

Chapter 1014

Biden Lu nodded his head, which was why he accompanied Jenny Jing out.

Jenny was assisted by him, walking to the living room and sitting down on the sofa.

"What's wrong?" Lu Jing deeply concerned.

Jenny Jing said in a soft voice, "Didn't I ask Nina Hua to help us find out the whereabouts of the Book of Heaven and Jade Palms? She's found out some information that there's an Uncle Chen over there who seems to have a piece on hand, and I've informed Bella Qiao of that, so I expect they'll be over there soon."

"I thought that Bella Qiao and Gu Si Qian were not familiar with the Jin family, and Nina Hua and Kepler and the others were only acquaintances. Why don't we just go with Grandma, that way we'll have something to look out for when the time comes, and we'll be able to help Bella and the others."

Biden Lu looked at her and frowned.

"But your body..."

Jenny shook his head.

"I'm fine."

She laughed softly and took Biden Lu's hand and placed it on her stomach.

"See, your sons are well-behaved and don't bother me at all."

Seeing that there was still some worry between Biden Lu's eyebrows, Jenny Jing said again, "Besides, I still want to take this opportunity to go out and find my mother and Uncle Que, although I found her to be doing well after the last time I met her, I'm still a little worried, I want to see for myself what kind of place she's been living in all these years, whether her life is good or not, you can take this as a way to ease my mind and accompany me. Would you go there?"

Biden Lu had never been able to stand Jenny Jing's soft words of entreaty.

In his heart, Jenny was his life, as long as it was something she wanted to do, what was wrong with that?

Thus, with a helpless sigh, he reached out and took Jenny into his arms.

"Okay, I'll go with you."

Only when he finally agreed did Jenny's lips curl up in satisfaction.

Reaching around his strong, lean waist, he rested his head in his arms.

"Keng Shen, you're so sweet."

.....

The next day.

Instead of going to the office, Jenny let Mo Nan drive and took her to the old mansion.

In the old mansion, the old lady and the old man already knew she was coming.

Therefore, a butler was specially ordered to meet her at the door.

In fact, Jenny felt that the two old men were making a bit of a fuss over this, she wasn't an outsider, it wasn't the first time she had come over, and it wasn't like she didn't know the way, every time she came over alone, the old lady had to ask the housekeeper to pick her up, which made her a bit embarrassed.

But the old lady was very insistent, saying that what she is now a big belly, it is not convenient to walk, in case of bumping and so on, the consequences will be serious.

So, every time, she had to have her trusty butler, who she trusted, come and take her in personally to feel comfortable.

Jenny was simply laughing and crying at the old woman's care.

She just didn't find it inconvenient to walk as she was now, after all, it was only less than four months ago and she wasn't even fully pregnant yet.

If she can't even call that an inconvenience, what about asking someone to have a month-old belly?

However, thinking that it was their good intentions after all, if they refused, they would inevitably break the hearts of the two old men.

Therefore, she didn't say anything.

When I entered the house, I saw the old lady sitting on the couch in the living room watching TV.

Seeing her come in.

The old lady pressed the TV to pause and smiled as she welcomed her over, "Jenny over here, come, come, let me see quickly, how's this stomach."

Jenny smiled, "It's still young, the old lady is a bit too anxious."

The old lady helped her to sit down on the sofa and smiled, "Can I not be anxious? People like us, who are half-dead into the ground, living today we don't know if we can live until tomorrow, of course we have to see our grandson early if we can, otherwise what if something happens one day and we won't be able to see him again?"

Jenny Jing's face immediately sank as soon as he heard her words.

She didn't have the good sense to say, "Bah, bah, grandmother you don't talk nonsense, you and grandfather are going to live a long life, what into the earth and not into the earth!"

How could Old Lady Sham not know that she was comforting herself?

But in the end, it was a big day, so she didn't want to say too many unlucky things, so she just went along with Jenny and said, "Fine, fine, we'll live a long life, right, you said on the phone before that you had something to tell me, what was it?"

Now Master Lu is probably gone to take care of his plants and flowers, not in the living room.

Jenny pursed her lips and said, "Didn't you always say before that you were going to celebrate Grandma Jin's birthday? Biden and I are searching for a way to let you and grandpa both go, we don't feel safe, it just so happens that we've met Grandma Jin before and like her a lot, so we're going to accompany you over there in a couple of days, do you think it's okay?"

Old Mrs. Sham was stunned.

Some puzzled looks at her.

"You guys are going too? Why?"

She didn't want to shake her head, "No no no, not to mention that you and Biden work every day is already tired enough, you are still pregnant, take a long-haul flight so fast, the birthday banquet and so many people, crash how to do? No, no, it's too dangerous."

Jenny smiled, "It's not dangerous, we'll bring the accompanying doctor anyway, I'm not the first child, grandmother, you don't have to be too nervous."

Old Mrs. Sham still had a frown on her face.

Jenny was not good enough to speak directly with her about Gu Siqian, for one thing, the relationship between the Lu and Gu families had recently eased a bit in China, but in essence, it was still a competitive relationship.

She was afraid that if she said too much, Old Lady Cen wouldn't be able to understand their friendship with Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao, and not only didn't explain things clearly, but also made it darker and darker.

Secondly, it was also because the less people knew about this matter of Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao, the better.

The reason why I told Nina Hua before was because I had to have Kepler's help on the F side, and if Kepler knew, Nina Hua would know for sure, so there wasn't much point in hiding it.

But the old lady was different.

She sighed at the thought.

"Grandma, I'll be honest with you, I actually went out this time, not only for Grandma Jin's birthday, but I also wanted to take a trip to the desert and look for my mum, I've missed her since the last time she left and I wanted to see if she's doing okay."

It dawned on Mrs. Sham that she had heard this.

"I told you how good of a girl you were to want to accompany us."

She nodded after a moment, "That's good, I know you're homesick for your mother, I heard that your mother's current husband is called Quexu?He's a great doctor isn't he?"

Jenny nodded.

"I'm glad to hear that, with your mother here, I'm sure they won't treat you badly, and with the best doctors around, you and your child don't have to worry about your health and safety, so in that case, go ahead."

Only then did Jenny smile.

Chapter 1015

She leaned forward and gave Mrs. Sham an affectionate hug.

"Grandma, you're so sweet."

Old Mrs. Cen laughed cheerfully when she hugged her like that.

At noon, Jenny was staying at the old house for lunch.

After lunch, Mo Nan came to pick her up from the office.

After dealing with the afternoon's business, when he returned home in the evening, Jenny told Biden Lu about what he had already said to Old Lady Cen in the morning.

When Biden Lu saw this, he also ordered to go on and arrange his travel plans for two days later.

Because this time, all the adults in the family were gone, so naturally the two little ones couldn't stay.

Originally Jenny said that he would entrust them temporarily to Guan Ji Ming's care for a few days.

After all, he was Jenny's own uncle, and would not treat the two children badly if he said anything.

But Biden Lu's meaning was that since he was going to the Jin family, as well as to find Mo Cai Wei, then he would bring them over together.

There's no need to worry about safety anyway, it just so happens that school is out again during this time and they're inevitably upset about leaving two kids at home.

Going over there, there was nothing more important than helping Bella Qiao and Gu Si Qian keep an eye on the matter of the Heavenly Book of Jade.

So simply take them out for a trip.

Jenny Jing saw the situation and felt in his heart that he had been too busy running around and really owed the two children.

Plus there would be even less time to spend with Ann and Little Competeze if the two little naughty boys in the back of their bellies were born.

So it's better to spend more time with them now than to be apart of them then.

Thinking that, she didn't refuse anymore.

The two little gnomes were naturally delighted to know that they could go abroad with Jenny and Biden Lu.

However, Biden Lu also had an appointment with them.

Because after all, it was out of the house, it was impossible to bring so many servants with him, and Jenny and he had to do a lot of things themselves.

He was fine, but Jenny was now inconvenienced and he was worried that he would tire Jenny out.

So, before you leave the house, you have an appointment with your two little ones.

No random fighting, no childish tantrums, be obedient and reasonable, and be polite after meeting Grandma or Grandma Ken, or they won't be allowed to go.

The two little gnomes were looking forward to going out with them like crazy.

Now that I've heard it, where would I not?

It was even a respectful promise.

After saying yes, by the day of departure, the two gnomes' things were packed, and Jenny took them to the old mansion first, received the old lady and the old man, and then left for the airport together.

It was a four-hour trip from Kyoto to F. The two little gnomes were still excited to get on the plane.

Good thing it was a private jet, and there was no one else on board but the landlubbers, and an accompanying medical team.

Biden Lu then ordered the two little gnomes to sit down in their seats and taught them some simple quiet games.

Jenny watched the father-son trio interact, and the corners of his lips curled up in satisfaction.

Mrs. Sham and Master Lu were sitting at the front of the cabin, already resting.

Biden Lu whispered to Jenny Jing, "If you're tired, close your eyes and rest for a while too."

Jenny shook his head.

"I'm not tired."

She couldn't help but be happy at the thought that this time out, she would soon be able to meet up with Mo Caiwei again and see the place where her mother had been living for the past ten years.

And how can you be tired?

She now finally understood that Ann and Little Competeze had been waiting for her to return home every day before kind of mindset when it comes to the time.

People, no matter how old they are, always have an attachment to their mothers.

Although she wasn't Mo Caiwei's biological child, she was raised by Mo Caiwei, and those eighteen years were the happiest eighteen years before she met Biden Lu.

Even with those two sc*mbags Kelly Wang and Kevin Jing around, her life was never a bit dark.

It's all thanks to Mom.

They say that the lucky ones spend their lives being healed by childhood, and the unfortunate ones spend their lives being healed by it.

She was really quite sad sometimes, lamenting her good fortune that even though she'd been a stray as a child, she hadn't been harmed at all.

At least until she was eighteen, her life was full of love and brightness.

This is what led to her subsequent confidence and strength.

Even more fortunately, my mother, who was thought to be dead, is still alive, and now the two of them will be together again.

How else can I put it, providence?

All things are destined to happen, and good people will be rewarded for their good deeds.

She sat there, thinking wistfully.

There was the occasional sound of laughter coming from Biden Lu accompanying the children.

She closed her eyes contentedly.

Jenny hadn't planned to sleep.

Because she wasn't sleepy at all.

But about the atmosphere in the cabin was too good, and about the loved ones were with her, and her heart was at peace, she actually slept without noticing.

When I woke up, the plane had stopped.

Biden Lu was beside her, gently patting her shoulder, "Jenny, wake up, we're here."

Jenny opened his eyes with a "hmm" and got up, only to find that he was covered with a thin blanket at some point.

She was embarrassed and scratched her sleep messed up hair.

"Why did I fall asleep?"

Biden Lu laughed lightly, "Probably too tired, come on, let's go down."

Jenny nodded.

Biden Lu helped her stand up and reached out to fix her somewhat messy collar for her, before leading her outside.

When I got off the plane, I saw that it was overcast outside and it wasn't a nice sunny day.

The Jin family knew they were coming and had already sent a car over to wait.

The plane was parked at the private parking airport, An'an and Xiao Jingze had already been led over by the old lady and the old man, and at this time, was standing on top of the empty airport, nicely waiting for Jenny and Biden Lu.

After Jenny Jing and Biden Lu went down, a middle-aged man smiled and came up.

"Mr. and Mrs. Land, the car is already here, let's go this way."

Biden Lu nodded.

He turned to Mrs. Sham and the old lady smiled, "You take that car, and your grandfather and I will take this one with the baby.

After all, there were six of them, and they couldn't sit in one car, so Biden Lu nodded.

After the group of people got into the car, the car drove straight to Jin's house.

On the way, Jenny sent a message to Nina Hua, explaining that he had already gotten off the plane.

Then another message to Georgie, telling them they've arrived and asking when they're coming.

Georgie replied quickly.

But I saw her say they arrived last night.

After all, it was a matter of not having to drag the family along, moving faster than Biden Lu and the others, plus the matter was about the book of heaven and jade, both of them were a bit impatient, so they came over early last night.

Jenny saw the situation and couldn't help but laugh.

Chapter 1016

Since Bella Qiao and the others had arrived, there was nothing for her to worry about.

Soon, the car stopped in front of Jin's old house.

Old Mrs. Jin was waiting at the door early in the morning when she learned that Mrs. Sham was coming.

The two old ladies were handkerchief friends when they were young, and there's no need to say anything about their friendship.

When she learned that Old Mrs. Sham was coming over, Old Mrs. Jin was also overjoyed.

Early in the morning, the hardened family insisted on being greeted in person, despite the family's resistance.

After the group got off the bus, the two old ladies embraced each other and the picture was quite touching.

But it was a bad day, it was a little chilly outside, and although the two old folks were a little excited, they weren't allowed to stay out much longer.

Jin Qingshan held onto Old Mrs. Jin and said, "Mom, you see how cold it is, let's go inside and talk."

Only then did Old Mrs. Jin nod her head.

"Well, it's the right thing to say inside, sister, and I'll take you in."

When the group entered the house, someone came up to greet them.

Kepler and Nina Hua came over a long time ago as Jin family members.

Because of this 70th birthday, the Jin family is going to have a big event, and there are many things to prepare and business to take care of.

So Nina Hua simply brought the child and accompanied Kepler over.

Before Jenny arrived soon, he texted Nina Hua.

Now when Nina Hua heard the movement in the front hall, he knew they had arrived.

Leave the baby with the babysitter and come over quickly.

"Jenny."

"Distant."

The two best friends were also happy to be reunited, but it was Biden Lu, who stood next to them and fell short.

Old Mrs. Jin was so happy to see the two gnomes that she called them over for questioning.

Asked for names and ages, both gnomes answered nicely.

Old Mrs. Jin's eyes were all smiles as she said to Nina, "Is Lilin asleep yet? If you're awake, bring him over to play, too, so he can meet his sister and brother."

Nina Hua smiled, "Haven't slept, there are a lot of people here, I'll take them to the back garden later."

The old lady then nodded.

There are too many adults in the front room and it really isn't suitable for children.

After chatting with Jenny for a while, Nina Hua let her take the two children with her, and the group went to the back garden.

The Jin family's old mansion was naturally large, and only when they reached the garden at the back did Jenny discover that they had actually built a children's amusement park directly in the garden for children.

At this time, Nina Hua and Kepler's child, Jin Lilin, was sitting there with a little pink face full of displeasure, head down and looking awkward, not knowing who he was angry with.

Nina Hua walked over and smiled, "Lilin, come over and meet your sister and brother."

Kotirin looked up at her and came over politely, though unwillingly.

Nina Hua took his hand and introduced him, "This is sister, her name is An An, this is brother, his name is Lu Jingze, remember?"

Little Lilin looked at them with big, watery eyes, unblinking.

Ann was the oldest of the children, and therefore the most relaxed, and held out her little hand right away.

"Brother Lilin, hello, my name is Ann."

Kotirin blinked and blinked again.

Just when everyone thought he wasn't going to like it, he suddenly reached out, swooped in and grabbed Ann in a hug.

"Pretty sister, I like pretty sister."

Jenny Jing and Nina Hua were stunned.

I saw that the pink gnome, who had just been full of displeasure, was now beaming.

Looking up at Ani, who was a head taller than him, just about drooled.

Just then, an angry milk scream sounded.

"No hugging my sister!"

Little Jingze was so angry that he rushed up and pushed him away hard.

Although Xiao Jingze was a year and a half younger than Little Lilin, he was small and strong, plus Little Lilin probably didn't expect someone to push him, so he was unsteady on his feet and fell to the ground in no time.

He didn't expect to be treated this way with all his passion, but first he was confused for a few seconds, then he sat there and cried out.

Jenny and Nina instantly panicked.

"Linlin doesn't cry, be good, my brother didn't mean it, don't cry yet oh."

Jenny also walked over, squatted down and pulled Little Jingze over, and said seriously: "Zeze, didn't mommy tell you not to just hit anyone? How can you push Brother Linlin?"

Little Competeze blinked at her, her big round eyes like two black crystal grapes, looking especially endearing.

Probably sensing Jenny's seriousness, he deflated his mouth and said in aggravation, "Mommy said that I'm a boy and I have to protect my sister."

I said, and then suddenly turned my head to Little Lilin who was still crying.

"He's bullying his sister!"

Jenny Jing was stunned, and only then did he realize what was going on, and his face, which was still tense, burst out laughing at once.

"He's not bullying his sister, he's liking her."

Little competitor shook his head.

"No, he's just bullying his sister, it's in the book, she's a girl, girls can't just cuddle with boys, he's hugging her, he's a bad guy!"

Ann was at a bit of a loss for words at this point, with one brother on one side and the other on the other, she didn't know what to do.

Nina Hua then reacted to what was going on.

It's all a bit bearable.

She coaxed Little Lilin, who was still crying sadly, while giving a thumbs up to Little Jingze.

"Zeeze did the right thing, it was my brother's fault, he shouldn't have hugged my sister without permission."

She said, gently coaxing Little Lilin.

"Lin Lin, do you hear me? If you want to hug your sister in the future, you have to ask her permission first, okay?"

Little Lilin was still sobbing and crying, Jenny saw the situation and said to An'an, "An'an, you go and coax your brother."

Ann was a little hesitant.

She didn't really feel anything about being hugged, mainly because she was afraid that if she went and defended her little bidet would be sad.

However, when I turned around and saw that little Competeze was being held by Mommy, I knew that it should be fine, and that's when I took a step in the direction of little Lilin.

"Lin Lin, hello, will you stop crying? Let's play a game!"

As a sister, Ann has a knack for coaxing children.

Kotirin already liked her, and when he heard her voice, although he was still crying sadly, it wasn't the kind of crying where he couldn't hear anyone's words anymore.

He lifted a small face, still with tears, and looked up at her.

As I sobbed, I asked, "Play, play what?"

Ann thought to herself, "Let's play peek-a-boo, shall we?"

Little Lilin seemed to think about it, and after a half-hearted moment, he said, "Okay."
