Chapter 731 The Ingrate!

“How can he be so shameless!”

Luna Thomas was so angry that she wanted to smash her phone. She actually said that she had taken the initiative to hand over control of the Thomas Corporation?

Was this a joke?

However, she clearly understood that she had to fight for control of the group now. Otherwise, there was really no possibility of her father coming back.

“Don’t be anxious! He won’t succeed!” Oliver Walker comforted.

Thomas Corporation was not small at all. A sudden change, especially the change in the actual person in charge, was not a trivial matter. Therefore, even if Oliver Walker did not make a move, the officials of Ocean City would not let it happen so easily.

Even if something happened to Mark Thomas, Luna Thomas was still the only legal heir. Since when was it his younger brother’s turn?

This was human normal and it was even more so for wealthy families.

For the sake of benefits, they could do anything, even turning father and son against each other. Besides, Luna Thomas and Richard Thomas were far apart.

Just like how his wife’s company was worth a little more in the past? The Davis was only worth a few millions back then.

As for Thomas Corporation? A conservative estimate was at least a hundred billion!

It was one of the top companies in the country and the competition would only be more brutal.

When the car stopped, Luna Thomas rushed into the company immediately.

“Miss!”

“Miss, good morning!”

“...”

As Richard Thomas had not had the time to arrange the internal affairs of the group, most people did not know what had happened.

Luna Thomas was still the eldest daughter of Thomas Corporation!

There was only one reason for her to be so anxious. Her father was in trouble. Who wouldn't be anxious?

It was also because of this that Luna Thomas and Oliver Walker were able to rush straight to the conference room without any obstructions.

At the same time, Richard Thomas, who still did not know that Luna Thomas had arrived, was still speaking confidently. “Big Brother, you've been very good to me. You've taken care of me in every way since I was young. Now that something has happened to him, I...”

It had to be said that Richard Thomas's acting skills had reached the level of the best actor. Those cries made everyone present clearly feel the deep friendship between brothers, and they were so moved that they burst into tears.

“Richard Thomas, how dare you!”

“What?” Suddenly, an angry voice rang out in the meeting room. “My dad has been nothing but kind to you and this is how you treat me?! When did I agree to hand over the control of the corporation to you? You actually dare to send people to put me under house arrest!”

“You... Why are you still crying crocodile tears?”

How infuriating! How hateful! How pathetic!

The words that were delivered head-on caused the large conference room that was filled with grief to instantly become noisy!

“What?”

“House arrest?”

“Miss, what’s going on?”

“...”

In an instant, everyone was confused!

Between Luna Thomas and Richard Thomas, who was telling the truth?

Who was lying?

There was no need to think too much about this topic. It was just that it happened so suddenly that no one had time to react. The sudden noise also caused the large conference room to become chaotic!

At the same time, Richard Thomas, who was standing on the podium, was in shock.

Just as they were about to stabilize the situation within the group, Luna Thomas, who was under house arrest, suddenly appeared.

Justin Thomas, that bastard, what did he do? Didn't he tell him to keep an eye on Luna Thomas?

Chapter 732 Counterattack

He was really annoyed!

"Mr. Thomas, you must give us an explanation for this matter!"

"Do you have any prove that the chairman passed the authority to you?"

"And how do you prove that Miss Luna Thomas has given up her management rights?"

"..."

Soon, the people from the chairman's faction voiced their doubts.

This matter was very strange to begin with!

However, they didn't think too much about it at the time, but now that Luna Thomas had appeared, the situation was not right.

As the younger brother of the chairman, Richard Thomas had always been the general manager of Thomas Corporations, so there was definitely a suspicion that he was plotting for power.

All the Thomas employees present panicked. If they couldn't appease the chairman's faction, then it would be troublesome.

After all, Thomas Corporations was huge. These people held the power of various subsidiary companies or high-level departments. Once they asked for an explanation, they would not even obey the management.

Then, the Thomas Corporations would really be on the verge of destruction.

Get rid of them all?

Each of them had confidential secrets of the company and with hundreds of people working under them. Once they were fired, the Thomas Corporations would collapse along with them.

“Everyone, please be quiet!”

“Quiet down!”

Richard Thomas, who was standing on the podium, naturally understood the importance of these people. They were also his trusted aides and could not be replaced for the time being, so he had to suppress the scene.

Soon, the furious crowd below the stage quieted down.

If Richard Thomas really used despicable means to seize power, they would definitely turn around and leave. Then, they would help Miss Luna Thomas fight against the general manager’s faction to the end.

This was to repay Chairman Mark Thomas for his kindness to them!

“Luna, I’m your second uncle!”

Richard Thomas looked sorrowful. “I’m doing this for the good of the corporation, but... But why are you trying to hurt me?”

Not only Luna Thomas, but even Oliver Walker didn't expect Richard Thomas to bite back and pretend to be the victim. It could only be said that he had brought his shamelessness to the extreme!

"Everyone here, think about it carefully."

"Miss Luna Thomas said that she was under house arrest. Then why is she still here?"

Richard Thomas's thinking ability was very strong, far from being comparable to the rich people in a small place like Colorado.

After all, there were hundreds of thousands of employees in the Thomas Corporations. If he didn't have some tricks up his sleeve, he wouldn't be able to gain a firm foothold in the position of general manager.

"Yes, I am!"

"Miss Luna Thomas, you can't accuse the general manager!"

"He's your second uncle. Why would he harm you?"

"There must be a misunderstanding!"

"..."

Soon, the people from Richard Thomas's faction had an effect on the people. These words also gave them a reason to counterattack!

"I escaped with the help of a friend."

Luna Thomas was not afraid at all. She walked up to the podium. "He helped me escape from your control!"

Oliver Walker was right beside her, so at this moment, she did not feel like she was fighting alone. Especially since there were many people present who supported her father.

It also gave her a lot of confidence!

“Luna, don’t you think that’s ridiculous?”

When Richard Thomas’s eyes stopped on Oliver Walker, there was a flash of viciousness, but it was only for a moment. Then, he said, “Thomas Corporation is a first-class company in the country. Aren’t you aware of how strict our security is? There are thousands of bodyguards in the villa area alone. There are thousands of bodyguards outside. They are equipped with the most advanced security system and 360-degree surveillance.

“No matter how powerful he is, he can defeat ten or a hundred people by himself!

“Can he defeat thousands of people? Plus, all of them are highly trained people. If I really put you under house arrest, I’d like to ask him what how you helped you escape!”

It had to be said that Richard Thomas’s words made sense. It was also enough to make most of the neutral people more convinced.

They saw the man beside Luna Thomas. He was just a gigolo. There was nothing special about him.

As everyone knew, the security level of Thomas Corporation’s villa was no less than that of the military compound!

Chapter 733 Responsibilities Comes First

From the current debate alone, the situation was very unfavorable for Luna Thomas.

After all...

What Richard Thomas said was more in line with the understanding of normal people.

In their eyes, Thomas Corporation's villa was a sacred place that could not be offended. No matter who it was, they would not be able to walk in and out as they pleased.

"He was a soldier who killed enemies at the front line in the state of Indiana! Mr. Walker's strength is not something you can doubt," Luna Thomas said anxiously.

Thinking about how Oliver Walker was despised because of her, she felt even more guilty. Therefore, she desperately wanted to explain and prove Oliver Walker's strength.

"Luna, you just returned to the country. You don't even know what's going on at home. To tell you the truth," said Richard Thomas shamelessly, "most of the bodyguards hired by Thomas Company are retired veterans. It's to fulfill my social responsibility."

"All of them were retired veterans. Do you think your reasoning is still valid?"

Most of the bodyguards hired by Thomas Company were indeed retired veterans, and their original intention was to reduce the pressure on society. However, this was a strategy proposed by Mark Thomas and had nothing to do with him.

"You..."

Luna Thomas was silent!

Oliver Walker did not say anything because Richard Thomas's logic was flawless. It could be seen that he had made sufficient preparations to seize power.

Luna Thomas would only lose her poise and the connections her father had left behind if she argued too much now.

"Luna, I'm your second uncle! Blood is thicker than water!"

" You..." Richard Thomas clutched his chest in grief. "You hurt me like this. It really breaks my heart."

Luna Thomas gritted her teeth, but there was nothing she could do. No one believed that Oliver Walker was strong enough to save her from Thomas Corporation's villa.

"The reason you did this is because you're afraid of me and want to usurp the throne. I understand."

Richard Thomas continued to put in all his effort in his performance. He displayed his superb acting skills to the fullest.

"But my big brother took good care of me. Why would I rebel? If you want control over the corporation, I'll give it to you! As long as you say the word, I can give you all the shares in my hands to resolve the internal conflicts in Thomas Corporation."

After refuting Luna Thomas, Richard Thomas started to play with the empathy card again.

Luna Thomas was so angry that her eyes turned red. Even Oliver Walker couldn't find any reason to refute her. However, they all knew that once they really asked for control, they would fall into Richard Thomas's next trap.

It had to be said that this kind of scheming was truly terrifying.

The meeting room was silent.

Even the chairman's faction, who was originally on Luna Thomas's side, couldn't find any reason to ask Richard Thomas for an explanation.

How terrifying was this?

"But now, Thomas Corporation is facing internal and external problems. I can't sit idly by! I'm the general manager of the corporation but you just came back from abroad. You don't know much about the company and the group!"

“If I hand over control to you now, how can I face my big brother? Wouldn’t I become an ordinary man who shirked his responsibilities and become a sinner of Thomas Corporation’s decline?”

“Eldest niece, I... I can’t allow that to happen!”

The situation had been completely reversed!

Even the people in the chairman’s faction couldn’t find any loopholes even though they knew that this matter wasn’t that simple.

Now, there were only two possibilities!

The first was that Luna Thomas didn’t trust Richard Thomas, so she really framed him. Richard Thomas was a responsible man who valued relationships.

The other.... Richard Thomas had disguised himself too well, to the point where he was impeccable.

“I know that my big brother is kidnapped and you’re worried. I am deeply saddened too, and I can understand your feelings. So no matter how you treat me, I will forgive you! But Thomas Corporation is now at a critical juncture of life and death!”

Chapter 734 Richard 1 : Luna 0

“The Holy Light Group has launched a frenzied siege on us in various fields. I hope you can understand my difficulties. We can’t afford to be in a mess internally too!

“Eldest niece, for the sake of Thomas Corporation’s century-old foundation, I’ll kneel before you, okay?”

As soon as he was done....

With a thud, Richard Thomas actually knelt in front of Luna Thomas, disregarding his status as an elder.

This was a fatal blow... Everyone in the meeting room stood up!

Respect!

Perhaps they really misunderstood Richard Thomas. How could such a righteous person do such a crazy thing to seize power?

Luna Thomas looked at Richard Thomas who was kneeling in front of her. She was stunned and couldn't react at all. It seemed like Richard Thomas had lost face, but in fact, this kneeling had pushed her into the abyss.

It also pushed Richard Thomas to the peak of his reputation!

What kind of terrifying method was this?

"Let's go!"

Oliver Walker knew very well that he should not stay here for long.

He was not familiar with Richard Thomas, but at least from the first round of confrontation, he could see that the middle-aged man in front of him was unscrupulous.

Moreover, this time, he and Luna Thomas had rushed into battle and fallen into a carefully prepared trap. It was reasonable.

Fists could naturally solve the problem but it would also turn people's hearts cold.

The Thomas Corporations had hundreds of thousands of employees. This was not a problem that could be solved with fists. The strongest cohesion was still the human heart.

Once he made a move, Richard Thomas would not resist and thus gain greater prestige. Outsiders would only think that Luna Thomas was forced into a corner because she lacked reason and would only fall into an even more passive situation.

“Fine!”

Luna Thomas gritted her teeth, her eyes filled with anger.

She was not stupid! She knew that she had to leave. The longer she stayed, the more she would be in the wrong. She also did not know what kind of underhanded tricks Richard Thomas was hiding behind.

“Luna, listen to Second Uncle and go home to rest. Even if Big Brother doesn’t come back, you’re still the future heir of the Thomas Corporation.”

The sanctimonious Richard Thomas had a face full of sincerity. Coupled with his square face, he looked like an honest person to everyone.

In addition to his flawless acting skills...

It had to be said that this battle for power had been pushed to another level.

Everyone watched Luna Thomas and Oliver Walker leave. Some were happy, while others sighed.

Those who were happy were naturally from the general manager’s faction. The general manager’s promotion meant that they would have more opportunities and great benefits.

The people who sighed were naturally in support of Luna Thomas, the chairman’s faction.

They knew that something was wrong, but they had no choice. Especially Richard Thomas, who was a famous figure in the business world of Ocean City. He had been scheming all his life.

How could two young people be his match?

“Mr. Walker, what should I do now?”

Luna Thomas’s aggrieved tears were about to fall. What kind of person had she become under Richard Thomas’s wonderful performance?

A vicious woman who forced her elders to kneel for power and did not care about her father’s life. On the contrary, the evil Richard Thomas became the victim. Who could accept this?!

“Wait!”

Oliver Walker was very calm and only said one word. Richard Thomas was indeed very cunning, but no matter how cunning a fox was, it was impossible to hide from the wisdom of a hunter.

“What?!”

Luna Thomas, who was impetuous and had no idea whether her father was dead or alive, completely collapsed.

“Sob... I’m so useless...”

Chapter 735 What Else Can She Do?

Helpless! Really helpless!

Her entire body was emitting a sense of powerlessness!

All Luna Thomas could do was blame herself for her incompetence.

Were they really going to hand over their father’s corporation to someone else just like that?

This is not what she wanted to see!

“What are you afraid of? We’ll deal with whatever comes our way,” Oliver Walker said calmly.

“Just because we didn’t do anything to him doesn’t mean that we can’t do anything about it. Instead, we have to choose the best solution. If we can make him tell the truth himself, the image he has built will naturally collapse!”

In fact, in his eyes, Richard Thomas was not a dangerous person at all. He was just an ant that could be easily crushed.

The temporary retreat was entirely for Luna Thomas to better take over the entire Thomas Corporation.

If he were to take action forcefully, there could only be one outcome. Richard Thomas would definitely die, and the group that Luna Thomas took over would also be riddled with holes and devastated. This was not what he wanted to see.

“But Richard Thomas is so cunning, he... How could he admit it himself?” Luna Thomas panicked.

To be honest, if it wasn’t for her father’s safety, she wouldn’t have been able to persist in such a desperate situation.

However, if she backed down now, not only would she lose her family property, but also her father’s life. Her mother passed away when she was young, and her father did not remarry for her.

When he found out that she had become depressed because she did not have a mother and was unwilling to talk to people that she knew, he even sent her abroad to an unfamiliar environment.

He wanted her to start her life anew and slowly accept the new world. She would always remember such a strong fatherly love in her heart.

At this moment, there was even more reason to not give up.

Oliver Walker was probably just comforting her.

All she felt was despair that seemed endless!

“Leave this matter to me! Don’t go home until the matter is resolved,” Oliver Walker said calmly.

Although he could guarantee Luna Thomas’s safety, he couldn’t stay by her side all the time. Moreover, he still had to keep his distance with her as they were both of different genders. Once he moved into Luna Thomas’s villa, rumors would inevitably spread.

Even if his wife might not believe him, he still had to try his best to avoid it.

“Yes!”

Luna Thomas took a deep breath. She had no choice but to listen to Oliver Walker’s arrangements. Therefore, she stayed in the presidential suite of the Jinling Hotel.

This place was relatively safer. At least no one could break in.

At the same time, at the Ocean City Hospital!

Justin Thomas, who had been treated, had also woken up. He drove to Thomas Corporation with the information he had just heard.

At the same time, after the group meeting ended, although it was a close call, Richard Thomas was still furious.

“Didn’t I tell you to look after her? Why did you let her escape? If it wasn’t for my quick reaction, I’m afraid I would be in a different state now.”

Richard Thomas was furious. The Thomas Corporation villa was heavily guarded, and they had even checked the surveillance cameras after the incident, but they had no idea how Oliver Walker had gone into the Thomas Corporation villa complex and rescued Luna Thomas.

This was still quite terrifying.

“Godfather, I was almost beaten to death too! According to the current investigation, I think there’s a lot of potential!” Justin Thomas said sullenly.

“We can completely send Luna Thomas to the depths of hell and never rise again.”

In order to investigate this information, he had spent a lot of effort and thought of an excellent method.

“Hmm? Tell me about it!” There was doubt in Richard Thomas ‘eyes.

Justin Thomas had always been the number one person in the think tank, which was why he had adopted him.

Therefore, he trusted him quite a bit.

“That person’s name is Oliver Walker. He checked into the villa area in advance. Moreover, there’s an affair between them!”

Chapter 736 The ‘Dirty’ Plan

Justin Thomas’s eyes flashed with a vicious glint. “As long as we get the evidence, we can definitely nail Luna Thomas to the pillar of shame and never get off.”

Since he couldn’t get her, he would destroy her! She must not let another man have it!

“What are you talking about? Luna Thomas is of age to get married,” Richard Thomas said with a frown. “Even if she has a boyfriend, what can she do?”

He had long known that the relationship between Luna Thomas and Oliver Walker was definitely not as simple as it seemed.

But... What could this prove?

So what if they had captured the scene of the two of them getting a room?

It was human nature for men and women to love each other!

“But what if that man is already married?”

Justin Thomas added, “He’s the live-in son-in-law of the Davis family from Colorado. His wife is the number one goddess there. Here’s all his information.”

When he took out his phone, Richard Thomas took it as if he had found a treasure. Then, he carefully checked Oliver Walker’s personal information.

It recorded Emilia’s experience and everything that happened after Oliver Walker’s return. This was not a secret to begin with, and it was even known by everyone in the state of Colorado. With the strength of the Thomas Company of the Ocean City, it was naturally a piece of cake to find this information.

After a long time, Richard Thomas laughed out loud.

“The heavens are really helping me. The heavens are really looking after me! We’ll do as you say. Remember, you have to be fast and ruthless! We have to ruin her at all costs!”

Once this matter was exposed, Luna Thomas’s private life wouldn’t be able to be solved just by keeping Oliver Walker as a mistress.

It was a moral corruption!

The thought of Thomas Corporation's Miss appearing in all the newspapers overnight with such a scandal made him feel delighted.

When the time came...

Even if the shareholders wanted to support Luna Thomas, they wouldn't have the courage, right?

"Yes, sir!"

Justin Thomas's eyes lit up.

Luna Thomas and Oliver Walker might not know that the Jinling Hotel was also a company under Thomas Corporation. It was simply too easy to make an issue out of it.

"How's the investigation going?"

In the Jinling Hotel, Oliver Walker asked. Thomas Corporation's family had changed because the family head had gone missing.

Therefore, he had two options now. One was to find the kidnapped family head, Mark Thomas. All the problems could be solved easily. The second was to monitor Richard Thomas's communication equipment!

This was not difficult for him!

"Sean Martin is too cunning!"

George Lee frowned. "So far, there are still no clues."

“We investigated the background of the Holy Light Group, but there was nothing. There was no evidence to point out that they had dealings with the Blood Evil Mercenary Group. Also, I’ve ordered Silver Fox to attack the surveillance equipment in Richard Thomas’s office. However, there are also experts on the other side. They are still working on it.

Silver Wolf was a top-notch hacker. Due to how he worked for the Internet Surveillance Bureau, he was not very famous in the hacker world. However, in terms of strength, he rarely met a match.

Otherwise, he would not have been hired by the Internet Surveillance Bureau and held an important position.

“Okay then....” Oliver Walker nodded. “How long has it been since we encountered such a difficult opponent?”

A secret battle and a battle on the battlefield were two completely different things.

After all, intelligence was more important. The enemy was also in the dark. It was indeed like finding a needle in a haystack to find them one by one.

However, it was precisely because of this that the game became even more interesting.

“It’s been a long time, hasn’t it?”

George Lee frowned. “This is completely different from fighting in a platoon. Our brothers don’t have enough experience in this area. I’m worried...”

Chapter 737 Spy Warfare

George Lee’s worries were not without reason!

If they were to fight head-on, even if there were tens of millions of Blood Fiend Mercenary Groups, they would not be able to wipe them out. But the key was that this kind of spy warfare was really not the type they were good at.

Faced with Sean Martin, who was hiding, he only felt that he had the strength but could not fight at all. One could imagine how aggrieved he felt.

“Yes! Then let’s learn how to win this battle. No one is born to be a king,” Oliver Walker said. “Only by going through trials and tribulations can one forge an elite army that has gone through hundreds of battles. We are the country’s last line of defense. We can’t have any shortcomings!”

The last line of defense? This really wasn’t an exaggeration!

Now that the border was stable, it really shouldn’t be so miserable to be messed up by a small mercenary group!

“Yes, sir!”

George Lee quickly replied, “Mike and Aiden have been learning from our strengths. With their experience and our strength, I believe that no matter how cunning Sean Martin is, he will definitely be caught.”

“Of course!” Oliver Walker nodded.

From this, it could be seen how wise his decision to accept Mike and Aiden was.

Firstly, they were no longer harmful to society. Secondly, they were soldiers. Even if they knew how to use ruthless methods, they were still a little inferior to the truly deranged mercenaries. After all, they were not mercenaries. Many times, they subconsciously thought that mercenaries would not do that.

However, sometimes, mercenaries would take risks and resort to unscrupulous means. There were three ways to solve the current predicament.

Whether it was finding the kidnapped Mark Thomas, obtaining evidence of the Holy Light Group and the Blood Fiend Mercenary Group, or breaking into the network system of the Thomas Corporations.

Oliver Walker could help Luna Thomas solve the problem once and for all. He believed in his brother, so the big thing in Luna Thomas's heart was really nothing in his eyes.

"Ding, ding, ding..."

At this moment, his phone rang.

Oliver Walker pressed the answer button and saw the uneasy look on Emilia's face. He smiled. "Honey, did you miss me?"

Their relationship was rapidly evolving. They were slowly becoming a normal couple.

If it wasn't for the appearance of the damned Blood Fiend Mercenary Group, causing him to run around, they would have already become even closer.

"Cut it out, let's get down to business! How's the situation in Ocean City?" Emilia was anxious.

"Why isn't Luna Thomas replying to my messages? Why can't I get through to her?"

Their relationship had always been good.

If Luna Thomas hadn't informed her beforehand, she might have already brought her company into the chaotic Ocean City.

And once they entered, with the scale of Heavenly Doctor Davis, they would not be able to withstand the power of the battle between the Holy Light Group and the Thomas Corporations.

Even bankruptcy was possible.

It could only mean that Luna Thomas had saved Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals' life at the critical moment.

Now that something had happened, how could they not pay attention?

"She's not in a good mood!"

Oliver Walker gave a simple introduction. "There's no news of her father. There's also a power struggle within the company. She's in a very dangerous situation now."

Actually, it was not an exaggeration to say so. If he hadn't been there in the morning, Luna Thomas would have been defiled by Justin Thomas. However, when he thought of the scene in the bathroom last night, he actually felt uneasy and guilty when he faced his wife.

He really did not do it on purpose. His actions were fundamentally different from Justin Thomas.

That was indeed a coincidence!

"Alright then. She tried us with sincerity. We can't leave her when she's in trouble. I know you're capable. You must have a way to help her."

Neither she nor Oliver Walker were ungrateful villains. Perhaps Luna Thomas didn't do anything practical for them, but they should at least remember that friendship.

"Don't worry! I've already taken her out of the villa. I'll ensure her safety before things come to an end."

Chapter 738 Don't Do Anything That You're not Supposed to

"I'm relieved." Emilia nodded. "But you better don't do anything that crosses the line. Otherwise, I won't let you off! Humph!"

Jealous? Actually, it wasn't. It was just a joke.

She knew her husband's character. He would never do such a thing.

On the other hand, Oliver Walker's face froze, and he felt inexplicably guilty.

"What are you waiting for? Hurry up and kiss me. Your wife is about to get off work!"

Emilia's coquettish voice carried a hint of temptation. She might be the rumored ice beauty of the outside world. However, she had long let down all her defenses against Oliver Walker. In front of him, she only wanted to be a little woman who was loved, cared for, and spoiled!

"It's so embarrassing. Why didn't you say anything at home?"

Oliver Walker's face was full of grievance. His wife was clearly seducing him. This...

In fact, when he was at home, Emilia often expressed her love, but she couldn't do it face to face. In addition, they had lived together for so long that they had long integrated into each other's lives. They were indeed not used to being separated for the first time, and it also made their longing surge like a river.

"Bah... I'm not going to talk to you anymore. I'm going back to see Olivia!" Emilia stuck her tongue out playfully.

"I'm hanging up!"

When the video call ended, Oliver Walker smiled bitterly. He was really wronged, but it was definitely a good thing for the relationship between husband and wife to quickly improve. Even now, he couldn't wait to solve the problem and fly home.

He wanted to see if Emilia still dared to tease him so boldly.

At the same time, in the hotel office!

“Justin Thomas, why didn’t you tell me you were coming?”

A woman with good looks was wearing a black silk business suit and high heels, exuding charm in every aspect.

Her name was Sandy Lynn, and she was the manager of Jinling Hotel. She had a lot of power. The kitchen, the front desk, and the guest room department were all under her control.

She was a top student in hotel management. Of course, it was impossible for her to climb to such a height just by relying on her results. Appearance and figure were the most important points. She was also good at using her own advantages and knew how to curry favor with the powerful. Especially Justin Thomas, who is now the most popular person in Thomas Corporation. Naturally, she could not let him go.

“Heh... You’re tactful!”

Justin Thomas didn’t even bother putting up an act. He pinched Sandy Lynn’s thigh, and a mocking smile appeared on his face. He hadn’t even vented his anger in the morning when he met someone who had delivered himself to his door. Although it couldn’t compare to Luna Thomas, this woman was still a hot stuff.

“Hmph, you’re so annoying!” Sandy Lynn pouted.

“This is the office. Are you going to...”

Her words stopped here. It could be said that Sandy Lynn’s sentence was just right, enough to make all men’s imaginations run wild.

“I’m here for something else.”

Justin Thomas took out a bottle from his pocket with a smile. "Add this to the dishes of the guests in the presidential suite," he said with a smile.

"I will satisfy everything you want!"

However, Sandy Lynn instantly became alert.

Although the water in the bottle was transparent, it definitely wasn't something that was simple.

Then, she smiled and declined, "Justin, this.... If anything happens to the guest, will I still have the chance to get what I have now?"

She was not stupid! What if it was poison?

If the two people inside were all dead, wouldn't she be in trouble?

She did not dare to take this risk...

Chapter739 Do You Want To Try It?

"This is the best knockout powder. It won't cause any side effects to the body but..."

Seeing Sandy Lynn's worry, Justin Thomas started to explain. However, there was a lewd smile on his face. "After taking this, you'll be the happiest woman alive. How about it? Do you want to try?"

This potion was indeed overbearing! It was colorless and tasteless, but those who had eaten it would become abnormally excited and then faint from exhaustion...

Even a chaste woman would become a slut uncontrollably!

The most important thing was that there was no effect on the body after the incident, and it could not be detected. However, the price of such a vial of medicine cost as high as millions. Moreover, it was no longer circulating in the market and only existed within the circle of wealthy businessmen.

As for why this drug was developed, it was self-evident, right? After all, the poor could not afford it! Coincidentally, it came in handy now.

F*ck!

However, when he thought about how Luna Thomas, whom he had liked for years, was about to be defiled by that pretty boy, he felt unbalanced. However, if he could not bear to do so, it would ruin his plans.

His heart was filled with envy and resentment. It was extremely complicated.

“Alright then!”

Sandy Lynn finally made her decision. If this was the case, then there was no reason for her not to agree. After all, if she didn't do it, she would definitely be fired. With Justin Thomas's magnanimity, he might even ban her in the hotel industry.

So...Sh could only nod and accept the potion!

“Go! Remember to wait for me after work!”

Justin Thomas didn't forget to touch Sandy Lynn's waist. Although he couldn't wait any longer, he still had important matters to attend to.

Beating him up? There was a price to pay!

He wanted Oliver Walker to be kicked out of Davis and lose his foothold. He also wanted the ungrateful Luna Thomas to become his plaything from now on.

It was eight o'clock in the evening, after nightfall!

Ding dong...

The doorbell of the presidential suite rang. Oliver Walker walked out of the living room and opened the door.

"Hello, sir! I am the manager of Jinling Hotel. I have brought you your meal for tonight."

The presidential suite wasn't cheap. It cost 660,000 for just one day. Therefore, bringing three meals was the most common service. Sandy Lynn had a professional smile on her face, revealing her calmness. However, in her eyes, there was a flash of anxiety.

However, Oliver Walker was still thinking about something, so he didn't care.

"Sir, is there anything else I can help you with?" Sandy Lynn asked with a smile after pushing the dining cart in.

Oliver Walker shook his head.

After Sandy Lynn left, George Lee walked in before Oliver Walker could call Luna Thomas out for dinner. "Boss, good news! Silver Wolf has successfully entered the network system of Thomas Corporation. We can listen in on their conversation at any time now."

This was indeed exciting news. At least the beginning was relatively smooth.

"Yeah!" Oliver Walker said with a smile.

"Remember to record it. Everything he says might be very important. By the way, you haven't had dinner yet, have you? Join us!"

Ever since Blood Fiend appeared, he had been in a state of constant running. Even a person made of iron would not be able to withstand it.

George Lee shook his head. "No, thanks. I still have some things to discuss with the other departments."

These two days were extremely busy. Whether it was him, Mike, or Aiden, none of them had time to rest. After all, the enemy's situation was changing, so they could only move along!

If they were to delay a major event and cause a disaster because of their carelessness, no one would feel comfortable!

After George Lee left, Oliver Walker frowned slightly. In fact, he was not particularly willing to be alone with Luna Thomas. He had asked them to dine together just to avoid suspicion.

Chapter740 Drastic Reactions

After all, something embarrassing had happened before. Coupled with his wife's warning, he was even more flustered.

However, the crux of the problem now was that Luna Thomas needed to be protected, or her life would definitely be in danger. If he went out to run for clues, his identity would not be as convenient as George Lee's.

After all, his status was too honorable. He couldn't possibly alarm the higher-ups every time he appeared, right? There was also Aiden and Mike. They were mercenaries themselves, so they knew Sean Martin better than him. Therefore, the person who stayed here to protect him could only be him!

After hesitating for a long time, he finally knocked on the bedroom door.

Dressed in conservative pink pajamas, Luna Thomas opened the door with worry and impatience on her face. She didn't have time to tidy up her messy hair. However, that trace of sloppiness perfectly displayed the beauty of a young lady.

“Mr. Walker, I...I have no appetite.”

Now that the company was occupied, there was no news of his father. She was not a heartless person. How could she be in the mood to eat?

“Uh... well we are human made of flesh. No matter what happens, you must first ensure your health. Otherwise, if something happens to you, Richard Thomas will only be happier!”

“My wife just told me to take good care of you,” Oliver Walker said with a smile. “If she comes and sees your skinny appearance, she will definitely not let me go.”

He found many reasons! Every word he said hit the right spot.

That’s right!

If she couldn’t even guarantee her own health, she wouldn’t be in the mood to take care of the huge Thomas Corporation even if she were to hand it over to her. Therefore, she forced a smile and nodded.

The dishes were very exquisite but to be honest, it tasted like wax! It wasn’t that the dishes didn’t taste good. It was just that they weren’t in the mood to eat.

After a few bites, she put down her chopsticks. “Mr. Walker, I’m full. Eat more. I’ll have to trouble you in the future!”

Her heart was filled with guilt. Originally, she wanted to help Emilia’s company enter the Ocean City but she never expected such a change to happen.

“Why are you saying this?”

Oliver Walker shook his head with a smile. “Just relax. There’s progress. It won’t be long before the truth comes out.”

Silver Wolf had already infiltrated Thomas Corporation and their network system. Whether it was at home or in the office, Richard Thomas would definitely discuss these things. As long as they discussed it, they would definitely touch on the core.

So when the time came...

However, after chatting for a few minutes...

Luna Thomas's pretty face turned red as if it had been baked by flames! There seemed to be a force stirring in his body!

"What happened to you?"

Oliver Walker frowned slightly and hurried forward to ask.

"I..."

Luna Thomas bit her red lips lightly, and a hint of charm appeared on her blushing face. "I'll go back to my room first."

Oh no! Why was there such a strong reaction? Why would she suddenly think of those scenes that shouldn't have appeared?

"Let me see!"

Although Oliver Walker had also eaten, he didn't show any abnormalities because of his strong physique. However, in his eyes, something definitely wasn't right with Luna Thomas.

Something must have happened. Could it be that the food...

"No thanks!"

Luna Thomas hurriedly shook her head in refusal. Then, she staggered up and prepared to escape to the bedroom!

No! This damned reaction...

“Ah...”

The heat all over her body made her moan involuntarily!

Could it be that Oliver Walker had drugged the food?

She had no time to think about anything now. She had to control herself at this moment, or she would be finished!

The next second, Oliver Walker’s body also underwent a drastic change...
