

Chaplain 841

Chapter 841: Someone is Watching us

The scene was silent for a long time! Wu Liansheng frowned. It wasn't that he didn't understand. He just couldn't accept this fact!

His father sacrificed his life for the country, but in the end, he did not even have a status.

Although all kinds of benefits had been paid, as a soldier, the most important thing was glory. There were many things that money could not solve.

"Child! Listen to Uncle Long. Heroes are not young and hot-headed. They are not simply throwing their heads and spilling their blood!"

Gradually, George Lee's tone became much softer. He squatted on the ground and said earnestly, "Sometimes, heroes are also nameless."

"It's true that he's been wronged, but the chaplain has suffered far more than you can imagine!"

Wu Liansheng lowered his head and did not say anything. After calming down, he understood many things.

Slowly, George Lee wiped away the tears from the corner of his eyes. "Your father is a hero. I hope you won't disappoint him! Since you have chosen this path, it is destined that it will not be smooth sailing."

"What we have to endure is far more than you can imagine!"

He and Wu Liansheng's father had lived and died together for many years. It was no exaggeration to say that they were as close as brothers.

If he could fight for it, would he not? In the beginning, he could not understand it either!

However, as time passed and he gained a deeper understanding of the enemy's ferocity, he figured it out.

The chaplain did not want them to reveal their identities for the sake of their families. If Blood Fiend came to take revenge, it would be a disaster.

It could be said that the Chaplain had spared no effort and thought of all ways to think for them. In the end, he was misunderstood. It was indeed not right.

"Uncle Long! I... Understood!"

"I won't disappoint you, father!" Wu Liansheng nodded solemnly.

How could it be as peaceful as the years? However, someone was carrying a heavier load!

How many people lived in fear in the secret battlefield? Who wasn't afraid of death? Who didn't yearn for this world where their families existed? Who would be willing to be buried in this cold cemetery?

Even Oliver Walker cherished his life.

He was afraid of death! He was afraid that he would not be able to see his family, and he was also afraid that he would not be able to serve America after his death. They were even more afraid that the Heavenly Doctor Sect would lose its legacy!

However, there were some things that could not be given up just because one was afraid of death! Many people knew that they were going to die, but they still charged forward for their faith!

"Pa, pa, pa..."

George Lee patted Wu Liansheng's shoulder, then sighed and got up to leave! He couldn't stay in this place because he always had the urge to cry!

After Wu Liansheng watched the bleak figure leave, he knelt in front of the tombstone and said resolutely, "Dad! One day, I will become a hero like you!"

He was still young! Perhaps he knew what death meant, but it was not surprising that he would say such a thing in his grief. At the same time, outside the Longquan Mountain cemetery!

In a domestic car!

"Boss!"

George Lee had mixed feelings. In fact, it wasn't just Wu Liansheng who didn't understand.

He even knew what kind of difficulties a family would face after losing their main labor force. After a young child loses his father, the environment in which he grew up might also become worse!

"That brat, have you thought it through?"

Oliver Walker took a deep breath and continued, "Don't mistreat their families. If they have any difficulties in life, inform me immediately!"

George Lee nodded, his emotions so complicated that he was completely speechless! Perhaps they could provide help in terms of money, but what about their family? This was a wound that could never be healed!

"Don't be discouraged! He can't sit still anymore!"

"Right next to us," Oliver Walker said. "Someone is watching our every move."

He felt it! The person who was secretly monitoring them must be Sean Martin's man!

Chapter 842: Meeting Mortal Enemies

"Hmm?"

George Lee was shocked. What kind of expert dared to follow them?

The most important thing was that he did not notice it. This was very ridiculous! Just as he subconsciously wanted to turn around...

"Don't look," Oliver Walker immediately warned. "The enemy is very good at hiding his tracks."

"I have to say, Blood Fiend is a crouching tiger with hidden dragons!"

First, it was a grandmaster who had reached the peak of ancient Muay Thai, and now it was Zoey who was good at hiding her whereabouts. Who knew what other trump cards Sean Martin had?

"Should we mobilize the Dragon Team? They're good at this kind of battle!" George Lee frowned.

The Dragon Division was a special department in their country."

There were also crouching tigers and hidden dragons inside. In terms of elite level, it was not an exaggeration to say that they could instantly kill the imperial guards! Whether it was individual combat ability or group tactical cooperation!

"Forget it! Their mission isn't easy either! "

Oliver Walker shook his head. "This is also an opportunity to train soldiers.

There will be bloodshed and sacrifices, but isn't our final destination death

He had never thought that he would die of old age! After all, there was always someone better! Moreover, their country was vast and resourceful, and being targeted by bandits could only mean that the soldiers were incompetent!

"What do you plan to do next?"

George Li Ningmei asked. Although he was playing along, this idiom was too broad. It was not easy to understand!

Oliver Walker lit a cigarette and lay on the chair. He said tiredly, "I haven't figured it out yet. We need to think about it carefully."

If Yin Tianchou stopped doing evil, then even if he knew that Yin Tianchou was Shawn Martin, he would not have any evidence. After all, he had returned to the country to invest, if there was no real evidence, it would really be difficult to touch him!

"Motherf*cker!"

George Lee slapped his seat angrily. "I wish I could drag these bastards out and pull out their tendons and bones!"

Grievance! This was an unprecedented grievance!

If he had to fight with a real knife and a real gun, he would not have any complaints even if he died.

"The burden on your shoulders is not light. Don't be impulsive! Your logic will determine the lives of your brothers! You have to know when to give up!"

“Drive!”

Oliver Walker advised George Lee. Or rather, they were both people who should not have personal feelings, but none of them were saints. How could they cut off their emotions? Especially in the current situation, it was a competition of patience to see who was the first to panic.

The person who attacked first would reveal a flaw and eventually die. Therefore, as the commander, George Lee must not let his personal feelings mess up his mind.

However, at this moment, a team of more than ten cars instantly came head-on.

The car in front was a Rolls-Royce Phantom, and it looked really grand! The person sitting inside was Yin Tianchou, who had received Anthony’s notice.

As the road in the cemetery was relatively narrow, it was also a turning point. As a result, all the cars in the opposite direction stopped!

Yin Tianchou had intentionally stopped here.

Therefore, even though he knew who was in the domestic car, he still got off.

He was dressed in a suit and was in high spirits! Standing in the bleak autumn wind, his eyes seemed to be provoking Oliver Walker. This made George Lee, who was already furious in the driver’s seat, add fuel to the fire. It was obvious that this grandson was deliberately blocking them.

After all, the chaplain had just said that Yin Tianchou had come when they were being targeted. Was this a coincidence?

No! This was a demonstration! Of course, it could also be a test!

Oliver Walker held down George Lee’s trembling body due to anger. He opened the door and got out of the passenger seat. He was less than five meters away from Yin Tianchou!

Their eyes met, filled with anger! The temperature plummeted!

It was as if winter had arrived!

Chapter 843: The Collision

“Move aside! Don’t you think this is very annoying?” Yin Tianchou’s tone was filled with command and anger.

“Why are you blocking me here?”

None of them wanted to make the first move now. They wanted to force the other party into a corner and test each other’s reaction. Therefore, this scene was naturally deliberately arranged by him!

After the substitute died, he urgently needed a reason to meet Oliver Walker to see his reaction.

If Oliver Walker was shocked, it meant that his plan had succeeded! If it was rather dull, then there would be a big problem!

“First come, first served. This is the international rule! Besides, how would I know that you would come?”

Oliver Walker was neither shocked nor calm. Instead, he expressed his anger appropriately. “Is Mr. Yin Tianchou living overseas? Is this what you call gentlemanly behavior?”

He knew that Yin Tianchou had appeared to test him!

Demonstrating? It was impossible!

Yin Tianchou was not that stupid!

“Don’t you think it’s an insult to me to make way for your broken car?” Provoke? Of course this was one.

Yin Tianchou had done it on purpose, but the purpose of his provocation was definitely not to show off, but to test the waters. He also knew that Oliver Walker was here to see his men who had died last night!

If Oliver Walker still treated him as Sean Martin, his emotions would definitely fluctuate after being provoked! But in fact, Oliver Walker’s eyes were indeed filled with anger!

Then, he said coldly, “Hit it!”

Asking him to make way?

It wasn’t impossible! He was not a road hog afterall, but now, was it a question of whether to give way or not?

It was obvious that he wanted to test his attitude. This was his attitude.

Although he couldn’t kill Yin Tianchou for the time being, he could at least avenge his brothers who had sacrificed themselves!

“Buzz...’

After receiving the order, George Lee immediately started the car without a word. He stepped on the accelerator and slammed into the front of the Rolls-Royce Phantom with infinite anger!

Yin Tianchou’s expression changed drastically. The driver of the Rolls-Royce Phantom was also caught off guard and did not have the time to react.

After all, there was still a convoy behind him, and he was only a few meters away from George Lee!

“Bang...”

The next moment, the two cars collided, and the powerful kinetic energy produced directly knocked the phantom back a few meters.

George Lee still did not let go of the accelerator and continued to stare at the phantom.

“Rumble...”

Although the cars behind reacted quickly, they were too late! As a result, all eleven cars were damaged.

Of course, he had to admit that the Rolls-Royce Phantom, as a top-notch luxury car, was indeed very strong in terms of safety.

On the contrary, George Lee, who had initiated the collision, was the one who had suffered the most damage. However, it was understandable. How could a car worth hundreds of thousands compare to a car worth tens of millions?

“You... What are you doing?” Yin Tianchou roared in rage.

He really did not expect the other party to be so rude!

It wasn't that he was worried about money. After all, he didn't lack money. However, this Rolls-Royce Phantom was flown in from overseas and was also his favorite car. How could it be hit just like that?

“Ha... You're talking about this car?” Oliver Walker sneered.

“But I bought full insurance. If Mr. Yin needs it, I’ll contact the insurance company now to assess the damage!”

In the face of provocation, he could only respond more aggressively!

It was very simple to kill Yin Tianchou. What was really complicated was that there was no suitable reason.

It could only be said that Yin Tianchou’s identity as an overseas investor was equivalent to a life-saving talisman! Killing him would not be worth it!

Chapter 844: The Wife

“You...I don’t care about this bit of money!” Yin Tianchou was furious.

In fact, he had already tested Oliver Walker’s attitude, and he did not want to compete with Oliver Walker anymore. He had to suffer this loss!

“Let’s go!”

Oliver Walker returned to the passenger seat of the damaged domestic car.

Since the Rolls-Royce Phantom had been pushed out, all the roads were naturally cleared!

Yin Tianchou turned around and looked back at the car leaving! He didn’t say anything for a long time. No one knew what he was thinking!

“Do you think he has found out?”

Carlton Moore's expression was serious. After all, this concerned their safety! What kind of honor was it to be targeted by the chaplain?

But how terrifying was that?

"I don't know!"

Yin Tian gritted his teeth in hatred. He did not find anything. This was indeed an extremely difficult opponent. After he finished speaking, he glanced in Anthony's direction.

A middle-aged man with an Asian face got out of the car that was parked a hundred meters away. However, he didn't meet up with Yin Tianchou. Instead, he changed to another SUV to prevent Oliver Walker from discovering him.

The grave was already solemn, and with what had just happened, the atmosphere became even more oppressive.

Carlton Moore frowned. He was getting more and more confused about this confrontation.

He was like an outsider. It could even be said that this was a game between the chaplain and the first instructor.

They were just chess pieces!

At the same time, on the road!

"How is it?" George Li frowned.

He was very curious, because just like Carlton Moore, he could not understand it at all! Oliver Walker shook his head.

“Do you see that SUV behind us? It’s still that person!”

Although the car could be changed, the aura was still the same!

“Damn it! Send someone to follow us on our land!”

George Lee felt so aggrieved that he was really speechless! Oliver Walker frowned. “Do you want to do something big?”

He already had a preliminary attack plan, but it was not perfect!

“Yes, I do!” George Lee shouted excitedly. “Of course I do!”

” Even in my dreams, I want to press that arrogant Sean Martin to the ground and torture him one by one!”

Oliver Walker took a deep breath. “There will be such an opportunity. Wait until I set up an inescapable net and make him walk into the trap again!”

He had an idea, but there were still many details that needed to be considered.

Facing an opponent of this level, he indeed did not dare to be careless!

Of course, there was one important point. If Sean Martin had been the enemy commander at the front line of the Indian State, then the war would have been protracted and might not have ended even today.

The sky was getting dark and the sun was setting. The burning clouds in the sky were especially gorgeous!

A car slowly drove into Thomas Corporation's villa complex!

Luna Thomas had been waiting for a long time. When she saw that the car had stopped, she quickly stepped forward and said enthusiastically, "Emilia!"

"I finally got to meet you!"

It was Emilia! Luna Thomas heaved a sigh of relief.

She had thought that she would never fall in love with a man so easily in her life.

However, she never expected that the people she had met in the past were not outstanding enough. This time, not only did she fall in love easily, but she also had a crush on them.

Emilia's arrival should make her give up on that idea!

'Yes!'

Emilia was still dressed elegantly. She wore a beige windbreaker and a pair of black pants, outlining her perfect figure just right. "Why do you miss me so much?" Emilia asked half-jokingly.

"Do you have any ideas about my man?"

Hearing this, Luna Thomas's gaze instantly turned dull and guilty.. It was clearly a joke, but it seemed to have torn off her loincloth!

Chapter 845: Why Wouldn't He Come Home?

“Where... Why would I...”

Luna Thomas smiled awkwardly. She quickly reacted and said, “I just miss you!”

Emilia was so smart that she could tell from the look in her eyes that Luna Thomas was indeed hiding something from her.

Could it be that between them...

What really happened? However, judging from Luna Thomas’s attitude, she wasn’t here to show off.

So what was the reason?

“You missed me, but you didn’t look for me!”

Seeing the awkward atmosphere, Emilia quickly said, “Hmm... could it be that you wanted to spend more time with him alone?”

Since it was a joke, she might as well make it a joke to the end. At least until she figured out Luna Thomas’s intentions, it would be good for everyone!

“It’s just that Mr Walker has helped me a lot this time and I thought it would be nice for you to join him here. I’m also the reason why you guys are living in different places, so I’m quite embarrassed!”

Luna Thomas was speaking the truth, but she cleverly concealed her true intentions.

“Mommy! The villas here are so spectacular!”

At this moment, the cute Olivia Walker opened her sleepy eyes. After getting out of the car, she was shocked by the bustling scene before her!

“Hello, Olivia. Do you remember me?”

Luna Thomas stepped forward and squatted down. She reached out and rubbed her toot and cute face. “This is Auntie’s house. It won’t be hard for you to stay here for a few days, right?”

They knew each other and had met many times in the past!

“Mom said that Auntie is a rich woman. It seems like it’s true! I love this place,” Olivia Walker said with a smile. “I won’t suffer here!”

Olivia Walker was always close to people who treated her well. In fact, she had a very good impression of Luna Thomas. After all, Luna Thomas often took her out to play when she was in Colorado!

“You have such a sweet mouth!”

Luna Thomas smiled, amused. He did not know why, but seeing Olivia Walker now was more intimate than before.

Could it be because she was that man’s little princess?

In fact, she was envious! The only ones who could stay by that man’s side were destined to be this pair of mother and daughter, and she was just an outsider.

“Auntie, where’s my father?”

“I haven’t seen my father in a long time,” Olivia Walker quickly said. “I really miss him!”

Ever since her father came back, regardless of whether she was rich or poor, she felt that she was the happiest person in the world. She missed him after not seeing him for half a month!

“He went to work but he should be back soon!” Luna Thomas’s beautiful eyes changed slightly.

“There’s an amusement park over there. Why don’t you go and play for a while?”

“I’ll talk to your mother about something serious!”

She knew that there would definitely be a problem with Emilia. She also cared about her only best friend in the country, so she did not want any conflicts. This matter was her fault, so she naturally had to dispel Emilia’s worries.

“Alright!”

When there were only the two of them left, the atmosphere froze.

“How’s the Thomas Corporation?” Emilia asked after a while.

She did not know much. However, she could not figure out why Oliver Walker had not returned home after the conflict with Thomas Company had been resolved.

Of course, there were many things that Oliver Walker deliberately hid. He did not want his wife to know how much risk he was taking.

“Thomas Corporation is stable, but the situation for it is not optimistic.” “Forget it, let’s not talk about this anymore!”

“Mr. Walker,” Luna Thomas said with a smile. “If he knew that you and Olivia are here, he would be very happy.”

She felt that the best choice was to get Emilia here! Doing so was good for everyone!

“Then what has he been doing recently?” asked Emily with a frown.

In fact, Oliver Walker rarely talked to her about work, but she also knew that Oliver Walker must have something important to do. Otherwise, he wouldn't have stayed in Ocean City for so long for no reason-

Unless they really...

Chapter 846: Feeling Unwelcomed

“I'm not too sure either!”

Luna Thomas frowned. “But it seems to be very troublesome this time. Last night, more than 20 businessmen were shot dead. Many of Mr. Walker's subordinates have also sacrificed themselves but I don't know who my opponent is!”

Emilia took a deep breath. As expected, this man had hidden too much from her.

‘Weng weng weng...’

At this moment, a car with a broken front entered the villa area!

“Mr. Walker, you're back!” Luna Thomas's expression changed when she saw this.

When Emilia saw the scene in front of her, she knew that something was wrong. She saw that the front of the car had clearly suffered a violent impact!

She knew Oliver Walker's driving skills very well. It was impossible for him to be involved in a traffic accident for no reason! Therefore, he must have encountered danger!

The two women were extremely anxious and instantly went up to meet him.

When Oliver Walker saw his wife, he was in a bad mood. "Stop the car! Stop the car!"

George Lee instantly stepped on the brakes!

"Hubby!"

Emilia came up to him with the longing she felt after not seeing him for half a month. Of course, the most important thing was that her husband was fine.

He didn't even suffer any external injuries!

Luna Thomas wanted to say something, but she hesitated. This man's wife was already here. What did it matter if she was so anxious? However, it was impossible for him not to be anxious.

"Why didn't you tell me you were coming?"

However, Oliver Walker's voice was very cold. It was not that he was unhappy, but that he could not be happy. These words also caused the atmosphere to suddenly freeze!

Emilia was speechless. Her beautiful eyes were filled with disbelief.

Did this man really have a change of heart? Otherwise, how could he explain his current behavior? Why was he so angry when he saw her?

Could it be that her presence here was not wanted. But she was Oliver Walker's wife!

At the same time, Luna Thomas was stunned!

She had never seen Oliver Walker lose his temper before. Why was he now...

Oliver Walker lit a cigarette and frowned. "Do you know what's going on in the Ocean City?"

"Olivia missed you, so I brought her..." Emilia frowned.

Oliver Walker's head hurt even more. "You brought Olivia?"

He was speechless! For a moment, he did not know what to say! The atmosphere became even colder!

This also made George Lee and Luna Thomas stand at the side, at a loss!

No one expected Oliver Walker's reaction to be so intense.

It was understandable that Luna Thomas and Emilia didn't understand, but George Lee clearly knew what kind of crisis they were facing.

In order to bring Sean Martin to justice, the chaplain had not had a good night's sleep for a long time.

This was especially so now. It seemed like they had entered a period of stability, but in reality, danger lurked everywhere, and a decisive battle could erupt at any time.

"You... What do you mean? Do you really not want to see us?" asked Amelia, feeling wronged.

"Then can we leave now?"

Her beautiful eyes were filled with tears. There was an indescribable grievance in her heart. She had driven for two hours just to see this man, and in the end?

Yet, she was met with such indifference!

Even...

He actually dared to lose his temper?

“No...

Oliver Walker was also anxious. After realizing that his emotions were not right, he quickly explained, “It’s not what you think. The Ocean City is full of danger. You...”

“It’s too late to leave now! I’ve been targeted. They know that you’re here, so they won’t let it go!”

Perhaps it would be beneficial for the overall situation if Sean Martin attacked his wife. He could set up an ambush in advance.

But...

As a man, the pillar of a family, how could he use the love of his life as bait?

Chapter 847: The Wrong Time

Emilia also realized the seriousness of the matter. Someone who could make Oliver Walker so worried must be extraordinary. In other words, from the moment they stepped into Ocean City, they had already fallen into danger.

“Mr. Walker, I’m sorry!”

Luna Thomas mustered up her courage and quickly stepped forward. “I was the one who asked Emilia to come over. If you need someone to blame, please blame me for it.’

Oliver Walker frowned. His wife didn’t know, but he could understand why she brought her daughter over but Luna Thomas knew what was going on. Why would she make such a stupid decision?

Wasn’t this causing trouble for him?

“Inform the intelligence department immediately and ask Zooley to bring more people to support Ocean City. We can’t let them take advantage of the loophole,” Oliver Walker said coldly.

George Lee knew the seriousness of the matter and immediately said, “Yes, Sir!

Emilia and Luna Thomas were completely at a loss. They did not know what to do. This was because they seemed to have caused a huge disaster!

In fact, that was indeed the case. Oliver Walker was still working out a detailed plan. However, for the safety of his wife and daughter, he had to take action immediately!

“Honey, stay at home first. I’m going out for a while! Remember, take Olivia with you and stay at home. Don’t go anywhere!”

“I’ll inform you when the crisis is over,” Oliver Walker warned again.

“And you, you can only work at home! Don’t leave the premises!”

The two girls nodded in succession because there was nothing else they could do.

When she saw her husband turn around, Emilia asked worriedly, "You... Where are you going?"

She understood her husband!

It wasn't that he didn't like her being here but that there was indeed a huge crisis happening. Otherwise, he wouldn't have lost his temper so easily!

He would not go anywhere else after she came.

"There are some things that I have to do! I've arranged for my men to be in the Thomas Company villa complex," Oliver Walker said solemnly. "The enemy shouldn't dare to attack rashly!"

Almost all of the Imperial Guards in the Ocean City, except for those who were on missions, were stationed in the Thomas Corporation villa complex. This was also the greatest defense he could activate at the moment.

It was more than enough. No matter how much Sean Martin liked to dance with knives, he would never do something stupid for Luna Thomas. But now, his wife and daughter had all appeared in the Thomas Company villa complex.

If he was Sean Martin, he would give it his all!

Although he had informed Zoey, he could arrive tomorrow at the earliest, and now Oliver Walker had to make Ocean City a complete mess and disrupt Sean Martin's train of thought.

Moreover, for the safety of his wife and daughter, he had no choice but to give up the advantage he had fought so hard to gain and take the initiative to attack.

Emilia looked at her husband's back and felt a lump in her throat. She knew that this man would never truly belong to the family. However, she could understand her husband's choice for picking the country first.

When Oliver Walker drove a car and left, the sky was already dark! Emilia and Luna Thomas stood under the streetlights, not knowing what to say.

“Mom? Dad’s not home yet?”

Olivia Walker’s face was filled with anticipation. She missed her father very much.

Emilia turned around and smiled. “He’s busy working. You’ll be able to see him when you have a good sleep and open your eyes.” Olivia Walker said dejectedly. “Alright then!”

At the same time, in Yin Tianchou’s villa!

“What do you think?” Anthony asked as he placed the report on the table.

He had an idea of what might be happening but after a few exchanges, he became even more cautious!

“I feel like this is a trap!”

Carlton Moore frowned. “His wife and daughter came, but he went out.. This... They must have set up an inescapable net to bait us!

Chapter 848: Getting The Initiatives

That’s right! Oliver Walker had never done things in the usual way, which puzzled him.

Logically speaking, if Oliver Walker had known that Shawn Martin’s substitute had died and his wife and daughter were here, he wouldn’t have left them inside the house.

But he left..... What did this mean?

Either that or Oliver Walker believed that Sean Martin was truly dead, which was why he dared to bring his wife and daughter over; or they knew that Sean Martin was not dead, so they set up an inescapable net!

“What if it’s just an empty city tactic?”

Yin Tianchou’s voice was cold, and his eyes were filled with killing intent! They had no idea that the arrival of Emilia and Olivia Walker was an accident.

It was precisely this accident that made the already confusing situation even more turbid.

“This must be a trap! He must have planted a large number of troops around,” Carton Moore said firmly.

“This man is ruthless. He used his wife and child as bait!”

Even a vicious tiger would not eat its cubs. How insane was Oliver Walker to do such a thing?

“A man can’t be without poison! If this is a trap to lure me out, then he’s ruthless,” Yin Tianchou said coldly.

“Yes, I’m the only one who can break through Thomas Company’s layers of defense and capture his wife and children.”

After two disastrous defeats, there were not many Blood Fiend Mercenaries left in the country. If those people were not strong enough to break through the defense, then they were forcing him to make a move.

“If this is a coincidence, and he thinks you’re dead, then this is our chance?”

“But...” Carlton Moore continued his analysis. “But my intuition tells me that he won’t be fooled so easily! He hasn’t removed the surveillance of the Holy Light Group, which means that he hasn’t let down his guard at all!”

“Of course he’s not that stupid!” Yin Tianchou said coldly.

“He must have seen through last night’s trap, but his wife and daughter are in Thomas Corporation’s villa complex. Even if I know it’s a trap, I can’t resist the temptation!”

Carlton Moore frowned and quickly comforted him. “You’d better calm down. If you fall into their trap, we might be wiped out! We don’t have many people left in the country.”

“But this is the only way to turn the tables!” Yin Tianchou roared. “As long as I control Emilia and Olivia Walker, he will compromise with me!”

This kind of temptation was not small. Who could resist it? But then again, if they wanted to fight, it would mean a decisive battle!

“Tianchou, I know that you have never trusted me all these years but you should believe me this once! This country is different! If he sets up an inescapable net, we will lose!”

Carlton Moore continued, “He... He was forced into a corner and had no choice but to do this!”

In the dark, this was their advantage! Once they were exposed, with Oliver Walker’s power, they would have no ability to fight back and could only wait for death!

Yin Tianchou’s expression was extremely conflicted. He could not help but clench his fists. He was still unable to make up his mind!

Was it a trap, or was he careless and exposed a flaw? If it was a trap, could he have kidnapped Emilia or Olivia Walker under the inescapable net?

These two were Oliver Walker's closest relatives. As long as he caught one, the initiative would return to his hands!

"Don't be fooled! Don't fall for it!"

Carlton Moore stood up anxiously. "Let's play it safe.. Being radical may have never been your style but you shouldn't panic!"

Chapter 849: Guns vs Knives

"Pa da..."

Yin Tianchou lit up a cigarette and frowned. He used to be cautious and never took any risks.

Why couldn't he suppress his restless heart this time?

It was because the successive defeats had defeated the pride in his heart! Plus, the person who attacked his pride was Oliver Walker. So he was tempted just to prove himself?

Like that man, to prove that he wasn't weak?

"Flu..."

Yin Tianchou took a deep breath.

"Stop with stillness!"

He couldn't wait to win once, so his state of mind was in a mess, right? And if one's state of mind was in chaos, how could one fight a beautiful comeback?

Upon hearing this, Carlton Moore finally heaved a sigh of relief!

At the same time, in the Queen's Bar.

Oliver Walker stayed in the private room without moving. It was not until two hours later that George Lee sent a message saying that the Holy Light Group had not make any moves.

Yin Tianchou didn't leave the villa either. He finally heaved a sigh of relief.

It wasn't an exaggeration to say that his body was covered in cold sweat. This was the Empty Fortress Stratagem.

The reason why he did not stay in Thomas Company's villa complex was very simple. He could not be attacked there, not to mention that he did not know how powerful the Blood Fiend Mercenaries were. Therefore, he couldn't guarantee that he could ensure that everyone would be safe when there weren't many experts.

Sean Martin dared to leave because he was cautious.

They would definitely think that this was a trap, so after he left, he did not dare to attack. He didn't believe that his wife and daughter could make Sean Martin indifferent.

As long as tonight was over, Zooney would bring reinforcements over tomorrow. With so many experts gathered, he would not have to worry about Sean Martin coming to fight him head-on.

Even if Sean Martin wanted to avoid the battle, he would not agree.

At least in terms of planning, he won again. Although it was just a small detail, it could already lay the foundation for victory!

“Boss!”

“Mr. Walker!”

At the same time, Mike, Aiden, and Freddy Martin came to the private room.

“Yes!”

Oliver Walker nodded. “Any news from the Seven Stars Gang?”

Now that Sean Martin’s side had stabilized, if they were to fight again, Sean Martin would not dare to act rashly.

“According to our intelligence, Gary Stevens has gathered 3,000 troops and is heading toward us!” Freddy Martin quickly said.

“In yesterday’s battle, we had less than 1,500 people who participated in the battle. Moreover, the other party’s equipment is much better than ours, so...” “You don’t have to worry about that. I will solve that problem.”

Freddy Martin knew that the man in front of him was very resourceful.

Although they had seized some firearms, they did not have enough ammunition. Moreover, they did not have any advantage over the other party!

This was the biggest problem!

Oliver Walker took out his cell phone and dialed George Lee’s number. He then said, “Warn the Seven Stars Gang. Tell them to give up their firepower.”

Otherwise, they will bear the consequences! ”

The Ocean City was big and also a provincial capital.

If there was a shooting incident, what would happen? Therefore, he would not allow such a thing to happen. Now that they were only using machetes and knives, it may not be such a huge deal. Although there was some influence, it wasn't that bad!

Back at the headquarters of the Seven Stars Gang!

Gary Stevens's face was gloomy as he sat in the boss's chair, waiting for the final result!

The Queen's Bar was important to him. He had to take it back.

“Sir! Someone wants to see you!”

At this moment, one of his subordinates hurriedly reported the situation, and his expression was very ugly!

Chapter 850: The Commander In Action

“I won't see anyone! Go back to where you came from!” the tensed Gary Stevens roared angrily.

The reason why he dared to speak in such a manner was because if it was that man, he wouldn't have greeted him first before walking in. Which time had she not appeared and disappeared mysteriously, standing right in front of him?

“What big words coming from you.”

However, at this moment, a man in military uniform barged in with an extraordinary aura. A pair of cold eyes swept across the entire scene, looking down on everyone!

“You..”

Gary Steven’s expression changed drastically. “Commander Gao, may I know why you’ve graced me with your presence?”

Gary Steven knew who this person was and it was indeed someone he had to

This was because Gao Shan was the commander of the Ocean City Battalion and also the highest commander of the Ocean City military!

“I’m here for one thing! If you dare to open fire, I’ll bring my troops to flatten the Seven Stars Gang!” Gao Shan said coldly.

Gary Steven’s expression was extremely ugly. “I was also forced into a corner!

If I can’t even take back my dignity, what right do I have to be the gang leader?”

If he couldn’t take it back, then he wasn’t unqualified to be the sect leader. He didn’t have the strength to do it!

This was also the main reason why he went crazy!

“Do you know why the Seven Stars Gang can survive until now?”

Gao Shan said coldly, “That’s because it didn’t cause any bad influence. Do you think we can still tolerate you if you use guns and cause panic in the entire city?!”

“I can’t interfere with the matters of the underground forces, but you’d better abide by the rules. Otherwise, you’ll be courting death!”

It wasn’t that they didn’t want to make a move, but the factions were too complicated. He could not move at all!

However, if they really broke through the bottom line, then even if they set off a storm, they had to destroy them!

“Of course.”

Gary Stevens took a deep breath and said, “I would have to respect your wishes too.”

He knew that he was able to live because he had not crossed the line. If they really did, the Seven Stars Gang would disappear from the face of the earth in less than a day!

“Everyone, no firearms!” he said, taking out his walkie-talkie. “If anyone dares to move, I’ll destroy their entire family!”

After receiving such an answer, Gao Shan left in disdain!

To him, killing Freddy Walker was really just a matter of time, but he had to consider the chain reaction that would be caused. Now that the chaplain had made his move, it had solved a huge problem for him!

“Motherf*cker!”

Gary Stevens slammed the table in anger, gritting his teeth in hatred! However, there was nothing he could do! There were always some people that he could never afford to offend.

Just like the military of the Ocean City, he would never seek his own death no matter how brave he was!

Inside the Queen's Bar.

"There might be a fierce battle later," Oliver Walker said after receiving the notice.

"But I hope you won't disappoint me! If you want me to look up to you, then show me your courage. You have to show me you are someone that I should look up to!"

More than a thousand Black Dragon Sect elites were gathered in the hall.

Oliver Walker had complicated feelings about these people. They were not good people, but they were people he had no choice but to use. He wanted to keep his distance, but the people of the Black Dragon Sect really thought that he was some underground lord.

"Don't worry, Mr. Walker. There are no cowards in the Black Dragon Sect!" "F*ck!" Freddy Martin roared. "I'll chop anyone who embarrasses me tonight!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he raised his machete. He had to fight for the Black Dragon Sect. With him around, the Black Dragon Sect's cohesiveness would be much better. "Kill them!"

"Kill them!"

"Kill them!"

A wave of battle cries instantly resounded throughout the entire arena.

Everyone wanted to be respected, and even more so, they wanted to gain face! Therefore, their battle intent was completely aroused!

"Bang!"

However, at this moment, the door was smashed open by a huge object. A group of people from the Seven Stars Gang waved their machetes and rushed in like a flood....
