

Chaplain 871

Chapter 871: I Need To Know If They're Worth It!

However. the two of them were not from the same world! Therefore. they didn't have many common topics to talk about!

After making sure that Mark Thomas was safe, Aiden stood to the side. The cold him seemed to not exist in this world.

Oliver Walker? It's him again?

Mark Thomas took a deep breath. He was a little curious about who this man was. He couldn't wait to meet him. He couldn't let his daughter get married just because he was her savior. It might not be a good thing to marry such a powerful man!

At the same time, the battle ended!

The surviving members of the Seven Stars Gang all gave up on resisting. "What are you waiting for? Send him to the hospital!"

"Are you going to watch your Mr. Martin die here?" Mike glared at him.

This injury looked simple but his entire body was bleeding!

But to be honest, although Freddy Martin wasn't very capable, he was very manly!

“Hurry up... Quickly send him to the hospital.

“Quickly move aside...’

Soon, the elites of the Black Dragon Sect reacted with tears and blood all over their faces...

“No... ”

But at this moment, Freddy Martin’s mouth twitched as he said, “Tell me the truth, will Mr Walker be here?”

Since even Mike and Aiden had rushed over, it meant that Oliver Walker already knew.

Based on his understanding of Oliver Walker, that man should be on his way!

“He’s already on his way!”

Mike did not hide it, and then said, “Stop talking!”

To be honest, he couldn’t stand Freddy Martin’s miserable state anymore. There was a hideous knife wound on his chest. Although it didn’t hurt his vital points, it was difficult to completely stop the bleeding with just his clothes.

There were even bacteria on his clothes. If it caused an infection, the situation would be even more complicated. There were also many knife wounds in other places. Looking at this situation, if he was not sent to the hospital, he would really be hopeless.

“I... I’m not going anywhere... I... want him to promise me...”

Freddy Martin, who was lying in Liang Hao’s arms, stuttered, “I’m determined to die, but... the Black Dragon Sect cannot be destroyed!”

He had been trying his best to keep his eyes open, afraid that once he closed them, it would be forever. It was not easy for him to seize this opportunity. He would not miss it!

As long as Oliver Walker said the word, the Black Dragon Sect would be able to successfully go ashore!

The remaining 4,000 core members and tens of thousands of peripheral members of the Black Dragon Sect could obtain a life-saving talisman!

“Mr. Martin! We don’t care about him!” Liang Hao gritted his teeth and said with tears in his eyes.

The group of subordinates also burst into tears! They didn’t know why Mr. Martin was so insistent on getting Oliver Walker’s approval!

“Sigh..

Mike, however, was very clear, “Why are you doing this?”

Freddy Martin frowned and said in pain, “We’re different from you. We need to work harder to... Get his approval!

“None of my brothers... Coward...

Freddy Martin began to pant heavily, and his eyes became dispirited.

At this moment, how could he still be a hero of his generation? He was clearly an Old man!

“You are a man!”

Mike praised, “Our boss isn’t a heartless person. Your sacrifice will mean something! ”

In fact, he knew that Boss had his own concerns but he was also a loyal person. Even he, who killed people like flies, was moved. Boss probably wouldn't turn a blind eye to it anymore.

It had to be said that Freddy Martin's obsession was really strong!

Oliver Walker was almost there, and he was flying at full speed along the way.

Unfortunately, the Ocean City was not the state of Colorado! This place was far from where Oliver Walker lived. Another one from the south and one from the north!

At the same time, in the basement of the Holy Light Group!

Sean Martin, who was dressed in a night suit, waited anxiously! He was waiting for the signal to attack!

"Ding, ding, ding..."

At this moment, his phone rang!

"Speak!" Sean Martin pressed the speaker button, his voice indifferent..

Chapter 872: 1 win!

The call was from Carlton Moore. Although the battle was over and he did not bury any explosives, he would lie since he had decided to cooperate with the enemy. "The bloody battle is still going on. Oliver Walker has also arrived at the Phantom Bar! I can detonate the explosives at any time and send them to hell!"

Sean Martin was too conceited. He did not believe that Carlton Moore had the guts to betray him. He sneered. "I'm the final winner!"

"The game is over!!! Let's go!"

After the order was given, the Death God Squad under the Blood Fiend Mercenary Corps, which was already ready to fight, quickly disappeared into the night.

Sean Martin, who thought he had won, never expected that he would be fooled.

Although Oliver Walker was not around at the moment, but...

Zooey led the elites of the intelligence department and George Lee led the Imperial Guards. They were already guarding the night. Moreover, the Thomas Corporation had their own men as well. Even if the Death God Squad came, they could forget about attacking from the front.

Therefore, they only needed to guard the blind spots.

As elites, Zooey and George Lee naturally knew where the real defense blind spot was in the seemingly seamless Thomas Corporation Villa. Therefore, the Death God Squad was equivalent to walking into a trap!

At the same time, in Phantom Bar!

"Boss!"

After seeing the person at the door, Mike and Aiden quickly went forward.

On the other hand, the remaining Black Dragon Sect elites, who numbered less than a hundred, were filled with fury.

“Damn it! I’ll chop you up!”

Especially Liang Hao. When he saw Oliver Walker, he picked up his machete and rushed forward with bloodshot eyes.

Mr. Martin was injured so badly because the man in front of him was too heartless.

“Come back..

Freddy Martin shouted weakly, but he could no longer suppress Liang Hao’s anger.

“Impudent!”

Mike and Aiden shouted angrily at the same time, ready to attack! They would not allow anyone to offend their boss’s dignity!

“Let him come over! ”

Oliver Walker waved his hand and pushed Mike and Aiden to the side! As a soldier, he liked men with guts!

Mark Thomas sized him up with a complicated look. He wanted to see how the dignified Oliver Walker was going to handle this. After all, being his son-in-law was not just about being handsome!

If he knew that Oliver Walker was a married man and that he was not in a relationship with Luna Thomas, he would definitely be shocked!

“I’ll chop you up!”

After Mike and Aiden retreated, Liang Hao also raised his machete and slashed down fiercely.

All the elites of the Black Dragon Sect also hoped that this man who harmed Mr. Martin and injured him to such an extent would die. Therefore, they broke out in a cold sweat!

“Clang...”

But in the next moment, when the machete with the diving force fell, Oliver Walker waved his hand indifferently. With just two fingers, he easily caught the heavy blade!

Liang Hao exerted all his strength, but he could not move an inch when Oliver Walker was right in front of him.

Immediately, anger, unwillingness, hatred, and all sorts of complicated emotions surged into his heart!

“If you don’t have the strength, tuck your tail between your legs and behave!”

You’re not worthy of attacking me!”

Oliver Walker’s tone was indifferent. With a flick of his finger, the heavy blade shattered and fell to the ground. Then, he ignored Liang Hao, who was standing rooted to the ground, and strode toward Freddy Martin!

Soon, the elites of the Black Dragon Sect who were guarding Freddy Martin stood up and blocked Mr. Martin with hostile eyes. This man was indeed very strong, but they could not be made to submit!

This group of people were the true elites of the Black Dragon Sect! One could imagine the cohesiveness!

“All... Get out of the way...”

Freddy Martin struggled to speak, but it still sounded soft. After all, he was supported by his faith..

Chapter 873: Achieving the Same Goal

Although the Black Dragon Sect elites were unwilling, they still moved aside.

After all, Mr. Martin was clearly at the end of his rope. They did not want to disobey Mr. Martin's orders at his last moment!

"Sigh.

Oliver Walker sighed. Looking at Freddy Martin's miserable state, he squatted down and sighed. "Why did you do this?"

He had seen everything about the Black Dragon Sect.

Forgiving these people would be the opposite of the righteous spirit that he had been protecting in his heart!

"Mr. Walker..."

"I know! The Black Dragon Sect had done a lot...Evil things! Which are unforgiving but if there was a choice, who would choose to join the underworld?"

"I... Most of us were forced to do so!"

Freddy Martin didn't cry when he was injured, but now he was crying non-stop. "These brothers.... You should have seen them!"

“Give them a chance and they will prove their worth!”

He was unwilling to go to the hospital because he had been waiting for this moment!

Saying those words in front of the corpses of hundreds of his brothers, he wanted to touch Oliver Walker’s iron-blooded tenderness.

“Actually...”

Oliver Walker said with a complicated expression, but he did not know what to say.

He could only lower his head! It had to be said that this was the first person who stood on the moral high ground and threatened him like this!

“I know... Black Dragon Sect is unforgivable! I also know that you and I are on different sides...”

Freddy Martin continued, “But we all have brothers who have gone through life and death for us. You should understand how I feel...”

“If you want to atone for your sins, I’ll bear all the blame!”

“With my death, I will wash away the sins of the Black Dragon Sect!”

In the bar, whether it was Mike, Aiden, the Seven Stars Gang, or the elites of the Black Dragon Sect, they all burst into tears. Many of them now realized that they had wrongly blamed Freddy Martin!

Mr. Martin was trying to save their lives! However, since they had already embarked on a path of no return, they did not think of turning back. If Mr

Martin were to die because of this, they would rather not have this chance!

“Clang..’

The next moment, Freddy Martin pulled out a dagger from his leg with great effort and placed it on his neck. He said with a determined expression, “Mr. Walker, please agree to it!”

“No matter how you want me to die, I don’t mind. If it’s not enough to vent my hatred, pull me back to the state of Colorado and let the people of Colorado judge me for what I’ve done!”

This was his last resort! He could only hope that he could shake the anger in Oliver Walker’s heart! “Mr. Martin!”

“No, Mr. Martin!”

In an instant, the remaining hundred elites of the Black Dragon Sect knelt on the ground. They were all crying!

They finally understood why Mr Martin was so persistent. It turned out that Oliver Walker did not despise them, but because they had committed too many sins, he deliberately wanted to force them to their deaths!

“Boss! ”

Mike was moved. He took a step forward and said, “It’s not impossible to give him a chance! Even bad people can become good!”

Aiden also said, “Boss, you...” I’m afraid...”

Although the Black Dragon Sect had done many wrong things and committed many sins, they had been loyal ever since they followed Oliver Walker.

It also canceled many shady businesses that were harmful to the world. There were still some that were preserved, but they had nothing to do with the ordinary people anymore. It could be said that there was almost no harm to society!

However, putting down the butcher's knife and becoming a Buddha on the spot was something that happened in movies and dramas!

In reality, who could do that? Who would do that? Who would forgive them?

"Pa da..."

With a complicated expression, Oliver Walker took out a cigarette from his pocket. Even his hands were trembling. He lit it for a long time but did not light it.

What should he do?

On the other hand, wasn't he also on a path of no return to ensure the security of his country?

Chapter 874: I'll Take Them In

"Pa da..."

At this moment, Mike quickly went forward and lit a cigarette for Oliver Walker. The entire place was silent!

Everyone's emotions were extremely complicated! He felt an indescribable heartache! Even Mark Thomas, who was an outsider, was confused.

If Oliver Walker forgave Freddy Martin, he would be letting down the Righteousness Spirit!

If Oliver Walker didn't forgive Freddy Martin, it would be the easiest for a person who valued relationships and loyalty to break through his defense in this situation where he was forced to die!

No one spoke because there was nothing to start the conversation.

Once Oliver Walker spoke, it would only make the oppressive atmosphere even more depressing.

Oliver Walker took a deep puff of his cigarette and didn't spit it out for a long time. His eyes began to lose their focus, and he stared blankly at something.

"Pfft..."

After some time, Freddy Martin spat out a mouthful of blood with intense anticipation in his eyes. Instantly, the entire situation became even more complicated !

"Mr. Martin!"

"Mr. Martin, you can't!"

"I don't want this path of survival. I just want to follow you and breakthrough that road of no return!"

A large portion of the Black Dragon Sect's elites were veterans who had followed Freddy Martin for a long time. They had been through life-and-death situations, and their feelings for each other were extremely deep!

Seeing Freddy Martin's physical condition getting worse and worse, the crowd was even more furious!

“Mr. Walker, we can die as you please. Please spare Mr. Martin’s life! He has a family, a wife and children!”

“Mr. Martin, you know that I’ve wanted to retire for a long time!”

“He only did it because you needed it, because he couldn’t bear to part with us!”

“Please, don’t make things difficult for him anymore!”

This was a group of bad people, but who could say that they were not iron-blooded men?

However, at this moment, their faces were filled with tears and their bodies were covered in wounds. They were crying their hearts out!

“Boss...’

Mike and Aiden’s hearts were also in their throats!

If this dragged on, Freddy Martin would be hopeless!

“Mr. Walker... Take the brothers away... Walk on the right path...”

“I, Freddy Martin, will take my leave first!”

As soon as he finished speaking, Freddy Martin brandished the dagger with all his might and cut at the neck artery!

He did not blame Oliver Walker! After all, it was their duty. Perhaps they deserved forgiveness, but why should they be forgiven?

To be able to make the man who stood at the peak of the world hesitate like this at the last moment of his life, he had not lived in vain! Seeing this scene, everyone's emotions were tense to the extreme!

"Wait!"

Oliver Walker grabbed Freddy Martin's wrist and took the last puff of his cigarette. He threw the cigarette butt on the ground. "I don't have the right to forgive your sins on behalf of the victims but I will accept your brothers! Your life and death should be decided by the people of the State of Colorado! This is the greatest tolerance I can give you!"

This was the first time he had gone against his conscience and forgotten his duty!

How could he survive if he couldn't kill the bad guys with his own hands and had to help them? This was his sin!

"Mr. Thomas," he said, stepping forward. "It's more dangerous in the Thomas Company villa area now. You should stay here!"

"Mike, Aiden, protect Mr. Thomas! The rest of you, clean up the battlefield!" After giving his instructions, he took a deep breath and left the bar!

That's right!

The battle here had ended, but the annihilation battle at Thomas Company's villa complex should be about to begin.

He had to rush back as fast as possible!

In fact, if he was not afraid of Sean Martin and had spies watching him, if Mark Thomas was not too important, he would not have appeared here at all. Naturally, he would not face such a decision that went against his conscience!

“Thank you, Mr Walker!”

But before he could finish, Freddy Martin fainted!

“Mr. Martin!”

“Hurry up... prepare the car! ”

“Mr. Martin, hold on!”

Chapter 875: Protecting Those That You Love

Liang Hao picked up the unconscious Freddy Martin and ran outside. The people around quickly made way for them.

Oliver Walker could have saved him, but he didn't because his duty didn't allow him to!

Whether Freddy Martin could live or not depended on the people in Colorado who had been bullied by him! It was not something he could decide!

He didn't need to have these subordinates. It was just to fulfill Freddy Martin's wish! Mark Thomas was stunned. It took him a long time to react.

From the looks of it, this man was not what he had imagined. He should have an official background. His heart was filled with responsibility and benevolence. This was a real man!

If his daughter could be with such a man, which father in the world would refuse?

He had decided. He would agree.

Although the public officials were very poor, as the overlord of Ocean City, Thomas Corporation would not be short of money.

When he returned, he would have a good chat with his daughter.

If such a peerless man was not married, he might be seduced by someone else.

Wouldn't that be a loss to his family?

The autumn wind blew with a touch of coldness!

Thomas Corporation's villa area was as quiet as usual! However, everyone was tensed up.

Although they were fully prepared, they were still facing the world's top mercenary team! Moreover, Sean Martin, who could arm wrestle with the chaplain, was not an ordinary person.

Outside the main villa, George Lee disguised himself as an ordinary security guard so as not to disturb Emilia and Luna Thomas.

The security guards around the main villa were replaced by the Imperial Guards and the intelligence organization.

This was a group of true Battle Kings!

"You are? Why haven't I seen you guys before?" Luna Thomas was instantly on guard.

She remembered the faces of the security personnel in charge of this place.

Even if there were one or two unfamiliar faces, it would be easy to explain. However, looking around, there was not a single familiar face, which was strange.

Emilia frowned. She also sensed that something was amiss. However, she soon saw George Lee in the crowd and immediately felt at ease but soon, she felt puzzled again.

She knew George Lee's level. Even if he was not a commander-level wargod, he was definitely a fierce general under the first wargod, Aiden Wilson. If he was personally standing guard, which meant that something big must have happened.

"Don't worry, Ms. Thomas. We're not enemies! I was ordered to protect you!"

Zoey looked valiant. She looked perfectly natural in a man's suit. However, she could no longer hide her identity after she spoke. "But for your safety, please enter the basement as soon as possible."

She was also afraid that there would be heavy firepower!

Plus, she did not know either Emily or Olivia Walker!

"Sister-in-law!"

At this moment, George Lee walked over. "The situation is urgent. I can't explain in time. After entering the villa, turn on all the lights! The chaplain has another important mission to attend to. We will protect you and Olivia's safety!"

'Yes!' Emilia nodded.

"We won't trouble you anymore!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he left with Olivia Walker and Luna Thomas.

They couldn't help. If they didn't listen, they would be causing trouble! "Mommy! These uncles and that auntie are so handsome!"

Olivia Walker did not sense the danger. Instead, she asked curiously, "Are they heroes like Daddy?"

She admired heroes very much! Because she knew that these people were protecting their safety!

"Yes, sir!"

Emilia struggled. What important mission did her husband have? What would happen to these people?

She was deeply worried. She hated herself for being incompetent and incapable of helping her husband.

"I want to study hard.. In the future, I want to be a great hero like Dad, Uncle, and Auntie!"

Chapter 876: It's Time

"What did you just call her?" Zoey asked with a frown.

"Sister-in-law?"

"She's the state preceptor's wife?"

"How is it?" George Lee asked with a smile.

"Pretty, right? You're all women. Aren't you ashamed? Look at you. If you were gentler, you wouldn't be so unwed! Hahaha..."

Such a joke also added a hint of joy to the depressing atmosphere.

“You...”

Zoey waved her fist angrily. ‘I think you deserve a beating. How dare you make fun of me!’

George Lee quickly showed his weakness. “Please spare my life. Hahaha...’

“The great battle is imminent. It’s not good to attack me! It affects the morale of the army!”

The people around them also laughed. They had fought in the same trenches and fought their way through. They would often joke around.

“Brother Long, you won’t be able to get a wife like this!”

“Brother Long can’t get a wife, and no one dares to marry Sister Zoey. Isn’t this a match made in heaven?”

“I think it’s fine. Brother Long and Sister Zoey, let’s live together!”

“Hahaha...”

The laughter at the scene was cheerful. Zoey was not really angry. Instead, she said “You guys are wicked!”

But the next moment, the laughter stopped abruptly! This was because there was a murderous aura approaching!

“Sean Martin?” George Lee was stunned. He whispered into his earpiece, “Attention, everyone! Sean Martin has appeared!”

Normally, it was a joke, but at a critical moment, it concerned the safety of his sister-in-law and Olivia Walker. Who would dare to be careless?

“The killing intent is in the west,” Zooney said. “Tiger, pay attention to your movements! ”

“Tiger! Answer me!”

Unfortunately...

There was no sound from the walkie-talkie!

Zooney’s expression turned ugly!

The anger in her eyes grew stronger and stronger!

Tiger was a hidden sentry in the west. Now that he did not answer, it meant that something had happened! The other party was indeed not weak!

After all, Tiger was a veteran who had experienced hundreds of battles!

“Everyone, pay attention! Be on high alert! Answer me immediately!” Zooney was furious!

The battle hadn’t even started, and a veteran of the intelligence department had already been killed. As the boss, how could she remain indifferent?

“No. 1 sentry post, copy!”

“No. 4 sentry post, copy!”

“No. 5 sentry post received!” “No. 2 sentry post, copy!”

“No. 16 sentry post received!”

Unfortunately, after waiting for a long time, there was no answer from sentry post number three!

This meant... The enemy had already sneaked in! After all, the third sentry post was less than a hundred meters away from the main villa!

Just how strong was the other party?

Two hidden sentries?

Such a situation also made George Lee and Zooney extremely solemn.

Especially Zooney. After all, George Lee had dealt with Sean Martin many times before. He knew that his title as the number one instructor was a match for his strength!

When Zooney and George Lee looked at the villa diagonally opposite at the same time, they instantly noticed it.

Right there!

“Damn it, we’ve been discovered!” “What should we do?”

“Instructor!”

After all, the Death God Squad was also an expert but they were still discovered!

“Kill them!” Sean Martin’s eyes were filled with viciousness. “Our entire victory depends on this!”

As soon as he finished speaking, ten Zoey bolts instantly flew out!

“Turn on the lights!”

George Lee shouted, and in an instant, the Xenon lights on the lighthouses in this area suddenly turned on. The ten members of the Reaper Squad who had charged forward to attract attention were also instantly exposed under the intense light!

After discovering the enemy, Zoey’s agents and George Lee’s guards instantly pulled the trigger!

In an instant, bullets with flames covered the enemy...

Chapter 877: Another Trap

“Bang... Bang...”

“Rumble...”

Even elites could not withstand the power of bullets!

Especially the Xenon Lamp, which lit up in an instant. His eyes were dazzled by the light. By the time he got used to the strong light, he had already fallen into a pool of blood. It could be said that these ten people were completely cannon fodder!

Soon, the elites of the intelligence department and the imperial guards who were lying in ambush began to approach the battle site.

Under the lights, the murderous aura became stronger and stronger!

“Instructor!” “This is a trap!”

“We are surrounded!”

The members of the Reaper Squad felt immense pressure from the encirclement!

“Damn it! Of course, I know I’m surrounded!”

Sean Martin cursed. How did Anthony manage to gather intelligence?

Didn’t they say that the same group of people were still in the Thomas Company villa complex?

Why did more than three times the number of experts suddenly appear?

Moreover, judging from their reaction speed, their strength was not inferior to the members of the Death God Party.

He should have reacted when he killed the first hidden sentry. However, he trusted Anthony too much and trusted his strength too much. As a result, he was suppressed by the firepower and could not rise at all!

“Instructor, what do we do now?”

One of the team members frowned. This was definitely the biggest risk he had encountered in his career.

He couldn't understand why a mere Thomas Company would have so many experts protecting them.

"I'm thinking of a way!"

Sean Martin replied in frustration. In the face of heavy encirclement, the only way was to break out. However, he also knew that none of the people in charge of surrounding them were good people.

Under the circumstances where there was a huge disparity in strength and there was no heavy weapon to cover them, how could they break out of the encirclement?

At the same time, the intelligence department and the imperial guards did not act rashly. They were all experts and knew that if they appeared now, they would very likely be ambushed.

Moreover, they had the advantage now. Even if they surrounded them, they could trap the Death God Team here.

"Sean Martin, you won't be able to escape today! Are you satisfied with the gift Boss prepared for you?" George Lee was taunted after the situation was settled. "If you're a man, don't hide! You can't hide either!"

There was indeed no way to escape. The Death God Squad had no chance of breaking out! Therefore, there was no hurry! There was no rush at all!

After all, Shawn Martin was a combat expert, especially at his level. It was normal for him to be faster than a bullet.

Although he was very unconvinced and wanted to go up and fight one-on-one, if he gave up the advantage he already had, he would not be a hero, but an idiot. From the moment he stepped into the military camp, he was taught not to be an individual, but to win a battle with the least casualties!

“May I ask who this brother is?”

Sean Martin, who was hiding behind cover, did not even dare to show his head because he could feel that there were snipers on the roofs of the surrounding villas. Such a question was indeed out of unwillingness.

After all, the Death God Squad was a top-notch existence even among the Blood Fiend.

In terms of combat ability, it was impossible for ordinary special forces to surround them silently.

Secondly, he wanted to stall for time!

“I am your grandfather! Remember, I will cut off your head and use it as a chamber pot in front of the graves of the brothers who died under your hands!”

George Lee’s first sentence was deliberately to lure Sean Martin into speaking, so it was gentle and only carried a little sarcasm. However, the second sentence was meant to make Sean Martin lose his composure and walk out of the bunker to die.

Therefore, he was naturally much more domineering!

“Your mother!”

Sean Martin was so angry that his face turned red. This game that had lasted for nearly a month had been tense all the time.. Now that he was surrounded and humiliated again, his arrogance instantly rose! Then, he gestured to his side, and his target was the Xenon Lamp hanging on the lighthouse!

Chapter 878: Sacrifices Have To Be Made

The only thing that was beneficial to him now was that they were at the Thomas Villa. Other than the lighthouse, there were no high-rise buildings.

Therefore, as long as he destroyed the headlights and returned to the dark, he might be able to find a chance in the impossible.

To put it bluntly, it was a gamble!

As a qualified commander, he understood that the situation was unfavorable. The longer he dragged on, the more dangerous it would be. Secondly, they were the attackers, after all. In order to go into battle lightly, they did not bring heavy weapons.

However, as the defender, it was impossible for them to use heavy weapons and cause unnecessary casualties! They had to quickly come up with a plan.

“Bang...”

The Reaper Squad member beside Sean Martin nodded in response and quickly got up. Then, he raised his gun and fired at the Xenon Lamp on the lighthouse!

“Bang bang bang..”

However, almost at the same time as the headlights went out, the member of the Reaper Squad was also shot into a sieve by bullets from all directions! Their death was too miserable!

Then, the Thomas Company villa complex fell into darkness!

“Don’t worry!” George Lee instantly ordered.

Of course, he had a backup plan! Naturally, he knew Sean Martin’s intentions!

Zooey also ordered the agent beside her. "Listen to my command. Hold it steady!"

Trying to escape? How could it be so easy?

It was not an exaggeration to say that the Thomas Company villa was the place where Sean Martin would die! They had set up an inescapable net, so it was naturally impossible for them to let anyone go!

"Listen up, pair up. Charge towards the north, south, east, and west respectively. Whoever gets to run out we'll make it count!"

Sean Martin immediately gave the order. Including him, there were still ten people left, so they were divided into five groups; but north, south, east, and west, there were only four directions!

"Instructor, what about you?" someone asked.

Sean Martin's eyes flashed with a hint of craftiness. "Third Brother and I will stay behind to cover for you!"

With just one sentence, the other eight members of the Death God Team were moved to tears. Who said the instructor was cold-blooded?

At the last moment, he actually wanted to sacrifice himself! However, they did not know that they would be treated as cannon fodder by the cunning Sean Martin.

Since the other party had set up an ambush, how could there only be one light?

"2!,,

"Break out of the encirclement!"

Sean Martin deliberately shouted, and the eight members of the Reaper Squad did not hesitate. Their bodies instantly rushed out of the garden they were hiding in and toward their respective targets!

“Shoot!”

When the murderous aura filled the air, George Lee and Zoey almost simultaneously gave orders to their subordinates!

In the next moment, the Imperial Guards and the intelligence agents on the roof of the villa instantly fired into the air! In an instant, as many as ten strong lights shot into the sky, making the night seem like day!

“Cover!” “It’s a trap!”

‘Quickly cover!’

Under the illumination of the flares, the members of the four teams were instantly exposed to the open space and became live targets!

Trying to hide? That was undoubtedly a dream!

“Da da da...”

In the next moment, powerful firepower instantly covered the positions of the eight members of the Death God Team!

This was no longer a matter of reaction speed. There was no way out and nowhere to escape!

After a few screams, the eight of them died instantly!

Sean Martin, who had witnessed all of this, did not have the slightest guilt in his eyes. Instead, he sneered.

He had been waiting for this moment! When the opponent's attention has been distracted, this would be the chance for them to attack.

Escape? He wouldn't.

The only way to survive was to capture either Emilia or Olivia Walker.

No.3 took a deep breath. He knew that this was a matter of life and death.. He gritted his teeth and charged forward with Sean Martin!

Chapter 879: Saving Himself First

"No! There are only eight people!"

George Lee immediately shouted, "There are still survivors. Surround them from both sides. Suppress them with fire from the front and back!"

When the killing intent erupted just now, there were ten of them, but now only eight people had died. This means that their problems have not been solved yet.

Zoey suddenly realized something. Her expression changed. "Leave the scene to the imperial guards. The rest of you, follow me back to the villa!"

She had been careless just now but it was good that she reacted quickly. Her professional experience told her that the eight people just now were cannon fodder to cover for the main person.

The two people who escaped should have run towards the main villa!

After all, they were all in a highly tense state just now. Therefore, when they discover that the enemy has broken out of their encirclement, they subconsciously choose to surround them!

It was also because of this that the two of them found an opportunity!

Who was in the main villa? The chaplain's wife and daughter.

As the enemies got closer, the danger that they would face would be unimaginable!

At the same time, two groups of Imperial Guards carefully moved forward.

After all, they couldn't afford to be careless with the enemy they were facing.

Whoever dared to underestimate the enemy would die!

Gradually, the flares began to dim! However, soon, another flare appeared in the sky and lit up the night again!

Everyone was extremely nervous! They searched the place where those people could have been hiding but it was empty!

"Report, no!" "No target found!"

"It's safe!"

As the Imperial Guards reported, George Lee's expression changed several times!

"Team One, follow me. The rest of you, continue with your security duties!"

The siege battle had reached the final juncture, so they definitely could not let their guard down. Moreover, the chaplain had left the Thomas Villa Complex in order to lure the snake out of its hole.

He would hand over his wife and daughter to them for protection!

How could they dare to betray such trust?

The chaplain should be on his way back! They just didn't know if they could make it in time!

This mission was an important one. They have a huge responsibility! No one dared to lower their guard!

At the same time, Oliver Walker was driving a military jeep on the road. After hearing the reports, he was eager to return home. He wished he could drive a plane instead of a military jeep and rush back to Thomas Corporation's villa at the fastest speed.

The battle had reached its final juncture! There must not be any more mistakes!

Whether it was the intelligence department or the Imperial Guards, they were the elites of the elites. It could be said that they were no weaker than any special forces in the world!

After all, they had all crawled out from mountains of corpses and seas of blood. Whether it was strength or perseverance, they were all one in a million!

He looked calm, and those who knew him well knew that the more anxious Oliver Walker was, the calmer he would appear. Therefore, it was enough to explain his heart at this moment!

However, the accelerator under his feet had already been stepped to the bottom. His speed soared to 280, and the car began to float! Along the way, he left all the cars behind!

At the same time, in the mam villa!

“Third Brother, listen carefully! This is our only chance to live!”

” This is where they must pass through,” Sean Martin warned in a serious tone.

“You just stay here and guard it. Try to stall them for as long as you can.”

“If you can’t hold it, run over there! When I get the hostage, I’ll definitely come and pick you up!”

“Yes, Instructor!” No. 3 nodded solemnly.

As soon as he finished speaking, Sean Martin began to search the room. He was sure that Emilia and Olivia Walker were in the villa.

Even if it didn’t work out, it would still be the same if they caught Luna Thomas!

As for Third Brother? He was just a tool to be used!

At this moment, he was like a drowning dog.. He could only save himself, and everyone would pave the way for his chance of survival!

Chapter 880: The Soul-Scourging Sword

But... The other party was too cunning!

All the doors were tightly shut.

However, the lights in all the rooms were still on. It could be said that the hostage he wanted could be hidden in any room. Therefore, they had to search them one by one!

“Attack!”

Zoey took the lead, and the agents behind her were not slow either. They instantly rushed into the living room. However, just as they reached the stairs...

“Da da da...”

A series of rapid gunshots rang out, and two agents instantly fell into a pool of blood!

“Kill him!”

Zoey was furious. Ever since she took over the intelligence department, there had been casualties every month. After all, they were carrying out the most dangerous missions but it was the first time that so many of his brothers had died overnight since the end of the war in Indiana.

Especially the mercenaries of Blood Fiend, they had indeed given her a lot of pressure.

In addition, the Blood Fiend had the advantage of being in the dark, while the intelligence department, which had always been good at attacking, had no choice but to defend passively. This also limited their strength to a large extent!

“Bang...”

After Zoey finished speaking, an agent also threw a flash bomb.

A second before the explosion, No. 3 instantly reacted and retreated without looking back. He knew very well what kind of person Sean Martin was. Whether he could live or not was up to the heavens!

“He’s getting away!”

One of the agents shouted and prepared to chase after him!

Zooey quickly stopped him instead. “He can’t run anywhere. Don’t worry about him. Find Seann Martin quickly!”

Outside, it could be said to be an iron wall. The only threat was inside the villa!

“Bang...”

“Boom...”

“Damn it!”

Desperate, Sean Martin kicked several doors in succession, from the second floor to the third floor!

In the end, it was empty, without a single person! It was impossible!

This was clearly not what the intelligence report said!

Could it be in the basement?

Sean Martin’s expression tightened at the thought.

He had been fooled. He did not know how much time he had been delayed. However, to him, every minute and every second would endanger his life!

“Everyone, spread out and guard the exit!”

Zoey naturally heard such a big commotion.

Sean Martin was the most miserable. He had just realized that he had been tricked when he was surrounded.

Jump out of the window? It was unrealistic! Even if he could dodge the bullets, there was a limit to that. It was impossible for him to escape the coverage of the firepower.

Therefore, the villa was now the most advantageous place for him!

He couldn't run anywhere else now!

At the same time, Zoey, who was wearing a male suit, blocked the corridor. To be honest, people in their line of work naturally knew the name Sean Martin!

It wasn't any superficial understanding. This was a man that all the intelligence organizations in the world wanted to kill! After all, Sean Martin only cared about collecting money when he killed people.

Plus, many of them were founding fathers who had made great contributions to their respective countries! Therefore, Sean Martin naturally became the primary target of all intelligence organizations.

Sean Martin has also always been a cunning man. Until now, no one other than America had been able to get an accurate photo of Sean Martin. Naturally, they knew nothing about his appearance!

"Haha..."

"You must be Zoey," Sean Martin smiled. "I've heard of you."

"The unlucky guys from the Army Saber Mercenary Group were also killed by you!"

The Army Saber Mercenary Group was not as powerful as Blood Fiend, but it was still one of the top 20 forces in the world.

The Army Saber Mercenary Group refused to believe that this nation was forbidden. After accepting the mission, he came without any preparation. In the end, he did not manage to kill them, but he lost more than 30 people and fled in a sorry state.

“Many people have fallen under my hands! You will also be one of them!”

Zoey’s expression was indifferent. Her cold temperament made her cold beauty even more prominent.. “So, how do you want to die?”
