

Chapter 1011

"Your wife, Bella Qiao, must eat four of them every month, so this one is definitely not enough, so you need to continue to help me find the Heavenly Book of Jades again, and whenever you find a piece, I will give you one and tell you how to raise the plant, how about that?"

Kusken chanted without speaking.

He had just looked at the fruit on top of that money strain, and there were indeed only about five or six of them.

I don't think Nangong Jin was lying to him.

So he nodded.

"Okay, it's a deal."

Nangong Jin slowly laughed.

"It's very troublesome to raise, you need to find the most shady to cold place, it must also be a place where it can absorb the essence of moonlight, and it can't get into the soil, it will die once it gets into the soil, it can only be planted in jade vessels, the better the jade is, the better this will raise, the bigger the fruit it will produce, and the longer it will be effective."

"When you have found such a place and such a vessel, fix the east on it, and underneath you need only a little water, not over the roots, except that this water must be changed three times a day, morning, noon and night, and the water must not get on the fruit or the roots, or they will rot and die."

"The thing to remember is that it must not be allowed to dip in the rain, and if there is no moon for a long time, you will have to use cold-sensing lighting yourself from afar, the distance you control yourself, anyway, not too far away and not too close, just so care for six months, it will be able to bear fruit."

Kusken listened and frowned.

Not that I find it particularly difficult to keep it so troublesome.

If I'd known, I wouldn't have listened to his Lawson method, and I might have been able to research it myself.

But spitefulness aside, Nangong Jin also said before that this one plant was not enough for Bella Qiao, and he had to get more, so this condition really had to be agreed to.

Thinking this, his face eased a little.

"Okay, I know, I'll keep an eye on the matter of the Heavenly Book of Jade and let you know if I hear anything."

Across the street, Nangong Jin didn't say anything else, and after they said goodbye, they hung up the phone.

After hanging up the phone, Gu Siqian called Uncle Ou and ordered him to go to the warehouse to find a jade that could grow this money plant.

Ober listened to him and tutted, claiming that he really didn't think there was such a rare thing in the world.

In fact, had it not been for this personal experience with the operculum, even Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao would not have dared to imagine such a thing in this world.

They both sat there, looking at the plant that looked like gold in front of them.

Bella Qiao suddenly thought of what Quexu had said last time, and her eyes lit up.

"Si Qian, do you still remember the ghost doctor, Quexu, that we met last time?"

Kusken nodded, "Remember, what's wrong?"

Bella Qiao said, "He said he'd seen it in a book before, I think it's still too easy for us to raise it, so why don't we give it to Quexu to raise, okay? It's just as well for him to study it, maybe he'll be surprised?"

Gu Si Qian frowned at the news.

It wasn't that he was stingy, it was because it was hard to come by and it was a matter of Bella Qiao's life, so he wasn't really willing to risk it.

Bella Qiao, however, didn't think so at all.

She took Gu Siqian's hand and advised, "Think about it, this thing is in our hands, even if we raise it well, wait for the first half of the year, it'll only produce six seeds, six seeds a month is not enough, even if you gather the other five pieces of heavenly jade, how many plants can Nangong Jin give you? So this is definitely not the way to go, we still have to find another way to replicate it, after all, I just don't believe that with so many people in the Southern Clan needing such a large amount, that Nangongjin has so much to supply to them to eat in the first place?"

"So ah, it's evident that it shouldn't be difficult to replicate, so let's just give it to Quexu and let him study it carefully, and if we don't have results forget about it, if we do, then wouldn't that be another way out?"

Seeing that Gu Siqian was still a bit hesitant, Bella Qiao said again, "Besides, Quexiu is Jenny's stepfather, I believe in Jenny, and naturally I believe in her relatives."

That, however, struck Gu Si Qian.

He looked at Bella Qiao and said quietly, "What if it doesn't work?"

"No, the worst that can happen is that we lose one plant, anyway, more of this plant is not much, less of it is not less, right?"

She was open-minded, and as Gu Siqian listened to this, he was inevitably infected.

He took Bella Qiao's hand and sighed, "Don't worry, I won't let you have that day."

Bella Qiao knew what he was referring to, smiled, and didn't care.

After all, she was actually quite content to have survived this far.

Although no one is willing to die, but if there really is a death god in this world who wants to kill her, what else can she do?

You can't really drag Gu Siqian to death with you.

The good news is that over the years, she has had lovers and friends around her, tasted the sweet and sour, loved and hated the pain, but also happiness, the experience has been experienced, and the possession of all, her life is complete enough, there are no more regrets.

If there's really one more regret, it's that....

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but deepen her eyes and turned to look at Gu Siqian next to her.

When Gu Si Qian touched her gaze, his heart skipped a beat, and he didn't know why, but he suddenly felt that Bella Qiao's eyes at this time seemed to contain a lot of emotions, not like her usual self.

But Bella Qiao just smiled, said nothing, looked at the time and stood up.

"It's getting late, let's go back to our rooms and get some rest, whatever's there can wait until tomorrow."

Gu Si Qian looked at the wall clock and realized that it was now one in the morning.

He nodded and stood up, pulling Georgie with him to the bedroom.

Going into the bedroom, Gu Si Qian went to shower first.

He showered quickly and came out shortly after, but unexpectedly, when he did, he saw a graceful figure in the luxurious bedroom with her back to him.

He couldn't breathe.

I saw the person in front of me wearing only a very s*xy nightgown, nightgown is translucent, the hem is only to the root of the thighs, under the veil slim waist is not a grip, two long white flower legs, in the dim light of the white as a pearl, eye-catching.

Gu Si Qian's eyes did not darken and stepped over.

Bella Qiao had already heard the footsteps behind her, and she was actually a little nervous.

Although she had been married to Gu Si Qian for some time now, and that kind of thing had happened more than once or twice.

But yet it had always been Gu Siqian who had taken the initiative, and she had never taken the initiative like she had tonight.

At this point, she was standing here waiting for him in the s*xiest nightgown in the house, not knowing what he'd think or if he'd like it that way.

Chapter 1012

Thinking this, she turned around with some apprehension.

Unexpectedly, as soon as I turned around, I ran into a pair of deep eyes.

Those eyes were extremely deep, like two whirlpools that were trying to suck her in.

She was shocked and looked at Gu Si Qian.

"Siken, you..."

Kuskan stepped closer to her and took her in with a hook of his arm.

The woman's bony body climbed on top of him, making the man's breathing quicken.

He reached out, picking up her chin and forcing her to lift her face to face him.

The voice was husky as he asked, "Dressed like that on purpose to seduce me?Hmm?"

Bella Qiao smiled a little.

Slender fingers slid all the way down his face, past his bare chin, Adam's apple, and collarbone, all the way into the strong, lean chest.

"Yeah, I'm seducing you, I just don't know if Mr. Gu is on the hook."

The corners of the woman's mouth picked up a flirtatious smile, and it was the first time Gu Si Qian had ever seen her like this, and it was as if a fire in his body had arched up, as if it was about to explode.

He held his lips and smiled.

"Of course I'm going to be on the hook, Mrs. Gu has prepared such a great deal of goodwill, wouldn't it be too disinterested of me if I didn't?"

I said, already beating her across the room and picking her up in a hug.

Georgie was thrown on the soft bed by him.

Kusken took off his pajamas three times, then pressed down.

He bowed his head and k*ssed her lips as he asked mumbly, "Why are you in such a good mood today, eh?"

Bella Qiao was so numb from his k*sses that she hugged his head and whispered, "Don't say it."

Gu Si Qian smiled lowly.

This night, naturally, the two were upside down and passionate.

At the end, all I could hear was the woman's low voice, "Siken, let's have a child."

Kusken shook hard and looked up at her.

I saw a woman with messy hair, a touch of red at the end of her eyes, and a beautiful little face like a voluptuous azalea, looking uniquely seductive.

She reached out, wrapped her arms around his neck, and whispered, "Si Qian, I want to have a child of our own."

Faced with such a Bella Qiao, where could Gu Si Qian resist?

k*ssing it down heavily, he mumbled, "As you wish."

The next day.

They were naturally late getting up, having slept late last night itself, and fooling around all night until almost dawn today.

When I woke up, it was noon.

Gu Si Qian was in good spirits though, the man was relieved and the whole man had a feeling of renewed energy.

Not so with Georgie, who hadn't slept well and had a waxy little face full of discontented wakefulness written all over it.

Gu Siqian knew he wanted her to be tough last night, so he didn't dare to say anything more, and compensated the whole day with a smile and a small attempt to please, which only made Bella Qiao feel better.

Because of the terms reached with Nangong Jin, this time both sides were frank and open and there was nothing else to hide, so Gu Si Qian quickly ordered to continue searching for clues to the Heavenly Book of Jade.

At the same time, he also listened to Bella Qiao and contacted Quexiu through Jenny Jing, sending that money strain over and entrusting him to help study it.

Although Quexu is not interested in the Nan Clan

Joy, however, because of the knowledge that Bella Qiao was not of the same faction as them, despite having the blood of the Nan Clan in her veins.

So there was no refusal and their request was granted.

The fact that Nangong Jin was able to hold the entire Nanshi family under control for so long with this thing was obvious, it wasn't easy to feed.

Even though Nangong Jin had told them about the method of raising plants, it wasn't actually that easy.

Gu Siqian didn't have much hope in Quexu, but he was taking the attitude of treating a dead horse as a living one.

As soon as a deal is made over there, this side will continue to search for the heavenly book of jade and silk without stopping.

He had calculated that if he could find the remaining five pieces of Heavenly Book jade, and then take the last piece and directly trade dozens or hundreds of money strains with Nangong Jin, the other party might not agree.

After all, with the way Nangong Jin had been acting, he had aspirations for the Heavenly Book of Jade.

And with so many people in the Nan Clan, everyone had to take this medicine, this supply was not insignificant, and the fact that Nangong Jin could supply so many money fruits out meant that he must have a lot of these plants, and giving him hundreds of them was nothing.

Thinking this way, Gu Siqian set his mind to concentrate on finding out the whereabouts of the Heavenly Book of Jade.

And now, the other side.

Jenny was at work, but suddenly received a phone call.

The call was from Nina Hua.

During this time, because it was close to Old Mrs. Jin's birthday, Nina Hua accompanied Kepler back to F and wasn't in China.

Jenny Jing had entrusted her with the news last time, and as soon as she received her call this time, she immediately asked, "Yao Yao, is there news from the Heavenly Book of Jade?"

From the other side came Nina Hua's teasing voice, "Tsk, I can't call you without news?"

Only then did Jenny realize that he was too anxious, and he couldn't help but laugh.

"Of course I can, I'm just asking casually."

Nina Hua and her had been friends for many years, so there was no misunderstanding.

Moreover, Nina Hua knew Jenny's personality, and if she wasn't really desperate for that thing, she wouldn't have asked herself to help her find it.

Although until now, Nina Hua knew what Jenny Jing was trying to do by asking about this.

But since she's a good sister in need, of course she'll do her best.

Therefore, Nina Hua stopped beating around the bush and said, "Okay, to tell you the truth, it's news."

Jenny Jing was delighted, and asked, "What news?"

"Isn't Kepler's grandmother about to celebrate her 70th birthday, the Jin family is planning to hold a big event, and this time many guests came early, so the old lady dragged me to greet them, and I met a Jin family's Shi Bo, and overheard them chatting about it, saying that they had a piece of the collection on their hands."

Jenny asked after him, "What's that uncle's name? Is the information reliable?"

I don't remember the details, there were too many people that day, and the information was unreliable, I just heard them mention it when they were chatting, they seemed to be very tight-lipped about it, and didn't say it in front of us, so I don't know the details. Clearly, if you're anxious to know, I can go and ask around for you."

Jenny Jing didn't be polite to her and directly said, "Then please help me find out more, if it's true, that's simply great."

Nina Hua listened to her excited tone on the phone and really couldn't help but feel curious.

She wondered, "Jenny, are you conveniently going to tell me what exactly you're looking for this for? I've always felt that you don't seem like someone who would go after some kind of immortality."

Chapter 1013

Jenny choked slightly.

She certainly didn't want to pursue any kind of immortality.

That stuff, right off the bat, was a lie, and she never believed it.

But just because she doesn't believe it, doesn't mean others don't.

Even if she is as transparent and clever as Nangong Jin, isn't she just as obsessed with it?

Thinking about this, Jenny couldn't help but feel a headache.

She sighed and said, "Yao Yao, do you remember the last time we went to Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao's wedding together and Bella Qiao fainted at the wedding?"

Nina Hua was stunned, "Of course I remember, what does this have to do with them?"

"Of course it's relevant, because the reason I'm entrusting you to help find this is because I was entrusted by them."

Nina Hua shook.

Jenny felt that at this point, there were things that could no longer be kept from her.

After all, if the news in Nina Hua's hands was true, Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao would have to make a trip to F country, and then they wouldn't be able to hide it either.

So she told Nina Hua about how Nan Mu Rong told Gu Si Qian about Bella Qiao's origins and how they traded with Nan Gong Jin.

Nina Hua was simply shocked after hearing that.

She had always thought that it was Jenny who needed it, but she didn't think that the person who needed it was actually Bella Qiao.

"So, if you don't collect the remaining five pieces before the New Year, Bella Qiao will be dead?"

Jenny sank down, "You could say that."

"What's with that Nangongjin guy, why is he so hateful? Making fun of other people's lives, has he no wife or children of his own?"

Jenny heard her angry voice and couldn't help but laugh.

This person, Nina Hua, would always be this way.

No matter how much you've been through and how big you've grown, your mind will always be the purest.

In her mind, good and bad were so distinct and unadulterated.

But she neglected to mention that in this world, there are times when people just can't be judged by good or bad alone.

A murderer could be a dutiful son, and a loving father could be a murderer.

Jenny sighed, not going to tell her that in the end.

She just smiled, "I don't know if he has a wife and children, but anyway, I'll leave it up to you to help me ask around again, and if the news is exactly true, I'll tell Bella Qiao and the others."

Nina Hua nodded, at this point, she already knew the gravity of the situation, so naturally she didn't have the heart to joke around.

"Don't worry, I'll take care of this, I'll find out for you."

Jenny spoke to her for two more sentences before hanging up the phone.

Nina Hua's side was pretty quick.

This side only spoke to her, and it wasn't long before Nina Hua called back in the evening.

On the other side, Nina Hua's voice was a little excited.

"Jenny, I've found out, that Shi Bo is indeed surnamed Chen, and he has a piece of heavenly jade in his hand, which he collected through a jade seller about five years ago when this thing was just being speculated, but I heard him say that he thinks the piece he has should be a fake, because it was said that it really was auctioned at an auction not too long ago, and wasAuctioned off."

Jenny Jing was stunned, "An auction?"

"Yeah, like...it's one in Forest City."

Jenny frowned.

The auction in Forest City, the Book of Heaven and Jade?

unreasonable

Ah, if a piece really did flow out in Lin City, there's no way Gu Si Qian and the others wouldn't know about it.

After all, Lin City was Gu Siqian's lair.

Thinking of this, she didn't rush to give Nina Hua's verdict and said, "I know, I'll ask them about this, I'll call you later, that Chen Shi Bo of yours, whether what he has is true or not, please help me stabilize them first, don't reveal anything yet, and contact me anytime if there's any situation."

Nina Hua gave a "hmm", "I understand."

The two men hung up the phone at that point.

After hanging up the phone, Jenny called Bella Qiao over again.

On the phone, she told Bella Qiao the news Nina Hua had brought.

Bella Qiao listened and smiled, "It was something like that, but that auction wasn't held by anyone else, it was the Nan Clan, we didn't realize it at that time, but now that we think about it, we realize that maybe it was from that time that Nangong Jin was setting up his plan."

"He deliberately held that auction to lure me and Gu Siqian forward, took away that piece of heavenly jade to get us interested in it, and then announced my illness at the wedding, but unfortunately, we didn't realize it before, and actually walked into his trap step by step without realizing it."

Jenny Jing also felt incredible after hearing Bella Qiao's words.

"So, that piece of jade was taken by you?"

"Yes, but now it's all in the hands of Nangongjin."

Jenny was silent for a moment.

"Then in your opinion, is it true on Uncle Chen's side?"

Bella Qiao laughed, "Whether it's true or not, as long as there's news, don't you have to take a trip? Go over there and you'll see."

Jenny nodded.

“In that case, I’ll talk to Nina Hua, and we’ll go over there together then.”

Bella Qiao promised.

After hanging up the phone, Jenny pondered for a moment and went downstairs to look for Biden Lu.

It was still early at this time, but it was only eight o’clock in the evening, and after dinner, Biden Lu had promised to play games with the children, so he was now in the toy room with the two little gnomes.

When Jenny went in, he saw them sitting on the carpet, one large and two small, while Biden Lu was teaching the little gnomes how to put together Lego.

Little Competeze is only three and a half years old now, but he’s so intelligent that he can already spell a lot of Lego.

Even the teachers at school praised him for his intelligence.

Biden Lu has always been very proud of this matter, thinking that because of his good genes, the children born to him are smart.

Jenny laughed at this idea of him.

Seeing her coming, Biden Lu waved at her.

“Why did you come down here? Aren’t you resting in your room?”

Jenny’s pregnancy was becoming more and more obvious, as she was carrying twins, and even her belly was a bit bigger than the previous pregnancies.

It’s reasonable to assume that a pregnant woman of three or four months should still be able to see her stomach.

But Jenny was now a little protruding, and his body was getting heavier by the day.

Biden Lu was afraid that she would be tired, so after dinner, he took a walk with her and let her go back to her room to rest.

Jenny smiled and walked over, "I have something I want to tell you."

When Biden Lu saw and touched her gaze, he knew it was something important.

He turned and instructed the two gnomes, "You guys play by yourselves for a while, while Mommy and I go out for a bit."

The two gnomes had gotten a lot of company from the two of them lately, and now they were not bickering and nodding their heads thoughtfully.

"Daddy, you go stay with Mommy, we'll play by ourselves."
