

My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1051

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1051-Would they live like this every day, watched by Guy and Nial?

Charmine knew it in her guts that things would not go as smoothly.

As expected...

Guy received a text from Dior during his reading session outside.

[Brother! I overheard from Grandma that Charmine needs to drink honey green tea so her migraine would be eased.]

He frowned. Honey green tea? That was something common, though it would be nice nonetheless, even if it only alleviated a small percentage of the pain.

He kept his phone and looked around the room.

Anthony was with Charmine at the moment, and since she just had a migraine, the next one would not happen so soon.

He hurried downstairs and found some ingredients to make Charmine tea. 2

He never made tea before, only drinking water the whole time, thus he had to search up the recipe and steps to make the tea online.

Eventually, a perfect honey green tea was made.

With the tea at hand, Guy walked upstairs and saw Charmine working on a desk not far away, so he knocked on the door.

“Ms. Jordan, Dior said this tea can ease the side effects.” “Thank you.”

Charmine walked over to accept the tea.

Anthony, who was in the writing room, heard some movements and instantly walked over, seeing Charmine with outstretched hands and was about to receive the mug. 2

He instantly walked over and took the mug first. “Go and have a seat, Charmine. I’ll get it for you.”

Charmine was baffled at his behavior.

Taking the mug off of Guy’s hands, he then remarked, “Let the maids do this, Mr. Granger. You’re considered a guest here; you don’t have to do things by yourself.”

His tone sounded like a warning.

Lips contorted into a frown, Guy argued, “You don’t have to treat me with such hostility, Mr. Bailey. I’m merely trying to help Ms. Jordan.” 1

Anthony scoffed. Merely trying to help Ms. Jordan, he said? Ha!

He wanted to steal his woman!

“If you insist,” replied Anthony. “If you genuinely want the best for my Charmine, then by all means! You’ll make lunch for her today. I’ll write to you about her favorite dishes. You should also think of what other dishes you can make to ease her pain,” he added as he took up a pen and paper to start listing down the dishes. 1

Beef Wellington, Consomme, Turducken...

Each dish was extremely intricate and were all incredibly challenging to make.

After writing them down, he handed the paper to Guy.

“Here you go, Mr. Granger.’

He wanted the best for Charmine? He wanted to make her tea? Well, he might as well make her lunch! 3

How he would like to see if he could act all gallant again!

Guy's face stiffened. It was not that he did not want to cook for Charmine- it was just that he had never cooked before. He did not know how...

Charmine, who was by the side, stiffened at the exchange. Anthony was intentionally making it hard for Guy!

"Anthony, we have a chef at home," she interceded; she had to. "Let him do it..."

"Why? Do you feel sorry for him? Or is it that you don't want to tire him out?" questioned Anthony, and it was obvious in his demeanor that he did not sound pleased.

Charmine was stumped yet again.

Goodness, gracious! Her husband got jealous again. What else was there to do?

Guy basically bargained his life to save her. Would she have to let this hostility prolong?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1052-As Charmine was wrapped up in the tense turmoil, Guy took up the menu." You don't have to make it hard for Charmine, Mr. Bailey. Her feelings are solely for you, she doesn't feel bad for me. As for this menu, you'd think I'm making them for Ms. Jordan anyway if I complete them, but if I don't, you won't feel good either. If so, why don't we make them together? To kill some time and talk things out, so you don't assume things randomly." 2

Anthony's eyelids jumped and his brows were knitted tightly.

Did Guy just challenge him? He wanted him to make the dishes together?

Who did he think he was?

Also, Guy made it sound like Anthony was bullying him. He pulled the victim card!

Anthony had to turn this around!

His eyes darkened as he suddenly wound his arms around Charmine. "No need. You're a guest, after all. How can I let you cook? Now that you've mentioned it, Charmine and I will go and make them. You wait here," he concluded coldly as he headed downstairs with Charmine, his arms still around her.

His behavior flabbergasted Charmine.

Charmine feared that their little squabble would prolong which might grow into a full-blown argument. Who would have thought that Anthony would turn things around? 1

All of a sudden, he wanted to cook with her? Was this a way for them to publicly display their affection again?

Anthony had led her into the kitchen as she was lost in her thoughts. 1

He pulled her a chair and said to her, "Have a seat, I'll make it."

Charmine frowned. Sit...?

Spotting the man sitting in the living room, Anthony handed the apron to

Charmine. "Put it on for me." 1

His tone was low yet one that could not be challenged.

Charmine knew him too well. She knew what he was thinking, and so she let him.

She took the apron and tiptoed up to him, winding the strings around his neck and back, before she walked to the back to tie it up.

They were both so close that they looked like they were embracing one another, and the sight of it was the epitome of romance.

Guy was sitting in the living room, and since the kitchen was made of see through glass panels, he could see everything that happened in the kitchen.

Even though he knew Anthony did that on purpose, even though he knew Charmine was married, he still felt bitter. He could not help it. 1

This was the first woman he loved in his life, his first love, the one that unfortunately got away... 1

No, he must not feel emotional.

She was someone's wife. He must not feel anything, not even hurt.

Guy looked away and rested on the sofa.

Nial came down and saw Anthony and Charmine as well, He rubbed his eyes.

He was a single man, too...

Back in the kitchen, Anthony looked focused. After putting on the apron, he started preparing in front of the kitchen table.

Charmine approached him to help him with anything he needed, yet Anthony merely handed her a handkerchief. "If you can't stay put, you may help me to wipe off my sweat.” 1

Charmine eyed the scene outside. It was winter. The trees were bare as dried leaves laid scattered on the ground. She felt rather cold herself.

How would he sweat? How?

“What? You don’t want to let Guy see that you care for me?” Anthony suddenly asked.

Charmine’s hand jolted, though she then muttered, “No, I’ll wipe your sweat for you.”

She would have stood up to him, but this was Guy.

She had so many intimate moments with Guy, and Anthony would not just pretend like nothing happened nor forget. It was best for her to stay low.

With that, she held onto the handkerchief and reached out to wipe up

Anthony’s non-existent sweat. 2

The meal was prepared with a show.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1053-Nial and Guy went forward when the meal was ready, and the sight that greeted them puzzled them greatly.

On the large dining table was a beautifully plated set meal in front of Charmine and Anthony.

There was a heart-shaped egg, white wine prawn and others. It looked like a candle-light dinner.

Each item was doubled, and the portion was generous.

Guy and Nial, on the other hand, only had singles: one egg, one prawn, one chicken wing... 2

They only had one of everything!

“Bro, you’re cutting our food supply?” whined Nial.

“No, I merely want to remind you both that you should be aware of your singularity.” 5

Anthony said calmly though intentionally as well.

His words baffled Nial.

Really?

Did he have to do this to Guy, even during a meal?

Guy saw the food plating and understood Anthony’s warning.

He forewarned that he would never get in between them both.

Guy sat down to eat, and to avoid any conflict, he said nothing.

Anthony sat down beside Charmine with a smirk plastered on his face.

Using his fork and knife to a slice of beef, he then elegantly pushed them to Charmine.

Charmine finally knew how troublesome it was when a man got jealous. Things would grow hectic for two months if nothing was done to remedy this mess... 1

They were just having a simple meal, and they even had to sleep together tonight. She felt that it would not be as peaceful.

As expected, that night...

Charmine suffered no migraines throughout the remaining day, but that meant the two migraines would happen at night.

Even though everyone seemed calm and did not speak, they were all worried.

Nial and Guy slept on the floor— Nial slept on the outside while Guy faced the wall. Charmine and Anthony were inside the bedroom.

Charmine wore full-length pajamas. It had a high neck and completely covered her skin.

Despite that, however, Anthony laid restless in bed as his expression darkened in displeasure.

He thought of how Guy was sleeping just outside, and Charmine could see him once she got out. It soured Anthony.

Chris told him he had a way to make Charmine hate Guy. It was past ten, so why was there nothing yet?

Just as the thought occurred to him, a loud scream was heard coming from the outside.

It was Chris!

Charmine frowned. She ran out instantly while Anthony and Nial followed behind her.

In the mini pantry on the second floor, Chris fell on the floor in a pitiable manner.

Guy, meanwhile, stood nearby with an empty glass at hand, face contorted with helplessness.

When Charmine came, Chris instantly ran over and wailed hoarsely, " Mommy, Mommy... Waa...! Don't hate Momo! Don't leave Momo!"

Charmine pulled him into her arms as she gushed, “Of course I won’t do that. I never said I’d leave you. Why would you say that?” “Waa.J Him... Uncle Guy said that...”

Chris looked at Guy and continued, “Uncle Guy said that with me around, people will only know you as a step-mother. He yelled at me, saying I shouldn’t be around. He said that Mommy has been through a lot of pain with Daddy... He said you’re someone amazing, and you shouldn’t be a stepmother. He said I should be nice to you and then accidentally bumped into me...”

As he spoke, he cried as if he was wronged.

Charmine frowned as her gaze trailed to Guy who stood by the side. 3 Did Guy just bully a child?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1054-To Charmine, was not that type of man. He would not bully a child.

However, Chris’ claims were not impossible.

Guy harbored feelings for her, so could he have said such things to Chris because of her?

Before she could speak, Anthony scoffed at Guy coldly, “Mr. Granger, this is our family matter. You don’t have to teach my son!” “This is a misunderstanding; I didn’t say that. I saw him talking to someone, complaining how his stepmother mistreated him. I merely told him off...” Guy explained with a serious face, i Charmine narrowed her eyes.

Chris complaining about his stepmother?

Impossible!

Chris could never speak badly of her. He would never refer to her as his stepmother.

It seemed that Guy had...

She then looked at Chris who sobbed in her arms-he seemed wronged.

She had to pat Chris's little shoulder and said to Guy, 'Thank you Mr. Granger.

No matter what Chris says in the future, kindly refrain from berating him. He's young, he can't take it."

With that said, she held onto Chris' tiny hand and led him into his bedroom.

Guy chased after them. "Ms. Jordan, this is a misunderstanding--"

Before he could finish, Anthony blocked him and glared daggers into him." Mr. Granger, I'm grateful that you're transfusing blood for my woman. You may ask for any sum of money or any request. However, do stay away from my woman and child. Please keep your distance."

With that said, he turned and followed Charmine and Chris.

Guy remained transfixed on the spot. As he watched them leave, the anger welled up within him so much that he wanted to punch the wall.

He was wronged!

He did not lie. Chris framed him!

Well, Charmine must have already assumed he was a petty man with that.

Inside Chris' bedroom...

Chris sat by the side as he took Charmine's hand. 'Thank you for trusting me, Mommy. Don't blame Uncle Guy, what he said was true. Marrying Daddy is quite challenging, and I am just an extra..." "Alright, Momo, stop saying that. You're not an extra. I adore you the most, and I wouldn't be with your Daddy without you. Once I've recovered, I'll ask Guy to leave," Charmine comforted Chris.

Chris' eyes twinkled. 'Thank you, Mommy!'

Charmine put him to sleep and went back to the room with Anthony.

What she did not notice was that Chris made an 'okay' gesture to Anthony.

Concurrently, Guy was already sleeping on the floor outside the bedroom. He wanted to say something when he saw them coming in when he noticed the look on Anthony's face.

Since Charmine would not speak to him, he could only stay silent. He watched as Charmine and Anthony walked into their bedroom and closed the door, i Guy grew crestfallen at the closed door.

He was a full-grown, adult man yet was put through this.

Any other man would have left if he was in Guy's shoes, but this was Charmine... She needed him...

Just as the bitterness crept into his mind, his phone vibrated.

He took it out and noticed it was a text from Charmine.

[Mr. Granger, I'm sorry. I know Momo framed you, but with Anthony being jealous and Momo caring for me, I don't want them to feel bad or cause any more conflict. Sorry to have wronged you these days; I owe you one. I'll repay you in the future!] 1

After reading that, Guy instantly felt better.

Charmine did know Chris framed him after all!

Charmine did not misunderstand him. That was good!

The joy he felt at that moment, however, was fleeting as he grew sad once more.

Even though she knew, she chose to hurt him instead of making Chris sad or Anthony jealous...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1055-Was Guy supposed to be happy or sad?

Inside the bathroom...

Charmine knew about the lie right off the bat, but if she picked Guy's side, Chris might have a seizure while Anthony would also assume she liked Guy.

She hoped Guy could understand her determination to protect Anthony and Chris.

However, Guy was risking his life to save her, and they genuinely did him dirty, so she went to the bathroom to quickly text him before deleting the message.

She would be in for one hell of a time if Anthony found out about it.

She had too many contacts with Guy. Anthony remembered them all... i

Once she made sure she deleted the text, she walked out from the bathroom.

Anthony, meanwhile, sat before the window in the bedroom. He wore a hardened expression as the glass window reflected his elegant figure.

He looked at his own reflection, his eyes dull.

Chris said he knew how to make Charmine hate Guy. Was that his plan then?

It seemed he had succeeded.

However, since when did he have to dish out such a dirty trick?

When he saw Charmine coming out of the bathroom, he gazed at her with wonderstruck eyes.

Even though she suffered migraines for the past few days, she looked as beautiful as she always did.

Whatever. He had a stunning wife, and if he did not pull anything like that, she might be stolen from him!

For her, he did not mind being mean.

Just as the two were falling asleep, Charmine had a migraine again.

This time, Nial and Guy rushed in from the outside and they injected blood into her proficiently.

This time, the pain only lasted for less than 15 seconds, much to Guy's relief.

Anthony looked at his arm. There were so many scars caused by the transfusion, and they looked painful.

Furthermore, Charmine did not even trust him earlier. She said mean things to him, yet he did not seem to mind? He was still so kind to her?

How much did he love Charmine that he willingly endured it all? 2

Anthony felt sour.

Whatever. Chris could do whatever he liked!

A nice man like Guy...even he might fall for him!

The next morning, something happened again.

When Charmine and Anthony went downstairs, a maid walked over and said, “Sir, Madam, we have a situation. Numerous people sent in flowers, letters, and many gifts!”

Charmine frowned. Fresh flowers and gifts?

For whom?

Suspiciously, she walked out with them and spotted a pile of gift boxes by the corner of the villa, and there was also another pile of flowers nearby.

A handful of cards were placed on top, and some of them read: [Long time no see, Guy. I miss you.] [Dear, do you remember our time in the bar?] [Guy darling, I’m waiting for you to fulfill your promise xx]

The contents raised Charmine’s goosebumps.

Guy’s face flushed red as he quickly explained to Charmine, “I genuinely don’t know who sent these. I’ve never been with any woman! You have to trust me this time!”

Anthony, standing in front of Charmine, jolted.

‘This time? Since when did she trust you?’ 1

His eyes were cold like ice, his tone sharp and hostile. Charmine’s eyelids jumped. Ah, curses! Guy slipped up!

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1056-All hell would break loose if Anthony found out they texted last night.

Just as Charmine internally scrambled to find a viable explanation, Guy already came up with an excuse as he spoke, “When the investigation shows that the Granger had the red wolf bone, Ms. Jordan didn’t doubt me. I wanted to say that these flowers have nothing to do with me, and I don’t know the people who sent me these gifts.”

It was better he did not mention this, but as he talked about it, Anthony thought of how Guy and Charmine spent so much time together.

Behind his back, they went into action every night. They risked their lives together, and they even went to the forest...

His face suddenly turned cold as his words matched his steely tenacity,” Mr. Granger, we’re not interested in knowing whether you know them or not. We’re not interested in your private life. You don’t have to explain to us.”

With that said, he placed his hands on Charmine’s waist and walked upstairs together.

Guy remained transfixed there. He felt wronged.

This had indeed nothing to do with them, nothing to do with Charmine, and Charmine did not care.

He cared, though...

He did not want to come across as a playboy, i

After Charmine went up with Anthony, when they were turning at the corner, she glanced at Guy.

Her eyes were calm and did not seem angry. In fact, it was a form of silent comfort.

She knew it must have been Chris. They wronged him, and it was not easy for him to take all the blame.

She was already thinking of ways to repay Guy once everything was over, i The downcast Guy regained his spirits upon seeing Charmine's gaze.

Of course. Charmine was clever, so it was only logical she could see through these tricks. She would not wrong him.

Still...she did not want to expose Anthony and Chris.

They were a family.

Anthony went into the bedroom with Charmine, though he could make out that something had happened between Charmine and Guy.

However, he was met with the calm and emotionless Charmine when he looked at her.

Was he overthinking things?

Whatever.

Time had passed, and noon came.

After school, the elated Chris walked out of the school gate with his backpack.

Uncle Guy wanted to steal his Mommy away, was he? Not a chance!

It was not enough, though. He had to make Charmine hate Guy a little more every day in the following two months! i

When he got into Luke's car, he saw an old man selling a kitten by the gate.

There were seven to eight kittens, and after a while, only one small white kitten was left.

The white kitten was cleanly washed and was incredibly adorable. It was only as big as a mouse, and it looked cute and fluffy.

However, its paw was somehow wounded, and it was due to how severe it looked that nobody bought it. i “Uncle Luke, stop the car!” Chris called out. “I want to buy the kitten!” ‘Young master, this is a stray cat. They’re hard to tame, and they might harm humans...’ Luke warned him.

Chris was determined. “It’s okay, I want to buy it. Pull over!”

Luke had no choice but to pull over, and Chris got out upon opening the door.

When the old man saw him, he instantly said, “I’ve vaccinated the kitten. It had a bad fall, but if you take good care of it, it’ll recover. You’re a good kid, so bring it with you. I’ll give it to you for free...” ‘Thank you, Sir. I’ll take good care of the kitten.’ Chris insisted the old man keep the 100 bucks before taking the kitten with him.

Eyes twinkling, Chris cooed to the kitten in a low voice, “White kitten, don’t be scared. I’ll treat your wounds later.”

In the dark, an elegant figure was sitting in a car. It was Max.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1057-All hell would break loose if Anthony found out they texted last night.

Just as Charmine internally scrambled to find a viable explanation, Guy already came up with an excuse as he spoke, “When the investigation shows that the Granger had the red wolf bone, Ms. Jordan didn’t doubt me. I wanted to say that these flowers have nothing to do with me, and I don’t know the people who sent me these gifts.”

It was better he did not mention this, but as he talked about it, Anthony thought of how Guy and Charmine spent so much time together.

Behind his back, they went into action every night. They risked their lives together, and they even went to the forest...

His face suddenly turned cold as his words matched his steely tenacity,” Mr. Granger, we’re not interested in knowing whether you know them or not. We’re not interested in your private life. You don’t have to explain to us.”

With that said, he placed his hands on Charmine’s waist and walked upstairs together.

Guy remained transfixed there. He felt wronged.

This had indeed nothing to do with them, nothing to do with Charmine, and Charmine did not care.

He cared, though...

He did not want to come across as a playboy, i

After Charmine went up with Anthony, when they were turning at the corner, she glanced at Guy.

Her eyes were calm and did not seem angry. In fact, it was a form of silent comfort.

She knew it must have been Chris. They wronged him, and it was not easy for him to take all the blame.

She was already thinking of ways to repay Guy once everything was over, i The downcast Guy regained his spirits upon seeing Charmine's gaze.

Of course. Charmine was clever, so it was only logical she could see through these tricks. She would not wrong him.

Still...she did not want to expose Anthony and Chris.

They were a family.

Anthony went into the bedroom with Charmine, though he could make out that something had happened between Charmine and Guy.

However, he was met with the calm and emotionless Charmine when he looked at her.

Was he overthinking things?

Whatever.

Time had passed, and noon came.

After school, the elated Chris walked out of the school gate with his backpack.

Uncle Guy wanted to steal his Mommy away, was he? Not a chance!

It was not enough, though. He had to make Charmine hate Guy a little more every day in the following two months! i

When he got into Luke's car, he saw an old man selling a kitten by the gate.

There were seven to eight kittens, and after a while, only one small white kitten was left.

The white kitten was cleanly washed and was incredibly adorable. It was only as big as a mouse, and it looked cute and fluffy.

However, its paw was somehow wounded, and it was due to how severe it looked that nobody bought it. i “Uncle Luke, stop the car!” Chris called out. “I want to buy the kitten!” ‘Young master, this is a stray cat. They’re hard to tame, and they might harm humans...’ Luke warned him.

Luke had no choice but to pull over, and Chris got out upon opening the door.

When the old man saw him, he instantly said, “I’ve vaccinated the kitten. It had a bad fall, but if you take good care of it, it’ll recover. You’re a good kid, so bring it with you. I’ll give it to you for free...” ‘Thank you, Sir. I’ll take good care of the kitten.’ Chris insisted the old man keep the 100 bucks before taking the kitten with him.

Eyes twinkling, Chris cooed to the kitten in a low voice, “White kitten, don’t be scared. I’ll treat your wounds later.”

In the dark, an elegant figure was sitting in a car. It was Max.

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1058-Max watched as Chris got back into the car that drove away soon after. His lips curled up darkly.

So, Charmine did not want to cure Waverly and interrupted his plan of using the voice recording, did she?

Using this child was of no concern to him!

Oh, how he wanted to see how everything panned out on this day!

At Violet Residence...

Since the migraine could strike at any time, Charmine had to work from home, and the all-too-worried Anthony asked his staff to bring his work to him as well.

With that, both him and Charmine worked in the same office.

At that moment, someone cried out loud from downstairs.

“Mommy! Mommy! Waa..J Mommy!”

Chris was crying!

Charmine frowned. What was Chris pulling this time?

She rushed down with Anthony and saw that Chris was crying with a kitten in hand in the living room.

The kitten in his hands was wounded; it was bleeding.

Guy, standing by the side, was confused.

Charmine frowned and asked, “What happened, Momo?”

He sobbed and sniveled pitifully. “I brought home a kitten today, Mommy, but Uncle Guy saw it and said you might be allergic to it... He also said that animals like this have many germs, so he threw and wounded the kitten... Waa...!”

He cried in between sentences as he held the kitten.

“Mommy, look, the kitten is so severely wounded. Uncle Guy hates small animals. He has no patience and love-he’s so violent...!” 5

Guy’s expression turned green as he stood by the side.

Was Chris intending to keep lying about him?

He had done nothing! The kitten was already hurt when Chris brought it back, and Chris suddenly burst into tears once he saw him...

He had framed him twice. Was he framing him all over again?

Charmine saw that Chris’ acting was too refined; it was as if his tears could roll down for free. Just as she was about to go and comfort him, however...

The kitten in Chris' arms seemed to be shocked. With a loud meow, it jumped and launched at her.

It was too fast, and the kitten scratched Charmine's arm, leaving a long scar in its wake. 1

Both Anthony and Guy were alarmed at that, and they both tried to catch the kitten.

However, the kitten seemed out of control. It launched at Guy with agility.

Before Guy could do anything, a long scratch was made on his palm, and fresh blood shot out.

Instantly, Charmine, Anthony, and Nial-who just got down-were startled.

Guy was hurt!

Guy's blood type was too rare, and even one drop of it was priceless. Things would escalate to a different degree if he got infected.

Nial reacted quickly. He took the first-aid kit and rushed down.

Although Guy did not like Guy, he knew this was a serious matter.

He reached out and caught the kitten before he quickly tossed it into a box and closed it up.

The kitten went wild inside the box as it struggled vehemently.

Charmine frowned. "The cat is strange. Stay away from it."

Chris was dumbfounded. He had no idea how it got out of hand...

The kitten was so tame. Why did it turn feral all of a sudden?

Nial frowned. ‘The blood flow isn’t stopping. We need to retrieve the R factor right away!’ 1

Retrieval? 1

That would take at least half an hour...

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1059-Anthony’s expression darkened as he stood by the side.

He realized a major flaw in the situation: If Charmine knew it all along, this showed that Charmine fully trusted Guy. 1

It was only with that-her trusting Guy-that she would know Chris made up everything.

Did She trust Guy that much?

Forget about trust. Guy did not seem to mind being framed, and he even took it all in.

How would a fully grown man like him tank it all in? How could he even sleep peacefully? 1

Charmine must have said things to him privately!

It made sense... No wonder he sensed something had happened between Charmine and Guy.

They talked to one another behind his back!

Anthony glared at Charmine. “Follow me!”

He marched up the stairs as his gait seemed menacing.

Charmine frowned. Why was Anthony so angry? Did he notice something?

With that, she retrieved the needles from Guy before she followed Anthony up the stairs.

Sensing something had happened, Nial took care of Chris instead, i

Upon entering the bedroom, Anthony closed the door.

He glared at Charmine coldly. “Be honest, Charmine. Are you secretly in touch with Guy?”

Charmine’s heart skipped a beat. As expected, Anthony hit the nail on the head.

This man was terrifyingly observant!

If she admitted to it, Anthony would...

Seeing that she did not speak, Anthony scoffed, “What? You want me to recover your data on your phone?”

Charmine was stunned at that.

Well, there was no point in hiding it since he guessed it right off the bat.

“Yes,” she confessed, “I owe him a favor. Other than that, there’s nothing else.”

1

Anthony’s face instantly darkened.

While he had guessed it, it was still tough listening to the fact from her.

They lived under the same roof, yet Charmine secretly texted Guy behind his back! 1

If she wanted to, would she sleep with Guy behind his back, thinking he would not notice?

Sensing the silent anger coming from him, Charmine argued, “I think something's wrong with your head! I knew that both you and Chris had been framing Guy, but I cared for your feelings so much that I didn't expose you. Doesn't that show how much I love you both? Guy is helping me, and all I did was send him a text. Do you have to make a big fuss out of it?" 4 "So you're saying that I'm over-reacting?" Anthony's eyes were glazed with cold, hard ice. Charmine was flabbergasted by his comeback.

'That's not what I meant. I'm only saying that there's nothing between Guy and I. You don't have to be angry...' 1

The more she explained, the angrier Anthony seemed to her. She was genuinely at a loss for words. 2

At that moment, Nial rushed up and knocked on the door.

"Bro, it's bad! Grandma called; she wants you to visit them, and with Charmine, too!"

Charmine frowned.

That urgently?

How could she go, knowing an onslaught of migraines awaited her? Were they supposed to bring Guy with them then?

Warning: My Mommy Is A Savage By Seeking A Peaceful Chapter 1060-The Baileys did not seem pleased about what happened between Charmine and Guy. They were about to cause her more trouble.

Charmine had been too busy in the past two days that she did not go back to the Bailey mansion with Anthony.

Since they were asking to see both her and Anthony, it had to be the issue regarding Guy.

How could she bring Guy with them under such circumstances?

Grandma is threatening to end her life if you two don't go back. Furthermore, she already prepared the rope to hang herself. She hung herself once, and if Senior Bailey didn't pull her down that one time, she might've..." 1

Nial felt overwhelmed at the situation he was in.

Charmine frowned. After a moment of thought, she said, "Let's go. We'll have to face them eventually; no point dragging it on." 1 "Your migraine..." Nial fretted. "Bring Guy along," said Charmine.

"What?" Nial was perplexed at her suggestion, and Anthony frowned as well. She still wanted to bring Guy with them, even in this situation?

Charmine met their gazes. "We have to fix this situation anyway. If Guy comes with us, he can even verify what I say. Grandma Bailey will feel more at ease with that." 1

Anthony's eyes darkened.

Not long after, they were all driven to the Bailey mansion.

With Nial driving, Guy sat in the front passenger seat.

Charmine, Chris, and Anthony sat in the back.

Chris cuddled into Charmine's arms while he looked up at the man on the passenger's seat from time to time. He raised his chin at him from time to time, showing how close he was with Charmine. 1

Anthony's eyes darkened. He loathed Guy, yet they had to bring him home anyway?

Charmine sat by the side of the window. Was she peeking at Guy?

It was supposed to be just the three of them, yet they just had to bring this other man with them...

His large hand in his pocket tightened. After he recomposed himself, he threw a look at Chris.

Understanding his stare, Chris said to Charmine, "Mommy, you don't have to be nervous. Daddy has talked things out with the seniors at home, and they like you very much. The original wedding ceremony was grand, all our relatives had prepared you expensive gifts, and Grandpa even helped you all to entertain the guests. You would've officially become Mrs. Bailey by now had that accident not happened."

Chris would shoot Guy glares from time to time as he spoke.

Guy was already thinking of ways to help Charmine fix this problem with the Baileys. After all, everything started because of him.

When Guy heard what Chris said, he felt even guiltier, thus he solemnly spoke, "Don't worry, I'll help Ms. Jordan to explain everything when we're there."

Anthony's expression turned hostile yet again.

Guy was always so protective of Charmine. It was apparent that he cared for Charmine.

Since when did he need another man to protect his woman?

The car pulled over by the Bailey mansion.

Anthony went down first, disregarding Chris at that moment as he went around the car to open the door for Charmine. He even reached out his hand for her. 1

Charmine naturally hooked her arms around his and walked by his side.

Anthony took the opportunity to whisper lowly, “Remember: If you come close to Guy again, I’ll make you pay for it—past and present.”

His magnetic voice resonated in her ears.

Charmine frowned, though she spoke nonetheless, “Rest assured.” 2 The two of them walked inside with Chris. Guy and Nial followed behind.