Chapter 691 Round 2

“Get lost!” Emilia took a pillow and threw it at her husband. She was still angry!

However, when it came to serious matters, she had to do what needed to be done. However, if she knew that the ‘security guards’ that Oliver Walker had found for her were either Imperial Guards or King Mercenaries, she would definitely be shocked.

At the same time, SeanMartin had led eight Blood Fiend mercenaries underground.

He didn’t even dare to go out during the day.

After all, this country was known as a forbidden land for mercenaries.

” Oliver Walker is dead. You should know what to do!”

Shawn Martin smoked a cigarette with a teasing smile that made people tremble. To him, killing was so simple.

Jack’s expression was grave. He bowed his head and said, “Don’t worry, Master. I will bring some people to blow up the warehouse of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals tonight. I will cause them to run out of stock!”

The Adams Group no longer belonged solely to Emma Adams, but to Sean Martin. Naturally, he would not allow his company to have any competitors.

“Remember,” Sean Martin reminded again. “Do it at night!”

“Don’t cause any trouble during the day. Also, do your best. Don’t leave any clues for the intelligence department! Otherwise, you will become a corpse!”

“Yes, Sir!” Jack nodded immediately.

During the day, they would recuperate, and at night, the defense of the various departments of the country would be lax.

But...

He had overlooked one point, and that was that Oliver Walker was the true guardian of this country.

Their current actions were already openly opposing this country.

Due to the fact that Blood Fiend was a vicious enemy, Oliver Walker would not mobilize the military’s power unless it was absolutely necessary. After all, it was a disadvantage for light to fight against darkness.

Once Sean Martin knew his identity, he would definitely kidnap ordinary people and flee from this country. At that time, Oliver Walker could only let them pass!

However, to fight against darkness with darkness, everyone was on the same starting line. They were completely equal existences. It depended on who was more black-bellied.

When Jack ordered the Black Dragon Sect members to conserve their energy and prepare to launch an attack at night. Oliver Walker and the others were also resting.

Oliver Walker had already expected this, the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group would definitely not dare to show his face in public, so he could only do some sneaky things.

Therefore, they would definitely attack at night!

This kind of scheme was a scheme between experts.

He had already suffered a loss once. It was impossible for him to suffer a second time!

He had to find out the other party's true colors.

In the evening, on the balcony of the villa!

"Boss, Blood Fiend is very cunning. He didn't even call Jack but according to the intelligence, the Black Dragon Sect is up to something."

"Currently, hundreds of Black Dragon Sect members have gathered in the underground casino. They have also bought a lot of gasoline!"

George Lee had already investigated the other party's whereabouts clearly. It could be said that they were hiding in the dark, but they could use all means to gain the advantage of being a prophet.

In comparison, although the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group was powerful, they could only be a blind man in their country."

"If it were you and you wanted to take revenge on me, where would you choose to attack?"

Oliver Walker asked in return. When it comes to plotting, one must have the ability to make reverse deductions. He had to think from the enemy's point of view to ensure victory!

"If I were your enemy, I would definitely choose the warehouse as my target of revenge. As long as the warehouse is gone, the supply will be cut off. But what I can't figure out is, what benefits can the other party gain by doing this?"

George Li frowned and analyzed the problem seriously.

He was indeed puzzled!

“I think they have the most say in this kind situation.”

Oliver Walker looked at Mike and Aiden, who were anxious and guilty!

They were uneasy because they had brought about a huge problem!

Fortunately, Oliver Walker did not use his military background. Otherwise, he would have ended the Blood Fiend Mercenaries by now.

After all, kidnapping, extortion, and threats were just conventional methods! They wouldn't be fighting a battle of wits and courage like now!

Chapter 692 Preparing For War

“Mike, Aiden, since the chaplain has accepted you, you are one of us. This matter is not your fault! Don't think of yourself as an outsider! Feel free to speak freely,” said George Lee.

This sentence pierced Mike and Aiden's hearts.

They had always regarded themselves as outsiders and thought that George Lee was Oliver Walker's trusted aide.

Therefore, he never dared to interrupt when he was talking.

“Boss, based on my understanding of Blood Fiend, I've put all these things together. Our opponent should be First Instructor, Sean Martin!”

“He...” Aiden frowned. “He's very strong, the number one below Blood Fiend! He was also our instructor. With his character, he's a guy who won't get up early without benefits. He wouldn't go against Doctor Davis for no reason. In other words, sister-in-law is implicated by us. It also means that Adams Group has now submitted to Sean Martin.”

Such an analysis was almost exactly what Oliver Walker was thinking.

Mercenaries were warriors who fought for money! Without benefits, he would never take such a huge risk.

“Yes!” Oliver Walker nodded.” What you said makes sense!”

George Lee was dumbfounded!

This...

Directly robbing a listed company? Moreover, no matter how embarrassed Adams was, that company alone was still worth hundreds of millions.

How long has Sean Martin been in this country? In the blink of an eye, he had earned at least a few billion? Wasn't it a little too fast for mercenaries to get money?

He thought about how he was the captain of the imperial guards. With all kinds of subsidies, his salary was considered the highest among the soldiers but he only earned about 30,000 a month!

However, how many of them joined the army to earn money? To put it bluntly, it was all for the highest ideals and beliefs in their hearts!

“Boss! Aiden and I have troubled you!”

At this moment, Mike stood up and bowed. He said indignantly, “Blood Fiend has attacked. We have no way to dodge. We can only attack!”

“Boss, bring us along! We can’t accept the fact that our other brothers have to sacrifice themselves for our sake!” Aiden spoke up as well.

In fact, they knew that Oliver Walker had never been willing to lead them on missions. He just wanted to give them peace.

However, while he had his safety, he had no conscience!

“I will definitely fulfill my promise!”

Oliver Walker waved his hand and smiled. “I’d like to see how powerful Blood Fiend, who dominated the mercenary world, is. The Dark Night no longer exists. Why should it continue to exist?”

Blood Fiend was a branch that had split off from the Dark Night, and its strength had been greatly weakened. Therefore, how could he dare to be arrogant?

Since they were here, this place would definitely become their death zone!

“But Boss!” Mike said emotionally, “No matter what, we’re more familiar with Blood Fiend. Bring us along. We definitely won’t cause you any trouble!”

“Besides, the First Instructor is here because of us.” Aiden added. “We are obligated to deal with them!”

They were grateful towards Oliver Walker but if they didn’t show up, how could they still have the face to survive?

No matter when and where, the strong always had dignity!

Once his bottom line was crossed, he would definitely launch a counterattack without caring about anything else!

“Alright, you guys go together tonight!”

Oliver Walker didn't hesitate. They were all his men. How could they be so pretentious?

“Tell the other four brothers to stay behind and guard the house to prevent the other party from launching a sneak attack!”

Chapter 693 The Ambush

When dealing with an expert, one had to use the same methods to deal with an expert. Being blindly arrogant would only cause him to suffer more losses!

There was a reason why the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group was ranked seventh on the world's power list.

Especially according to Mike and Aiden, the other party was the first instructor, Sean Martin. A soldier king who could teach a mercenary king was definitely a king-level expert. Therefore, he would not be careless!

Four cars and four people arrived at the West City Industrial Park.

The night wind was bleak!

The wind was mixed with a murderous aura!

“Who is it?”

“What's going on?” A security guard walked out and asked softly when he saw the four cars. “There's no cargo going out tonight, right?”

Because Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had not left the state of Colorado yet, most of the goods were shipped during the day.

At night, no one came to the warehouse.

“Old Master, it’s me!”

Oliver Walker stepped forward and handed him a cigarette. He smiled and said, “Go back and rest tonight. I have something to do here.”

If the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group really attacked, it would definitely leave an indelible shadow in the hearts of ordinary people. He had talked to the old man a lot, so he was very familiar with him.

“Oh! Mr. Walker!”

“You and Ms. Davis are both good people. Thank you in advance!” The security guard said with a smile.

He knew who Oliver Walker was, so he naturally wouldn’t suspect anything. Although Oliver Walker didn’t have any shares in Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, nor was he a leader, he was still Emilia’s husband!

The couple’s relationship was very sweet. Outsiders like them could see that they were definitely a perfect match. Most importantly, the husband and wife were kind people who never put on airs and were very easy to get along with.

“You’re welcome! Go back and rest early!” Oliver Walker replied.

The security guard waved his hand again to express his gratitude. Then, he called his old friends and left the warehouse happily on his bicycle.

“It’s ten o’clock. They should be almost here!”

Oliver Walker glanced at his phone and then at the path leading to the warehouse.

He just didn't know if Blood Fiend's people would appear! If they didn't, then wouldn't he have come for nothing?

"Boss, they're here!"

When George Lee spoke, there was no light in front of them. Mike and Aiden became alert at the same time and said, "At least ten cars!"

"Alright."

They were all experts who came in the wind and went in the rain. Their basic judgment of danger was quite good.

Although he couldn't see it, it wasn't difficult to detect it through the subtle vibrations on the road.

"The rest of them aren't here?"

"What?" Oliver Walker was a little surprised. "Did they really think we were all killed by the explosion?"

From their auras, they were all ordinary people. There was no decent expert at all!

Last night, he underestimated his opponent. If Sean Martin did not come tonight, it would be Blood Fiend's underestimation.

In fact, that was indeed the case. Sean Martin did not put Oliver Walker in his eyes at all, nor did he think that the ten people could quickly escape from the explosion zone without any precautions.

Therefore... Sean Martin wasn't here! Even Jack wasn't here!

After all, the warehouse was not an important place. Even if Oliver Walker was alive, they would not have expected that he would be ambushed here!

“Buzz, buzz, buzz...”

When the ten vans approached, the people of the Black Dragon Sect didn't notice anything unusual at all because the four cars driven by Oliver Walker had their headlights turned on and it was dark!

“Which bastard dares to turn on the high beam?” he cursed.

“Motherf*cker, he's really courting death!”

“Go!”

“Teach him a lesson!”

“...”

At least half of the hundreds of Black Dragon Sect members were holding standard machetes, while the other half were holding Molotov Cocktails and explosives!

“Rustle...”

A team of over a hundred people had a fierce aura!

However, Oliver Walker and the other three were sitting in their cars, expressionless!

“F*ck!”

“Mr. Harris, what should we do?”

“Is there a need to say?”

Chapter 694 Human or Ghost?

“Take the Molotov Cocktail and burn those bastards to death!”

The leader was Adolf Harris, one of Jack’s men.

His personality was already quite irritable, not to mention that he was blinded by the high-beam lights.

‘Whoosh whoosh whoosh...;’

‘Bang bang bang...’

The next moment, more than 20 ignited Molotov Cocktails tore through the night sky and landed around the car.

A huge fire started!

‘Buzz, buzz, buzz...’

But at the same time, Oliver Walker started the car and took the lead to crash into the crowd.

George Lee, Mike, and Aiden followed closely behind!

“F*ck!”

“Motherf*cker!”

Adolf Harris did not expect such a scene. He looked at the four cars rushing toward him and his face turned pale.

“Get in the car! Get in the car!”

At the same time, the hundreds of Black Dragon Sect members fell into chaos.

It was as if they were trying to escape and squeeze into the car.

After all, how could a human body compete with a car?

Even if he ran, could he outrun four wheels?

Therefore, getting into the car and leaving was their only choice!

‘Bang...’

‘Rumble...’

“Ahhhhh!!!!”

However, in the next moment, the speed of the car that Oliver Walker and the other three were driving exceeded 100 mph in five seconds.

What could an ordinary person do in five seconds?

“Ah...”

Therefore, when the car rushed into the crowd, it was like a life reaper, crazily crushing the bodies of the Black Dragon Sect members. Even if there were, those who ran into the car could not escape the fate of being knocked over and killed!

“F*ck...”

“Who is it?”

“Jack, we’ve been attacked. We’ve suffered heavy casualties!”

“I don’t know...”

The scene was like hell on earth, and there was endless screamings in the scene. There were scenes of Black Dragon Sect members rolling on the ground everywhere. There were also people who were trapped in overturned cars. They wanted to climb out, but the cars were severely deformed and it was difficult to escape!

At the same time, Adolf Harris took out his phone and sent a voice message.

It was simply too late to make a call!

“Hey...”

After Mike got out of the car, he greeted Adolf Harris with a silly smile.

Adolf Harris, who had long been scared out of his wits, turned green, but...

He could only squeeze out a smile that was uglier than crying. He waved his hand helplessly and said, “Hi...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, the car window was shattered by Mike’s punch.

Adolf Harris saw it clearly. Mike's fist turned into a palm and tore open the broken glass. He grabbed Adolf's hair and violently dragged him out of the car!

"AHHHHHH!!!!"

Adolf Harris, who had yet to react and could only scream, had his head and body stuck out of the window.

Only the lower half of his body was still stuck in the car!

At the same time, George Lee and Aiden stood on both sides.

Oliver Walker's lips curled up slightly. "How dare you attack my wife's company?" he teased.

Fortunately, he came tonight!

Otherwise, the warehouse would be destroyed, and the supply of goods would definitely be cut off. The company would also be unable to operate and continue to fall into a crisis.

It had to be said that Sean Martin's move was aimed at the critical point.

Unfortunately, he was too careless! Sean Martin did not expect that Oliver Walker was not dead yet!

Sending such a motley crew, wasn't that sending them to their deaths?

"Ah... You... You guys... Why is he still alive? What are you guys... Is he a human or a ghost?"

Adolf Harris was scared out of his wits and shouted subconsciously!

Chapter 695 Going After Jack

Fear! Like a tide, it occupied every corner of his body!

Jack clearly said that Oliver Walker and the others were all killed in the explosion!

But now, wasn't it Oliver Walker and his men standing in front of him?

"What am I? So what if I'm a ghost?"

"Where is Andy hiding?" Oliver Walker asked contemptuously.

Tonight, not only would they have to guard the warehouse, but they would also have to fight a bloody battle. Since the Black Dragon Sect was unwilling to submit to him, what was the use of keeping the Black Dragon Sect?

"You motherf*cker, hurry... Let us go I won't betray Boss...Ah..."

At first, Adolf Harris's mouth was quite tough, but when a strand of hair was pulled out by the roots and blood seeped out of his scalp, he immediately screamed.

"Answer whatever the Boss is asking...." Mike said coldly, "Otherwise, I will let you know what extreme cruelty is!"

There were simply too many ways to torture people. And what he was best at was torturing a person's body.

Previously, Andy and the others were blind and dared to kidnap Boss 'daughter. They were dragged 20 miles by him and Aiden to the mountains to feed the wolves.

This was only part of the cruelty. He could even torture Adolf Harris until he didn't die for three days and three nights, but he would suffer in extreme pain every moment.

“You motherf*cker...”

‘Bang...’

“I won’t betray, Jack.....”

“Ahhhhhhh!!!!”

Every time Adolf Harris roared, Mike would punch him and pull off a strand of his hair.

Before long, Adolf Harris’s face was swollen, and he only had a few strands of hair left. His scalp was bleeding. However, everyone present had experienced life and death. Who would pity a bad guy?

“I... Here... Give me a quick death...I’ll tell...”

Adolf Harris was no longer a tough talker. He was not a hero himself, yet he still had to pretend to be one. In the end, he was only asking for trouble.

“Jack... Jack is at the casino... There’s...There are hundreds of us brothers...”

When he had finished speaking, Adolf Harris’s life had come to an end. His body was hanging upside down outside the car! His appearance was too horrible to look at!

“Let the brothers clean up! Don’t leave any of them alive!”

Oliver Walker clapped his hands and gave his instructions.

His identity must not be exposed, lest Sean Martin was forced to kidnap ordinary people to threaten him. Therefore, none of the people present could live.

“Yes, sir!”

After George Lee got into the car, he made a call and gave the order.

Oliver Walker picked up the explosives and some Molotov Cocktails and threw them in the passenger seat.

He wanted an eye for an eye!

When the other party was so dark that he would resort to unscrupulous means, then he...

It would only become more brutal!

Mike and Aiden also picked up some Molotov Cocktails and explosives as well. After that, the four cars sped towards the underground casino!

Not long after they left, a few trucks without license plates arrived at the entrance of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical's warehouse.

The people who came down from above were clearly well-trained, but they were all dressed casually.

After cleaning up the body and the broken car, he began to clean and disinfect the bloodstained ground.

At the same time, the underground casino was already bustling with people. When it was closed, the gamblers were like lost children. Now that it was open for business, business naturally became even more popular.

There were Pai Gow, Mahjong, Zha Jin Hua, even Texas Hold 'em, horse racing, and so on. In any case, there was everything that could be imagined.

Gamblers came in all shapes and sizes.

There were poor people with no more than 200 yuan on them, and there were also bosses with tens of millions of yuan but here, they were all gamblers!

No matter how much money they had, they would lose until their eyes turned red. The casino would definitely have the last laugh!

In the office, after Jack received Adolf Harris's voice message, he began to frantically make calls to understand the situation.

But... No one answered!

"Damn it! What exactly happened?"

"Oliver Walker has been blown to ashes. Who else in the state of Colorado dares to attack our Black Dragon Sect?"

"Bastard!"

Jack cursed as he paced back and forth in the office. "Men, investigate. If I catch him, I'll make him beg for his life!"

That's right!

Chapter 696 Looking For Sean Martin

The current Freddy Martin no longer had any real power.

Oliver Walker died in the sea of fire. He was not afraid of anyone!

After all, no matter how crazy Sean Martin was, he would never kill his own people.

“Huff huff...”

“Jack, something big... Bad news, Oliver Walker...He’s not dead yet! He’s coming over. Our brothers can’t stop him!”

At this moment, a subordinate rushed in with a terrified expression!

“What?!” Jack’s face paled. “What?! What did you say?”

“Oliver Walker?!”

His face was filled with disbelief, and his words were trembling!

“Yes, sir!”

“It’s him... Jack, hurry... Run! If we don’t leave now, it’ll be too late!”

This subordinate of his was quite loyal. Otherwise, he would have run away long ago!

“Gulp...”

Jack gulped. “That’s impossible... He... He’s clearly dead! I... I saw him die in the sea of fire with my own eyes!”

That’s right!

Last night, such a huge explosion had turned the mountaintop villa into ruins.

Could it be that they couldn't kill a few people?

"No... I... I'm telling the truth!"

"They're in the main hall now. They've dismissed the guests. I'm afraid they're going to make a big move!"

Jack was dumbfounded! He knew that Oliver Walker hated gambling!

Damn it, why did he come to his place and interfere with his business? However, this was also something logical. They were enemies after all.

Wasn't this how it was to cause trouble?

"F*ck, who do you think you are?"

"How dare you cause trouble in Jack's territory?"

"I'm not leaving. I want to see how you die later!"

"..."

How could gamblers who had lost so badly be willing to leave a place that was like heaven to them?

Moreover, the Black Dragon Sect was a supreme existence in their hearts.

It was absolutely impossible for anything to happen!

So... No one was willing to leave!

“Is that so?”

Oliver Walker smiled faintly and lit a cigarette. Then, he took out a Molotov Cocktail. After lighting it, he threw it at the place where the crowd was the most crowded and the reaction was the most intense.

When the gasoline in the Molotov Cocktail leaked out...

Instantly, the flame grew bigger!

“Damn it!”

“Madman!”

“Ah... Hurry up and run...”

The gamblers were scared silly because they saw another explosive bag in Oliver Walker’s hand!

This was f*cking...

Who didn’t want to live?

With just one move, the originally lively casino with thousands of people was instantly left in a mess.

The gamblers started to run for their lives. While running for their life, they were still thinking about how to get back the money they had lost. However, none of this mattered!

Oliver Walker strode toward the office.

Since Jack had become Sean Martin's lackey, he should know where Sean Martin and the others were hiding, right? At the very least, they should have a way to contact each other.

It had to be said that Blood Fiend Mercenaries had very strong anti-reconnaissance abilities. Ever since Sean Martin appeared, it was as if he had vanished from the face of the earth.

They were nowhere to be found in every corner of the state.

Even after listening to Jack's phone call, he didn't find any useful clues.

Therefore... The purpose of this trip was actually for Sean Martin!

He wanted to wipe them all out!

Those who invade their country, even if they are far away, must be killed!

Moreover, the other party had already infiltrated their land with firearms.

Chapter 697 Getting Jack To Spill the beans

This was a provocation! It was a provocation to them! They were disregarding the prestige of this country! The only solution was to kill him by hook or by crook!

George Lee's expression carried a murderous aura.

He was a warrior of this land! The most loyal guard! All enemies who dared to make an enemy out of their country could only be destroyed. Otherwise, his existence would be meaningless.

It was the same for Mike and Aiden.

Perhaps they were not as selfless as George Lee and did not have the same structure as Oliver Walker, but even if they wanted to survive, they had to pick up their weapons again!

“Oliver Walker...”

At the same time, Andy, who had fled in a hurry, bumped into Oliver Walker head-on. In an instant, his eyes almost popped out.

Demons! Only the word devil could describe Oliver Walker!

The Black Dragon Sect members beside him were also scared out of their wits. That fear was indescribable!

“Kneel down and hold your heads!”

George Lee held the Molotov Cocktail and shouted. When his cold eyes swept across, his majesty spread out in all directions. He was a veteran who had survived the battlefield, just his aura alone was enough to scare a cow to death.

‘Clang... Bang bang...’

As for the Black Dragon Sect members, they were clearly holding weapons in their hands, but after hearing the shout, they threw away their standard machetes without hesitation. Then, all of them obediently held their heads with both hands and knelt on the ground.

“Plop...”

The next moment, Jack did not feel any better. He quickly knelt down and said with a strong desire to live, “Mr. Walker, I was wrong. I... I had no other choice!”

“I... If I didn’t do that, I would have died! My body might be working for Sean Martin but my heart still stays with you!”

In order to survive, he was willing to do anything! He was originally a fence-sitter, so what was the point of talking about morality?

“Boss, sit!”

Just then, Aiden brought a chair over and placed it behind Oliver Walker.

He knew very well that if it weren't for him, Oliver Walker wouldn't have encountered so much trouble. So what if he became a slave, let alone a security guard?

At the very least, the relationship between him and Oliver Walker had never been that of a superior and subordinate.

Instead, they were more like brothers!

Oliver Walker didn't stand. After sitting down, he sized up the man in front of him. “Tell me, how is it that you're working for them but your heart is still here?”

In fact, Oliver Walker didn't like torturing people. He was forced to do so while dealing with ruthless people like Jack. If the person in front of him told him everything, he would not waste his time.

“Mr. Walker, I just pretended to be one of them! I want to be a spy!”

Jack's face was covered in sweat. “I know some things about them. As long as I can atone for my sins and make contributions, I promise to tell you everything I know.”

He only had one life! It was not worth it to take the risk for someone who was not worth it.

In Sean Martin's eyes, he was just a dispensable slave, and his status was extremely low! It shattered his previous fantasy of becoming a 'master' after killing Freddy Martin!

“Speak! I’m not in a hurry!”

The corners of Oliver Walker’s mouth curled up slightly, but the sharpness in his eyes did not diminish at all.

George Lee and the others didn’t say anything else. After all, they could tell that Jack was a ‘smart person’. He wouldn’t have the guts to hide things from them.

“I... I know the identity of those people. I heard them say that they are from the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group. They even called the man in the lead instructor! The Adams Group is also now under the control of that instructor.”

Jack had said a lot in exchange for a chance to live.

Chapter 698 Second Chances?

But... These were no longer secrets!

“I really want to let you go,” Oliver Walker said hesitantly. “But I’ve already grasped everything you’ve said. You’re the one who didn’t live up to expectations. I can’t find a reason to let you go!”

Indeed, this information was already something that he knew. What he wanted to know was the hiding place of Sean Martin and the others!

“Ah...”

Jack’s pupils instantly dilated. After swallowing a mouthful of saliva, he said, “I... I also know that their location is in an uninhabited residential area on the outskirts of the state of Colorado that is about to be demolished.”

Oliver Walker’s eyes lit up when he heard the news.

He knew that Sean Martin and the others would not appear in crowded places in order to hide from their intelligence system. The uninhabited residential area that was about to be demolished was indeed the best hiding place.

“When did they move?”

At this moment, Mike immediately asked!

Jack didn't dare to hide it and quickly replied, “Just... about last night!”

“No!” Aiden shook his head. “Boss, the information is useless!”

“Based on what Mike and I know about Sean Martin, he never stays in any place for more than twelve hours.”

Mercenaries were suspicious by nature and were especially afraid of enemies. The longer one stayed in a place, the easier it was to be exposed.

Therefore, under normal circumstances, when they were on a mission, no matter how safe it was, even if it was a place where not a single living thing could survive, they would not stay for more than half a day.

Strictly speaking, Sean Martin was still his instructor, which was also his so-called teacher.

“You're right?”

Oliver Walker played with the explosive bag in his hand and said playfully, “You saw it too. It's not that I don't want to let you go. There's really no reason for me to let you go. “So you should just die!”

It could only be said that he believed Mike and Aiden's words.

One was trust, and the other was logic. If they did not even have this little bit of anti-reconnaissance ability, then Blood Fiend Termination could not be considered the top mercenary team.

The reason he said that was to pressure the person in front of him to tell him more valuable information.

“Ah... No, no... No...”

As expected, Jack, who was under a lot of pressure, shook his head and waved his hand.

“Keep me... I... I can find them for you! I can do it! I really don’t want to die! I don’t want to die!” Jack screamed in vain.

Mike and Aiden had cold expressions! He didn’t take it seriously at all. He had seen too many people who made useless struggles before death.

“Find him?”

“Sure!” Oliver Walker laughed.

“Hand over your contact information and I can spare your life!”

Jack was dumbfounded. His face was filled with helplessness. “I don’t have it! No, no, no. However... They will definitely contact me! They definitely will. I’m still useful to them! Otherwise, they wouldn’t have saved me!”

In order to survive, Jack spared no effort to show his value!

After all, the four people on the other side were definitely ruthless!

Rather than saying that he did not want to be tortured, it was better to say that he did not have the courage to face death at all.

“Alright then. I’ll give you one day’s time. If you don’t give me an answer by 10 pm tomorrow, I’ll take away your life!”

Oliver Walker stood up coldly and left!

“Hu hu hu...”

After the four killing gods left, Jack panted heavily.

However, when he felt the strange gazes around him, he was once again possessed by his acting spirit. He said in a righteous and awe-inspiring voice, “Brothers, you’ve followed me because you trust me. I will never lead you guys to death! My pride and dignity is nothing!”

After all, kneeling and begging for mercy was quite embarrassing, but...

With that said, he instantly became high-class!

“Boss,” George Lee asked with a frown after they walked out of the underground casino, “You don’t really think that the cunning Sean Martin will give him a chance to tip him off, do you?”

Chapter 699 Traitor!

With Jack’s character, he might really be two-faced. In the end, he would follow whoever won.

But who would dare to count on his loyalty?

It was impossible!

The chaplain was not a soft-hearted person, nor was he a muddle-headed person. How could he make such a mistake? Therefore, if the doubts in his heart were not resolved, he would only become more and more confused!

“Don’t worry.” Oliver Walker chuckled. “Do you think Sean Martin will not be on guard against him?”

Keeping Jack alive was not to let him redeem himself!

Moreover, Oliver Walker had never counted on anyone! Because he wouldn’t trust the enemy! Therefore, he had his own use for it!

“Boss, please enlighten us!”

Mike also asked. Although they had not known each other for long, Oliver Walker’s character had indeed conquered him. No matter which step he took, it seemed to be messy, but there was almost no miscalculation.

Just this alone made him really impressed!

“What’s the best way to eavesdrop on someone?” Oliver Walker asked with a smile.

Aiden frowned. “You mean the listening device?”

Oliver Walker nodded. “With Sean Martin’s character, he definitely won’t trust anyone easily. So, he must have seen everything that we just did. He’s even thinking about how to scheme against us now!”

Such an explanation made George Lee and the other two come to a realization!

This...

It was like playing chess. They could understand the game from three to five steps away, but Oliver Walker's calculation could understand all the steps from the moment he placed the first piece.

"Then what should we do now? We can't just wait, can we?" George Lee asked again.

"If they hear about it and decide to flee, we can just let them leave so easily!"

Once Sean Martin and the others escaped, it would not be as easy to touch them as it was now.

So...

Oliver Walker shook his head. "The strong have their pride! He won't leave. He'll definitely have one last game with me! We don't have to do anything now. We just have to wait quietly."

In fact, that was indeed the case. With Sean Martin's experience, he would definitely beat them at their own game and set up an ambush for them to crawl into.

However, he did not know that he was also playing along!

The outcome was about to be decided. To be honest, Oliver Walker was still a little excited.

Although it wasn't as good as when he commanded thousands of troops like he did in Arizona, it was enough to satisfy his craving. After all, the other party was not as bad as he had imagined. He had indeed suffered a loss!

"Understood!"

"Understood!"

"Boss, brilliant idea!"

After figuring out Oliver Walker's plan, George Lee and the other two were in awe.

After all, in the vast sea of people, even if they had all kinds of investigative methods, it was not so easy to dig out nine top-notch mercenaries with especially strong anti-reconnaissance abilities.

But now, Oliver Walker had set a trap and waited for the other party to crawl in. It was obviously much smarter!

In another dimly lit basement!

"F*ck you, this pig actually dares to betray us?"

"I'm going!" Alras stared at the monitor screen, clenched his fists, and said angrily, "I'm going to tear this pig into pieces now!"

Furious!

Extremely furious!

Did they really think they were playing around?

The surveillance network in the underground casino had long been breached by them.

To put it bluntly, although Jack could not find them, he lived under their noses. The scene just now was clearly seen!

"Reckless! Oliver Walker isn't dead!" Sean Martin snapped. "We thought of that. We'll beat him at his own game and lure him out to kill him!"

It was inevitable that Sean Martin was mad. He didn't expect Oliver Walker to be able to escape under such extreme circumstances.

But so what?

Anyone who went against him would eventually die! An entirely new plan gradually formed in his mind.

Chapter 700 I Gave Myself To You!

How to make use of Jack and how to get Oliver Walker to enter the most suitable place for him to ambush was especially important.

Tomorrow night was the time to decide the winner!

He was more or less looking forward to it.

"I'll let you know how powerful I am!" A bloodthirsty smile appeared on his face.

However, there were some things that absolutely could not be done during the day.

Because even if he could kill Oliver Walker, he might not be able to escape the intelligence organization of this country!

The night was the best time to hide. Therefore, Sean Martin decided to put the battle of annihilation on tomorrow night! But he did not know that Oliver Walker had already seen through his thoughts.

This was a real battle of brains, a psychological game. It all depended on who could hold their breath.

The most pitiful one was Jack. He thought that he could be a fence-sitter, but he never expected that his fate would be decided regardless of whether it was on Oliver Walker's side or Sean Martin's side!

The next morning, it was as quiet as usual.

Now, after the production of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals caught up, the sales volume also gradually increased.

Adams Group could only sell their stock at a discount.

In addition to the liquid funds, they were facing difficulties and were on the verge of bankruptcy!

On the contrary, Emilia had already targeted the increasingly saturated market outside of Arizona.

After all, the market share here was no longer enough to satisfy Heavenly Doctor Davis.

“Sister Emilia, this is the market research report!”

“Our facial masks have been rolled out in all channels in the state of Colorado. Moreover, our reputation has exploded. There have been no complaints!”

“So where’s the next market?” Sarah Lee asked with a smile.

“I’m thinking about it too,” said Emilia with a smile. “I already have a goal!”

Ocean City was very close to the state of Colorado, so there were no problems with supply and transportation.

The most important thing was that Luna Thomas had invited Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to open a specialty store in their city more than once.

That was Thomas Corporation’s world, so it was also the easiest place to develop!

“Hehe... Does that mean I can go on business trips more often?” Sarah Lee asked with a smile.

“I’ve never been out of Colorado since I was young. I’m looking forward to it!”

“Look at you. If you marry Mike, I’ll give you three months of paid leave.”

Sarah Lee blushed.

“Hey! My mom wants you to accompany me home for lunch this afternoon!” She stopped after she left the room.

Mike’s eyes widened, and his face was filled with disbelief. However, the most inconceivable thing was still the expressionless Aiden!

Huh? When did this happen?

What the f*ck?

Why didn’t he know anything?

All he was feeling was sour. He was extremely eager for a family, but he also wished Mike happiness, who had pulled him out of the pile of dead people, from the bottom of his heart!

“Are you still not mad? I told my mom about what happened between you and me!” Sarah Lee said angrily.

Mike swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

He was dumbfounded!

How did this happen?!

“You...”

Sarah Lee stomped her feet in anger. Tears of grievance were about to fall!

At the same time, even Aiden couldn't stand it anymore. “Mr. Walker, this is your fault. Sister-in-law is young and beautiful. How is she not worthy of you?”

Mike was dumbfounded.

“Have you forgotten what happened that night?” Sarah Lee cried.

“I treated you as my boyfriend, so you were just playing around?”

“Scumbag!”

What happened that night?

Oliver Walker, who had just arrived at the door, instantly heard it. He reprimanded Mike with a solemn expression. “Mike, I've always thought that you're quite honest and simple. How could you do such a thing?”

“I'm still a little girl!”
