Chapter 611 Secret Discovered

At the same time, Freddy Martin and Andy held their breaths!

What could be inside?

However, judging from the current situation, it shouldn't be a dangerous item!

The Black Dragon Sect member's clothes were drenched in cold sweat. After realizing that there was no danger, he heaved a long sigh of relief.

"It's a letter!"

He hurriedly offered it with both hands!

"Mr. Martin, I'll leave first." Andy said.

Freddy Martin didn't say anything. Instead, he waved his hand and opened the envelope. However, when he saw the contents, his expression changed.

"Wait!" he shouted at Andy.

"What's wrong, Mr. Martin?" Andy frowned. He stopped and ran back.

Freddy Martin took a deep breath. His face was gloomy and he still didn't say anything. However, he handed the letter to Andy.

"Who is he?" Andy was shocked. "How did he find the young master?"

Freddy Martin knew that walking along the river often made one's shoes wet. Due to how he often kidnapped his opponents' families to threaten them to achieve his goal, he did not announce his marriage for safety reasons; even his son was born and raised abroad.

There was only his lover in the state of Colorado, not his family. This was the main reason why he dared to act recklessly.

This was why everyone thought that he was alone and had no family.

But now...

Not only did the letter contain the detailed addresses of his wife and son, but there were also clear photos of them. It was hard for him to accept.

"Oliver Walker, I'll f*ck your ancestors!"

Freddy Martin's face turned red as he clenched his fists!

This made the crooked thoughts he had just now completely disappear.

"Mr. Martin, arrange for the young master to be transferred!"

"He..." Andy quickly said. "They're in danger now!"

Freddy Martin's body trembled slightly.

"Where to?"

"They've been targeted, and Oliver Walker has the information. Even if they move again, they will still be discovered."

Andy fell silent!

Freddy Martin lay on the sofa with a tired expression. "How many years have we been brothers?"

Why was he in such a hurry to clear his name?

To put it bluntly, he was about to bring his wife and son back to China. He wanted to give his son a clean identity. But now, it seemed that the dream was completely shattered.

"Mr. Martin, I've been with you for 21 years!"

Andy answered without hesitation.

"Time really flies! I still remember that you were only seventeen years old at that time! You have witnessed the Black Dragon Sect's establishment and growth! You even once saved me from the pursuit of hundreds of people by himself!"

"Brother!" Freddy Martin said emotionally. "I still remember all these!"

"I wanted to work hard in business after I abdicated and let my son take over my business. Before he gets married, you'll be in charge of the Black Dragon Sect but I never expected... Hehe..."

Freddy Martin's lips curled into a helpless smile and his words were touching! Those past events, which also belonged to Andy's glorious days, were naturally vivid in his mind!

"Mr. Martin," he said, "if you need anything, just tell me. I'm willing to go through fire and water for you. I'll die for you!"

What was Freddy Martin's purpose in saying all this? It was most likely to make him work harder, right? But his life had been long merged with the Black Dragon Sect.

If the Black Dragon Sect fell, then there would be no place for him to stay in the State of Colorado.

His past enemies would not let him live. Therefore, even if he was asked to die for the Black Dragon Sect, he could only agree. Even if he refused, what was the use?

Wasn't there still no way out?

Therefore, what he said just now was not emotional, but heartfelt!

"You're being too serious!"

Freddy Martin shook his head. "You and I are brothers through life and death. Why would I let you die?"

His subordinates, the eight Guardian Deities, were all trusted aides.

How could he send his trusted aide to his death?

"Then..." Andy frowned. Mr. Martin, what do you mean?"

He had thought that Freddy Martin wanted him to do something big. After all, Freddy Martin was being emotional.

Who would have thought that Freddy Martin didn't mean that at all?

Chapter 612 Negotiation

"What I want to say is that this time, we might have encountered a tough opponent! I want to negotiate with him!" Freddy Martin said after some thought.

That's right!

A negotiation!

After all, Oliver Walker had proven his strength with his powerful counterattack. The letter just now had indeed made Freddy Martin's heart a little relaxed.

He was someone who was about to retire from the martial world.

It was only because of Emma Adams that he had no choice but to return to the underworld. Therefore, his state of mind was incomparable to before.

Besides, Oliver Walker had the address of his family!

"Negotiate? But this bastard has hurt so many of our brothers. Are we going to let this go?" Andy said unwillingly.

He could never allow this! If he did not deal with it and chose to negotiate, how could he face his former brothers in the future?

"I've made up my mind. There's no need to say anything else!"

"Go!" Freddy Martin waved his hand weakly.

He could not sleep! It was indeed a headache!

After making up his mind, he quickly wrote a text message and sent it to Oliver Walker's number.

However, it was already late at night. Oliver Walker had already fallen asleep with Emilia in his arms. Who would care about such a small matter?

Freddy Martin couldn't sleep, but that didn't mean Oliver Walker shouldn't sleep either.

From the beginning to the end, Oliver Walker had never taken the Black Dragon Sect seriously.

The next morning, after reading the message, he smiled calmly.

All of this was within his expectations, but he didn't understand why Freddy Martin wanted to negotiate so early but no matter what, negotiation was definitely a good thing!

If they continued to fight endlessly, the situation would only get worse, which was not what he wanted to see.

"Hubby, where did you go yesterday?"

"Why is there a bloody smell?" asked Emilia worriedly after she woke up.

She was very sensitive to this smell!

Last night, her husband had only said that he was going out to settle some small matters; but now, it seemed that he must have gone to seek revenge from the Black Dragon Sect.

Fortunately, he returned safely but she did not want to see this situation.

"Yesterday, I accidentally had a nosebleed!"

Oliver Walker smiled awkwardly.

He knew that his wife liked stability but she didn't want his wife to worry about those things.

One thing was certain; whoever dared to obstruct the rise of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals would be declaring war on him.

“Nosebleed?”

Emilia frowned, her pretty face full of doubt.

Would she believe it?

“Cough cough...”

Oliver Walker quickly lowered his head under his wife’s gaze. “You know, I’m a normal man. I have needs too. You only let me hug you to sleep every day, I...”

Some things could only be understood even without much explanation.

Even so, it was embarrassing enough.

It was not too much for him to have improper thoughts about someone as beautiful as his wife, right?

If he hugged her every day and didn’t have any thoughts, that would be too much.

In the past, he had always thought that he would be satisfied if he could share a bed with Emily, even if he did not do anything but now, he knew that a person’s ambition was endless.

However, no matter how high one’s status was, they would still have desires!

“You... Aren’t you ashamed?”

Emilia felt her face burning and quickly lowered her head, not daring to look at her husband.

The atmosphere...

It was suddenly awkward!

Oliver Walker did not know how to say the words that were on the tip of his tongue. He could only choose to remain silent.

The atmosphere in the room became even quieter!

But soon, Emilia said shyly, "Do you really want to?"

Chapter 613 Finally Getting Laid?

In fact, Oliver Walker had only mentioned it once, and it was rejected by Emilia but that was because they were in the office!

She wasn't that bold, and she couldn't accept it either.

If they were at home, why would she refuse?

They were husband and wife, and they had had physical contact before. Moreover, the misunderstanding had been resolved. What was there to be unacceptable about?

"Really?"

Oliver Walker suddenly became excited. He thought that his wife would be angry, but he did not expect her to ask about his needs.

It would be strange if he wasn't excited!

At this moment, his wife was wearing pink pajamas. Her fairy-like temperament made him drool!

And it was...

"Of course."

Emilia gritted her teeth and lowered her head even more. No one was a saint, and she would not ask her husband to be unperturbed.

It had been so long, but he had never made such a request. If he hadn't treated her well as always, she would have thought that he wasn't charming enough.

"Of course I want it!"

Oliver Walker stepped forward and hugged his wife's soft and seemingly boneless body.

Perhaps because she was too excited, he used too much strength, causing Emilia to cry out coquettishly, "Ahhh..."

"Be gentle!"

"Let go of me!! We still have more important things to do!!"

She had misjudged her husband's impatience. Perhaps this man had been suppressing his nature all this while and was unable to release it, which was why he was acting like a wolf.

"But you..."

Oliver Walker was caught off guard and said incoherently, "Didn't you just..."

"Idiot!" Emilia blushed.

“There’s really something! I... I’ll go make breakfast. We’ll talk after work tonight!”

Currently, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had experienced a wave of resignation. In addition, the company was already in a state of panic because of the appearance of the Black Dragon Sect.

If she still did not go to work, what would those employees who were willing to stay behind feel?

She also had to deal with the factory, including the office of Daivs

There were too many things to do, and she was so busy that she could not breathe.

Seeing his wife slip away just like that, Oliver Walker felt a little disappointed.

However, what can he do?

“Phew...”

Emilia, who was in the kitchen, heaved a sigh of relief.

To be honest, he was extremely nervous!

Her husband’s appearance just now was indeed scary! As expected, there was a ‘devil’ living in everyone’s heart. One must never try to provoke it.

She could only hope that her husband would really treat her more gently.

Breakfast was simple!

There was only egg fried rice with pickles!

They were as ordinary as ever. Emilia herself was not a luxurious person and Oliver Walker had never asked for such a thing!

“Honey, did you forget to put salt in it?” he asked after a few bites.

There was really no taste at all!

“You can eat it if you want.” Emilia rolled her eyes. “If you don’t want it, go out and buy it yourself!”

“I’m the chairman of the board of directors. I made breakfast for you every day, and you’re still complaining?”

“Bah...”

She had indeed forgotten to put salt in it. She had been thinking about that matter just now. How could she not be nervous?

“Hehe... I’ll eat it. Don’t worry!”

Oliver Walker grinned, and then he took all the Egg-Fried Rice in his bowl.

“That’s more like it!” Emilia smiled and said proudly.

How good would it be if this could continue?

Chapter 614 Settling Scores

They spent their time alone. When they were free from work, they would go back to the old mansion to see the children.

If the Black Dragon Sect hadn’t intruded into their lives, they would have been on the right track.

When she arrived at the company, Emilia got busy.

On the other hand, Oliver Walker, who had nothing to do, sat in the corridor outside with Mike, smoking and chatting. It could be said that Mike's arrival also made Oliver Walker no longer so bored.

"Right, Boss! The thing that you told me to settle, it's done."

As their relationship became closer and closer, Mike's way of addressing him became much closer.

Oliver Walker was interested. "So you're in a relationship with Sarah Lee now? You move fast!"

Yesterday, he said he didn't want it, but today...

Tsk tsk tsk...

However, young people were truly crazy!

How long had Sarah Lee known Mike?! And Mike, this old kid, was not honest either!

Oliver Walker thought about how he and his wife had been together for so long, yet they had not succeeded in reaching that step. However, they should be coming soon.

After feeling a strange gaze on him, Mike said with a simple and honest expression, "What are you thinking?"

"I'm talking about my other brothers. Didn't you tell me to prepare a new security department?"

"I have a brother, nicknamed Fierce Wolf. Your intelligence department should know him. He wants to return to this country and quit the war."

His execution ability had always been very strong. Ever since Oliver Walker had given his instructions, he had started to contact the people he had kept in contact with after he left the mercenary world.

Fierce Wolf used to be his old subordinate! However, unlike him, he was forced to become a mercenary.

“Oh? That’s good.” Oliver Walker said with a smile. “Tell me about it!”

He was quite at ease with the person Mike recommended. The original security department of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals was indeed terrible. Otherwise, they would not have been so frightened that they resigned after being approached by the Black Dragon Sect.

How could he guarantee the safety of the company’s employees and his wife with this standard?

“He is my old subordinate. Ever since I left Blood Fiend, he has taken my place but his life is even more bitter than mine!”

Mike continued, “He was trained by an assassin organization since he was young. He survived among more than 100 people and was later sold to Blood Fiend. That’s why his heart never belonged to that kind of life. He was forced to do so.”

Actually, not all mercenaries were bad people.

However, some people had no choice. For example, Fierce Wolf. In that kind of environment, if he did not do it, he could only wait to be killed! Now that Oliver Walker had provided him with an opportunity, it was naturally a godsend opportunity for Fierce Wolf to get rid of the risk of his life to earn money for Blood Fiend.

“Sure!”

Oliver Walker also knew what kind of existence mercenaries were. “As long as you don’t have the blood of the citizens of this country on your hands, you can return here and be protected.”

Many of them were coerced! Therefore, such people were easier to manage. Plus, they would definitely be loyal people. On the contrary, people

“That’s set then.”

Mike said, “It just so happens that he accepted a mission. It’s in a neighboring country in America. I think he should know what to do next.”

They couldn’t contact each other by phone or text.

As a mercenary, all information was monitored.

However, there were exceptions. For example, when carrying out a special mission, one could apply to turn off the communication device under certain conditions to prevent being detected by the enemy.

“I’m absolutely sure that he has not harmed anyone here. I’ll inform him about it now.”

“Let’s talk about what happened between you and Sarah Lee,” Oliver Walker said with a smile.

In fact, only when experts were together would there be real topics to talk about. After they started the conversation, they would naturally talk about everything.

However, such a question made Mike’s face darken. “You’re an indecent boss. I’ll go and do my work first!”

Then, he left the scene as if he was running for his life. Such a comical scene made Oliver Walker laugh out loud! After Mike left, Oliver Walker still had to go to Tianhai Teahouse. It was indeed necessary to have a face-to-face talk with Freddy Martin!

This was a good thing for him, or for his wife who liked stability!

Chapter 615 The Negotiation I

After sending out the signal, Mike returned! Oliver Walker had also gone to Heavenly Sea Teahouse! The Heavenly Sea Teahouse was not in the bustling downtown area, but in a remote riverside.

The business here was not bad because people who drank tea liked quiet places. Each tea pavilion was located on the lake, and the scenery was beautiful. It was also completely independent.

“Mr. Martin, do you really want to negotiate with him? But he hurt so many of our brothers! Ever since the Black Dragon Sect took down the state of Colorado, they have never suffered such heavy casualties. Mr. Martin, we are willing to risk our lives!”

“...”

The eight Guardian Deities were all here!

All of them glared angrily!

There were also hundreds of Black Dragon Sect members scattered around the tea pavilion. They didn't bring knives because they had guns!

“Shut up! If we continue to fight, there will only be more casualties,” Freddy Martin shouted angrily.

“Don't you understand?”

“We brothers have finally gotten to where we are today. What else is there to be unsatisfied with? You want us to fight. Let me ask you, who can take care of Mike, Oliver Walker, and those eleven people of unknown origin?”

The eight Guardian Deities became completely quiet with each question!

They had carefully studied the surveillance video, but those people were so strong that their scalps went numb. Their underlings were definitely not fledglings who had never seen blood before.

However, they were all struggling on the edge of life and death.

They were placed on the ground one by one with their bare hands. Their bones were broken and their limbs were crippled. That group of people was indeed extraordinary!

“But... But we still have guns!” Andy said.

Cold weapons might not be able to defeat them, but there were still hot weapons! No matter how good they were at fighting, they would never be better than guns!

Even if he had practiced a protective divine art, how could a bullet not penetrate it?

“Do you think he doesn’t?” Freddy Martin asked coldly.

“Everyone, calm down. They can even find my family. It’s enough to show their power. They’re so powerful that they can reach overseas.”

“What about us?”

The scene fell silent again!

Freddy Martin was right.

Although a small group of them had appeared last night, they could already trash the Queen’s Bar. Who knew what else they had with them?

“Hmm?”

At this moment, Freddy Martin frowned and looked at the entrance. He said, "Look, he's coming to the meeting alone, but we had to bring along such a large number of people!"

The eight Guardian Deities took a deep breath and asked themselves. Just this courage alone was not something they could compare to.

He actually dared to come alone?

Moreover, he still dared to come in after seeing so many Black Dragon Sect members?

How much confidence did this need?

Such actions also strengthened Freddy Martin's determination to negotiate.

Only Andy was furious!

Of course, the other seven Guardian Deities were fine because the ones who were injured were only Andy's men. If they really did negotiate, how was he going to explain it to them?

How could he bring his brothers along in the future and say those words of 'sharing happiness and suffering together'?

His underlings were killed, and he still wanted to negotiate? It would definitely be difficult to convince them!

Therefore, he was looking for an opportunity!

"Hahaha..."

Freddy Martin was indeed a man who had seen a lot of things. When he saw Oliver Walker enter, he cupped his fists and stood up. "Mr. Walker, you have extraordinary courage. I admire you!"

This was admitting defeat!

It may sound polite but it all depends on how he understood it.

After all, even if he wanted to admit defeat, he had to take into account the feelings of his subordinates.

That was why he said such ambiguous words.

It was enough to show that he was an extremely shrewd old fox.

“Sect Master Black Dragon, you’re too polite! You’re negotiating with sincerity,” Oliver Walker said calmly. “I’ll naturally come with sincerity too. Besides, it’s not like we haven’t fought before. We know each other!”

Chapter 616 The Negotiation II

There was a deeper meaning to these words! If he were to interpret it, it would be a show of force. Of course, he was speaking the truth.

“You...”

“How dare you!” Andy shouted angrily.

How could he not understand the meaning behind those words?

Wasn’t he mocking his subordinates for being trash?

“Looks like your subordinates are still not convinced!”

Oliver Walker said with a faint smile. “I’m just curious. Who’s in charge of the Black Dragon Sect?”

Andy's face darkened when he heard this question. Wasn't this saying that he was overpowering the host?

Freddy Martin's face also turned ugly. His smile was a little forced. "Mr. Walker, since we're sitting at the table, we should be as calm as tea. There shouldn't be a smell of gunpowder."

"I don't want to bring gunpowder," Oliver Walker replied. "I just want to negotiate without being disturbed! If you want to talk about it calmly, we shall. If we can't and you want to fight it out, I don't mind too."

Why should he give Freddy Martin face?

The two were not on the same level at all! Not to mention Andy!

As soon as these words were said, the eight Guardian Deities all erupted with their auras. The ferocity in their eyes was also revealed.

"This..."

Freddy Martin pondered for a moment before waving his hand. In fact, he had already lost his momentum when they met.

Why continue to be tough now?

Compared to Oliver Walker's one-on-one attack, his hundreds of people looked rather impressive, but in fact, it also proved that he was guilty!

"Mr. Martin!"

In the next moment, the eight Guardian Deities also spoke up!

'Slam!'

Freddy Martin slammed the table and shouted angrily, "I told you to leave!"

Judging from the surveillance video alone, it would be easy for Oliver Walker to kill him.

The reason why he didn't kill them might be because he had some misgivings. If he didn't attack earlier, would he attack now?

Therefore, this decision was not a gamble, but a certainty! Otherwise, even if the eight Guardian Deities were here, they would not be able to stop the young man in front of them.

"Yes, sir!"

Although Andy and the others were unwilling, they still left!

However, they stood outside and watched the situation inside the pavilion through the window. What shocked them was that Mr. Martin was talking and laughing.

Oliver Walker, on the other hand, seemed to be chatting happily!

"Mr. Martin has changed."

"If it was in the past, he wouldn't have tolerated this!"

"What should we do?"

"Andy, your idea is very dangerous!"

"Mr. Martin has treated us well."

“...”

Soon, they started chatting outside the house.

Andy also knew that he had gone overboard. He quickly put away his inner thoughts and said with a smile, “I... was just complaining.”

” I know Mr. Martin is doing this for our own good!”

Although he said that, he didn’t think so in his heart. He wanted to do something big!

He could not let Oliver Walker off easily!

Otherwise, there was no way to explain!

At the same time, Oliver Walker soon came out. The matter was settled, and the solution was simple. No one would care about the compensation, but they would not let go of each other.

Oliver Walker agreed because he realized that Freddy Martin really wanted to retire. He had indeed become much more honest over the years. Plus, Freddy Martin also promised that he would never interfere in the normal business competition between the Davis and Adams Group.

Now that everything was settled, his wife could develop her career in peace. Then, would he finally get what he wanted?

His wife probably wouldn’t go back on her words. As he thought of what might happen at night, he was in a good mood.

At the same time, in a forest somewhere at the border, a man in camouflage clothes, covered in blood, held a Gurkha machete in his hand.

“Mike, I...” He shouted anxiously into the phone. ‘I’m afraid I won’t have the chance to go back! I’ve been discovered!”

“Now they are chasing after me! Thank you for your kindness. We’ll be good brothers in our next life!”

Chapter 617 Hunted

“Aiden! What’s wrong? Who’s targeting you?”

Mike was instantly anxious “Quick, tell me. Is it Blood Fiend or the target?”

Aiden had saved his life! He was also the subordinate that Mike was most proud of! They were like brothers!

Otherwise, he, who had already retired from the conflict, would definitely not have any contact with the people in the past.

It was because Aiden was too important to him!

“Hu hu hu...”

“Mike!!!” Aiden panted heavily. He held his Gurkha and cut the thorns in front of him. Don’t ask anymore! Live well!”

“Brother... Brother, I’ll take my leave first!”

Aiden knew that he did not have long to live. The other party would definitely catch up very quickly. After all, they were all top-notch mercenaries. How could one person survive the pursuit and blockade and enter another country’s border?

The road home was long! He looked ahead and revealed a determined smile. If there were no accidents, they would reach the southern border after crossing the mountain in front!

But... His stamina was severely exhausted!

There was a gunshot wound on his arm, and the pursuers behind him...

There was no hope! But even if he died, he would die in the place closest to his home country! Because that place was his sustenance!

At the same time, Mike went crazy!

“Ah... I’ll save you!” Mike roared and smashed the concrete wall in front of him.

In the next moment, he walked toward the elevator with his bloodshot eyes!

This was the state of Colorado, the eastern border of the country! Even if they took a plane, it would take at least three hours to reach the southern border!

“What’s wrong?”

However, at this moment, after the elevator door opened, Oliver Walker saw the crazy Mike and quickly asked, “What’s wrong?”

Could it be that something had happened to his relationship again?

Logically speaking, that shouldn’t be the case, right? Even if Mike still had Emma Adams in his heart, he would not be so sad.

At this moment, his body was clearly emitting killing intent!

“Boss, I want to go to Southern Border to save my brothers!”

Mike shouted, "He's surrounded! He's surrounded! He is my best brother. He saved my life! I can't just watch him get killed!"

Whether it was the other party or Blood Termination, once they caught Aiden, Aiden would definitely end up in a miserable state!

He might not die! But it would definitely be worse than death!

"You can't go! Wait here obediently!" Oliver Walker said coldly. "Explain the situation clearly!"

"No!" Mike's scarlet eyes were filled with tears.

"I have to go. Even if I have to die, I have to die with my brothers! He was exposed because he trusted me. If I don't go, how can I live in the future?"

Mike was probably the reason why Aiden was exposed.

Therefore, Mike had an unshirkable responsibility for his brother being in such a state! If he didn't go, he would never be able to sleep at night!

"Are you more powerful than me in this country?!"

Oliver Walker frowned. "Tell me what happened. You stay here obediently. If anything happens to my wife when I come back, I won't let you off easily."

He knew that Mike was a very responsible person. Therefore, the most important thing was to give him a mission to stabilize his restless heart.

"Boss, you..."

Mike only looked honest and had a dull personality, but he was not stupid!

He instantly understood the meaning behind his words!

The muscles at the corner of his lips twitched slightly. His scarlet eyes were filled with gratitude. "He should be at the border. I've lost contact with him. This is the communication device he used. You should be able to find his coordinates soon! I don't know who's hunting me down."

People like them naturally wouldn't use ordinary phones.

Chapter 618 Travelling to the South

They were all satellite phones!

Sometimes, they would even use the radio that had long been eliminated by technology!

"Stay in Colorado!"

Oliver Walker patted Mike's shoulder and said, "I will honor my words!"

He said that he would protect Aiden! Naturally, he would not go back on his word!

Therefore, this matter was not only between Aiden and Mike but with him in it as well. Could he ignore it?

"Alright!"

Mike nodded heavily. He knew that Oliver Walker would definitely not lie to him because only those who had killed on the battlefield would understand that kind of gaze. That was a promise!

It was the promise of a seven-foot-tall man!

“George Lee, prepare a private plane immediately. It will arrive at the southern border in half an hour!”

“Fatty, get me the coordinates immediately. I’ve sent them to your phone!”

“Zoey, send me all the latest information on Aiden!”

“...”

Oliver Walker made a call as he walked into the office. Before he left, he had to say goodbye to his wife.

However, Emilia wasn’t in the office. She must have gone out.

The call was temporarily in progress. Oliver Walker could only send a WeChat message.

The southern border was now the fief of the fourth God of War, Douglas Martin. Naturally, it was best to let him check!

In addition, Oliver Walker had to get more information as soon as possible!

Zoey was the head of the intelligence department, so she naturally had detailed information about these fugitives. As for him, he got into his car and sped toward the airport as fast as he could.

However, after these few calls! Several departments in the country were all tensed up!

Why would the chaplain suddenly fly to the southern border? What did Aiden do?

However, according to Douglas Martin’s investigation, Aiden’s coordinates were only tens of kilometers away from the border.

This was a very dangerous distance!

If they entered the country to carry out a mission, then there might really be trouble.

At the same time, the military airport in Colorado was under martial law!

“What happened?” George Lee, who had been waiting by the plane, asked immediately after Oliver Walker got out of the car.

“Why are we flying over so suddenly?”

The remaining Imperial Guards were also tense. Could it be that something big had really happened?

“Save someone!”

Oliver Walker replied as he boarded the plane! He had said that he would let Aiden return to the country, so he could not go back on his word. Some things might seem unrelated, but they were mixed with infinite connections.

Now, Oliver Walker had retired and could no longer appear in the world as a soldier. Therefore, it was impossible to mobilize military power!

It was definitely difficult for him to do some things alone. For example, the Black Dragon Sect!

No matter how strong he was, he could only appear in one place.

However, the Black Dragon Sect had thousands of core members. What if they split up and attacked his family? Therefore, he took Aiden and the others in for future consideration.

It would be easier for them to get things done. They were not restricted by any identities! Oliver Walker had always believed that kindness did not depend on means!

As for their parties? If a person on the white path did something against his conscience, then it would be black! As for the dark forces, they were not that shameful. It all depended on whether they could be completely controlled.

If they were to form a dark force to uphold justice, wouldn't it still be doing something for justice?

He had the courage to think like this and also the guts to have it done.

George Lee and the others didn't say anything either. They knew that someone who could make Oliver Walker personally take action was definitely not simple. Especially when he heard the nickname 'Aiden,' he suddenly understood!

This was the person who took over the position of the Blood Fiend Mercenaries after Thunder God retired!

What was the Chaplain thinking?

Trying to slam shut the entire Blood Fiend?

Chapter 619 His Only Belief

Soon, the information about Aiden was sent over! It recorded the missions he had carried out over the years!

This time, he was heading to Myanmar to assassinate the leader of a local armed force. As for the rest of the situation, it was unknown.

At this moment, Aiden was still fleeing in the dense forest.

"Buzz, buzz, buzz..."

The drones above their heads came one after another!

In order to avoid the thermal imaging system, Aiden had to cover himself in mud to lower his body temperature and confuse the pursuers! Even if he couldn't return to his country, he would die in the place closest to it!

"Mr. Walker! Thank you for your care! Thank you for giving me a chance. Although it's unrealistic, it's still my dream!"

Aiden thought to himself as he ran!

He was born in that country. However, when he was young, he was separated from his family and smuggled abroad by a stranger. He was then forced to join an assassin organization.

There were about a hundred people of his age, and they were locked up in a large courtyard. The leader said that only when the last person was alive could they eat!

That was the first time he had killed for survival!

When he walked out of the courtyard alive, he was already covered in blood. What awaited him was not delicious food, but an even crueler training.

He was only five years old that year, and his impression of home was very vague! He could not even remember what his parents looked like but he knew where his homeland was!

It was the place he wanted to return to his entire life.

However, his hands were already stained with blood. He knew better than anyone what he would face when he returned to the country. Therefore, when Mike provided this opportunity, he did not even think about it and directly nodded in agreement!

However, he did not expect that the cunning Blood Ghost would get the news from somewhere and expose his mission very quickly.

As a result, he was now being pursued endlessly!

“Aiden! You can hide but you can never run!! Our boss admires you very much. As long as you are willing to work for him, he will spare your life!”

At this moment, the drone in the sky also began to shout!

“Why are you a mercenary? Isn't it just for money? Our boss said that he will give you double the amount of money Blood Fiend is offering to you!:

Aiden, as the king of mercenaries, was naturally a hot figure in the eyes of these bosses. Therefore, no matter how much they have to pay, it was worth it!

It was clear that the premise was that there was no enmity between them. The person whom Aiden was supposed to kill was offering him a job instead? It was obvious that the other party only say so to break Adam's fighting spirit.

After all, the southern border was just ahead. If Aiden could really escape, then it was be a big problem.

“Hu hu hu...”

Aiden was still moving forward. He was still controlling his breathing, which had become rapid due to exhaustion. Fortunately, this was a primeval forest or else he would have died long ago!

This was also the reason why he chose this place as his path of return.

“Aiden, if you don't come out, I'm going to shoot!”

“F*ck, open fire!”

'Boom!'

Following the order, gunshots and bombs kept ringing around him.

But what could Aiden do?

They could only brave the artillery fire and advance!

He had to live! Going home was his only belief!

At this moment, the sun was setting! The burning clouds on the horizon were extremely gorgeous, but no one had the time to admire it.

"Boss!"

"That grandson is really f*cking strong!"

"Brothers, we can't hold on much longer!"

"We'll reach the southern border in 20 kilometers. If we continue to chase, we might face pressure from their military!" A man in full armor had sweat all over his forehead.

What he said was very true!

After all, this was a no man's land, and they were fully armed. They were extremely close to Southern Border and this might get them into trouble.

"Damn it!"

Chapter 620 Arriving Home

“They dare to challenge me?” A plump man was also exhausted. He immediately said angrily, “How dare they! I will show them what it means to piss me off.”

“He entered the country from here. Linyuan Town is a place he must pass through.”

“Inform our men to kill him at all cost! I will show them what’s it like to challenge me! Let’s see who dares to kill me!”

“Blood Fiend?”

“I can’t live under the same sky as you!”

He definitely couldn’t continue hunting down Aiden.

However, if he let him go like this, wouldn’t any Tom, Dick, or Harry come challenging him for no reason?

He would never allow this to happen! Therefore, he had to do it at all costs!

Another two hours later, after more than ten hours of trekking, Aiden looked at the beautiful scenery in front of him. He could not hide his excitement. “I’m back... I came back alive!”

“Hahaha...”

Tears welled up in his eyes!

It was not fear, but homesickness! This feeling was indescribable!

Thirty years had passed! A whole 30 years! How many 30 years could a person have in their life?

He knelt on the ground, holding his head in pain!

Once he arrived at this land, he felt an unprecedented sense of security! Along the way, he had already thrown away everything he could to reduce the burden.

All that was left on his body was a dagger! This was a life-saving item, so he definitely couldn't lose it!

At the same time, at the Southern Border!

"Master!"

A fat man who was full of general stars was already waiting at the door!

And at this moment... It was already late at night!

"Yes!"

Oliver Walker nodded. "Kid, you should lose weight!"

How long had it been?

Fatty had gained at least 20 pounds! This rate of growth was something that even pig farmers envied!

"Hehe..."

Douglas Martin scratched his head. "Am I still your favorite disciple? Stop exposing my shortcomings. I still need to find a partner in the future."

Oliver Walker rolled his eyes. "You're the one who likes to be arrogant the most among the dozen apprentices!"

"Hurry up and get down to business. Where's Aiden?"

Aiden was currently being monitored. Therefore, he shouldn't have lost him!

"Master! Aiden's position has stopped moving. It's been several hours." Douglas Martin became more serious.

"There are only two possibilities now. Either he has already been killed or he threw away his communication device."

Oliver Walker frowned. If he was killed, how would he face Mike?

After all, this matter started because of him!

"Master, please enter the command center first. I'll give you a detailed introduction!"

Douglas Martin quickly took the lead and came to the big screen. "If he's still alive, he should have snuck into Linyuan Town by now. I've already started investigating! However, as you know, it's almost impossible for a Weapon King of this level to make any mistakes, so don't count on the surveillance!"

That's right!

It was too easy for an expert to avoid surveillance!

"That won't be necessarily!" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

“If he still wants to live, he will definitely deliberately reveal his whereabouts to us!”

Since Aiden had chosen to return to the country, he definitely believed in Mike. In other words, he had 100% trust in this country.

Therefore, he must be thinking about how to expose his coordinates now so that Oliver Walker’s men would find him.

“Ah? That’s not realistic,” Douglas Martin said in shock. “Is that so?”

“He is a mercenary! Wouldn’t he be afraid of us?”

This was indeed illogical, because in their country, they had always prohibited mercenaries from entering the country. Once caught, they would definitely be sentenced heavily.

Oliver Walker smiled. “I’m the one who asked him to come back. Just wait for the news!”
