Chapter 71 Teaching Freddy Martin A Lesson

"En!"

Emilia nodded her head. No matter what, her daughter's condition was of the utmost importance.

As for Olivia Walker, her eyes were glowing with admiration. She was now a little girl who had a father to protect her!

No one would make fun of her as a fatherless wild child!

When Emilia pushed Olivia in her wheelchair as they were about to walk past the doors, the entire scene turned quiet.

Four invitations?

And...

Did they tear one of them into pieces?

Who were these people?

This was a blow, especially for Freddy Martin. The invitation wasn't the only thing that was torn, even his pride and ego had been torn as well.

This...

How could this be possible?

Follow current on storynovel.net

If they were allowed inside, how would Freddy Martin still have a place in Colorado?

He wouldn't be able to explain himself to the VIPs standing behind him. He couldn't even explain himself to William Davis!

"No..."

"You can't go inside!"

After making up his mind, Freddy Martin rushed forward and blocked the way with his plump body.

"Emilia, you better consider this carefully! Who do you think you are?"

"Once you enter and offend the godly doctor, would you be held responsible for it?!"

He swore an oath to the Davis siblings that as long as Emilia's family appeared, they have to be badly humiliated.

However, he turned out to be the clown.

If he allowed Emilia to walk inside, William Davis would definitely find out about it. In the end, he would be in trouble!

This matter would change his future!

Emilia stopped and stared at Freddy Martin who was making a scene. She was mad, but there was nothing she could do.

As for the rest of the socialites, they were all watching them with ridicule in their eyes.

Follow current on storynovel.net

They were waiting to see how Oliver Walker would solve this problem.

Since he was the man who could take out four invitations, he must be someone extraordinary.

This was not something that could be done easily.

This was because all of them had assumed that they were already at the tip of the pyramid, and there wasn't anyone who could be closer to the godly doctors than they were.action

Oliver Walker got annoyed as well, "Then....do you think you'll be able to bear the consequences of offending me?"

In order not to get his wife worried, he had been trying to suppress his emotions. Otherwise, this clown who was jumping in front of them would have been dealt with!

"Who do you think you are?!"

Freddy Martin did not back out. Instead, he reached out and pointed his fingers at Oliver Walker's forehead. Then, he continued screaming, "I will be offending you today. What are you going to do about it?!"

"This wild child! You're hopeless....."

Emilia's body froze!

She felt even more furious. Previously when Oliver Walker wasn't with them, she couldn't do anything when they insulted her daughter.

But now....wasn't it obvious that her daughter has a father?!

This uneducated bastard! Why did he have to be so cruel?!

Follow current on storynovel.net

'Boom—'

Suddenly, a sharp, cold glare appeared. Before anyone could react to it, they saw Oliver Walker raise his leg and give a hard kick to Freddy Martin's stomach!

"AHHHHHH!!!"

'Boom—'

Freddy Martin released a loud cry. His body which weighed about 145 kilograms was suddenly thrown onto the ground 10 meters away from where he was standing. Then, there was blood pouring out of his mouth.

His body stiffened for a moment, but soon, he stopped moving!

"Huuuuu...."

The violence caused everyone to gasp!

This...

Oliver Walker...

Emilia was looking at him with confusion as well.

It wasn't that she wanted to scold him, but this wasn't as simple as that.

"You should head inside first. I'll get rid of the rest."

Oliver Walker turned around and said in a gentle tone, "Olivia is more important now!"

He couldn't hold it in any longer!

If he allowed Freddy Martin to continue disturbing them, would there ever be an end to it?

Emilia's beautiful eyes were like the stars that were hanging in the night sky. They were bright with a slightly complicated look in them.

Chapter 72 She Couldn't Care Less

She clenched her jaw. She couldn't care less.

Freddy Martin deserved it. Since he had already beaten up both George Johnson and William Davis, they would no longer be allowed to stay in Colorado. Why should they hold themselves back now?

The most important thing now was for Olivia to be treated.

Those who had nothing wouldn't be afraid of anything. Oliver Walker already returned. Was there still anything in Colorado that would hold her back?

There was none!

There was nothing left here!

Therefore, she threw all her burden away as she pushed Olivia's wheelchair into the auditorium.

Oliver Walker glanced across the room. His aura was like a general who was ready to kill his enemies, and it caused everyone at the scene to turn mute!

Would there still be anyone who dared to stop him?

Would they be causing trouble for themselves?

The only person who was pitiful was Freddy Martin. No one really cared if he was alive or not. None of them even bothered asking.

Although all his deeds were for these socialites, why would anyone of the VIPs take him seriously?

Follow current on storynovel.net

If they cared about him, wouldn't that be tainting their status?

Suddenly, the appearance of a man caught everyone's attention.action

"Mr. Davis, it's been quite a while!"

"I didn't think that you'd be here! Please send my greetings to Mrs. Davis!"

"..."

When William Davis appeared, the entire crowd turned wild.

After getting a few of them, William Davis said in a cold tone, "I apologize for not being able to stay longer since I have other things to deal with at the moment."

Then, he screamed in rage at the woman who was at the entrance. "Emilia! Stay right there!"

All of the VIPs of Colorado started getting excited. This was getting even more interesting.

Freddy Martin?

Who was that?!

But William Davis was different!

He was the young master of the Davis family, and he was the one who won the battle 8 years ago.

Follow current on storynovel.net

He was the current CEO of the Davis Corporates. He was the man who threw the Goddess of Colorado away from her throne and even forced her into a miserable state.

It was true that Oliver Walker had returned.

Plus, from the looks of it, he did look different, but would it be good enough against William Davis?

In fact, Emilia had already passed the invitations over to the security guards.

These were guards hired by the hospital, but they were all shocked when they saw William Davis!

This man was the young master of the Davis family!

Emilia knew that this petty man would never let her go easily. So, at this moment, she was feeling incredibly nervous and tried her best to come up with another plan.

Then, Oliver Walker quickly stepped forward and stood in front of his wife and daughter.

He was looking at William Davis with an arrogant look in his eyes!

"Move!"

William screamed at the top of his lungs in rage, "Or else, you will regret this!"

Oliver Walker chuckled, "Sure! Show me how!"

He didn't even care about the Davis family. Why would he be bothered with this spoiled brat?

Follow current on storynovel.net

The only thing that was stopping him was his wife's emotions.

However, if this man was going to touch them, they should no longer blame Oliver Walker for what was about to happen next.

"You...you think that you're great?!"

William's eyes were filled with rage as he gritted his teeth, "How dare you touch my men?!"

The rest of the crowd already knew that this incident today would take a bad turn.

After all, a person needed to watch who the owner was before hitting a dog. Oliver Walker had given a hard kick to Freddy Martin which indirectly meant that he had also hit William Davis.

There wouldn't be any company that could take such an insult!

"Your dog was hit because he wasn't being obedient!"

"As for humans....those who aren't being obedient should be punished as well!"

Oliver Walker stared at him as he scoffed, "Looks like I was being too kind yesterday. Otherwise, you wouldn't have the energy to bark in front of me today!"

With that said, everyone was shocked!

Their jaws hit the ground. They couldn't believe what they heard!

What did that mean?

Was William Davis already badly beaten last night?!

Who was this man, Oliver Walker?

How could he dare to act so ruthlessly?

Chapter 73 Do You Have The Guts?

"You crazy bastard! You're asking for it!"

William Davis, who was already feeling mad from the day before, felt even more furious after hearing that, "Get him!"

William Davis completely lost his mind!

As the young master of the Davis, ever since he got rid of Emilia from the company, he had been having the time of his life in Colorado. However, he was badly embarrassed at this point.

He shouldn't be blamed for actually being mad.

As for the two bodyguards whom he brought along, both of them were highly trained. After getting the commands from their boss, they were prepared to fight.

They swung their fist toward Oliver Walker.

"Damn! That kid still doesn't know what's happening!"

"Why is he fighting William Davis?"

"Such a joke!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"..."

Forget about this bastard, even the socialites who were gathered around them.... Was there anyone of them who dared to offend William Davis?

The Davis family was too powerful in Colorado.

However, this was only for them!

On the other hand, Oliver Walker was staring at William Davis with a spiteful look in his eyes. He remained as calm as Aiden Wilson!

Olivia Walker asked softly, "He.....he's a big hero. He should be fine, right?"

She really didn't want anything to happen to her father.

But, the bodyguards looked ferocious, and their aura was making her feel frightened.

Thankfully, her father was standing right in front of her, and it made her feel safe—something that she had never felt before.

"No. We'll be fine..."

Emilia muttered to herself, but she was also speaking to her daughter.

Follow current on storynovel.net

After getting a firm answer, Olivia felt relieved of her worries.

Her father was a mighty hero. Why wouldn't he be able to defeat these bad guys?!

action

Just when the bodyguards were about to attack Oliver Walker, Emilia quickly screamed, "Stop it! Right now!"

"William Davis, don't you want to stay alive?"

With that said, everyone around was shocked!

Even both the bodyguards stopped instantly. Perhaps....there was another plot twist?

Who would have thought that Emilia, who always kept her mouth shut, would suddenly say such things?

The crowd who was feeling confused, quickly looked around, as if they were expecting someone to walk in.

Was there anyone who was more respectable than William Davis in the whole of Colorado?

The godly doctor definitely wouldn't be using this entrance as well since there was another entrance at the auditorium.

Oliver Walker was shocked as well.

Follow current on storynovel.net

He turned to his wife in confusion. Did she manage to think of another plan?

Even if he didn't care about these useless junks, he still stopped since his wife was the one who told him to do so.

"Why wouldn't I ?!"

William Davis laughed viciously, "You're worried about this rubbish?"

"Well, he has to pay for what he has done today. I am the one who said it. Even if Jesus was here, he wouldn't be able to save this man!

"You may have been able to protect him previously when you were still in the company.

"But you are nothing but a beggar who lives on the street. You will not be able to stop my revenge!"

It was true. This was his revenge.

He had nothing to hide. The entire Colorado knew that he was enemies with Emilia.

Everyone at the scene turned quiet. They were all wondering if Emilia actually had any other support, would she still end up in such a miserable state?

In fact, even Oliver Walker had no idea where his wife found the courage.

From their current abilities, the abandoned young miss was entirely no match for the young master of Davis.

But, Emilia remained calm as she said firmly, "You can be mad, but you are only the young master of Davis.

"The godly doctor is the one who organized the health talk.

"You can do anything to me, but do you have the guts to do it now?!"

Chapter 74 How Dare You!

Where did she get the courage?

She was only trying to speak confidently. However, as soon as the others heard what she said, they were all shocked.

No matter how miserable her state was at this point, it still couldn't wipe away her glorious past.

She managed to remain calm while everything else was in a mess and quickly came up with another witty plan.

She managed to shut everyone's mouth with merely one sentence.

Emilia Davis, she was indeed a goddess!

She had nothing left, but she could still come up with such a tactic, and it immediately caused William Davis to feel frightened.

His entire back was covered in cold sweats.

Causing a scene here would be the utmost disrespect to the godly doctor.

Hendric Smith might only be a doctor, but his status in this country was indeed much more superior. Hendric Smith could destroy William Davis with only one finger.

Who wouldn't want to win the favor of such a powerful, godly doctor?

Follow current on storynovel.net

As long as they were humans, they would all fall sick.

If the godly doctor owed them a favor, they could use this in exchange to save their lives!

It was something that was priceless!

"You're right!"

William Davis gritted his teeth, "You're right. I don't have the guts to do so, but don't you ever forget, as long as you're still here in Colorado, you will never be able to escape from me!"

He was different from Oliver Walker. He had to think through every step that he made.

From his perspective, the only reason why Oliver Walker dared to punch Freddy Martin was because Oliver Walker had nothing to lose.

Emilia's family was already hanging by a thread. The worse that could happen to them now were losing their lives. They definitely didn't have much to lose, unlike William Davis.

However, he had no idea that in the entire country, there wasn't anyone that Oliver Walker couldn't offend.

Even the almighty war gods of the country....was there anyone of them who didn't suffer while working for Oliver Walker before getting to where they were today?

After getting threatened, Emilia was not bothered about it. She answered coldly, "Let's go!"

She didn't want Oliver Walker to cause any other trouble.

Follow current on storynovel.net

Well, she also already had the plan to leave Colorado after tonight!

As long as she left quickly enough, William Davis would not be able to do anything to her!

This was her plan. There was no revenge because, without the same abilities, she could only swallow her pride and leave!

Oliver Walker looked disappointed instead. He wasn't the one who got lucky that the fight didn't start!

It was William Davis who got lucky!

He wouldn't fight them so that his wife wouldn't feel worried.

"F**k!"

As he felt himself being looked down on by Oliver Walker, William Davis screamed in rage, "Did you really think that you'll be allowed inside?!"

All of the socialites present knew that William Davis was a cruel man. He wouldn't let them get away with it.

With this said, it must be that William Davis had other ways of stopping them.

Oliver Walker and Emilia completely ignored him and continued pushing their daughter through the door.

Follow current on storynovel.net

No matter what William Davis wanted to do, it wouldn't be possible for William Davis to do it now before the health talk!

At least, they finally got some peace!

However, Emilia underestimated how horrible William Davis was!

Suddenly, the security guard who was checking the invitation suddenly looked cold as he screamed at Emilia, "Emilia Davis! How dare you!"

It wasn't loud, but everyone could hear him clearly.

Then, a smile bloomed on William Davis' face.

They were here in Colorado, was there anyone who wouldn't obey the Davis?

If he didn't have these tricks up his sleeve, how would he be able to ban Emilia all these years?

These were merely security guards!

Emilia did not know about this, but William Davis had already gotten his sister to make the arrangements for today!

The show was about to begin!

As expected, the security guard's words caused Emilia's heart to race as she asked, "What's...what's wrong"

"Is there a problem?"

Chapter 75 Why Would Everyone Turn Against Her?

For Emilia, any accidents could happen to her, but there shouldn't be any mistakes that could happen here at the health talk!

This could affect Olivia's life!

After offending William Davis and George Johnson, she could leave Colorado, but if they couldn't save her daughter, they would still end up in such a miserable state no matter where they went.

The entire scene felt tense. None of them knew what was happening.

Was there anyone who wasn't curious?

William Davis on the other hand looked satisfied as if he already had everything under control.

As for Oliver Walker, he was calm as well. He didn't say a single word but was watching what these men could come up with.

The security guard was called Liu Mengsheng. His fierce aura grew as he said, "Do you know what this health talk means?"

"How dare you try to walk in here with a fake invitation?"

Well, the invitations were authentic.

However, with the Davis siblings messing around, even an authentic one would become a fake.

He was merely a man working for the Davis, and he didn't have the guts to offend them!

Follow current on storynovel.net

"What?!"

"A fake one?!"

"It's not an authentic one?"

"I told you so! We only got one each and that guy got four? How would that be possible?"

"Hahahahahaha!!!"

The crowd started laughing!

All of them were looking satisfied with what was happening.

They were all socialites and were all frightened by this useless bastard. All of them feel uncomfortable about it.

Especially when Oliver Walker tore the invitations. All of them felt defeated by it.

They thought that perhaps someone important had come all the way to Colorado.

This was why Oliver Walker didn't feel heartbroken when he tore the invitation!

However, it had to be noted that this bastard really knew how to act!

His acting skills were so realistic that his aura and actions were of someone extraordinary. That was how all of them got tricked!

Follow current on storynovel.net

This...

This was such a humiliation!

"Fake?"

When Emilia heard what the security guard said, she thought she heard it wrongly.

However, the laughter around her felt like lightning that struck her body.

Her body froze, and she almost fell to the ground. Her face turned pale.

If they had the invitations, they might still be able to get help from the godly doctor.

But without it, they wouldn't even be allowed to step inside!

"Emilia!"

Oliver quickly stepped forward and caught his wife as he tried to explain, "Don't listen to him..."

However, it was too much for Emilia to take in. The only thing that appeared before her eyes was the bastard who tried to take away the money used for their daughter's treatment.

In addition to what was happening today, her mind went blank, and she could no longer think.

"Let go of me!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

She pushed away the man in fury. Her lips were trembling as she asked, "Why?! Why did you lie to me?!"

"Tell me! Why?!"

"Olivia....Olivia is your....your daughter!"

"How....could you be so cruel?!"action

At this point, only a saint could remain calm. Humans like her would not be able to do so.

Emilia obviously wasn't a saint! She was only a woman—a mother who was trying to save her daughter!

After getting betrayed and lied to multiple times, she felt that everything was a lie!

There was no one that she could trust!

The Davis family was afraid that she might take over the entire company, so they used her father's crime against her. They even kicked her out of the company!

But, Ma'am Davis, her grandmother, never considered that if Emilia really wanted to take over the entire company for herself, would there be anyone who could stop her?

Even if she didn't have any shares left, she could still leave with the connections that she had and abandon the company. She could have ruined the Davis Corporates before leaving!

Her father, Isaac Davis, had also done this more than once. He took away all the money that her mother saved to feed the family so that he could gamble it away.

Then, there was Oliver Walker, who was coming up with all possible ways to take the money needed for their daughter's treatment.

How was it that everyone that she loved would turn against her?!

Chapter 76 Hopeless!

She no longer felt disappointed. She just felt hopeless!

"Mummy!"

Olivia Walker, who was in the wheelchair, started comforting her mother, "Please don't cry! I'm begging you! Please don't cry, mummy!"

"I don't want to get treated anymore! I don't want to see you this way!"

She suffered all these years and already had a heart that was much stronger than the children of her age.

She also had her own understanding of life and death.

Only her mother's tears would make her want to give up on her life.

"I..."

"Other than your grandma and you, what else do I still have left?"

Emilia hugged her daughter who was in the wheelchair as she questioned her husband.

"Oliver Walker, if you are still human, how could you still be so heartless after hearing what she said?!"

"She is your daughter! Your biological daughter!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"You..."

"How could you do such cruel things?!"

She wasn't afraid of anything now!

She managed to survive all those betrayals!

Even when she fell off the throne from being the Goddess of Colorado to a rubbish collector and later a waitress at the club, she never gave up!

A woman as strong as her would also have a deadly weakness deep inside her heart.

The only thing that could break her wasn't the pressure that was from the outside. It was her daughter whom she was trying to save!

Such words from his family caused Oliver's heart to break!

Were these people idiots?!

Why were there always people who wanted to challenge him?!

"That man is a monster!"

"The smart Emilia has been ruined by this man!"

"He even lied to his family! He really is a bastard!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

"..."

The socialites of Colorado who were unbothered were touched as well after hearing how Emilia questioned her husband in tears.

In the business world, was there anyone that they hadn't witnessed?

But now....they really felt that Emilia was indeed pitiful!

"The health talk is about to start in ten minutes!"

William Davis was smiling viciously as he said, "What are you waiting for?"

"Get rid of this rubbish. Don't let their tears stain the carpet!"

His eyes were locked on Oliver Walker.

This man wanted to fight him?

With what?

In this battle, he would be the only winner!

"Yes, Mr. Davis!"

The head security guard waved his hands and said, "Arrest Emilia and send her to the police station right away!"

Follow current on storynovel.net

The other men who received the instructions quickly walked toward Emilia!

Everyone else was merely watching the ridiculous show!

As for William Davis, he held his chin up and enjoyed his glory as the victor!

This was only the beginning. His mad revenge would only happen once the health talk was over!

He wanted Emilia to learn her lesson!

Allowing this useless bastard to insult him was the biggest mistake of her life!

Emilia held onto Olivia. She didn't struggle at all. Instead, she was only glaring at Oliver with her tear-filled eyes.

She might not have trusted this man, but she gave him a chance!

However, this man disappointed her!

She was the one who had high expectations of him. She should have listened to her mother. She shouldn't have been soft-hearted and allowed Oliver into the ward!

"Wouldn't it be nice to stay alive?"

At the same time, Oliver Walker, who was infuriated, knew that it was impossible to gain his wife's trust no matter what he said.

His aura then swept the entire place.

His deadly glare caused everyone to shudder—even the 10 bodyguards who were trying to arrest them felt frightened.

Chapter 77 The Fight!

"Why must you piss me off?"

"Whoever dares to touch my family today, I will break their bones into ashes!"

The invitation was a counterfeit?

How would that even be possible?!

Even if all the other invitations were counterfeits, the ones he had were definitely authentic!

His cold aura filled the entire room, and it caused the temperature inside the auditorium to fall below freezing point.

The chills sent shivers down their spine, and it caused them to shudder.

The guards were shocked!

The socialites were stunned as well!

Emilia and Olivia immediately stopped crying!

With the silence, it felt as if Oliver Walker was a totally different person!

He became domineering!

It felt like Aiden Wilson who was looking at them instead!

Follow current on storynovel.net

William Davis's lips twitched as he said, "Damn it! Why are you still standing there?"

"Get him!"

How could he allow this little bastard to act this way in front of him?

Did this man think that he was undefeatable just because he knew how to fight?

This was impossible!

Only money was the ruler of all!

"You're going to prison for making such a huge mess here!"

Liu Mongsheng had no other choice. If he didn't attack this man, he would be offending the richest man in Colorado. He clenched his jaw and screamed, "Let's go!"

If anything were to happen, William Davis would be the one that could save them.

Plus, the godly doctor was the one who would be holding the health talk today. Even if this man standing before them was powerful, could he be more powerful than the doctor from the International Medical Center?

"Let's go!"

Ten bodyguards raised their rubber batons as they rushed forward!

They had only one target, and it was Oliver Walker!

As for Emilia and Olivia, they were weaklings who couldn't fight, and they weren't their targets.

Follow current on storynovel.net

"Is he crazy?"

"He isn't only fighting the First Hospital, but Hendric Smith from the International Medical Center!"

"This man is finished!"

"..."

All of the socialites whispered amongst themselves!

How on earth was this man so gutsy?!

He might be able to leave Colorado and make a living somewhere else if he offended the Davis family!

But after offending the International Medical Center, which was one of the most prestigious foundations in the country, where else could they go?

The International Medical Center might not have the privilege to do so, but the people whom they were treating were enough to influence the entire country.

One word from these men was enough to change the whole country, and Colorado might get involved as well!

This was crazy!

This man must have gone mad!

However, this brat might not survive till then. He might not even be able to handle the bodyguards here!

'Boom—'

Follow current on storynovel.net

'Thud—'

'Boom—'

"Ahhh!!!"

Then, they were at a loss for words!

Oliver remained at the same spot, next to his wife and daughter. Although he did not move an inch, there were still painful cries that were heard and bodies thrown onto the ground with every move he made!

When William Davis saw what happened, he subconsciously took a few steps backward so that he was at a safe distance away from them.

Within 10 seconds, all of the bodyguards were lying on the ground.

Some were still wriggling on the floor, wailing in pain while others had already fallen unconscious.

The crowd turned quiet as they were frozen at their spot, unable to say a word.

None of them dared to say a single word, afraid that they might be the next target for this madman.

Oliver Walker still had his cold aura on but his eyes were filled with warmth as he looked at his wife, "Emilia, no one can stop us now!"

This was jagged tenderness!

No matter how powerful a man was, there was definitely a dangerous spot that others were forbidden from!

His wife and daughter were always going to be people whom he wanted to protect for the rest of his life!

Olivia Walker's eyes were filled with admiration. She was still a young girl who couldn't understand the drama between the adults.

She also couldn't completely understand what was happening as well.

Chapter 78 Their Only Choice!

The only thing she knew was that her father was the hero who protected her and her mother!

"But..."

Emilia gulped. Her daughter might not understand what was going on, but couldn't she?

If being violent would be able to solve the problem, why would humans still need brains?

Even if he managed to fight all of the security guards here, would they be able to fight everyone in this world?

"There is no time for that. You can only trust me now!"

Oliver smiled as he said, "If we don't go now, we will lose our only chance!"

"Don't you think so?"

He was well aware of what his wife had in mind.

He also knew that his wife would be willing to fight against the entire world for Olivia.

This was how great motherly love was!

"En!"

Emilia's hesitant eyes were replaced by a determined look!

Follow current on storynovel.net

Since...

They had no other choice left!

She could only follow the man beside her and move forward.

Even if the road ahead was hell, she was no longer afraid.

Oliver and Olivia Walker did not say anything, but even without any exchange of words, they only needed to look at each other to know what the other person was thinking.

This was the tacit understanding between a father and his daughter!

As the family walked into the auditorium, the temperature at the auditorium slowly rose!

The man responsible for the security guards finally let out a breath of relief. Just now...

That man was no different from a death god!

"Rubbish!"

"All of you are useless rubbish!"

William Davis, who was infuriated, screamed at the top of his lungs, "Why the f**k are you still standing here?!"

"How dare you allow that bastard inside to disturb the godly doctor? Can you bear the responsibility of it?!"

At the same time, all of the other socialites started pointing fingers at him.

Follow current on storynovel.net

"I think you're asking for it!"

"You couldn't even do such a simple job? Is this how you are as a watchdog?"

"Get someone here and throw him out!"

"..."

It was a rare opportunity for all of them to be invited to such a prestigious health talk. How would they allow it to be ruined?

If it was before, Oliver's family had only offended the Davis family!

After that incident, he was now the enemy of all the socialites of Colorado!

However, none of them dared to challenge the death god and could only blame it on the security guards.

With such a large crowd blaming him, the man felt devastated! He felt lost!

All of his men were wounded on the ground, but he got lucky. Otherwise, his injuries could have been worse.

He had no other choice but to bow apologetically, "Yes, yes....I'll....call the police now..."

What else could he do?

There wasn't a single person here whom he could afford to offend!

All of them here were VIPs!

Follow current on storynovel.net

He could only divert the attention to the man who started all these.

Just when the head of the security guards pulled out his phone, a man entered the crowd.

"Mr. Williams! You're here!"

"That's great!"

"I know!"

"..."

In a blink of an eye, all of the socialites gathered around him.

Leon Williams was the richest tycoon in Colorado, and he also represented all of the socialites in Colorado!

He was also the main sponsor of the hospital, and due to his generous donation, he had been given the title 'Director of the First Hospital'.

The rest of the crowd found their savior as they obviously wouldn't let this go.

When Leon Williams saw the mess, he frowned as he asked, "What happened?"

It was his men who arranged the security guards for the event today.

The health talk was about to start, but all the guests were still standing outside along with security guards who were wailing on the ground.

Who was it that dared to cause such a scene at the First Hospital?

Plus, why did they do it before the health talk was about to begin?

This person must have been tired of living on earth!

The head of security quickly answered, "It's....it's the bastard whom Emilia picked up from the streets. They wanted to go in with fake invitations in order to get the wild child treated!"

After hearing what happened, Leon William's face turned solemn as his body trembled...

Chapter 79 What Meets The Eyes May Not Be True

"That's right, Mr. Williams. They're disgusting!"

"What did he take us for?"

"Did he really think it's that easy to be one of us?"

"..."

Most of the socialites of Colorado quickly chimed in. They were mad, after all, because of how Oliver Walker managed to fool them all. He got them thinking that he was someone extraordinary, and they didn't feel happy about it.

Leon Williams clenched his fist tightly as his body trembled.

What should he do now?

If Oliver Walker found out that he was the one who arranged these men, would Oliver Walker be mad at him?

The way that Leon Williams clenched his fist got the others to misinterpret it as him being angry!

Leon Williams should be angry!

Although the First Hospital was a public hospital, Leon Williams was also the one who donated a generous amount of money to the hospital.

It might not be one of his properties, but it was still related to him.

But now, he was being provoked by Oliver Walker. The other socialites couldn't stand it themselves, so how could this tycoon allow Oliver Walker to act as he pleased?

William Davis did not say much. Leon Williams might be the richest man in Colorado, but the Davis family also had the same status as him.

Plus, among those who were really wealthy, most of them would look down on people like Leon Williams who built their fortunes with their own abilities.

The arrogance from being born into a wealthy family allowed them to think that these rising families didn't have a good family history.

They weren't considered wealthy if the fortune had not been inherited by at least three generations.

"Mr. Williams, Oliver Walker is horrible! He wasn't even afraid of you! He's horrible!"

In order to put the blame onto someone else, he quickly added, "But...that man was too powerful, and we were no match for him!"

However, before he could finish his sentence, Leon Williams, who recovered from his shock, had droplets of sweat on his forehead.

He glared at the man as he shouted, "You useless f**k!"

His rage shocked the rest of them!

The commotion around immediately disappeared!

'Boom—'

Before Liu Mongsheng could react, there was a punch that landed on his face. He lost several teeth as he screamed with his mouth full of blood, "AHHHHHHH!"

He took a few steps backward before steadying himself. He didn't dare say much and could only lower his head. He tried to speak, "Please rest assured. I...will make sure to get him out of there as soon as possible! I will not embarrass you!"

He could only assume that Leon Williams had punched him for his incompetence.

Leon Williams must have felt embarrassed.

However, this was the truth as well. They were highly trained security guards, and they were paid luxuriously, but they were all thrown to the ground by a useless dog.

Even if their boss weren't angry at them, they were embarrassed by themselves as well.

"Are you an idiot?!"

Leon Williams screamed in rage, "Get out!"

"Get away from me as far as possible. Don't let me see you ever again here in Colorado!"

Leon Williams panicked, and his legs were shaking. He was only thinking of how to calm down Oliver Walker. Why would he have time to care about the feelings of others?

The only thing that he could think of now was how he had offended someone he shouldn't. A man whom he could not afford to do so!

Liu Mongsheng turned pale as he said, "Mr. Williams....I..."

His home was in Colorado. He had to move out of the state?

However, he was well aware of how cruel Leon Williams could be. If Leon Williams wanted to get rid of him, it would be extremely easy.

He could only beg for mercy.

"Leave!"

Leon Williams screamed once again and then kicked Liu Mongsheng till he fell onto the ground!

Even so, Leon Williams still felt pissed. The actions of this man could have ruined his future. If Oliver Walker wanted to be serious about this, Leon Williams might not be able to see the sun tomorrow morning.

Before he could say anything else, he quickly ran into the auditorium.

As for the other socialites present?

He didn't care!action

His life was at stake!

"This....."

"Mr. Williams is usually a mild-tempered man!"

Chapter 80 Deal With The Main Issue!

"I've never seen him so mad!"

"..."

Everyone present was stunned.

They were all from the same state, so they knew each other's temperament well.

Then...

Why was Leon Williams so angry that he chased this man out of the state?

This was something that the crowd couldn't understand!

William Davis scoffed as he said, "This rubbish was the one who allowed Emilia inside. Why wouldn't he be mad?"

After hearing what he said, all of them felt that he was right.

Who wouldn't be?

"It's about to start. Let's head inside!"

William Davis then walked into the auditorium.

As for the men who might be dead on the ground, how was it any of his business?

However, he forgot that if it weren't for him, why would these men end up in such a state?

None of them would have been badly beaten!

But....if William Davis was someone who had morals, he wouldn't have been so mean to Emilia.

The end of a commotion would also be followed by a tragedy.

Especially for Liu Mongsheng. None of them even mentioned his name, and none of these socialites would even remember him after tonight. He would have been completely forgotten.

Therefore, those who were pitiful must have done something for others to hate them. They deserved it.

As for the rest, the medical staff quickly admitted them into the hospital.

No matter what happened, they still worked for the hospital.

The auditorium wasn't huge, but it was filled with people.

If it was an ordinary event, not everyone would attend.

However, this was a health talk held by the godly doctor. All of them wanted to be called on stage so that Hendric Smith would be able to evaluate their health.

As for what had just happened outside, Emilia was still feeling nervous.

Especially how Oliver Walker pulled her to the front seat. This was originally their spot.

But....this was also the best seat in the room. Leon Williams and William Davis were forced to sit by the side, away from the spotlight.

Leon Williams, who was still panicking, obviously had no opinion about it.

As for William Davis, he was incredibly mad!

For all the events that happened in Colorado, was there ever a time when the Davis family didn't get the best seats?

But now...

If he didn't need something from the talk, he would have left.

He could have kept it inside if it was anyone else who sat in those seats.action

However, it was Emilia's family who was sitting in his seat! Wasn't this a huge slap to his face?

The entire auditorium felt tense.

Other than Oliver and Olivia Walker, Emilia, Leon Williams, William Davis and the rest of the audience in the room had racing minds.

Oliver Walker only felt that no matter where they went, his family deserved to have the best seat.

This was unquestionable!

As for Olivia, she had no idea what was happening, but she trusted her father, so she didn't feel scared.

Then, the director of the hospital, James Floss, got on stage looking refreshed. He smiled as he announced, "Mr. Hendric Smith had to settle a few things first before attending the event, so we will have to delay it for at least half an hour."

He was feeling confident as he was the one who organized the health talk. This was enough to secure him a bright future.

As for those in the audience seat, why wouldn't they wait?

Why would they make it difficult for themselves?

This was exactly what happened as well. None of them complained, and there were even some that started flattering Hendric Smith.

Hendric Smith was their honorable guest!

Forget about waiting for half an hour. If Hendric Smith wanted them to wait for an entire day, they still wouldn't complain.

William Davis, who had been bottling up his emotions, suddenly found his chance after hearing the announcement. Then, he raised his voice, "Since Mr. Smith might be late and the event will be delayed, let's settle this issue here first before it starts!"

His cold eyes were locked onto Emilia the entire time while he spoke...
