

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1011

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1011-“Do contact us if you need anything. We’re friends.”

With that said, Guy turned and went inside the car.

Dior sat inside the car as she gave Charmine a reluctant wave.

“Goodbye, Charlie.”

Charmine saw that the car was about to move with a frown on her face, and it was then she walked toward their car, opened the door, and went inside.

Dior looked at her with disbelief. “You... You’re willing to come with us?”

“Yeah, let’s go,” came Charmine’s formal reply.

If she went back to Anthony, they would also be searching for Annabel anyway.

Instead of being passive, she might as well get the bone and be proactive!

She could cure Chris once she got the bone, and everything would be fixed!

Charmine looked at Guy who was driving, and she then reminded sternly,” I’ll need to make it clear right now: I’ve been in love with Anthony for a long time, and we’ve already gotten our marriage certificate. I’ll marry him no matter what.

We can only pretend to be a couple to get the bone to save Chris, and this won’t change no matter what. Whether we succeed or not, you’re my friends and I owe it to you two. If there’s anything I can help in the future, do let me know.

We’re only friends.” 1

Her tone was serious and cautious.

Guy’s hand on the steering wheel stiffened, though he had expected everything.

He nodded. “Don’t worry, I won’t have any ideas I shouldn’t be having.”

Dior, who sat by his side, also nodded. “Right! You can trust my brother. Don’t worry!”

As long as Charmine agreed, she and her brother would have more time to spend together. She believed Charmine would eventually fall for Guy as they spent more time with one another. 4

Her brother was not any lesser than Anthony!

Even if they did not end up together in the end, at least she tried to match them up. She would not regret it. 1

The car gradually approached the Granger mansion that was built by the sea, granting the mansion with a view of the ocean.

However, there was a large field in front of the mansion with guards standing outside the gate. It looked formal.

The three of them got out of the car, and Dior then gushed to Charmine,” Our parents aren’t home, so only our grandparents are home now. If they ask, just say that you two want to keep it low-profile. You’ll get married before having the ceremony. They’re old, so as long as you don’t act too distant, they won’t be able to tell anything.” 1

“Okay.” Charmine agreed and followed them inside, 1

As the sun hung brightly in the skies, the two elders sipped their tea in the garden. When they saw them returning, Grandma Granger frowned. “Dior, Guy, you...”

“Grandma, Charmine made up her mind. She thinks Brother is good, and she’s willing to marry him now and get along later,” spoke Dior as she pulled at Charmine, making her and Guy stand together.

Charmine, standing beside Guy, looked rather awkward and resistant. 1

However, she thought of Chris and the red wolf bone. She had to act along.

When Grandma Granger heard that, she waved toward her. “Really? Really? Come here-let me look at you.” 1

Her tone sounded adoring as she spoke toward Charmine.

After a moment of hesitation, Charmine walked toward her

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1012-Grandma Granger held Charmine’s hand and eyed her from head to toe before she nodded with satisfaction. “It’s no surprise why my Guy fell in love for the first time; you’re indeed a wonderful lady. I like you, and I believe you’ll like Guy and this family eventually.” i ‘Impossible’. Charmine wanted to say that, but she nodded at the elderly instead.

Senior Granger was sitting beside Grandma Granger. “Since you’re here, that means you’re accepting Guy. We know the reason you came. You want the red wolf bone, don’t you?” 1

Charmine did not expect Senior Granger to be so straightforward, though she met his gaze honestly. ‘Yes.’

“You’re an honest kid indeed. As long as you’re with Guy and take good care of him, the red wolf bone isn't an issue; we'll even give you more than that," spoke Senior Granger. He then added, "However, don't think of trying anything funny. Just live happily. Otherwise, you know the Granger family is big and reputable, and you don't want to offend us." 1

His aged voice sounded like a warning.

Charmine's eyes darkened. The Grangers were not to be offended...

This could get more difficult than it should be.

Dior went forward and held Charmine's hand. "Grandpa, why are you saying that? She'll be with Guy, don't scare her."

"I might've sounded too harsh..." Senior Granger pursed his lips before he continued, "However, I've always been straightforward. Since you're all here, why don't we discuss the marriage and choose a date?" i

Guy instantly walked in front of Charmine and defended her, "Grandpa, there's no hurry. Charmine is willing to spend more time with me. We can take it slow. Just give her the bone for now; we don't need it anyway."

"Look at you. You're not married yet and you're already so protective of your wife! I want to hear what Charmine says, don't step in." Senior Granger looked at Charmine.

Dior looked at Charmine as well and winked at her.

Charmine answered calmly, "Grandpa, Grandma, I feel the same way. We can get married soon with a traditional ceremony at the end. We can keep it simple."

"Really? You really think so?" Grandma Granger's eyes widened with disbelief.

They knew modern women liked to have grand weddings, how they wished the whole world would know about it!

They thought Charmine was this kind of woman, not expecting her to behave like how she did instead.

Charmine nodded. ‘Yeah, we must pick a good date though. Let’s keep it traditional.’

‘Yes, I agree with you! I’ll ask them to arrange it right away! We’ll pick a date quickly!’ Grandma Granger was delighted, i

Nobody liked the traditional wedding anymore, but Charmine seemed to like it.

Of course they were delighted!

She went ahead to prepare it.

Senior Granger said to Charmine, “Guy, Dior, Charmine just got here. Show her around, and once we’ve chosen the date, we’ll need you all to know.’

“Okay,” Guy and Dior agreed before they led Charmine to the backyard.

Charmine saw the two elders leaving happily. She frowned.

Was it a good idea to lie to the two elders? 1

Although she was guilty, she had no choice. She had to cure Chris as soon as possible.

Furthermore, the Chernys promised her the red wolf bone. She deserved it, yet they used it to threaten her instead. It was not too cruel for her to get it back.

She reassured herself with that.

Seeing that she was zoning out, Guy comforted her, “Don’t worry, there are places without CCTV in here. Our grandparents aren't around, so you can relax in the backyard."

Charmine nodded.

She was relaxed because she made up her mind on the way here.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1013-Charmine had intentionally asked the two Granger elders to pick a date. They would surely go to the most well-known psychic in the country who would then tell them tomorrow morning at nine in the morning was the best choice. There would be no other suitable time throughout the year should they miss it. i

The two elders would ask them to get married at that specific time and give her the bone.

If she could get the bone, she might still be able to attend her own wedding with Anthony... 1

That evening at Violet Villa, as the sun turned blood-red...

Anthony and Chris had searched everywhere but found no clue that led to Annabel's whereabouts.

His wedding would be held tomorrow, and if he failed to find Annabel, things might get harsher than they needed to be.

At that moment, Luke walked in.

"Boss, it's bad! Madam is missing!"

"What?" Anthony frowned as his figure steadily grew stiff, angry.

"I brought some people over to send her the wedding gown," Luke blurted," and we realized no one was inside...”

‘When did Mommy go missing? Is there any clue to her?’ Chris asked anxiously as he pulled at Luke’s arm.

Luke replied, “Madam put her clothes on the pillow, and that’s why the guards in the afternoon shift didn’t realize anything was wrong. We don’t know whether she left in the morning or afternoon. As for the evidence... they’ve all been wiped out. The surrounding footage is cleared up completely...” i

Anthony’s large hands clenched tightly, so much so that the veins in his arms protruded.

Cleared up completely?

Just like last time?

He had an impossible thought in his head as the air he emitted grew daunting.

The Cherny mansion, or the Granger mansion?

Whichever mansion she was at, it was unforgivable!

She ran away with some man while he was out preparing for their wedding? 2

Anthony exuded an air of dangerous violence. “Get them ready to enter Cherny mansion and Granger mansion!” he snapped.

‘Yes, Sir!’ Luke answered.

The night was dark as ink.

In the living hall of the Granger mansion...

Grandma Granger pulled at Charmine and Guy’s hands happily. ‘Wonderful news. Apparently you two have matching horoscopes and numbers.

However, the most ideal timing would be tomorrow at nine in the morning.

If you miss this, there's no better date!"

"If so, since we've all agreed, you'll go with this, won't you, Charmine?" asked Senior Granger.

Charmine's eyes narrowed, appearing as if it was too sudden. After a moment, she nodded. "Okay."

It would be too suspicious for her to answer so quickly. Sure enough, the two elders were pleased by her reaction.

"Wonderful," beamed Senior Granger happily, "you two go and get some rest. We'll prepare everything else to make sure everything goes well tomorrow!"

"What about your family? Do you want to let them know?" asked Grandma Granger.

Charmine hesitated for a moment. "Maybe not now. This is all too sudden, and I'm afraid they're not ready for the news. To avoid unnecessary objections and problems, I'll let them know once everything is stable."

"Alright, go and get some rest. Go on—it'll be a long day tomorrow!" gushed Grandma Granger as she pushed Charmine and Guy into a newlyweds bedroom that was well-decorated. 1

Charmine wanted to speak but the door was closed. That effectively left her alone with Guy...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1014-Senior Granger then spoke to Guy and Charmine, 'Talk about your feelings and feel good about it tonight, or you'll both look too distant tomorrow during the ceremony. Furthermore, this happens too soon, so we won't let the outsiders know about it yet, and obviously you can't get inside the bedroom tomorrow right after the ceremony, so now is the time... I won't disturb you two any longer!" 1

With that said, the two seniors left.

Guy who was inside the room blushed. He then looked at Charmine. "Don't worry, I'll sleep on the floor, so you can sleep on the bed."

Charmine glanced around. It was a room that had taken up the entire first floor, and there was one bedroom, one bathroom, and a balcony.

A white translucent curtain hung by the balcony that fluttered in the air as the breeze blew from time to time.

The spacious room also had a bed as well as some sofas.

"You sleep on the bed," said Charmine, "and I'll sleep on the floor. You helped me, so I can't let you sleep on the floor." 1

With that said, she went to the wardrobe to get the extra blanket and placed them in a corner somewhat far away from the bed.

Guy wanted to reject this offer but since he was in the same room as Charmine, he was too nervous to speak.

Watching how quickly Charmine moved, all thoughts of words flew out of his mind.

He could only give in.

He slept in bed while Charmine slept on the floor near the balcony.

Charmine could not fall asleep. She had the blanket on and turned off the light, but her thoughts ran rampant still.

She wondered what Anthony was doing. Was he looking for her all over the place? Was he worried for her? 2

She wanted to text Anthony, to ask him to wait for another day, but she decided against it as she thought things through.

She knew Anthony, and he would not agree to it. He might even try to ruin her plan. 1

This was her last shot in getting the red wolf bone, and she must not fail.

With that in mind, she forced herself to fall asleep, and she unknowingly did.

Guy who was in bed, looked in Charmine's direction with a heavy heart.

Even though she was beside him, she was still so far away.

Charmine would not fall for him...and she might never would...

Just as he thought of that, a sudden loud crack was heard.

The bed broke!

It broke, just like that!

Caught off-guard, Guy's bed fell to the floor, and the noise woke up Charmine as she saw Guy on the floor.

Guy's face flushed red. Why would the bed fall? How was he supposed to explain things?

He quickly stood up and said, "It suddenly...broke...I'll ask them to fix this..."

Charmine looked at the bed; the bedposts were obviously cut. It was intentional.

“No need,” she said, “sleep on the floor, then.” Guy frowned. He did not understand.

To that, Charmine explained, “Maybe your grandparents knew we’d be sleeping separately, so they cut the bedposts. If you go out now, even if the bed was fixed, they might think of something else. Instead of that, why not just leave it as it is.”

Guy instantly understood. He looked at Charmine apologetically. “Sorry... they’re overdoing it. I’ll tell them off tomorrow.”

“Don’t worry, just get some sleep for now. Don’t expose it, and just get the red wolf bone tomorrow,” said Charmine.

Guy nodded and picked up the mattress. 1

There were many wood chips on the blanket, so Guy brought it to the bathroom and shook them off.

Charmine frowned.

This bed was a traditional wooden bed. There was no mattress and the only extra blanket was with her on the floor.

If Guy was to sleep on the floor, he did not have a blanket.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1015-Charmine wanted to help Guy, wanted to come up with something for him, but when Guy came back out, he placed the thin layer of blanket on the ground and slept on it.

He picked a spot far away from Charmine, and the broken bed laid between them.

With a wardrobe at his side, the space he was in was rather narrow.

Charmine frowned. Noticing that she had more space on her side, she spoke, 'You can sleep here, too.'

"No need, I'm fine. I can sleep here," answered Guy with a reddened face.

To him, there was no problem sleeping on the floor. He had slept in worse conditions during his training.

Charmine looked at his back and frowned, though she said nothing in return.

She would remember this favor from him. Once her relationship with Anthony had stabilized, she could then return the favor to him. i

She hoped she could get the red wolf bone tomorrow. 1

The night resumed its silence again.

Meanwhile, Dior stood outside their door and heard the movements inside the room. Her lips curled up pleasantly. 1

Wonderful! The bed was broken, and there was no extra space. Her brother would have to sleep with Charmine, right?

If she did nothing for them, how would they develop even a sliver of a feeling?

Even if they had not developed some feelings, Charmine would start having some feelings for her brother!

With that, she happily went back to her room.

Outside the window, the moon slowly climbed up the tree. The autumn night was colder than usual.

With a chilling breeze, the curtain fluttered in the air. 1

The sound-asleep Charmine suddenly felt eyes on her, the intensity causing chills to run down her spine. She gradually opened her eyes to see that a well built figure stood on the balcony, and they looked daunting behind the curtain.

Based on the shape of the figure, it was Anthony. i

Anthony actually came!

Anthony stood still behind the curtain as he emitted a fierce demeanor.

Through the curtain and the moonlight, he could clearly see Charmine sleeping inside.

Charmine was here and was sleeping with Guy, no less!

They even broke the bed! What did they do?! i

His eyes were seemingly on fire as he walked toward them.

Charmine quickly went out from the inside and pulled him to the other side of the balcony.

When she made sure that it was Anthony, she anxiously asked, “Why did you come?” 1

“Would I have found out that my wife is cheating on me if I didn’t?”

Anthony’s tone was filled with anger and restraint.

Charmine quickly said, “Calm down, listen to me. I came here for the red wolf bone; they promised me. As long as I pretend to get married with Guy tomorrow for the grandparents to believe us, I’ll get the red wolf bone.”

Anthony's eyes darkened and became colder.

Get married to Guy?

“Charmine! Who do you think I am? A dead man?” i

As he spoke, he held Charmine's hand and scoffed, “Go out, I'll fix this now.”

He looked like the devil incarnate as if he was about to destroy the Granger mansion.

Charmine saw that he wanted to attack Guy, thus she quickly held onto his arm.

“Anthony, calm down. I've heard about Annabel disappearing. She's missing.

She might be kidnapped! If we get married tomorrow and someone threatens us using Annabel, what can we do? What if they threaten us with the baby in Annabel? We have to be proactive instead of passive. Once we get the red wolf bone to treat Momo, no matter what happens, nobody could threaten us again.

Please, hold it for just one more night, okay?”

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1016-“Hold it for one more night?” scoffed Anthony. “And let my wife sleep with another man? Watch her marry someone else? Charmine, I'm not as generous as you think!”

With that said, he pushed Charmine's hand away and walked into the room.

Terrified that he would wake up Guy and his family, Charmine pulled him back, all to no avail as he was too strong.

He was unstoppable.

Just as he was about to enter the bedroom, Charmine abruptly took out a dagger and pushed it against her neck. “Anthony, if you’re going in, you might as well send me to the hospital!” 1

Hearing her threat, Anthony turned back to see a cold dagger pressed against Charmine’s neck.

He frowned. “You’ve only met him for a few days, and now you’re using your life to save him?”

“I’m not saving him-I’m saving Momo and our future! As long as I get the red wolf bone tomorrow, we can still get married in the afternoon. If I can’t get it, Annabel would be in danger, and Chris will be put on the line, too! Anthony, you and I are both adults. Can’t you think of the bigger picture?” growled Charmine under her breath, stern and assertive.

Anthony looked at her clear face. His large hands tightened with veins popping out.

Bigger picture?

He did not care, especially when his woman was involved! i

Charmine continued, “Do you remember the day we fell into the pit? You said that I can ask for anything, and that you’ll fulfill it for me, so I have a request tonight. Please, calm down. I’ll get the red wolf bone tomorrow morning. Once I get it, I’ll do anything you want! Otherwise, if we don’t get the red wolf bone, I’d rather die than to leave this place!”

As she spoke, she pushed the dagger closer to her neck, determined and stubborn.

Anthony had not seen her so stubborn after knowing her for so long. It was apparent that she had made up her mind and was hellbent in seeing her plan through.

Charmine continued, “The bed was intentionally broken, and I’ve been on the floor from the start. If you can’t even trust me in this, how can we get married and spend the rest of our lives together?” challenged Charmine, i Anthony’s large hands clenched even tighter. She had gone to this extent for the red wolf bone?

He did not trust her? They could not get married and spend the rest of their lives together?

Suddenly, he turned away from the bedroom and coldly snapped, “I’ll be doing it my way to retrieve the red wolf bone, Charmine. With me around, don’t even think of marrying another man!” 1

With that said, he jumped off the balcony onto the field. His dark shadow disappeared into the darkness of the night.

Even though he was gone, his chilling and oppressive breath lingered in the air.

Charmine looked in the direction he disappeared into, and her brows furrowed.

What was Anthony planning?

What could he do?

What if he ruined the plan tomorrow? What if...?

She could only bring out her new phone to send him messages.

[Anthony, calm down! Everything isn’t real, it’s just an act! Can’t you treat me as an actor?]

[This is the only chance to get the red wolf bone. Don't mess up!]

No matter what she sent, he did not reply to her. 1

Charmine stared into the dark night and felt uneasy.

She felt that Anthony was about to do something, but she dared not chase after him. She did not want to wake the Grangers up... i

As she stood on the balcony for a long while and was lost in her headspace, she helplessly went back into the room to sleep on the floor. 1

Luckily, they did not speak loudly. Guy did not wake up, and nobody realized what happened.

She shut her eyes, silently praying that everything could go as planned for the wedding.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1017-Guy, meanwhile, had his back turned to Charmine, though his eyes were wide open in the darkness.

He had never been in so much pain before.

Charmine was here merely for the red wolf bone, and she would leave right after getting it...

Even though she used the dagger to force Anthony into letting her stay, she was using her life to stay with Anthony.

Guy had never been envious of anyone. Anthony was a first.

In the darkness, Anthony arrived outside the gate silently.

Luke said in a low voice, “President, we’ve located the red wolf bone-it’s in the heavily secured basement set up with alarms all around. According to the results, there are many alarms and protective machines. It’s dangerous. Why don’t we-“ “Hmph!” Anthony scoffed and put on his black mask. He went in the direction of the basement quickly.

He had to get the red wolf bone before morning came.

The moon up the tree slowly sunk as the sky turned into a brighter shade.

Charmine did not sleep well. She had many dreams instead.

Her newborn was tossed into the bin; five-year-old Chris’ face turned pale as blood oozed out from his lips as he muttered, “Mommy, sorry, I can’t be with you, you have to be happy with Daddy...”. Chris closed his eyes gently, and his little head turned down...

No!

No!

Charmine opened her eyes abruptly and she heard someone knocking.

She was in the bedroom in the Granger mansion.

She thanked her stars that it was just a dream.

Dior’s voice was heard from the outside. “Charmine, Charmine! Are you awake?

The ceremony will happen at five, you may start getting ready!”

Although the ceremony only had the two elders and less than ten relatives, they did it with a lot of effort. They decorated the hall and even prepared the traditional wedding costumes for them.

Guy had woken up, too. He quickly stood up and tossed his blanket at Charmine. “For the act,” he muttered, blushing as he did.

“Okay, don’t worry.” Charmine did not mind.

As long as she could get the red wolf bone, this was a small matter.

Guy walked over to open the door, revealing Dior and the two elders outside, along with some maids with costumes at hand.

When they saw the shared blanket on the floor, they were delighted.

So the bed broke last night, and they truly slept together. Perfect!

Grandma Granger said, “You two go and wash up. Put on the costumes.”

A maid came in with the costume.

Charmine said, “I’ll go get changed myself.”

“Okay, we like independent kids.” Grandma Granger nodded with delight.

Charmine went into the changing room. She looked at the sky outside and felt uneasy.

Anthony said he would not allow her to get married to Guy. This implied that he would do something before the sky turned bright.

What if he went ahead to steal the red wolf bone?

She had learned about the machines in the basement. It was a heavily mechanical basement. Even Dior, Guy, and herself had no confidence in getting in safety, i

They were done for if he triggered any of them!

Her eyelids fluttered at that moment as if something bad was about to happen.

At that moment... Knock, knock, knock!

Someone knocked on the door, followed by Grandma Granger's voice.

"Charmine, have you changed? Guy is coming in. He'll get changed with you."

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1018-Charmine frowned.

Get changed together?

What if Guy came in when she was truly changing?

She collected herself and quickly got changed.

Even though it was a complicated ensemble of traditional clothes, her movement was so swift that it took less than ten seconds for her to put it on! 2

After changing into the clothes, she quickly opened the door. "I'm ready.

Guy can go in now."

Guy reeled back in shock as Charmine stepped out.

Charmine was dressed in handmade traditional clothing with a phoenix embroidered to it. As her skin seemingly glowing like a pear, her hair was slightly messy, which made her seem even more carefree and beautiful.

The sight stunned him silly.

The rest of the Grangers looked at her in awe.

Dior was the first to react and she smiled. "My sister-in-law is so gorgeous.

Brother, what are you standing here for? Hurry and get in to get changed. Don't make her wait for too long."

“Oh...” Guy snapped back to reality and realized he was embarrassing himself.

A blush made its way to his face again. 1

He quickly grabbed the clothes and went into the changing room.

Some maids had come in to tidy up their bed.

Dior helped Charmine to get to the dressing table where a makeup artist quickly donned makeup on her.

Charmine wanted to turn it down, but she decided against it in fear of raising suspicion, i

The makeup artist was very professional. After moisturizing her skin, she quickly helped her to put on the makeup.

The rest of the Grangers waited by the side. They were delighted.

After her hair was fixed, Grandma Granger took out a jade hairpin and put it on her hair personally. 1

She looked at Charmine in the mirror, her face was flushing red with delight and pleasure. “So beautiful. I’m so pleased to have a granddaughter-in-law like you. I can die in peace now. Once you go through the ceremony, it’ll be confirmed! I’ll feel secure and free from nightmares!”

Charmine saw the pin on her hair through the mirror. It was made of jade and looked expensive, most likely passed down from generation to generation in the Granger family...

She smiled at Grandma Granger, but there was a glint of unnoticeable guilt in the dark end of her eyes, i

Grandma Granger treated her too well, but she came with the sole intention of getting the red wolf bone and faked herself for it...

A maid brought over a bowl of porridge as she said delightedly, “Madam, the blessed porridge is ready.”

“Alrighty! Guy, come over here! Share this!” Grandma Granger called out to Guy.

Guy was waiting at the far end. When he heard that, he walked over and sat beside Charmine. 1

The porridge was made of red oatmeal, and it symbolized the prosperity of the marriage.

There was only one spoon prepared, too...

Grandma Granger handed the bowl to them personally and smiled. “Have a taste, it’s good. We can get going once you finish this.”

When Charmine saw the bowl, she frowned and grew rather anxious.

There was only one spoon in the bowl. Was she supposed to share this with Guy and feed it to one another? i

She had this image in her mind along with Anthony’s eerily cold expression, and the chills ran down her back, i

Guy halted. He did not know what to do.

Seeing that they did not move, Grandma Granger put the bowl in Guy’s hand and pestered, “Guy, you’re a man, take the initiative!”

She eyed Guy as she spoke.

With the bowl at hand, Guy's ears flushed red.

Charmine, who was by his side, frowned. Grandma Granger was the one pestering, and if they did not eat it, she might get suspicious!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1019-Still, did she have to share it with Guy?

What could she have done?

Just as Charmine racked her brain for a solution, Guy raised his hand and lowered his head to drink it.

Quickly, he finished the entire bowl of porridge with nothing left.

After drinking it, he handed the bowl back to Grandma Granger. "Here, I've finished it."

Grandma Granger looked at the emptied bowl, and her face turned green."

You...you... You! Is your head made of wood?! You're meant to drink this with Charmine! You're supposed to share it!"

"You frustrated me! Oh lord!" Senior Granger flicked his fingers against Guy's forehead.

Guy lowered his head and pretended to be apologetic, "I'm sorry, I was too hungry..."

"Sigh! Whatever! Let's get going!" Grandma Granger soothed her chest and turned to leave.

Senior Granger glared at Guy. i

Charmine grew guiltier when she saw Guy getting scolded. She never thought he would come up with such a method to disperse the issue.

She owed it to him. 1

They altogether walked out. It was only six in the morning, and the sky was turning brighter.

Charmine and Guy were dressed in red—a handsome, dashing man with a stunning woman. They seemed like a perfect match.

The aura they both emitted contrasted yet complimented one another, how Guy's bright, determined disposition was against Charmine's aloofness and coldness. They seemed like a couple meant to be together.

Following behind them, Dior gazed at their backs with mixed emotions. 1

How wonderful would it have been if they were genuinely to be together? i

If only Charmine could fall for her brother...

She sighed and took out her phone to take a few photos in silence.

Charmine walked out and grew more antsy.

They were about to go through the ceremony. Once the timing was right, they would be officiated.

She wondered if she could get the red wolf bone; she wondered if things would go as planned...

She wondered what Anthony was doing. Would he mess things up?

Her thoughts overwhelmed her head.

There were about ten or so relatives of the Grangers, all dressed in simple yet formal outfits.

When they saw the two, the relatives all greeted:

‘The bride is so beautiful. No wonder you’re all keeping it low and quick. You’re afraid of her getting snatched away!’

“Congratulations! Guy is finally willing to get married! What a delight!”

“Let’s officiate the ceremony!”

The relatives showered them with blessings.

Although they were all moguls with high status, they were not businessmen so they seemed friendlier. 1

Charmine could only smile back to them, all while she prayed internally, “Hopefully, Anthony isn’t here. Hopefully, Anthony won’t cause a scene.

Hopefully, I can get the red wolf bone. Today’s the day…”

Guy, on the other hand, walked behind her. There were so many people around him, and he was somehow pushed closer to Charmine.

Even though he knew it was an act, even though he knew Charmine would leave him afterward, he could not fight back the smile that crept on his face when he saw the decorations and heard the blessings from everyone present. He felt blessed.

Dior kept her phone and thought of her matchmaking plan, so she ran to them.

As Charmine walked, she suddenly felt someone pushing her, causing her to fall toward the side, i

Guy quickly reached out to support her.

Caught off-guard, Charmine fell into Guy’s arms. 1

At that moment, she felt a pair of cold eyes glaring at her, and it sent chills all over her body.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1020-Charmine felt uneasy and felt something ominous in the air...

Was Anthony around? Was he nearby...? 1

She quickly stood up and kept his distance from Guy.

The crowd thought she was shy, thus some relatives teased them.

‘You’re about to get married. We understand! Haha! We’re a family, don’t be shy!’

“Guy! You should hold on to your wife! You should learn to take good care of your wife, to protect her.”

“Hurry up and learn to be a more considerate man. If not, we won’t let you off!”

Everyone pestered Charmine and Guy.

Guy blushed as he tried his best to speak calmly, ‘Til do that privately.

There’re so many people around today, so let’s not force it.”

“Aw, you’re an adult man yet you’re so shy! Look at Charmine! She’s not shy, is she?” A woman smiled and looked at Charmine.

‘Of course I’m not shy,’ Charmine thought to herself, ‘I’m just unwilling.’

She thought they only had to go through the ceremony and keep things simple.

She did not expect there to be so many procedures.

She was ready. She knew that even if she went home with the red wolf bone,

Anthony would punish her severely... 1

Seeing that she was unwilling, after a moment of hesitation, Guy offered his arm to her. “Charmine, hold onto my arm.”

It was a typical gesture between partners, and all she had to do was hold his arm.

This gesture was not intimate at all. i

Charmine could feel that Guy had been helping and protecting her all this while.

She frowned before she finally put her hand on his arm.

Since they were at this stage with so many attendees, all would be for naught if anyone became suspicious.

She was merely touching his arm, so she could please Anthony more when she got home, to make him less mad... 1

With that in mind, she held onto Guy’s arm and walked forward.

Guy’s body stiffened, unable to believe what happened.

Charmine was holding onto his arm... She was actually holding onto his arm!

He thought she would only fake it...

Walking by her side, his heart thumped loudly. He never felt this way before.

The usually calm and well-built man like him, flushed like a teenager at that moment. 1

A lot of the relatives smiled, and some even whistled. “Guy is finally a man! Our Guy has grown up!”

Accompanied by their teases, they finally arrived at the ceremony pavilion.

The pavilion was located at the south-side of the mansion. When they got in, it was a well-decorated space with the names of their ancestors carved on the walls.

Grandma Granger comforted, “Don’t be scared, Charmine. They were good people, and they fought for the country back then. They’re kind and won’t harm you.”

Charmine answered, “Don’t worry, I’m not scared.”

“Alright, alright! Atta girl. Let’s go in; it’s the right time now. We can officiate the ceremony,” gushed Grandma Granger as she held onto Charmine with a friendly smile, i

With that, Charmine walked inside with them. A maid was preparing the script. Charmine looked at the majestic layout of the pavilion, and a frown made its way to her face.

Was she about to write the script in front of their ancestors? This seemed like a serious matter... i

After hesitating, she looked at Grandma Granger worryingly and asked in a low voice, “What you promised...”

“Don’t worry. Once the ceremony is over, I’ll give it to you,” assured Grandma Granger.

Charmine felt much better then-what mattered was that she got the red wolf bone.

Someone handed the script to her, but just as she was about to receive it... 1

Bam!
