Chapter 701 Standing Up For Sarah Lee

“Mike, I didn’t expect you to be such a person!” Aiden also condemned him with a righteous expression.

“Sister-in-law, don’t worry. If he dares to be irresponsible to you, I’ll break off all ties with him!”

It was as if they were just joining in the fun. They spoke one after another, making Mike, who was already stupid, speechless.

That night, it was because the people from the Black Dragon Sect had chased after them.

Then, in order to prevent Sarah Lee from getting hurt, he pulled her into his arms. As the fight was too intense, he accidentally touched a place he shouldn’t have.

After the incident, he had also apologized!

This...

Why did it taste different in Sarah Lee’s mouth?

“Humph...”

Sarah Lee was both angry and annoyed. “Mr. Walker, you have to stand up for me. Otherwise, I won’t be able to face anyone!”

“Wuuu...”

As soon as he finished speaking, he covered his face and left!

“You’re really something!”

Oliver Walker reprimanded him. “Let me tell you. This little girl is calling my wife ‘sister’. How dare you betray her? Are you asking to be beaten up?!”

Everyone thought that Mike and Sarah Lee were a match made in heaven. The only thing was that they have an age difference of more than ten years!

“No!”

“Boss, I really didn’t...” Mike panicked even more when he faced the two’s interrogative gazes.

Sarah Lee felt wronged? He felt wronged! But what was the point?

“Just one sentence. Do you like her or not?”

“She already told her family,” Oliver Walker said in a deep voice. “Do you think she isn’t taking it seriously?”

“Let me tell you again. Sarah Lee, this little girl, has just graduated from university and hasn’t even had a boyfriend yet, and you’re already treating her that way?!”

“I’m embarrassed to talk to you!”

He knew that mercenaries didn’t care about relationships, but the problem was that Sarah Lee wasn’t like other unrestrained girls, let alone Emma Adams.

Anyone could see that she was sincere and wanted to live a good life with Mike.

Why should he be let down!

“No! No! Boss!!!! I didn’t...”

Mike was anxious. He really did not do anything to Sarah Lee; even the physical contact was to protect Sarah Lee. He had no choice but to do it!

“Don’t talk!”

Aiden’s face darkened. “To think that I’ve always treated you as my big brother. Aren’t you afraid of being struck by lightning?”

He was quite eager to have a family.

What did Mike do?

Sarah Lee, what was so bad about her?

No one could bear to watch such a small matter!

“I...”

Mike was silent!

“I’ll ask you one last time,” Oliver Walker said. “What do you think of Sarah Lee?”

He wasn’t trying to pull strings.

If Sarah Lee was a prostitute, or a woman like Emma Adams who had a promiscuous private life, he would never dissuade her.

The truth was...

“Boss, she’s very good!”

Mike frowned and said, “But... But I’m not worthy of her!”

Half a month together might not have been long, but Sarah Lee had made him feel a warmth that he had never felt at Emma Adams ‘side.

But...

“She doesn’t despise you, so what are you afraid of?”

“Remember,” Oliver Walker said coldly. “Live your life well. If you let her down, I will never forgive you!”

In fact, she also knew that Mike had feelings for Sarah Lee.

Perhaps it was just because he felt inferior! However, in his opinion, a prodigal son was worth more than gold. Mike was still a rather reliable man.

He was quite capable. Sarah Lee wouldn’t have to suffer if she followed him!

Chapter 702 New Products

“Phew...”

Mike panted heavily, “Uh... Fine!

He was under a lot of pressure and had actually thought about many things.

Raising a family required a lot of money. With his current income, he didn’t even have a house of his own, let alone a betrothal gift.

His wage? It wasn't considered high!

However, he had indeed misunderstood. Emilia had no idea about his ability. Otherwise, she would not have paid him the salary of a normal security guard.

Oliver Walker had also told him to look for him at any time if he needed help.

After all, Mike was the king of mercenaries. It would not be a problem for him to take out tens of millions or even hundreds of millions but Mike had a lot of worries in his heart.

For someone of his status, Oliver Walker was already very kind to provide him with a stable job.

How could he dare to ask for those worldly possessions?

"Mike! Go!"

Aiden hurriedly urged. Sometimes, it was really like this. The person involved was not anxious, but the outsider was anxious.

Mike only nodded, but did not say a word and left.

Oliver Walker shook his head and walked into the office. "Honey, you were looking for me?"

"If it's nothing, why can't I look for you?" Emilia smiled.

Actually, it was not easy for the company to get to where it was today.

Only she knew how many twists and turns she had gone through. Of course, she also knew that if it weren't for the man in front of her, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals wouldn't have been able to survive until now.

"That's not it!"

Oliver Walker smiled, but he also knew his wife. If she didn't need him, she wouldn't have time to talk to him at work.

"Now, Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals has matured in all aspects. So I'm planning how to bring it out of Colorado. Should we launch a new product or continue to focus on facial masks?"

Emilia voiced her thoughts. She wanted to discuss it with her husband because she could give her some constructive advice.

A company could not rely on the same product to sell for a lifetime.

Even if he could still survive outside of the state of Colorado, it would become monotonous and they would have a restricted market.

If their clients thought that the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals could only produce face masks, it would not be easy to introduce new products in the future.

"If it's a new product," Oliver Walker said, "which incurable disease do you want to solve first?"

It was his goal to promote traditional medicine, so he naturally could not be careless. Due to the limited strength of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals and the market, it was impossible to launch many products at once.

After all, one had to eat one bite at a time!

“What?” Emilia thought for a moment and was slightly stunned. “Do you have any other special prescription?”

Due to the success of the facial mask, she no longer underestimated Oliver Walker’s medical skills. She had originally asked her husband to know what special prescription he had. She did not expect her husband to say such a thing.

Oliver Walker took out a pen and paper and quickly wrote down ten common but difficult prescriptions.

For example, rheumatism, heart disease, kidney problems, and so on! Once these diseases were contracted, it would be very troublesome. It was impossible to completely cure them.

“These prescriptions are things passed down from the Heavenly Sect. Which one would you like to promote?”

Oliver Walker smiled calmly. It could be said that each of the ten prescriptions would set off a storm in the medical field. However, it was also what he wanted to promote the most.

As a doctor, he would obviously hope for no disease in the world. He was even more unwilling to see these difficult and complicated diseases destroy countless families that should have been happy.

Release these to the world? That would be impossible.

Not to mention that it would cause malicious competition, causing these medicinal formulas to lose their original function of treating illnesses and saving lives.

Instead, in the end, it would be used by unscrupulous capitalists as a magic weapon to enslave the people at the bottom.

“Are you sure these are all special prescriptions? Oh my god!” Emilia stood up in surprise. “If these prescriptions that seem small but trouble the people at the bottom of the social ladder are developed, then...”

She did not dare to imagine it! This was truly benefiting the people!

Oliver Walker nodded. "I can guarantee that they're all the same as the facial masks. There are almost no side effects."

Every prescription of the Heavenly Sect had been upgraded step by step by generations of doctors from the Heavenly Sect. It had only been passed down until now after thousands of modifying it accordingly.

He had also modified some of them to make the medicinal effects more precise and powerful.

Chapter 703 Jack, the Betrayer

Emilia's expression was solemn as she immediately put away the prescription.

With the current strength of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals, it was impossible for her to develop all of them at once.

Not only was the funding tight, but the technology was also not supportive.

After all, how to make traditional medicine into a medicine that could be preserved and not go bad was actually very particular. As for the facial mask, it was a product with almost no technical content.

These medicines were obviously different.

Therefore, she had to be careful when making her choice. At the very least, she had to do market research before making a decision based on her own strength and positioning in various aspects. Only then could she truly benefit the people.

It would also allow Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to rise to a higher level.

The more money she earned, the more responsibilities she would be able to shoulder.

At the same time, at dusk, Jack, who was in disguise, arrived at a deserted place without any communication equipment. This was requested by Shawn Martin. After all, bringing a communication device meant that he would be tracked.

“Master!”

Jack stood by the riverbank and called out softly. Then, he looked around.

However, he was stunned for a long time and did not see anyone!

“You dare to betray me?”

But in the next moment, Sean Martin appeared behind Jack like a ghost. He said coldly, “Do you want to know how I usually deal with traitors?”

He had watched all the surveillance footage from last night.

Finding Jack at this time was naturally to beat him at his own game and lure Oliver Walker into a place that was extremely beneficial to him. And this place definitely couldn't be in the downtown area.

Otherwise, the possibility of them being targeted by the intelligence department was also very high.

“Ah... I... I didn't!”

Jack was trembling. When he turned around and saw the murderous look in his eyes, he quickly howled. “Master, I really didn't betray you. I just wanted to survive and serve you better. I wanted to provide you with more useful information!

“My loyalty to you can be proven by the sun and the moon. If I have any disloyalty, I will be struck by lightning!”

His voice was full of emotion as he knelt on the ground with a plop. He had no idea that the surveillance equipment of the underground casino had been hacked by Alasi.

He thought that Sean Martin was just testing him. How could he give himself away so easily?

“Humph...”

“You wouldn’t dare to be disloyal to me!”

Sean Martin said coldly, “My new address will be moved to the Earth Temple in front. There’s a meeting tonight. Remember to be there before ten o’clock.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he left like a ghost.

“Hu hu hu...”

On the contrary, Jack panted heavily as he looked at the Earth Temple that was less than a hundred meters away.

This matter had to be reported to Oliver Walker immediately.

After all, he was in the open and had nowhere to run. He could be killed at any time. As for his biggest dream now, he hoped that either Sean Martin or Oliver Walker would die. As long as the situation stabilized, he only needed to be loyal to one person.

He definitely didn’t need to be so worried.

After night fell...

When Oliver Walker received the information, he summoned George Lee and the others. "If nothing goes wrong, Shawn Martin chose the ambush location in the Earth Temple 30 kilometers west of the city."

"So, what do you think of this location?"

When the electronic map was opened, the three of them began to study it.

In fact, there was nothing special about this Earth Temple. The only thing worth noting was that it was on the mountain.

There was only one path up the mountain. Once the lightning array was buried, it would be very difficult to walk out alive.

It was very likely that the cunning Sean Martin had this idea.

After all, both sides were experts.

Once there was a head-on clash, there would definitely be casualties.

However, whether it was the mercenaries or them, unless it was absolutely necessary, they were unwilling to have a head-on conflict with casualties.

This was the most crucial point.

"Boss, based on my understanding of Sean Martin, he definitely won't show up!"

Chapter 704 The Calm before The Storm

Mike said, "I just don't know if they have any high-tech signal jammers. If they don't, then we can release a miniature bio-reconnaissance plane and go in to investigate."

Miniature bio-detection equipment was their most commonly used method. It could be disguised as a bee or a fly, or other small creatures that were not easy to detect.

“This problem is not difficult to solve! Our technology is enough to paralyze their information equipment,” said George Lee.

To put it bluntly, even if Blood Fiend had a signal jammer, he would definitely carry it with him in the special forces. Therefore, its function would not be too strong.

On the other hand, there was no trouble for them to solve this issue.

“Yes!”

Oliver Walker naturally understood these methods, and he narrowed his eyes. He was calculating how he could not be injured and still be able to annihilate the Blood Fiend.

“Boss, what should we do?”

Aiden couldn't wait any longer. He stood up immediately. “Sorry for the trouble.”

Guilt came from the bottom of his heart! But there was nothing he could do!

Because it had already happened.

“You don't understand the chaplain at all. No one can stop him from doing what he wants to do,” George Lee said. “Even if the entire Blood Fiend comes, it's impossible to change his mind.”

He had followed Oliver Walker for many years, how could he not understand?

There were many reasons why he was willing to accept Aiden.

“But...”

Aiden lowered his head and frowned.

“No buts!”

Oliver Walker waved his hand and said, “Inform the garrison in the state of Colorado immediately. Prepare the fighter jet formation and prepare for battle.”

“Also, after nine o’clock, the artillery will move toward the Earth Temple in the name of night emergency drills. Get three more bionic reconnaissance planes. We’ll set off immediately!”

Opportunities were fleeting! Therefore, he had to grasp it.

The reason why the artillery only began to gather after 9 was to prevent alerting the enemy.

However, with such a hasty decision, it would be difficult for Sean Martin to notice anything unusual. Even if they discovered the army, they would not immediately become suspicious. Even if they felt that something was wrong, they would not be able to change their plans.

So... As long as he was given 20 minutes, it would be enough to send Blood Frennd to their graves in America.

Sean Martin had given him an explosive gift at the mountaintop villa. It’s impolite not to reciprocate! He also wanted to let Sean Martin have a taste of being covered in artillery fire.

“Yes, sir!”

When the order was given, George Lee had already left.

Mike, Aiden, and ten guards were also ready to set off.

This day next year would definitely be Sean Martin's death anniversary.

When night fell, the Earth Temple, 30 kilometers west of the city was silent.

However, there were nine extremely dangerous people hiding in the dense forest.

"Oliver Walker, you can go to hell!"

Sean Martin crawled on the ground, covering his body with branches. He had a piece of foxtail grass in his mouth, and his eyes were filled with killing intent. "Keep your auras down. Don't scare them away."

The other party was an expert, so his vigilance was naturally not too bad. Therefore, every detail would be the key to victory.

"Instructor, our signal is blocked!" Should we retreat first?"

At this moment, Alasi's expression darkened. "Why was the signal blocked?"

A dangerous aura instantly filled everyone's hearts.

Chapter 705 The Ambush

"Damn it! What happened?"

"No. 7," Sean Martin asked angrily, "I asked you to monitor the movements in the state. Is there anything unusual?"

“Instructor,” Number Seven replied immediately, “I just got the news. The garrison in the state of Colorado has just issued a notice for a night drill. The location is near the Earth Mountain!”

Sean Martin clenched his fists.

Why did they have to do it at this time? Was the heavens trying to make things difficult for him?

Under normal circumstances, when a drill was carried out, it was almost always the cooperation of multiple units, so it was understandable that the signal was blocked.

“Instructor, what do we do now?”

“Retreat!”

“Could our plan have been exposed?”

“...”

For a moment, the eight mercenaries began to pay attention.

This was a serious problem!

“It’s impossible that we were discovered. Based on my understanding of this country, once we’re exposed, it won’t be an ordinary army coming to encircle and suppress us.”

“It must be the Dragon Division under the Intelligence Department!” Sean Martin gritted his teeth.

“So this is just a coincidence!”

According to common sense, even if they were discovered, they would be immediately monitored and warned to leave immediately. They definitely wouldn't gather ordinary troops to encircle and annihilate them without any notice.

Especially the intelligence department. If they really knew about their existence, they would know that the elite Blood Fiend Unit was not something that ordinary soldiers could deal with.

So... This could only be a coincidence!

However, he did not know that his plan had been taken into account by Oliver Walker. It was also an illusion deliberately created by Oliver Walker to lure the always conceited Sean Martin.

"Boss, there's no one in the Earth Temple!"

"We've also investigated the surroundings. If we're not wrong, they must be crouching in the path that we must pass through to climb the mountain. The trees there are the most luxuriant, and it's also easy to hide."

George Lee looked at the big screen and kept reporting.

"Then we'll wait for him! It's three minutes to ten o'clock. Order all the heavy artillery to fire their shells there!"

Oliver Walker gave the order. In order not to arouse Sean Martin's suspicion, he had placed the Heavy Artillery Battalion three kilometers away.

Long-distance bombing might be inaccurate, but under the coverage of artillery fire, accuracy was not a problem.

Especially since the surroundings of the Earth Mountain were all desolate farmland, it would not cause any accidental injuries.

It had to be said that Sean Martin had chosen a natural graveyard for himself so that he could bombard it without any scruples!

“Yes, sir!”

George Lee began to issue battle orders, while Oliver Walker and his men lurked in the rice fields that were half the height of a man.

Through thermal imaging, he locked onto the possible hiding spots of Sean Martin and the other mercenaries.

“Boom boom...”

When they arrived at ten o’clock, hundreds of heavy cannons that had been set up long ago let out thunderous roars of anger.

“Whoosh whoosh whoosh...”

When the cannonball shot out of the cannon, it left a long white trail in the night sky. The sound of air being torn apart was even more shocking! Such a huge commotion made Sean Martin and the others react instantly.

“Instructor, those cannonballs are coming at us!”

“What should we do?”

“F*ck you!”

“...”

In an instant, the Blood Fiend mercenary team lying in ambush in the forest went completely crazy. Who the hell would have thought that the night drill of the troops stationed in Colorado would target them?!

“What else can we do?”

“Pray that they are empty shells!”

“Retreat!”

If time permitted, Sean Martin would have cursed. These cannonballs seemed to be aimed at them on purpose. It was simply terrifying!

Chapter 706 Cannonball Shower

“Rumble...”

However, the next moment, by the time the mercenary team reacted, the cannonball had already landed.

Countless trees were uprooted.

The withered bushes were also instantly ignited!

“AHHHHH!!!!”

“Bang...”

In an instant, an unlucky fellow was directly cut in half by the exploding cannonball. There was no trace of his legs. However, his upper body was still twitching due to the intense pain.

“Boom boom...”

At the same time, the cannonballs continued to fall.

Even if the Blood Fiend Mercenary team were the elites of the elites, they would not be able to withstand the power of the cannonballs!

Even Oliver Walker and Seann Martin knew that it was unrealistic to dodge the cannonballs with their own strength.

The only thing that they could rely on was luck!

“Boom boom...”

Those cannonballs seemed to have eyes as they bit into the forest.

Occasionally, they would fall in other places, but the error was not very big.

In just a short while, the Blood Fiend mercenary team had already lost six people.

Only the ragged Sean Martin, Alras, and another guy covered in blood were left fleeing.

“Boss, we’ve found them. They’re fleeing north!”

At this moment, three rapidly moving red dots appeared on the screen. This was heat tracking technology! The three red dots meant that there were only three people left.

But soon, another one died! There were only two red dots left. However, the artillery fire had not stopped!

Oliver Walker immediately ordered, “Continue to fire. Kill them all!”

Since they had mobilized the army, it was impossible for them to let anyone escape. Especially now that the heat tracking had already locked onto the two escaping people, it should be difficult for them to escape.

“Yes, sir!”

George Lee immediately sent the locked coordinates to the command center. A minute later, the artillery fire began to extend and continue to bombard crazily.

“I really didn’t expect that he would end up like this!”

“Yes, I am!”

Mike and Aiden shook their heads with a sigh. How smart was Sean Martin? Not to mention that he had excellent military qualities, but he still suffered a great loss under Oliver Walker’s arrangements.

Based on the current situation, the possibility of Sean Martin escaping was not high at all.

“F*ck you! F*ck you... Ah...”

In the next second, Alras was knocked to the ground by the shock wave of the cannonball. He hugged his head and shouted for help, “Instructor, save me... Save me...”

Sean Martin looked at Alras, who was rolling on the ground. His eyes turned cold. “You won’t get away this time but I will take care of your family. You should know what to do.”

These were all heavy cannons. Even if it was just a shock wave, the power was not something that a human body could withstand!

“Dammit!”

“God... Oh my god!”

“Instructor, I... I don't want to die... Take me away!”

Alras's face was pale, and his screams were heart-wrenching. Although he had killed many people, this was the first time he was so close to death. It was still difficult for him to face the fear that came from the depths of his soul.

“Bastard! If I die, who will take care of your family? I won't be able to save you!”

Sean Martin said this not because of friendship, but because he had a serious suspicion that he might have been locked onto by something. Otherwise, these cannonballs wouldn't have been chasing after them as if they had eyes.

Due to the sensitivity of his profession, the first thing he guessed was the thermal imaging tracking system. Therefore, as he spoke, he squatted in the paddy field and smeared mud on his body. This was to lower his body temperature and escape the thermal imaging system.

“Ah...”

Alras was still howling. Coincidentally, another cannonball landed in the surroundings the next moment.

After the explosion, the shrapnel that shot out directly cut off his thigh. The scene was extremely brutal.

Chapter 707 The One That Got Away

“My leg, my leg!”

Alras's body kept spasming because of the intense pain, and his face began to twist!

He knew that he had no way out, so he shouted in pain again, “Instructor, take care of my family!”

“Please!”

As soon as he finished speaking, he took out his pistol and shot himself in the head. With a bang, a hole appeared in his head and he died!

“Damn it!”

Sean Martin’s expression was extremely ugly. He immediately ran into the distance and continued to flee. Strangely enough, he was starting to believe in God now. Because only God could give him the luck to survive this artillery fire.

Therefore, as he ran, he prayed crazily.

When has he ever been in such a sorry state?

Tonight’s drill was definitely not a coincidence. It was very likely to be targeted at him. However, in the midst of his nervous escape, he did not have the time to think about these things. After the last red dot disappeared from the big screen, the artillery fire stopped!

This was because it was meaningless!

“Check the bodies immediately. If there are no accidents, there should be nine of them!”

After Oliver Walker gave the order, Mike, Aiden, and the others also rushed to the coordinates where the last red dot stopped. There should be one more body here.

The reason why they didn’t go up the mountain was because the fire on the mountain was soaring into the sky. They couldn’t go up at all.

“Blood Fiend? That’s all you are?”

Oliver Walker shook his head. No matter how elite the mercenaries were, they had no chance of survival under the bombardment of artillery fire.

He walked over and frowned when he saw Alras's body. "Why is there only a corpse?"

"Boss!" George Lee shouted. "There's a situation here!"

Oliver Walker and the others rushed over.

In the paddy field, a path that had been traversed by someone appeared.

"We still let one escape!"

Oliver Walker shook his head. He had to admit that the individual combat ability of the Blood Fiend Mercenaries was not to be underestimated. This could be seen from Mike and Aiden.

"The person who escaped should have used the swamp to hide his body temperature."

Mike frowned and said, "I guess it's most likely Sean Martin."

Under such circumstances, the only person who could still be so fearless in the face of danger was Sean Martin, right? Even if it was given to them, they might be able to think of it, but they definitely wouldn't react so quickly.

He definitely lived up to his reputation as the number one instructor of the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group. He was a famous figure in the history of mercenaries.

"I'll block the intersection now!"

George Lee immediately took out his phone. He had meticulously planned and prepared this trap, but one of them had actually escaped. It was simply a great humiliation.

“No need! With his skills, it’s too easy for him to break through the barrier silently.”

Oliver Walker waved his hand. Once they set up defenses, there would be no substantial meaning other than increasing casualties.

It couldn’t be said that he had underestimated his opponent. It was because the opponent was indeed very strong. Of course, luck was the main factor in his ability to escape.

“But if you don’t kill him, your identity will be exposed sooner or later!”

George Lee was anxious. He had thought a lot these days.

The Chaplain was right. If Oliver Walker appeared with a military background, then Sean Martin would only need to kidnap him if he wanted to threaten him.

Hiding his identity and fighting the darkness was indeed the best choice.

“Based on your understanding of him, will he still stay in Colorado?”

Oliver Walker turned around and asked. If he wanted to deal with such a cunning person, he had to get the best answer from the person who knew Sean Martin best.

As for being exposed?

It didn’t matter!

Chapter 708 Underestimated His Opponent

Sean Martin definitely wanted to live, so he did not dare to do anything drastic unless it was absolutely necessary. As a mercenary, he should know what kind of place this country was.

“I think he will go into hiding!”

Aiden frowned. "I don't think he'll make a move without absolute confidence."

Mike also began to analyze, "He can think of using the swamp to lower the temperature. This means that he will figure out who is chasing after him sooner or later."

"And Shawn Martin is a man who values his life, so he wouldn't attack this country. Otherwise, with his brutal personality, he would have attacked us long ago instead of using these methods."

George Lee was silent because he had no right to speak.

He did not know much about Sean Martin. This man was known as the most mysterious mercenary; even the intelligence department could not find any photos of him.

Wearing combat camouflage, plus a bulletproof helmet, goggles, and a mask, these were Sean Martin's characteristics.

"You mean to say that he subdued the Black Dragon Sect and targeted my wife's company just to test my true identity?"

Oliver Walker frowned slightly. If that was the case, then Sean Martin was indeed terrifying. The degree of meticulous thinking had long surpassed the range of ordinary people.

"I guess..."

Mike hesitated for a moment, then said, "It's very likely so."

"He doesn't do things he isn't confident in. If he escapes this time, it will only become more troublesome and difficult to deal with in the future."

Aiden also took a deep breath.

That man was once a god-like existence in his heart.

“Interesting!”

Oliver Walker’s lips curled up slightly. “He is indeed very cunning, but cunning people are mostly suspicious. The lesson this time might make him think of leaving this country.”

In fact, he did not really want to attack the Blood Fiend. On the contrary, Sean Martin’s arrival had helped him eliminate many members of the Black Dragon Sect.

In fact, it helped him. After all, the Black Dragon Sect had too many members. This was an unstable bomb.

This was naturally what he wanted to see the most.

“Right, you should have seen his true face, right?”

Oliver Walker spoke again. In fact, he had already investigated before, and the intelligence department did not have any valuable pictures.

There were at least dozens of people in the photos that had been released, and they were all suspected to be Shawn Martin. There was no way to confirm it.

If the two of them knew about it, they would be able to build a more complete file on Sean Martin in the intelligence department.

“No! I didn’t either!”

Mike and Aiden shook their heads in succession! Perhaps only Blood Fiend had seen Sean Martin’s true face. Even though they had been together for so long, they had never seen Sean Martin take off his mask and goggles, so it was difficult to judge.

It could only be said that Sean Martin was an old fox through and through!

“Forget it!”

Oliver Walker shook his head.

Even if Sean Martin did not die, it would be difficult for him to cause any more trouble in a short period of time. It could be considered as temporarily resolving the crisis!

However, after fighting for so long, he did not even know what his opponent looked like. It was indeed a little frustrating.

At the same time, Sean Martin was lying by the river, panting heavily. In fact, he was also injured, but it was not serious! However, what made him the most unhappy was...

Was this a coincidence, or was it premeditated?

All the signs pointed to a coincidence!

If it was premeditated, it meant that Oliver Walker was definitely the Chaplain.

For a moment, it was difficult for him to make a correct judgment.

What was more cruel was that he had lost eight elite mercenaries including Alras..... Who could have been the next instructor of the Blood Fiend Mercenary Team.

But... It was all gone!

“Oliver Walker! No matter who you are, I will make sure you die without a burial place!”

Chapter 709 Outsider?

The loss that they have suffered this time was considered a huge one. This was the first time since the establishment of Blood Fiend that eight people had died in an unofficial mission.

However, the truth was already set in stone. Seann Martin’s eyes became more and more gloomy, and his fists clenched tighter and tighter.

This was the first time he had suffered such a crushing defeat since he started his career. If he did not take revenge, his name would not be Sean Martin; but it was obvious that they could not stay in a place like Colorado any longer.

If Oliver Walker was really the chaplain, he would definitely send many intelligence agents to chase after him.

The most hateful thing was that this guy didn’t have any ethics!

Actually... This was an eye for an eye!

Oliver Walker had already lost his patience when he saw that he had repeatedly resorted to underhanded tactics.

One-on-one?

It was unrealistic!

As a commander, he clearly had a plan to not hurt a single soldier, so why would he engage in close combat with the enemy?

The next morning! At the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals Office.

In her office, Emilia started her work mode and started her online investigation. She needed to roughly determine which drug to develop before conducting social research.

Oliver Walker did not disturb his wife. Instead, he sat at the door and chatted with the others.

“What did you say yesterday?”

He was curious about how Sarah Lee’s family would react. After all, Mike was indeed much older than Sarah Lee.

“Uh...”

Mike’s expression changed slightly. “It’s nothing... It went well?”

There were things that once said, he would not be able to take them back especially with his brothers.

Oliver Walker frowned. “Are you sure?”

He already had a rough idea of the man’s personality. It was obvious that Mike had encountered a difficult problem by being so secretive. Mike was still keeping it against him which meant that Mike still took him as an outsider.

He didn’t want to linger on this issue, so he chose to leave. Or perhaps, he really did not deserve love. It could also be considered retribution from the heavens for the first half of his life!

“If you need anything, just let me know! We’re all brothers,” Oliver Walker shouted. “There’s no need for you to hide it from us.”

Mike turned around and pretended to be relaxed.

The days seemed to have calmed down. He just didn’t know when his boss was going to enter Ocean City. He really hoped that this day would come soon.

“Boss, I feel that something is wrong with Mike. There must be something,” Aiden said with a frown. “But he doesn’t want us to know.”

They had been brothers for so many years. They’ve been through storms together and know each other well.”

“You only just noticed?”

Oliver Walker shook his head slightly. There was an indescribable bitterness in his voice. “I’ve never treated you brothers as outsiders, but he’s clearly on guard against me.”

“I’m afraid there’s a reason why Sarah Lee didn’t come to work today, right?”

He knew how important a family was to a man. From Mike’s reaction, it was not difficult to tell that he had feelings for Sarah Lee, but he had too many concerns.

“Boss!”

“No!”

Aiden quickly said, “That’s the way he is. We are brothers. Thank you for taking us in. We will always be loyal to you.”

It was obvious that Oliver Walker's identity played a vital role in his return to the country without being punished by the relevant departments.

Secondly, the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group came with a menacing momentum. After all, he was the first instructor. It was obvious that the higher-ups of the mercenary group were quite dissatisfied with his departure.

"It's good that you think that way!"

Oliver Walker smiled. "Stay here. I'm going to talk to him! Oh right, this is your home. Don't treat yourself as an outsider. Otherwise, I won't be happy."

After a few days of observation, Mike and Aiden actually no longer had any aggression.

Both of them really wanted to settle down. Oliver Walker saw the sincerity, so he naturally wouldn't mistreat them.

"Yes, sir!"

Aiden was also a sentimental person. After hearing these words, he was even more certain of his choice.

Chapter 710 Love birds in Distress

Even if Oliver Walker wanted him to die, he would jump in without hesitation! At the same time, Mike sat at the stairway of the safety passage and silently lit a cigarette, bitterly tasting the taste of loneliness.

"Now that there's no one else, are you going to tell me what it is?"

After Oliver Walker arrived, he sat on the ground without putting on airs. He needed to enlighten Mike!

"Boss.... I...."

Mike lowered his head, feeling uneasy.

“It’s impossible for us!”

Mike’s honest face revealed a trace of grief. Although he said he didn’t want it, who could resist a little girl like Sarah Lee throwing herself into his arms?

It was impossible for him not to like her! In his heart, he had long regarded Sarah Lee as his girlfriend. However, due to his age and many other circumstances, he did not dare to admit it.

“What’s going on? How did you end up being so beaten by your mother in law?” Oliver Walker asked in shock.

Other than being shocked, he thought about it carefully. Mike should not have made a move so easily. There must be a special situation. Therefore, the crux of the conflict lay in that special situation.

“If her mother dares to beat up Sarah, I would beat them up instead.”

Mike’s tone became much stronger. “Her family doesn’t agree to us being together. They even proposed a betrothal gift of ten million.

“Then, after Sarah Lee said that she would only marry me, she...”

A betrothal gift of ten million?

Her family was clearly making things difficult for them, and so he had no other choice but to do accordingly. Sarah Lee’s family was not necessarily snobbish. It was just that their thinking was too traditional, which was a normal phenomenon.

It was also understandable!

“Are you stupid? You’re a grown man,” reprimanded Oliver Walker, “Why did you back off because of the betrothal?!”

“What did I tell you? If you don’t have money to look for me, will you? Do you really think you’re a security guard just because you’re wearing this security suit?”

Mike frowned slightly, but his face was clearly touched.

“I’ve already caused you enough trouble. I...”

If it was in the past, he wouldn’t have cared about 10 million at all. The bounty he received from a mission could even be worth hundreds of millions. However, he had bid farewell to the mercenary world after all. He only wanted to live an ordinary life in peace. He could not let Oliver Walker down!

“Bastard! You’re a complete bastard!” Oliver Walker was furious.

Mike lowered his head and did not say a word!

He was reprimanded just like that!

“Let me tell you, you’re my brother, not my employee! Isn’t it just 10 million?” Oliver Walker asked again.

“Stand up like a man. I’ll give you the money!”

Perhaps in terms of status, Mike was really not worthy of being his brother. But in this world, how many people could be his brothers? They could only say that their personalities were suitable, and that they were brothers!

Moreover, Mike was also loyal to the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals. As the king of mercenaries, he was not dissatisfied with the ordinary salary that Emilia offered.

This sincerity was her trust in him!

“Boss, I...”

Tears welled up in Mike’s eyes, and his expression was filled with excitement. He had always thought that Oliver Walker had taken him in just to make use of him cheaply. But now, he truly understood that Oliver Walker really regarded him as one of his own.

“Get up! Wipe your tears and be a man! You’re not a coward!” Oliver Walker shouted again. “You’re the famous Thunder God in the mercenary world. You’re also my brother!”

Mike nodded solemnly. He would remember this friendship!

It was clear who was worth his life and who was using him.

“Mike!”

“Come out!”

“Come out quickly. Don’t think that you don’t have to take responsibility just because you’re hiding!”
