this matter go just like that. Otherwise, if word gets out, it will cause great damage to my reputation."

Freddy Martin slammed the table angrily. "I'm going to attend a bidding meeting at noon. I hope you'll get it done before I come back."

His current identity was that of a legal businessman.

Although he didn't do well in the business world, he could still survive by relying on his reputation in the underworld.

Therefore, there was no need for him to personally take care of the matters in the underworld. He could just leave it to his subordinates.

"Mr. Martin, don't worry! I promise to complete the mission." A ruthless look appeared on Andy's face.

He was also holding back his anger!

As one of the Eight Great Guardian Deities of the Black Dragon Sect, how could he accept such grievances?

There were many ways to torture a person. There was no need to mention destroying a company.

After Freddy Martin left, Andy began to organize his men.

Today, he would make sure that the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals would no longer be a company, but a place that was worse than a garbage dump.

At the same time, early in the morning, Mike went to Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to report.

After getting a uniform, he went back to work.

It was indeed boring, but his human body had actually lost its target.

Therefore, no matter what he did, it would not be fun. However, he still hoped that Oliver Walker could give him a goal and let him know what was the meaning of living.

After dealing with their daily affairs, the two of them went straight to the bidding meeting for the West City Industrial Park.

They never expected that trouble would come knocking on their door not long after they left!

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..."

He saw that the entrance of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was blocked by cars.

In the next second, more than 300 people dressed in black uniforms and holding machetes swaggered into the company.

"You... You guys..."

At the same time, the security personnel of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had also gathered together.

However, when he saw the lineup on the other side, he was shocked silly!

"Motherf*cker!"

Andy cursed angrily. He kicked the security captain in a suit to the ground and held his knife against the neck artery. He threatened fiercely, "The Black Dragon Sect is doing business. If you don't want to die, behave yourself! Otherwise, the saber in my hand won't have eyes!"

He slapped the security captain's face with the back of the knife, making a series of slaps.

The other security guards were also frightened and fell to the ground.

He didn't dare to speak at all!

"Listen up!"

"From today onwards, it won't be peaceful for Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals. I don't want to make things difficult for you wage earners!"

Chapter 592 Why Are You Here?

"You know what to do, right?"

After Andy took control of the scene, he waved his machete and strode forward, shouting at the staff of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals.

"Yes, yes, yes... Wu..."

Even the security department had surrendered, so what could they do?

There were even some timid women who cried together. He was indeed frightened!

"Smash it!"

After Andy gave the order, his subordinates began to smash everything in the company!

A computer!

The office desk!

There were also chairs and so on...

'Bang!'

'Clang!'

'Rumble!'

Whether it was valuable or not, everything was smashed into pieces. The originally spacious and bright office was in a mess in less than ten minutes.

"Where's Emilia's office?"

However, after smashing everything, Andy was still not satisfied. He immediately questioned angrily, "Tell me now, or I'll slice your neck."

A woman with a machete on her neck was so frightened that she turned pale and did not dare to speak at all.

The tears in her eyes flowed like crazy as she pointed at the elevator with a trembling finger.

The Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals rented two floors of the building.

Therefore, Emilia's office would definitely be upstairs.

"Ah..."

At this moment, Sarah Lee, the secretary, had just finished tidying up the office and chatted with Mike for a while before going downstairs.

However, who would have thought that they would see such a scene when the elevator door opened? They were so frightened that they hurriedly shouted.

Fortunately, she had a quick reaction. She pressed the elevator button frantically, wanting to run upstairs and inform the person who had just arrived to leave quickly.

"Follow me!"

Andy laughed coldly and led the group of people up the stairs.

Today, he would make Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals disappear so that Emilia would know the consequences of offending the Black Dragon Sect.

"Big Brother Bao, hurry...Hurry up and run..."

At the same time, Sarah Lee rushed upstairs and shouted, "It's too dangerous here."

Mike frowned slightly.

Oliver Walker had arranged for him to stay on this floor, meaning his primary task was to protect Emilia's safety when he was not around.

Now that Emilia and Oliver Walker were not around, he naturally could not just stand by and watch.

"Last night... Those people, again... Here it comes again!"

"Hurry... Hurry up and leave, or it'll be too late!"

Sarah Lee was already scared to tears. If she did not think that Mike was a silly and cute uncle, she might not have informed him and left.

"Are they courting death again?"

Mike was stunned and said, "Don't be afraid; I'm here!"

"Go inside and inform Ms. Davis. I'll take care of this."

He didn't know what had happened downstairs. If he had seen it, he wouldn't be so calm now.

"But... But they... they have machete!!!!!"

"Don't you know how dangerous it is?" Sarah Lee asked anxiously.

Mike's expression was calm as he touched his nose. "Actually, I'm more dangerous than them. Hurry up and go in. Otherwise, the next scene might scare you!"

Actually, his heart was very warm.

After all, he had been with Emma Adams for so long that he was used to thinking of others first. But before Sarah Lee could answer, she was pushed into the office.

"Smash everything. Do not leave any stones unturned."

Andy then led a group of people and charged forward angrily.

However, before he could finish his sentence, he saw Mike, who had his arms crossed, staring at him with sharp eyes, causing him to swallow the second half of his sentence.

"Why are you here?"

Honestly, not only his subordinates, but even he himself, had never seen such a ruthless person like Mike after being in the underworld for so long.

Therefore, his expression was indeed interesting.

Chapter 593 Broken Bones

At the same time, more and more people were blocking the corridor.

Many of them had not been stabbed last night, but when they thought of the bloody scene last night, they could not help but shiver.

They had been as arrogant as they could be downstairs just now, but at this moment, they collectively lost their voices. Each of them was like a grandson.

Sarah Lee, who was in the office, saw everything clearly through the glass door.

The man's back was like a towering Aiden Wilson.

"Uh..."

"That's a stupid question," said Mike. "I'm also an employee of Davis now."

"Since you're still here to cause more trouble today, I'd have to admit that it must have been because I didn't teach you a lesson last night. I was wrong. I didn't hit you hard enough. You bastards mistook me for a kind person."

He was thinking about a very serious problem!

That was, if the other party did not put him in his eyes, how should he deal with them?

Kill them?

Oliver Walker wouldn't let him do so.

Therefore, things were indeed quite difficult.

"You..."

After all, Andy was also a person who had seen storms. After calming down, he said in a deep voice, "Mike, I advise you not to get involved. You can't afford to interfere in the matters of the Black Dragon Sect!"

He relied on the advantage of numbers, so he became much bolder!

When he spoke, he was naturally unyielding.

"I don't want to meddle in the dirty business of the Black Dragon Sect, but if you don't scam, don't blame me for being impolite."

Mike said with a serious expression, "You should know the outcome."

Such a sentence completely infuriated the members of the Black Dragon Sect who were naturally brutal.

After all, the State of Colorado was their territory. Since when was it someone else's turn to threaten them?

"Brother Andy, why are you talking to this blockhead?"

"Let's kill him!"

"Yes, let him know the power of the Black Dragon Sect!"

"..."

Soon, a group of fools, who had not suffered last night, began to roar.

They even waved the machetes and gestured in the air.

Andy's expression was solemn. After all, he was the boss of a group of underlings. If he was threatened like this and left, how would he lead others in the future?

"I admit that you're a man." He said coldly. "But can you beat a hundred people? Can you beat three hundred people?"

"Plus, the Black Dragon Sect has more than a thousand people."

However, at this moment, Mike did not retreat. Instead, he advanced step by step. With every step he took, his aura rose steadily!

"F*ck!"

"Kill him!"

"..."

Such behavior completely angered the Black Dragon Sect members. In an instant, more than 20 people rushed forward.

"Ah..."

Sarah Lee, who was in the office, instantly closed her eyes. She couldn't bear to watch the next scene.

But soon, shrill wails and howls came from outside.

Moreover, it was not the same person!

This gave her the courage to look up at the scene outside again.

Mike was like a god who had descended to the mortal world, shuttling through the crowd. Wherever he passed, there would definitely be people falling.

What was even more exaggerated was that a stampede soon occurred.

The Black Dragon Sect members who had fallen to the ground were trampled on by their companions, and their cries became even more shrill.

"If anyone dares to bleed and dirty the floor, I'll let him lick it clean!"

Mike swept his cold gaze across the group of people and then shouted angrily, "Those who don't want any broken bones should kneel down now!"

He did not kill any of them but each attack of his were not light either!

Those who fell to the ground had broken bones.

But... none of them bled.

Those who were bleeding swallowed the blood back into their stomach at that instant.

This guy was terrifying!

"A warrior can be killed, but not humiliated! You're going against the Black Dragon Sect!" Andy said angrily.

He was standing in the crowd, but he was actually right next to the elevator. He could leave at any time!

After all, he had to consider his own safety in everything!

"You're still not going to give up?"

Mike smiled coldly, "Well, then you're just courting death."

When he finished speaking, he took another step forward!

Seeing that the situation was not good, a trusted aide shouted, "Brother Andy, run!"

Chapter 594 A Car-wrecked Choir

In fact, Andy had long wanted to retreat, but because of his pride, he was embarrassed.

But now that someone had given him a way out, he shouted without hesitation, "Retreat!"

Was this a retreat?

It was an escape.

He even abandoned the injured!

Actually, there weren't many who couldn't move. There were about fifty of them.

However, this was only two minutes into the battle.

Andy's subordinates were not cowards, but the key was that they could not be sure how many people this madman could fight. Naturally, it was best to leave.

"Hey!"

"Uncle!"

Sarah Lee was no longer afraid. After she walked out of the office, her face was full of admiration.

"Have you been professional trained before?"

The people lying here were suffering unspeakably. Which one of them wasn't a martial artist?

And the result? It was useless!

They were all lying here in a mess!

"Yes! I only learned a little fancy boxing."

Mike laughed. "You can call Ms. Davis now or even Mr. Walker. I don't have their number."

The more capable a person was, the more low-key they would be.

Oliver Walker, or even him, did not need to be high-profile to attract attention.

However, this sentence made those wailing people's faces turn ashen with anger!

If Mike was just a show-off, then what were they?

"No way!"

"The bidding should have already started," Sarah Lee said. "They wouldn't be able to answer our calls."

Normally, in large meetings, the phone would be turned off. This was the rule!

No one could destroy it!

"Uh..."

Mike frowned and said in confusion, "Then we can't let them leave, right?"

To kill or not to kill?

If he hit them, they would all have broken bones and look half-dead. There was no point in fighting anymore!

"We have to get them to kneel and surrender! They've gone too far. Teach them a lesson," Sarah Lee shouted fearlessly.

A little girl who had just graduated from university was indeed brave, especially when she stood beside Mike. She felt an incomparable sense of security.

This was a real man!

He was much stronger than Oliver Walker!

If she knew that Oliver Walker could beat Mike up with one hand even though he was seriously injured and had not fully recovered, who knew what she would think.

"Alright! That's what we should do!"

Although Mike felt that it was meaningless, he could not find a better way. He immediately shouted, "Did you hear that? All of you on your knees and started singing."

"We're all from the underworld. We still have a reputation to maintain." A Black Dragon Sect member said with an ugly expression.

This was definitely not something harmful but it was embarrassing.

Who didn't want that bit of face?

"Hmm?"

Mike snorted coldly and swept his eyes across!

In the next second, the Black Dragon Sect members who had been clamoring to give him some face earlier took the lead and knelt on the ground. They wailed like ghosts and howled like wolves. "That's it. I'm conquered by you. I'll drink the poison you hid!"

Someone took the lead, and soon, it was a chorus that sounded like a car accident scene!

However, all of them were out of tune!!!!

Their faces were filled with helplessness and fear.

"Let's see if you still have the guts to offend Ms Davis! This is what you get for trying to mess with her." Sarah Lee said angrily.

She was a newborn calf that was not afraid of tigers!

They only knew that Mike had defeated so many people in a few moves.

However, she did not know how terrifying these people were!

While she was singing, many resentful gazes locked onto Sarah Lee.

Mike had already seen that fierce light in his eyes. He immediately sneered and said, "Whoever dares to have any ideas about her, I'll kill his entire family!"

Such a sentence made everyone behave themselves!

The admiration in Sarah Lee's eyes increased.

She put her palms together like a lovestruck fool!

Could it be that love at first sight was this kind of heart-pounding feeling?

Chapter 595 Squeezed her Dry

"Hmm?"

Mike felt that something was wrong, but he ignored it.

He had seen too many girls like her.

"Can we have dinner together after work tonight?"

When she said this, Sarah Lee's face turned red. She didn't know why she had the cheek to ask him out. Was this still her?

However, the ones who were truly uncomfortable were the Black Dragon Sect members who were kneeling on the ground.

Although Sarah Lee could not compare to Emilia, she was indeed a beauty.

Most importantly, she was still very young!

However, Mike had forcefully stepped on their dignity and obtained the favor of a beautiful woman. This...

He still couldn't get over himself.

"I'm not a good person!"

Mike said resolutely, "Give up on the thoughts in your heart!"

In the end, it was still difficult for him to let go of Emma Adams.

Of course, he didn't want to harm Sarah Lee. She was at most 22 or 23 years old.

He was almost forty! And he was indeed not a good person!

He had never denied this!

However, this rejection surprised everyone, including Sarah Lee. After being stunned, her face turned red and sad!

"Get the f*ck out of here!"

Hearing Mike's words, the people of the Black Dragon Sect felt their bodies relax.

However, before they left the door, Mike said again, "When the boss comes back, I'll visit him personally! All of you better clean your neck till they shine."

These words caused the group of people to panic even more.

No one would have thought that the little bodyguard who used to follow Emma Adams around all day long would be such a ruthless person.

They couldn't help but twitch in fear! They wouldn't even dare fart.

One could imagine how aggrieved they were!

At the same time, in the West City Industrial Park!

The venue was already filled with people!

Emma Adams and Freddy Martin were sitting together.

Freddy Martin said in a low voice, "Tell me the truth. Who is the Mike you that you recently fired?"

How could ordinary bodyguards mess with his subordinates? freewebnovel.com

It would already be a nasty fight if it was just one-on-one. Mike had single-handedly fought hundreds of his subordinates.

"Him?"

Emma Adams laughed scornfully. "I pay him 8,000 dollars a month. What do you think he's got?"

"If he didn't work hard in bed, I would have fired him long ago! I'm tired of playing with him now. Can't I change him away?"

This...

Freddy Martin couldn't even say anything. There was a good reason! She was bored of this man and so she changed him away.

It was so straightforward!

Women playing with men was actually the same as men playing with women. They would all like the new and hate the old!

To put it bluntly, this was not a matter of gender, but a matter of power and wealth. However, Mike had told Emma Adams about his identity, but Emma Adams did not believe him at all.

In order to save face, Freddy Martin didn't say anything about what happened last night. Moreover, he didn't even know what had just happened. If he knew, he would definitely question Emma Adams!

"As far as I know, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals didn't close the store because of the storm. It's because of insufficient production capacity! So, I'm guessing that she's determined to get the factory here!"

Emma Adams's eyes flashed with anger. "But if she dares to bid today, I'll let her know what it means to be rich!"

The rise of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was undeniable.

Based on the current trend, it was likely to replace Adams' market share in the future.

However, it was impossible for Emilia to have so much money.

The extortion last night was also to find out the truth.

The fact that Emilia could not even take out 20 million meant that the current Davis must be under great financial pressure. So, Emma Adams was full of confidence!

Even if she had to lose money, she had to squeeze out the living space of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals!

On the other hand, Amelia was still a little nervous.

She kept taking deep breaths to adjust her mood.

Chapter 596 It Felt Personal

Just as Emma Adams thought, the current Davis didn't have that much liquid capital.

If everything went smoothly, they should be able to take down two factories today.

"Welcome, distinguished guests, to the West City Industrial Park. Currently, the lease contracts for six factories in our park have expired. So, I hope that those who need it will actively participate in the bidding in order to promote the economic development of the state of Xolorado!"

"We're bidding for the No. 12 factory in Area A," a man with white hair said into the microphone. "The building area is 2,000 square meters. It has all the environmental protection facilities! According to the rules, the starting price will be half of the original three-year rental price of 50 million!"

"Is there anyone interested?"

As soon as he finished speaking, someone quickly made a bid!

The scene also became lively.

The advantage of this factory was that it was extremely cost-effective!

Therefore, no one wanted to give up. The reason why this factory was auctioned first was to liven up the atmosphere.

"50 million!"

"52 million!"

"53 million!"

"..."

When the price soared to 55 million, many people had already chosen to give up.

"It's 55 million. Are there any more bids?"

"55 million going once!"

"55 million going twice!"

Just as the person in charge picked up the hammer and was about to seal the deal...

"60 million!" Emilia suddenly raised her sign. "60 million!"

She had not bid before because she had been waiting for this moment. She directly added five million to show that she was determined to get it.

Moreover, when the three-year rental price rose to 60 million, the 2,000-square-meter factory had already lost its cost-performance ratio.

It made all the people who liked the price to performance ratio withdraw from the bidding.

"Heh..."

"He added five million in one go?"

Emma Adams sneered at this moment. "Seems like you've earned a lot of money against your conscience recently. However, I also have my eyes on this factory!" freewebnovel.com

"70 million!"

When he finished speaking, the entire place erupted into an uproar!

"70 million?"

"Ms. Adams, you're still so generous! A bid of 10 million. Amazing!"

"..."

The people at the scene began to compliment him. In fact, such a rent was not much profit for many factories.

However, cosmetics were indeed profitable, and Adams Group, which had a market value of billions, could indeed afford this money.

But...

What she was trying to do was obvious. She was targeting Emilia.

After all, Adams Group and Davis had already fought a few battles.

Although the final victory was won by the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, Adams Group was still rich!

Their deep foundation was not something that Davis, who had suffered losses for several years and only started to make profits after Emilia took over, could compare to.

So now, what choice did Emilia have?

"71 million!"

What could Emilia do?

She knew that Emma Adams was deliberately going against her, so she could only brace herself and bid!

Otherwise, if they could not solve the problem of production capacity, then no matter how good the product was, it would not be able to occupy a market share. In the end, it would only become a niche product!

"Hehe...How petty!"

Emma Adams 'graceful and elegant appearance clearly showed that she was determined to get it.

To her, even if the factory rent was a loss, as long as she could control the production capacity of Davis, then Davis would not be able to replace Adams and become the mainstream of the market.

Therefore, even if it was a hundred million, she would not blink or frown. Everyone present understood it clearly!

This was a fight!

Emilia frowned slightly, and her slender hands that were holding the bidding board were also trembling slightly!

How should he choose? It was indeed difficult to make a decision now!

This move was indeed vicious!

Chapter 597 Winning the Bid

"Continue bidding!"

Oliver Walker leaned close to his wife's ear and whispered something before sitting there as if nothing had happened.

However, there was a smile on his face.

"81 million!"

Emilia did not want to admit defeat, especially now that the factory was very important to David Davies.

It was almost like a lifeline.

She was ambitious!

Naturally, he wanted to expand the Heavenly Sect pharmaceuticals and develop it outside of Arizona. If they couldn't even make it in the state of Colorado, how could they spread all over the world?

"90 million!"

"91 million!"

"100 million!"

"..."

When the price broke through nine digits, everyone was stunned.

Even the person in charge of the industrial park in the west of the city could not take it anymore.

A 2,000-square-meter factory with a three-year rental of 100 million yuan!

These three numbers were the main point!

"Continue bidding!"

Emma Adams laughed mockingly. "Even if you add a dollar, I'll add ten million! If you don't have the strength, don't come out and play!"

Such words made Emilia furious.

This was clearly an argument! It was obvious that Emma Adams was deliberately doing it.

However, it was not worth it to continue raising the price. But at this moment, Oliver Walker whispered again, 150 million!

"150 million!" With such a reminder, Emilia, whose vitality was surging, immediately shouted.

It wasn't that she didn't have money! But after shouting, she regretted it instantly!

This... This was really impulsive!

The scene became deathly silent!

Was he really going to sacrifice her entire family assets just to be the winner?!

It had to be said that the battle between women was really brutal!

"160 million!"

Emma Adams was stunned, but after a short moment of absent-mindedness, she still announced the price.

She must win once!

No matter what the price was!

"Continue bidding!"

After Emilia fell silent, Emma Adams provoked her again!

Her determination to win was written all over her face!

"Well, out of being friendly, we should never take away another person's favourite." Oliver Walker suddenly spoke up.

"Of course not!" Emilia calmed down and smiled. "Since President Adams wants it, I will give you face!"

She finally understood why her husband was reminding her!

This was a trap for Emma Adams! Emilia was not a fool.

160 million? She could do so much with that money.

Renting a 2,000-square-meter factory in this industrial park?

What kind of joke was this?

Cosmetics might not necessarily incur losses, but business was about profit!

Once calculated, it was definitely not worth it. Moreover, it was the kind that was at a loss compared to the ordinary price.

After all, the bid started at only 50 million.

"I don't think you can afford it! Supervisor Zhang, don't just stand there. You can announce the results now!" Emma Adams said disdainfully.

The man on the stage also woke up from his shock.

"Bang!"

"Congratulations, President Adams. You have won the bid at the price of 160 million!" He waved his hammer and announced.

When he finished speaking, there was a round of applause.

All these money! Emma Adams was indeed a wealthy woman.

"You're not going to get a factory today!" Emma Adams said provocatively with a smile.

"Like I said, even if Jesus came, he wouldn't be able to help you!"

In an instant, a large group of people's gazes fell on Emilia's face.

This...

It could be considered a direct challenge!

Do you dare to take this?

"President Adams is rich and overbearing, I have to admit it!"

"I'll continue to bid," she said. "Let's see if you dare to continue bidding!"

This was provocation!

She clearly wanted Emma Adams to be blinded by compliments.

There was still some resemblance between them.

They were both egoistic women!

Chapter 598 A Taste of her Own Medicine

It was obvious that Emma Adams had lost completely in the previous rounds of confrontation. At this moment, she was ready to win back her face.

"Then let's try! I always keep my word!" Emma Adams said coldly.

The auction continued, and Emma Adams was indeed attacking Emilia like crazy. There were a total of six factories, and she took four alone!

She also paid a price of 800 million!

With such generosity, no one else bid except for Emilia and Emma Adams.

The reason was simple. The consequences were not something they could bear.

"She's really crazy!" Emilia frowned.

Emma Adams's actions were completely harmful to others and not to herself.

After all, Adams Group did not need such a large production capacity at all.

Plus, they already had a lot of factories for production.

However, the consequence of such madness was that she, who really needed the factory and expanded the production capacity, would only get nothing.

"She's arrogant," Oliver Walker said indifferently. "Let her be!"

"She's just doing this without much thought. She'll regret this soon."

Emma Adams was indeed rich!

But...

No amount of money could withstand such madness!

"You're right." A smile appeared on Emily's pretty face.

She had not thought of this method before.

But...

Now that she had a sudden realization, she realized how brilliant her husband was.

Of course, there were risks in doing so.

If Emma Adams stopped bidding after the price was raised, he would really lose out.

If not for her husband's reminder, even if she could think of such an unconventional method, she might not have dared to use it.

"This is called giving her a taste of her own medicine!"

Oliver Walker turned to look at Emma Adams and said, "She can't hold on much longer."

Emilia also turned around and met Emma Adams' gaze.

At this moment, Emma Adams was still provoking her, but...

There was clearly a flicker in her eyes just now, which meant that she was also hesitating!

Was it worth it?

Of course, it was not worth it. Although he was smiling at the moment, it was completely a forced smile!

Doing such an irrational action was also for the sake of face.

Even Freddy Martin, who was beside him, couldn't stand it anymore. He reminded in a low voice, "You can't snatch anymore. They're deliberately raising the price!"

Emma Adams gritted her teeth. "Of course I know. Don't worry. I know what I'm doing. I'll trick her once."

In fact, they were both scheming against each other!

She won face but lost wealth! Therefore, she had to trick Emilia next!

Otherwise, he would feel uncomfortable!

"It's good that you know!"

Freddy Martin nodded. In fact, he didn't know anything about business at all. Many of the projects were done by Emma Adams to help him establish himself in the business world.

Therefore, Emma Adams's fall was completely harmful to him!

"Everyone should be as excited as I am, right?"

Jason Floss said half-jokingly. He did not forget to wipe the sweat off his forehead with his hand. In fact, he was quite nervous. The battle just now was filled with the smell of gunpowder.

The atmosphere was oppressive!

"Next is the fifth factory! The factory is 3,000 square meters. The starting price is 40 million! The time limit is still three years!"

The crowd fell silent.

No one wanted to laugh because they felt that it was ridiculous!

Even if it was a business competition, how could it be played like this?

"40 million! I want this factory!" Emilia shouted again.

He had made up his mind!

After all, there were only two more left!

If she didn't make a move now, she wouldn't have the chance!

Of course, she was also acting!

If she didn't make a move now, she would indeed be gone!

It all depended on how high Emma Adams was going to raise the price!

"50 million!"

Emma Adams still followed!

Her eyes were filled with gloom! She was already trying to hold herself back!

She had to fight to the end!

"60 million!"

"70 million!"

"..."

"Two hundred million!"

"..."

The atmosphere at the scene was extremely tense!

With Emilia's help, the bidding had once again reached its peak!

Chapter 599 Rocketed Price

And when Emilia quoted the sky-high price of 200 million...

Emma Adams clearly hesitated!

Could it be that Emilia was really determined to get it, or was she just trying to trick her?

This was a psychological game!

If she guessed wrong, it would be troublesome!

After all, they had just offered 800 million yuan. If they increased the bid now, it would exceed 1 billion.. If they spent all this money, it would mean that they would consume the group's reserve liquid funds.

"Let go!"

"Stop bidding," Freddy Martin reminded in a low voice. "It's getting dangerous."

Adams 'market value was only around six billion!

Taking one-sixth of the funds to rebuild the factory, wasn't it crazy?

Moreover, Adams was in a bad situation now. All their products were sold at a discount to stabilize his market share.

The real profits had already been cut by more than half!

Emma Adams really had the heart to give up!

"Looks like she won't bid anymore!"

Oliver Walker's voice wasn't loud, but it was just enough for Emma Adams to hear it.

To Emma Adams, who was having difficulty surrendering to her defeat, this was simply torture!

She really wanted to give up.

Because he was not sure if Emilia was really determined to get it or if she was going to continue digging a hole to bury her!

"Ceo Adams, are you sure?" Emilia asked anxiously.

The husband and wife's cooperation was flawless.

If Emma Adams refused to let go, he would just let go.

If Emma Adams gave up, then 200 million yuan was not too much for David's!

At least compared to Emma Adams, who had suffered a huge loss, it was much more worthwhile.

"Uh... Alright..."

"Two hundred million going once!" Jason Floss quickly raised his hammer and shouted.

"200 million going twice!"

"230 million..."

However, just as the hammer was about to fall!

" 210 million!" Emma Adams shouted again with a flushed face. "210 million!"

She was only doing this because of her ego. She couldn't allow Emilia to defeat her.

At the very least, she couldn't let Emilia off at this price!

Therefore, after much hesitation, he still called out the price!

"Looks like she really doesn't want me to take her down!"

Emilia seemed to be shaking her head with a bitter smile, but she was actually calm. "But I have to get it. The sales of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals are too good. The lack of production is the key!"

"So..."

"250 million!"

When she said that again, everyone was stunned again!

They all knew that Emilia was telling the truth!

The Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had a trump card product, but he was troubled by the problem of production capacity.

The West City Industrial Park was the only legal place to open a factory in the state of Xolorado.

It might work in other places, but...

The cost would only be higher!

If it was in the countryside, it might be low, but the brand positioning of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was to go global.

If they really went to the countryside to build a factory, then as long as someone wanted to hype it up, there would immediately be a crisis of trust.

So...

There was really no other way!

"Give up!"

Freddy Martin reminded Emma Adams again, "Do you really have to play yourself to the point of crippling yourself?"

"250 million is not low!"

In fact, Emma Adams was indeed in pain. Her expression was extremely ugly.

The main reason was that Emilia had gone too far!

To say that the sales were too good in front of her, wasn't that a slap to her face?

I can't admit defeat!

She absolutely could not admit defeat!

Emma Adams, who had been provoked, gritted her teeth and said, "260 million!"

In an instant, all eyes fell on Emilia!

Would she still bid?

"Ms. Davis, you..." Even Jason Floss hurriedly asked.

Chapter 600 Something Isn't Right

Her scalp was numb!

"I give up! Isn't there still another left?" Emilia asked with a smile.

That's right! There was one left!

This was the factory that she was really determined to get!

These words made Emma Adams' face turn ashen with anger. "You're admitting defeat just like that?"

"You..."

She had originally thought that Emilia would bid again and then throw it away.

However, she never expected that Emilia, who had said that she was determined to win, would give up so easily!

Just like that, Emma Adams was tricked once again!

No! This was a bomb!

"What else can I do?"

"Congratulations, President Adams, for taking down five factories in a row!" Emilia smiled

"Looks like this is a big move. Are they preparing to rush out of the state of Colorado?"

Once should always stab straight in the heart when trying to kill someone. This was truly murder.

At this moment, the Adams Group's market share in the state of Colorado was about to be completely lost, and they still wanted to expand beyond Colorado?

Was this a joke?

This was especially true for the world's famous cosmetics brands. They were obviously waiting for an opportunity.

Now, it was Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals who was fighting with Adams, the leader of the cosmetics industry in the state of Colorado.

One had a trump card in his hand, while the other had an absolute advantage in the local area. Therefore, the rest of them were just here to watch the show.

Few people were willing to do a losing business.

If they invested too much in the factory, and those world-famous cosmetics companies suddenly attacked, Adams' crisis would really come.

Emma Adams's expression was extremely interesting. As she gulped, she pretended to be calm and said fiercely, "I said that if you dare to bid anything here today, I will definitely follow."

"Don't even think about getting any of these six factories."

In fact, she was just saying that. Her goal was to trick Emilia.

However, the situation was even more serious than what Freddy Martin had said.

In order to take down five factories, Emma Adams had even used the company's reserve funds. What right did he have to fight for the sixth one?

However, only she knew about this!

When she saw the inconspicuous Oliver Walker, a strange smile appeared on her face...

His heart suddenly thumped!

This... This kid had been whispering to Emilia just now. Could he have some bad ideas?

No!

It shouldn't be! He was just a gigolo!

Presumably, he still didn't understand the nervous psychological game just now, right?

"This is the most exciting bidding meeting I've ever seen in my years of working in the West City Industrial Park! The sixth factory is also the main focus of this bidding. To be honest, I'm under a lot of pressure!"

"I wouldn't waste anymore time then." Jason Frost laughed at himself. "After all, President Adams and Ms. Davis are so supportive of my work. They will definitely not let this largest factory be abandoned."

"The bidding begins now!"

In fact, everyone present had already received the detailed information of the six factories.

The sixth factory had a construction area of 6,000 square meters. Of course, it was not cheap.

Small businesses wouldn't be able to occupy such a huge space.

Especially since the current situation was most likely a fight between Emilia and Emma Adams.

"Please wait a moment!"

However, at this moment, Oliver Walker stood up with a charming smile.

This time, everyone present could not remain calm!

First of all, Oliver Walker was not a boss. He was only able to participate in the bidding meeting because of Emilia. What right did he have to stop the bidding?

In fact, Emilia could not figure out what her husband wanted to do.

However, she knew that what her husband did would definitely shock everyone, and it would definitely be powerful for her.

"Humph! Who do you think you are?"

Others were unwilling to offend the recently rising Emilia, but Emma Adams was different. She reprimanded, "Even if you want to give up, it should be said by Emilia. It's not your turn to interrupt!"

She had a bad feeling!

This guy's smile actually made her panic.
