Chapter 921: Giving Up Her Job as A Teacher

“What’s wrong? Is it inconvenient for you?”

Oliver Walker frowned, completely unaware of what had happened. There was no conflict between him and Lily Jones at all. It wouldn’t be possible that she wouldn’t want to meet him.

Did something happen? But what was going on?

“No, no, no. No... I’m still at work. Can you wait for me to get off work?” Lily Jones quickly said.

She was not having a good time either. She thought that she could display her talents by coming to the big city. She never expected that she would end up getting bullied.

She really didn’t want to feel the anxiety anymore that she had when she was with Oliver Walker.

It wasn’t because of hate but the opposite of it.

She was afraid that she would not be able to control herself! However, there was a force in her heart that drove her to refuse Oliver Walker’s request. Therefore, she still agreed to meet.

“No! I have something important to tell you. I can’t wait!”

Oliver Walker was not an impatient person, but this matter was related to solving the fundamental problem of the Ocean City Noble School. Therefore, there was no room for delay. “Tell me the address now!”

Lily Jones was confused, but she still told him where she was. What kind of important matter was so urgent that he had to see her now?

Could it be...

There must be a gap in the relationship between Oliver Walker and Emilia, right?

If that was the case, would Olivia Walker...

She was thinking too much!

After Oliver Walker got the address, he immediately rushed over. At the same time, Lily Jones, who had just hung up the phone, felt a weird atmosphere around her. When she looked up, she saw the one person that she didn't want to.

Initially, she came to the big city to continue her career as a teacher. However, she did not expect that after applying to more than ten schools, she would be rejected by all of them. Even if there were people who received the notice and rushed over, there would be additional conditions that she could not accept.

Therefore, after her savings were exhausted, she had no choice but to give up her career as a teacher and work as an ordinary intern in the Shuang Liu Corporation.

Although the salary was not high, at least she could still make a living!

When she had more money, she would continue to apply for a teacher position!

"No need to be nervous! Look, it's almost time to get off work. Just play with your phone for a while! As long as I don't need to work, you don't have to work too!"

The manager's name was David Curtis!

He was fatty in his forties. He was a little respectful, especially when he smiled. His face was full of wretchedness.

After seeing this scene, the other people in the office also had strange looks in their eyes. This was another fresh flower that was about to be ruined by cow dung!

It could be said that David Curtis had a bad reputation in the company, but he was the manager. Who dared to say no? Especially this old bald donkey, who liked to find young and beautiful girls to enter the company.

They weren't selected because they were capable. As long as he was in a good mood, the selected candidate would be able to become a full-time employee. If he was in a bad one, some of them would be fired for groundless charges the next day.

Therefore, as long as Lily Jones stayed, she would most likely be included in the old bald donkey's harem! What a pity!

"Yes, sir!"

Lily Jones smiled awkwardly. After all, playing with her phone at work was not a serious matter. Therefore, she felt guilty!

"Um, come with me to the office! I have something important to tell you!" David Curtis narrowed his eyes and smiled, then turned around and left.

Lily Jones was also disgusted by this man's vulgar gaze, but she had no choice since she was under the roof. In this unfamiliar city, if he lost his job, surviving itself would be a problem.

Oliver Walker?

This was a man she didn't want to come into contact with anymore!

Therefore, even if she ended up wandering on the streets, she wouldn't take the initiative to find him. This was because she was afraid that she couldn't bear the consequences!

After some thought, she got up and followed David Curtis into the office!

Chapter 922: Giving Something in Return

“Let’s take a bet. Will Lily Jones agree to it?”

“She’s from the countryside. She’s not a local. According to my experience, she would have been waiting for such encounters.”

“That’s right!”

“Although that old bald donkey is a little ugly, he does have influence here! I even heard he owns two properties in this city!”

“Which girl can resist such temptation?”

“It’s a pity that these girls are too naive. When that old bald donkey got tired of them, he’ll fire them.”

Very soon, the office began to have a heated discussion. To them, this was just a random conversation. Whether Lily Jones would accept the unspoken rules or not had nothing to do with them.

In the manager’s office!

This was a separate office area, so there were only two people. Lily Jones was still very nervous. After all, this job was very important to her.

“You’ve been working here for a few days. What do you think of the company?”

David Curtis grinned and sized up Lily Jones, who was dressed in a black business suit and looked rather young. He was even more tempted. Hence, he started to set up a trap. There were not many girls who could escape his sugar-coated bullets. Thus, Lily Jones would soon become his again.

The reason why he was so excited was because Lily Jones was a teacher. He had yet to have an in-depth conversation with any teacher, so he was excited just thinking about it.

Most importantly, Lily Jones was beautiful!

Even though he boasted that he had seen countless women, he had to admit that this was the most beautiful girl he had ever been with. Compared to many movie stars, she was even more attractive. "The company is great!"

Such an answer was equivalent to taking the bait.

David Curtis's smile became even more wretched. "Then do you want to become a full-time employee? Once you become a full-time employee, your pay will be three times higher. In other words, you will be paid 8,000 a month." 8000 a month?!

It may not be a lot but for many people, it was already very high. This was especially true for Lily Jones, who had little social experience and had just graduated from school. It was an irresistible temptation.

"Of course I want to!"

How could Lily Jones not be excited? She thought that her hard work had moved the leader.

Little did she know...

A crisis was approaching!

"But you must also know that if you want to get it, you must learn to give something in return first. Are you willing to work hard to become a permanent employee?" David Curtis asked patiently.

"Of course! I will definitely work hard to repay this!"

David Curtis shook his head and smiled even more wretchedly. "You don't understand what I mean. Do you really think you're worth 8,000 a month?"

Think about it carefully!"

As soon as he finished speaking, he stretched out his hand, wanting to take advantage of her.

After all, his heart was itching! He couldn't wait. If he could get Lily Jones, then his life wouldn't be in vain!

With such pure looks, no matter where she was, she was the best of the best. Who wouldn't be jealous when they saw her?

"Mr Curtis.... I don't understand." Lily Jones, who was already prepared, quickly took a step back. "Please tell me in depth about what you mean."

She had guessed it but she was unwilling to give up this opportunity. What if it was a misunderstanding?

"Good!"

David Curtis stood up and boasted shamelessly. "Then I'll make myself clear. As long as you agree to have a deeper relationship with me, I guarantee that you'll become a white-collar elite that everyone envies.

"In any case, you will have to experience the affairs of a man and a woman in the future. Instead of letting the future scumbag enjoy it for nothing in return, it's better to use this body to exchange for some practical benefits.

"Besides, it's human nature for women to rely on their bodies to get to the top!"

"I'm sorry!" Lily Jones's face turned red. She wanted to scold him, but she found that she did not have the courage. She could only say, "I'm sorry! I'm not the kind of girl you think I am!"

She was indeed not!

If she didn't meet someone she wanted to get married to, it would be impossible for her to even fall in love, let alone give up her body!

The only person she liked so far was Oliver Walker!

Chapter 923: Murphy's law

As soon as she finished speaking, Lily Jones wanted to retreat!

Accepting such deeds? This was something she could never understand!

Plus, there were hundreds of candidates who applied for her position. They had made such a rude request to them but they had all been rejected without hesitation.

She wanted to establish herself in Ocean City with her capabilities! Even if she starved to death, she would not sell her dignity!

However, just as Lily Jones turned around, David Curtis suddenly threw the ashtray to the ground and said fiercely, "Don't be so shameless. Do you know how many DeoDle want to climb into my bed? Do you really think that you can be a vase just because you have some looks?"

These words made Lily Jones feel extremely humiliated. She bit her red lips and wanted to retaliate a few times, but in the end, she endured it. She was unwilling to listen to David Curtis's nonsense and wanted to leave the office.

"Lily Jones! Listen up. If you dare to step out of this door, you'll be fired."

"Don't even think about getting your f*cking salary!"

“On the other hand, you could get 8,000 monthly income after becoming a full-time employee. You could sit in the office and enjoy the air-conditioning every day. You wouldn’t have to suffer from the wind and rain!” David Curtis said ruthlessly.

“If you refuse, you’ll be penniless and homeless after you’re fired. Think about it carefully! ”

He had already investigated! If Lily Jones had a powerful background, how could she be so presumptuous? He also learned from his subordinates that Lily Jones had a problem even keeping herself alive.

Therefore, he firmly believed that this kind of pure and innocent girl with a weak heart could not withstand such intimidation.

In the end, she would cry and pretend to be wronged. She would throw herself into his arms and say some pretentious words before she began to enjoy the happiness of being a woman.

‘You...’

“What?” Lily Jones finally exploded after she opened the door of the office. “Not all women are as dirty as you think! Even if I starve to death on the streets, I don’t need your pity! Farewell!”

Her words shocked everyone in the office.

Although many girls rejected the old bald donkey, Lily Jones was the first girl to say such words in public to David Curtis!

Lily Jones had also considered the consequences!

It was nothing more than being fired! But now, she had to resign from this job of her own accord, instead of getting fired Therefore, without saying anything, he packed his personal belongings and left the hall angrily!

“You...”

Faced with the strange gazes of all his subordinates, David Curtis was furious. Although everyone knew about the unspoken rules, it was embarrassing to say it out loud!

“Don’t listen to her nonsense! It’s this woman. She wants to use her body to get to the top. I look down on this kind of woman the most in my life!”

“Pui... What is it? She’s a b*tch!”

Even though Lily Jones had already left, David Curtis was still cursing. “Am I being too kind to you and the workload is too little?”

Although the group of people in the office were unhappy as well, they could only continue working.

One of them looked at the time and muttered, “Isn’t it already seven o’clock? Isn’t it time to get off work?”

This sentence made everyone’s pores open! If David Curtis heard this, then...

How bad was that?

Well, as Murphy’s law states, anything that can go wrong will go wrong. David Curtis turned around and faced the ferocious man. “D*mn it, it’s time to get off work? Work overtime. It’s not easy to find a job now. If you find one, why don’t you work hard? Are you worthy of the company’s training?”

“F*ck! ”

“Anyone who dares to leave work before 10 O’clock tonight will be punished in the finance department. If you’re not happy about it, get lost!”

David Curtis was extremely overbearing. He didn't let his subordinates go to work, but he took the keys and left the company.

However, just as he was about to leave, he bumped into Lily Jones, who was standing at the entrance of the company. This made him even more furious..

Chapter 924: The Man To The Rescue

After stopping the car in front of Lily Jones, David Curtis said unwillingly, "Little girl, do you still want your salary?"

Lily Jones remained silent!

Since she had left the company, she must have made up his mind. It was not impossible for her to suffer a little, but...

Unspoken rules were absolutely unacceptable! This was the bottom line that could not be touched! Even if she starved to death on the streets, she would never give up her pride as a teacher! Besides, it wasn't that bad!

"Haha... I've seen a lot of tough people like you!"

"But you have to think carefully. I have two houses here and I drive a BMW. If you sleep with you, you may not be extremely rich, but I guarantee that you'll be able to eat and drink well!"

David Curtis still didn't want to give up. Lily Jones was too beautiful. She was simply a killer move for him. After all, if he missed it, he would probably never be able to meet such a top-notch person again in his life. Therefore, he had been suppressing his anger and showing off his superiority!

"I already have a boyfriend!"

Lily Jones, who couldn't stand the disturbance, could only frown and say, "You should leave quickly!"

She was often harassed! Therefore, this became the excuse she used the most often! A normal person would leave after hearing this. However, David Curtis was already possessed.

“Haha... Does he have a house here ? Can he afford to drive a BMW?”

“You...” Lily Jones said angrily.

He had never seen such a shameless person before!

This old man’s mouth was full of cars and houses. He made all the girls look like gold diggers! She was speechless!

At the same time, Oliver Walker, who was driving the military jeep, also saw Lily Jones.

Especially when Lily Jones saw the old man chattering non-stop, she kept showing an angry expression. Oliver Walker did not need to hear the conversation to know what had happened! Then, the corners of his mouth curled up, revealing a mocking smile!

He stepped on the accelerator and rushed over!

“You’re still young! You have to see the truth clearly. I’m a little ugly and a little old, but I can give you what he can’t...”

However, before he could finish his sentence, a buzzing sound rang in his ears. David Curtis instantly turned around and saw a jeep speeding over. He exclaimed in horror, “F*ckQQuickly stop the car...”

“Rumble...”

But the next moment, the rear of David Curtis’s BMW was dented! After all, Oliver Walker was driving a military jeep. It was sturdy enough, but the front of the jeep was completely fine!

“Ah... You!!!!

David Curtis exploded! His eyes were filled with pain! He had just picked up the car and he still had to pay for it. 500,000 yuan was already a sky-high price for him.

Now his car was dented! Even if it was repaired, the value would at least be reduced by half! After all, cars that were involved in accidents would depreciate!

“Hello!”

Oliver Walker got out of the car. He completely ignored David Curtis, who looked pained. Instead, he went straight to Lily Jones ‘side and said with a smile, “Long time no see!”

“Uh...” Lily Jones was stunned. How could she have thought that the driver would be Oliver Walker? She clearly remembered that Oliver Walker’s driving skills were very good! He was even better than those professional racers on TV.

Then, just by looking at the faint smile on this man’s face, one could tell that he was doing it on purpose. She took a long time to react before revealing a beautiful smile. “Hello...”

The feeling of being protected felt excellent, especially by the man she loved. Although it was impossible between them, at least it was a beautiful memory that could not be erased for life!

But how did Oliver Walker know that David Curtis was pestering her?

Was he investigating her? But even so, it didn’t make sense!

Chapter 925: Leaving With The Right Man

Oliver Walker had not investigated Lily Jones’s situation, but he had been leading troops for many years. If he could not even analyze the scene just now, he must have a pig’s brain! He had to admit that he was quite happy to see Lily Jones again.

After all, she was Olivia’s mentor! It would be of great help to his daughter’s growth!

Lily Jones was the same. Although she knew that nothing could happen, she was still very happy to see the man who could make her heart beat faster.

They were happy but David Curtis was in pain. "BMW! My BMW! The BMW 1 just mentioned!"

He glared at Oliver Walker angrily and shouted at Lily Jones, "He's your boyfriend, right?"

Her words made Lily Jones blush. She had always said that when she was being flirted with. She didn't think too much about it at that time.

But... This was too awkward!

She also knew that Oliver Walker was not short of money, so the impact of the car crash was not significant!

Her heart was filled with warmth! Oliver Walker did not respond because he knew what Lily Jones was thinking but he definitely couldn't admit it!

Dealing with a scoundrel was a piece of cake. There was indeed no need to ruin Lily Jones's innocence.

"Brat! You're f*cking done for! You crashed my BMW, you have to pay for it! I'll make you go bankrupt!"

The more David Curtis thought about it, the angrier he became. The more Oliver Walker ignored him, the more desperate he became!

"A car worth hundreds of thousands isn't enough to bankrupt me! By the way, I bought insurance! This is the number of the insurance company! You can make the call now!" Oliver Walker smiled disdainfully.

"Let's go!"

Lily Jones was a little stunned. Just leave after a car crash? As she thought of Oliver Walker's identity, he was soon relieved! She didn't want to have any more entanglements with David Curtis, so she got into the car!

"Hey! The responsibility hasn't been determined yet. If you run away, it'll be a hit-and-run. You'll have to go to jail!"

What if he went up to stop them and couldn't beat them? So, he had no other choice.

After all, Oliver Walker had crashed into his car without saying a word. He did not dare to be careless about such a reckless act.

"There's no need to assign responsibility! I'll take full responsibility. Someone will compensate you for your losses!"

After saying that, Oliver Walker reversed his car and left! He only wanted to make this man uncomfortable. Even after the compensation, the BMW was a bar that had been hit. The lesson was enough.

He didn't care about that bit of money, but David Curtis wouldn't feel good either!

David Curtis was stunned! He looked straight at Oliver Walker and drove away! If you were to hit and run, he would admit responsibility and even give you his number.

What the f*ck!

It was worse than eating shit! It was stuck in his heart, he couldn't take this! He could only accept this loss!

"Hello, I've been hit by someone. He's insured under your insurance company! Hurry up and get someone to settle this. The car owner has already admitted his responsibility! Damn it!"

He still didn't know that this wasn't the number of an insurance company.

After all, it was a military jeep. It was just a disguise and had a local license plate. Moreover, this so-called insurance company was just a cover for the military!

On the road!

Lily Jones asked worriedly. "Will there be any trouble?"

Although she was touched, he was still worried!

"What trouble could there be? My people will take care of it. What exactly happened? Why is that guy pestering you?"

"He's my superior. He wanted..." Lily Jones frowned. However, she was too embarrassed to say the rest of her words.. After all, she was still a proper girl!

Chapter 926: The Compensation

"He even threatened me that if I didn't accept it, he would fire me and not pay me," Lily Jones quickly added.

Although she did not say it out loud, Oliver Walker was not a fool. He understood that David Curtis wanted to use his authority to play dirty. Unfortunately, he met Lily Jones.

After hearing what had happened, he changed his mind and called George Lee.

"There was an accident with the car just now. You should know what to do!

Don't let him take advantage of you!"

Originally, Oliver Walker wanted to compensate, but it was impossible now. Since David Curtis didn't pay Lily Jones her salary, she should suffer even greater losses but he had never been a person who played by the rules. He even felt that the collision was too light. He should have scrapped the BMW just now.

At the same time, after George Lee received the call, he understood. He knew what kind of person the chaplain was. He knew that he couldn't hit someone else's car for no reason. Therefore, after arriving at the scene, he said, "You're the one who called just now, right?"

David Curtis had yet to realize the seriousness of the matter, and he immediately raged.

"I am! Look at that idiot who crashed into my car! The BMW I just picked up! It hadn't even been three days, and he already caused an accident! Tell me, how do you want compensation?"

He was inexplicably angry at the mention of the car accident! This time, he had suffered a huge loss! As long as he could get as much compensation as possible!

"Tsk tsk tsk...That's quite a heavy hit," George Lee said jokingly.

The trunk of the BMW was dented, and the rear of the car was also deformed.

Although it was a luxury brand, how could it compare to the quality of military vehicles? They were on completely different levels!

"Humph..."

David Curtis crossed his arms and snorted. "Cut the crap. Tell me how to compensate!"

"You still want compensation?" George Lee narrowed his eyes.

"What?" David Curtis's expression changed drastically. "Aren't you going to compensate me?"

But, when he saw the smile on George Lee's face, he couldn't help but shiver.

F*ck! Why did he feel that something was wrong?

"Then we have to have a good discussion! This is my identification card! Also, that car just now was on a top-secret mission!"

George Lee took out his Imperial Guards officer's certificate and waved his hand at the car. "Xiao Wang, come over and tell Big Brother what the consequences of obstructing official business are!"

David Curtis was dumbfounded! When he first saw the battle general rank on the document, he thought it was fake. Then, the next moment, after the four soldiers got out of the car, they immediately reacted. "General... I... I didn't..."

'Yes... He hit me! I'm.... innocent! General, I don't want compensation anymore.

I really don't want it anymore!"

Obstructing official business and in the middle of a top-secret mission? If this crime was committed, then he would be in big trouble!

Was there still a need for it to be popularized? However, what angered him was that Oliver Walker had bumped into him on purpose to pick up girls. This...

Damn it! How could she say it out loud? After seeing their smiles, he could only swallow his pride!

"No, no, no!"

George Lee smiled and said, "Well, this was an accident. We'll pay for the compensation. As for the matter of pursuing responsibility, let's put it aside for now! You can't say that we're bullying the commoners, right?"

David Curtis even had the urge to kill someone. That was aggrieved!

What did he mean by compensation? Putting the matter of pursuing responsibility aside for now?

Wouldn't that mean that after he received the compensation, he would have to pay an even more painful price?

He... He was instantly stunned!

Could Lily Jones be from the military? The so-called top-secret mission was to meet Lily Jones?

If that was the case... The more he thought about it, the more afraid he became!

His entire body was trembling...

Chapter 927: Making A Counteroffer

"General, I know I was wrong! I don't want this compensation! I don't want a single cent!"

David Curtis was a person who knew how to adapt to the situation. How could he not know the seriousness of the matter? He could only protect himself!

"This isn't good, right? We can't bully people!" George Lee said, pretending to be embarrassed.

David Curtis quickly said in all seriousness, "Sir... The army and the people are one family! General, if there isn't anything else, I..."

Now, he still dared to ask for compensation? That was courting death! "Alright then!" said George Lee.

As soon as he finished speaking, David Curtis bowed repeatedly and hurriedly got into the car, speeding away. Even after a hundred meters, he still felt lingering fears!

F*ck! This was too much!

He... That was a grievance! Why did he provoke Lily Jones?

As expected, beautiful women were all thorny roses that could not be provoked or touched! This also taught him a lesson and he would not dare to mess around in the future!

At the same time, after arriving at the Thomas Villam Oliver Walker asked the question in his heart, why didn't she continue being a teacher?

Lily Jones had already changed careers. If he were to make another request, wouldn't it seem unreasonable? Wouldn't that be a moral kidnapping?

"Uh... I want to do it, but no school is willing to accept me. Maybe I'm not good enough!" Lily Jones smiled bitterly.

She had applied for countless jobs and was not offered an interview. Was it truly because she wasn't outstanding enough? There were also a few private schools that offered interviews, but they also wanted the same things as David Curtis.

So, she had to reject all of them. Feeling helpless, she could only find another way out. After all, she was just a girl with no background and did not want to rely on her body to get to the top!

"You are very outstanding! Teacher Lily, I want to ask you something! I want you to be the principal of Ocean City Noble School," Oliver Walker said in a serious tone.

He knew that Lily Jones was not a kindergarten teacher, but a top student who had graduated from a teacher's school. It was just that in this society if one did not have connections, it would be very difficult to make a name for oneself. In aamun, Lily Jones was young and not have much experience. was extremely easy for her to be treated as a beautiful vase!

An incredulous expression appeared on Lily Jones's pretty face. She thought she had heard wrongly! She couldn't even be a good teacher, so how could she be the principal of an elite school?

This experience of roaming this city hopelessly almost made him doubt his life!

"I'm telling the truth! The Ocean City Elite School needs a new principal. To be precise, they need a qualified principal. Olivia is currently studying there, but..."

Oliver Walker said a lot in one breath. After telling him the whole story, he sighed with emotion. "I know it's a heavy responsibility, but the school's ethos will affect a child's life. I can only trust you!"

He did not know many teachers, but Lily Jones was extremely responsible. Besides, did the school need another teacher?

No! They just lacked someone who dared to speak the truth and do practical things!

"Mr. Walker, you... Stop joking!"

Lily Jones smiled awkwardly. "That's a top school. It includes kindergarten, primary school, junior high school, and high school. I..."

Although she wanted to try, she didn't want to mislead others!

"Well, when I was young, I never thought that I could do all these. Look at where I am now! Age doesn't matter," Oliver Walker said sincerely.

"Heroes don't ask where they come from! I'm the one asking for your help this time! Regardless of whether it's for personal or public reasons, please don't reject my offer, Teacher Lily."

"In the process of changing the school's ethos, if you encounter any resistance, you can tell me directly! I only have one goal, and that is to remove the aristocratic aura of the school and turn it into a real school! To cultivate these students to have the right values!"
