Chapter 911: The Culprit

Wendy Ambers refused to believe that Oliver Walker would dare to kill her!

Therefore, even though she felt terrible, she did not look afraid. Instead, the hatred in her eyes grew deeper and deeper. When this man was let go, she would send him to prison personally.

“Kill you? I don’t want to dirty the child’s eyes but the mistakes you’ve made are enough for you to be executed a thousand times!”

Oliver Walker was agitated. Judging from the age of the woman in front of him, she was not a first-year teacher. How many children had she harmed?

These children were still in the early days of their education. An adult’s behavior would be like a seed that would sprout in a child’s heart!

It would not only affect the present but also the future! He finally understood why there were so many evil people! This was because this kind of teacher was simply a crime machine! It was the source of the crime!

“You motherf*cker!”

Oliver Walker really wanted to kill her, but he let go of her and threw her to the ground. Then, he took out his phone and dialed a number. “Get the principal of Ocean City Noble School to see me immediately! Ask all the teaching staff and school leaders to gather in Class One Five now!” He was furious!

Was this making a mountain out of a molehill?

No! This was a very serious question!

They were risking their lives for the next generation, but if the next generation grew up in such an environment, then who was their blood flowing for?

This was especially true for these children. They were born with a silver spoon in their mouths. Their starting point would be much higher than children from ordinary families.

Once they grew up, if their minds were twisted, they would be a great threat to the entire society!

Evil practices must be rectified! He did not believe that Wendy Ambers was just an exception! It could very well be the epitome of the entire education industry!

A school was a fair and just place that shaped children's correct values. This was the true meaning of a school.

He was frustrated. This was the first time he was so angry that his lungs hurt!

When George Lee received the call, he did not ask much and quickly replied, "Yes, boss!"

At the same time, Wendy Ambers also pressed the SOS button! After all, this was an elite school, so there were obviously armed.

"Weng weng weng..."

When the alarming alarm sounded throughout the entire school, a large group of well-trained security personnel quickly gathered in Class One Five.

Those were all little ancestors that they had to protect. Not to mention being injured, even if they were threatened, it would definitely cause a storm!

Therefore, who dared to be careless?

“What happened?”

A man ran out of the principal’s office in a panic after hearing the alarm. He grabbed a security guard and asked anxiously.

“It’s Class One Five. There’s a problem!”

“According to the surveillance footage, Olivia Walker’s father attacked her homeroom teacher, Wendy Ambers!”

“That man is threatening the safety of the other students!”

The security guard who rushed over to provide reinforcements also told the whole story in an instant!

Principal William Howard’s expression changed drastically. “Go and protect them! You have to subdue the culprit. I... I’ll be there soon!”

When he realized that something was wrong, his forehead was covered in cold sweat. How dare you cause trouble in a school for the rich?

Don’t they know what these people are here?!

He really couldn’t understand how a man from the countryside who had used his connections to transfer to school could have the courage to not be afraid of death!

“Ding, ding, ding..

Just as he was about to rush to the scene, his phone rang.

“Hello!” He quickly answered the call.

“I already know what happened. All the security guards rushed over and subdued the culprit.. Don’t worry, I promise I won’t let the murderer go! I won’t let anything happen to any of the children!”

Chapter 912: an honest, trustworthy, and brave good child

It could be said that the elite school was an important place. Those children who were here were important figures in the society in the future. They were like a bomb. Whoever dared to detonate this bomb would not only be set on fire but would also be blown to pieces.

How could he not be afraid? His body was practically limp!

“The child’s safety. There won’t be any danger but remember, you must obey Mr. Walker unconditionally.

“Also, immediately organize all the school leaders and teaching staff to rush to the scene!”

“If you f*cking dare to make a mistake, I’ll be killed by you!”

The words on the phone made William Howards stunned. “Is there a mistake?”

Obey Olivia Walker’s father?

What does that even mean?!

He must have heard wrongly. He must have heard wrongly in a moment of desperation!

“Yes! You must obey!”

“If he’s dissatisfied, you’ll be crushed to ashes even if you’re a cat and have nine lives!” The other end of the phone gave another order.

“I... I’ll be there soon!”

He knew all too well what kind of serious problems there were in the elite schools. However, normally, he didn’t dare to say anything, let alone care.

It was no longer a matter of whether he wanted to interfere or not. It was a matter of whether he could still keep his job.

“I understand!”

William Howards also reacted. For the higher-ups to say so, Oliver Walker must have a powerful background, and he was powerful enough to crush the entire Ocean City’s aristocracy.

This... What kind of big shot would he be? Why was there no indication at all in the information?

It was over! Everything was done for!

Wang Huairen was filled with fear. His legs were trembling and weak. He immediately shouted, “Everyone, drop what you’re doing and gather in Class One Five! Hurry up!”

He shouted as he walked! His heart was in his throat! He finally understood what it meant to be terrified! If he didn’t handle it well, he would die!

Actually, it was not that exaggerated. Although Oliver Walker was a ruthless man, he was not a murderer but the punishment would not be light!

At the same time, a large group of security guards had already gathered at the entrance of Class 15!

“Oliver Walker, prepare to go to jail! Assaulting and threatening a teacher is a serious offense! Their parents won’t let you off either!”

When Wendy Ambers saw the security guard, she did not hide her ugly face.

“Young Master Lewis, don’t worry. I will definitely seek justice for you.”

In fact, George Lewis was stunned! He did this because he felt that it was very impressive. He did not think too much about it!

After all, what could a child who was not even ten years old know?

He was completely influenced by the harsh environment!

The security guards didn’t dare to make a move. They were completely afraid of angering Oliver Walker, so they didn’t make any verbal threats. All of them stood there and were prepared to fight.

“Daddy! There are so many people here! Did I cause you trouble again?” Olivia Walker asked timidly.

She had always wanted to be a sensible and good child. However, she did not expect...

“How could that be?”

Oliver Walker held his daughter’s hand. He did not take the bodyguards outside seriously. Then, he said righteously, “Just give me some time and I’ll teach them a lesson, alright? Olivia, listen carefully. Don’t learn things from them okay?”

Olivia Walker nodded. With her father around, she was not afraid of anything. "Daddy, I promised you that I would be an honest, trustworthy, and brave child!"

She recalled what her father had said when he first attended her parent-teacher conference. At that time, she was still in kindergarten in Colorado.

She did not know that this man was her father!

It was also from that time onwards that she had been working hard to be an honest, trustworthy, and brave good child..

Chapter 913: Why the big scene?!

Olivia Walker was not at fault! It was the school!

"Get out of the way!" Oliver Walker took a step forward and said with a strong aura.

The security guards looked at each other and finally chose to make way for the door. After all, if they fought inside and hurt those pampered young masters, they wouldn't be able to bear the responsibility. Now that Oliver Walker had chosen to leave, this was the best choice!

At this moment, they were holding hands and walking step by step. Wherever they passed, they left behind a righteous aura!

"You... What are you doing? Hurry up and catch him! Whoever dares to let him go will be an accomplice!" Wendy Ambers roared furiously.

However, the group of security guards did not pay any attention to her. Instead, they followed Oliver Walker step by step and surrounded him in three layers. They wanted to see where this man would run to after committing such a heinous crime!

Unexpectedly, Oliver Walker brought his daughter to the square.

This place was big enough! Everyone would be able to see him.

At the same time, Wendy Ambers also followed behind them. She had to see Oliver Walker being arrested with her own eyes before she applauded!

At the same time, more and more people gathered in the square!

The security captain saw that it was the right time and immediately gave a look.

The security guards, who had been eager to try, instantly rushed out at the order. They pounced on Oliver Walker from all directions.

“Wait...Wait! No...Don’t attack...”

“Mr. Walker!” At this moment, Principal William Howards, who had been running all the way here, shouted, “Don’t be rude to Mr. Walker!”

If it wasn’t for that phone call, he definitely wouldn’t have known how extraordinary this man was! Once they made a move, the consequences would be unimaginable!

“Why...What happened?”

The group of bodyguards was stunned!

This... If they don’t catch him now, would they still have a chance to after this?

“Principal, he hit me! He hit me in class. Look at my neck. There’s still a red mark on it…”

Wender Ambers cried out pitifully. Her eyes were filled with hatred!

“Shut up! Mr. Walker!” William Howards scolded her. He then stepped forward in fear. “Mr. Walker, all the teaching staff of Ocean City Noble School have gathered! Please give me your instructions!”

As soon as he said that, the crowd exploded! Especially Wendy Ambers, who felt like she had been struck by lightning. She couldn’t believe her ears.

What was going on? “Who is he?”

“Why is it so grand?”

“Isn’t that Olivia Walker a transfer student from Colorado?”

For a time, the field was filled with discussions!

Faced with hundreds of people surrounding her, Olivia Walker stuck close to her father’s side. She was not afraid at all!

At the same time, William Howard’s forehead was covered in cold sweat. After realizing that the atmosphere was not right, he quickly shouted, ‘Quiet!’ In an instant, the square regained its peace!

However, the confused looks in their eyes showed everyone’s feelings!

‘Mr. Walker, my name is William Howards. I’m the principal of an elite school. I really didn’t know that Olivia Walker had been treated unfairly. Otherwise, I definitely wouldn’t have allowed it.’

William Howards was on the verge of tears, especially when that cold gaze landed on him. He was even more terrified.

Don't know? How was this possible?

He just didn't know that Olivia Walker's father had such a powerful background.

To be able to make the boss of Ocean City's Minister of Education to personally give him a death order without caring about the nobles of Ocean City, just how powerful was this person?

"Principal, isn't he just a country bumpkin from Colorado?"

Wendy Ambers was not convinced. "It's not a big deal that he hit me, but he scared the child. He.... Your crimes are unforgivable...'

Chapter 914: "What exactly is this place?"

This sentence could be said to have echoed the thoughts of many teaching staff.

That's right! Wasn't he just a country bumpkin?

Why was William Howrds, the principal who had seen countless rich people in Ocean City, being so careful?

It was completely unnecessary! Moreover, those who taught here were sly foxes who knew how to survive. Who would offend a student with a rich background?

He still remembered that a meddlesome teacher had punished a child by making him stand on his feet. In the end, he was fired by the school the very next day. His teacher's license was revoked and he was even labeled as a black sheep. One could imagine how miserable it would be in the end!

"How dare you!"

William Howard's forehead was covered in cold sweat. His face was flushed red as he shouted angrily, "Men! Arrest Wendy Ambers and await her punishment!"

Such words instantly set off a huge uproar. Everyone's face revealed an incredulous expression, but in the end, they obediently covered their mouths.

"Principal, you...What are you doing?"

Wendy Ambers had yet to realize the seriousness of the matter. She was still shouting arrogantly, "Let go!"

She resisted with all her might. However, how could that small body withstand a professionally trained security guard?

Soon, she was bound!

"What?!" However, her face was full of disbelief. She angrily shouted at Oliver Walker, "I want to see what you can do today!"

After all, she had been a teacher for so many years and thought that she had some connections. Therefore, she didn't even acknowledge this wild man that came out of nowhere.

The atmosphere froze, and everyone's eyeballs almost popped out! No one knew what had happened, but they could see the principal's trembling body.

"Mr. Walker, you...You..."

“What instructions do you have for me?” William Howards was on the verge of tears.

Although Oliver Walker did not say a word, when his gaze landed on him, he felt as if Aiden Wilson was pressing down on his shoulder. He even felt suffocated and under immense pressure! The unknown was the most terrifying!

He did not know who Oliver Walker was but this man was able to alert the minister of education here in Ocean City and make him obey orders even though he knew the background of the aristocratic school!

He did not know what the man in front of him was trying to do! Why did that pair of scarlet eyes make his soul tremble in fear?!

Olivia Walker looked around blankly. She was also curious. Daddy said he wanted to teach these people a lesson, so how would he teach them?

“Tell me, where are we standing at?”

Finally, Oliver Walker spoke. His tone was extremely indifferent, as cold as a ten-thousand-year-old ice cave! Some people wanted to laugh, but they didn’t dare to! Was there a need to ask what this place was?

Can’t you read?

“Ocean.... Ocean City Noble School!”

William Howards, who was filled with fear and trepidation, immediately replied. He did not dare to slack off at all!

“What exactly is this place?”

Oliver Walker shouted again, and his aura rose a lot!

His eyes were like torches! He naturally knew that this was Ocean City Noble School.

But this... It was not the answer he wanted!

“The number one elite school in Ocean City?”

William Howards was stunned and immediately said his full name! However, he realized that the man’s expression did not ease at all. Instead, it became even angrier!

“Let me ask you again, what is this place?”

Oliver Walker’s aura had reached its peak. Even though his internal organs were damaged and his strength was not as good as before, he was still a man who stood against thousands of soldiers; even Sean Martin would be a piece of trash that would be instantly killed by him in terms of skills!

Therefore, when he released his aura, it was not something ordinary people could resist!

William Howards, who was at the center of the pressure, knelt on the ground with a thud. His face was pale, and tears fell. “Please tell me, Mr. Walker.. I... I really don’t know what this place is!”

Chapter 915: A Teacher?

William Howards was terrified. He was too afraid that he would say something wrong! The moment he knelt, the hundreds of teaching staff present were all stunned!

This... their principal just knelt to the ground! However, if they were in the center of the pressure, they would also have to kneel!

“This is a school! A school is a school. How can there be a distinction between nobles and the poor? Do you even know what a school is for?!”

“School is a place to teach and educate people! Education is the foundation of a country, the foundation of a country, and the hope of a country!”

“This is not a society! The students here shouldn’t be labeled as poor students or rich kids! They are all the seedlings of the country! The future successor of the country! School is a place to nurture the pillars of the country!”

Oliver Walker was very agitated! It was not making a mountain out of a molehill! If every school was like this, where would the country’s future lie? Are they nurturing the pillars of the country or the vermin of society?

The teachers present were dumbfounded!

Was he a fool? Were there any students here who didn’t own millions of assets back at home?

They were born with a golden spoon in their mouths. Why would they need to work hard like poor students?

Even if they were useless in the future, wouldn’t they still be able to inherit the family property with the blink of an eye?

Wendy Amber’s eyes were filled with disdain. This kid had offended the entire Ocean City’s aristocracy!

Who would want their children to enjoy the same treatment as the children of poor families? Was this a joke?

“Mr. Walker, you have a brilliant idea!”

William Howard's smile was uglier than crying! He had seen many big shots, but none of them were like this!

"Flattery? A crooked stick will lead to a crooked one. I've seen some teachers who are willing to give up their ethics and bend their knees to please their students! How can such a person be called a teacher?"

"Is such a person worthy of being called a human? A silkworm will only die until the last silk is produced and a candle will only retire once all the wax is burnt dry!

"This is what it means to be a teacher! And you?"

"Do you still have any backbone as a teacher? Do you still have the integrity of a cultured person who won't bend over for buckets of cash?!"

"No! None of you uphold any ethics of a teacher and yet you still call yourself one!"

All the teachers present were stunned! This man was right! They were more like nannies for rich families than teachers! There were also a few people who felt ashamed!

Oliver Walker was agitated. His words were getting more and more impassioned. He looked around and clenched his fists. "You are all teachers, just like me! You have lost the honor that you deserve as teacher! You should uphold your duties as one!"

Oliver Walker's words were loud and clear! Although he was smiling, it was a sad smile!

"After saying so much, you're merely a teacher?!"

"Fool! You came to the elite school to judge us?"

"What's your educational background? Which university did you graduate from?"

“Well, if you didn’t know, all of us are university graduates to work here!”

“There isn’t one of us that didn’t come from a good school! What about you?!”

“Which one of you isn’t a special-grade teacher?”

“Idiot!”

In an instant, the teaching staff present began to express their dissatisfaction. From the shame they felt before, it turned into rage. It was only because they finally knew Oliver Walker’s identity!

William Howard was also stunned. “You’re a teacher?”

He had always thought that Oliver Walker was a big shot!

This... In the end, this man was only a teacher. So what if he was a special-grade teacher?

To be able to teach here, one had to be a special-grade teacher! The luxury of the teaching here was far beyond the imagination of ordinary people!

Chapter 916: No One Has The Ability To Change This

“I am a teacher but I don’t want to be a teacher now! Because of all of you, the title of teacher, which should have been a compliment, is now a disgrace in my eyes!”

Oliver Walker had never forgotten his identity! Moreover, he had always been proud of being a teacher!

When he met Lily Jones, he felt gratified! She was young and promising. Although she was a weak woman, she did not lose the pride of a cultural worker! She could withstand the pressure, but she could also withstand the cold gazes and ridicule!

This was what a teacher should be like!

But now...

As far as the eye could see, these self-proclaimed high-level teachers were nothing!

It wasn't a cunning enemy that could force Oliver Walker to this extent! It was not the sacrifice of his brothers! It was these guys who thought they were superior! The students were divided according to their family background!

If it was just for personal gain, then as long as he revealed his identity, his daughter would receive incomparably noble treatment.

But... he was the chaplain!

The teacher of a country!

If he was not worried about the common people of the world and the rise of the country, then what right did he have to step on the blood of his brothers in Indiana and even on various lands and shamelessly boast about his right to be the teacher of a country?

He was furious! He had never felt so angry before!

He had also seen through the darkness of this society! He felt even more disappointed!

"Humph... That's nice!"

“If you were rich, would you still say such high-class nonsense?”

“A school for the rich.” William Howards sneered. “This is the school for the rich!”

“If wealth doesn’t give you special privileges, then who will risk their lives for wealth? I think you only know how to say hypocritical and beautiful words.

“But let me tell you, if you don’t have the ability, don’t go through the back door to send your daughter to an elite school. Here, she’s just a toy for the rich!

This is reality!”

Was this reality? Of course, it was the bloody reality!

All the teaching staff present were no longer nervous. They all revealed mocking smiles.

This kid was doomed!

William Howards quickly stood up. He finally dared to wipe the cold sweat off his forehead. He even said with the attitude of a superior, “You can sigh about the unfairness of society but you can’t change it, and you don’t have the right to turn it around!”

“I think you should just surrender! If I don’t arrest you and send you to prison, I won’t be able to answer to the parents of these students!”

As soon as he finished speaking, a large group of security guards approached Oliver Walker again!

“Daddy! I think you’re right!” Olivia Walker frowned.

Although she was young, the education she received since she was young was excellent

She could tell right from wrong and see through good and evil! She had also experienced ridicule and tasted inhumane humiliation at a young age.

“My dear! It’s all my fault. I thought you could receive a better cultural education here!”

Oliver Walker squatted down, looking ashamed. He should have come to see it himself, not forced by his wife.

How could he be careless when it concerned his daughter’s education?

But... He had been too busy recently! He couldn’t find the time at all! If he hadn’t come today, he wouldn’t have been able to find out about his daughter’s grievances in school.

Their worldviews were different! If his daughter wanted to fit in, she had to be assimilated! They would even be scolded and beaten! If they resisted, they wouldn’t even have a place to reason!

The school was irresponsible, the teachers lacked ethics, and with Olivia’s maturity, even when she went home, she would pretend that nothing had happened.

She would never take the initiative to mention it because she didn’t want to upset her parents! She wanted her parents to be happy!

Oliver Walker cried. He reached out and gently caressed his daughter’s too cheeks! His heart ached! Her heart was in so much pain that she felt suffocated!

“Daddy! Don’t cry, okay?”

Olivia Walker wiped the tears from her father’s eyes. She suppressed the fear in her heart and comforted him instead. “Olivia must be a brave child.. Daddy must be a brave father too!”

Chapter 917: A piece of dead meat

Olivia Walker's soft voice was like a heavy hammer hitting Oliver Walker's heart. He smiled. "Daddy, don't cry!"

"Daddy, be as brave as Olivia!"

Men don't shed tears easily, it's just that they haven't reached the point of sadness!

This was reality! It was also the tragedy of the country. He was crying for his country! How many people could understand that kind of magnanimity?

"Look at his useless face. He's a grown man, yet he's still crying? How embarrassing!" Wendy Ambers sneered coldly.

The teachers started to mock him! That's right! A grown man crying for no reason. It was obvious that he was useless! He's just a coward!

Oliver Walker had become a sentimental person at some point!

In the battle that year, he had faced 100,000 elite enemies alone. He did not know what fear was! He only knew how to kill his way out!

He did this to preserve the elites of the country! To leave a hope for America!

He was clearly a ruthless person! How could a vicious man have tears? He was lost!

"Let me tell you, George Lewis's father is a top figure in Donghai! Once you know who they are, you'll be scared to death!"

“His father is Max Lewis, and you’re destined to be an unknown clown! Do you believe that I can make you disappear from the face of the earth with just a phone call?” Wendy Adams sneered.

William Howards laughed as well.

He was not in a hurry, because in his opinion, Oliver Walker would not be able to escape today and to scare him into that state, naturally, there was a price to pay!

It had to be said that when he received that call, he really thought that the Heavenly King was here! It was not that he was scared out of his wits, but he was really scared out of his wits! Until now, he had not completely calmed down!

“Catch him! Send him to prison! Such a person deserves to be imprisoned.” If you want to uphold justice, why don’t you take a look at yourself first?”

The clamor in the arena grew louder and louder!

However, it was also at this moment that the roar of military jeeps with white license plates was getting closer and closer. By the time everyone realized what was going on, the military jeeps had already surrounded the entire area.

“Get out of the car!”

Following George Lee’s order, soldiers in military uniforms and armed with live ammunition quickly surrounded the scene.

“Number one is in position!” “Number two is in position!”

“Number 20 in position!”

“Captain, no danger detected!”

The uniform army and the imposing imperial guards instantly took control of the entire scene!

George Lee was wearing a military uniform with a bright general’s star on his shoulder. He walked steadily through the dumbfounded crowd and headed toward Oliver Walker’s position.

“Take a look! Take a god look!

“His father didn’t even need to come and he called a battle general over,” Wendy Ambers laughed coldly.

“And you? You only know how to cry! You are dead!”

She thought that this was the reinforcements called by Max Lewis!

In fact, she was not the only one who thought so. Even William Howards thought so too. He quickly went up to welcome him with a smile. “General, how can I trouble you with such a small matter? We’ll handle it!”

William Howards expression was humble. His waist was almost stuck to the ground!

However... George Lee glared at William Howards coldly and pushed him aside. People like them, who would care about these bootlickers?

This stunned William Howards, but soon, a flattering smile appeared again. “Sir, the situation is under control! Generals, just take them away!” Just like Wendy Ambers, he was holding back his anger!

“I want to be a witness! He’s the one who hurt me!” Wendy Ambers shouted resentfully.

The army was mobilized! Moreover, they were elites!

How could Oliver Walker not die?

But when George Lee arrived in front of Oliver Walker, he immediately saluted.

“Sir! My apologies for being late!”

Chapter 918: Punish the Culprits

As soon as he said this, everyone fell silent! The words ‘Sir’ struck William Howards and Wendy Ambers hearts like lightning. Their expressions changed from smugness to fear, from heaven to hell, in less than a second!

Sir? Doesn’t that mean that this man was the Chaplain?!

This name was simply like thunder piercing their ears. Who hadn’t heard of it?

However, who would have thought that the man who was revered as the teacher of a country would actually be so ordinary? Shouldn’t the children of important figures...

They were panicking! They were really feeling scared.

‘Why are you here? What’s going on?’ Oliver Walker asked with a frown. “Why did they make such a big move?”

He had always hated using public power for personal gain! He did not expect that now...

“You didn’t say anything and Olivia studies here.... I thought something big had happened!”

George Lee frowned.

If the state preceptor could explain it more clearly, he would not be so anxious. In fact, there were many forces eyeing Olivia Walker.

Did he dare to be careless?

If Olivia Walker was in danger, how crazy would the chaplain be by then? He was doing this for the country.

“Forget it!”

Oliver Walker waved his hand. “Since you’re here, let’s settle this matter! Bring him and her for investigation! You must investigate thoroughly. You must not tolerate evil!”

They were Principal William Howards and Olivia Walker’s form teacher, Wendy Ambers.

At this moment, the two of their bodies went limp!

“Sir! Please spare my life! I... We didn’t know you were the state preceptor! It’s all my fault for being blind!”

The two of them cried miserably!

However, no matter how pitiful they were, under George Lee’s gaze, four soldiers directly stepped forward and dragged the two struggling people into the car!

In fact, capturing them was not the main point! The crux of the problem was how to rectify the evil practices that had spread in these elite schools!

“Olivia Walker!” Oliver Walker stood up and swept his gaze across the faculty. “Olivia Walker is my daughter but she is also a student here. Whoever dares to treat them differently will be the end!”

After he finished speaking, he left with grief and indignation. What should he

This was a big problem! How could it be so easy to find a suitable principal to change this terrible school atmosphere?

The teachers and staff present looked at the retreating army with panic. Who would have thought that the man was the country’s chaplain?! The peerless hero who was regarded as the best scholar in the country?

“Remember, whoever dares to leak the information about the chaplain will be charged with treason!”

George Lee had indeed come in a hurry, and to a large extent, he had exposed the chaplain’s daughter to the eyes of many forces. Now, he could only salvage a little. There was no other way!

The incident at Ocean City Elite School had shocked the entire circle of dignitaries! No one knew what had happened!

William Howards and Wendy Ambers were taken away for interrogation; even all the teaching staff kept their mouths shut. However, there was no way to hide the truth. In the end, there were still people who knew that this incident had started because of Olivia Walker!

This made the noble circle, whose dignity had been challenged, completely furious. They threatened to pay 10 million to buy Olivia Walker’s family background. Before they found out anything, no one dared to act rashly.

After all, he was someone who could mobilize the army. How could he have an ordinary background?

Thomas Company Villa Complex!

“Mr. Walker, what happened?”

Luna Thomas saw Oliver Walker sitting on the sofa in deep thought before asking the question in her heart. After all, she had heard all the news.

As for Olivia Walker, she was also very concerned! Therefore, it was inevitable to be anxious!

Chapter 919: Education Is The Country's Foundation

“I don't even know if this is considered a big matter or not but perhaps I might be too sensitive.”

Oliver Walker sat on the sofa, not knowing if he was doing the right thing but...

It was impossible not to be angry when faced with such a situation!

“Olivia should have gotten full marks on her test but to appease the rich kids in her school, the teacher decided to deliberately make them wrong.”

“The entire school doesn't look like a school at all. From top to bottom, it's filled with an evil wind!”

“Can you believe that Olivia's classmates have learned how to bribe teachers?”

Even the principal did nothing!”

Oliver Walker told the matter emotionally. Perhaps this matter would be over if someone else endured it. He may have already dealt with the principal and the teacher involved but it still bothered her.

“Education is a big deal! I’m very sorry. I was the one who asked Sister Emilia to send Olivia to that school.”

Luna Thomas’s beautiful eyes were filled with shame. “Why don’t I find another school for Olivia?”

She had never attended school in the country. She only knew that it was an elite school. She had thought that the school attended by the children of rich families would not be bad, so how could he have expected the situation to be so bad?

Fortunately, he discovered it early. Otherwise, how many more grievances would Olivia Walker have suffered?

She remembers asking Olivia about it. She said it was very good, so she was relieved.

“This isn’t about changing schools!”

Oliver Walker shook his head and frowned. “A school should be a place to teach and educate people. If every other school was like this, what would happen to our country?!”

This was a very heavy truth. All along, he had been committed to protecting his country/ However, he had neglected the foundation of the country! Education was more important!

Luna Thomas frowned. “Once the idea of class is formed, the sense of superiority will become stronger and stronger. The poor will work hard to squeeze into the rich. The rich will also do their best to prevent the poor from becoming poor. ”

“This is just how society is. It’s not something that can be changed by one individual.”

The school was a small society. The environment that students come into contact with at home would naturally affect the school environment.

Was this situation unique to Ocean City Elite School?

No! This was a common problem!

The country had a vast land area of 9.6 million square kilometers. How many schools were there? It would be impossible for one person to change it all!

“I know!”

Oliver Walker sighed. “But wherever I look, I must do my best. Otherwise, I’ll let down the responsibility on my shoulders. This school has to be reorganized. We must rectify it!

“Anyway, how did you know about this?”

It hadn’t happened for long. Even if the news spread, it shouldn’t be that fast, right?

“The truth is the circle of dignitaries in this city is much smaller than you think. Max Lewis is considered to be one of the top ten richest people in

“The school is full of his spies. So, within three minutes of the incident, he already heard about it. He said that he would spend 10 million just to get news on you. You should know the reason!”

Revenge! This was preparation for revenge!

Max Lewis did not know Olivia Walker’s background, so he did not dare to act rashly. Otherwise, he would have taken action long ago!

“These bastards! They sent their children to school not for their children to receive a better education. They sent them there to learn how to enslave others in advance.

“In the future, when they enter society and inherit the family property, they will still do the same!”

Oliver Walker’s every word was like iron. He had seen through the essence! If they wanted to solve this problem, not only did they need to rectify the school, but they also needed to deal with parents who supported the naughty children..

Chapter 920: Lily Jones!

“Let me organize a banquet so that we could discuss more about this. They would still come and join us since it’s held by the Thomas Corporation.”

Luna Thomas had always been impatient because she couldn’t help, but now that she had the chance, she couldn’t wait. She can’t always ask Oliver Walker for help!

The Thomas Company, known as the overlord of the Ocean City, could only sit back and enjoy the fruits of their labor.

“Don’t interfere in this matter, especially from today onwards, Thomas Corporation must keep a low profile! Don’t be careless!” Oliver Walker immediately said.

Mark Thomas had already agreed to cooperate with the country and invest in chip research and development. Currently, due to the Eastern Alliance’s blockade, the progress of the military’s chip research and development has stagnated.

If Thomas Corporation, which had just taken over the important task, became the target of the public again, it was very likely that it would cause the entire situation to collapse.

In addition, this was a matter of class opposition. Thomas Corporation did have the right to speak, but in this aspect, it was still difficult to change.

The most important thing was to find a teacher who could shoulder the responsibility for the school. Then, she would beat up the nobles of Ocean City and work together from the inside. That was the best plan.

Thinking of this, Oliver Walker instantly stood up and said ecstatically, "How could I forget her?"

"What a sin!"

"Who is it?" Luna Thomas asked curiously.

Who could make Oliver Walker so excited?

"You wouldn't know her but she was Olivia's first teacher! A very outstanding educator!"

Oliver Walker thought of Lily Jones. She was definitely the most suitable candidate at the moment! The school for the nobles needed a principal who was upright and unafraid of power.

He had been worrying about it for so long. He had been searching through his phone for a new candidate but all along, he had been comparing the other candidates to her!

"Then ask her to come over. I'll welcome her as a distinguished guest."

Luna Thomas quickly expressed her opinion. She still had feelings for Oliver Walker but she had decided to let go of it. They did not have to be together even if she liked him. She would also feel happy because they could help Oliver Walker.

What caused her to have feelings for this man? Of course, she felt happy when she was around him.

"Yes! But I don't know if she's willing to give me face!"

Oliver Walker smiled bitterly. After all, he had a favor to ask of others, and he was somewhat selfish. After all, Lily Jones liked Olivia, and Olivia often talked about Lily Jones. Therefore, Olivia would be very happy to see Lily Jones.

Then, he still took out his phone and dialed the number that he had not dialed for the past few months.

“Miss Jones?” Oliver Walker asked excitedly. “Where are you now, Miss Jones?”

He remembered that Lily Jones had quit her job in Colorado. He just didn’t know where she went! But this time, no matter where she went, he had to bring her to Ocean City.

“I’m in Ocean City. Mr. Walker, what’s the matter?” Lily Jones hesitated.

Lily Jones had feelings for Oliver Walker as well.

She had left the state of Colorado and she did it so that she would never see Oliver Walker again, lest she did something she would regret for the rest of her life.

She never expected that after so long, this man would take the initiative to call her. This caused her silent heart to tremble again as if it had encountered a flame!

“Ocean City? What a coincidence. I’m here too. I happen to have something to ask of you! Is it convenient for you now?”

The current Oliver Walker was desperate for talent. He might not be familiar with the others, but there was one thing that Lily Jones was trustworthy about.

A teacher who placed her students in her heart was truly good!

When Lily Jones opened her mouth again, she found that she was at a loss for words and even choked. She originally thought that they would never cross paths again in this lifetime, but who knew...

Could it be fate?
