Chapter 891: Worthy Men

“We will!”

At this moment, a firm voice resounded in the grave. “We will!!

“Sir!”

George Lee, Zooey, and the soldiers who came to see their brothers off saluted.

“There will be such a day! If our brothers are still being sacrificed, it means that we are not strong enough!”

Oliver Walker’s tone was sonorous and forceful, and his eyes were shining with determination. “Let’s make a promise here. When we are old and weak, when the country is prosperous, we will return to Indiana and comfort all the brothers who have fought side by side! We have fulfilled their will!”

That’s right! There would be such a day!

Didn’t they bleed and sacrifice so that the next generation wouldn’t have to bleed and sacrifice?

‘Yes!’

George Lee and Zooey nodded at the same time!

The eyes of the soldiers who followed him were filled with anticipation!

“At that time. I will bring my family to a beautiful place and stay away from the troubles of the world.”

“Living a life of peace and quiet! Isn't it a happy thing in life?”

Oliver Walker looked at the photos on the tombstones and smiled bitterly. “They were all heroes of the country. They were unparalleled!”

In an instant, everyone saluted!

Perhaps their deeds were not known by ordinary people, but they would always live in their hearts!

“Don't be careless recently. We must prevent Blood Fiend from counterattacking!”

“Also,” Oliver Walker said again, “don't mention the title of the 'chaplain' again. Before our country reached the top of the world, I was not qualified to enjoy the glory that my brothers fought for with their lives!”

“Just call me boss, that's enough!”

“Right, what's the situation with Freddy Martin?”

In fact, he was not a heartless person. That stubborn and ambitious person had indeed walked into his heart.

That was why he paid attention to it!

“He was discharged this morning! He's now kneeling in front of the Hongri Mall in Colorado to repent!”

“If he hadn’t embarked on a path of no return, he would definitely be a worthy man!” George Lee sighed.

Oliver Walker did not deny it. It was the truth!

He shook his head and said, “If he doesn’t die within three days, then don’t pursue the matter anymore. The citizens of the State of Colorado have already tried him on our behalf!”

It was not that he was ruthless, but that Freddy Martin had to pay the price for his mistakes and receive the punishment he deserved. Put down the butcher’s knife and become a Buddha?

What a ridiculous statement!

What he hated the most was such hypocrisy that was disguised as philosophical words to absolve the most heinous of sins!

Some sins did not deserve death! Some sins required death!

Human feelings could not be above the law! This was the foundation of protecting the dignity of a country!

Oliver Walker didn’t have much time to spend with his family after he was done with his work.

After Freddy Walker’s death, most of the members of the Seven Stars Gang were merged into the Black Dragon Sect.

At present, Mike was also in charge of the Black Dragon Sect. Aiden began to train a group of elites of the Black Dragon Sect who had decent physical fitness. This would become a sharp blade for the Black Dragon Sect.

In the future, they would maintain the peace and stability of the underground world. Many profitable gray businesses had also stopped.

Wasn't Oliver Walker's goal of subduing the Black Dragon Sect to reduce the harm that this group of people posed to society?

If he were to do everything like before, wouldn't there be no point in sacrificing his reputation to take these people under his command?

Another day passed...

Thomas Company Villa Complex!

"Tell me about it, how far have you progressed with Oliver Walker?"

Mark Thomas didn't expect to come back alive, but since he did, he had to fulfill his father's duties. Therefore, he still had to take care of the things that needed to be done!

Plus, he also felt that Oliver Walker was a good person!

However, he had been dealing with all kinds of troubles in the group for the past two days and had no time to go home.. Naturally, he did not know that Oliver Walker already had a wife and daughter!

Chapter 892: Misunderstandings

"Dad! What are you talking about?"

Luna Thomas frowned slightly. "He and I are just ordinary friends. We shouldn't be talking about this. It won't be good if it causes a misunderstanding."

She had been trying her best to avoid suspicion on this matter. Who would have thought that her father would bring up the past?

To be honest, every time she thought of Oliver Walker, she felt a dull pain in his heart.

If she met that man first, she would dare to confess loudly! But now that they knew each other, even if she hid her love in her heart, she still felt guilty about having an affair!

“Hahaha...’

Mark Thomas laughed out loud. He thought that his daughter was embarrassed to say it because she was shy, so he took the initiative to say, “It’s okay. You still risked so much to save a useless person like me?”

“Alright, alright! He will be here soon!”

Mark Thomas had already sent someone to inform Oliver Walker.

If she missed out on such a rich husband, she would definitely regret it for the rest of her life!

“Dad, you... Don’t do anything rash! He has already...”

Luna Thomas’s sense of propriety had been disrupted.

“What about him? No matter how powerful he is, he will still call me father-in-law when he sees me!”
Mark Thomas laughed out loud.

Luna Thomas’s face was pale. Something bad was going to happen!

However, in a moment of desperation, she actually spoke incoherently! This... It was not her fault. After all, she had never experienced such a thing before!

“Mr. Thomas!”

However, just as Luna Thomas was about to tell the truth, a voice appeared.

This made Luna Thomas even more anxious. “Hurry up and leave!”

If he didn’t leave, wouldn’t there be a misunderstanding? If Emilia found out, she would think that Luna Thomas did this on purpose!

“What’s wrong?”

Oliver Walker was dumbfounded. He could not figure out what had happened. In fact, even if Mark Thomas did not look for him, he would have looked for Mark Thomas to have a good chat.

After all, Thomas Corporation’s position in Ocean City was the best. No one dared to claim to be second. Even the Holy Light Group had become much more honest after experiencing a fierce battle.

“It’s nothing. I don’t have time to explain to you.”

Luna Thomas was on the verge of tears. How could she say this? She could only brace herself and continue to chase him away. “Anyway, just leave quickly!”

“You don’t know any manners.” Mark Thomas pretended to be unhappy and reprimanded him.

“Oliver Walker, come here. I want to have a good chat with you! Ignore her!” It was understandable for a girl to be shy, but how could she be like this?

Chase away his son-in-law? Don’t even think about it!

“Dad!”

Luna Thomas was really about to cry. She kept stomping her feet, feeling extremely bitter!

This... What was this?

“Mr. Thomas, I happen to have something to talk to you about!”

Oliver Walker sat down. He didn't expect anything to happen. After all, there was indeed something going on.

“Hahaha...”

“Luna Thomas, look at her. She even knows how to take the initiative!”

“You're right!” Mark Thomas was grinning from ear to ear. “I was kidnapped but I found a suitable husband for my daughter. Even if I were kidnapped again, I would still be happy!”

His daughter had lost her mother when she was young! As a father, he was worried every day. Now that this day had come, how could he not be happy?

Oliver Walker was dumbfounded!

Luna Thomas found a husband? That fast? But this was a good thing!

“I know what you want to tell me!”

“Don't worry,” Mark Thomas said with a smile. “I don't object. Not only do I not object, I support it very much!”

This was truly a joyous occasion! It was normal for people to be excited because they were in high spirits!

“Mr. Thomas, you’re righteous!”

Oliver Walker said with a smile. He did not expect that the other party would agree so readily. In this way, the situation in the business world of the state of Colorado could be stabilized for the time being!

“What does this have to do with being righteous? Look at how happy you are!”

“Not only do I not want the betrothal money, but I also want to pay for it. After all, I only have one precious daughter.” Mark Thomas laughed.

“I’m happy to do so!”

Chapter 893: We’re Just Ordinary Friends

But for Mark Thomas, as long as Oliver Walker married his daughter, he would not have to struggle for the rest of his life!

This was indeed something to be happy about! After all, his daughter was also a standard beauty!

Whether it was her background, appearance, or age, she was more than enough to match Oliver Walker, right? However, this sentence made Luna Thomas cover her face in embarrassment!

Wasn’t this the scene of a social death? She was ascending to heaven on the spot!

“No, no, no. Cough cough... Mr. Thomas!”

Oliver Walker frowned and said, “This...

Mark Thomas stood up and patted Oliver Walker’s shoulder like an elder. He pretended to be unhappy and said, “I’ve already agreed to your matter. Why are you still calling me uncle? Call me Dad!”

What kind of vicious words were these?

Oliver Walker was shocked. He wanted to get up quickly, but Mark Thomas held him down. “Brat, I only have one precious daughter. You have to treat her well! Otherwise, I’ll have to fight you to the death!”

Oliver Walker frowned. “No...”

“What is it?” Mark Thomas asked again.

“I’m very serious. You’re not bad. I think highly of you! I’ll grow old one day. Her mother passed away early, and I’m alone. I’m both her father and mother, and I took great care of her and spoiled her since she was a young girl.

As he spoke, tears welled up in his eyes. His face was full of fatherly love. He sighed with emotion.

It was not easy! For the sake of his daughter, he did not even find another wife.

Otherwise, with his conditions, what kind of woman could he not find? But in his heart, his daughter was the most important!

Seeing her father like this, Luna Thomas frowned slightly and no longer had any resistance. Her beautiful eyes were filled with tears of gratitude.

She knew her father's love! She could also feel the heavy weight. She also couldn't forget how her father had flown into a rage when she was called a motherless wild child by other children at a gathering.

With tears in her eyes, she reluctantly sent her abroad!

Oliver Walker did not move anymore. He did not want to break the warmth of this fatherly love!

"You brat, you must treat her well! She's the apple of my eye, the treasure in my palm! I don't want to see her suffer!"

For the first time, Mark Thomas cried, laughed, and confessed without caring about his dignity. It was as if he had regarded Oliver Walker as his son-in-law from the bottom of his heart!

"Dad!"

Luna Thomas wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes and stepped forward to hug her father.

Oliver Walker took a deep breath. He understood the weight of fatherly love.

After all, he was a father! He had the same feelings for Olivia Walker. He couldn't bear to see his daughter suffer any grievances!

"Good child, don't cry!"

"Once you move out, remember to come back often to see this old man!" Mark Thomas said in a heavy tone.

"Remember to give birth to a son as soon as possible so that I can have a grandchild! I would like to enjoy them too!"

"Look at those old things. Who still dares to laugh at me? No one calls me grandpa!"

“Hahaha...

That’s right! He had been doing business for so many years. Naturally, he envied his friends who had many children and grandchildren. This was a happiness that money could not exchange for.

“Uh... Although it’s very touching, I have to interject!”

Oliver Walker stood up with a slight frown. “Luna Thomas and I are just ordinary friends. We’re not a couple. You might... It’s a misunderstanding!”

How awkward would that be?

Actually...

He was too embarrassed to say it, but if this misunderstanding was not resolved immediately, it would only deepen!

“What? Ordinary friends?”

Mark Thomas, who still had tears in his eyes, stiffened, and his face was filled with disbelief.

He looked at Oliver Walker in a daze, and then at his daughter in a daze! When he received a nod from the two of them, he was dumbfounded.

“They can’t be ordinary friends! How can both of you be ordinary friends? You guys want to give me a surprise, but this joke isn’t funny at all! Is this how it’s played overseas?”

Chapter 894: Telling the Hard Truth

This kind of thing was already very difficult to accept.

Mark Thomas was simply a womanizer. His requirements for his son-in-law were naturally extremely high. It was rare to find someone who was outstanding in all aspects. How could they just be ordinary friends?

“Dad! It’s true!”

Luna Thomas bit her red lips lightly. Although she liked him very much, there were some people she could not love. “Mr. Walker and I are really just ordinary friends!”

She knew that her father must be very disappointed now, so she did not dare to say it out loud.

Otherwise, she was afraid that her father would not be able to take it!

“Impossible!”

“Young man,” Mark Thomas said excitedly, “I can understand why you’re so thin-skinned. But men should get married when they’re of age, and women should get married when they’re of age. Who hasn’t come from youth?” “Can ordinary friends climb mountains of blades or dive into seas of fire for you?”

Not to mention ordinary friends, even many of his close friends had stabbed Thomas Corporation a few times behind his back after he was in trouble.

Not to mention his best friend, his second brother, Richard Thomas, was his biological brother, Luna Thomas’s uncle!

Wasn't it the same? Didn't he do those things?

Mark Thomas had been in the company for the past two days to deal with these matters. Naturally, he had a lot of understanding of how his daughter stabilized the Thomas Corporation.

It was Oliver Walker, at his beck and call! Oliver Walker wanted to speak, but he stopped when he saw Luna Thomas's pleading eyes.

He could understand Mark Thomas's current disappointment.

"Dad! Mr. Walker is a peerless hero. How can I be worthy of him?"

Luna Thomas bitterly mocked herself and spoke her mind. However, to give her father some time to calm down, she did not mention the existence of Emilia and Olivia Walker.

"Cough cough..

The smile on Mark Thomas' face gradually cooled down, but he quickly said solemnly, "Oliver Walker, I misunderstood just now.

"I admit that you are capable, but my daughter is not unworthy of you, right? Thomas Company, even if it's not a top company in the country, it still has some weight.

"Marrying her won't make you suffer, right?"

He had changed his strategy! For the sake of his daughter, he put down his self-esteem and took the initiative to propose marriage. "This is not a matter of status. It's because I already have a family!"

"I love my wife very much. We have a daughter too!"

Oliver Walker smiled. 'Mr. Thomas, I'm sorry!"

“If I didn’t get married and marry such an outstanding girl like Luna Thomas, it would be like smoke rising from my ancestral grave.”

Luna Thomas was indeed not bad, but in his heart, she was still far from his wife. It was a kind of emotional sustenance!

The last sentence was also to save Mark Thomas and Luna Thomas ‘faces.

He couldn’t be too straightforward, right? However, the listener had a different intention!

As expected, it wasn’t that she wasn’t outstanding enough. It was just that Mr. Walker met Sister Amelia first.

However, she felt much better!

In fact, at this moment, Emilia was in the living room corridor. When she first heard this awkward topic, she stopped in her tracks. After all, if she appeared, it would only make the scene even more awkward.

After hearing Oliver Walker’s answer, a beautiful smile appeared on her face. At least, her husband really loved her. Even if he really had that kind of relationship with Luna Thomas, he was framed.

At the very least, these words had relieved the grudge in her heart. “Married? You have a daughter?”

Mark Thomas suddenly lost all his strength and collapsed on the sofa. His expression was filled with disappointment.

It was hard to accept! It was really hard to accept this fact!

Chapter 895: Emilia and Oliver Walker

“Impossible! This is impossible! I’m old. I can’t take such a joke.”

Mark Thomas kept talking to himself. He could clearly see the dependence on that man in his daughter’s eyes, but he never expected that the result would be like this. Then, he said, “Is this a joke overseas?”

After all, overseas and domestic were two different regions with different living habits, so it was still very possible! This left Luna Thomas speechless!

Oliver Walker frowned, not knowing what to say.

At the same time, Emilia appeared with her daughter in the corridor with a sweet smile. “Are you done?” she asked with concern.

“I missed you!”

She pretended that she did not know to avoid further awkwardness.

“Me too!”

Oliver Walker’s expression became even more unnatural. After all, Mark Thomas was the one who had just set him up with Luna Thomas.

This... He suddenly felt an inexplicable sense of guilt! Just by looking at the smile on his wife’s lips, he could understand that she must have heard it!

“Daddy!”

After seeing her father nod, Olivia Walker happily spread out her small hands and rushed forward.

Oliver Walker picked up his daughter and said dotingly, "Greet Grandpa

Thomas too!"

Perhaps this was the best way to clear up the misunderstanding! Although it was a little too direct, it was the only way. "Hello, Grandpa!"

A smile appeared on Olivia Walker's young face.

"Oh..... Oh my!"

Mark Thomas gave up. He finally believed that Oliver Walker and his daughter were just ordinary friends. Then, in order to avoid embarrassment, he smiled bitterly. "This child is so cute!"

He wanted a grandchild. He thought that it was right in front of him, but he did not expect...

The son-in-law he had taken a fancy to was already a father. No matter how thick-skinned he was, he couldn't possibly let Oliver Walker, who had saved his life, marry his daughter after a divorce, right? Even if it was possible, he wouldn't do such a thing. 'My daughter's name is Olivia Walker. She's eight years old!"

"This is my wife," Oliver Walker introduced with a smile. "She's the chairman of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals in the state of Colorado!"

"Alright!" Mark Thomas quickly said.

"That's great! I've heard of the name before. I didn't expect to see her here!"

After all, he was the overlord of Ocean City who was used to all sorts of. He still could deal with emergencies.

For the sake of everyone, that matter must not be mentioned again!

“Mr. Thomas, you’re welcome! I’m just a junior. I should learn more from you!” “I hope Mr. Thomas can enlighten me!” Emilia replied politely.

In fact, Mark Thomas, as the owner of Thomas Corporation, naturally could not be compared to her small company. Moreover, her relationship with Luna Thomas had always been very good.

Although some things have happened in between them, Luna Thomas didn’t betray their friendship.

“Hahaha... I’m not being nice,” Mark Thomas said with a smile. “The effects of the Heavenly Doctor Mask have indeed shocked me.”

“The pills that were later released were even more amazing but there’s something I don’t know if I should say!”

As the chairman of Thomas Corporation, he naturally had to pay attention to the current news when such a big thing happened.

The Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals had become a leading company in the state of Colorado, and it was a product that many people could not live without.

It was also the most successful example of a cosmetics company transforming into a pharmaceutical company, and it only took half a year. This wasn’t luck, but a sufficient foundation.

However, it made sense. With a husband like Oliver Walker, everything would be convenient.

If he knew that Oliver Walker had only provided the prescription and did not interfere in many aspects and that it was all Emilia’s ability, he would be shocked. However, this sentence caused the atmosphere in the living room to change..

Chapter 896: True Intentions of Businesses

There was a saying, should I say it?

Something big must have happened!

“Please enlighten me, Mr. Thomas,” asked Emily humbly.

Although she had extraordinary abilities, she knew that there was still a big gap between her and Mark Thomas, who had been galloping through the business world.

Such a good opportunity, he naturally couldn't let it go!

“After all, the state of Colorado is a small place! It will limit the upper limit of a company. If I'm not wrong, the development of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical must have encountered a bottleneck, right?”

Although Mark Thomas had been kidnapped for a month and had only just regained his freedom, he could see the recent situation of Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical from some of the current news.

Experience was not to be doubted!

“Yes, sir!”

“The current market share of the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical has reached its peak. If we want to continue developing it, we would have to reach out to other cities.”

Before this, she had already agreed with Luna Thomas. She wanted to develop in Ocean City

After all, it was a provincial city and it was a huge market. The market would be even bigger, filled with even more possibilities!

It was only because of the drastic changes in Thomas Corporation that it had been delayed until now.

“The Ocean City is not far from the State of Colorado. I can also take care of it. Although there’s still pressure from the Holy Light Group, it shouldn’t be difficult for the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceutical to develop,” said Mark Thomas. “In this case, you don’t have to worry about it anymore.”

“Let me know what you need. I can give you the land when you need it, and I’ll pay for the money if you need it. We must allow such a good company like Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to develop across the country.” Actually, he did this to repay his kindness!

Of course, deep down, he was also an ambitious entrepreneur.

He was not an evil capitalist!

Otherwise, with Thomas Corporation’s status in Ocean City, if they wanted to disrupt the situation, the business world of Ocean City would not be so prosperous.

Even before the Holy Light Group invaded, it was not impossible to monopolize all the profitable industries.

If they didn’t have this ability, how could Thomas Corporation be known as the number one company in Ocean City.

How could the Thomas Corporations be known as the overlord of Ocean City?

“Dad! You’re absolutely right!”

“That’s what I discussed with Sister Amelia before,” Luna Thomas said happily.

“She already had such a plan before anything happened to you.”

Mark Thomas smiled and patted her head. “You’re right. I was overthinking it.” He laughed at himself.

Although they did not know each other before, Emilia was able to lead the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals to such heights and set so many records. Her horizons were naturally not bad. How could she not see through such a situation?

“But Uncle has one more thing to say!”

Mark Thomas sighed with emotion. “We have to be honest in our business. We have to be a national enterprise. Benefits are important, but you can’t be blinded by them.”

The greater the power, the greater the responsibility. At his level, he was no longer thinking about how to earn money. Instead, they clearly understood that the country supported enterprises like them so that they could share social responsibility.

If they were all like parasites, how could the country develop?

“Mr. Thomas, brilliant idea!”

Oliver Walker wanted to talk about this topic alone, but he did not expect Mark Thomas to realize that there was no need for him to say anything more. However, judging from the layout of the Thomas Corporations, Mark Thomas was indeed not a capitalist.

“Although I may not be from this country, I also have the ambition to make the country rich and powerful! How many people have lost their conscience in their interests?” Mark Thomas said with great emotion.

“Little did we know that we can stand at such a height because of the country’s prosperity and policies. Sigh...”

Although he wanted to change the business world, he was powerless to do so. He could only be himself. “The great motives of your company must be passed down. We must create a medicine that the common people can afford and use with peace of mind! This is the mission and responsibility of us entrepreneurs..

We must not forget our original intentions!”

Chapter 897: Finally Holding His Wife

These words were not only a warning to the younger generation, but also an education for his daughter.

Mark Thomas’s expression was solemn and stern. There was even a hint of dignity. If a businessman only pursued profits, he would fall into the abyss sooner or later!

He had seen too many people like this and this righteous mood also infected many people.

“Don’t worry, Mr. Thomas. I will not fail my mission!”

Emilia said solemnly. After all, the person in front of her was a true senior.

In the business world, after many years of hard work, it was rare to meet someone who had the same opinion as him. This made her even more determined to move forward!

Oliver Walker revealed a gratified smile. If everyone in the country was like Mark Thomas, then was their sacrifice worth it? The answer was yes, it was worth it!

“Look at me, this old man, I’m getting on in years, but I’m always talking nonsense!”

“I want to take Olivia out to play,” Mark Thomas quickly added. “Is that okay?”

His eyes were filled with the love of an elder and a little pleading.

Although his daughter couldn't marry Oliver Walker, Olivia Walker's appearance could make up for his many years of regret, even though she was not his biological granddaughter.

“Of course!”

Oliver Walker said with a smile. His ability to judge people was not wrong.

Although he had sacrificed many brothers to save Mark Thomas, he had stabilized the business world in Ocean City. Mark Thomas's character had also made him look at him in a new light.

“Olivia, right? Is there anything that you like?”

Mark Thomas's face was full of smiles. At this moment, he did not look serious at all. It was as if he was really a retired old man who was enjoying the happiness of his family with his granddaughter.

“I want to eat ice cream. Mommy always says it's not good for children!”

‘Well, it's okay to eat it once in a while!’

“Grandpa, that's great!”

Seeing Mark Thomas's happy expression, Oliver Walker, Emily, and Luna Thomas also laughed. Olivia Walker was the beloved team pet.

However, it made sense. Olivia Walker was cute and obedient. Most importantly, she was sensible. Who wouldn't like such a little girl?

“Sister Emilia, I...”

When there were only three people left in the living room, Luna Thomas became awkward again.

She indeed felt quite guilty but she could not say it out loud.

“I know. I’m fine now!”

“Don’t worry. Let bygones be bygones.”

There was no point in pursuing some matters. She was really relieved!

“Yes! My dad has never taken care of a child before,” said Luna Thomas. “I’ll go with him to take a look!”

Actually, she had never brought them along before. She just didn’t want the three of them to be troubled, so avoiding them was the best choice.

Of course, it was also because Oliver Walker had been working hard ever since he came to the East Ocean. He never had the chance to be alone with Emilia.

What was she doing here? Be a heartbroken third wheel, or a sour Olivia?

When there were only the two of them left in the huge living room, it became even more awkward.

They looked at each other and were speechless for a long time! However, they did not hide their longing for each other in their eyes. Of course, they could not hide it.

Still speechless, Oliver Walker stepped forward and pulled his wife into his arms.

The feeling of being able to see his family after experiencing life and death was difficult to express with words.

“I... I miss you!”

Tears welled up in Emilia’s beautiful eyes as she lay quietly on the man’s shoulder, breathing in the thick scent of hormones.

In fact, she had long been used to having Oliver Walker. During the past month, Oliver Walker had been busy, even walking on the edge of life and death. She was at a loss and couldn’t even sleep at night.

“Me too!”

Oliver Walker hugged her tightly and refused to let go for a long time.. He even forgot about time and the environment he was in!

Chapter 898: Claiming Whats His

“Ah... You...” Emilia pouted. “Be gentle, you’re hurting me!”

Like a child who had done something wrong, Oliver Walker let go in a flurry. However, Emilia smiled sweetly!

They looked at each other! When she was in love, she couldn’t help but stand on her tiptoes and leave a kiss on that resolute face. Although it was just a light touch, Oliver Walker felt as if he was in a dream!

This... It was his wife’s first kiss! She took the initiative to kiss him! “What are you looking at? Can’t I kiss my husband?”

To hide her shyness, Emilia said something coquettish. However, after a moment, she realized that she could not act like a coquettish girl. Her pretty face was flushed red as if she was drunk! How charming!

“Sure! That’s amazing!”

Oliver Walker picked up his wife’s delicate body without a word.

“Ah.. What are you doing? This is the living room. What if someone comes...”

Emilia’s delicate body struggled, twisted, and was shy, but lying in that man’s arms, she really felt at ease.

“What?” Oliver Walker’s heart had long been stirred. He ignored his wife’s resistance and said domineeringly, “What? I can’t even hug my own wife?” “You kissed me. You can’t be too two-faced!”

If it wasn’t for the drastic change in Ocean City, their relationship would have been closer. Why would they wait until now?

“You...”

Seeing that her husband had returned her words, Emilia pouted her red lips.

Her beautiful eyes were filled with embarrassment and anger. Then, she had no choice but to show weakness. “Put me down quickly. If someone sees...”

“I don’t care who wants to see it! You’re my wife anyway! I won’t let you off for the rest of my life!”

Emilia was shocked. “Where are you taking me?”

Oliver Walker did not stop. Instead, he lowered his head and whispered into his wife’s ear, “The bedroom!”

Emilia stopped struggling because she had already accepted it. Moreover, her husband had been back for so long, but she had not fulfilled her duty as a wife.

Her heart was filled with guilt! Therefore, no matter how nervous and shy she was, she did not want to interrupt her husband's mood!

Instead, her beautiful eyes became abnormally calm!

Just like that, she handed herself over to him again. Life was so illusory!

It felt so surreal!

“Clang...”

When the door closed, Oliver Walker gently placed his wife, who had stopped resisting, on the bed. His eyes were filled with anticipation. “Can I?”

He was not a saint! He wasn't the god that others spoke of! He was just an ordinary man who wanted to be a good husband.

There would also be emotions and desires. It was impossible to achieve the realm of sitting still.

In addition, they had been apart for a long time. When he smelled his wife's unique body fragrance again, he was even more eager!

“Yes...”

Emilia took a deep breath and closed her eyes. Was that moment really coming?

So nervous! Her heartbeat began to accelerate! He also began to feel uneasy!

She could feel a pair of strong hands controlling their strength as they took off her coat. She could also feel that the man's breathing was beginning to quicken!

Perhaps they had held it in for too long! Perhaps it was all..

Looking at his wife, who was more exquisite than a piece of art, Oliver Walker had long forgotten everything.

At that moment, he only wanted to have it again!

Both of them were lost! He also wanted to find himself in his lost state!

"Uh..."

When she felt violated, Emilia frowned and let out a coquettish cry.

This shout made Oliver Walker even crazier.....

Chapter 899: Freddy Martin i s Last Days

Oliver Walker didn't leave for the entire night!

Emilia had also suffered a lot from being dazzled, but she had been holding it in. After all, her husband had been holding it in for so long, and she was embarrassed to say it.

The next morning, Emilia did not get up. She said that she would rest for a while, but she was too embarrassed to tell the truth. His body felt like it was being torn apart.

This man didn't know how to show mercy to women.

It was not that he did not know, but that Oliver Walker did not know what was going on. However, he still personally brought the breakfast to the bedroom.

"I'll go settle some things. I'll clean up when I get back."

Okay!" A blush appeared on Emilia's face. She was shy, so she only nodded in response.

"You're so beautiful!" Oliver Walker kissed his wife's forehead with a satisfied smile.

His wife seemed to have changed! It was said that marriage could nourish a woman. This was true!

"Yes... Is that so?"

Emilia was so shy that she didn't know what to say. "Go and work."

After she rested, she had to go back to Colorado. After all, if the Heavenly Sect Pharmaceuticals wanted to enter Ocean City, she had to step in.

"Good!"

Only then did Oliver Walker leave reluctantly. If George Lee wasn't still waiting for him, he really wanted to stay by his wife's side.

When Oliver Walker arrived at the study, George Lee instantly stood up. "Boss!"

Oliver Walker did not allow them to address him as the 'Chaplain,' so this was the only name they could address him by. They could not just call him by his name, could they?

"What is it?"

Oliver Walker asked. He knew that there would be a lot of work to be done after the war.

George Lee placed a stack of documents on the desk.

"Freddy Martin announced his retirement, and Mike took over the position of gang leader. Aiden selected 500 elites for special training.

Oliver Walker nodded.

Everything was within his expectations! However, this was also the best choice!

"Still... There's one more thing..."

George Lee sighed. "Take a look. It's all in the file."

Oliver Walker frowned and opened the document.

In the end, he found a medical book. It said that Freddy Martin had a shattered leg bone and could only live in a wheelchair for the rest of his life. The end of a generation of formidable heroes was truly lamentable.

However, he had also completed his self-redemption. After paying the price of two legs, he was forgiven by the people of Colorado. In fact...

He did not know how to express himself. Then, Oliver Walker frowned and asked, "Did he say anything?"

This kind of thing would probably become a hurdle that no one could get over, right?

Resent Oliver Walker? But what did he do wrong?

Freddy Martin was only making amends for the sins he had committed!

“He thanked you for your great kindness,” George Lee said solemnly. “After atoning for his sins, the heavy burden in his heart has finally been lifted. Now that he’s innocent, he wants to bring my family back to Colorado to live.”

“He also said that he hoped that you could treat the brothers of the Black Dragon Sect as your subordinates. Although they are sinners, they are also the best!”

Freddy Martin had said all this himself.

As for why he didn’t come, it was because he was afraid of wasting Oliver Walker’s time. However, from these words, it was not difficult to see that Freddy Martin had let go!

“Sure!”

Oliver Walker nodded. “From now on, the Black Dragon Sect will be one of us. But we must not spoil the troublemakers!”

“Hurry up and gather our forces. I need them to have combat strength!”

At the same time, Zoey rushed in.

“Another urgent mission?” Oliver Walker asked.

Zoey's job was destined to be busy! It was impossible to stay in one place for too long!

Chapter 900: Another Hidden Mission

"Yes!"

Zoey took out a document from her bag. "This is an order from the higher-ups. It's urgent. I hope you can help."

Oliver Walker immediately took the red-headed document. This was a 5S level top-secret document. The importance of the mission inside could be imagined!

"The Eastern Alliance has already sealed us off! Also, all high-tech products are prohibited from being imported into our country.

"But, Chips are an important part of all high-tech industries and military enterprises. If we can't have our chip, we will forever be controlled by others!"

That's right! Although their country was big, with many high-end technologies, they still needed cooperation with the Eastern Alliance. Because of this, the Eastern Alliance had the loudest voice. Whoever dared to disobey would be punished!

This time, the ban on the export of high-tech chips to their country was not just a deterrent.

Oliver Walker's expression turned cold after reading all the contents!

The Eastern Alliance didn't just want to punish them. They wanted to punish those who were allies with them too.

George Lee frowned. "Just because we killed Sean Martin?"

Logically speaking, Blood Fiend shouldn't have such a strong background, right? Although he was overseas, he couldn't have any say in the Eastern Alliance.

"It's not that simple! Our country has a five thousand year history. How can we be controlled by others? The Eastern Alliance wants to force us to compromise and make us slaves forever!"

"Motherf*cker!"

This was no longer just bullying! The Eastern Alliance was the one who started the war in the state of Indiana. Otherwise, how would they have started a war with their country?

And after one plan failed, another one came up. It could be said that they had bad intentions! Moreover, it had only been half a year since the end of the war in Indiana.

The Eastern Alliance's reaction was doing things so fast that it was enough to show that they had planned this for a long time. It wasn't because of Blood Fiend!

"Please reply to them. Don't send me any more emails or letters. All missions must be verbally conveyed!"

Oliver Walker knew that he might have been targeted. Therefore, he cut off any possibility of leaking secrets. "I will do my best to organize the chip research team and complete the mission as soon as possible."

"But I don't understand." Zoey was confused. "Why didn't you leave this to the military?"

That's right!

Although Oliver Walker was the master of the gods of wealth and had enough energy, if one were to think about it in reverse, researching chips was a top secret.

Was it really reliable to hand it over to a private company?

“We’ve already started researching it a long time ago. It’s just that the military is being controlled by others, causing the progress to be slow. Even the purchase of many materials related to chips has been restricted.”

Oliver Walker already knew a few things regarding this issue. That was why he was so angry and aggrieved. “They just want us to do the dirty jobs for them.

The real focus of the military is indeed on the private companies.” There was no problem with such an order even he would have done the same!

“Then who are you going to give it to?”

George Lee asked curiously. After all, the eight God of Wealth couldn’t work together to study it, right?

After all, the more people who knew about such a top-secret, the greater the risk of it being leaked!

“The Thomas Company, of course!”

Oliver Walker already had an idea, and Mark Thomas was indeed a reliable person who was completely trustworthy. However, this answer really shocked George Lee and Zoey!

Thomas Corporation could take on such a heavy responsibility?

“Boss! I’m afraid Thomas Corporation might not be reliable! Even if they are reliable, they wouldn’t be strong enough to support it..”
