

Chapter 1050

The thought of it made her brow furrow.

Looking at the tea served by the maids in front of me, I only felt that it was either poisonous or had something else in it.

The maid's attitude was good though, seeing her sitting still, she said softly, "Miss Jing, your tea."

In the end, Jenny was not good at getting angry at the maids, so he didn't say anything.

Only a cold voice said, "Put it there."

In fact, it was never even looked at.

The maid pursed her lips, not daring to say anything, and after putting the tea down, she left.

Only Jenny was left in the house again.

She sat there, not rushing to move, but taking a closer look at the house first.

The house is lavishly decorated, but the furnishings are quite simple.

She counted at least four security cameras installed as far as she could see with the naked eye right now.

What does this Nangong Jin want?

She wouldn't be naive enough to think that Nangong Jin had gone to such great lengths to capture her here and tie her up in chains just for fun.

But although she was a friend of Gu Si Qian and Bella Qiao, she considered herself to have no interaction with Nangong Jin, let alone any interest in it.

The Lu and Nan families are even more distinct, with no business involved.

So, what is he really selling?

Just as Jenny was puzzled, a cryptic voice suddenly came from outside.

"Jenny."

Jenny was shaken hard and subconsciously spoke out, "Mom, I'm here."

"Jenny!"

Mo Caiwei was running in crying.

I don't know if it was because she was old and because she couldn't do martial arts, but Nangong Jin didn't watch over her that closely.

At least, for the moment, she seemed to be moving relatively freely, rather than with her hands and feet tied like Jenny.

As soon as Mo Caiwei saw Jenny, she pounced over as if she had found her main heart, holding her face and looking her up and down, "Jenny, are you alright? Jenny?"

Jenny shook her head, "I'm fine."

She first quickly scanned Mo Caiwei's body and found that there was nothing unusual, much less like she was injured, before feeling slightly relieved.

"Mom, how are you? Did they hit you? Do you feel sick anywhere?"

"No, I'm fine."

Mo Caiwei said softly, but her body was trembling slightly.

Jenny knew that she was afraid because the sudden change of events now caused her to recall some bad memories inside her subconscious mind.

So she whispered reassuringly, "Don't be afraid, Mom, I'm here, we'll be fine."

Mo Caiwei nodded and asked against a pair of reddened eyes, "Jenny, who are they? Why did they catch us here?"

Jenny pursed her lips.

She wasn't sure if she should tell Mo Caiwei about it.

But if she didn't say anything, she would only worry more.

Thinking of this, Jenny Jing gritted his teeth and said in a deep voice, "They are the ones I mentioned to you before, the ones who threatened Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao to search for the Heavenly Book of Jade."

This was something that Jenny Jing had talked to her about when she was still in the T country.

So both Mo Caiwei and Quexu were aware of it.

Mo Caiwei's eyes widened at the news.

"You mean, they're from the Southern clan?"

"Well."

Jenny nodded.

"But...Why are the people of Nan's Family Cluster trying to arrest us?"

"I don't know."

Jenny Jing thought about it and said, "But you don't have to worry, they don't mean to take our lives, no matter what, it's not too early now, Biden Lu and Uncle Que will definitely know about the news of our accident, they will definitely find a way to save us, so we just need to relax, wait and see what happens, and wait for them to come."

Mo Caiwei white-knuckled and nodded.

Although Jenny Jing's mouth was comforting her like this, he actually understood in his heart.

Nangong Jin was different from the ones she had met before.

They knew so little about this person, and if it wasn't for what happened with Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao, it could be said that they had no idea that such a person existed in this world.

Not to mention, it turns out that in their minds, the huge millennial family Nan is actually being manipulated by such a person.

The high and mighty head of the Nan Clan, a position rumored to be above ten thousand people by outsiders, turned out to be a joke.

And for an enemy they didn't even know that well, it was actually hard to deal with him.

Even if they were as smart as Biden Lu, they might not be able to find them in a short time.

But all this she could not say to Mo Caiwei, lest her already fearful feelings should be made more fearful for these reasons.

Mo Caiwei was scared before, but now that she was reunited with Jenny, she was not as scared as before.

Jenny Jing was right, Biden Lu and Quexiu, would not let them go, so he just needed to calm down and wait for them to arrive.

Yeah, calm down, definitely calm down.

As she thought this, she dropped her eyes slightly and saw the chains locked around Jenny's wrists and ankles.

Eyes tight.

"Jenny, what's this?"

She grabbed the chains in one hand, her eyes bloodshot.

"How could they do this to you? You're still a pregnant woman, and this, this..."

Jenny was afraid that she would get excited, and even advised, "Mom, I'm fine, they're just preventing me from escaping, and besides, my movements aren't much restricted."

She said, pursing her lips and suddenly lowering her voice, whispering in an airy voice that only the two of them could hear, "There are cameras in the house, one behind you at four o'clock, one at twelve o'clock, one in the flower pot on your right foot, and one on the door, so pay attention and try to block them if you get a chance."

Mo Caiwei was slightly startled and subconsciously wanted to look up, but Jenny Jing stopped her.

"Don't look, pretend you don't know, and then quietly check later when you're not looking."

Only then did Mo Caiwei react, nodding her head incessantly.

They just stayed in the house.

Although Nangong Jin hadn't locked Mo Caiwei's hands and feet, there had been people guarding outside the house, saying that they were maids who did their bidding, but Jenny understood that they were actually the ones guarding them.

But she was now a pregnant woman, and Mo Caiwei was old, plus she couldn't do anything with her hands, so she was a weak woman with no hands.

Naturally, she didn't expect that the two of her would actually be able to escape from here.

So simply set her mind to braking with silence, she wanted to see what Nangong Jin really wanted.

At this time, on the other side, Biden Lu was going crazy.

He had never expected that, having reached this juncture, and seeing as he was about to return to China, this would happen.

Chapter 1051

Canning is his life. Root, if anything happened to Jenny, he wouldn't survive.

What's more, he still had two children with him, and no matter what happened to either of them, this was more than the Lu family could afford.

Quexu's face was also ugly.

After all these years of seclusion, this was the first time he'd ever encountered anything like this.

But he didn't blame anyone.

The first time they were told that the two were missing, they had sent their best men out immediately to look for them and check for clues.

And Biden Lu also used his own secret line and ordered them to search everywhere in the city for Jenny Jing and Mo Cai Wei's traces.

After the two of them judged that all the surrounding area was desert for hundreds of miles, the other party with two living people couldn't just escape by land.

And to take the empty road, Quexu had already sent someone to the airport before to wait, and anyone who was acting suspiciously would be stopped, so going by the empty road would be impossible.

They were now cut off from the road, so they had to stay in the city.

This way, you still had a chance of finding Jenny and Mo Caiwei.

After all these orders were given, they sat at home and waited for news.

It's the waiting that actually burns the mood.

Quexu looked at Biden Lu and asked, "Who do you think it was who did this to them?"

Biden Lu's face was very ugly.

He sat there with a raw, cold air all over his body and said in a cold voice, "Nangong Jin."

Quexu was a little appalled.

"Nangongjin?When did he come over here?"

Biden Lu just remembered that they didn't know that they had met Nangong Jin before.

So, they told them what happened that night.

Quexu listened and fell silent.

"If it's really him, then eighty percent of it is still for the matter of the Heavenly Book of Jade."

Biden Lu sneered.

"They've already threatened Kuskan they're helping him find something, do they need to threaten another me?"

"That's not necessarily true, after all, according to what you guys said, he wanted to find those pieces of heavenly jade before the New Year, but now he's still three whole pieces short, but there's only a little over a month left, and if Gu Siqian doesn't find them all in this month or so, it will spoil his big event, and everything he's prepared before will be ruined, so he'll have to find a way to threaten more people .Get more people to work for him."

Biden Lu frowned deeply at the words.

I have to say that Quexu's words make sense.

Nangong Jin didn't look like a person who was in a hurry, yet he insisted that Gu Si Qian find him all six pieces of heavenly jade within three months.

Although, by now, Gu Si Qian and the others should have another piece on their hands, now only three pieces short.

But how easy is it to find it in the short month and a half it takes to find it?

So, if he really wanted another helping hand, it wasn't impossible.

But if that was the case, they should have approached him for a deal the first time they caught Jenny and Mo Caiwei.

Why hasn't he shown up after eight hours now?

Biden Lu's mood grew more and more irritated.

And at this point, Ann and Little Competeze didn't know what was going on.

Little Jingze is still young enough to know only that Mommy hasn't returned by now, and keeps pulling the landing to ask questions.

Biden Lu didn't want to influence children, so he just said that Mommy had something to do, went out to do something and would be back soon.

Then they let the maid take the child down.

Ann, on the other hand, is not so easy to coax.

She was, after all, as old as she was, a nine-year-old who already knew something.

One look at how out of sorts they looked, and then remembering what had happened in the past, one could roughly guess that something had most likely happened to Jenny.

But at this time of year, Daddy is very upset and he must be worried about Mommy too, so he can't give him any trouble.

She just looked at Biden Lu and tearfully said, "Daddy, will Mommy come back?"

Biden Lu looked into her eyes and knew that she had guessed.

He had no desire to conceal it, but only said in a quiet voice, "Do you believe daddy?"

"Believe."

Ann nodded heavily.

"Then don't ask anything, go down and take care of your brother, and Daddy promises you that he will bring Mommy back safely."

Ann looked at him, and after a half-hearted moment, nodded and turned away.

Biden Lu looked at the child's small back, to say that he was not distressed would be a lie.

But now was the time of the fire, and he couldn't care less.

Quexu saw the situation and stood up.

"No, we can't wait like this any longer, I'll go out and find it myself."

"Stop."

Biden Lu suddenly called out to him.

"Will they come back if you go out and look for them yourself? Don't forget who you are, you have more important things to do."

Quexu was shaken hard and turned to look at him.

"Something more important?"

"Right."

Biden Lu coldly lifted the corner of his mouth.

"Since it was Nangong Jin who did it, what does he care about the most?"

Quexu was stunned.

"What?"

"Heavenly Book of Jade."

Biden Lu paused and said in a deep voice, "Didn't he refuse to come to us? That's because we don't have what he wants on hand yet, and what if we did? Then he might be anxious to come to us soon."

"What do you mean..."

"Just a moment, I'll call Gu Siqian and the others right away."

Biden Lu said, and quickly dialed a phone number over to Gu Si Qian.

Kusken was still a little surprised when he received his call.

You know, the relationship between him and Biden Lu was much closer now, but there was still very little direct contact between the two of them.

Usually, it was him who contacted Jenny.

Jenny then relayed his meaning to Biden Lu.

Therefore, as soon as the call came through now, Gu Si Qian asked, "Biden Lu, is there something wrong?"

Biden Lu said in a deep voice, "Jenny and Mo Caiwei were captured by Nangong Jin."

"What?"

Gu Si Qian was also surprised to no end.

"How did that happen? What's he grabbing them for?"

"I don't know."

Biden Lu pinched his brow, "Did you get that piece of heavenly jade over there in southern Yunnan?"

"Got it."

"Don't give it to Nangongjin yet, but if it's convenient, you may have to come over here, with a bit of a chip on your hand, I'm sure he'll show up."

When Jenny is in trouble, Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao are naturally obliged to help.

So right away, I agreed.

"Okay, we'll go look at flights right away and try to get here by tomorrow morning."

"Good." Biden Lu paused, and added in the end, "Great kindness is not to be thanked."

Kusken had a hard time smiling.

"Jenny was in trouble for us, so this thank you is unnecessary."

Chapter 1052

Everyone understood that Jenny Jing and Biden Lu both had no previous grudges against Nangong Jin.

It's safe to say that there's no crossover, either personally or business-wise.

Nangong Jin had no reason to deal with them at all.

The only plausible reason was that recently, they had been helping Gu Siqian and Bella Qiao search for the Heavenly Book of Jade.

Therefore, Gu Si Qian would never push this matter.

After they said goodbye, Biden Lu hung up the phone.

Quexu was right next to him just now, and was the one who heard what he was saying on the phone.

So now, seeing him hang up the phone, he asked, "So what do we do now? Just sit here and wait? When will that be?"

Biden Lu intoned, "If it's convenient, can you find out who the major heads behind the large industries in the city are?"

Quexu frowned.

He wasn't interested in the business side of things, so he'd never paid attention to that before.

However, his local prestige was still high after all, and even if he hadn't paid attention before, he would be able to find out quickly now if he really wanted to.

So he nodded.

"If you want to know, I can look it up right away."

"Then it's trouble for you to check, I always feel that it shouldn't be that simple for Nangong Jin to come over this time, he's been hibernating over here for so long, it's impossible that he doesn't have a specific place to settle, the people we sent out to search all the hotels before didn't find him, which means he can only be among his own private property."

Quexu nodded, "Okay, then I'll go right away and see if there's any private property that's related to the Nan Clan."

"Good, let me know right away if you hear anything."

"I know."

The queer accommodation left soon after.

After thinking about it, Biden Lu also called a few people, went out the door, and drove straight to the Goddess Palace.

Previously, they had learned that the Goddess Palace was now the property of the Nan Clan.

Last time, he also saw Nan Murong here, and although he didn't know what he was doing here, maybe he had something to do with this kidnapping case.

Biden Lu actually knew in his heart that it was unlikely that Nangong Jin would bring someone with him to hide in the Goddess Palace.

After all, this place belonged to the South family, and this matter was no secret.

He and Quexu, with a little bit of checking, could find out that someone like Nangong Jin would never have chosen this place as a landing spot if he really had saved his mind to prevent them from finding it.

He was now over there, not to find Nangong Jin, but to see if he could run into Nangmurong.

If we could run into it, we might be able to pry some clues out of Nan Mu Rong's mouth.

Even though I knew that this was unlikely, after all, Nan Murong was only a peripheral brother of the Nan Clan, and in Nangong Jin's heart, he might be nothing more than a dispensable pawn.

Nangong Jin would never really tell him what he wanted to do at all.

But now, at this point, you can only hold a dead horse and try all kinds of methods again.

Thinking this way, Biden Lu soon drove to the Goddess Palace.

The Goddess Palace at night was much quieter than during the day.

The devotees who had come to worship had left, and only a few staff members remained in the entire palace, who saw him and thought he was a pilgrim who had come to worship, and all of them saluted.

Biden Lu went straight to the main hall.

At this time, there was no more of the false hubbub of the daytime, but a few hints of the temple's solemnity were truly revealed.

He entered the main hall, only to see that there was no one in the main hall, and the golden body that was three to four meters tall was still standing there quietly, like an immortal that had descended from the heavens, looking down on the beings with a compassionate and loving gaze.

Biden Lu stood for a moment and looked into the side hall.

And I saw that there was a man standing there.

The man stood with his hands in the air, his back to him, in front of a portrait and was looking up at it.

That portrait was the same one that the little competitor had shouted pretty sister to it last time.

Biden Lu's brows drew together and stepped over.

"Mr. South, long time no see."

Nan Muiyoung turned back.

He also seemed surprised to meet Biden Lu here, and even asked, "Why are you here too?"

I said, glancing behind him and jokingly saying, "Yo, Mrs. Land didn't join you this time?"

Biden Lu's face was slightly pale.

He stared at Nan Murong, trying to see from his face if he was joking or if he really didn't know that Jenny had been captured by Nangong Jin.

However, Nan Muiyoung's face was so calm that he couldn't see anything.

It took a long time before Biden Lu spoke.

"I didn't expect to meet Mr. Nan here, it's so remote, I don't know what Mr. Nan is doing over here."

Nan Muiyoung's face showed a lost expression.

"What else to do, travel! I've had nothing to do lately, I wanted to come out for a walk, I came here when I heard the scenery was nice, this palace is said to have been here for many years, wish granting is most effective, is Mr. Lu also here to make a wish?"

Biden Lu coldly tugged at the corner of his lips.

"I never believed in that."

Nan Muiyoung raised an eyebrow.

"Oh? If you don't believe this, then why did you come here?"

He said, not knowing what came to mind, and his eyes turned suspiciously on him.

"It's the middle of the night, you're not here to beg for a son!"

Biden Lu's face sank.

Nan Murong also seemed to know that he had gone a little too far with the joke.

After all, really, strictly speaking, he was only a two-way acquaintance with Biden Lu and wasn't really familiar with him.

So haha perfunctory, "Don't mind, I'm just kidding, by the way, what are you doing over here? I always thought you'd returned home after you left Forest City, but are you coming over for fun or business this time?"

Biden Lu laughed coldly, "Go relatives."

If you come to your mother-in-law's house, you're visiting relatives, right?

"Oh?" Nan Muyoung nodded, but didn't ask any further questions.

After all, Biden Lu's relatives were none of his business.

They didn't know each other well, and they were in two camps, so it was quite a conversation to be standing here.

Nan Muyoung didn't want to talk about it any further, so he pointed outside.

"If there's nothing else, I'll leave first, so make yourself at home Lu?"

Biden Lu did not speak.

When Nan Muyoung saw this, he stepped outside.

However, only before taking two steps, the cold voice of Biden Lu came from behind him.

"Namaste."

"Well?" Nan Muyoung turned back.

In the night, Biden Lu stood in the dim light, long and jade, a pair of deep eyes dark like two black gems in the night sky, looking at him sinkingly.

"Nangongjin is over here too, don't you know?"

Nan Muyoung was stunned.

Immediately afterwards, the face changed.

"I don't know."
